Cryans upsets Kenney in Executive Council race

BY TARA GILES

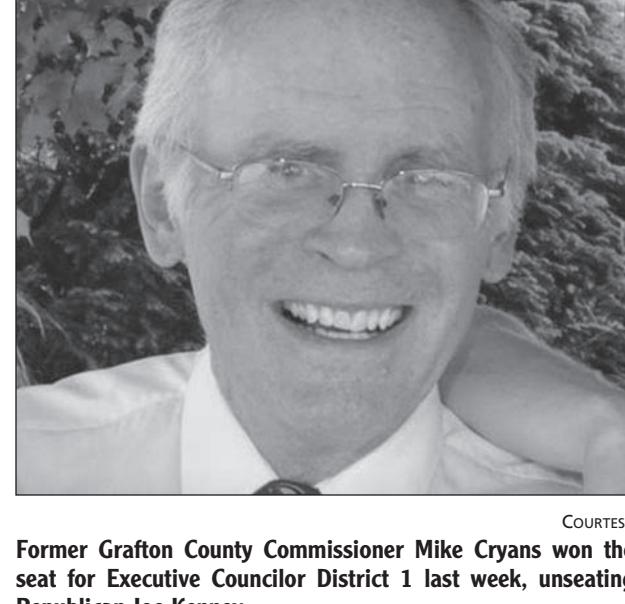

tara@salmonpress.news

REGION — In his fifth run for the seat, Hanover Democrat Mike Cryans secured a spot last week as one of the five Executive Councilors in the state. Cryans will represent District 1, which includes 109 towns and four cities. The district spans two thirds of the entire state.

"This is proof that persistence really does pay off," said Cryans after his win.

For the first time since 2014, the council will have a Democratic majority.

The job of the executive council is to review appointments made by the governor to include all of the judges throughout the state. The council advises the governor on all matters and provides a check on the governor's power. While the governor has the right to veto legislation and commands the New Hampshire National Guard, the council has veto power over pardons, nominations and contracts that exceed the amount of $10,000.

Cryans said, "I'm pleased regarding the win and am looking forward to the opportunity to serve for the next two years. There are a lot of wonderful things that can be done to help the people in district 1. This is an awesome responsibility and a tremendous opportunity."

Cryans went on to say, "District 1 is unique because of its size and distance from Concord. There needs to be a strong constituent service. I need to be available to individuals as well as to the towns, select boards and other councils that are asking for help. Sometimes there are issues that take up an entire area, such as Northern Pass, which is something that affects the entire district."

On moving forward

Cryans said, "I think once you're elected you represent everyone. It's not a Democrat versus Republican issue.

Sometimes things tow

the party lines a bit but there are things that affect everyone such as the opioid issue. That is a concern for all of us."

Cryans said that there should always be more wedding announcements and birth announcements in the paper over obituaries.

To him, that shows that young people are willing to stay in the area. His goal is to work on ways to keep young people eager to stay in District 1.

Cryans first ran for Executive Councilor against Ray Burton in 1996. He will assume his new role in January.

cut.

"We are trying to capture the flavor of Elizabethan theater without baffling people," Ayer said.

Overall, he said, audiences will still get the story and emotions of the play.

He said the rehearsal process has been going really good.

"A lot of people who came to audition, they came with misgivings," Ayer said. "Now they say, 'Thank God I came,' because they're having a blast. These people will definitely try another Shakespeare play."

Brendan Berube of Laconia, whose name readers might recognize as the Editor of the Echo, plays the Scottish King himself.

"As a character, Macbeth is an interesting guy to play," Berube said.

He said calling Macbeth "henpecked" would be an understatement given his relationship with his wife. Played by Gilford High School alum Cordelia Penney, Lady Macbeth famously goads him into murdering Scotland's king early in the show in order to expedite the fulfillment of a witches' prophecy that Macbeth himself will one day be king, but Berube says there is also a side of him that deeply wants to achieve greatness.

"What makes it interesting is that as the play develops, [Macbeth and Lady Macbeth] switch places more and more, and he becomes the schemer and the blood-thirsty one," Berube said. "The question becomes, was it really all her, or was this paranoia and savagery part of his inner nature from the word go? And what, if any, redemption does he find in the end?"

Berube said he took a college course on

STRATEGIES FOR LIVING

The silent minority has spoken again

BY LARRY SCOTT

There is a movement generating interest all across America, a "silent minority" that is threatening the status quo.

Here defined as the evangelical community, they are in rebellion -- against social trends they think unconscionable, against the vilification of political opponents, against the anti-Christian bias of the American media. They are resisting national trends to accommodate gender re-assignment, co-ed bathrooms, abortion on demand, and the assault on traditional marriage. With deep concern for the future of our great country, they have chosen to remain silent no longer.

This may come as a surprise for you seldom hear of them. You will not find them joining protest marches, shouting obscenities or interrupting your dining. No sit-ins, traffic tie-ups, or civil disobedience here. Law enforcement supports them.

You must listen carefully, however, if you are to hear them. You will find them in soup kitchens, food banks, and weather-ravaged communities. They go by various names: the Salvation Army, Samaritan's Purse, World Vision, and Catholic Charities.

And this is no new phenomenon. They were at the forefront of activity in the earliest days of our nation. They established our schools, served in our hospitals, started our churches, and fought for our independence. They united in prayer at the Constitutional Convention, argued for the emancipation of our slaves, and championed the role of women in our society.

They take seriously a promise God made to the people of Israel.

"If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

What God promised to do for Israel they believe he can do for America as well. If you were allowed, you would find this minority looking to influence the electoral process -- on their knees. The most intractable problems in America are, in their view, spiritual in nature. They are convinced that America needs, not a change of administration, but a change of heart.

Accordingly, millions of Americans heeded the call made by the American Family Association, and observed Monday, Nov. 5, as a day of fasting and prayer.

The point to all of this is that, despite a reputation as being anti-abortion and homophobic, many of us have a heart for America that goes beyond partisan politics and religious intolerance. We are concerned for an America that seems to have lost its way. Without an objective standard of moral authority, and in the absence of public support for belief in God and the Bible, we are now seeing the product of a generation of American young people who have no sense of direction.

You may have noticed that I have not invited you to become an evangelical Christian. What I have advocated, however, is that you give Jesus Christ serious thought, and that through the first four books of our New Testament.

This may seem to have little to do with the events of this week ... but such is not the case. Political debate and partisan politics have their place, but they do little to generate the moral and spiritual foundation on which this nation was founded. There is only one man who can truly unite us, one through whom we can discover the peace and harmony so necessary to our well-being. His name is Jesus Christ.

PET OF THE WEEK

BUTTERSTIX AND BANANA PAWS

Meet these beautiful five month old guinea pigs who might as well be sisters.

Butterstix is a gorgeous American Tortoise shell and her bff Banana Paws, who is a darling little American Tri-color are about as friendly as a guinea pig can get. These two little ladies love cuddles and are very active li'l beauties who have been with us since early September while they wait for their forever human caretakers to visit and take them home. They are fantastic with kids who are at least in elementary school and are eager to reveal their outgoing curious personalities to that perfect family.

Dining mostly on fresh veggies, a vitamin C daily supplement and a small amount of guinea pig pellet food, and of course fresh water will keep these two snuggle bugs as happy as can be and they will certainly reflect the love you shower them with back tenfold. They are a pair to behold and enjoy and will add that extra special positive energy to your home.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Thank you, my friends

To the Editor:

Thank you for electing me to represent you, the residents of Wards 1 & 2 in Franklin and Hill. Being re-elected is quite rewarding. Although the Republicans did not do well in the state-wide election, I intend to keep my focus on the issues that make a difference to you. Some people say we need to compromise our principles to get something done, but this is where I draw the line. We can argue about how much we spend and some service, but not about life and our fundamental rights like the second amendment and keeping the government out of our family's lives as protected in the NH Constitution. The upcoming session will have interesting dynamics. In this past legislative session, too much nonsense passed, but I do not expect the monumental shift some are predicting (hoping).

I am sorry that I did not campaign harder. I walked (and drove) the district, but not with the same intensity as my initial run to represent you. While I talked to some of you, I did not encounter as many as I should have. I need to hear directly from you about what impacts you. It seems that the loud est voice rules in the many meetings and forums. I plan to schedule a "Coffee with Dave" on regular basis where you can come and just talk about the issues or the weather. I won't give up my regular updates in the newspaper, but meeting with two or three over coffee is important. I'll keep you up to date on when and where they will be.

I can't finish this letter without giving special thanks to my family. First is to my loving wife, Karen, who is the best political advisor and critic and who keeps me going. Then to my children and their spouses and grandchildren, some of whom stood in the rain at the polls with my signs and others who give sage advice. In the end, I am just an engineer and pilot, not a politician and I appreciate all the help they provide.

As always, if you want to talk or just sit down for coffee, call me at 320-9524 or email me at dave@sabornhall.net.

Cheers!

Dave Testerman
State Representative
Franklin and Hill

It is an honor and a privilege serving you

To the Editor:

During the past five months, I traversed the 27 towns in our district, listening to you to shape our legislative priorities for the coming session. We've laid a solid foundation for delivering a better future for our families, businesses and institutions. Now it's time to build on that foundation.

I remain committed to ensuring that state government provides a business climate that promotes opportunities for success and prosperity as we continue attacking the problems that are affecting our loved ones and our families. Substance abuse, mental health, health care costs and education will be high profile issues in the coming session, and we'll be working hard to address them, effectively and sensibly.

I do hope you'll come to Concord to visit our beautiful State Capitol and share your thoughts and ideas with me. My door is always wide open, and you are always welcome. And you can email me at bob.giuda@leg.state.nh.us.

As Veterans Day approaches, please join me in thanking our military veterans for their service to our nation.

Thank you for the honor and privilege of serving as your State Senator.

Sincerely,

Bob Giuda

MARK ON THE MARKETS

Cash is a position

BY MARK PATTERSON

Couple of weeks back, I was speaking about little-known fees inside mutual funds. This cash left inside of mutual funds is not for tactical purposes, but for mutual fund outflows. This cash creates "cash drag" that adds to the overall expense of mutual funds.

As an advisor who manages money and would never use an expensive broker sold fund, I do often have cash in my client's accounts. The key difference is that this is not cash left aside for outflows, but it is or can be used for tactical purposes.

I was recently at a conference for money managers where one of the presenters spoke of his advisory that primarily sells option premium. Selling option premium is something that I do inside my client's accounts where appropriate, and this is a tactic within a strategy that gains revenue for the account, because I'm selling premium and collecting money.

The other reason that I do it is to build positions of stocks or ETF's using this option strategy to improve the price for my client. But getting back to the advisor whose objective is to sell options premium. He stated that through much of the year he is in cash, typically in times of low volatility the premium available when selling an option contract is low, so this advisor waits for volatility to rise to maximize the premium that is collected on behalf of his clients. So, you could see that the cash in the client accounts is not just sitting there unproductive, but if used sporadically and tactically, returns can be very good, double digits in his case (YTD).

Another tactical use for the cash in your account may be simply waiting for certain situations within the markets to become available.

As I've stated in the past, a well-constructed portfolio according to modern portfolio theory will have low-correlated asset classes which typically do not all do well or poorly at the same time. Over time you will enhance the yield and mitigate the risk with this method. Studies have also shown that the average investor will

The cutting of a public tree can be the unkindest cut of all

By JOHN HARRIGAN
COLUMNIST

People who work in wildlife management and research will tell you that their expertise on more obscure species is grudgingly accepted, yet many hunters consider themselves experts on deer. Similarly, just about anyone who cuts grass, weeds a garden, or trims a shrubbery might consider himself an expert on trees.

This trait of human nature is often accentuated when public officials find themselves in trouble for the removal of trees that people have long come to consider "theirs." These are trees seen as held in common, and thus somehow almost living forever--almost sacred. And when they are suddenly gone, sometimes seemingly overnight, it comes as a public shock.

This phenomenon, and how it can play out in the media, was illustrated two decades ago by a public outcry over the sudden removal of Stratford Hollow's cemetery trees on Route 3. And it was most recently demonstrated by the cutting of trees on Whitefield's town common.

Over a lot of years of thinking about trees, and their place in the scheme of things related to ours, I've come to at least one conclusion:

People tend to view trees in relation to their own lifespan--their own likely time on the top side of the sod.

And indeed we were. I'd found a place out in the Midwest that specialized in almost-mature trees, roots all balled up and ready to go. We'd received offers of free hauling--fuel costs to be raised by selling raffle tickets for firewood or something--from local truckers, who also seem so ready to step up for any public cause.

Trees are more than just trees when seen as somehow permanent, but in most of the North Country trees have a pretty brief life.

Stratford Hollow's plight over the cutting of its famous cemetery white pines was certainly made all the more painful by damage to graves and headstones, and perhaps more particularly the resultant exposure of damage from the past.

Whitefield's situation was made worse, I think, by a loophole in town ordinances that negates the necessity of advertising something like the removal of trees on the town common if it can be listed as "maintenance." If ever there was a good illustration of a bad loophole used badly, this was it.

Laconia artist Russ Thibeault to address Lakes Region Art Association

TILTON — Local economist and watercolor painter, Russ Thibeault will be the featured presenter at the Lakes Region Art Association's Annual meeting. Russ will present an overview and demonstration entitled "Watercolor Painting the Charles Reid Way" at the Nov. 19 meeting of the Association. The meeting begins at 7 p.m. and will be held at the LRAA Art Gallery, suite 132, at Tanger Outlets in Tilton. The Gallery is located across from the Chocolate Factory, near the Tanger Office.

Thibeault has been a watercolorist for the past 20 years including being a juried member of the New Hampshire Art Association. He bills himself as a "Sunday Painter," meaning painting is a source of relaxation. He has studied extensively with Charles Reid, one of the finest living watercolorists, whose other students include, for example, Tony Bennett and Gene Wilder. Reid's workshops are held throughout the United States and Europe. Reid has authored nearly a dozen books on watercolor techniques and multiple instructional DVDs.

Thibeault emulates Reid's style which strives to be loose and spontaneous, but still representational. Thibeault will present an overview of Reid's work and a demonstration of the drawing and painting technique he has learned from Reid. Attendees are encouraged to bring watercolor materials and paint along with Russ. The presentation, which is free and open to the public, will begin after a brief meeting of

Allie saw the original watercolor painting, "Boss Rabbit," while she was shopping with her parents at Tanger Outlets in Tilton in September. Allie liked the drawing very much and was hoping her parents would win it when they enter the raffle for her, as Allie was too young to enter herself. She is going to hang it in her room as the first painting of her art collection. Allie likes doing art work too and has filled many notebooks with sketches. Allie said it is a toss-up between being an artist or gymnast when she grows up. Allie is in the fifth grade at Indian River School in Canaan.

"Boss Rabbit" was painted and donated to the raffle by gallery member and watercolor artist, Linda Cargiulo, of Gilford. She joined the Lakes Region Art Association and the gallery in late 2017.

Jennifer Rollins Ford, 48

HAINES CITY, Fla. — Jennifer Rollins Ford, 48, of Haines City, Fla. passed away Sept. 29, 2018 surrounded by her family at Lakeland Regional Medical Center after a tragic accident.

Jen was born on Sept. 17, 1970 in Laconia; she grew up in Sanbornton, later moving to Northfield. Jennifer was a graduate of Winnisquam Regional High School, Class of 1988. She worked at Winnisquam Regional School District as a para-educator, then worked for many years at Spaulding Youth Center in Northfield, and was deeply involved with Special Olympics. At the time of her death, she was employed at Independent Community Transport in Winter Haven, Fla.

Jennifer was the daughter of Fred H. Rollins and Barbara Powell Rollins of Sanbornton.

She leaves behind the love of her life, Allan Walker of Haines City, vis; nephews Jonathan, Adam and Matthew Ober, Ian Rollins, and niece Gillian Rollins; her precious dog, Lilly; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Jennifer was predeceased by her father, Fred H. Rollins, and a grandson, Gage A. Love.

Jen will be remembered for her hard work and her passion supporting Special Olympics, taking the plunge at Hampton Beach every year, her willingness to take in anyone that needed support and a helping hand, and her kind hearted soul. She loved returning to New Hampshire as often as she could.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to New Hampshire Special Olympics in honor of Jennifer.

Services will be held on Friday, Nov. 16 at 4 p.m. at Sacred Heart Church in Laconia with Rev. Shawn Therrien officiating.

Scott Alan Sleeper, 52

GILFORD — Scott Alan Sleeper, 52, died on Thursday, Nov. 6, 2018 from the rapid progression of Early Onset Alzheimer's Disease.

Scott was born on May 20, 1966 in Tilton.

Scott was a tremendous athlete in his high school years. He excelled in all sports, but was most remembered for being a soccer all-star and being invited to play in the Lions Cup for his outstanding performance on the Winnisquam High School soccer team.

Scott worked for Coca-Cola for 25 years. He proudly wore his Coke uniform and loved being a route driver delivering Coca-Cola products throughout the lakes region and beyond. He drove a tractor trailer with the ease and grace of driving a pick-up truck and was adored by customers and colleagues.

Scott was devoted to his family and enjoyed creating joyful memories in everyday life, on special occasions and the special memories of family vacations...especially Disney World. He loved being outdoors hunting, skiing, camping, kayaking, fishing, hiking, and being at the ocean. Many of these special memories were shared with close family and friends. Laughter at home and by the camp fire was always abundant. Our memories are etched with Scott's full enjoyment of good friends, good beer and good humor.

Scott especially loved hunting and tracking with his brother Jimmy. Being in the woods was second nature to him.

He could always find his way as if the compass rose was etched in his heart.

Scott was married to Denise Sleeper. They shared 29 beautiful years together after meeting on vacation in Aruba. They lived in Gilford with their two sons, Kyle and Conner Sleeper; two brothers, Jimmy Pescinski and his wife Christine and Mark Pescinski and his significant other, Kathy;

and many nieces and nephews.

Scott is survived his mother, Peggy Van-Bennekum, and her husband Bill; his wife, Denise Sleeper; two sons, Kyle Joseph Sleeper, 23, and Connor John Sleeper, 20.

From early on, Scott and Denise shared the philosophy that the future is not guaranteed, so they fully embraced life by working hard, playing hard and not taking any moments for granted.

It allowed them to live life with no regrets. Laughter and not sweating the small stuff became the hallmarks of their life together. This began the legacy of a life well lived with faith and family.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggest memorial donations be made to Every Child is Ours, c/o Winnisquam School District, 433 W Main St., Tilton, NH 03276 or online at www.nhecio.com.

Wilkinson-Beane-Simoneau-Paquette Funeral Home & Cremation Services, 164 Pleasant St., Laconia, is assisting the family with the arrangements.

Think underage drinking doesn't affect a teen's brain? Think again.

IT'S A FACT. New research shows alcohol affects a teenager's developing brain differently than an adult's. Memory, learning and impulse control can be impaired seriously. Sanbornton veterans honor their brethren past and present

BY DONNA RHODES

drhodes@salmonpress.news

SANBORNTON

Last Saturday morning, Sanbornton residents Col. Jack Potter, U.S. Air Force (Ret.), and Capt. Jim Dick, U.S. Navy (Ret.), read a roll call of veterans from the town who have served in the U.S. Military from the Revolutionary War until today. Obtaining a list of known veterans who have resided in Sanbornton since the late 1700s, the men reached out recently and added 24 more names to that registry.

"We got this list from the town clerk's office. They keep track of that information because veterans receive a tax benefit from the town," Potter explained. "We just thought it was important to read all the names we know and start to collect all we don't know."

Before a small gathering of residents, he and Dick then began to read 35 pages filled with the names of approximately 730 Sanbornton residents.

During the Revolutionary War, 100 brave men from the town set out to help in the nation's battle for freedom. During the War of 1812, 106 others went off to serve the country as well. Names that Potter and Dick read had a familiar ring to many who attended the event. Burleigh, Swain, Sanborn, Huse and Tilton were just a few of those who are now remembered with roads or landmarks named after them, or whose families continue to reside in the town.

The Civil War actually saw the greatest number of enlistees from Sanbornton when 265 men headed South to fight for an end to slavery and to reunify the divided nation.

Twenty-eight men from the town headed into service for World War I, but it was during the reading of the 56 names of those who took part in World War II that the first women were mentioned.

During the Korean War, 22 residents were known to have served the country while 31 enlisted or, for the first time, were drafted into service for the Viet Nam War. In other wars or conflicts, 13 were part of Operation Desert Storm, five went to Grenada, one to Panama, three to Bosnia and one to the Balkans.

Those numbers could change though. Potter and Dick had a list of 99 other brave men and women who were noted as serving but the dates, wars or conflicts they served during were unknown.

Many of the unknown service dates for veterans are somewhat recent, therefore veterans or their families are asked to contact Potter at jackpotter@metrocast.net to fill in those blanks or add a new name to the list.

the globe is an obligation all American's carry and it is up to America to now care for them. He praised New Hampshire for meeting that obligation so well, citing the care and support they receive at NHVH as one shining example.

"When it comes to serving them now as a whole, nobody does it like New Hampshire. We are the gold standard," the governor said.

In thanking the veterans and their families who attended the ceremonies, Sununu said, "You represent everything that that flag stands tall for every day."

Sen. Hassan said Veterans Day provides an opportunity each year for Americans to re-confirm their commitment to making sure the United States is worthy of the service of its military.

"You fought for us simply because we're Americans," she said. "You did it to make sure our country is strong and safe. Thank you for all you have done, not only for our country but in your communities as well."

Congresswoman Shea-Porter said she worked hard during her time in Washington to make sure the military had all they need to be successful in their missions and every day duties. She said there is still work to be done in Congress however to bring about long overdue recognition to those who served in Viet Nam and to fill in the gaps in treatment that many veterans need and deserve.

"But I also want you to know that every person I've served with in Congress cares deeply, and wants to make it right for you," she said, adding that the best way America can thank its veterans is to "never let the sun set on the promises we made to all of you."

Pappas, who will now take Shea-Porter's place in representing the state's First Congressional District in Washington, thanked the Home's residents for their courage, integrity and selflessness.

"You stood up for us in incredible ways, and we need to do that now for you," Pappas told the crowd.

New Hampshire Adjutant General, Brig.

General David Mikolaitis, also had a few words of praise for veterans at the ceremony before Shawn Buck, U.S. Army (Ret.), gave the keynote address. Buck is the new superintendent of the New Hampshire State Veterans Cemetery in Boscowen, and said that while it was his privilege to serve the country, no one serves alone.

"This day is about our families as well," Buck said.

They are people who stood by as their loved ones went off to serve in both peacetime and war, he said. They worried them every day, sent packages and cards and always reminded others of their service.

"Let's endeavor to share our gratitude with them, too," he said. "Our job now (as veterans) is to tell our stories and support those who serve today; advocate for them as they become the heroes of today."

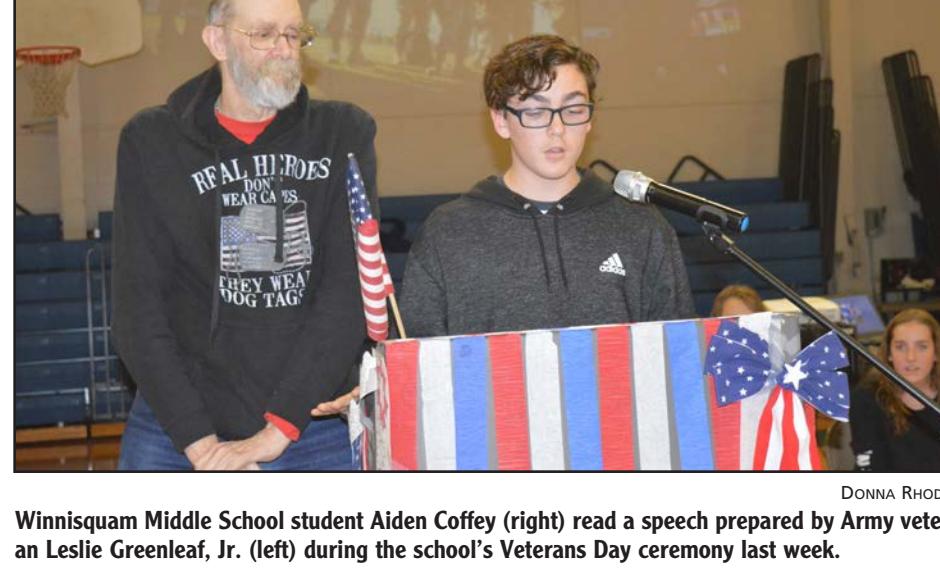

Remarks also came from Tilton School senior Kaitlin Bardellini of Northfield. Bardellini said her family has a strong history of service and when she graduates next spring she herself will be joining the Army ROTC. Throughout the school year she explained that she visits NHVH regularly where she has been both inspired and humbled by the stories of the veterans she has come to know. She closed her speech by quoting a song by Lee Greenwood.

"...And I'd gladly stand up next to you and defend her still today/ for there ain't no doubt I love this land/ God Bless the U.S.A.," Bardellini said.

The ceremony concluded with a presentation of the video, "Doughboys," which was done by the World War I Commission in honor of the 100th anniversary of the end of that war on Nov. 11, 1918.

Edward Jones: Financial Focus

The Key to Consistent Investing? Paying Yourself First

Consistency is a key ingredient of success in many activities – including investing. And one technique that can help you become a more consistent investor is paying yourself first.

Many people have the best of intentions when it comes to investing. They know how important it is to put money away for long-term goals, especially the goal of a comfortable retirement. Yet they may only invest sporadically. Why? Because they wait until they've taken care of all the bills – mortgage, utilities, car payments and so on – before they feel comfortable enough to write a check for their investments. And by the time they reach that point, they might even decide there's something more fun to do with what's left of their money.

How can you avoid falling into this habit of intermittent investing? By paying yourself first. Each month, have your bank move money from your checking or savings account into the investments of your choice. By taking this hassle-free approach, rather than counting on your ability to send a check, you can help ensure you actually do contribute to your investments, month after month.

By moving the money automatically, you probably won't miss it, and, like most people who follow this technique, you will find ways to economize, as needed, to make up for whatever you're investing.

You already may be doing something quite similar if you have a 401(k) or other retirement plan at work. You choose a percentage of your earnings to go into your plan, and the money is taken out of your paycheck. (And if you're fortunate, your employer will match some of your contributions, too.)

But even if you do have a 401(k), you're probably also eligible to contribute to an IRA – which is a great vehicle for your pay-yourself-first strategy. You can put in up to $5,500 per year to a traditional or Roth IRA (or $6,500 if you're 50 or older), so, if you are able to "max out" for the year, you could simply divide $5,500 or $6,500 by 12 and have either $458 or $541 moved from your savings or checking account each month into your IRA. Of course, you don't have to put in the full $5,500 or $6,500 each year, although some IRAs do require minimum amounts to at least open the account.

You might think such modest amounts won't add up to a lot, but after a few years, you could be surprised at how much you've accumulated. Plus, you may not always be limited to contributing relatively small sums, because as your career advances, your earnings may increase significantly, allowing you to boost your IRA contributions continually.

In any case, here's the key point: When you invest, it's all right to start small – as long as you keep at it. And the best way to ensure you continue investing regularly is to pay yourself first. If you do it long enough, it will become routine – and it will be one habit you won't want to break.

Shakespeare, and came in quite familiar with the language. He said he has always wanted to do Shakespeare.

"This is a no kilts, no accents show," he said, "so it's basically using my normal voice, getting accustomed to the metric configuration of the lines."

Ayer, he added, insisted from the outset that the cast not employ Scottish or British accents in order to make the dialogue more accessible to audiences.

He said this is one of the best experiences he has had in theater.

Macbeth's ultimate enemy, Macduff, is played by Frank Stetson, who comes from Meredith and currently lives in Concord. He said Macduff is a vengeful father and husband looking for justice for his family and his country.

"His motivations and his drive are pretty simple," Stetson said.

Stetson studied Shakespeare on college and has done a few Shakespearean shows.

"When we had the opportunity to finally do it I was really excited," Stetson said.

Stetson said Shakespeare's language can be understood.

"It's a matter of sitting down and understanding what you're saying," Stetson said.

Kristine Snow of Alton, Evelyn Taylor of Gilford, and Melanie Perkins of Middleton play the Witches. Perkins once played Lady Capulet in a production of "Romeo and Juliet."

"I like it because it's poetic and it all rhymes," Perkins said.

Snow and Taylor had never done Shakespeare before.

"It's on my bucket list," Taylor said.

All three said they have been having a lot of fun playing the Witches. Perkins said the three have some choral lines together and that the text gives flexibility to play with the lines.

Taylor said everyone has been awesome to work with.

"Macbeth" will be performed at the Laconia High School auditorium Nov. 30, Dec. 1, and Dec. 2. The Friday and Saturday night shows begin at 7 p.m., and Sunday's performance will be a 2 p.m. matinee. Tickets are on sale at the Streetcar Company Web site at www.streetcarcompany.com.

Orson Welles shines on both sides of the camera in "The Stranger" on LRPA

LACONIA—Join Lakes Region Public Access Television at 10:30 PM this Friday and Saturday night (Nov. 16 & 17) for our "LRPA After Dark" presentation of 1946's suspenseful thriller "The Stranger," starring Orson Welles (who also directed), Loretta Young and Edward G. Robinson.

Wilson (Robinson), an investigator with the Allied War Crimes Commission, is looking for Franz Kindler (Welles), a notorious Nazi war criminal — the mastermind behind their death camps — who has made his way from Germany to a sleepy Connecticut town. There, he has carefully constructed a new identity. He is now living incognito as Charles Rankin, a college professor and antique clock enthusiast who will soon marry lovely Mary Rankin (Young), the daughter of a respected judge. His cover is intact until Wilson, tailing another escaped Nazi prisoner, begins to suspect that there may be more to Professor Rankin than meets the eye. Released in 1946, "The Stranger" holds the distinction of being the first American feature film to include documentary footage of Nazi concentration camps. "The "Stranger" is by far the least well known, and perhaps most conventional, of Orson Welles' movies. In fact, he only took on the project to prove to studio executives that he could direct a film that came in on time, within budget and without any problems, unlike his earlier masterpieces "Citizen Kane" and "The Magnificent Ambersons." Welles readily accomplished that task, although the artistic and personal compromises he was forced to make on "The Stranger" resulted in it being his least favorite film.

Despite all of Welles' misgivings, "The Stranger" is a tense and suspenseful thriller with exceptional performances from its entire cast. Variety reviewed it as "... socko melodrama, spinning an intriguing web of thrills and chills." If you love American film noir, this is the one for you. So grab your popcorn and join LRPA after dark for this thriller from the past.

Perfect ending to perfect season

Winnisquam football captures Division IV title

BY BOB MARTIN

Bob@Salmonpress.news

LACONIA — The Winnisquam Bears took on the rival Franklin Golden Tornadoes in the Division IV state finals at Laconia High School on Saturday night, and on what was a cold and windy evening, the Bears won a close 19-14 battle to complete an undefeated season.

The Bears struck first in the first quarter after getting excellent field position from a poor Franklin punt that set Winnisquam up at the 30-yard line heading in. Angelo Glover, who was a 1,000-yard rusher and a bruising running back for the Bears, had a couple of short rushes before sophomore quarterback Phil Nichols connected with Garret Mango for a 20-yard touchdown pass. Trevor Gray knocked through the extra point to make it 7-0 with five minutes remaining in the first quarter.

Franklin was not backing down, with Caleb Vigue carving up the Winnisquam defense slowly but surely on the ground, ending with a short touchdown run to make it 7-6. Franklin's two-point conversion try was no good, so Winnisquam retained the lead.

The ensuing kickoff was mishandled, the Golden Tornadoes recovered at the Winnisquam 31-yard line and it was looking grim for Winnisquam. However, the defense of the Bears stuffed runs and forced incompletions, leading to a turnover on downs at the Winnisquam 22-yard line.

After a couple runs for Winnisquam and an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty by Franklin, Winnisquam was knocking on the door inside the 10-yard line of Franklin with less than four minutes left in the half. Franklin's defense put together a nice stand and forced a turnover on downs.

Franklin took over and didn't do much as Winnisquam forced a three and out. With time clicking away toward the end of the half, Nichols tossed to Horman for 24 yards, thanks to a great run after the catch that took the Bears to the Franklin 10-yard line.

Gray attempted a field goal with 3.7 seconds left but it was blocked, which took the game to halftime with the score 7-6 in favor of Winnisquam.

In the third quarter it was the Nichols show. Within the first couple minutes he had a fantastic 82-yard run down the field, putting Winnisquam in great shape to score. Glover, like he has done so well, put his shoulder down and barreled into the end zone for a short touchdown run to put the Bears up 13-6 with 5:45 left in the third quarter.

Winnisquam kicked off and Franklin took over at the Golden Tornado 40-yard line. On a first down and 10 at the Winnisquam 35-yard line, Nichols showed that he isn't just all about offense by picking off a pass and running it back to the Franklin 36-yard line. The Franklin defense responded by forcing a turnover on downs as the third quarter expired.

In the fourth quarter, with 9:10 remaining, SEE FOOTBALL, PAGE B10

Dawalga reflects on solid season for Belmont soccer

BY BOB MARTIN

Bob@Salmonpress.news

BELMONT — The Belmont girls' soccer team had a 13-2-1 record and was a number one seed entering the playoffs. Unfortunately things didn't click in the state tournament for the Red Raiders, and the team was upset by Raymond in the quarterfinals, but coach Mark Dawalga looks back on what was a fine overall season for Belmont.

"We had a lot of kids really step up this season," Dawalga said. "We had a lot of injuries this season and with 11 different lineups it really gave us the opportunity to play a lot of kids in different positions."

Senior Julianna Estremera has had a fantastic career at Belmont on the soccer field, basketball court and the softball diamond. This year she was the team's leading scorer with 17 goals, and was always disrupting an opponent when the ball was near. She used speed, power and awareness throughout the season to get off shots on goal even when under fire by defenders.

As Dawalga said, injuries were difficult for the Red Raiders. Senior Kaitlyn Delisle was a starter on defense and went down halfway through the year with a knee injury.

However, the defense was a very strong point with the team allowing only nine goals all season. The defense was led by senior Lizzie Fleming, junior Sana Syed and Morgan Rule who consistently cleared out balls in opposing scoring chances and worked the ball up the field to the midfielders and forwards. Goalkeeper Emma Cochran was also solid keeping the ball out of the net with six shutouts and a 10-3-1 record. Maddie Lima had shutouts in all three of her starts in goal.

"When we lost Kaitlyn other kids needed to step up and they did," said Dawalga.

"Really stepping up this year in the middle was junior Katie Gagnon and sophomore Deanna Bourque, as well as sophomore Rebecca Fleming."

The sophomore class was very talented and bodes well for the future. It was led by Molly Sottak, Morgan Hall, Gabbie Day and Lima. The freshmen also made a major impact and included Kailey Gerbig, Sierra Bourque, Jada Edgren, Lexis Donovan and Courtney Burke. This is a group that Dawalga sees as force to be reckoned with for years to come. Burke came up at the end of the season to help fill the void when Delisle went down with an injury and was commended for her play by Dawalga.

Scoring leaders this year following Estremera were Gagnon with 14 goals, Rebecca Fleming with five goals, Sierra Bourque with four goals including game winners against Fall Mountain and Gilford, Deanna Bourque with three goals and Gerbig with three goals including the game winner against St. Thomas Aquinas.

"Very proud of these kids," said Dawalga. "They worked hard all year."

Wolves shine in NEPHL playoffs

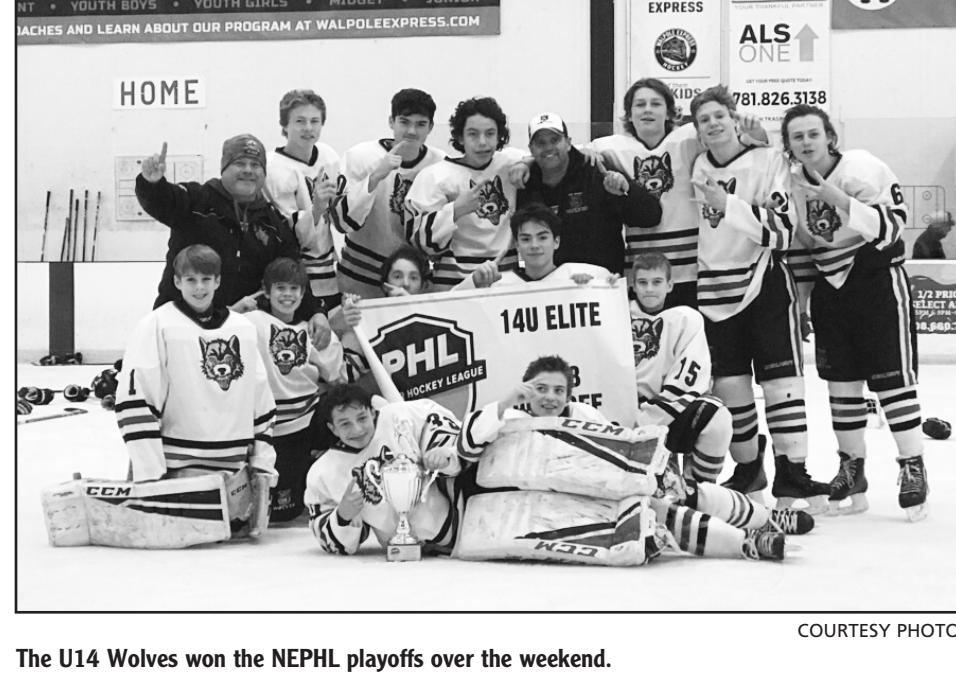

WALPOLE, Mass. — The 2018 NEPHL (New England Premier Hockey League) playoffs took place the weekend of Nov. 9-11 in Walpole, Mass. and the New England Wolves teams stole the show.

The unbeaten U14 won two games to advance to the finals vs the Granite State Wild and completed the sweep with a decisive 4-1 victory, claiming the fall season U14 Elite playoff crown.

The Wolves organization offered congratulations to all the players and coaches John Guerin and Joe Spicuzza.

Next up for them is the Winter U14 NEPHL season and two more showcases, the Big Moose Tournament and the Challenge Cup in Marlboro, Mass.

The Midget split season teams, U16 coached by Connor Bates and

The U14 Wolves won the NEPHL playoffs over the weekend.

U18 coached by Mike Potenza, came out of the fall season with the number one and number three seeds. They both won their preliminary playoff games to advance to the finals on Sunday.

In spectacular fashion, the U16s knocked off the U18s in a 3-2 affair. Adam Omundson was great in nets for the 16s as the 18s outshot and controlled play for much of the game. Congrats is deserved for both teams as the 18s finished as the regular season champion and 16s finished as playoff champion.

"Congrats to all of our players, parents and coaches," said

GM Andrew Trimble. "All of our teams represented our program extremely well and competed hard against much larger NH and Massachusetts based youth programs. These teams' success certainly shows we have some talented young athletes here in the Lakes Region."

Hinxman All-State selection highlights Winnisquam soccer season

BY BOB MARTIN

Bob@Salmonpress.news

WINNISQUAM — The Winnisquam soccer team may have only ended with a 3-13 record and missed the state tournament, but new coach Jacob Bodah said the team played much better soccer than its record showed.

"Many of our games they were a team that defended well, controlled the ball, and were able to create scoring chances," said Bodah. "Our downfall this year was not making the most of our scoring chances, as we struggled to finish in the final third of the field. We will be a young team next season as we are losing nine total seniors. We will continue to work in the off season and start the season with a game plan to work around the strengths of a brand new offense."

Bodah was proud of the way his seniors played this year, calling them a talented and skilled group that will be missed.

"They were a group of young adults who were committed to working hard and persevered when things didn't go our way," said Bodah. "I would wish them good luck for the rest of the school year and after high school, but I know they will ers to watch next year include Young, Hinds, Lucas Robdau, Aiden Phelps and Ashley DeShaines.

All State honorable mention

Hinxman has been playing varsity soccer for Winnisquam for the past four years and this year the midfielder was recognized for his strong play by being an honorable mention for All-State in Division 3.

"Hunter was selected as an honorable mention to All-State because of the vast amount of pressure he put on the other team," said Bodah. "He is dangerous with the ball and is able to find the open pass and score when given the opportunity. He is aggressive on defense and uses his body very well. He was able to win most 50/50 balls that came his way and was a threat where ever he was."

It was the first time Hinxman was recognized despite being one of the team's top players in recent years.

"It feels great to be recognized after putting in so much effort building my soccer skills over the years," said Hinxman. "I think my best game was my senior night, just because my team seemed to click that night and we were able to pull through and get an important win."

Hinxman said post-graduation he knows he will miss the great people he has grown up with that he has played sports alongside. After graduation he plans to either attend NHTI and play soccer, or join the military.

Compete for a chance to race in the fastest sport on skates

LINCOLN — This Feb. 8 and 9, ice cross downhill skaters from all over the world will race down the massive Red Bull Crashed Ice track at Fenway Park, packed with drops, hairpin turns and gaps, soaring at speed of 50 miles per hour to the finish line. Two of these skaters, however, will be competing in the sport of ice cross downhill for the very first time — and it could be you.

Starting now, interested athletes can sign up for the Red Bull Crashed Ice Athlete Search, where one male and female athlete will secure a wildcard spot during the qualification round on Friday, Feb. 8. The selected skaters will race down the 2,000-foot ice track under the lights of the iconic ballpark shoulder to shoulder with professional athletes competing in the Ice Cross Downhill World Championship.

Open to male and female skaters 18 years or older, the Red Bull Crashed Ice Athlete search will consist of three pre-qualifiers, two taking place in Boston, one in Buffalo, and a final at Loon Mountain Resort.

The Red Bull Crashed Ice Athlete Search pre-qualifiers are a timed competition where skaters will race around a series of flat-ice obstacles aiming to record their fastest personal time. Each male and female competitor will race in heats and have two attempts at the course. The top eight male and female skaters per pre-qualifier will advance to the Red Bull Athlete Search Finals on Saturday, Jan. 12.

Interested athletes are only required to compete in one pre-qualifier.

Competing athletes must wear shoulder pads, elbow pads, pants with plastic padding (hockey, motocross or inline), helmet, gloves and ice hockey skates.

The pre-qualifier schedule includes Sunday, Dec. 2 in Boston,

Mass. at Steriti Memorial Rink;

Seniors included Hunter Hinxman, Gabriela Castrillon, Sara Chambers, Derek DeSousa, Calvin Dodge, Patrick Welch, Trevor Gray and Samuel Wood.

Vigue scored on a short touchdown run to make it 13-12, and a completed two-point conversion gave the Golden Tornadoes the 14-13 lead. The lead wouldn't last long, as Winnisquam marched down the field and ate clock at the same time with short, but efficient runs by Wiles, Glover and Nichols.

In what was the biggest play of the game, on fourth and nine at the Franklin 15-yard line with 5:45 on the clock, Nichols connected for a touchdown pass to Hornerman to make it 19-14.

After forcing a turnover on downs, it was up to Franklin to wind down the clock and take home the win. However, high school football can bring many surprises. With 8.8 seconds left on the clock, due to miscommunication, the Bears kneeled on fourth down, which turned the ball over to Franklin on the Winnisquam 45-yard line.

came away with the tight win that had an unexpected dramatic ending.

Coach Pat Riberdy was very happy with the gutsy performance of the team in the final game, as well as the way the team played all season. He acknowledged that the team has played tough, and some are definitely feeling the bumps and bruises of the long season, but the important thing was that they gave it their all came away with the big win. He called the effort of the team "unbelievable."

"We came in at half-time and we won the little battles and were still up by one point," said Riberdy. "I told them, hey guys, second half, come

Coach Pat Riberdy led the Winnisquam Bears to an undefeated state championship season.

The performance of Nichols was praised by Riberdy, who said that his poise as a sophomore is something special. Nichols was 7/16 passing with 114 yards and two touchdowns, as well as 190 yards rushing. He was also a rock on defense, highlighted by his late game interception.

"He said he was going to take over this game and he did," Riberdy said.

Glover finished his senior season the way any player could dream of. The running back had been running over players all season, and players like him tend to get hit the hardest. Glover has been playing through some minor injuries but still managed to be a force in the title game with a touchdown and a solid ground game.

Glover said getting this championship win, especially against arch rival Franklin, was something he'll never forget.

"We knew it was going to be a little bit chippy and people were going to try to get into each other's heads, so we just said we'll play Winnisquam football, play through injuries and do what we could," said Glover. "We're all coming ready to play hard. We knew it was going to be a fight between each other so we knew we had to come in, dominate and keep that rivalry real."
