Speaker touches on history of the Stars & Stripes at Belmont's Memorial Day ceremony

BY DONNA RHODES
dhrhodes@salmonpress.news

BELMONT — Memorial Day in Belmont was a solemn occasion when all who gave their lives for a noble cause were honored in a speech by keynote speaker, retired U.S Army Lt. Col. Kurt Webber, while the meaning of the American flag was addressed by Charles Kilborn American Legion Post 58 Commander Rich Stanley.

The ceremonies began with a parade along Main Street, led by members of the Belmont Police Department Honor Guard. Once the assembly arrived at the monument on Church Street, Legion members Woody Fogg and Howard Brown dipped the American flag then returned it to full mast. The flag raising was then followed by the Belmont High School Band's performance of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Commander Stanley spoke to the crowd about some of the history of the American flag and the meaning of its stars and stripes. In 1776, he said, Betsy Ross was asked to follow a sketch that was drawn by General George Washington, and from that created the very first American flag.

Adopted in 1777 as the nation's official flag, Stanley said the 13 stars presented on the flag at that time represented the 13 original colonies. The white strips stood for purity and innocence, the red for heartiness and valor, and the

Belmont police & fire personnel lead cleanup of Winni Trail

dhrhodes@salmonpress.news

BELMONT — On May 24, members of Belmont's police and fire departments went above and beyond in their duties by participating in a cleanup/safety walk along the Lake Winnisquam Scenic Trail, nicknamed the "Winni Trail," as well as the Leslie Roberts Town Beach and other town properties along the lakeshore. Their efforts not only hauled away bags of trash but revealed a few safety issues, which they handled before the busy summer season gets underway.

Among the hazards was a tree that had fallen across the recreational trail. Firefighter Michael Elkins and Belmont Police Department's Cpl. Evan Boulangier came across the obstacle and used the town's new Kubota utility vehicle to winch and remove the tree so it wouldn't inhibit bicycle or foot traffic along the lake.

BFD Captain Michael Newhall also discovered a discarded needle and it was quickly removed for proper disposal.

"Now that the nice weather is here and people are active out of doors, please be mindful that if you come across a discarded needle you should not touch it with bare hands. Please notify your local fire/police department, who have the right tools to safely handle needles," said Belmont Police Lieutenant Richard Mann.

In the course of the cleanup, police also discovered a discarded needle and it was quickly removed for proper disposal. SEE CLEANUP, PAGE A15 field of blue behind the stars represented the president, which at that time was Washington.

"The red is significant to me though," Stanley said, "as I believe it also represents the blood of those people who (died for our freedoms)."

He then called attention to the names etched on the monument behind him and asked everyone to remember that those were more than names. They were real people from the town who fought for the country they loved and never came home.

Webber, an Iraqi War veteran, took on the topic of heroes and he called attention to the men and women in uniform, SEE CEREMONY, PAGE A15

Grant Street blaze gives Tilton-Northfield Fire & EMS a rough start to the weekend

BY DONNA RHODES
dhrhodes@salmonpress.news

TILTON — The Memorial Day Weekend got off to a rough start for the Tilton-Northfield Fire and EMS when they were called at approximately 2 p.m. last Saturday afternoon to a blaze in a residential home located at 27 Grant St. in Tilton.

Deputy Chief Tim Joubert reported that upon arrival crews were able to observe smoke and fire coming from the porch area of a large, ranch-style home, which had an apartment situated above the garage.

"Due to the size of the structure and the potential for occupants still being inside, a First Alarm was requested," Joubert stated in his press release. TNFD's Engine 3 was able to make an immediate attack on flames that were visible, allowing rescuers to then quickly enter the building and search for any occupants. Through that search, one person was found unharmed but still inside the structure.

Capt. Sean Valovanie stated that when he entered the residence he found a man wearing no shoes, standing in the smoke-filled living room with no idea about what was happening. It was later determined that the occupant lived in the apartment above the garage. He was wearing headphones when the fire broke out and was therefore unable to hear the smoke detectors going off inside the home.

Joubert reported that an extensive overhaul was necessary as the fire quickly extended into the roof, causing significant damage to the structure. In order to confirm that all fire sources were extinguished, crews from Tilton-Northfield, Franklin, Belmont and Laconia also had to pull down ceilings, walls and insulation, then carefully inspect the scene. The Bookers discuss... Take Me With You by Catherine Ryan Hyde: August Shroeder, a burned-out teacher, has been sober since his nineteen-year-old son died. Every year he's spent the summer on the road, but making it to Yellowstone this year means everything. The plan had been to travel there with his son, but now August is making the trip with Philip's ashes instead. An unexpected twist of fate lands August with two extra passengers for his journey, two half-orphans with nowhere else to go. What none of them could have known was how transformative both the trip—and the bonds that develop between them—would prove, driving each to create a new destiny together. (Amazon)

The Noon Book Group discusses... Straight Man by Richard Russo: William Henry Devereaux, Jr., is the reluctant chairman of the English department of a badly underfunded college in the Pennsylvania rust belt. Devereaux's reluctance is partly rooted in his character—he is a born anarchist—and partly in the fact that his department is more savagely divided than the Balkans. In the course of a single week, Devereaux will have his nose mangled by an angry colleague, imagine his wife is having an affair with his dean, wonder if a curvaceous adjunct is trying to seduce him with peach pits, and threaten to execute a goose on local television. All this while coming to terms with his philandering father, the dereliction of his youthful promise, and the ominous failure of certain vital body functions. In short, Straight Man is classic Russo—side-splitting, poignant, compassionate, and unforgettable. (Amazon)

Thursday the June 29th at 11 a.m.

Hampstead Stage Company performs "The Beauty and the Beast," a classic French tale that tells the story of Belle, who is sent by her father to live in a beautiful palace with an outwardly terrifying beast. The Beast must help Belle to discover his inner beauty and to help her to break the spell that has kept him locked in his beastly state. This story explores the themes of family, sacrifice, trust and love.

This performance is made possible by a Kids, Books and the Arts grant. Funding for the Kids, Books and the Art event is provided by the Jack and Dorothy Byrne Foundation, CHILIS, Cogswell Benevolent Trust, and is supported in part by a grant from the NH State Council on the Arts & the National Endowment for the Arts as well as funds administered by the NH State Library and provided by the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

YaH Book Group discusses... "Avalon High" by Meg Cabot: Avalon High, I was starting to think, might not be so bad after all. Maybe it's not where Ellie wants to be, but if you have to start at a new school, Avalon High is typical enough: There's Lance, the jock. Jennifer, the cheerleader. And Will, senior class president, quarterback, and all-around good guy.

But not everyone at Avalon High is who they appear to be... not even, as Ellie is about to discover, herself. As a bizarre drama begins to unfold, Ellie has to wonder, what part does she play in all this? Do the coincidences she's piecing together really mean—as in King Arthur's court—that tragedy is fast approaching for her new friends? Ellie doesn't know if she can do anything to stop the coming trouble. But somehow, she knows she has to try. (Amazon)

Tilton and Northfield pay tribute to the fallen

drhodes@salmonpress.news

TILTON — Members of the Whiteman-Davidson American Legion Post 49 conducted Memorial Day ceremonies in Tilton and Northfield on Monday morning, marching from Winnisquam Regional High School to the Tilton Town Hall before crossing into Northfield for additional tributes as Chaplain Tom Roberts laid wreaths at each of the monuments along the way.

Joining the American Legion in this year's parade were the Post 49 Honor Guard and their 2017 State Champion Auxiliary Color Guard, the WRHS band, local scouting groups, representatives of the New Hampshire Veterans Home, and police and fire officials from the two communities.

Besides remembrances at the war monuments, the parade route also took everyone through Park Cemetery for a special wreath presentation, speakers and the playing of "Taps."

Other stops along the way included Riverside Park, where the flag was raised to full staff before the groups moved on to the banks of the Winnepesaukee River. There, the Post 49 Honor Guard presented a gun salute and flowers were tossed into the waters as a solemn memorial to the brave men and women who were lost at sea in the course of the nation's battles for freedom.

STRATEGIES FOR LIVING

BY LARRY SCOTT

Dr. William Lane Craig, in his book "On Guard," tells his personal story, one that seems to summarize much of what I have been attempting to highlight in this column.

Raised in a fine although non-Christian home, while still a teen-ager, he began questioning his place and purpose in life. To find an answer he began attending a large church but soon discovered that that fellowship was little more than a social club. Although claiming to be Christians, he found they were living by standards far lower than his own, pretending to be something they were not. On one really "bad hair day," he walked into German class and sat behind a girl that always seemed to be so happy. On impulse, he tapped her on the shoulder and growled, "Sandy, what are you always so happy about anyway?" I will let him tell "the rest of the story."

"Well, Bill," she said, "it's because I'm saved!" I was stunned. I had never heard language like this before. "You're what?" I demanded. "I know Jesus Christ as my personal Savior," she explained. "I go to church," I said lamely. "But that's not enough, Bill," she said, "You've got to have Him really living in your heart." That was the limit! "What would He want to do a thing like that for?" I demanded. "Because He loves you, Bill." That hit me like a ton of bricks. Here I was, so filled with anger and hate, and she said there was someone who really loved me. ... That began for me the most agonizing period of soul-searching that I've ever been through. I got a New Testament and read it from cover to cover. And as I did, I was absolutely captivated by the person of Jesus of Nazareth. ... Meanwhile, Sandy introduced me to other Christian students. ... They were living life on a plane of reality that I didn't even dream existed, and it imparted a deep meaning and joy to their lives, which I craved. ... My spiritual search went on for the next six months. ... Finally, I just came to the end of my rope and cried out to God. I cried out all the anger and bitterness that had built up inside me, and at the same time I felt this tremendous infusion of joy. That moment changed my whole life" ("On Guard," Chapter 2).

So dramatic was the change that came to his life he has since become one of the great defenders of the Christian faith. There is, indeed, something real to Biblical Christianity. Those fundamental issues of life – our origin, our purpose, our morality and our destiny – all find their fulfillment in the fact of God's existence and in a surrender to His authority. Far from being an "insurance policy" against the possibility of hell, we have discovered a quality of life, peace of mind, new strength to face our bad days, and a reason for keeping on that we have been unable to find in any other way. And, as if that were not enough, there is a heaven in our future ... and we can hardly wait!

You want to talk about it? Hit me up at rlarry-scott@gmail.com.

PET OF THE WEEK

JAYRO

This adorable fellow hails from an animal sanctuary operating in Puerto Rico. Jayro was abandoned at the sanctuary about five years ago. Luckily, he came to

New Hampshire Humane Society where, in spite of the fact he is at the very least bi-lingual, he has acclimated well to an English speaking North American lifestyle.

He is, frankly, the sweetest dog calling our shelter home, with a pudgy little body and his one blue eye, gentle demeanor and a tail that circles like a helicopter blade. He's enjoyed overnight stays with staff and volunteers, and taken hikes to local parks where he has met other dogs with interest and diplomacy.

Very fond of treats, we have put him on a diet for his own health and well-being. He doesn't seem to be concerned about cats, but he might guard his food dish, those old survival habits from the streets are still on his mind. A more loveable, companionable dog you will not find; ideal for an older family with teens.

Please come and visit Jayro. You will be smitten!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Why can't our selectmen work out a vacation schedule that allows them to meet?

To the Editor:

The following caught my eye buried in the middle of the board of selectmen's minutes recently!

"5.2 Summer Schedule - The Selectmen will start taking every other Wednesday off starting July 5th through the end of August. No meeting on 7/5/17."

Out of curiosity, I contacted the Town Administrator of Tilton to see if their Selectmen cancelled any meetings for July & August to go on vacation. I was told that the Tilton Selectmen very very rarely ever cancel a weekly Selectmen's meeting. Selectmen don't take vacations! It was further noted that they have never heard of a Board of Selectmen taking time off from meetings. Interestingly I was told that the Tilton Selectmen are paid $4,800 a year and the Sanbornton Selectmen $4,500!

So, my question is, why, if time off is necessary for the Sanbornton Selectmen, can't they work out a vacation schedule where only one selectman is out at a time, and the other two are available for the five weekly meetings that will be missed? Only two selectmen are required to have a quorum to conduct town business, so why not work out a schedule which provides the taxpayers with the same type of coverage as Tilton has?

Give the baby personhood!

To the Editor:

This is the 16th of my reports to the voters of Hill and Franklin on what is happening in Concord. I want to thank you for the numerous positive comments I received for my columns. This week we had a Criminal Law and Public Safety Executive Session that elicited a lot of heated interest from the opposition.

A few weeks ago, Senate Bill 66 was sidelined (retained) when a few people abandoned the Republican platform. SB66 simply states that if a woman is pregnant and an injury to her results in death of the baby that the perpetrator can be charged with a crime against the baby as well as the mother. SB66 in no way infringes on a mother's right to an abortion. This is not an abortion bill. It is a bill that protects the pre-born baby the mother hopes will be a part of her family.

A few years ago, a woman lost her baby due the negligence of a another person, but the Judge said that until the law was changed, only the crime against the mother was chargeable. We heard in testimony that in another case, a woman as hit by a negligent driver and her child, due to be delivered in just a few days died. This mother could not even get a birth or death certificate for the child. The legislature has tried for several years to make it a crime to cause harm to the pre-born baby as well as to the mother. Thirty-nine states have this law, and 29, including liberal states like Massachusetts, set conception as the point from which a legal charge can be established. SB66 sets the viability of the pre-born baby at 20 weeks. Those in opposition to this common sense legislation are terrified to give the pre-born child in New Hampshire any status of personhood. Our committee couldn't let this stand. We brought SB66 back to the Committee and after a lot of whinging on the part of Democrats we passed the bill 12:8, including one Democrat vote. On June 1, SB66 is scheduled for a vote by the full House.

Please contact me at dave@sanbornhall.net or 320-9524 with your comments or if you just want to talk.

Cheers!

A transcontinental train trip, or searching for Mr. Shyne

By JOHN HARRIGAN
COLUMNIST

So, why take a train trip nearly 3,000 miles west, and then take another railroad trip right back, 3,000 miles east?

To say hello to your camp partner, of course — never mind that he'll be back east in a few weeks, and we'll be in camp together off and on through fall.

Somehow it all made sense to me, even if it was just an excuse to take a transcontinental train trip. But wait, there's more! I also got to hobnob with two long-time friends from Nashville.

There is a book on one of my library shelves titled "Chasing Danforth." It is about a writer (Robert W. Cook) who tries to follow the trail of a fabled 1800s hunting and fishing guide whose wanderings wound from the wilds of northern New Hampshire to the swamps of Florida. In the interim, a steamboat was named for him, the paddle-wheeler J.S. Danforth.

JOHN HARRIGAN

This is the elusive Mr. Shyne, offsetting some Yuba River white water, and a patch of green.

So let's just say that if I wrote a book about this trip it would be titled "Chasing Shyne," which I did until I caught him in Sacramento. But that, as untold scribes have written before me, is another story.

Right up front, even though that's where the engineer sits, I like traveling by train. As I explained to people I met along the way, I'm not a choo-choo wing-nut, I'm just a nut.

But the air travel that once was an adventure has deteriorated into a shuttled, shunted, stunted, graceless, shoeless and seat-cramped slog, at least for this guy whose 70-year-old carcass is sick and tied of the physical and mental abuse. Hence, if I can't go by truck or rail, I'm not going at all.

Anyway, I was worried about Mr. Shyne's West-Coast attitude, and missed him, although I'd never tell him that (this is a Guy Thing). So one day late in May I launched myself from Colebrook's South Hill, parked my truck at the Concord bus station, took the bus to South Station in Boston, and boarded an Amtrak train for Chicago.

There I met Nashville friends Lynda and Jim, and soon we were off on the vaunted Southwest Chief, headed for Los Angeles.

Now, before anyone asks, I always get two questions when talk turns to trains—how long it takes, and how much it costs. If you ask the former, my quick response is that if you look at your watch all the time, are an A to B traveler, tend to fidget, don't like people, are not content, and don't read, don't take the train. Period.

As to the second, figure in a hotel room and meals, and of course toilets and showers, and the freedom to roam hither and yon, because that's what you get on the train. Try that on a plane.

Because there was no other way, I had to bite the bullet and fly to Sacramento, where I met (Cameras! Action!) Mr.

JOHN HARRIGAN

A branch of the Yuba River, in California's high Sierra, looked like a place where a Clarksville Pond guy might find trout.

Shyne, which is what I always call him, even in camp (he calls me "JDH"). He looked the same as the last time I saw him, in camp, way back there in Clarksville, New Hampshire, but perhaps a bit grubbier (just kidding).

We had a nice time, kicking around the Sierras, with remaining five-foot snow-banks and all, and then it was time to hop a train headed for home.

This meant two nights and three days on the fabled California Zephyr to Chicago, and then another overnight train, the Lakeshore Limited, to Boston, and then a bus trip to Concord, where my truck awaited. Boy, was I ever glad to see my truck. Baker Bob was headed south to his job at the Mountain View at about 3 a.m. when he spotted my "SOHILL" plate as I drove north on Route 3, on a dead-reckoning for Colebrook. "Pretty hard to miss that plate," he said later.

It was me, all right, home just in time to hear the last of the peepers, and mow the lawn.

MARK ON THE MARKETS

Can you explain it?

BY MARK PATTERSON

Financial literacy would have been another title getting to the point of what I wanted to address this week, but because of discussions with potential clients looking for help with investments, but not having an accurate accounting of what they have, I have a simple question! Do you know what you have? Can you explain it? On several occasions in the recent months, I have been asked for help regarding a retirement income plan. When asked how their money was invested, they replied that they were in mutual funds. As a part of my assessment of the portfolio I ask to see their statement with a listing of the funds in it. If you have been reading my column, you would know that I would probably extract the top holdings from these funds, put them on a spreadsheet and look for overlap in companies or lack of diversification of asset class. But there it is again! An insurance product with mutual funds in it called a "variable annuity." Not one of these people that I was attempting to help knew that they were in a product that traditionally has high fees, market risks and a monetary penalty for early withdrawals or surrender. When I asked them why they were in the VA, not one person knew why they were in this product or any potential benefits, risk or features that should have been explained by the salesperson that sold it to them.

I am not opposed to product if it is what is best for the client, it just happened to be a poor choice for these particular people that that I was attempting to help. Anything with the word "variable" likely has market risk associated with it. While market risk is fine for some, it is not for others. If you wanted to take on market risk for higher potential gains, then you could go with mutual funds, stocks or exchange traded funds. The Annuity just defers taxes and may have some income features, but an IRA is tax deferred already, or as we discussed last week you may want to pay taxes now and take it tax free later. To be fair and open minded I have asked a few registered reps or advisors, those licensed to sell VA's, the advantages to investing in a VA vs mutual funds or ETF's in an IRA. The consensus answer, although not admitting it right away, is that the compensation they make is higher in a VA than the other "investments."

An easy way to determine if an investment is right for you would be to have a basic understanding of the investment and the fees, risks, benefits and how it fits into your overall plan. Not that you have to understand every nuance of this investment, but can you explain it to your spouse, friend or parents? If you are aware of all the fees, risks and early surrender charges, if they apply, then able to articulate why this fits into your financial or retirement income plan, then go for it!

Underage drinking

Think underage drinking doesn't affect a teen's brain? Think again.

IT'S A FACT. New research shows alcohol affects a teenager's developing brain differently than an adult's. Memory, learning and impulse control can be impaired seriously. The risk of addiction goes up dramatically. So talk to your kids about the dangers of alcohol and set clear rules about no alcohol use.

LACONIA — Fernand “Jerry” Lacroix, 85, died on Wednesday, May 24, 2017 at the Belknap County Nursing Home.

Jerry was born in Laconia on Nov. 12, 1931, the son of Albert W. and Grace Eva (Morin) Lacroix. He lived most of his life in Gilford, with short stays in Portsmouth, Belmont and Laconia.

Jerry was an accomplished two sport athlete. His play as a guard on the basketball court earned him a spot on the state’s All State Tournament Team in 1950. On the baseball diamond, Jerry was a starting catcher and a clean-up hitter. His outstanding defense and .423 batting average led Belmont High School to its first Stare Championship when he was a senior. In 2014 Belmont High School honored him by inducting him into their Sports Hall of Fame.

After graduating from Belmont High School in 1950, he had a tryout at Fenway Park with the Philadelphia Phillies and received a letter to report to Spring Training the following year. However, by that time he had followed in his family’s tradition of serving his country during time of war; he had already enlisted in the Army.

Jerry joined the U.S. Army in 1950 and served until 1953. He served during the Korean War and was a squad leader and platoon sergeant in the 2nd Infantry Division and took part in battles at “Heartbreak Ridge” and “Old Baldy.” He received many awards, including the Combat Infantry Badge and the Korean Service Ribbon, including three Bronze Battle Stars. After returning home, he joined the New Hampshire National Guard in 1955 and served for ten years, reaching the rank of 1st Lt. He was a member of the American Legion Post #58 in Belmont.

As an adult, Jerry enjoyed bowling, golf, carpentry and farming. He was especially happy taking care of his beef cattle, sheep and pigs on their mini-farm in Gilford that had been in the family since it was built in 1819.

He worked at Scott and Williams in Laconia for 21 years, and retired from Aavid Engineering after 17 years. Jerry was a member of the Gilford Community Church and Gilford Thompson-Ames Historical Society.

Jerry was pre-deceased by his brothers, Maurice, Robert, and Russell Lacroix; his sisters, Bertha Morin and Cecille Henry; and three nieces, Doreen Wright, Sylvia Swift Susan Fairbank; and nephews Scott Swomstead and Gary Bernier.

His family includes his loving wife of 50 years, Kathryn (Fournier) Lacroix of Gilford; two daughters, Catherine M. Rice and her husband Craig, and Karen D. Christian and her husband Ray Sandman; two grandsons, Jerry C. and Travis C. Christian, all of Mesa, Az.; also a brother-in-law, Ray Fournier, and his wife Kathleen of Concord, and their son, Michael Fournier, and his wife Rebecca.

Besides loving his two daughters, their husbands, and his grandsons, he dearly loved his nephews, Russell Lacroix and his wife Christine, David Lacroix and wife Michelle; and his nieces, Mary Lacroix and husband Chris Gilb, Anne Riesenburt and husband Tom, Elaine Jones and husband Wayne, Andrea Lacroix, Sue Sargent and her husband Dick, Joe Day and his wife Mary, and their extended family of great and great, great nieces and nephews. He enjoyed hosting annual family cookouts for many years. His family was most important and they were there to support him during his final years.

A Memorial Service will be held at the Gilford

Community Church, 19 Potter Hill Rd., Gilford, on Saturday, June 3, 2017 at 11 a.m. Burial will follow in the Raymond C. Wixon Memorial Garden, Gilford. A gathering will follow downstairs in the Church’s Fellowship Hall to which friends and family are invited.

Memorial donations may be made to the Central NH VNA & Hospice, 780 North Main St., Laconia, NH 03246.

Fourth Annual Mae West Memorial Pet Run to benefit NH Humane Society

LACONIA — Doug and Misty Asermely of Sick Boy Motorcycles have joined forces with their favorite animal advocacy agency, New Hampshire Humane Society, for the Fourth Annual Mae West Memorial Pet Run, this year held on Monday, June 12 at the Laconia Motorcycle Week event. Registration opens at 8 a.m. at Rally Headquarters on the boardwalk of Lakeside Avenue; kickstands up at 10:30 a.m. for a scenic ride to NH Motor Speedway for a guided tour around the track. Participation is $25 per rider and $20 for passengers. Those who donate, regardless if they can join the ride, will receive a custom 2017 Sick Boy Motorcycle Pet Run Ride T-shirt.

2016 saw a record number of bikers join up to ride from Rally Headquarters down to the shelter and over to the Weirs. This year, the ride takes you a little further afield, a drop in at the shelter to say hello to the animals, grab a complimentary coffee and pastry, and then off to finish at the New Hampshire Motor Speedway for a guided ride around the track. Riders are invited to stop at the Katancha vendor lot for a chance at tons of door prizes, then continue on to the after party at The Broken Spoke for a free lunch and more prizes.

Proceeds of the ride benefit the New Hampshire Humane Society, a privately funded 501(c)3 non-profit whose mission is to provide shelter for the lost, abandoned and unwanted animals; find responsible and caring forever homes for them, and; advocate and be the voice for the voiceless. The Society works hard to prevent cruelty to animals and offers education and outreach programs, pet therapy, and many community programs and initiatives to help responsible pet owners and their animals. To view adoptable pets, learn about upcoming events, or make a donation please visit www.nhumane.org.

Doug Asermely got the idea for this ride back in 2013 after learning that Mae West, the beloved cat of Rally Executive Director Charlie St. Clair, had died while Charlie was away in Florida, at Daytona Bike Week. Mae West was special, spunky and full of life, and her memory lives on since bikers really do care about the welfare of homeless animals. Laconia Motorcycle Week is a great time to join others and participate in the Mae West Memorial Pet Run to benefit the NH Humane Society.

“Doug is a special chap,” says Marylee Gorham, NHHS Executive Director, and longtime rider herself. “When I met him and toured him through the shelter, every dog stopped barking, sat down and gave him a look of curiosity, as if they all knew, he was a fellow with a very caring soul.”

Join Doug and his lovely wife Misty, and Rally Directors, Charlie St. Clair and Jennifer Anderson, on this fun ride with a reason, homeless pets in the Lakes Region, through the local scenic roads of Meredith, Laconia and Loudon. The ride always benefits this animal shelter, where last year they found forever homes for 1,023 animals.

Over the last three years, more than $22,000 has been raised from the Mae West Memorial Pet Run Ride, with more funds anticipated in 2017. For their donation, riders received a custom Sick Boy Motorcycle Pet Run t-shirt and will enjoy time spent with other animal advocates and bikers with compassion and heart. The work that Doug puts into this ride is exemplified by the riders, many of whom are his loyal customers, and from the big support the ride gets from sponsors, found at sickboy.com. Doug donates his time, advertising, and the custom-designed shirts to ensure that all the money raised from riders and sponsors goes directly to the animals. 2017 will be the year we break the $10,000 donation record – and you can help us do so! For more information, check out Sickboy.com or the Official Website of the Rally www.laconiamcweek.com.

LRPA gives you "Something to Sing About" with this weekend's After Dark feature LACONIA—Join Lakes Region Public Access Television at 10:30 p.m. this Friday and Saturday night (June 2 & 3) for our "LRPA After Dark" presentation of 1937's musical comedy "Something to Sing About," starring James Cagney, Evelyn Daw, Gene Lockhart and William Frawley.

Terry Rooney (Cagney) is a popular singing and dancing bandleader with his own radio show in New York. Soon, Hollywood comes calling in the form of Galore Pictures and studio head Bennett "B.O." Regan (Lockhart). Rooney decides to take B.O. up on his lucrative movie offer, leaving behind his band and sweetheart Rita Wyatt (Daw). When Rooney arrives in Tinsel Town, he is assigned several studio assistants, including PR man Hank Meyers (Frawley,) to make him a star. He resists this treatment, preferring instead to remain the down-to-earth hooper that he's always been. B.O. takes offense at Rooney's "bad attitude" and instructs his staff not to praise Rooney, lest he get a swelled head. While shooting his first film, Rooney gets into a scrap with a stuntman who decides that he doesn't like the bandleader. During a staged fight, the stuntman decides to throw a real punch instead of a fake, and Rooney punches back. The energy and charisma that Rooney shows in the fight comes through in the rushes, convincing B.O. that Rooney will be a star. Rooney, however, is fed up with Hollywood. He and Rita marry, taking Rooney's real name (Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus McGillicuddy!) and go on a tramp steamer honeymoon to the South Seas. In their absence, the movie is finished, premieres, and is a big hit, making Rooney an overnight sensation. B.O. wants Rooney to sign a seven-year contract, but the contract includes a "no marriage" clause, because female filmgoers are more attracted to eligible bachelors. Rita agrees to pretend that she's Rooney's secretary so that he can make another picture with a beautiful starlet. To promote the film, publicist Meyers leaks a story that Rooney and his co-star are "more than friends" – and the strain of this, combined with missing her husband, sends Rita home to New York. Will our lovers get back together? And what will become of Rooney's career?

"Something to Sing About" was Cagney's second film at Grand National Pictures, one of the so-called "Poverty Row" studios that specialized in low budget movies. Cagney's first film at Grand National, 1936's "Great Guy," had been a terrific experience for the actor, as it was well received and had given him more control over his choice of roles. But "Something to Sing About" was a musical, and audiences and critics alike were used to the big budget productions of studios like MGM. In comparison, this film's production values sagged, and so the film was a disappointment at the box office. However, this film remained one of Cagney's favorites. He was particularly proud of the musical number that he danced with his vaudeville friends Johnny Boyle and Harland Dixon. "Something to Sing About" offers a modern audience the chance to see a James Cagney movie that time has nearly forgotten, so what are you waiting for? Grab your popcorn and join LRPA after dark for this romantic musical from our long-lost past.

What Does Conservative Investing Mean to Older Investors?

If you're a certain age, or getting close to it, you might hear something like this: "Now that you're older, you need to invest more conservatively." But what exactly does this mean?

For starters, it's useful to understand that your investment preferences and needs will indeed change over time. When you're first starting out in your career, and even for a long time afterward, you can afford to invest somewhat aggressively, in stocks and stock-based investments; because you have time to overcome the inevitable short-term market drops. At this stage of your life, your primary concern is growth – you want your portfolio to grow enough to provide you with the resources you'll need to meet your long-term goals, such as a comfortable retirement.

But when you finally do retire, and perhaps for a few years before that, your investment focus likely will have shifted from accumulation to preservation. And this certainly makes some sense. Even though you may spend two, or even three, decades in retirement, you actually have many shorter time frames for withdrawing money – that is, selling investments – from your retirement accounts, such as your 401(k) and IRA. In fact, you may be taking withdrawals every month – and you don't want to be forced to sell investments when their price is down. Consequently, you'll want a portfolio that's less susceptible to market downturns. This means that you may need to reduce the percentage of stocks in your investment mix and increase your holdings in investments that have less growth potential but offer greater stability of principal, such as bonds.

If you follow this formula, you will have become a more conservative investor. But this evolution – from aggressive to conservative – isn't that simple, or at least it shouldn't be. If, as mentioned above, you are retired for two or three decades, you will have to deal with inflation. And even at a relatively mild 3 percent annual inflation rate, your purchasing power will decline by about half in just 25 years. This is a real threat to retirees, who, unlike active employees, can't count on increases in earned income to overcome increasing costs of living.

Given this reality, you will have to find your sources of rising income in your investment portfolio. One possibility: Dividend-paying stocks, some of which have increased their dividends for many years in a row. Still, like all stocks, these dividend payers can lose value from year to year, and they can also reduce, or even eliminate, dividends at any time. In other words, they aren't risk-free – which brings us back to the question of how "conservative" of an investor you can really afford to be when you're retired.

In the final analysis, there's no simple answer. On one hand, you probably shouldn't be as aggressive an investor as you were when you were much younger and still working. On the other hand, if you were to primarily own certificates of deposit and U.S. Treasury securities, you might face the prospect of outliving your money. Ultimately, you'll need to maintain a balanced portfolio that helps you control risk today while providing you with growth opportunities for tomorrow.

Pitman's welcomes the Bruce Marshall Group

LACONIA — Pitman's Freight Room, located at 94 New Salem St., Laconia, is pleased to announce the following events planned this weekend:

Friday, June 2, 8 p.m., $20: The Bruce Marshall Group

The Bruce Marshall Group treats their fans to a soaring ride as they rip through a catalog of original material that truly sets this band apart. They love to mix it up, whether it's pulling off exciting jams that build with dynamics and layering, or playing the concise arrangements of their songs with discipline and taste. The sound defies categorization, slipping seamlessly around touches of Blues, R&B, Rock and Southern Boogie. The interplay between Bruce and longtime guitarist Dave Cournoyer is the heart and soul of their performances. The songs are mostly upbeat, but even those dealing with love lost and missed opportunities, carry an underlying sense of hope and optimism. The band features original music by Bruce plus a high energy mix of Allman Brothers Southern Rock, Blues, Soul and Funk. Bruce is a member of The Toy Caldwell Band (Marshall Tucker) and has performed with Dire Straits, BB King, James Montgomery, Kate Taylor, Susan Tedeschi and more.

Bruce Marsall, Lead Vocals, Electric & Acoustic Guitars; Dave Cournoyer, Guitarist/Vocalist; Pete Premo, Drums; and Steve Roberge, Tenor Sax.

Doors open at 7 p.m., and we are a BYO Venue. For reservations, call 527-0043 or visit www.pitmansfreightroom.com.

Blues Brothers tribute returns to Franklin Opera House

FRANKLIN — Back by popular demand, the Rock Island Blues Revue returns to the Franklin Opera House at 7:30 p.m. on June 10 with their thoroughly entertaining and high energy show. Accompanied by Mo' Combo and the Little Town Horns, they call themselves "the most dangerous band in New England." This duo is an unstoppable force. Backed by an eight-piece band and armed with a '74 Dodge Monaco, there's no telling what they're capable of. You'll have to attend the show to find out. If you like the Blues Brothers movie, you'll love this show.

A special treat this year... Franklin High School musicians will join the group on stage for a few numbers. The Franklin Opera House is looking forward to bringing you a Soulful Night of Blues with this aesthetically pleasing show. Their performance in 2015 was a sell-out, so if you want good seats you won't want to wait to buy your tickets.

The Franklin Opera House is located in downtown Franklin inside historic Soldier's Memorial City Hall. Tickets are $16 to $20, available online at www.FranklinOperaHouse.org, or by calling 934-1901.

Field trip to share life of Mary Baker Eddy with ice cream June 8

SANBORNTON — The Sanbornton Historical Society invites the public to a field trip to the Mary Baker home and the First Church of Christ Scientist in Concord NH, Thursday June 8. Those attending and wishing to carpool will leave the Lane Tavern, 520 Sanborn Rd., Sanbornton, at 3:45 p.m. Cost is $7 per person.

Come and see this mid 19th Century, Greek revival style home to learn about Mary Baker Eddy's eighteen years in Concord. It was here, at 62 N. State St., that she undertook a landmark revision of her major work, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," revised several other of her writings, and wrestled with difficult organizational issues that led to her reorganizing her church in Boston. After renting this home for three years, she purchased and remolded a farmhouse on the outskirts of Concord. She resided in this house (no longer standing), which she named Pleasant View, for 15 years. The tour of 62

N. State St. includes two period rooms, plus an exhibit on Pleasant View.

The tour also includes an inside look at First Church of Christ, Scientist on State Street, Mrs. Eddy's gift to the citizens of Concord in 1904.

Ice Cream and pie will be served by members of the society at the Baker home after the tour. Please call Linda Salatiello 286-4526 for further information.

whether it be police, fire, or military. He pronounced them all to be noble and heroic people, each working around the clock to protect the citizens of the United States both at home and abroad.

War, Webber said, is a horrible thing, but he was grateful for those Americans who stand up to fight for what they believe in, one of the hardest sacrifices a person can make.

In the course of the battles he's witnessed however, Webber said he personally saw many acts of kindness, humanity and personal sacrifice; acts that are seldom shown in the media. Among them were things such as U.S. soldiers handing out candy to young children, providing medical assistance to Iraqi residents and even pitching in to rebuild schools in their communities.

"I was constantly impressed by not only their courage, but their kindness and decency to the Iraqi people. War brings out both kindness and courage," Webber said. "They all make personal sacrifices for the common good."

Also taking part this year were younger citizens of the Belmont community. Members of Boy Scout Troop 65 laid a wreath in front of the monument while representatives of Girl Scout Troop 21532, Brownies and Daisy Troop 12117 participated once again by casting flowers into the Tioga River to honor all who were lost at sea.

covered two people who had erected a tent as a temporary residence in the woods off the trail.

Those occupants were directed to local community service agencies where they could receive assistance in finding more suitable living arrangements.

A total of six occupants and one dog were displaced by the fire and were being assisted by Red Cross, Joubert said, and no injuries were incurred by firefighters as they battled the blaze.

Cause of the fire has been deemed to be accidental, due to the improper disposal of smoking materials on the porch.

TNFD officials noted that this is the second home in Tilton that has sustained significant fire damage from discarded smoking material in the last four months.

"You can't put cigarette butts in just any container. They need to be fully extinguished by dousing them in water or sand before disposing of them in a properly rated container," said Firefighter Derik Ogg.

Assisting the Tilton-Northfield firefighters for the call were crews and equipment from Franklin, Belmont and Laconia, along with members of the Tilton Police Department, while the Sanbornton and New Hampton fire departments provided station coverage.

Belmont runs, jumps and throws to second place

Red Raider track boys finish as Division III runners-up

BY BOB MARTIN

Bob@salmonpress.news

TILTON — The Belmont High School boys' track team came in second place at the Division 3 Championship track and field meet at Winnisquam Regional High School on Saturday, and coach Scott Clark said this is just another example of how hard his team has worked this year.

"You don't go for the win, you go for the best performance you can get," Clark said. "That's what we've been preaching to these kids since day one. When you rise to the challenge you'll see all these personal records. We had a lot of PRs today. When you PR you can't get much better than that. I'm overjoyed."

Taking home wins for the Red Raiders boys' team were Hunter Dupuis in the 200-meter dash with a time of 23.04; Eli Allman with a time of 15.53 seconds in the 110-meter hurdles and the 4X400-meter relay team consisting of Dupuis, Adam Sojka, Nolan Gagnon and Ian Remenar with a time of 3:33.41.

Sojka said he was happy to come away with the win, especially because he was battling a foot injury that he decided to run through.

"I can't really feel my heel right now," said Sojka. "It was good to get the win."

Remenar came in second in the 300-meter hurdles. The 4X100-meter relay team consisting of Dupuis, River Mathieu, Marc Forgione and Ben Hillsgrove also came in second, as well.

For the girls' team, winners included Alice Riley in the 3,200 meters with a time of 11:54.59 and the 4X800 relay team with a time of 10:11.75. This team included Alexus Day, Emma Chase, Jessica Hutchinson and Jasmine Syed.

All top three finishers earned automatic bids to the Meet of Champions, which takes place on Saturday, June 3, at Merrimack High School at 2:30 p.m.

Contigiani's gem gives Raiders 15th straight win

BY BOB MARTIN

Bob@salmonpress.news

BELMONT — Before Thursday's game, the baseball team collectively asked coach Matt Leblanc what the most amount of wins he had in a season with Belmont. He told them it was 14, and with BHS on their 14th straight win heading into the final game against Prospect Mountain, they knew what they had to do.

The Red Raiders wrapped up the regular season with a 7-2 win on a drizzly afternoon that still attracted about 30 fans to see the final regular season game for seniors. Cole Contigiani was on the hill, who along with fellow senior Corey Derosier, has been one of the top pitchers in Division 3 this year. Both pitchers have ERAs under 0.50.

Contigiani had a complete game with 10 strikeouts, two walks, two hit batters and a pair of earned runs. He had a great mix of his off-speed pitches with his fastball that kept Prospect Mountain batters off balance.

He came out firing in the first inning by striking out the side. Contigiani gave up a base hit to right by Prospect Mountain pitcher Drew Nickerson, which was one of the only well hit balls all day. Nickerson came out in the second half of the inning and retired the side in order.

Contigiani had a 1-2-3 inning in the second, which included a bare-handed snag on a hard hit ball right back to the mound.

It appeared that a pitchers' duel may be under way, but the Belmont hitters had something to say about that. In the bottom of the second Contigiani led off with a walk and while Cam Magerer was up at bat, Nickerson threw a wild pitch. Contigiani showed some serious hustle and made it all the way from first to third base on the play.

Magerer drew a walk and Trevor Hunt stepped up to the plate with no outs and runners on second and third after Magerer stole second uncontested. Hunt drove in Contigiani on a sacrifice fly to center to give Belmont the first run of the ballgame.

With Matt Pluskis at the plate, Magerer scored on a passed ball giving the Red Raiders a 2-0 lead. Pluskis walked but was thrown out at second trying to steal while Jonny LeClair was up at bat.

Contigiani continued his lights out pitching in the third inning. He walked the leadoff batter but then came through with a strikeout and two quick fly outs. In the fourth inning he struck out two batters and only allowed a single on a swinging bunt. He had seven strikeouts in the first four innings.

The Red Raiders scored three runs in the fourth inning, which was started by an infield hit by Trevor Hunt. Pluskis walked and LeClair sent a shot to the gap in right field for an RBI double. Derosier then lined a two-run single to left to give them a 5-0 lead.

Belmont increased its lead to 6-0 in the fifth inning on some heads up base running by Pluskis and Magerer. With Contigiani on third and Magerer on second base, Pluskis hit a grounder to third base. Contigiani went for home but was called out at the plate. Pluskis never slowed down and took off for second base, which drew a throw. Magerer raced home for the score and Pluskis was also called safe.

In the bottom of the sixth inning, number nine hitter Colby Brown laid down a great bunt and bolted to first base for a hit. Brown eventually scored on a passed ball for a 7-0 lead.

Prospect Mountain wouldn't go down without a fight. As the rain began to fall, the seventh inning started with Contigiani getting a quick out on a routine grounder to shortstop. His control was a bit off in the inning, as he then allowed a walk, a single to left and hit a batter. Contigiani got his composure back and struck out the leadoff batter. With two outs, Contigiani allowed a two-run single but a runner was called out trying to advance to third base to end the game.

Leblanc said this is another case of all-around great play by the Red Raiders. He commended Derosier for his great play at shortstop, Magerer behind the plate and the nice bunt by Brown. He also was quick to talk about the hitting by LeClair.

"He is on fire," said Leblanc. "It seems like he has had two or three hits every game. And they aren't excuse me hits. These are hit hard." Contigiani complimented the Prospect Mountain team after the game for their gutsy performance, in a day where they only had one substitute due to illness. He said they were a good team and he was happy everything was clicking for Belmont to come away with the win.

"They're a good team with a solid pitcher," Contigiani said. "We took advantage of a bad pitch here and there."

Contigiani knows he has had a great season, but he is humble about it and has a one track mind when it comes to baseball and his team.

"I feel great," said Contigiani. "Can't say anything bad about them. Just need to keep pushing forward. Everyone is playing their role right now."

Last week the Red Raiders also had a 2-1 win over Laconia and a 12-0 win against Franklin. Their first playoff game takes place at home on Saturday.

Leblanc said he couldn't be happier with the way the team has played, but he said there is still plenty to work on if they want to make a run in the playoffs.

"There's no quit in this team," said Leblanc. "They are a great bunch of guys and they have earned it. To be able to coach a group of guys like this is a pleasure and an honor."

Bears come away with solid win in season finale

BY BOB MARTIN

Bob@salmonpress.news

TILTON — The Winnisquam baseball team came into the season with high hopes, but the Bears struggled to stay consistent and ended the season with a 5-12 record.

A silver lining was that after four-straight losses the Bears traveled to Franklin and crushed them 18-3. Coach Fred Caruso said this is always a big rivalry no matter what their records are since the schools are in such close proximity.

The game was only six innings due to the mercy rule.

"It was a nice way to end a season that didn't go even close to what we had planned," Caruso said. "Things came together and I was really happy for the seniors, who led the way."

Hunter Tierney pitched a complete game in the win with 10 strikeouts, two walks and three unearned run. Caruso said they had one bad inning with three errors.

"Hunter pitched his heart out," said Caruso. "Not only on the mound, but he had four hits yesterday."

Mike Lowrey had three walks and a hit batter. He ended the season with a .500 batting average and was the team's top hitter. Jake Snow had two hits including a two-run double. Brendon Vaughn had three hits, two RBIs and three runs. Devan Glover made an outstanding catch on a foul ball, as well.

Drew Rawall had never played baseball before this season and got his first base hit in the final game of the season with a pinch hit, two-run single.

"The team went crazy," said Caruso. "Drew is a real nice kid. It was a great thing for the team to pull for."

Caruso said this was a nice bit of redemption after losing 10-0 to Franklin earlier in the season. It also knocked them out of playoff contention.

"That was our tournament game yesterday," said Caruso. "It was a nice way to cap the season. We beat some good teams and of the 12 games we lost we were in most of them. But that's the way baseball goes."

Belmont softball finishes strong

BY BOB MARTIN

Bob@salmonpress.news

BELMONT — The Belmont Red Raiders softball team ended the regular season with a four-game winning streak, which included a double header win over Bishop Brady with scores of 12-11 and 7-2.

Coach Bill Clary said the first game had Julianna Estremera on the mound, and she had five strikeouts. He said she pitched great but the team has several defensive miscues in the seventh inning to allow a walk to Bishop Brady to tie the game. The offense came back to score three runs in the eighth inning for the 12-11 win. Estremera was 2 for 5, Nicole Antonucci was 2 for 3, Jordan Lavalley was 4 for 4 and Lizzie Fleming went 3 for 5. All but one starter had a hit.

Fleming pitched the second game and Clary said it was the type of performance they need from her going into the playoffs. She had two walks and the defense played well behind her. The offense was led by Shannon Davies with a 2 for 4 day and Makenzie Donovan who went 2 for 3. Allie Taylor, Estremera, Fleming and Antonucci all had hits as well.

Hinds had a time of 51.53 seconds in the win, which was nearly two seconds ahead of Prospect Mountain's Jeremy Woodbury. Hinds was also 13th in the 200-meter dash with a time of 25.54 seconds.

"Scott did a great job and was focused on his 400," said coach Jody Fredette.

lowed closely by Nathan Houghton with a time of 10:59 for 13th place.

Top competitors for the girls' team included Aubrey St. Onge, who came in eighth place in the javelin with a toss of 82 feet, five inches. Shannon Goodwin was 11th with 77 feet, eight inches and Olivia Doubleday was 13th with a throw of 77 feet, seven inches.

Hannah Blackburn tossed the discus 65 feet, seven inches for 14th place. Phoebe Keck had a time of 29.15 in the 200-meter dash for 15th place and Ilijana Markelec placed 16th in the 100-meter hurdles with a run of 19.80 seconds.

"We've got some young people so we are looking forward to next year," said Fredette. "It was a bit of a rebuilding season, but I am happy

Encouraging news:

Central to this media campaign to eliminate underage drinking is the encouraging news that studies show parent disapproval is the No. 1 reason children choose not to drink alcohol. Parents empowered can trump peer pressure.

Research shows teens who regularly eat as a family (5-7 times per week) are 33 percent less likely to use alcohol.

The most effective parenting techniques are among the most simple, including:

- Set clear rules about no underage drinking
- Know where your children are and whom they are with
- Know your children's friends
- Ensure your children's social environments are alcohol free
- Have daily, positive communication and interaction with your children
- Eat dinner together

Most parents don't realize they are the No. 1 influence in their children's lives.

When parents were asked to draw the greatest influences on their teens, they placed themselves last.

Parents' view: My child, Friends, Teacher, Media, Parents (Me)

When teens were asked to draw the major influences in their lives, they placed their parents first, before peers and activities.

Winnisquam softball finishes regular season 10-6

BY BOB MARTIN
 Bob@salmonpress.news

TILTON — The Winnisquam Bears softball team finished the season last week with a 16-4 win against Somersworth and a 13-1 loss to Franklin.

According to coach Kevin Dame, the Bears beat Somersworth in five innings due to the mercy rule. They scored five runs in the second, third and fourth innings. Winnisquam the scored another run in the fifth inning.

Cailey Clogston and Madysin Skeats went 3 for 3, with Clogston scoring four times and Skeats with three RBIs. Lauren Bolstridge was 2 for 4 with three RBIs, Molly Tinker was 2 for 5 with three RBIs and Ashley Deshaies was 2 for 3.

Tinker got the win with a complete game, four hits, two walks, two earned runs and five strikeouts.

The tables turned for Winnisquam in the final game of the season, with a tough 13-1 loss to Franklin where Tinker struggled with seven earned runs in the complete game.

Emma Atherton was 2 for 3 with a double and a triple. Carlee Catty and Bolstridge had a hit apiece.

Dame said the loss was due to some errors in the field, but also that they just didn't execute against a surging Franklin squad.

Dame said he likes the way his team has played this season, but he said they need to be more consistent.

"There's not a team that I think we can't beat, but also there's not a team on the schedule that if they come to play can't beat us," Dame said. "We need to come and play good softball in the playoffs. Every loss we have had we have given up one big inning so we have to stay away from that."

Winnisquam ended the regular season at 10-6 and as of press time it was uncertain where they would be seeded in the playoffs.
