Graduates reflect with gratitude on their experiences at PRHS

PLYMOUTH — The Class of 2017 at Plymouth Regional High School was full of gratitude for their teachers, administrators, parents and volunteers had paved the pathway to lead them along the road to success.

Valedictorian Lilly Friedman of Holderness, described by SAU 48 Superintendent Mark Halloran as the “brightest, classiest young woman I ever met,” said it was an immense honor to speak before the graduates last Saturday morning. Taking a look back on the past four years in high school she said at time the years may have seemed rather long, but in retrospect, they all flew by, filled with people and memories that she will carry with her in the future.

“No way could I ever name everyone who has touched my life at PRHS but is has truly been an amazing four years and I thank everyone,” Friedman said at the start of her speech.

On a more serious note she told classmates “intolerance is not tolerable” and reminded them all that, as graduates, they now had

Ashland selectmen vote not to renegotiate contract with employees' union

BY DAVID RUELL
Contributing Writer

ASHLAND — At their June 5 meeting, the Ashland Selectmen declined to renegotiate the union contract, voted to begin the installation of a fire alarm system in the Town Hall, opened the bids for paving part of River Street, and discussed other issues, including roads, the big tree in Memorial Park and the legal expenses of the Trustees of Trust Funds.

Before the public meeting began, the Selectmen held a non-public session with the Electric Commissioners, union representatives and other interested parties to consider the request of the Electric Commissioners to renegotiate the contract with the town employees union that was approved by the Town's voters in March. As the first order of business in the public part of the meeting, the Selectmen voted unanimously to not reopen the negotiations over the union contract.

At their May 15 meeting, considered a proposal from Mango Security to install a fire alarm system in the Town Hall, the only town building that does not have a monitored fire alarm system, although it does have battery powered smoke detectors, which would warn any occupants, but no one else. Fire Chief Steve Heath noted at that meeting that if a fire was not detected in time, the Town Office, Police Station and town records could all be lost. The Selectmen were receptive to installing a system, but were not pleased with the $25,000 estimated cost. They asked the Mango representative to propose a phased installation of the fire alarms. Town Administrator Charlie Smith explained that the June 5 meeting that the new proposal

Young Walter and Teddy of New Hampton had the chance to get their photo taken with Sparky the Fire Dog when their family stopped by the New Hampton Public Safety Fair last Saturday.

As part of the New Hampton Public Safety Fair last weekend, firefighters demonstrated their ability to rescue people trapped in a car, using the Jaws of Life and other tools at their disposal.

Four-year-old Eli Tyrell watched as Molly, the New Hampshire Fire Marshal's Office's K9 Accelerant dog, sniffed out the drop of gasoline placed on his sneaker as a demonstration of her skills in arson detection cases.

Public Safety Fair gives offers a look at vital work done by police, firefighters, and state agencies

BY DONNA RHODES
dhrhodes@salmonpress.news

NEW HAMPTON — Education and fun headlined the New Hampton Public Safety Fair last Saturday, with many agencies and organizations taking part in an day that showed citizens not only all that firefighters and police do to protect the public, but the role of other vital agencies such as New Hampshire Fish and Game, the Department of Safety's Fire Marshal's Office, Lakes Region Mutual Fire Aid Association and the Civil Air Patrol.

Inside the New Hampton Life Safety complex, several people tested their reflexes and responses by using the police department's "Drunk Goggles" to walk a straight line.

"Boy, that's not as easy as you may think," commented one participant.

Many also visited the fire department's booth where they could learn the basics of CPR through practice dummies provided by the New Hampton Fire Fighters Association.

"We're showing people how to do two-minute CPR today," said Firefighter Kendall Hughes, president of NHFFA. "Two minutes, two hands save lives."

The fire department also welcomed their friend Sparky the Fire Dog who was happy to pose for photos with all the boys and girls, while NHFFA also passed out Junior Volunteer Fire-fighter stickers to all the boys and girls.

Outside the safety complex, a trailer from Lakes Region Mutual Fire Aid Association demonstrated their vital importance in emergency dispatch communications and the Department of Safety's Residential Sprinkler trailer educated the public about the life-saving measures of smoke detectors through a realistic simulation.

Fish and Game Officer Josiah Towne invited everyone to learn more about wildlife and outdoor safety as well. His display trailer from Fish and Game was well stocked with examples of all types of wildlife that call New Hampshire home. As part of the display there were large turtle shells, pine martin and bobcat furs, and even deer and moose antlers.

"This is all about conservation and the wise use of resources," he told everyone who gathered at the trailer. "Our job is to make sure there's always wildlife in our future."

Towne also discussed the important role of N.H. Fish and Game in keeping people safe in the outdoors and reminded boys and girls to never venture out into the woods or ponds on their own.

trained K9 dogs were another highlight in the day.

Stacey Dubois, a District Chief for the New Hampshire State Fire Marshal's Office, led off with a demonstration of the skills of her specially trained arson dog Molly.

Molly is a nine-year-old yellow Labrador Retriever who has been trained in the detection of fire accelerants, such as gasoline and other incendiary materials.

As an Accelerant Detection K9, Dubois explained that Molly is always ready to go to work. Labradors are the ideal canines for such duties since they are food driven with a great sense of smell and are happy to get a reward whenever they do what is expected.

Unlike most dogs, Molly eats small meals several times throughout a day so her stomach is never too full when she's called in to work.

To demonstrate Molly's skills, Dubois set out several cans, only one of which contained a fire accelerant. The dog sniffed her way along the layout and sat down as soon as she smelled the gas accelerant. For a reward Dubois bent down to hand Molly some kibble, right beside the can she correctly identified.

"I want her to know that this is what she was looking for so I reward her right at the source," said Dubois.

Next up was Bristol Police Officer Nick Kelley and his K9 partner Arro. Kelley and Arro first showed off Arro's agility skills then brought in New Hampton Police Officer Steve Marsh who donned a "bite arm." On command, Arro went after Marsh to demonstrate the ways in which he can assist in apprehending any suspect.

"Even with the sleeve on, you could really feel the strength of his bite. He did a good job," said Marsh.

While boys and girls enjoyed several of the activities throughout the day, Molly and Arro were definitely their favorites.

"I liked Arro. He's really cute," said one girl, while four-year-old Eli Tyrrell enjoyed having Molly sniff out the drop of gas placed on his sneaker, proving how easily she could detect an arson suspect.

New Hampton Fire Department also gave interesting and informative demonstrations on what it takes to remove accident victims from a car with their Jaws of Life and other rescue tools.

The New Hampshire Civil Air Patrol handed out information on their organization; Girl Scouts were on hand with balloons and other treats for children, while the New Hampton Fire Fighters Association provided free hamburgers and hot dogs for all. There were also raffles to benefit Easter Seals and the New Hampton Garden Club.

SLA to host fern discovery walk in Chamberlain Reynolds Memorial Forest

HOLDERNESS — Join the Squam Lakes Association (SLA) on June 16 from 10 a.m. to noon for a morning of discovery and adventure in Chamberlain Reynolds Memorial Forest. Join intern Elizabeth Wolf as she takes a look at the biological and cultural history of ferns, the key physical structures and their uses, and their role in the environment. We'll then explore Chamberlain Reynolds and practice identifying common species of ferns within the forest. Participants will be given materials to put in their hiking backpacks to continue guided learning in the future.

Ferns play an active role in a wetland environment and for ecosystem stabilization as a whole, yet most people walk right by expansive clusters that often blanket the forest floor. While ferns have been around in their modern form for more than 350 million years, the unique structures of these plants have not changed dramatically in that time. Come kick-off the summer's first Adventure Ecology program to learn about these ancient plants.

By the end of the walk, participants will be able to identify five fern species and their defining features, and become more aware of the important role these overlooked plant superstars play in the ecosystem. We'll be learning trail-side as we walk through the diverse landscape of Chamberlain Reynolds Memorial Forest and participants will be equipped to continue learning and discovery in the future.

The guided discovery begins at 10 a.m. at Chamberlain Reynolds Memorial Forest's West Parking Lot on College Road in Center Harbor. For more information, or to sign up for this Adventure Ecology Program, visit the SLA Web site ([www.squam lakes.org](http://www.squam lakes.org)) or contact the SLA directly (968-7336). The SLA also offers other Adventure Ecology trips throughout the summer. Every Friday from June 16 through Aug. 18, these free program are open to the public and cover a variety of nature and conservation related topics. The Adventure Ecology programs are presented by the Squam Conservation Interns who spend their summers on Squam performing important conservation work in support of the Association's mission.

Plymouth Area Democrats welcome NH Sen. Dan Feltes on June 21

PLYMOUTH — On Wednesday, June 21, New Hampshire Sen. Dan Feltes will be the keynote speaker at the Plymouth Area Democrats (PAD) meeting at the Plymouth Regional Senior Center. Feltes serves as a State Senator for New Hampshire Senate District 15, representing the communities of Concord, Henniker, Hop-kinton, and Warner. A minority member of the Senate Finance Committee, Feltes recently co-authored a Concord Monitor Forum piece entitled, “Why we can’t afford the Senate Republican budget” with fellow State Senator Lou D’Allesandro. Feltes is guided by the fundamental belief that “to move New Hampshire forward, we cannot afford to leave anyone behind.” Before serving in the State Senate, Feltes worked for the better part of a decade as a public interest attorney for New Hampshire Legal Assistance, representing low-to-middle income families and individuals, senior citizens, victims of domestic violence, and veterans. In addition to advocating in court, he was a community organizer and policy advocate. For four years he led the Housing Justice Project, overseeing the staff, grants, and legal work on housing access issues, including fighting housing discrimination and stopping foreclosures by big banks. In 2013, Feltes received the NH Bar Foundation’s Robert E. Kirby award which is presented to “New Hampshire attorneys 35 or younger who exhibit exceptional skill, civility and professionalism.” Feltes has a law degree from the University of Iowa and a Master’s degree in Public Policy from Georgetown University, focusing on economics and energy regulation. In his first term in the State Senate, Feltes received numerous awards for his bipartisan work on critical issues facing Granite Staters. He was named an Early Learning Champion in both 2015 and 2016 by Early Learning NH for his bipartisan work on early childhood education, including full-day kindergarten. Feltes received Legislator of the Year awards in 2015 from the NH Homebuilders, and in 2016 from Housing Action NH, from Ski New Hampshire, and from New Futures, with the latter awarded for his bipartisan work to combat the heroin and opioid crisis. Also in 2016, Feltes received the first Kennedy-Clinton award from the NH Democratic Party.

Feltes and his wife Erin live in Concord, and both grew up in working class families. Their upbringing was the foundation of Feltes’ commitment to ensuring opportunity for everyone, not just the elite or well-connected few.

All are welcome to attend the PAD meeting, which will start at 5:30 p.m. with a potluck dinner. Senator Feltes will speak at 6:45 p.m., following a brief business meeting. For more information, call Joyce Weston at 536-2856.

HAMILTON, N.Y. — Jason Alexander, of Rumney is now a graduate of Colgate University in the Class of 2017. Alexander majored in History & Japanese.

Alexander, A graduate of New Hampton School, received a Bachelor of Arts degree Summa Cum Laude at Colgate’s 196th Commencement, May 21. Poet and Yale professor Claudia Rankine delivered the keynote address. The entire ceremony can be viewed here. Images can be viewed and downloaded from the event.

Colgate University is a highly selective residential liberal arts institution distinguished by its commitment to global engagement, student-faculty research, off-campus study, sustainable practices, and the utilization of technology to enhance the teaching and learning experience.

Colgate offers 55 majors to a diverse student body of approximately 2,900 undergraduate students, and supports 25 Division I athletic teams. The university’s 575-acre campus in rural central New York is renowned for its beauty and for the important role it plays in the student experience.

Anglea of Rumney graduates from Clemson University

CLEMSON, S.C. — Timothy B. Anglea of Rumney graduated from Clemson University with a Master of Science in Electrical Engineering.

Anglea was among more than 3,400 students who received degrees in the four May 11 and 12 commencement ceremonies at Littlejohn Coliseum.

Ranked No. 23 among national public universities, Clemson University is a major, land-grant, science- and engineering-oriented research university that maintains a strong commitment to teaching and student success. Clemson is an inclusive, student-centered community characterized by high academic standards, a culture of collaboration, school spirit, and a competitive drive to excel.

Ace of Space Self Storage joins as donor to Keep the Heat On!

PLYMOUTH — If you were there for the annual Keep the Heat On (KTHO) fuel assistance fundraiser in January, you experienced the fabulous Winter Wonderland that the decorating committee created at Plymouth State University’s Prospect Hall. You may have noticed that the forest of trees at KTHO has grown over the past few years, along with the many other beautiful decorations. Did you ever stop to consider what happens to all of that when it’s not on display?

For the past few years, everything has been stored at the home of generous KTHO decorating committee co-chairs, Norma Jean and Tom Morrison. As the collection has grown, however, they have asked for help.

Dick Hanaway has graciously donated a storage unit at his “Ace of Space Self Storage” facility in Campton, and this donation, valued at $588.00, puts KTHO over the $54,000 mark for funds raised this year! The KTHO Committee extends its gratitude for Dick’s support of this worthy cause!

For those new to the area, KTHO includes a silent auction, raffle, and buffet dinner supplied by our finest area restaurants and their chefs. First held in 2006, KTHO was lucky to bring in more than $10,000 for fuel assistance to local families in the early years, but fundraising has increased to more than $50,000 in each of the past three years—and the need has increased each year as well. KTHO is organized and sponsored by the Plymouth Area Democrats in partnership with the Plymouth Area Community Closet (PACC) in their continued mission to provide assistance to our neighbors. KTHO—and the fuel assistance it helps provide—are entirely non-partisan.

PACC, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, accepts donations year-round at P.O. Box 434, Plymouth, NH 03264. Their assistance efforts include not only home heating, but also emergency funds for food, medications, and utility bills, a Food Pantry and Thrift Shop at 5 Main Street in Plymouth, and “Meals For Many,” a free, nourishing community meal every Thursday evening at 5:00 pm at the Plymouth Congregational Church on the Common.

Local naturalist Mary Goodyear leads moonlight walk at Quincy Bog

RUMNEY — The Quincy Bog Natural Area weekend programs continue with an evening walk on Friday, June 9, from 6:30 – 9 p.m.

Explore the sights and sounds of the Bog at dusk. Discover how we can use our other senses to understand wildlife activity at this time of day into evening. We’ll walk the first part of the trail, as far as the inlet stream if visibility is good. Dress for the weather and be sure to bring a light!

Our guide and presenter is Mary Goodyear, a practicing naturalist and outdoor educator with a long career in New Hampshire’s park system and the New Hampshire Fish and Game Department. While in a group it is more difficult to see wildlife, but

Mary will engage us in activities that help explain how insects follow smells and how predator - prey relationships work.

Weekend walks take place periodically on Saturday or Sunday at the Bog (131 Quincy Bog Rd. in Rumney), May through October. The Full Moon Bog Walk will be held if the skies are clear to partly cloudy only – rain is a no-go! All walks leave from the Nature Center. Wear comfortable walking shoes; bring drinking water, bug spray and a flashlight. For more information or to check for cancellation, contact Betty Jo Taffe (786-2553, bjtaffe@gmail.com). For a list of other weekend walks and Wednesday evening programs at the Nature Center, visit www.quincybog.org.

Holderness graduate named to Spring Dean’s List at Susquehanna

SELINGSGROVE, Pa. — Emily Rasmussen, of Plymouth, was named to Susquehanna University’s dean’s list for the spring 2017 semester.

The dean’s list recognizes students who achieve a grade point average of 3.4 or higher out of a possible 4.0 for the semester. To qualify, students must complete a minimum of 12 semester hours.

Rasmussen is a psychology major in the Class of 2018. A 2014 graduate of Holderness High School, she is the daughter of Chris and Ann Rasmussen.

Susquehanna University is a selective, residential liberal arts college that provides a solid background in the liberal arts and sciences, as well as professional experiences. Students develop critical thinking, writing, teamwork and communication skills which, combined with internships and research opportunities, prepare them for a lifetime of personal and professional success. The university is recognized nationally for its commitment to off-campus study through the Global Opportunities program. Small classes enable faculty members to serve as mentors, as well as teachers. Ninety-six percent of Susquehanna students are employed or in graduate or professional school within six months of graduation.

From Time to Time

NH Master Chorale concert encompasses all of life

PLYMOUTH — The New Hampshire Master Chorale’s spring concerts, on June 17 in Concord and June 18 in Plymouth, embrace life’s gamut.

The program, titled From Time to Time, ranges from the innocent hope embodied in a newborn baby to the funk and lustiness of youth, and from the dawning sense of life’s limitations in middle age to the poignancy of failing health and memory in the twilight years.

The centerpiece is a new commissioned work provocatively entitled “Smoking, Drinking, Messing Around,” featuring the poetry of Liz Ahl set to music by Jonathan Santore, the Master Chorale’s composer-in-residence. It’s Santore’s 19th commission from the Master Chorale over as many years, and his third collaboration with Ahl.

Like Master Chorale music director Dan Perkins, Santore and Ahl are on the faculty of Plymouth State University.

Perkins says the program’s concept springs from a personal place – a reminiscence of his 26 years on the Plymouth State faculty.

“For me, this is kind of an examination of a quarter-century of making music in New Hampshire,” Perkins says. “It’s nostalgic to some extent. And funny. Imagining the incredible range of experiences I’ve had here. It’s a look-back at what we’ve been able to do – in the knowledge that someday it’s going to end. We can’t continue to do this forever. And that’s OK.”

He hastens to add that the end appears nowhere near.

This is the Master Chorale’s 14th season. The 31-voice chamber chorus holds a unique place in New Hampshire’s musical life.

Perkins characterizes it as “a group of trained and experienced musicians, many of whom are music educators, some of whom are professional musicians, who work together to create concerts that are eclectic and diverse. We get to do anything we want, from Sondheim to Bach.”

Santore says he writes music for the Master Chorale with its distinctive sound and capabilities in mind.

working at a very high level of musicianship,” Santore says., “Dan has selected voices that blend extremely well. It’s a very focused sound, a very cohesive music unit. That really informs the relationship.”

Perkins and Santore say the process of creating this newest commissioned work was different from usual. Normally Perkins comes up with a precise idea of what he wants, Santore says, but this time was more open-ended.

Both say they were searching for “something edgy,” or as Santore puts it, “something a little more roistering” than his last piece for the group, a piece commemorating the Civil War.

It all started with the title, “Smoking, Drinking, Messing Around.”

“The title came first,” Santore says. “I thought it would be entertaining to write a piece about smoking, drinking and messing around.”

Once Santore and Perkins agreed on the title, the composer went to his friend and frequent collaborator Liz Ahl, who sent him a packet of poems and gave him the freedom to pick and choose.

“I love Liz’s stuff at a level I almost can’t put into words, which is odd because I write music that conveys her words,” Santore says. “I hear her voice in everything she writes. Some of it’s funky, some of it’s tender and some of it’s astonishingly personal.”

The first of the five movements, for example, is both funky and personal. It’s called “When We Smoked.”

“That poem is autobiographical, for sure,” Ahl laughs. She’s a former smoker who kicked the addiction 14 years ago. The first line – ‘We were happier when we smoked’ -- came to her readymade from an offhand comment of a friend who’d also quit smoking.

“As soon as the friend said it, I thought ‘I have to use this in a poem,’” Ahl says. “It’s simultaneously the most ridiculous thing and it felt so true. Of course, we weren’t happier because we smoked. But we were happier in a way that everyone was once happier. And you make up all sorts of reasons why you were happier.”

Another, very different, piece in the program is called Smoking Can Kill. Written by the Finnish composer Jaakko Mantyjärvi, it sets to music the warning on cigarette packages, in the fa-la-la style of a Renaissance madrigal.

Mantjarvi also contributes “The Lusty Smith,” a rollicking tale of a young blacksmith and a buxom young damsel.

In the same boisterous frame is a drinking song, “The Inn,” based on Lithuanian folksongs set by Algimantas Brazinskas. American-flavored rowdiness, with an evocation of wide-open spaces, comes from “The Settling Years,” three “pioneer texts” set by Libby Larson.

In striking contrast are jazzy, note-bending settings of the African-American poet Langston Hughes two pieces by Elizabeth Alexander and William Averitt.

Perkins notes that Alexander’s piece, Folks, “I’m Tellin’ You,” underscores the program’s “live-life-right-now” theme: “Birthin’ is hard and dyin’ is mean,” the lyrics go, “So get yourself a little lovin’ in be-

Artistic Roots visiting artist program welcomes four new artists

PLYMOUTH — Artistic Roots is proud to welcome four new artists to our Visiting Artist Program from June until October of this year. The artist include: Solveig Wolstenholme, quilter and fiber artist; Chip Bradley, painter; Dennis Morton, plein aire and portrait painter, and Jay Allen, woodworker.

The gallery will sponsor an opening reception on June 22 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. All are welcome to attend and refreshments will be served Solveig Wolstenholme is a member of Artistic Roots. She is a fiber artist and will be featuring her full-size quilts as part of the Visiting Artist’s Program. Ms. Wolstenholme has been quilting and working with fabrics for many years. Her use of color is phenomenal.

Chip Bradley is a self-taught artist working out of his studio in Ayer, Massachusetts. He uses gouache paint because he can accomplish many of the things he earlier learned in his print-making days. He enjoys using stenciling in all of his paintings and appreciates the technical process of this tool since all of the hand brushwork creates the look of a fine serigraph.

Dennis Morton, portrait and landscape artist, is a well-known New Hampshire artist and teacher. Now a resident of Hawaii, he began his formal training while living in New Hampshire, apprenticing under Richard Whitney, portrait painter. Morton soon matured as a portrait artist himself and has completed many pieces of important people. In 1988, Morton was honored at the New Hampshire State House, where 25 of his pieces were exhibited. Morton moved to Hawaii, in 1991, where he continued to receive commissions in portrait painting. After a time, however, his painting shifted to landscapes and he aggressively began to pursue his interest in landscape painting. Many of his pieces reflect the area of Windward and Oahu, particularly Kaneohe and Kaaawa. Over the years, his style of painting has ranged from extreme realism to impressionistic.

Jay Allen, a veteran of the Vietnam War, has always loved the forests and trees. As a youth, he and his grandmother used to cut wood together with a two-person bucking saw. Using the wood to keep them warm during our cold winters. Later, in his young adulthood, wood again became important to him. He served a Long Range Recon Patrol Scout in the Central Highlands of Vietnam, and the forests provided crossbows and cover for him and his Squad. As an adult, he fell into bad times [PTSD] and friend, David Colburn of Vintage Fret Shop, gave me a 36-by-four-by-four-inch piece of mahogany. After some creative thought ... he made his first exotic hardwood box and has been making them ever since.

Distracted driving is dangerous

BY DEB NARO
Contributor

Every day in the United States, over eight people are killed and 1,161 injured in crashes that are reported to involve a distracted driver. Distracted driving is any activity that diverts attention from driving, including talking or texting on your phone, eating and drinking, talking to people in your vehicle, fiddling with the stereo, entertainment or navigation system—anything that takes your attention away from the task of safe driving.

There are three main types of distraction: 1) Visual: taking your eyes off the road; 2) Manual: taking your hands off the wheel; and 3) Cognitive: taking your mind off driving.

While any of these distractions can endanger the driver and others, texting while driving is especially dangerous because it combines all three types of distraction. Teens are dying and being injured every day because too many drivers are focusing on using a handheld phone instead of focusing on the road. Physically dialing a phone while driving increases the risk of a crash as much as 6 times. Texting is even riskier, increasing the chance of a crash by 23 times.

There are steps you can take to help keep your teen safe:

Kids learn from their parents, so set a good example; put down your phone while driving; use it only when you have safely pulled off to the side of the road.

Talk to your teen about the risks and responsibilities of driving, and the dangers of dividing their attention between a cell phone and the road. Set up rules about not texting or talking on the phone while driving.

Have your teen sign a pledge to agree to a family contract about wearing seat belts, not speeding, not driving after drinking, and not using a cell phone while behind the wheel. Agree on consequences for violating the pledge.

Find out more about distracted driving at www.distraction.gov and www.ConsumerReports.org/distraction. The more you know, the more you and they understand the seriousness of this issue.

Help educate and promote safe driving in your community. Spread the word through social media, talk to friends and family, and let others know how deadly distracted driving can be. The U.S. Department of Transportation is working hard to spread awareness of this serious problem; join in fighting for the lives of our young people.

In May, Plymouth Regional High School hosted a speaker for their annual Prom Safety event. The messages and images were graphic, powerful, and memorable. Teenagers are dying and being injured every day because too many drivers are focusing on using a handheld phone instead of on the road. I believe the presentation was very effective and will promote behavior change by helping everyone, regardless of age, to think twice before texting and driving. We thank the administration of PRHS for making this public safety issue an educational priority. For more information on keeping kids safe from harm, visit the CADY Web site at cadyinc.org.

Letters to the Editor

Community spirit

To the Editor:

On Saturday, May 27, the Plymouth Historical Society held its Second Annual Plant Sale. Thanks to the support from the community, this event was a tremendous success. Not only did folks walk away with additions to their personal gardens, they also had the opportunity to network and establish connections with fellow gardeners.

Being Memorial Day week-end, the members were not sure what to expect. People had barbecues planned, visits to loved ones, and quick get-aways due to the extra day off. Would anyone show up, purchase vegetables, annuals, perennials, houseplants, and gardening tools? We even divided hostas for the first time since the historical society opened its door in 1993.

In three short hours, we had dozens of folks purchase more than 300 of our 360 plants that were donated by area gardeners as well as businesses (Yeaton's Agway, Flowersmiths and Plymouth State University). Garden experts and novices alike surveyed the bounty of plants, asked numerous questions regarding the plant identification and left with some goodies.

The funds raised from our plant sale help fund monthly programs on various topics. Join us on June 21 at 7 p.m., when Eva Nagorka and Roger Ellsworth present the "Keniston Saga: Past to Present."

Roger is a descendent of John and Elizabeth Keniston, who built the exquisite "Whispering Pines" on Thurlow Street. Their presentation will highlight the life of Plymouth during the early 1900's. On July 12, Thomas Hubka will discuss his book, Little House, Big House Barn, the story of unique, connected farm buildings of New England.

Each program is selected due to its relevance to the area or state as well as interest to our community members. If you have a chance, please find the time to attend one of our sessions, drop in to learn more about your local genealogy, or just to visit the oldest, wooden structure remaining intact and used as a courthouse in New Hampshire. It is an amazing building just to visit and reflect what took place here in the past or sit on our 'Betty Batchelder' bench that looks onto Mt. Prospect in Holderness.

Thank you to all for spending some time with us at the Old Webster Courthouse. We appreciate everyone who took the time to support our plant sale during this busy week-end. A special thank you to all the plant donors who were willing to share their 'children' to our cause.

Sincerely,

Louise McCormack
Vice-President
Plymouth Historical Society

The time is right for me to represent District 9

To the Editor:

Well, folks, it's time. Vincent Paul Migliore for Representative for Alexandria, Ashland, Bridgewater, Bristol and Grafton – District 9.

Having committed 10 years in service on Newfound School Board, two as Chairman, one as Vice-Chair, I've learned much through experience, with 14 years of running my own business meeting a payroll and servicing customers, I believe I (finally) have adequate experience to be bold enough to ask to represent you in Concord.

For four weeks, look to this source and I'll provide experienced views on NPass, Wind, NH Kindergarten, the addiction crisis and economic development commentary through this paper. Or, we can speak in person. I'd be happy to attend "coffees" and share views. Perhaps more importantly, listen to yours. This is for State REPRESENTATIVE [sic]. I'm making my full commitment to serve.

Those who know me, understand I only commit to things, not just participate. I make 140 percent effort, so I'm happy with 90 percent of goal. Not unreasonable, but takes a full time effort to achieve. Run a successful business? That's required. With that recently behind me, I'm now your full time representative in Concord. I make that commitment to you. To do so, I must win the Republican Primary on Tuesday, July 18 in Alexandria, Ashland, Bristol, Bridgewater and Grafton. Please consider your options, and then accept my request for your vote.

You must be registered in time as Undeclared or Republican to cast your vote for me on July 18. Check with your Town Clerk, and then decide on a candidate who will be allowed the privilege to represent you only by winning the General Election, this fall.

Thanks for consideration. Reach me at 744-5800.
Respectfully,

Vincent Paul Migliore

Appointments/Department Heads

Gabe Bolin, Trout Unlimited: Patten Brook

Mr. Bolin presented information he compiled regarding Patten Brook and flooding concerns. Mr. Bolin recommended that a topographic survey be completed so that they can run through different scenarios using US Army Corps of Engineering software. Mr. Bolin reviewed potential projects to mitigate flooding concerns, such as replacing the culvert on Bog Road, creating a flood channel and creating a berm at the edge of the field. Potential funding options were also discussed.

Larry Monroe

Mr. Monroe was present to discuss his concerns regarding the response to his abatement application. The Selectmen did not change the recommendation provided by the Town's assessors, Avitar Associates.

Business

Mr. Caron said that he walked the town property off Mundy Road to check a location for the transfer station. He recommended that the Town first have some tests pits drilled.

A Timeline of Beebe River

Join the Campton Historical Society on Monday, June 19 at 7 p.m. for "A Timeline of Beebe River" presented by Tink Taylor. Tink will give a timeline of key events at Beebe River; how it came to be, how it took on the characteristics of an Industrial Utopia, then how it was scuttled in the name of corporate takeover. After that, he will ask those present to fill in the blanks for there are many who know a great deal more about life there. Tink Taylor has for years, as North Country Bureau correspondent has written a great deal about events at Beebe River. He is anxious to learn much more from those who worked/lived there.

The presentation will be at the Old Town Hall in Campton, which is handicap accessible, and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. For information about the Society, check our Web site at www.camptonhistorical.org.

Friends of the Campton Library Book Sale

The Memorial Day event sponsored by the Groton Historical Society was well attended. Carrie Brown had a very interesting program with many fascinating slides on the women who worked in manufacturing during the First World War. The Historical Society will have an Open House on June 24 from 1-3 p.m. at the Historical Society building near the intersection of North Groton Road and Halls Brook Road. There will be a display in honor of one of our locals, Pam Yinger. Hope to see you all there.

The Town Fishing Derby supplied a few supper tables on Saturday evening with some beautiful trout. Even though it was cloudy and sprinkled a bit here and there is seemed that all who came and participated had a great time.

Here's a notice from the Hebron Fire Department:

When minutes count

The towns of Hebron and Groton are offering a 911 reflective, two sided sign through the Hebron Fire Dept. Due to the high visibility factor noted in Hebron and Groton the Bridgewater Fire Dept. is now offering the same service through their Fire Dept. Both Fire Chiefs agree: "If we can't find you we can't help you!" Often minutes do count.

The Hebron Fire Department researched to find the most visible color available. They found a metal reflective red background with reflective four inches white numbers topped the list from the farthest distance both day and night. The high visibility and ease in finding locations with these signs has improved response time to locations with the signs. Ease in finding locations is the main reason the Bridgewater Fire Dept. decided to extend the signs into their town.

The first step to offering good Emergency Services is to find you without delay. The red and white signs are very helpful in accomplishing that goal. The service is elective and costs $15 per sign. To encourage resident participation all three town offer free installation. Bridgewater signs can be ordered through the Bridgewater Fire Department.

It is hoped all residents will take part, improving emergency response times for fire, police and mutual aid coming from surrounding towns because they are not familiar with our roads. The signs also facilitate deliveries by the Postal Service, UPS, and Fed Ex.

Order forms can be found on the Hebron and Groton Town Web Sites, at either Town Office, at both Town Clerk Offices as well as at the Hebron Fire and Police Departments.

Completed forms should be mailed to:

Town of Hebron - HFD
911 Signs
PO Box 188,
Hebron, NH 03241

Hand delivered to the Hebron Town Office between 8:30 a.m. and Noon any weekday or the Groton Town Clerks office Monday, Wednesday, Friday 9 a.m.-4 p.m. or Tuesday 4-6 p.m. Forms are available at these offices.

Checks should be made payable to: H.F.D. Improvement Fund.

Your sign(s) will be installed within two weeks after your paid order is received.

The location of your sign will be your choice but the Fire and Police Department hope it will be in conjunction with their wishes. The reflective sign(s) should be placed in a highly visible location for both day and night viewing from both directions. They should be adjacent to the road, your driveway or on your mail box if it is in front of your residence.

Meetings Coming Up:

Select Board Meetings will be held every first and third Tuesday, so the next couple meetings are June 6 and June 20, all at 7 p.m. at the Town House.

Select Board Work Sessions are Tuesday, June 6 at 4:30 p.m. and Tuesday, June 20 at 5 p.m.

The Town Clerk/Tax Collector office will be closed on Wednesday, June 7 for training and looking ahead the Town Clerk/Tax Collector Office will also be closed Aug. 18 through Aug. 23 for vacation.

The Select Board Office will be closing at 2 p.m. on June 12.

Building Committee will meet June 6 at 5 p.m. at the Town House.

Conservation Commission Meeting June 8 at 7 p.m.

Neighbors John Jarczynski and Anne Rasmussen and crew are on their way west to participate in the Race Across America (RAAM). They have been training on their tandem bike for many months for the ultramarathon bicycle race across the U.S. They'll travel approximately 3000 miles, leaving from Oceanside pier, CA and ending in Annapolis, Md. Part of the purpose of the race is to raise and support causes, in this case, First Decents, an outdoor adventure program for young adults who are fighters and survivors of cancer. The team will start racing on June 13.

At a recent Selectmen's meeting, Finance Officer Amy Sharpe provided the Board with an update on recent assessing activities. She estimates an increase on assessed valuation of approximately $887,000 for the year of date. Approximately $27,000 in abatements have been issued so far.

Well, phew! Selectmen held a public hearing on May 15 to ratify the 2017 Town Meeting as stipulated in HB329. No objections so the 2017 Town Meeting is now official.

Eighth Grade graduation will take place on Monday, June 12 at 7 p.m., with the last day of school on Wednesday, June 14.

Library Summer Reading Kick-Off day is Wednesday, June 28, with a story and craft time at 10 a.m. That evening, the Pinocchio Stage Production! will be presenting "Pinocchio." The show will take place downstairs in the new meeting room at 7 p.m.

Don't forget the Library has passes available to patrons for Squam Lakes Natural Science Center, Castle in the Clouds (weekends in May, daily beginning in June), Currier Museum of Art, McAuliffe-Shepard Discovery Center, and New Hampshire Historical Society Museum.

Book group will discuss "Lincoln's Boys: John Hay, John Nicolay, and the war for Lincoln's Image" by Joshua Zeitz on Wednesday, June 21 at noon. Books are available at the circulation desk.

The Holderness School now turns to the Gordon Research Conference activities with eminent researchers from universities throughout the world gathering to share information. From June 10-16, the topic will be Artificial Molecular Switches and Motors: controlling Movement on the Molecular Scale. You can find more information about the GRC at their Web site.

Chocorua Island Chapel is gearing up for a busy summer season. First service will take place on June 25 with The Rev Frank Strasburger former Episcopal Chaplain, Princeton Univ. Services start at 10:30 a.m.; this is the 114th year of services on the island.

SLA will offer Weed Watcher Training on all Saturday mornings in June, July, and August from 9-11 a.m. After participating in this program, members of the class can then survey the Lakes on their own, helping to protect Squam from aquatic invasive species. Participants can Weed Watch while snorkeling, canoeing, kayaking, paddleboards, or from a motor boat.

On Saturday, SLA will kick off the summer with a number of events with all welcome. Come learn about the conservation, recreation, and educational work the SLA does in the Squam Watershed. There will be milfoil identification, free kayak and canoe rentals, open rock climbing wall, trail work tutorials, educational booths, and much more!

Death Café

Monday, June 19, 6 p.m.

A morbid subject or a necessary conversation?

The "death café" movement is a nationwide attempt to help people become more comfortable talking about death, dying, and the choices to be made around how, where, and with whom one wants to die. Come learn about these "living choices and dying wishes" so you and your loved ones will know one another's desires related to medical interventions, location for end of life care, and advance directives that turn our desires into legal medical documents. Coffee, tea, and snacks will be served. Hosted by Mary Francis Drake, MSW, LICSW, Hospice & Palliative Care Manager at Pemi-Baker Community Health.

Rumney Artist Display and Reception June 8
Rumney artist, Tom Grabiek has on display at the Bryon G. Merrill Library his intricate, detailed images of flies that he has been tying since he was a young boy. Using medium to very high magnification techniques, he attempts to capture the subtle colors, hues and textures that are not visible to the naked eye. The minute facets of fur, feather, tinsel and thread come alive when accumulated when viewed in Tom's relatively large, representative fly art. A reception will be held on June 8, at 6:30 p.m. at the Byron G. Merrill Library to meet the artist and discuss his work. Please join us!

Greetings, everyone! I hope you all had a good week.

By the time you read this my show will be starting its second week. The playwright couldn't come opening night, so he and his family are coming this Friday night.
Hard to believe now we're halfway through our run of this great show.
In WARREN, we have this upcoming event at the Joseph Patch Memorial Library:

(Not So) Elementary, My Dear Watson: The Popularity of Sherlock Homes
On Saturday, June 17 at 1 p.m., the Joseph Patch Library welcomes Ann McClellan, professor and chair of the English Department at Plymouth State University, who will present "(Not So) Elementary, My Dear Watson."
The recent spate of Sherlock Holmes movies, television shows, and literary adaptations indicate the Great Detective is alive and well in the 21st Century. Holmes is the most portrayed literary character of all time, with over 230 film versions alone in several different languages over the past century. Sherlockians created societies like the Baker Street Irregulars, wrote articles sussing out the 'sources' of Doyle's works, and, most recently, developed an entire online world of Holmesian fan fiction. Sherlock Holmes is now a multi-million dollar industry. But why? Why is Sherlock Holmes so popular?

This presentation explores the origins of Arthur Conan Doyle's famous detective and tracks his incarnations in literature, film, advertising, and modern media in order to crack the case of the most popular detective.
Free and open to the public, this program promises to enlighten and entertain. For more information, call the Joseph Patch Library at 764-9072.

On Friday and Saturday, the 9th and 10th of June, there will be fireworks at Hildreth Dam. Food and beverage will be available for sale.
In WENTWORTH, Here is news from Webster Memorial Library:
The adult book group will meet Monday, June 12th to discuss The Belles of New England by William Moran. Copies are available at the library.
Story time is held on Wednesday mornings at 10 a.m.
There will soon be work starting on the steeple at the Congregational Church. I will be regularly reporting here on the progress, so stay tuned!
Here is news from the race track:

Jason Sanville Tops the Sportsman Modifieds
The O'Reilly Auto Parts Twilight Racing Series saw Jason Sanville take his first win of the season in the Peanut's Auto Sportsman Modifieds, Toby Stark was best in the Homestead Creations Sportsman Late Models and Erin Vien nabbed her first win on the dirt in the Rand's Hardware Outlaw Mini Stocks. The Wingless Auto Group made their second appearance of the season with Derek Jeanson taking the Victory.

Richie Gilpatrick Jumped into the lead when the green flew in the Peanut's Auto Sportsman Modifieds. His lead was short lived however as after a lap two restart Todd Buckwold blasted to the top spot. Jason Sanville worked his way to second from his sixth starting spot and started to apply intense pressure to Buckwold and took the lead just before the yellow flew with nine laps complete. From there Sanville survived two more cautions and ran to the Victory, his first of the season. Derek O'Hearn came from the rear after being the cause of the first caution to finish a string second with Richie Gilpatrick third. Lenny Pillsbury was fourth with Ricky Sanville completing the top five.
The Homestead Creations Sportsman Late Model Main Event saw Chris Clarke jump to the lead from the pole position at the drop of the green, leading the first three laps. Cassie Ottati led the next couple of laps before Donald Ottati burst into the lead. While Ottati was clicking off the laps Toby Stark was on the fly from the tenth starting spot, taking the lead shortly after the halfway point and drove away to the win. Last week's winner, Hunter Nutter worked his way to second at the drop of the checkers with Travis Smith, who came from the rear after pitting for a flat tire, finished third. Matt Pike was fourth with Cassie Ottati fifth.

Former pavement star Erin Vien took the lead on lap two of The Rand's Hardware Outlaw Mini Stocks Main event. Vien was never seriously challenged even on the restarts and rolled to her first career win on a dirt surface. Eric Castiglioni claimed second after swapping the position a few times with Rich Willey who finished third. Sean Lant was fourth with Deven Stearns fifth.
The Wingless Auto Group completed the evenings' events with Derek Jeanson garnering his second victory of the season in a green to checkers Feature. Mike Horsch was second with Troy Comeau third. Sam Comeau and Mark Cole completed the top five.
Joining the regular divisions of the O'Reilly Auto Parts Twilight Racing Series this Friday night at 7 p.m., June 9 will be the second appearance of the season for the Granite State Mini Sprints. Saturday, June 10th will mark the initial event for The All American Truck Pulling Series with the first pull at 11 a.m.
The Legion Speedway is located on Route 25 at the Wentworth/Rumney Town line with racing every Friday Night at 7 p.m. For more information visit www.Legion-Speedway.com

Bristol selectmen agree to appoint parking committee

BY THOMAS P. CALDWELL
Contributing Writer

BRISTOL — Selectmen on June 1 agreed to establish a committee to look into solutions for downtown parking, acknowledging that no proposal will make everyone happy.

Town Administrator Nik Coates suggested a timeline for reporting back to the Bristol Board of Selectmen, as well as the potential makeup of the committee. In addition to himself and one of the selectmen, Coates suggested including the police chief, highway superintendent, a member of the Bristol Economic Development Committee, and a downtown business owner. The committee would make a preliminary report in August, with a final recommendation due in September.

The committee would review existing town ordinances, the snow removal process, violations and fines, enforcement, and the existing parking with an eye toward making it more efficient. Coates said the committee also should consider placing time limits on parking and the acquisition of property to expand what is available for parking, including the possibility of establishing memoranda of understanding with property owners to allow parking on private land.

With the revitalization of Central Square, there has been an expansion in the number of businesses, as well as new tenant apartments. During the winter, especially, the limited parking has created problems for the residents and businesses, as well as for the town crews handling snow removal.

Selectmen present were unanimous in supporting the establishment of the committee. Selectman Don Milbrand did not attend the meeting.

Selectmen on a unanimous vote also approved a reorganization of the land use department, combining the assistant assessor and land use manager's job into a single position and increasing the pay because it would be a management job, while decreasing the wages for the part-time health officer and land use officer's positions. The recommendation also included codifying the work the assistant assessor has been doing.

With Selectman Leslie Dion abstaining because she also serves as executive director of the Tapply-Thompson Community Center, the board approve a memorandum of understanding between the town and the TTCC to offer swimming lessons at Cummings Beach. The community center has been unable to offer swimming lessons for the past decade because of restrictions at Wellington State Park, but by holding the lessons at the town beach, lessons could resume.

Dion said the lessons would make it safer for children at the beaches. The center plans to hire a lifeguard and water safety instructor for the lessons, which would include preschool, Level 1, and Level 2 lessons, four mornings a week with Friday as a makeup day.

Selectmen discussed the use of placards that could be issued to parents whose children are participating in the program to show they had a right to be at the beach if they did not have resident beach stickers.

Coates postponed discussion on transfer station guidelines, which the board was to take up, saying the town clerk/tax collector and highway superintendent were still reviewing options and were not ready to make a recommendation.

At their previous meeting, selectmen had discussed inequalities that had arisen from a new ordinance that charges businesses for the disposal of trash. Certain businesses contribute less solid waste than residential households, yet the current fee structure has them paying significantly more. Coates said they would have a recommendation by the next meeting.

The June 15 meeting will take place at the Old Town Hall on Summer Street, beginning with a joint board work session at 4 p.m., with the public session starting at 7 p.m.

DONNA RHODES

Waiting for better weather

Boats moored on Newfound Lake wait patiently beneath the clouds for the bright days of summer yet to come.

Mardene A. Haskell graduates from Colby College

WATERVILLE, Maine —Mardene A. Haskell, of Holderness was one of 478 seniors who graduated from Colby College in Waterville, Maine, May 21, receiving a bachelor of arts degree at the college’s 196th Commencement. Former Vice President Joe Biden was the guest speaker.

Haskell, who majored in biology, attended Burke Mountain Academy and is the son/daughter of Robert and Annie Haskell of Holderness.

Under a vivid blue sky, Vice President Biden spoke to a crowd of more than 3,000 about the need to help the nation return to basic principles of equality and dignity, and to understand each other’s stories to develop a deeper sense of humanity.

“Life can’t be lived in this self-referential, self-reinforcing, self-righteous echo chamber we’ve built for ourselves online,” he said. “Living in our screens encourages shallow and antiseptic relationships that make it easy to reduce others to stereotypes.”

Colby President David A. Greene handed a diploma to each of the graduates.

Founded in 1813, Colby is one of America’s most selective colleges. Serving only undergraduates, Colby offers a rigorous academic program rooted in deep exploration of ideas and close interaction with world-class faculty scholars. Students pursue intellectual passions, choosing among 58 majors or developing their own. Independent and collaborative research, study abroad, and internships offer robust opportunities to prepare students for postgraduate success. Colby is home to a community of 2,000 dedicated and diverse students from around the globe. Its Waterville, Maine, location provides access to world-class research institutions and civic engagement experiences.

Pease Public Library’s Fifth Annual Touch-A-Truck event set for July 8

PLYMOUTH — Have you ever wanted to see a plow truck up close and see what it looks like from the driver’s seat? Join us at the Plymouth Municipal Airport (111 Quincy Rd.) on Saturday, July 8 from noon-3 p.m. to see this and many other trucks and vehicles. We plan to turn the airport into a wonderland of vehicles! The Pease Public Library is doing this event in conjunction with their summer reading program, “Build a Better World!” Additionally, there will be car seat safety inspection available.

Touch-A-Truck is a fun filled family event meant to be enjoyed by children of all ages! Children can meet local heroes, ask questions, and have hands on experiences with their favorite vehicles. So far the Plymouth Fire Department, Plymouth Police, Plymouth Highway Department, Longview Farm, New Hampshire State Police, Plymouth Municipal Airport, and Andrews Construction will be bringing fire engines, police cars, tractors, backhoes, airplanes, and dump trucks! We are working on getting more vehicles as well.

This event will happen if it is lightly raining, so bring your umbrella and galoshes just in case. However, if it is torrentially down pouring, the event will not have a rain date.

Do you or your company have a unique vehicle that you would like to share with the community at the Touch A Truck event? Please contact Tanya Ricker at the Pease Public Library at 536-2616.

Library hours: Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Thursdays and Fridays 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Saturdays 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

For more information please contact the library at 536-2616.

Plymouth Historical Society hosting presentation on “The Keniston Saga: Past to Present”

PLYMOUTH — The Plymouth Historical Society (PHS) will present the fourth in an ongoing series of programs on topics of local interest. The PHS will feature a presentation “The Keniston Saga: Past to Present” by Rodger Ellsworth and Eva Nagorka Ellsworth on Wednesday, June 21 at 7 p.m. at the Old Webster Courthouse (Court Street – behind Plymouth Town Hall).

Rodger and Eva are the current owners of the historic estate known as “Whispering Pines” at 18 Thurlow St. in Plymouth, near Fox Pond. Rodger is a descendant of John and Elizabeth Keniston and will overview the history of the Keniston homestead, including a reading of the Dedication Poem written by William P. Freeman in October 1890. The evening will include an introduction of family members, display of Keniston wedding attire, collection of ladies’ hats, and description of family artifacts including the travel trunk of Wilhelmina Keniston Harbert, who was a concert artist in France with the American Expeditionary Forces of WWI.

John Keniston led an accomplished life. Rodger and Eva will review his involvement in music, farming, engineering and public service in the 1900’s. Subsequent generations of Kenistons who were accomplished musicians and teachers into the 21st century will be reviewed as well. Rounding out this memorable presentation will include memories of childhood by the youngest generation of Kenistons, Alex and Helen Ellsworth.

Rodger Ellsworth is a violist, formerly of the Kennedy Center Opera House Orchestra, Washington, DC. Eva Nagorka Ellsworth is a Teaching Lecturer in the Department of Music, Theatre and Dance at Plymouth State University.

Come join us! This event is free, open to the public. Refreshments will be served and you are welcome to view the historical exhibits in the museum. For questions on this and other programs: contact us at www.PlymouthNHhistory.org or contact@PlymouthNHhistory.org or contact Dick Flanders at 536-1376 or dick.flanders062@gmail.com.

Quincy Bog to host program on New England stone walls

RUMNEY — The Quincy Bog Natural Area welcomes all to Kevin Gardner’s “Discovering New England Stone Walls” program on Wednesday, June 14, beginning at 7 p.m. at Quincy Bog Nature Center. This is the first Wednesday evening program of the summer season.

Why are we so fascinated with stone walls? Kevin Gardner, author of “The Granite Kiss,” explains how and why New England came to acquire its thousands of miles of stone walls, the ways in which they and other dry stone structures were built, how their styles emerged and changed over time and their significance to the famous New England landscape. Along the way, Kevin occupies himself building a miniature wall or walls on a tabletop, using tiny stones from a five-gallon bucket.

Kevin Gardner is a writer, teacher, tradesman, and a lifelong resident of Hopkinton. He has been a stone wall builder for 40 years, and is the author of “The Granite Kiss: Traditions and Techniques of Building New England Stone Walls,” as well as poetry, songs, and essays. For 25 years, Kevin was an award-winning performance critic, feature writer, and producer for New Hampshire Public Radio. He’s also a long-time professional actor, director and teacher of theatre.

Programs will take place at the Nature Center (131 Quincy Bog Rd. in Rumney) at 7 p.m. All talks are free (donations are gratefully accepted), open to the public, and are followed by an informal reception with refreshments. These lectures are underwritten in part by the Ruth V. Fisher Memorial Fund and this talk is co-sponsored by the New Hampshire Humanities Council. For more information, contact Betty Jo Taffe (phone, 786-2553, email bjtaffe@gmail.com).

The Quincy Bog Natural Area and Pemi-Baker Land Trust work with area landowners and a volunteer board to conserve land and connect people with nature. To learn more, visit www.quincybog.org or visit us on Facebook.

EXETER — Bob Bergeron died peacefully at his home in Exeter on April 27.

He was born on May 21, 1920, and raised in Brockton, Mass. At age seven, he was enthralled by Charles Lindbergh’s solo flight across the Atlantic and decided that he wanted to be a pilot. His backup plan was to be a teacher. He enrolled at Bridgewater State Teachers College where he met and married the love of his life, Jean Ann Francis of Gloucester.

Bob was an extraordinary man. He enlisted in the US Navy Reserve in summer 1941, and was in flight school in Pensacola on Dec. 7. He received his “wings” as a carrier pilot in January 1942, and served in the Pacific theater throughout the war. He participated in the battle for Guadalcanal, the battle of Leyte Gulf and many others. He received five Navy Air Medals and three Distinguished Flying Cross awards. Although he was proud of his service as a Navy pilot, he did not boast about himself – his children didn’t learn of these awards until very recently. In 1969, he retired with a rank of Commander and was awarded a Meritorious Service Medal by the President. In June 2014, he was honored at a special ceremony at Wildwood NAS Air Museum in Wildwood, N.J., with extensive local newspaper and TV coverage.

In June 1969, Bob and Jean returned to their home in East Greenwich, R.I. Bob received his M.Ed. from Rhode Island College in 1971, and taught high school mathematics for 14 years at East Greenwich High School. Bob and Jean became avid skiers and trekked nearly every winter weekend to New Hampshire. After his retirement in 1985, they moved to Holderness. Bob continued to ski into his early 80’s. Golfing, bowling, and the Red Sox were among his other passions.

Bob and Jean were dedicated volunteers at the Plymouth Regional Senior Center for 30 years. They were among a small group of committed senior citizens who were instrumental in obtaining federal funding to transform the old Plymouth train station into an active and vibrant community resource. In 1998 Bob and Jean received the Vaughan Award for outstanding volunteer service from the New Hampshire Council on Aging. Bob was a long-serving member of the PRSC Board, the Holderness Planning Board and the Grafton County Senior Citizen Council. With Jean he delivered Meals on Wheels for over 20 years, often to people younger than they.

Besides Jean, his wife of 76 years, Bob is survived by his four children and their spouses (Robert F. (Terry) Bergeron, Jr. and Marion Bergeron of Gallo way, N.J., Dan Bergeron and Nancy Kennedy Bergeron of Barrington, Ken Bergeron and Teresa McGrew of Albuquerque, N.M., and Valerie Bergeron and Harry Shipman of Hockessin, Del.). He is also survived by 12 grandchildren, their spouses, 21 great-grandchildren, and friends. Family members live in New Hampshire, Delaware, New Jersey, South Carolina, Florida, California, New Mexico, and India.

We will miss this modest war hero, unassuming and respected math teacher, dedicated civic volunteer, devoted husband, and role model father, grandfather and great-grandfather.

Bob will be laid to rest on July 10 at 11 a.m. at the New Hampshire Veterans Cemetery in Boscawen. Donations in his honor may be made to the Plymouth Regional Senior Center, 8 Depot St., PO Box 478, Plymouth, NH 03264.

TAMWORTH — Melvin F. Diltz, 62, of Tamworth passed away on Friday, June 2, 2017 after a period of failing health.

He was born on Dec. 8, 1954 in Wolfeboro, the son of Melvin and Thelma Diltz, and had lived in the Wolfeboro area most of his life.

He attended local schools, and worked for several companies throughout the years.

Melvin was a proud member of the United States Marine Corps serving as a Staff Sergeant.

Melvin is survived by his son, Matthew Diltz of Tamworth; his mother, Thelma Diltz of Moultonborough; his brothers, Steven Diltz and his wife Jeanie of Meredith Jeff Diltz and his wife Lynn of Moultonborough, and Greg Diltz and his wife Meg of Moultonborough; and special friends Laurie Holden of Ashland and Karen Reppucci of Moultonborough.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. Interment will be held in the New Hampshire Veterans Cemetery, Boscawen.

If you wish to express condolences or leave a fond memory, please visit www.lordfuneralhome.com.

Randy M. Robie, 52

WILMOT — Randy M. Robie, 52, a long time Danbury resident, died Thursday, June 1, 2017.

He was born in Franklin, the son of the late Raymond and Patricia (Durgin) Robie. He grew up doing farm-work on his grandfather’s farm. Time was spent haying, gardening and working in the family owned saw-mill, logging, and repairing equipment.

Randy had done construction work all his life, from dirt work and concrete to building houses from start to finish. He ran his own business, Randy Robie Builders, in Danbury, and was known for his talents and innovative designs in home construction.

In addition to his talents in building, he was known to be a great cook, and one who enjoyed fishing, helping elderly friends and family, and especially time spent with his family and pets.

He is survived by his wife, Patti O’Donnell of Wilmot; two daughters, Jessica Robie of Bristol and Angie Fligg of Danbury; two sisters, Melanie Caron of Hill and Mary Robie of Bridgewater; a brother, Roger Robie of Grafton; five grandchildren (Damian Robie-Welcome, Dominick Colby, Chelsea Adkins, Shawn Fligg, and Hailey Fligg); as well as aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He was predeceased by a brother, Raymond Robie, Jr., in 2016.

Memorial calling hours will be Friday, June 9, 2017 from 6-8 p.m. at the Emmons Funeral Home, 115 South Main St., Bristol. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the New Hampshire Humane Society, PO Box 572, Laconia, NH 03247.

PLYMOUTH — Following a brief illness, Helga Dunlap passed away Saturday, May 27 surrounded by her family and friends.

On July 1, 1937, Helga Ruth Schweigert was born in Germany. In December of 1963, she married Laurice Dunlap who was in Germany with the U.S. Army. In 1969, they moved to Crescent Street in Plymouth with their three children. Helga resided on Crescent Street for the remainder of her life.

Helga was a selfless person who could be relied upon to help family and friends in times of need, or with daily tasks. She was a talented knitter, and created dozens of afghans which colorfully decorate many homes around the region.

Helga was a master of putting together challenging puzzles of several thousand pieces. She enjoyed traveling to her hometown of Germany and hosting German friends and relatives at her home in Plymouth. Helga found great joy in nurturing her four grandchildren, Patrick, Garrett, Matthew and Sarah Dunlap. They will treasure their special memories of ‘Mim’ and keep her forever in their hearts.

Helga was predeceased by her husband, Larry (2007), her son Detlef (1986) and her grandson, Garrett Dunlap, in July of 2016.

She is survived by her daughter, Patricia Dunlap, and her husband Andy Fitch of Ashland; her son, Michael Dunlap of Campton; her grandson, Patrick Dunlap of Plymouth; grandson, Matthew Dunlap of Winter Park, Fla.; granddaughter Sarah Dunlap of Sandwich; sister Angelicka Pulver of Germany; and nephew Michael Pulver of Germany.

NEW HAMPTON — Roxanna Rose [Rollins] Belyea, 73, died on June 1, 2017 surrounded by her family at her home.

Born in Laconia on July 27, 1943, she was the daughter of Hiram and Mable [Sorel] Rollins. She was raised in Lakeport, and attended Laconia schools. Following her school years, she was employed at L.W. Packard in Ashland; at the Laconia State School; and she and operated the Goody-Good Donut Shop in Laconia. She was predeceased by her first husband Cecil Parshley, and by her sons Danny and Scott.

She is survived by her husband, Kenneth Belyea, Sr. of New Hampton; her daughters, Karen Parshley, Carol Belyea, and Bobbi-jo Belyea; her sons, Kenneth Belyea, Jr., and George Belyea; 18 grandchildren; 31 great-grandchildren; and three great-great grandchildren; her sisters, Francis Brooks and Mary Champion; and her brothers, Henry Rollins, and Raymond Rollins.

Graveside services will be held on Thursday, June 8, 2017 at 11 a.m. at Meredith Village Cemetery. Dupuis Funeral Home in Ashland is assisting the family. For more information, go to Dupuisfuneralhome.com.

tween.”

In yet another completely different mood are three pieces on the beginning and ending of life. “Jenny Rebecca” by Carol Hall (arranged by Clair T. McElfresh) is a tender lullaby for a tender, young girl. “The Earthly Rose” is a setting by Latvian composer Eriks Esenvalds of an Emma Jones poem about a traveler who returns home to her failing parents. And When Memory Fades, with music by Jayne Southwick Cool and lyrics by Mary Louise Bringle, is about the twilight of life.

The Master Chorale will perform From Time to Time at the Eagle Square Atrium in Concord on Friday, June 17 at 8 p.m., with appetizers and cash bar from 7 p.m.; and at the ice arena lobby of the Plymouth State University Welcome Center on Sunday, June 18, at 4 p.m., with intermission appetizers and cash bar.

Tickets are available at nhmasterchorale.org and at the door for $30, or $25 for seniors and $15 apiece for groups of 10 or more. Admission is free for undergraduates and students from kindergarten through high school.

the ability to make an impact for the better in their future.

“If we live everyday with love and compassion, the world will be a better place,” Friedman said.

Halloran also introduced Salutatorian Peter Templeton as “one talented man.” Templeton, who was home schooled until eighth grade, went on to deliver more words of gratitude to his classmates, teachers and family, then finished his speech in a way he acknowledged knows best- music.

“I always wanted this piece to be played at my graduation so I figured why not play it myself,” Templeton said.

Moving to a keyboard made available to him beside the stage, he then played his own musical rendition of “The Long and Winding Road,” bringing the audience to their feet at the end of his performance.

Third Honors accolades went to Sheyenne Lester this year, whose theatric skills, Halloran declared, would “soon be coming to a theater near you.”

In her speech, Lester lent a fun but meaningful edge to the day. She began her address by asking all to rise, take a step to their left, then a step to their right.

“Okay. Now you can’t say my speech today didn’t move you,” she said with a sly grin.

The true focus of her address, however, was that the Class of 2017 has yet to discover who they are.

“I’m thrilled to think of all we might accomplish in life,” Lester said. “Sitting next to you today may be a Nobel Peace Prize winner...”

Or maybe even an Oscar winner, the class’s renowned actress concluded with a smile.

Delivering this year’s Commencement Address was retiring SAU 48 Special Education Director, Fran Gonsalves, who has been with the district for 29 years.

As the graduates prepare to move on to the next phase in their lives, she asked them to first take time to discover who they truly are. Gonsalves encouraged them to ignore social media input and instead speak to parents and grandparents to learn more about where they came from so they might learn even more about who they will be in the future.

“Be prepared to change,” Gonsalves said. “Be open to growth and change. You can Google an answer about a mate, find a career, but you can’t Google to discover who you are.”

Musical performances for the graduation ceremonies were under the direction of instructor Will Gunn who led the band in “Pomp and Circumstance” for the graduates’ entry and later directed other musical selections for the day.

Pemi-Baker School Board Chair Catherine Hahn, Interim Assistant Principal Randy Cleary and PRHS Principal Bruce Parsons awarded diplomas.

Before the Class of 2017 headed off for the future though, Parsons also had a few comments for his graduates.

He said this class was truly unique in their demeanor and achievements, and he found it a pleasure to watch them grow over the past four years. Citing their “amazing accomplishments” in academics, the arts and athletics, Parsons said he was proud of the way in which they all carried themselves with dignity and pride as they became great role models for others in both the school and the community.

“This is your life now and it will be exactly what you make it. It was a privilege and honor to be a part of your lives and we wish you all the best in the future,” Parsons said.

when E. Maude was 1, and her mother moved from Danvers MA to Bristol, presumably to be with her family.

In enlisting the support of town officials to back up his testimony when he returned to speak on the bill before the New Hampshire House, Gordon pointed out that Ferguson first ran for state representative in 1926, six years after the passage of the 19th Amendment, giving women the right to vote.

“Bristol has always been known for its strong women,” Gordon told the selectmen, noting that the late Pauline Merrill was the eighth woman to pass the NH Bar, in 1929. She was awarded the degree of Juris Doctor from Northeastern University in 1971, when she was 67, and she continued to practice law into her eighties.

E. Maude Ferguson listed her occupation as “housewife” when she went to Concord as a state representative in 1927, but she had been employed as a elocutionist at Tilton School, the New Hampton Institute, and Maryland College, with frequent bookings by a Boston entertainment bureau. She had graduated from Tilton Seminary (as Tilton School was known at that time) in 1900, and from the Greeley School of Elocution and Dramatics in Boston in 1903.

In 1912, at the age of 28, she married Samuel Ferguson, who had emigrated from Northern Ireland in 1883 and was employed as a highway contractor.

Locally, E. Maude Ferguson served on the Bristol Board of Education and as a library trustee, and she was clerk of Union

School District No. 2. She served as chair of the Republican Women of Grafton County and the Bristol Republican Women’s Committee, and was a member of the League of Women Voters, the Grange, the American Legion Auxiliary, and Daughters of the American Revolution. She was a Grand Matron of the Order of the Eastern Star and president of the Bristol Woman’s Club.

During her first term as a state representative, she worked on the revision of state statutes and was involved with the state library. When she was reelected in 1928, she became chair of the Joint Committee of State Library and chair of the Committee on Normal School, and she was the first woman to serve as a member of the Judiciary Committee. She also served as clerk of the Grafton County Delegation and pre-legislative caucus.

Having distinguished herself in the House, E. Maude Ferguson decided to run for the Senate, where she won a three-way race in the Republican primary. The Democrats endorsed her, so she got all the votes in the general election and established herself as the first woman senator. (Two women had preceded her in the House.)

It was during her term in the Senate that E. Maude Ferguson learned she had cancer. Although she was elected to serve as a delegate to the Republican National Convention, she became too ill to go and she committed suicide. Her husband found her in their Bristol garden, a pistol by her side.

E. Maude Ferguson’s contributions to her community and her state had been almost forgotten, but the bill that was forwarded on to Governor Chris Sununu for his signature will see that her portrait hangs in the State House, keeping her memory alive.

of $14,625 would cover Phase I of three phases, for alarms on the first floor, where most of the offices are located, with the upper floor alarms to be added later. Chair Fran Newton proposed taking the funds for the system from the Town Building Maintenance and Repair Capital Reserve Fund. Selectman Tejasinha Sivalingam was in favor of the fire alarm system, but felt that it would be an improvement, not “maintenance” or “repair” and suggested a warrant article at next year’s town meeting. Newton said that the Town Hall should be protected now. The other selectmen agreed and it was voted 4 to 1 to use the capital reserve fund for the first phase of the fire alarm system.

Bids for the repaving of a section of River Street were opened from R & D Paving, Bryant Paving, and GMI Asphalt, the last seeming to be the low bidder. The bids were then given to Public Works Director Tim Paquette for his review and recommendation. Sivalingam brought up the issue of the runoff from Smith Hill Road that impacts the Fucarile property, stating that it was an environmental problem and could lead to a lawsuit. The Town Administrator noted that the “no means no” rule will probably mean that no money can be spent on correcting the problems of Smith Hill Road because a bond issue for the reconstruction of that road and Thompson Street failed to pass at the March town election. He has contacted the state Department of Revenue Administration to see if the Selectmen could use money from the Road Improvement Capital Reserve Fund on Smith Hill Road, but did not think that DRA would allow such an expenditure. Public Works Director Paquette noted that the Town “did not create the problem,” that the Smith Hill Road culvert discharged water onto the property long before it was developed. Selectmen Harold Lamos pointed out that impervious surfaces along Smith Hill Road had increased significantly in the last ten years, sending more water into the road drainage system. Michael O’ Hara, who owns the property downhill of Smith Hill Road, expressed concern about the possible impact of drainage changes on his land and septic systems. The selectmen decided to postpone action on Smith Hill Road until the Town heard back from DRA on what could legally be done this year. The Public Works Director was also asked to respond to a complaint about a cold patch repair on Smith Hill Road. He said that the two employees who had done the work were offended by the complaint, as they thought they had done a good job. Paquette reminded the Selectmen that cold patch was “just a patch” and said that this particular patch was about as good as cold patch could be. He would have much preferred to repave the road. Selectman Lamos remarked that the Town generally does a better job with cold patch than the State does.

Memorial Park Trustee Mark Liebert informed the Selectmen that the large maple tree in the center of Memorial Park had decayed to the point that it was a hazard and should be removed. Two arborists had been consulted and both had agreed that it was time to take down the tree. The trustees plan to remove the tree in the fall, leaving the stump, and to plant a new maple tree nearby. Since the new tree will be near the river, a state permit is required for the work to install it. The selectmen, as “owners” of the Park, were asked to sign the permit request. Selectman Sivalingam suggested that a dying tree can provide habitats for animals and other ecological benefits. Liebert responded that if the tree was in the forest, he would leave it alone, but since it was in a public park and could be a hazard to those using the park when it eventually fails, it should be removed. The selectmen voted 4 to 1 to sign the application for the permit.

The Trustees of the Trust Funds have refused to release money from the Electric Department’s capital reserve fund for the construction of the new garage for the Department trucks. The Electric Commissioners have therefore sued the Trustees for the release of the funds. The Trustees hired attorneys who submitted a bill to the Town for $1,840, with more bills to follow. The question for the selectmen was whether to pay the bill or not. Since the case is still in court, Newton suggested delaying payment until the lawsuit is decided. Sivalingam was in favor of paying the bill, saying that the Trustees were acting as they thought best and were entitled to their legal expenses. Lamos said that the Town’s attorney had warned the selectmen to keep their distance from this dispute. He felt that paying the legal bill for the Trustees would be taking sides. The selectmen voted 4 to 1 to postpone payment of the legal bills.

The Planning Board had nominated Mardean Badger as one of the Town’s representatives to the Lakes Region Planning Commission. Sivalingam asked about her commitment to ecology, green energy, and reducing taxes. Newton explained that Badger had worked on several grants for the town, while Lamos noted that she had worked on the proposal for solar panels at the Transfer Station. Nevertheless, Sivalingam voted in the minority in the 4 to 1 vote to appoint Badger to the Commission.

As some members of the Ashland Transportation Advisory Committee have decided not to serve again, the selectmen are seeking volunteers for the committee. The selectmen voted to give town employees a holiday with pay on Monday, July 3. They approved an agreement with Primex, the Town’s insurance carrier, for a cap on the amount the insurance can be increased. They were to meet with Primex representatives and department heads to discuss the Town’s goals on June 7.

The selectmen reported on the activities of committees and departments. The Fire Department will burn the house opposite the Ames Brook Campground as a training exercise on Saturday, June 10. The Planning Board is reviewing Chapter 1 of the Master Plan. The new bagel shop next to the Post Office will open in early July. The Economic Development Committee has elected former Selectman Steve Felton as its new chairman, and is looking for Ashland businesspeople to join the Committee. The EDC is exploring becoming a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. The Conservation Commission is working on the Natural Resource Inventory and is taking water samples near Ashland’s wetlands. The Fourth of July Committee will meet on June 12 and welcomes volunteers for the holiday celebration.

Jurczynski will have Rasmussen literally right behind him on their tandem bike as they traverse 12 states over the course of 10 days.

The race goes around the clock so there will be little sleep for much of the journey as they try to stay ahead of any competition. Rasmussen is optimistic however, saying, “We’ll sleep as little as makes sense, but the faster we go, the more time we will have to sleep along the way.”

For her, it will not be the first long distance tandem bike ride, but certainly the longest and most challenging. No matter the weather, she and Jurczynski have ridden their tandem bike locally every day and even travelled to Florida, the southwest and Europe to get as much experience as they could in not only different climates, but different cycling competitions.

“I feel like I’m physically ready for this, but we’ll see what occurs alone the way,” she said.

In order to make the cross-country trip from Oceanside, Calif. to Annapolis, Md., the couple will be supported by a crew of 10 people, headed up by Chris Hodges of the Waterville Valley Department of Public Safety. The crew’s mission is to drive along behind the couple in vans stocked with food, water, repair tools and any other equipment they may need along the way. They will also have medical supplies to tend to any injuries, cuts or blisters that may crop up on the ride.

“They’ll be keeping an eye on us for nutrition, hydration and safety along the way and make sure we’re following all the rules of RAAM. There’s really quite a lot involved in this,” Rasmussen said.

Jurczynski added that the last time anyone entered the RAAM on a tandem bicycle was in 2002 and the fastest time on record for a mixed team (male and female) is 22 hours and 40 minutes over 10 days of cycling.

“If we have a good tail wind and can stay healthy, I think we can break that time,” he said last week.

Besides breaking the record, team “Better Together” also hopes to raise a lot of money for First Descents, a nonprofit organization that provides healthy outdoor challenges for young adults who are battling or have survived a diagnosis of cancer.

People can learn more about the team, “Better Together,” read stories of their cycling adventures and even make a tax-deductible donation to First Descents by visiting their Web site, www.tandemraamracing.com. Beginning June 13, Jurczynski and Rasmussen’s progress in the race can also be followed daily at www.raceacrossamerica.org, where they will be listed as team T15.

One long ride

Locals prepare for cross-country bicycle race

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

PLYMOUTH — John Jurczynski and Ann Rasmussen have some pedaling ahead of them.

The two local residents are set to embark on a journey across America on a tandem bicycle, starting in Oceanside, Calif. on June 13 and finishing in Annapolis, Md.

The two cyclists are competing in the Race Across America (RAAM) 2017, a non-stop race across the country as a fundraiser for First Descents, a non-profit organization providing outdoor experiences for young adult cancer survivors.

For Jurczynski, this will not be the first time he's cycled across the country. He made the journey solo in 1980 and twice in 1982, which also happened to be the first year of RAAM.

He saw the broadcast of the event and immediately became interested, but as happens, things got in the way.

"Life got in the way," Jurczynski said. "But 25 years later, I did Race Across America."

Jurczynski, who works at Rockyworld-Deephaven Camps, did RAAM solo in 2007, his fourth trip across the country on his bicycle. Despite battling injuries along the way, he finished tops in his age group.

"But I wanted to go back at some point and do better than I did,"

Jurczynski said.

However, another injury put that dream on the shelf for a while and in the meantime, he began riding a tandem bicycle and found Rasmussen, who works at Plymouth Regional High School.

"She's an incredible athlete," Jurczynski said. "We started doing well at events and this is kind of the culmination of three years of riding together."

"And at 60 (Jurczynski) and 53 (Rasmussen) if we didn't give it a shot now, we'd probably never do it," he added.

When he first raised funds during a ride across the country, Jurczynski supported diabetes research and this time they wanted to find another good charity to work toward and that led them to First Descents. Cancer had affected both of their families so they knew that cancer would be the cause.

"And First Descents really fits us well because it provides an adventure program for young adults who've battled cancer," Jurczynski said. The group did a program at the camp Jurczynski works at and he came away impressed with their work. The duo worked with Jen Morris in helping to fundraise for the race.

In addition to the fundraising, the tandem group also has an entire support team coming along for the trip.

"You're required to have support vans, at least two vehicles, so I can be resting," Jurczynski said. "They generally stay behind us and at night they have to be clearly behind us to help prevent accidents."

Chris Hodges, who works in Waterville Valley, will be the team's crew chief and this will be his second RAAM experience after crewing in 2011.

Retired elementary school teacher Jane Kellogg is the assistant crew chief and also

Homers sink Bobcats in quarterfinals

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

MILFORD — The first pitch of the game in Saturday's Division II softball quarterfinal game in Milford roared off the bat of Plymouth senior Jordan Meier and over the fence in centerfield.

As it turns out, the ball soaring over the fence was not an unusual sight on Saturday afternoon.

Playing on what seemed more like a Little League field than a varsity softball field, the Bobcats were unable to come back from three early homers by the Spartans and eventually dropped a 12-7 decision, ending their season.

"I think they got to Jevan (Sandhu) a little and took her off her game a little," coach Brian Blanchard said. "A three-run homer in the first, in a field this size, you can't miss.

"They're good hitters," Blanchard added. "But you can't give a good team anything."

Meier led off by hammering the first pitch over the fence for a 1-0 lead. Emily Boyd reached on an error but she was stranded and Milford came to the plate. After a hit and a sacrifice bunt, Sandhu issued a walk and then one out later, a homer over the fence gave Milford a 3-1 lead.

Plymouth went quietly in the top of the second but the same was not true for the Spartans in the bottom of the inning. After Jackie Gaurner made a nice play at second base to start the

Plymouth laxers upset by Cougars in quarterfinals

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

PLYMOUTH — It wasn't the ending the Plymouth lacrosse boys envisioned, in more ways than one.

Not only did Con-Val celebrate on Plymouth's home field after Friday's quarterfinal battle, the end of the game also saw seniors Tyler Morrison and Matt Rossner collide at midfield in pursuit of a loose ball as time ran out, laying both players out and forcing Rossner to be carted off by trainer John Brule. The good news was that Rossner was able to attend graduation the next morning.

Coach Glenn Mausolf noted the camaraderie that showed at the end of the game was one thing he was certainly proud of.

"The thing to hang our hats on is watching the boys thank Matt while he was in that cart," Mausolf said. "The closeness the team developed, it's truly a brotherhood."

"The bigger picture is how these young men came together and perhaps learned something a little bigger than what goes on between the lines," the Bobcat coach stated.

The Bobcats got out of the gate first with some good pressure from Connor Magowan, Ethan Richard and Josh Johnston all sending shots wide, while Nolan Farina had a shot blocked by the Con-Val keeper. Marcus Morel also had a shot denied and Richard and Vance Acton had bids that didn't quite get in the net.

At the other end, Chris Patnaude had a save for the Bobcats, while Austin Appleby and Drew Hodges chipped in with good defense.

Morel got the Bobcats on the board with 5:25 to go in the frame, finishing a feed from Farina for a 1-0 lead.

The lead doubled just more than a minute later, as Zach Ross fired a shot in for the 2-0 lead.

Con-Val answered quickly, as they scored less than 30 seconds later, firing a shot top shelf to cut the lead to 2-1. Rossner, Acton and Morel all had chances in the final minutes and Patnaude made another save, with the period ending with Plymouth up 2-1.

Con-Val came through with good pressure out of the gate in the second period and scored the first goal of the frame just less than two minutes in to tie the score.

Then, just more than a minute later, Richard found Rossner, who fired the ball home to put the Bobcats back in front by a 3-2 score.

Con-Val came back and tied the score with a top shelf goal with 7:50 to go in the half. Richard, Farina and Acton continued the pressure for the Bobcats but the Cougars also had their chances, with Patnaude making a couple of solid saves.

With 4:11 to go, Richard put the Bobcats back in the lead with a rifle of a shot to the back of the net but less than a minute later, the Cougars tied the score at four. Con-Val then took its first lead with 2:33 to go up 5-4 and then with 36 seconds to go in the half, with Patnaude out of the net, Con-Val scored again, taking a 6-4 lead to the half.

Just more than a minute into the second half, the lead increased to 7-4 and the next few minutes the ball went back and forth, with both teams getting chances. Jake Little was strong on defense, Ross had a shot denied and Patnaude made a couple of saves, while the Cougars also hit one off the post.

Con-Val scored again with 6:35 to go and Plymouth answered less than a minute later with Farina finishing a feed from Morel. However, Con-Val came right back down the field and scored again for a 9-5 lead.

With 2:26 to go, Morel took a feed from Farina, who had taken the pass from Morrison. Morel fired the ball home to cut the lead to 9-6 and thanks to some strong play from Patnaude, the score remained 9-6 after three.

Plymouth went on the attack to open the fourth quarter, with Farina, Morel and Richard all getting bids.

With 9:34, Farina cut toward the net and as he was falling to the ground on the wet grass, fired a shot in to make it a two-goal game.

Plymouth continued to look for bids and with the clock ticking under three and a half minutes, they cut the lead to one, as Morrison came from behind the net and fired the ball in to make it 9-8.

Johnston came up with a nice interception to get Plymouth the ball back and Farina had a bid denied but Plymouth could not put the ball in the net before the final horn, sending the Cougars in to celebration mode. The visitors quickly halted their celebration when they saw Morrison and Rossner on the ground as both teams watched in concern.

"Just because the regular season went one way, doesn't automatically mean it's going to play out like that," Mausolf said. The Bobcats beat the Cougars in the regular season. "I give them credit, they took advantage of our mis-cues."

He pointed out that everyone wants the season to end on a positive note, but it only happens that way for one team.

"You want your season to end with a victory," the Bobcat coach said, while also pointing out that the injuries at the end of the game came because the players were going full tilt to the final buzzer.

"The two of them were going so hard," Mausolf said. "The passion and the desire to win is something I'm proud of, win or lose."

Plymouth finished at 12-2 in the regular season and earned the fourth seed in Division III.

inning, a pair of base hits put two runners on and then another homer made it 6-1. Sandhu got a strikeout but then a walk preceded another homer and Milford was up 8-1. The Spartans got a double but Sandhu got a fly ball to Taylor Eaton in right to end the inning.

Plymouth answered in the top of the third inning. Grace Comeau led off with a base hit and took second on a wild pitch. Meier beat out an infield hit and then two outs later, Kacie Johnston delivered a base hit to drive in both runners. Gaumer followed with a base hit but the Bobcats couldn't get another run home and the score stood at 8-3. Sandhu struck out two in the bottom of the inning as the Spartans went in order. The Bobcats got a walk from Jenna Flaherty and another base hit from Comeau but couldn't not plate the runners.

Defense came up big in the bottom of the inning for Plymouth, as Tristan Keller made a nice snare of a rocket down the first base line and Comeau ran a long way to track down a foul ball in left field to end the inning.

The Bobcats got their second homer of the game in the top of the fifth inning, as Johnston cut the lead to 8-4. More defense kept it a four-run game in the bottom of the inning, as Boyd went deep in the hole at shortstop and made a big throw across the diamond to end the inning.

Eaton led off the sixth with a bae hit and Flaherty followed with a base hit, but Eaton was forced at second. After Comeau's third hit of the day, a 9-3 double play brought the inning to a screeching halt.

Milford used yet another three-run homer plus an RBI base hit to up the lead to 12-4 in the bottom of the sixth inning but the Bobcats did not quit.

With two outs in the top of the seventh, Johnston ripped her second homer of the game to cut into the lead and then Gaumer followed with a base hit. Keller then launched her own homer to cut the lead to 12-7. However, that was as close as they would get and the Bobcat season came to an end.

"They didn't quit," Blanchard said, praising his team's last inning relentlessness.

Tristan Keller belted a homer in the seventh inning of her team's playoff game at Milford Saturday.

Taylor Eaton hauls in a fly ball in right field during playoff action in Milford.

"What I'm hoping is that the younger girls learn what it takes."

"You have to work hard to get here and stay with it to the last out," the Bobcat coach added.

Blanchard noted that both teams played well defensively, but noted that the three walks all came back to haunt his team, as all three scored on homers.

Plymouth opened the tournament with a 12-0 win over St. Thomas in what assistant coach Chuck Lenahan called the team's best game of the season.

The Bobcats finished the regular season at 12-4.

Bobcats fall in extra-inning playoff battle

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

DOVER — The Plymouth baseball team almost had the upset in the opening round of the Division II tournament on Thursday, June 1.

However, St. Thomas was able to answer in the eighth inning and then walk off with the win in the ninth, 10-6.

“Overall it was a great battle, that we unfortunately came up on the short end of,” said coach Mike Boyle. “The kids stuck together and rallied to extend the game a few times, which I was very proud of.”

Plymouth got out to a quick lead, as Mike Hogan led off with a base hit and took second on a passed ball. Nick Qua-ley’s sacrifice groundout moved Hogan to third and a double from Garrett Demas plated the game’s first run. Dylan Donahue followed with a base hit to score Demas for a 2-0 lead for the Bobcats.

Colby Moore launched a solo homer to left field in the top of the second inning to lift the Bobcats to a 3-0 lead but St. Thomas came back with a run in the bottom of the frame to make it 3-1.

The Saints got a sacrifice fly and a two-run homer in the bottom of the fourth inning and took the 4-3 lead before the Cats rallied and tied the game in the top of the sixth inning. Patrick Malm laid down a perfect squeeze bunt to score

Ben Olmstead with the tying run.

The Saints took a 5-4 lead in the bottom of the sixth inning but Plymouth answered in the top of the seventh inning, as Demas doubled home Owen Brickley and the score was tied at five.

Plymouth took the lead in the top of the eighth inning, as Devlin Costa scored on a passed ball for the one-run lead. However, St. Thomas got a solo homer in the bottom of the eighth to tie the game. The Saints then got a walk-off grand slam in the bottom of the ninth inning to secure the 10-6 win.

“We have a young group that can hopefully use this as a learning experience and improve on some things in the future to get over the hump in the playoffs and get that first win,” Boyle said.

Brickley started and pitched into the fourth, giving up one earned run and Demas pitched the final five innings, giving up six runs. Donahue had three hits and Demas and Hogan each had a pair of hits.

While fielding a young team, Boyle noted he was very pleased with the leadership he got from his seniors.

“I can’t say enough about our senior leadership this year,” Boyle said. Sam Slaughter was out with a knee injury the last two years but was there every day as a captain. Chad Merrill was new to the team this year and offered a great presence in the dugout.

pitched very well in his senior year and was a leader on the pitching staff and Donahue was the other captain, who led the way vocally and by example on and off the field.

Plymouth finished at 9-7 for the regular season.

Financial Gifts – and Tips – for New Graduates

It's Graduation Season again. If your child is graduating from high school or college, you have reason to celebrate. But what should you give to your newly minted diploma holder? You might want to consider offering a combination of financial gifts and tips, which, taken together, could set your graduate on a path toward a successful, independent life.

What sort of gifts and tips should you consider? Here are a few ideas:

- Give a few shares of stock. Everyone should understand the financial markets and how they work. One great way to encourage this interest is to give your child a few shares of stock. Young people enjoy owning a piece of a company that makes the products and services they like – and the very act of ownership can inspire them to learn more about investing and to ask questions: What causes the stock price to go up or down? How long should I hold this stock? Should I own several stocks like this one, or is it better to branch out to find new opportunities? Over time, in learning the answers to these and other questions, your child can become familiar with investing and how to make the best choices.
- Encourage your graduate to open an IRA. Your child can open an IRA as long as he or she has some earned income. You might want to suggest that your child consider a Roth IRA, which, at the child's age and income level, may be a good choice. With a Roth IRA, children can access their contributions at any time, tax- and penalty-free. They can't touch the earnings without incurring both taxes and penalties, however, until they reach 59½. But you will want to encourage them to keep the money in their IRA intact, giving it the chance to grow.
- Provide some financial education. Unfortunately, most young people don't really receive any kind of formal financial education. Of course, you can try to provide some of this knowledge to your own children, but, as you know, advice from Mom and Dad sometimes gets ignored. However, you might get better results if you arrange for your recent graduate to meet with a financial professional. As mentioned above, owning stocks, and following their progress, can teach your children a great deal about investing, but a financial professional can paint the “big picture” and explain how all aspects of money management – such as borrowing, budgeting, saving and investing – fit together to help individuals stay in control of their finances and make progress toward their important financial goals, such as buying a house and retiring in comfort. Recent graduates, whether leaving high school or college, are at “turning points” in their lives and can benefit greatly from understanding the importance of developing good, lifelong financial habits.

Most of us can think of several money-related mistakes we've made over the course of many years. And your children will make some errors, too. But by providing them with some appropriate financial gifts and valuable advice upon their graduation, they may well be better prepared to keep those mistakes to a minimum – while maximizing their ability to make good decisions.

Jandoc competes at Meet of Champions

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

MERRIMACK — Four individuals and one relay team earned bids to move on to the elite New England Track and Field Championships with their performances at Saturday’s Meet of Champions.

The top finisher of the day was Kingswood’s Jake Dearborn, who threw his way to second place in the discus with a toss of 135 feet, two inches. This earned him a bid to New Englands. Leo Ntourntourekas of New-found finished 18th with a toss of 105 feet, nine inches.

Ntourntourekas, however, also earned his own bid to New Englands by finishing fourth in the shot put with a toss of 47 feet, nine inches, which broke the school record he set last week. Dear-born finished 14th at 40 feet, 6.5 inches.

Coach Mike LaPlume had nothing but praise for Ntourntourekas, who set records in both the shot put and discus at the Division III State Meet.

“Leo is by far the most dedicated athlete I’ve ever coached,” LaPlume said. “He has shown incredible growth over the past year. He has improved his shot put throw by over five feet, and he just started throwing disc last fall. He never threw the implement in competition, and he has turned himself into the best disc thrower in D3.”

“Like Mike has stated, Leo has dedicated his entire senior year to track and field,” said coach Charlie Therriault. “He started to teach himself discus in the fall. He deserved this type of success.”

He broke the school records in the span of about an hour and a half.

“As far as I can tell, this is the first time anybody has done that,” LaPlume said, noting it is the first time New-found has won championships in both events. The previous shot put record was set by Luke Bergeron in 1999 and the discus record was set by Wally Laws in 1995. Ntourntourekas broke the discus record on his first throw and then broke it again on his second throw. The first throw became important when it was used as the tiebreaker when both throwers reaching 131 feet, 10 inches. He set the shot put record on his sixth and final throw, moving from third to first.

Kennett’s Noah Lautenschlager ran to fifth overall in the 200 meters with a time of 23.22 seconds to earn his bid to New Englands. He was also ninth in the 100 meters in 11.61 seconds.

The Kingswood 4X800-meter relay team also earned a bid to the New England championships, as the team of Owen Gwizdala, Brodie Deshaies, Brent Coope and Wyatt Pooler ran to a time of 8:22.63 to finish sixth overall after winning the Division II title a week earlier. The Prospect Mountain team of Alex Amann, Jeremy Woodbury, Troy Meyer and Tommy Howlett was 12th in 8:40.23 and the Kennett team of Jonathan Caputo, Kirk Badger, Keith Badger and Nick Whitley was 13th in 8:41.

The Prospect team of Howlett, Meyer, Woodbury and Hudson Ingoldsby finished 11th in the 4X400-meter relay in 3:32.47.

The Kennett team of Sam Cawley, Noah Du-bois, Chris Caputo and Noah Lautenschlager placed ninth in the 4X100-meter relay in 45.51 seconds.

Ingoldsby also competed in three individual events for Prospect Mountain.

His best finish was in the 300-meter hurdles, where he just missed out on New Englands, finishing seventh in 41.17 seconds. He also just missed out in the high jump, finishing seventh at five feet, 10 inches. In the 110-meter hurdles, he placed 18th in 16.63 seconds.

Chris Desmaris of Kennett finished 12th in the 1,600 meters in 4:45.12.

The other New England qualifier was Kennett’s Selena Gauthier, who placed seventh in the 100-meter preliminaries in 13.22 seconds and placed sixth in the finals in 13.23 seconds. She placed 15th in the 200 meters in 29.03 seconds.

Kingswood had two hurdlers competing, with Eileen McKenna finishing 15th in the 100-meter hurdles in 17.8 seconds and Hannah Chatigny in 17th in 17.94 seconds. In the 300-meter hurdles, Chatigny was 13th in 49.81 and McKenna was 14th in 50.66.

The Kennett 4X800-meter team of India Drummond, Zoe McKinney, Kaitlyn Fay and Chloe VanDyne finished 11th in 10:24.4.

VanDyne added a ninth place finish in the high jump at four feet, 10 inches.

In the triple jump, Prospect freshman Gracie Hardie was 10th at 31 feet, 11 inches while Kingswood freshman Caitlin Carpenter was 13th at 31 feet, 8.75 inches.

Naomi Murzin of Prospect Mountain placed eighth in the shot put at 33 feet, one inch, followed by Angel Jandoc of Plymouth in ninth at the same distance and Joie Milbourn of Kingswood in 10th at 31 feet, 11 inches. Murzin placed 14th in the discus with a toss of 86 feet, four inches and Newfound’s Becky Norton was 15th at 86 feet, one inch.

The New England Championships will take place at Norwell High School in Norwell, Mass. at 10 a.m.

Trail races coming to Wolfeboro this summer

WOLFEBORO — In July the Wolfeboro Free Masons will be hosting a family friendly running series at Abenaki ski area. There will be a three-mile trail race for all abilities, a short one-mile course and a pop-sicle dash for toddlers. The trails used are maintained by the Lakes Region Conservation Trust. The three-mile race will be timed, the one-mile race will not be timed as they would like it to be stress free and fun for all abilities. The dates for the races will be July 13, 20 and 27. It will be called the Wolfeboro Masonic Summer Cross Country Series. The toddler dash will start at 6 p.m., the one-mile fun run at 6:05 p.m. and the three-mile race at 6:30 p.m. All races will start on time.

This summer race series is for first time runners and seasoned runners. The goal is to create a non-intimidating environment that brings adults, children, families, new runners and fast runners together. Track teams are encouraged to come out and run too. With three different race options on well-marked courses there is something for everyone who wants to get out in the woods and make new friends. Socialization before, during and after the races will be encouraged and the last race will offer an awards ceremony for series winners as well as a potluck barbecue.

The proceeds from the race will benefit the Wolfeboro Masons and $2 from every race entry fee will be donated to the Lakes Region Conservation Trust.

Entry for each race will be $15 for adults racing the three-mile course and $10 for students. If you choose to register in advance for the series it will be $30 for each adult and $20 for students. The one-mile course and toddler race will be free but donations are encouraged.

Organizers are looking for a photographer to take pictures of the runners and if anyone is willing to donate food for the barbecue, Gatorade for during the race, timing equipment to be used during the race, survey flagging, raffle prizes or money to offset the cost of race insurance, bib numbers and trophies for the winners, please e-mail kfolcik2@gmail.com.

You can register the day of the race or save some money by preregistering for the entire series at www.runreg.com/summerxc. Races will happen rain or shine.

Asnacomet Pond (aka Comet Pond) is located in Hubbardston, Mass. It covers 136 acres with an average depth of 29 feet and a maximum depth of 54 feet. The water is exceptionally clear with a transparency of around 25 feet. It has a gravel, rock-strewn bottom with little aquatic vegetation.

Those are the hard facts about the pond. But it is the soft facts that I remember most. My father, Walter, would wake me in up the middle of the night to go fishing. He would drive us to Comet Pond, park at the dirt parking and walk along the wooded pathway to the small dam that controlled the pond’s outflow by the light of the moon. By lantern light we would bait our hook and cast out our lines and listen for the splash of the small lead-sinker for a sense of where the bait landed. I would hold the line in my fingers to feel any fish. The early morning effort always paid off because I remember catching a trout on the first cast on three consecutive trips.

The first bird

Beside the thrill of catching trout, my memories of being with my father and watching the beginning of a new day are still fresh in my mind today. The first glow of dawn was always accompanied by the silence of the forest being broken by the sounds of waking birds. Whenever I hear Cat Stevens sing, “Morning has broken – like the first morning, Blackbirds have spoken – like the first bird,” I think of Comet Pond.

As the sun rose and took the morning chill away and we could see, we propped our fishing rods in forked rod holders. We then would break open our food basket and share a bite of food and talk about all sorts of things waiting for the next trout to take the bait.

After six decades, things change, Asnacomet Pond now has a concrete boat ramp and paved 40-car parking lot in place of the gravel boat launch and small parking area, a new road to the dam leading to houses built along the shoreline replaced the wooded pathway, a sandy public beach along the main road along with a 20-horsepower limit for two-stroke engines and a 25-horsepower limit for four-stroke engines restrictions have been added.

I too have changed, the days of my getting up at the crack of dawn are long gone (I now fish banker’s hours, 9 to 3, and seem to be able to catch enough fish in the daytime to keep me happy). But, even without me being there, I imagine that the birds still greet the dawn with song.

Vintage base ball game coming to Franconia on Sunday

FRANCONIA — On Sunday, June 11, at 1 p.m. on the Dow Field in Franconia, a unique Base Ball match will be played by Maine Dirigo and NH Granite. Come step back in time to see the era that made Base Ball “American’s Game.” Free admission to all, bring your lawn chairs.

To play Base Ball, all you needed was a bat (a fence post, barrel stave, or tree branch), a ball (a tight wad of rags works) and flour sacks to mark the bases. Base Ball gave players and spectators a few joyful minutes to forget the bloody turmoil around them. Two out of every 10 Americans died in the Civil War and many more carried its scars but it was this horror that made Base Ball so popular.

Games were played in prisoner of war camps, in between battles and during any free time by both Confederate and Union troops. In 1862, a game in South Carolina drew 40,000 spectators. Soldiers wrote letters home about their games. George Putnam, wrote home, that they were attacked during a game and the outfielders took the worst of it. Left and right fielders made it back to safety but the centerfielder was hit and captured. He lamented that they not only lost their centerfielder but they lost their only baseball.

During the game on June 11, you will hear the ballists (players) speaking the jargon and playing by the rules of the era with no gloves and probably in wool uniforms. Balls can bounce once before they are caught and still be a hand lost (out). Strikers (hitters) will hit corks or daisy cutters if they manage the dew drop of the hurler (pitcher). Come and cheer on these teams to become a Crank (fan).

The New Hampshire Granite Vintage Base Ball Club was formed in 2005 in the Nashua area, based on a Manchester team that was part of the professional league that started in New England in 1886 and lasted until the late 1940s. Members of the Granite come from New Hampshire, Massachusetts and New York.

The Maine Dirigo Club was formed in 2006 by Civil War re-enactors as a tribute to the returning Civil War soldiers that brought Base Ball to Maine. The club took its name from the Augusta Dirigos, who dominated the sport in the late 1860s. That team won a New England championship in 1869. Dirigo plays up and down the eastern seaboard and recently played the Boston Beaneaters. Their web site has an abundance of information on Vintage Base Ball at www.

Organizers thank the Woodsville Guaranty Bank for bringing Maine Dirigo and NH Granite to Franconia. Thanks to Franconia Hardware, Harman’s Cheese and Country Store and Lafayette Recreation for event assistance. A Base Ball match wouldn’t be complete without food concessions. Adaptive Sports Partners of the North Country will bring hot dogs and other goodies. Have a hot dog while you enjoy a unique and antique Base Ball match on Sunday afternoon, June 11.

Playoff season means lots of choices and some driving too

The playoffs often provide a lot of tough decisions as to where to go and what games to cover. This spring was no different.

Added to the wonderful scheduling mess was the fact that rain on the first day of scheduled tournament play forced a number of postponements.

The Division II and III softball tournaments were scheduled to get under way last Wednesday and of course, all five of my softball teams were in the playoffs. I decided to head to North Conway to see the Kennett girls play Merrimack Valley, a game the Eagles lost to end their season. Kingswood traveled to

SPORTING CHANCE

By JOSHUA SPAULDING

Milford for their game, dropping a 4-0 decision.

The Division II boys’ lacrosse tournament also started on Wednesday and Kingswood traveled to Windham looking for a repeat of last year’s upset of the Jaguars, but that did not happen, as Kingswood fell 15-5.

The other three softball games, which saw Plymouth hosting St. Thomas, Newfound at Franklin and Prospect Mountain at Fall Mountain, were all postponed due to the threat of rain and they were moved to Thursday.

Of course, Thursday already was the start of the baseball playoffs and I had four baseball teams in the tournaments. Kingswood was at John Stark and Plymouth was at St. Thomas, with both teams coming up just short in their upset bids. I was lucky enough that my other two teams, Newfound and Prospect Mountain, were playing each other, so the decision as to which game to go to was pretty easy on my end. Newfound won that game, while on the softball diamonds, Prospect and Plymouth won and Newfound lost, meaning the Newfound baseball and Prospect and Plymouth softball teams were all scheduled to move on in the tournament to action on Saturday.

Newfound was up against top-ranked Campbell, but since I’d seen them already in the week, I narrowed my choice down to either Prospect or Plymouth softball. Fortunately, the teams were playing just a half hour away from each other and the Prospect game was moved up to a 1 p.m. start. So I made the nice long ride to New Ipswich to catch the Timber Wolves in what was an epic playoff battle that went nine innings before the Timber Wolves fell. Then I drove a half an hour to see Plymouth at Milford in a homer-fest, on what has to be the smallest field any varsity team plays on anywhere. In my mind, it probably shouldn’t be used as a varsity field. After eight homers combined, Plymouth came up short, ending their season.

Saturday was also the track Meet of Champions, where four individuals (Selena Gauthier, Noah Lautenschlager, Leo Ntourntourekas and Jake Deaborn) and one relay team (Kingswood 4X800 boys) qualified for New England.

The only team still left in the tournament at the start of the week was the Prospect unified volleyball team, which opened the tournament after deadline Tuesday at Dover.

And then, maybe there will be a bit of a break. Maybe.

Finally, have a good day Rick and Amy Burley.

worked on Jurczynski’s RAAM ride in 2007.

Also back 10 years after helping in the 2007 race is Jim Gagne, who will be the medical man for the team.

Ron Reynolds is the team “MacGyver” according to Jaczynski and will be the team’s mechanic.

The duo were also lucky enough to get another RAAM rider on board for the team. Brett Walker completed the solo RAAM in 2007 and competed again in 2011 and also was part of a four-person team for RAAM in 2009.

“Ten years ago, the entire crew wanted to do it again,” Jurczynski said, noting he was happy to have two of those team members back this year.

The crew also includes driver and navigator Brad Cilley, cook and hydration specialist Bridget Powers, Kyle Hodges, videographer Cindy Jones, mechanic David Lafferty, webmaster Emily Searles Lafferty, health and wellness provider Barbara McCahan, fundraising guru Morris, raffle queen Carissa O’Gara, transporters Peter and Sue Francesco and Catherine Judkins Douglass and Mike Bombara.

Jurczynski noted that their support team will include an RV and two minivans. One is the follow vehicle and the other is the carry vehicle and the backup.

“There will be three or four people in the follow vehicle, probably eight to 12 hour shifts,” Jurczynski said. “But it depends on how the crew is, that will evolve.”

All three vehicles have left New Hampshire and are on their way out, with the Francescos driving one of the vehicles out as they did in 2007. Walker is also driving his RV. The rest of the group, six people, fly out on Saturday, June 10, for the June 13 start.

Out of all the different categories, Jurczynski said that solo tandem is the hardest as they are the 15th tandem team to try a solo run in 36 years, with the last one coming in 2002.

In order to be official finishers, the duo has to finish in 12 days 21 hours.

“If we do that, we’ll get the trans-continental record for mixed tandem in the 50-59 age group” Jurczynski said, noting the age group is determined the average age of the two riders.

“That’s a big if,” he said. “Forty-two percent of solo riders don’t finish. Our odds are in the 30-35 percent range of finishing.

“But we’re not looking at it that way,” Jurczynski added.

He noted that if things are going really well, the overall mixed tandem record is 10 days, 22 hours and 40 minutes and they could shoot for that.

The ride covers 12 states and has 175,000 feet of elevation gain. The highest point is in Colorado at Wolf Creek Pass, which is 10,550 feet above sea level.

If riders deviate from the set course, they are disqualified and if they make a wrong turn, they have to go back to where the wrong turn was made and pick it up from there.

The race officially starts on June 13 and anyone looking to follow along should check out tandemraam.com or the Facebook page at Tandem RAAM. The team has an auction site with items up for bid to raise funds for First Descents at <https://www.32auctions.com/tandemraam>. The auction closes on June 10.

SUMMER LECTURE SERIES: THE BEE’S NEEDS — DIVERSITY AND SUSTAINABILITY OF NATIVE POLLINATORS (7-8 p.m.) Squam Lakes Natural Science Center celebrates National Pollinator Week with an adult lecture, “The Bee’s Needs — Diversity and Sustainability of Native Pollinators” presented by Dr. Sandra Rehan, Assistant Professor at the University of New Hampshire. Globally, there are more than 20,000 described species of bees, 4,000 of which are native to North America. It is estimated there are more than 200 different bee species in New England. Bees pollinate more than 250,000 species of flowering plants. Everyone loves honey produced by honey bees; however, bees are more important and beneficial to humans because of their pollination services. We rely on pollinators for increased yields in agriculture, estimated to be worth $200 billion in food crop production each year. Maintaining diverse and healthy bee communities is essential to sustain our ecosystems. Dr. Sandra Rehan from the UNH Bee Lab will speak about bees in New England with detailed information on bee diversity and ecology, flower preference, and flower ecology. She will also share methods for living symbiotically with our native pollinators. No charge to attend, but reservations are required by calling 968-7194, ext. 7. STORYWALK OPENING CELEBRATION (10-11:30 a.m.) StoryWalk will holds its grand opening celebration with family activities and refreshments today at the Squam Lakes Natural Science Center. StoryWalk features “Beau Beaver Goes to Town” by Frances Bloxam. In this tale, when a beaver family’s lodge becomes overcrowded, it’s time for the young beavers to live on their own. While Beau Beaver’s siblings settle easily at a brook and a pond, Beau can’t find a place to call home. He at last finds a ditch and sets to work on his beaver lodge. To his surprise, he causes a small crisis, since his building site turns out to be in the middle of town! Enjoy this fun outside family activity, rain or shine. StoryWalk surrounds the Holderness Town Gazebo behind the Holderness Post Office at Curry Place. StoryWalk is presented in partnership with Holderness Library and Holderness Recreation Department. Sponsored by Meredith Village Savings Bank. No charge, and no reservations required. For details about this event, upcoming programs, and membership, please go to www.nhnature.org or call 968-7194.

PLEASURES OF THE PARLOR WITH MARYA DANIHEL (7:30 p.m.) Holderness Historical Society, 1089 US Route 3. The music we listen to every day says a lot about us and our society, and so it was with our Victorian forbears. Their favorite songs reveal much about their inner lives, while also reflecting developments in the culture at large. Marya Danihel discusses and performs songs middle-class Victorians sang for pleasure at home in New England. Melodious, witty, and touching, this music includes parlor songs, Civil War songs, and selections by Stephen Foster and his contemporaries.

PET OF THE WEEK—WHITT

This handsome longhaired tabby came to NHHS after his owner passed away. It wasn't long before we discovered he had a significant issue with his right eye — which galvanized our medical team to determine the best course of action was to remove it.

Whitt has adjusted well to his somewhat pirate like way of looking at the world, he doesn't have an eye patch, but would surely look just as handsome if he did. This one-eyed cat, who could certainly pass himself off as a Maine Coon look-alike, is calm, easy-going and so very sweet.

Aged about 12 years old, he is in all other respects a wonderful healthy boy, now just waits that comfortable retirement home with plenty of windows for bird watching and laps for snuggling!

He is truly the kindest soul, and warms up to new people right away with lots of head scratches and some loving attention.

Please come and visit Whitt today! We promise you will fall in love with this handsome character. Check www.nhumane.org for more details.

Small Group Study Building You Marriage to Last
Led by Ernie Madden Tuesdays, 6:30-8 p.m.
Childcare provided for infants through sixth grade
Your marriage is under construction every day, as you build on the promises that you’ve made to each other and learn to deal with setbacks and challenges. Some days, it’s less than you hoped for, and other days, it’s more than you ever dreamed. No matter how good, difficult, long or short your marriage has been, you can start building — or remodeling — right now.

Who Needs God?
Perhaps nobody. Perhaps everybody. Perhaps we should talk about it. Led by Ernie Madden. Thursdays, 6:30-8:15 p.m.

Axyon Youth Ministry, for grades 6 through 12
Fridays from 6:30-8:30 p.m. at Mill #3 (39 Winter St.), just around the corner from the church. This youth ministry will be meeting every week, and is led by our youth and worship pastor, Aaron Stout, along with our volunteer youth leader staff. This youth group ministry is open to youth not only from Ashland, but surrounding towns as well. Spread the word and bring your friends.

Mondays
8 p.m. — Alcoholics Anonymous Group meets in the church dining room.

It is our desire to help you understand God’s incredible grace and love. If you have any questions, please call Pastor Ernie Madden at (office phone number) 968-9463, (home phone number) 968-7770, or his cell phone at 412-2046. You can also e-mail him at accernie@hotmail.com, or visit the church Web site, ashlandcommunitychurch.com.

We believe that you will love it at Ashland Community Church. We are a friendly, loving and caring church that studies and shares the word of our Dear Lord and Savior. Our vision is to become a church that un-churched people will love to attend. Our mission is to lead people to live and love like Jesus, and to help others to do the same.

Real church, real people, real simple. We look forward to seeing you on Sunday. And remember, just come as you are! No perfect people allowed!

Ashland Episcopal (St. Mark’s Church)

Our Sr. Warden, Deb Holland, is recovering from surgery at Mass.

General Hospital. Cards may be sent to her home address at PO Box 165, Holderness, NH 03245.

A beautiful Ascension Day service was held on Thursday, May 25 at St. Mark’s Church. It was celebrated by Rev. Robin Thomas Soller from Trinity Episcopal Church, Meredith NH assisted by Deacon Maryan Davis. The congregations from from Holy Spirit and Trinity Church were invited to join us. A special coffee/social hour was held in Sherrill Hall after the service.

We are coming home! On Sunday, June 11, we will return to St. Mark’s Church, Ashland for the 9:30 a.m. Sunday Service for the summer and fall months. Sunday School will be held in Sherrill Hall at the same time and all children are welcome to attend. For any further information concerning Sunday School, please contact Jean Murphy at 253-7294. The eight a.m. service will continue to be held at Holy Spirit in Plymouth. Our usual coffee/social hour will be held in Sherrill Hall following the service on Sundays. Everyone is always welcome at St. Mark’s, the friendly church. For any further information please call St. Mark’s office anytime and leave a message or during office hours on Fridays 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. For pastoral emergencies, please call Deacon Maryan Davis at 548-7994.

Rev. Randy Dales will be undergoing hip replacement surgery and will be recovering from June 12 into July. In his absence, Allan Knight will be guest celebrant on June 18 and July 2. Jane van Zandt will be guest celebrant on June 25.

Campton Congregational

Sunday, June 11
Our Sunday Worship starts at 9:30 a.m. each week, and, as always, we invite members and visitors to join us as we gather to share praise and thanks to God. This is the First Sunday following Pentecost, a special day called Trinity Sunday in many Church bodies. We will focus on the Bible’s presentation of the fullness of God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with each title illustrating how the Triune God worked in Biblical history and in our lives day by day.

Our morning begins with Choir Rehearsal at 8:30 a.m.; anyone interested is welcome to join us. At 9 a.m., you are welcome to join a Prayer Group which meets for prayer for the service, for one another’s needs, and for the world situation. We see answered prayers quite regularly, and we invite anyone interested to join us for this time of mutual support and encouragement. Come early if you wish, or join us at 9:30 a.m. for Worship.

Monday, June 12
Our bi-weekly Bereavement Group will meet on Monday, June 12, from 2:30 to 4 p.m. This is a small sharing group, led by Pastor Cindy and Pastor Russ, for people dealing with the death of loved ones. Each of us deals with loss in different ways and on different schedules. Our sharing is to be supportive of one another, and encourage sharing what has helped anyone that may be helpful for others. Call for details, or join us this week just to see how the group functions that may be helpful to you.

Tuesday, June 13 – Field Trip
This week, June 13, our Tuesday activities will be cancelled, as we go on an all day field trip to Cannon Mountain. The purpose of our periodical day-trips is simply to enjoy one another’s company, see points of interest in this wonderful area, and share friendship. If you plan to join us, please let us know in advance if possible. We will meet at Church before 9 a.m., and leave promptly. Our trips always include lunch, at some local eating place agreed to by the group. Regular Tuesday groups and activities will resume June 20.

Wednesday, June 14
On Wednesday, June 14, members of our NA-CCC Churches in New Hampshire are invited to a Breakfast gathering at Jitter’s restaurant in Pittsfield. Pastors and members of our churches come together periodically for fellowship and sharing. This is a time for getting acquainted with others from our NA churches, updating what’s happening in our churches, and simply sharing our faith and church experiences and hopes. We will gather at 9 a.m. for breakfast, and usually are finished by 10:30 a.m.

Ham and Bean Supper

Save the date, June 24, 5 p.m. Ham and Bean Supper. This is our Strawberry Festival and we will serve strawberry shortcake for dessert. Spread the word and join us please. Come early for coffee and conversation.

The Campton Congregational Church is a member of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches. More important than denomination, we are a fellowship of Christian Believers, preaching and teaching the Good News of God’s Salvation by faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour. Please call Pastor Cindy or Pastor Russ at 536-2536 for more information about the Bible, our Church, or if we can be of any help to you in your daily life situation.

Chapel of St. John of the Mountains

Summer Worship at St Johns of the Mountains begins Sunday, June 18. St. Johns of the Mountain is located on Ellsworth Hill Road, nestle in the Hills about five miles from Route 3. Services begin at 3 p.m., though Pastor Cindy and Russ Petrie will be there by 2 p.m. and the Sanctuary will be opened for your meditation or if you wish to talk. Each week, we welcome a different speaker, many from neighboring churches, and some special musical programs on the calendar as well. We cordially invite and welcome you to join us any Sunday, or, even better, every Sunday June 18 through Sept. 3.

Our opening Worship on Fathers’ Day will bring to our pulpit the Rev. Daniel Ward, preaching on “The Glory of God.” Rev. Ward is the pastor of the Holderness Community Church, and we welcome him back to our pulpit on this opening day of the season. We also welcome Diane Bucharelli, just returned from Florida, for another season as our organist.

Following Worship, we encourage everyone to join us in light refreshments, a time to visit with one another, greet old friends, and meet new people. This week’s fellowship is a special time as we remember our Friend Mrs. Irene L. Hahn, who passed away recently. The Rev. Raymond Hahn, Pastor Emeritus at St. John will be with us as we celebrate his long and wonderful marriage to Irene.

The Chapel is an Ecumenical Christian Church and we invite all searching for a deeper faith or those yearning to know more about our Lord Jesus Christ to join us as we celebrate our Triune God. We pray that you will consider joining us in worship and fellowship this Sunday, and whenever you are able during the Summer. This season, we are planning a couple of daytime trips to visit places of interest and beauty around our area, and also enjoy getting better acquainted with one another.

The Rev. Cynthia Petrie is the Pastor of St. John’s, and is available at 539-7064 if you wish to reach her for more information, or for conversation about the Church and the Christian faith.

Family Worship Center Plymouth Assembly of God

Greetings from Family Worship Center Assembly of God church located at 319 Highland St., Plymouth, NH 03264. If you do not have a home church we invite you to come and join our warm and friendly family here at Family Worship Center. Please feel free to contact out Pastor, Rev. Glen Yunghans at 726-0254 or 536-1966.

Our upcoming schedule is as follows:

Thursday, June 8:
On Thursday, June 8, come out and join us for our family night at church. We offer the following programs from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.:

Royal Rangers: Boys from Elementary School through High School
MPact: Girls from Preschool through High School
Adult Bible Study: In our fellowship hall, Pastor Glen is currently leading this study.
Please come out to this time of fellowship and training.

Sunday, May 28 Sunday Morning

Come on out and enjoy Bible and Bagels before Bible Study, and get a cup of juice, or coffee and a bagel from 8:30-9 a.m. Following this is our Sunday School classes for all ages from 9-10 a.m. Immediately after Sunday School we head into our regular Sunday Morning Worship Service, which features contemporary music and a Biblical message brought by our Pastor. We offer Children’s church and nursery during our services.

Sunday Evening
Sundays at 5 p.m., we have a time of prayer in our sanctuary. No prayer experience needed. All you need to do is come and talk to the Lord and trust the Lord to meet your needs and the needs presented. If you have a prayer request you may put it in the green box in our hall way marked prayer requests.

Looking Ahead:

Friday, June 9: 6:30 p.m. Food, Fun, and Fellowship in Campton, contact Rev. Ray Hahn for more information at 536-3408.

Thursday, June 8: 6:30 p.m. Service: Chris Trombetta, missionary to Native Americans will be sharing during this service.

Plymouth United Methodist Church

Sunday, June 11, 9:30 a.m. – “Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors” Our services are a blend of praise music, scripture lessons, and shared prayer and all are welcome to join us. The dress is casual, the people are friendly, the building is accessible, and there’s plenty of off-street parking. For more information about the United Methodist faith, beliefs, and mission, visit www.umc.org and then visit with us at 334 Fairgrounds Rd.

Starr King Unitarian Universalist Fellowship

Starr King Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is a multigenerational, welcoming congregation where different beliefs come together in common covenant. We work together in our fellowship, our community, and our world to nurture justice, respect, and love.

Sunday, June 11, 9:30 a.m. The Truth about White Supremacy:
Recognizing Racism within our Denomination Rev. Linda Barnes, Cindy Spring, and Sarah Dan Jones

Dismantling racism has been a goal of our denomination since the civil rights era. Why have we had so little success? Come listen as we deepen our understanding of white supremacy and how we might finally come to recognize it, together. There may be more discussion at 11 a.m.

Visitors are invited to attend the service as well as all programs at the church. Nursery care is provided for infants and toddlers. The children’s program is usually held downstairs concurrently with the service. Please join us for coffee after the service so that we may get to know you. Also after the service we will have our plant sale on the front porch.

Children and Youth Religious Education, Meredith Flynn, DRE

The kids begin upstairs on the 11th for a lesson and story about Black Lives UU. After that, they will head downstairs for the remainder of the morning.
It’s a special day in RE that morning, it’s Sundae on Sunday! It is as it sounds- we will supply the ice cream and toppings and the kids will get to make their own sundae. Afterwards, we will head outside to play some games and burn off that sugar! Kids of all ages are invited to join in the fun!

Social Justice Community Outreach for June

The Pemi Youth Center (PYC) is a local not-for-profit agency, serving as an after school destination for youth ages 10-17. The Center provides enriching after school programming Monday through Friday. All program components are offered at absolutely no cost to youth and families. Youth engage in home-work help, mentoring, art workshops, recreational games, empowerment groups, drug and alcohol use prevention, community based service learning, STEM activities, a collaborative with the Squam Lakes Natural Science Center, martial arts, and much more! Staff and volunteers work hard to inspire, encourage, and support young minds and hearts, so that our young people have the ability to dream beyond perceived limitations. The collection will be taken later in the month for this worthy cause.

Also, please bring canned or dry packaged food items for our local Community Closet collection basket in the foyer.

The Second Sunday hike will be on Saturday. For info for who to call for time and place, please go to the website.

Starr King UU Fellowship

is located at 101 Fairgrounds Rd., Plymouth. The phone number is 536-8908. The Web site is www.starrking-fellowship.org, where you can access “Newsletters” to read, or print out, any of several past issues; “Podcast” to enjoy listening to sermons you have missed, or just want to hear again; “Events Calendar” to find out what is going on in our Fellowship and other activities we enjoy together.

Wentworth Congregational

Join us each Sunday morning at 9 a.m. for our worship service. We will have this early time until the end of August.

Adult Bible Study will recess for the summer at the end of May.

Communion is served on the first Sunday of each month.

While Pastor Margaret is recuperating from heart surgery, Lynn Johnson will be in the pulpit on June 11 and 25. Gary Jessemann will preach on the 18th.

On Saturday, June 17, the Ladies Aide will hold a bake sale at Shawnee’s Market. Please come get some good food!
Blessings to all!

KEEPING EACH OTHER WELL

By Elizabeth Terp

The Northern Pass current proposal threatens the health and safety of Grafton County residents. Claims that the proposal would be cheaper than burying the line down I-93 are simply not true. Here are potential dangers to residents that the NP is trying to hide.

Many old homes on our state roads where NP plans to bury the line have stone foundations. These homes were built close to the road before cars came in. Drilling required for burying the line risks and probably guarantees shaking the stones loose and crumbling the foundations of those houses. People not only risk catastrophic damage to their homes but their very lives if they do not vacate the premises.

Many residents have water rights across the road from their homes as roads often intersected people's property. Those rights will be threatened with contamination by the power line.

School bus routes will be held up and children's safety threatened getting on and off their bus. Children will be spending more time on the bus driving up transportation costs.
Landscaping for homes along the route risks being destroyed. Homes close to the road would lose their apple trees, rhododendron and other established shrubs. Limits would be placed on residents' use of their own land with a buried line they must avoid.
Costs for accident injuries, fatalities, home restoration, artesian wells, school transportation costs, clogged commuter and tourist routes, and unnecessary disruption of neighborhoods will cost the NP project more in legal fees they carefully avoid adding in to their estimates. NP does not care if their current plan costs more because their private corporation stands to make more money once their long range plan is in place to sting New Hampshire residents with an archaic, expensive energy network.

The Department of Energy Supplement to the Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) advises that fully buried transmission lines could use the already disturbed median corridors in place, for example in I93. Those wide medians were designed for just such projects in the interests of the general public. The NP project has consistently refused to consider using I-93.

If Eversource-Hydro Quebec cared about the people of New Hampshire, they would not be trying to impose such a destructive route on our citizens. Instead, they will continue to withhold actual costs of their project to the people of New Hampshire.
That is, unless we New Hampshire citizens actively say, "No to Northern Pass!" Send your letter to the Site Evaluation Committee, c/o Pamela Monroe, Administrator, 21 S. Fruit St., Suite 10, Concord, NH 03301 or email: Pamela.Monroe@sec.nh.gov.

Genesis receives grant funding for new ADA-accessible bus

LACONIA —Thanks in part to funding from the NH DOT Federal Transportation Administration (FTA) 5310 grant program; Genesis Behavioral Health has acquired a new ADA-accessible bus for their patients. "The transportation program is a function of the Adult Services Program for persons with severe and persistent mental illness, as this is the population that has the greatest need for transportation services, and tends to utilize transportation most heavily" said Carrie Chandler, Coordinator of Evidence-Based Practices at Genesis Behavioral Health (GBH). The organization applied for its first vehicle in 2010 through the FTA 5310 grant program and provides patient transportation at both the Laconia and Plymouth locations.

Transportation services are provided in the Laconia area on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, and in the Plymouth region on Wednesday and Friday. Transportation is provided door-to-door and utilizes a demand response system based on patient need. Priority is given to patients with an appointment to see a prescriber, therapist, or case manager at GBH. The bus is also used to take patients to nearby localities for medical services or to meet other basic needs such as grocery shopping, picking up medications from a pharmacy, etc.
"A vehicle is essential to meeting the needs of Genesis' patients. The transportation program has experienced significant growth over the years, leading to increased demands on the existing vehicle and demonstrating the need to continue providing transportation services to patients," said Chandler.

"As a health care provider in a rural region, Genesis is acutely aware of the challenges many of its patients - and the region's residents - face in regards to transportation, and the agency is committed to working with other providers to ensure access to transportation. The rural characteristics of the region and the limited access to public transportation makes it challenging for residents to access activities of daily

CK Franchising Inc., Franchisor of Comfort Keepers® of Plymouth, joins NBRI's National Circle of Excellence

REGION —After demonstrating its commitment to customers and a dedication to continuous improvement, CK Franchising Inc. (CKFI), the franchisor of Comfort Keepers® of Plymouth, has earned a national award for its customer engagement efforts.
Comfort Keepers of Plymouth, an in-home care provider for seniors and other adults needing care, is a part of a global network of locations that have made customer satisfaction and engagement such a focus that the National Business Research Institute has awarded CKFI its Circle of Excellence award for ongoing commitment to customer engagement.

"At Comfort Keepers of Plymouth, our mission to help seniors age in place as independently and comfortably as possible depends on our ability to keep them engaged, happy, healthy and satisfied," said Martha Swats, owner/administrator at Comfort Keepers of Plymouth. "Client engagement is something we've always been committed to in our office, and we're proud to be a part of a network of caregivers that has such a shared commitment across more than 700 locations."

The NBRI Circle of Excellence Award recognizes organizations that place a high value on

This bird, from far away, was never to make it home

By JOHN HARRIGAN
COLUMNIST

You never know where a homing pigeon is going to show up. Whimsical winds, for instance, can blow racing pigeons far off their intended course, and hundreds of miles from Bob Vashaw holds the homing pigeon he and wife Lisa harbored until it flew up against their house in the middle of the night and dropped dead.

The animal rights activists evidently have not yet caught up with the humble sport of pigeon racing, which its adherents say is more passion than sport. Still, for the pigeons, which can fly up to a mile a minute, it can be a risk. “I lose four, maybe five birds a year,” one racer said. “Mostly, it’s hawks.”

The raising and racing of homing pigeons is a centuries-old tradition, brought here from Europe early in this country’s history. It has been going on for millennia—pigeons being the first domesticated bird.

The pigeon that Bob Vashaw discovered on May 31 when he pulled into his yard in Cole-brook was definitely a survivor, although it seemed a bit confused. “It just sat there on the fence when I walked by it,” Bob said.

The bird was also a long way from its home in Round Pond, Maine, along the coast near Damariscotta. Its owner, Roy Hudson, released it along with 30 or so other birds in a race that began in Houlton, up on the Canadian border, on Sunday, May 28. “Two birds never made it home,” Roy said, adding that he has yet to hear anything on the other pigeon.

While Bob did things around the yard the pigeon stayed on the fence, and sometime after his wife Lisa got home from her job at Fiddlehead’s the bird moved from fence to ground, between the roots of a tree.

At around 11:30 that night, Lisa heard a thump against an outside wall. In the morning Bob found the pigeon dead under a lilac tree, having apparently flown into the side of the house.

The bird had two bands on its legs, which made it relatively easy to seek out its owner via the American Pigeon Racing Union’s web site. One band carried tracking codes, and the other contained a computer chip. This, Roy explained, trips a scanner in the coop when a bird returns home, enabling him to log in the date, time and identity of the pigeon, and even check on overdue birds via cell phone when he’s on the road.

“You know how it is these days,” he said. “Everything’s by computer, even pigeons.”

employee and customer engagement. These organizations demonstrate their dedication by conducting best in class survey research with NBRI and taking action to improve. To qualify for this honor, an organization must score at or above Stretch Performance at the 75th benchmarking percentile when measured against its industry, or the organization must improve five or more benchmarking percentiles in total company score over the previous research study.

“Customer engagement drives financial performance,” said Dr. Jan G. West, Ph.D., CEO & Organizational Psy-

the year 2000 and 2011 would have been a time when your clients would go along with a more “risk adverse” portfolio mix of investments. However, we are in that special time again that seems to erase 11 years of agonizing over our retirement accounts. I am now seeing people who are no longer earning an income or at least approaching retirement years who are in aggressive equity portfolios. Many in the last year or so have recovered from the 2008-2009 correction and are just seeing the retirement accounts ahead of where they were in 2007. Common scenario within these portfolios is that there are several equity mutual funds with different names but have a redundancy in their holdings and investment style.

Back in the 1950s, Markowitz and Sharpe developed “modern portfolio theory,” that really advocates owning multiple low and non-correlated asset classes that mathematically reduce the risk, referred to as standard deviation, and over time provides better returns. Mutual funds with different names but redundant holdings are not multiple asset classes. Really stocks or equities in general are the same asset class but you can get proper diversification with in that asset class by using mutual or exchange traded funds that truly have different styles, capitalization size, regions or a host of other reasons why they are in fact diversified.

For example, diversification in the equity portion of your portfolio may have international stocks, domestic large-cap, domestic mid-cap, domestic small-cap, emerging markets. Then you may have a commodity index, multiple sources of debt, maybe some real estate investment trust or otherwise known as REITs, potentially some natural resources like the energy sector, precious metals and so on and so on.

So, it really doesn’t matter if we’re in a bull market stocks like the last 8+ years or in the middle of a flat to down bear market in stocks, if we are properly invested with the right mix of asset classes depending on your risk tolerance and needs a simple rebalancing every year or so should keep your investments heading in the right direction. I don’t want you to think that you cannot have market risk even with a well-constructed portfolio, because you can sustain losses. With a well-constructed portfolio, your losses should not be as deep or long as if you were in the stock market or stock-based funds with no other diversification in your portfolio.

As an investment advisor, I do not sell investment products but I do manage portfolios for my clients.

On June 9, the first phase of the Department of Labor’s fiduciary standard ruling begins to implement. What that means is that, any advisor, broker or insurance salesman working with qualified assets a.k.a. retirement money must perform for the client’s best interest. MHP Asset Management is a New Hampshire registered investment advisor that must and does work for the client. The financial advisors a.k.a. brokers and insurance salesman must adhere to new rules that should be good for everybody.

Mark Patterson is an advisor with MHP asset management and can be reached at 447-1979 or Mark@MHP-asset.com.
