

Belmont salutes servicemen and women through the generations

BY DONNA RHODES
dhrhodes@salmonpress.com

BELMONT — Residents of Belmont lined Main Street on Monday afternoon, then gathered by the war monument on Church Street to pay tribute on Memorial Day to the men and women who gave their all for freedom and the betterment of the nation through wars stemming back to the Revolution.

Following a patriotic parade, led off by the Belmont Police Department's Honor Guard and including veterans, scouting groups and the Belmont High School marching band, the solemn ceremonies then got underway as everyone gathered at memorial site.

Five-year-old triplets Jasmine, Madelyn and Caden were very patriotic last Monday when they and their mom Melanie Roberts attended Memorial Day ceremonies in Belmont.

Charles Kilburn American Legion Post 58 Commander Richard Stanley welcomed the crowd by saying simply, "Most of us assembled here understand why we are here."

bargains, he went on to recite the refrain of the familiar song, "Proud to Be An American," made famous by artist Lee Greenwood.

"I'm proud to be an American where at least I know I'm free/ And I won't forget the men who died who gave that right to me/ And I'd gladly stand up next to you and defend Her still today/ 'Cause there ain't no doubt I love this land/ God Bless the U.S.A."

Stanley went on to praise all who have been lost in the fight for freedom and also saluted those who have survived their time in service for the struggles they face even after returning home. He encouraged everyone to support each of those brave men and women as well as their families.

Pastor Andy Barnes of Belmont Baptist Church delivered the invocation for the ceremony, reflecting on those who gave all and their loved ones who also made great sacrifices for "a worthy cause we can all be proud of."

During a moment of silence, representatives from Boy Scout Troop 65 and Cub Scout Pack 65 then laid a wreath before the monument.

Girls Scouts of Troop 21532 and their younger members also tossed flowers into the Tioga River in honor of all who lost their lives at sea over the past 241 years.

Other tributes came from VFW members Woody Fogg and Howard Brown who raised the American flag that had rested at half-mast all morning, and from their fellow veterans Bob Stevens who read names of the recently passed veterans from the community as Steve Bracey

Northfield street fight results in four arrests

NORTHFIELD — At approximately 7:42 p.m. on Friday, May 27, the Northfield Police Department received a 9-1-1 call for a motor vehicle accident at the intersection of Park St. and Dearborn Road and the caller reported a fight had also broken out at the scene.

When officers arrived at the intersection they found what they described as "a chaotic scene with several individuals actively fighting and several more people watching and attempting to separate the individuals."

Northfield police reported in their press release that in addition to those involved in the fight, a crowd had gathered at the location, with some people trying to separate the individuals.

Due to the intensity of the fight and number of people at the scene, NPD requested assistance from both the New Hampshire State Police and the Tilton Police Department. Park Street was closed for a short

Household hazardous waste: A common problem, a simple solution

REGION — There are many toxic materials which exist right inside many Lakes Region homes. These toxic materials are known as "hazardous wastes," which are substances that poison or contaminate the environment, and threaten the health of those in the local community. They may be flammable, corrosive, or reactive, and should be disposed of properly so as not to harm people or damage the region's soil and water resources.

Oftentimes we envision hazardous wastes produced by factories, contaminating the surrounding soil and water. This sort of pollution can exist, though much has been done over the last several decades to clean this up. The fact is that most households use and create hazardous waste every day.

Look under your kitchen or bathroom sink, at the basement workbench, in the garage or garden shed – wherever you store cleaning products, home and vehicle maintenance items, or garden chemicals. If a product label says "danger," "warning," "poison," or "caution," the product contains ingredients that are flammable, poisonous, will burn the skin and eyes, or react violently with other chemicals. These items, if disposed of improperly, are a very real threat to the health of the community, and the natural ecosystem. Municipal treatment plants and leachfields are incapable of processing these chemicals. In other words, these chemicals can remain in the water supply. Even the

Sanbornton police pay tribute to departing officer

Last Wednesday evening, members of the Sanbornton Police Department, both past and present, paid tribute to Officer Tracy Trammel, who retired after 19 years of service in the community to return to his home state of Louisiana. Chief Stephen Hankard presented him with a plaque in tribute to his dedication as everyone gathered to wish him well in his new ventures. From his fellow officers and chief came the statement, "Best of luck in Louisiana Tracy, you will be greatly missed! Y'all come back now, hear!"

BHS students join local veterans to improve land around covered bridge

dhrhodes@salmonpress.com

BELMONT — Before the busy holiday weekend got underway last Friday, a group of community minded veterans and enthusiastic members of Belmont High School's Class of 2016 spent a few hours in the hot sun doing service to the town.

American Legion Post 58 Commander Richard Stanley said through Post member Woody Fogg and his participation with the Village Revitalization Committee, they decided to take on the task of improving the land around the new covered bridge that crossed the Tioga from Route 140 into Belmont Village.

"We like to have a project to call our own," Stanley said.

By clearing the brush along the Route 140 parking lot for the bridge, it now has greater visibility in the village and the public may more readily access the river for fishing and other seasonal activities.

Post 58 is a small but committed group of veterans that currently has 54 veteran members enrolled.

Bowl-a-thon benefits Children's Auction

BY ERIN PLUMMER
eplummer@salmonpress.com

LACONIA — Business people and civic leaders from across the area took to the bowling lanes at Funspot for a night of friendly competition, food, and good times all benefiting children and families in need in the Lakes Region.

On Thursday night, 16 teams took part in the fifth annual Bowl-a-thon put on by Fusion, this year's event benefiting the Children's Auction of the Greater Lakes Region.

Fusion is a Lakes Region-based organization connecting young professionals with established businesses and create networking opportunities. The Bowl-a-thon benefits a different organization each year; previous beneficiaries include the Faith, Hope, and Love Foundation, Got Lunch Laconia, and the Santa Fund of the Lakes Region.

This year's event benefited the Children's Auction of the Greater Lakes Region.

"It's been such a long-standing, great charity in the community, we really felt like out money would have the biggest impact," said Kara LaSalle, president of Fusion.

Jamie Sousa, who sits on both the boards of Fusion and the Children's Auction, said the Fusion board thought the Children's Auction was a perfect fit for the Bowl-a-thon.

"Our goal is to give back to future generations," Sousa said.

At the beginning of the event Sousa read a letter from Children's Auction founder Warren Bailey. Bailey thanked the event organizers for this benefit. He said since the auction began 34 years ago, the common question he has received is "How can I help?"

"Whether as a group or an individual you have stepped up to the challenge," Bailey wrote. Bailey said as everyone came together for a fun night of bowling, "your kindness and caring goes a long way in telling a child you care."

A portion of the evening's proceeds went to the Children's Auction's many efforts for children and families in the area. Children's Auction board member Ed Darling said each application for assistance is reviewed by the Disbursements Committee and ranked according to priority. Highest priority goes to immediate needs, such as food, coats, and Christmas presents. Second priority goes to "agencies responsible for improving the lives of children and families in the Lakes Region." Third is for one-time purchases or capital expenses. The fourth is for group activities, such as sports and summer camp scholarships.

The teams included members of area businesses and individuals conglomerated into teams Half the teams bowled candlepin and the other half bowled ten-pin, switching halfway through. There were also raffles and a donation jar.

A number of board members for the Children's Auction stepped up to the lanes.

"Any event for the Children's Auction is good," said Children's Auction board member Tony Felch.

Board member Bob Glassett said this was another opportunity to get the word out about their organization and get more support.

"We try to get out and as many events as we can to support the people

Teams bowl for a good cause during the fifth annual Fusion Bowl-a-thon, this year's even benefiting the Children's Auction of the Greater Lakes Region.

putting them on," Glassett said.

Darling has been working with the Children's Auction since 1984 and was happy with what is going on now, from the 16 teams at that event to Pub Mania and efforts by the schools and fire departments and beyond.

"It's been a very humbling experience to be part of it," Darling said.

He said it has been amazing to watch this grow and see the community support it has received in the past 32 years.

The evening's overall winner was the team from Burrito Me.

Other upcoming Fusion networking events include kayaking Meredith Bay with Ekal, the Haunted Corn Maze at Beans and Greens in Gileford, the Impact Awards, and a possible murder mystery night.

Shavings to commence Saturday for this year's St. Baldrick's

BY ERIN PLUMMER
eplummer@salmonpress.com

The clippers will be buzzing off people's hair for another year to raise money for kids with cancer during this year's annual St. Baldrick's event.

Lakes Region St. Baldrick's will hold its annual event on Saturday, June 4 from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. at the Gilford Youth Center, with more than 30 people already signed up to have their heads shaved.

The Lakes Region event started in the 2000's, and has been at other venues such as Gunstock. This will be the seventh year that St. Baldrick's is at the GYC.

Since its beginning, Lakes Region St. Baldrick's has raised over $450,000 for the St. Baldrick's Foundation, an organization that provides funding for children's cancer research. Some of the area agencies that have benefited include Children's Hospital at Dartmouth and Children's Hospital in Boston.

"Unfortunately, this community has been affected by children's cancer over the years," said GYC director and event organizer Scott Hodsdon. "We've really come together as a community to support these families."

Hodsdon said this is not only helping kids in Gilford but all over the Lakes Region, the state, and beyond that.

In the past few years, the event has taken place in the early evening, this year it was moved back to the morning and afternoon hours. Hodsdon said it seems the focus was to go back to how it began with more emphasis on the people having their heads shaved.

"We want to keep it simple and have a fun atmosphere," Hodsdon said.

As of Friday morning, 30 people had signed up to get their heads shaved with almost $5,000 raised so far.

This year's St. Baldrick's will be hosted by Nazy and Mya of WLNH, and will also feature a special guest speaker.

Free food will be served, including an ice cream stand by Ben & Jerry's of Meredith.

There will also be a bake sale, silent auction, and a sale of St. Baldrick's t-shirts. The event will also have a bone marrow drive to take DNA samples to see if someone is a match.

"It's a celebration of the St. Baldrick's Foundation and what they do," Hodsdon said.

Hodsdon said the GYC is honored to be part of this event that helps so many people.

"It's arguably one of our most special events," Hodsdon said. "We're very proud to have it here and we're very proud the Gilford Youth Center can attach its name to its cause."

He said they want to reach out to the Lakes Region as a whole.

"We encourage people from all over the Lakes Region to come to this event and show their support," Hodsdon said.

Hodsdon said he is really grateful for all the volunteers that help out. He said it is a lot of work to have one event, but an annual event requires a lot of people's dedication.

This is the first year he is the organizer and said it has helped a lot to have many other people around who are familiar with the event.

"These people truly have a passion for this event," Hodsdon said. "It's terrific to work with such individuals who have a passion for what they're doing."

Hodsdon said they will offer the space as long as there is a need, though he said he was told by past organizer John Beland that they hope they will never have that need.

Sanbornton Recreation still has openings for the Summer Day Camp Program

SANBORTON — Camp opens on Monday, June 27 and ends on Friday, Aug. 12 (seven-week program). We open at 7 a.m. and close at 5:30 p.m. We operate out of the Sanbornton Central School Gym. We accept children who are age six (as of June 1, 2016) or who have completed Kindergarten through age 12.

We are licensed by the State of New Hampshire Childcare Licensing Bureau and we comply with all state regulations. Therefore, all children must have a completed registration form, immunization records, and a current physical to comply with State standards. We also accept payments from Health & Human Services.

Each week, we host a different theme. This summer's themes are: Medieval Magic, The Rain Forest, Let's Go Camping, Decades Week, Space is a Place, The Mighty Jungle, and Holiday Week.

Our scheduled field trips include Whales Tale, Polar Caves, Chucksters, Krazy Kids, Smitty's Cinema and McAuliffe — Shepard Discovery Center. Every Wednesday we walk to the Sanbornton Library and campers participate in the Summer Reading program. The program jammed packed with lots of activities of indoor and outdoor games and crafts.

You can sign-up for as many weeks as you like or you can come as needed on a daily basis if space is available. For more information about this fun camp, call Dolly at 286-7499 or email: sanbrec@metrocast. Our brochure is available online at: <http://sanborntonnh.org/Departments/Recreation/2016%20Summer%20Day%20Camp%20Brochure.pdf>.

American Cancer Society paints the Lakes Region purple for 2016 Relay for Life

REGION — The American Cancer Society Relay For Life Of Lake Winnepesaukee is offering an opportunity for businesses and local communities to show their awareness and support in the fight against cancer from June 18 — June 25.

For all those touched by cancer, purple is more than a color. It represents hope and embodies the power and promise of the American Cancer Society Relay For Life movement. This year we want to take the purple movement to more people and spread our message further. We want to "Paint The Town Purple" so that cancer never steals another life. Every team, every survivor, and every dollar raised can help

NORTH COUNTRY NOTEBOOK

The road to Rangeley, Maine is paved with indentations

By JOHN HARRIGAN
COLUMNIST

There is no quick way to get to Rangeley, Maine, except by floatplane or helicopter. I truly love traveling by floatplane and have done so all over the Far North. Ditto for helicopters, although I do not like riding in them so much and have always regarded them as machines designed to shake themselves to pieces.

My best friend Jeff Fair of Palmer, Alaska also is well accustomed to helicopters and floatplanes, not so much the former and very much the latter, because aviation gas is expensive as it is, and helicopters drink it like whisky. Floatplanes are a bit cheaper but not much, and by necessity are the taxis of the Far North.

Jeff comes down to the Richardson Lakes and Aziscohos and Parmachenee and Umbagog regions once or twice a year to do wildlife biology work for the power companies that control the lake levels there, as part of their licensing agreement. So one day last week we agreed to meet in Rangeley for supper.

I was afar, in Lancaster, and got waylaid by a doctor's appointment, and suddenly I knew that I'd never make our meeting time at Sarge's in Rangeley, and so I tried to put the hammer down along Route 142 between Rumford and Route 4, and discovered what I already knew, that if you try to make time the permanent frost-heaves will make an astronaut out of you. There's no cell signal for most of the trip, but at the apogee of one of the major frost-heaves, atop some ridge, I actually got Jeff and he heard the word "late," and that was good enough, because when I got to Sarge's it had bothered him not at all and he was into a second or third pitcher with his crew of fellow misfits, who help him spot wildlife and fix loon nesting barges and stuff like that.

PET OF THE WEEK

THOR

Giving this little puppy a big empowering, Superhero name is just the first step for young Thor as he learns a little more about the world each day at New Hampshire Humane Society.

Thor and his four littermates were found in the driveway one morning. We're glad those folks left them with us, rather than abandoning them in the woods somewhere; we ARE here to help, after all.

Thor is a handsome tan & white pup of terrier extraction, only a DNA test, yes they have them for dogs now, will tell the tale of his parentage but it's a reasonable guestimate he's a gentle, sweet, shy Staffordshire Terrier type. Perhaps watching the documentary, The Champions, might help those decide if they wish to open their hearts and home to little Thor, he needs some confidence building and required puppy classes available at New Hampshire Humane Society.

With kind, positive guidance Thor will surely emerge from his shell of insecurity into the sunlight of confidence that life with caring humans will imbue him with.

Best home, one with children over twelve years of age, and did we mention, he likes cats!

To the Editor:

We co-chairs, Dave Witham and Lynn Chong, announce Sanbornton's Old Home Day, Saturday, July 23, all day in our "Town Square." We will have pancake breakfast at Lane Tavern (8:30 a.m. start), vendors, demonstrators of crafts and skills, lunch sold by groups, storytelling, Wildlife Encounter, Fire Station involvement, car show, cow pat bingo, and many things too numerous to name here.

Are there vendors to contact us? Are there parade groups for our late-day parade? We'd love to see family groups who've put together something catchy.

Brad Crosby is going to run a cribbage tournament, and would like players to call ahead and sign in with him so he can make a schedule. Those games will be in Lane Tavern, our Sanbornton Historical Society building. Call Brad at 286-8605.

Call Lynn Chong at 934-6486 or Dave Witham at 286-9590 to get into the mix of things going on, skills to share, or to help that day. We'll again have free cake slices with Rock Salt Creamery ice cream, and that table can use help. Cakes need baking! By June 15 we need to have our T-shirt sponsor names all in. Thank you, all.

Sincerely,

Lynn Chong

Help Uno's help us!

To the Editor:

During these hot and muggy summer months, hunger is surely to prompt you for something to eat. While undecided about what and where, let me suggest the perfect dining enjoyment within an air conditioned and friendly environment: Uno's restaurant at Tanger Outlets in Tilton.

Uno's has provided a "Dough Raiser" the second Tuesday of every month for the Twin Rivers Interfaith Food Pantry, located in Franklin. We serve the City of Franklin and the towns of Salisbury, Sanbornton, Hill, Danbury, Northfield, Andover and Tilton. On the second Tuesday of every month, when you enjoy a meal at Uno's and provide them with a coupon, 20 percent of your bill is donated by Uno's to Twin Rivers Interfaith Food Pantry. What a fabulous way to support the hungry individuals and families in these areas! Contact Rev. Karen Heavey, Director at 934-2662 and I will mail these coupons directly to you. Share them with your friends to further raise both awareness and greatly needed support.

On behalf of all of us at the Pantry and Uno's - thank you so very much!

Thoughts from the Thrift Shop

News from the Gilmanton Community Church Thrift Shop and Food Pantry

As you may have noticed, the Gilman- Thrift Shop building is receiving a face lift with new siding. This has been made possible due to the popularity of the Gilmanton Thrift Shop, through the sale of clothing and accessories, as well as those of you who have sponsored and attended our past fundraising events.

Let us be clear, no money donated to the Food Pantry has been used to pay for this siding. The success of our fundraising events, the Thrift Shop, and all who frequent there has helped make it possible to keep our Food Pantry shelves stocked and to maintain the upkeep of the building.

The Gilmanton Food Pantry & Thrift Shop Committee cannot thank you enough for your support. The Food Pantry strives to provide supplemental assistance to those in the town of Gilmanton who may need a helping hand. The Thrift Shop endeavors to make available a variety of gently used clothing, shoes, boots and accessories for a reasonable price. It is a win, win for everybody.

BY RANDY HILMAN

Regional homes sales through May were up a healthy 19 percent year over year despite a downturn in new listings and nearly flat pending sales, figures show.

In the midst of a robust sales environment statewide and especially in Belknap, Carroll and Grafton counties, home buyers also benefitted as the median home price remained fairly stable, rising slightly above 5 percent statewide over 12 months and less than 1 percent locally through May of this year, according to statistical data from the New England Real Estate Network Multiple Listing Service.

The New Hampshire Association of REALTORS® described the state of the residential real estate market as “predictable.”

“The housing market is being predictable, and that’s a good thing,” NHAR wrote in its most recent April housing report. “At the beginning of the year, it was anticipated that the prevailing trends of the past year would continue into and through 2016 and that has largely been the case.”

The Winnepesaukee Talkie

Home sales rise, inventory shrinks, prices stable

NHAR reported new listings statewide up nearly 19 percent for the month and 22 percent year-to-date. In the three-county Lakes Region, 1,272 homes sold through May, up 19.2 percent from the 1,067 sales in the same period a year ago, according to NEREN.

Dollar volume rose as well, up 24.5 percent year over year to $329.4 million.

Pending sales, meanwhile, up nearly 19 percent statewide, rose a marginal 2.3% in the Lakes Region with May pending sales down nearly 11 percent from the year ago, NEREN data shows.

New listings, too, were down locally, falling 25 percent in May, year over year, and 7 percent YTD. New listings statewide were up just above 5 percent YTD, figures show. Fewer listings and rising sales suggest a reduction of available inventory. NHAR reported an inventory drop of 21 percent in April to 7.1 months supply and a 12-month average of 8.6 months.

Housing supply in the Lakes Region was at 9.3 months through May based on average monthly sales of 261 units, NEREN reported. Housing inventory last year remained above 10-months.

“There have been no striking changes to curtail what should be a decent run of home sales over the next several months,” NHAR reported. “Mortgage rates have remained stubbornly and wonderfully low, the unemployment rate has remained at or near (5 percent) for eight straight months and wages have increased for a great many people.

“New construction has been slow, and that may be a damper on sales, but the general outlook remains strong”.

Area builders remain optimistic that a housing market characterized by fewer choices will spur new home construction, which has dwindled dramatically since the nation’s financial collapse in 2008. In the Lakes Region, many say, existing homes can still be purchased for less money than the cost to construct new homes. With the median home price rising a fractional .27% through May to $185,000, significant numbers of new housing starts may be years in the making.

Once again this year Belknap County led the three-county region in YTD sales with 438 closed transactions, up 41.7 percent, according to NEREN. Pending sales through May were up 11.7 percent to 257 units while new listings were down 9.8 percent YTD on the heels of a 27 percent decline in May, NEREN figures show.

The dollar volume of sold homes in Belknap County increased 35.5 percent to $117.7 million, more than doubling the volume of $57 million reported at the end of the first quarter this year. Housing inventory also declined by two months from the end of Q1 to an 8.2 months supply in May. And, unlike many areas of the state that witnessed rising median home prices, Belknap County saw its median home price fall nearly 6% to $183,450, according to NEREN.

Carroll County YTD sales rose 19% to 397 closed transactions. Pending sales were up 7 percent to 269 units against a 7.8 percent decline in new listings, also on the heels of 27.4% drop in May, according to NEREN data.

Transacted dollar volume rose 42% to $111.1 million and housing inventory shrunk 25 percent to a 9.5-month supply. The median price of a Carroll County home, meanwhile, rose 4.3% to $195,000, according to NEREN.

In Grafton County, comparison sales figures painted a misleading picture of the current market’s brisk pace that began there more than 18 months ago and continued through May. YTD sales totaled 437 units, up only 2.8 percent, compared to 2015, while pending and new listings were down 8.7 percent and 3 percent respectively. Dollar volume increased a very modest 1.2 percent to $100.5 million for the period, according to NEREN.

The comparisons, however, do not reflect Grafton County’s strong sales performance in 2015. A telling glimpse into the hidden successes of that market are the facts that homes on average there have sold 12.5 percent faster this year than last and for nearly 2 percent more money, figures show. Yet, the median price of a Grafton County home remained steady at $179,000, up just 2.3 percent through May year over year.

These details, coupled with a current housing inventory that has declined 37 percent this year to a 9.9-month supply, suggest the state of Grafton County’s housing market continues to be strong.

BY MARK PATTERSON

There’s a big disconnect between the wealthy and the not so wealthy. The disconnect that I’m referring to is how they invest their money. Many high net worth investors are risk adverse when it comes to investable assets. Much of the wealth in this country is tied to real estate holdings and fixed income portfolios made up primarily of municipal and corporate bonds and mortgage-backed securities. The wealthy may also use whole or indexed life insurance for tax-free income, legacy planning and dealing with potential estate taxes. Those wealthy people who have made their money from a business venture or even inherited typically have taken all the risk in obtaining

Mark on the Markets

Invest like the wealthy

that money and have no intentions of losing it in the stock market. The use of municipal bonds or life insurance may provide tax-free income because typically, their tax rates tend to be much higher than the non-wealthy. Wealthy people who have large real estate holdings typically invest their other money with liquidity in mind. Real estate is typically not considered a liquid asset so you often see a muni-bond portfolio that provides tax-free income but may be sold and liquidated quickly. The use of tax-free bonds vs. corporate taxable bonds is an easy calculation based on the client’s tax rate, but either will provide liquidity, growth and low volatility provided you stick with investment-grade bonds. Alternative investments dealing with commodities or currency or even stocks may be a part of the mix but to a much lesser degree than what I typically see in the not so wealthy’s asset mix.

Wealthy people may have a family office that is comprised of asset managers specific to the makeup of their portfolio. They may also work with a financial planner or an estate attorney and CPA firm to consult to the management of their assets in the most tax efficient means possible.

The not so wealthy may not need a family office, estate attorney or maybe even a CPA firm, however there is no reason to not manage your investable assets along the same lines as the wealthy. Your tax issues may not be as great, so corporate bonds or taxable may be better than municipal bonds. The lack of liquidity in variable annuities and the expense of loaded mutual funds and the risks of the equity the markets seem to be common to the retail brokerage client, however.

In general, the retail brokerage client portfolios are typically made up of stock-based mutual funds, bond funds that are perpetual or stocks that lack asset class diversification, carry high expense ratios and are composed of funds that the brokerage firm receives revenue-sharing from the fund companies. The typical brokerage firm is primarily a sales organization where the brokers are kept in check as to what can be sold and typically given very little latitude for the type of investment offered to the clients. Some of the larger firms do have a good fixed income desk that may provide a good bond portfolio but from the brokers perspective it is not as profitable as selling mutual funds or variable annuities.

You must decide as the client, do I want to be treated as a retail brokerage client or do I deserve the same treatment as the wealthy investor?

Want to avoid an unnecessary hospital readmission? Here’s how

BY JENNIFER HARVEY, RN, BSN, CDP
Clinical Director
Live Free Home Health Care

An unexpected hospitalization and a planned surgery have one thing in common: when coming home, it’s hard to know at what level someone will function. For example, recovery from joint replacement surgery, stroke, or managing a chronic illness following a hospital stay is a delicate time for a patient. The challenge becomes how to successfully manage the transition from hospital to home in order to avoid a subsequent hospitalization.

Following a discharge from the hospital or other care facility, patients move through the spectrum of care options continually, transferring from home health to private home care and back again as care needs change, and a growing body of research suggests that older adults coping with multiple chronic conditions and complex therapies are particularly vulnerable to breakdowns in that care continuum that can lead to a rehospitalization. Some of the major factors contributing to slow recovery and rehospitalization are a lack of communication between health care providers, inadequate patient and caregiver education, and poor continuity of care. This is where transitional care management can help.

Transitional care closes the care gaps that many patients experience upon returning home, and promotes improved healing. Consider that when transitioning home from a hospital, rehab or nursing facility, there are an overwhelming array of details to digest and tasks to accomplish for the safest and most comfortable recovery. Oftentimes these details are overlooked or forgotten by patients and family members in the mad rush of information and instructions given to them. A professional home care agency, such as Live Free Home Health Care, can provide experienced caregivers and care managers who will serve as a care advocate for the person who is returning home from the care facility, meeting needs such as:

- Assistance with post-discharge planning
- Coordinating delivery of in-home medical equipment
- Picking up prescriptions
- Medication reminders and monitoring for undesired medication reactions
- Bathing, dressing, and ambulation assistance
- Preparing healthy, diet-specific meals
- Scheduling appointments
- Transportation

to and from follow up appointments

And, a professional home care agency will also help educate patients and family to ensure that they:

- Better understand the care plan, including medications and side effects,
- Better understand how to manage a loved one’s chronic conditions, and

• Recognize the first warning signs of problematic symptoms.

Studies show that enlisting help for care transitions decreases hospital readmissions. If you would like to learn more about how Live Free Home Health Care can provide smooth care transitions for you or your loved one, give us a call at (603) 217-0149. We will help provide a safe and comfortable recovery at home.

Help Twin Rivers Food Pantry keep the PB&J alive!

BY KAREN HEAVEY
Pantry Director

FRANKLIN — Our food for the month of June at the Twin Rivers Interfaith Food Pantry is: Paper products such as tissue paper, paper towels, toilet paper, etc. We will emphasize that these do not decorate neighborhood homes – promise!

We ask for another item that, for a month or more, we have not been able to obtain from the New Hampshire Food Bank. Jelly! I am wondering, since jelly comes from grapes, etc., are these berries in demand by wineries or something? The cost of everything has risen these days – but why delicious, juicy, yummy jelly that must be slathered over the top of smooth or chunky peanut butter sandwiches? That our young people rely upon? And, remember, school is coming to a close soon and the demand will be enormous for us. I wish I knew why such a standard everyday staple is so difficult for us to keep on our shelves?

After writing this,

I’m ready for a good ole’ PB&J sandwich seated upon a paper napkin right now! Will you help us with either of these items? Donations can be made on any Tuesday and Thursday from 8-11 a.m. or Wednesday evenings from 4-7 p.m.

Franklin Regional Hospital announces local farmer’s market

FRANKLIN — Franklin Regional Hospital is excited to once again host a weekly Summer Farmer’s Market in collaboration with the Franklin Healthy Eating Active Living (HEAL) Coalition. Join local food vendors on the lawn at FRH on Tuesday afternoons from 3-6 p.m., beginning Tuesday, July 5 and continuing through Sept. 13.

Encouraging healthy

lifestyles of community residents is the focus of the market and shoppers will get to enjoy locally-grown produce and other goods in an easily accessible location. The market will also be accepting debit, credit, and SNAP/EBT payments for purchases. Through a partnership with the Merrimack County Conservation District’s Granite State Market Match program, SNAP benefits will be matched up to twenty dollars per week per shopper. Double SNAP dollars can be used towards the redemption of free fruits and vegetables!

Also new this year, free round trip bus transportation to the market from scheduled Franklin locations. This is being made possible with a grant from Franklin Savings Bank and a partnership with the Belknap-Merrimack County Community Action Program (BM-CAP).

Eating a wide variety of fruits, vegetables, and lean protein sources are essential to a healthy body and mind. Stop by Franklin Regional Hospital on Tuesday afternoons this summer for the freshest, most delicious local food!

For more information, please call 934-2060, ext. 8369 or visit

Winnepesaukee Wellness Center to host open house on June 10

LACONIA — Please join us for an Open House at the Winnepesaukee Wellness Center (WWC) on Friday, June 10 (12:30-3 p.m.) where you will meet current members, learn about the equipment, and enjoy some refreshments with new friends. In addition, a Rite Aid Wellness Ambassador will be on-hand to answer questions and provide information.

The WWC is located just beyond the Center Harbor town docks, offers people in the Northern Lakes Region a medically-supervised exercise program in a very supportive, no-intimidation gym environment.

A regular exercise program provides the positive benefits of burning calories to decrease body fat, improving strength and increasing energy levels, keeping bones strong and minds alert, and improving cholesterol and blood pressure numbers. The WWC is the perfect place to accomplish these goals, while socializing with friends who encourage sticking with the program.

Belmont resident Kodey Converse named to WPI's Spring 2016 Dean's List

WORCESTER, Mass. — Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) has announced that Kodey Converse of Belmont, a member of the class of 2019 majoring in computer science, was named to the university's Dean's List for academic excellence for the spring 2016 semester.

A total of 1,292 undergraduate students achieved the criteria required for WPI's spring 2016 Dean's List. The criteria for the WPI Dean's List differs from that of most other universities as WPI does not compute a grade point average (GPA). Instead, WPI defines the Dean's List by the amount of work completed at the A level in courses and projects.

"WPI's academic programs are rigorous and require a level of independence beyond what is required in traditional courses. WPI students go beyond the classroom to work on open-ended problems in and for communities around the world. The problems are important and the impact is real"

said dean of undergraduate studies Arthur C. Heinricher. "Some of this nation's best and brightest students come to WPI to study engineering and science and business and the humanities. Those named to the Dean's List have excelled in all of their work, and we are exceptionally proud of these outstanding students."

Emily Holt named to UVM Dean's List

BURLINGTON, Vt. — Emily Holt has been named to the dean's list for the spring 2016 semester at the University of Vermont. Holt, from Sanbornton, is a Neuroscience major in the College of Arts and Sciences.

To be named to the dean's list, students must have a grade-point average of 3.0 or better and rank in the top 20 percent of their class in their respective college or school.

Chartered in 1791, UVM was the first college or university in the United States that did not give preference to a religious sect in its charter. UVM now has 10,081 undergraduates in seven schools and colleges, 1,360 graduate students and 457 medical students. The University of Vermont combines faculty-student relationships most commonly found in a small liberal arts college with the resources of a major research institution.

Identity Theft

Identity theft is a big problem. How big? Consider this: In 2015, about 13 million Americans were victimized, with a total fraud amount of $15 billion, according to Javelin Strategy & Research. That's a lot of victims, and a lot of money. How can you protect yourself from becoming a statistic?

Here are a few suggestions:

- Secure your Social Security number. Identity thieves eagerly seek Social Security numbers — so don't give out yours to anyone who asks for it. In fact, as a general rule, be reluctant to give it out at all. Always ask whomever you're dealing with if he or she will accept another form of identification, or at the very least will take just the last four digits of your number. And never carry your Social Security card with you.
- Shred credit card offers and bank statements. If you're not going to apply for the credit cards offered to you, shred the offers. Identity thieves have been known to go through garbage, fill out credit card offers and take advantage of them. At the same time, shred your bank and brokerage statements — and any other statement containing personal or financial information.
- Study your credit card bills and checking account statements. Question any credit card charge or checking account activity you don't recognize as your own.
- Don't give out your credit card number unless you're initiating a purchase. Many of us shop online. As long as you're dealing with a reputable merchant who uses a secure site — i.e., one that has "https" in the web address — you should be fairly confident that your credit card information will be protected. Never give out your credit card number to people or businesses who, unsolicited, try to sell you something over the phone or Internet.
- Protect your passwords. Do you use a password to log onto your computer? If so, don't share it with anyone, outside perhaps your most trusted family members. And use a strong password — one that doesn't contain your real name or even a complete word that could be used to identify you. Also, it doesn't hurt to periodically change your password, whether it's for your computer logon or for entry to any of your financial or consumer accounts.

Even after taking these steps, you could still run into identity theft. That's why you need to watch for certain signs, such as the arrival of unexpected credit cards or account statements, denials of credit for no clear reason, or calls or letters regarding purchases you didn't make. If any of these things happen to you, you may want to place a "fraud alert" on your credit reports and review them carefully. Three national credit-reporting companies — Equifax, Experian and TransUnion — keep records of your credit history. If someone has misused your personal or financial information, contact one of the companies and ask for an initial fraud alert on your credit report. A fraud alert is free, but you must provide proof of your identity. And the company you call must tell the other companies about your alert. (For more information on placing a fraud alert, visit the website of any of the three companies.)

You can help preserve your good name from those who want to misuse it — so, stay vigilant.

Peter Makris Memorial Run 10th Anniversary celebrates a decade of fun and fundraising

LACONIA — When several hundred-motorcycle riders gathered 10-years ago to honor the life of Peter Makris, patriarch of The NASWA Resort and community leader, it began a snow-ball roll of benefits for the Laconia community. While the initial run benefitted the Laconia Fire Department Lifesaving Fund, a non-profit that encompasses all the fire department does to man and equip a water rescue unit—boat, training and supplies—that Makris helped to start years ago, the Peter Makris Memorial Fund grew and expanded.

Another important aspect of Makris’ life was his service in the U.S. Marine Corps so when Cynthia Makris, President of The NASWA and Board member of Easter Seals NH, learned of the new “Veterans Count” State-wide program which aids active duty military and their families, she added the non-profit to be a beneficiary of the fund as well. Fast-forward a few years and the Lakes Region CERT emergency response team needed funds to continue training its community force to address area emergencies, the Peter Makris Fund stepped forward to help.

In 2016, a pressing need to help a New Hampshire firefighter was brought to Makris by Laconia Fire Chief Ken Erickson. A former Laconia student firefighter, who had gone to work with Hampton Fire Rescue, was diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin’s Lymphoma. The sad news was received as Kyle’s wife, Christine, was seven-months pregnant with their first child. Jameson continued chemotherapy with future plans for a bone marrow transplant but the family, with new baby Liam, has had to move to New York City for treatment at Sloan Kettering Institute.

“Kyle is one of those guys who everyone loves and admires,” said Erickson. “We really wanted to help him and his family with the outrageous expenses they are taking on to save his life and we are grateful that the Peter Makris Memorial Fund will include Team Jameson in the proceeds of the 2016 run.”

However, the bad news arrived on May 15 that Jameson had passed, despite his valiant fight. Cynthia Makris, already vested in the family’s plight pledged to keep the effort going, raising money to assist Christine and Liam as they learn to carry on without their brave husband and father.

“We send our sympathies and also our support,” she stated. “This is what my father would have wanted to do.”

Since many area firefighters and residents would like to support Team Jameson but are not bikers, the run is creating an additional registration for non-riders. Team Jameson T-shirts will be offered as part of the $40 non-rider registration.

Early registration, by May 31, is encouraged to ensure receipt of the 10th Anniversary T-shirt at the low price for this entire event of $50 per person. The shirt is collector item with the Makris Run logo designed by UhlWorks, the apparel arm of Harley Davidson artist, David

Uhl. Boaters, bikers and exotic/collector auto fans are all welcomed to join! After the ride, the party continues on the beach at the NAZBar & Grill with live music by James Montgomery

The Saturday, June 11, 10th Anniversary Special will feature some exciting changes:

New Route - This year’s State Police escorted “feet up” run will include a new route with a special surprise for all riders;

New Lunch Menu - The already over-the-top buffet lunch will be even BETTER featuring a prime rib carving station, fresh salmon filet and more menu surprises—NOT typical biker fare and a BIG bonus from Big Boy BBQ catering. Lunch follows the “Bountiful Bacon & Egg Breakfast.”

New Band – James Montgomery, named “The John Mayall of New England” will bring his rockin’ James Montgomery Blues Band to the NAZBar & Grill to celebrate this 10th Anniversary! Montgomery has played with bands from Kid Rock and Gregg Allman to Johnny Winter and Bruce Springsteen—be there to welcome him to the NAZBar!

Back by Popular Demand – Sgt. Dan Clark will return to provide his stirring patriotic musical send-off, thanks to the generous sponsorship of long-time Makris family friend, Mark Abare and his company, Plastic Distributors.

Granite United Way announces community investments, delivers more than $1.08 million in support to Central Region

REGION — Granite United Way’s annual campaign mobilizes more than 20,000 donors and corporate supporters to raise more than $8.22 million across the state of New Hampshire. The campaign benefits more than 750 nonprofit agencies and programs providing services to more than 350,000 individuals. By mobilizing volunteers from each local region in its footprint to review and vet proposals and make funding decisions based upon strict criteria that ensures investments are held to the highest standards and are producing the greatest, most cost-efficient impact. In addition to the volunteer-led grant investment process and donor designation program, initiatives like Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA), the 2-1-1NH information & referral line and FamilyWize, a prescription drug discount program deliver a combined total of nearly $14 million in support to residents across New Hampshire.

Local volunteers on Granite United Way’s Community Impact Committee dedicated the last few months to evaluating program proposals and determining their investment decisions for the Central Region. Together, with the volunteer Board of Directors and Community Impact Committees, they announced that the 2015 Campaign would deliver more than $1.08 Million in support this year to the Central Region.

This year marks the final year of a three year funding cycle in the Central Region. The Central Region has served as a model of collaboration with the Financial Stability Partnership (FSP), a collective of many local nonprofits – including the Boys & Girls Clubs of Central New Hampshire, Belknap Economic Development Council, Carey House/Salvation Army, Laconia Area Community Land Trust, Appalachian Mountain Teen Project, Health First Family Care Center, Lakes Region Child Care Services, Family Resource Center/Lakes Region Community Services and Mike Persson of Lawson Persson & Weldon-Francke - focused on addressing poverty in Belknap County. These organizations and individuals will be recognized for their efforts during the Central Region’s annual Campaign Celebration this year.

In the Central Region, the Whole Village Family Resource Center continues to be a primary resource in the region for programs focused on quality child care, developing strong parenting skills and achieving financial stability. This year the center celebrates its 20th Anniversary of serving the community. In addition Granite United Way’s work with Carroll County Coalition for Public Health is building strong relationships and convening key partners in addressing the critical issue of substance misuse in the region.

“Our volunteers are working alongside us to forging new partnerships and developing new solutions to old problems,” said Patrick Tufts, President and CEO of Granite United Way. “We are mobilizing our agency partners and leveraging our donor dollars in ways that even five years ago may not have seemed possible.”

“We know that it is impossible for any one organization to address all of the issues in our community. It’s critical that we work together with local nonprofits, community leaders and corporate partners to address difficult problems together in more effective ways,” said Tufts.

Partners like Linda L. Harvey, Executive Director of Laconia Area Community Land Trust, Inc. couldn’t agree more with that statement.

“We are proud to collaborate with Granite United Way to improve conditions in our community. It’s essential we work together with nonprofits, community leaders, and corporate entities to address some of our community’s greatest needs,” said Harvey. “Even addressing the most basic of needs - like housing, employment, and childcare – requires a collective approach because it affects so many healthy, strong community.”

Funded programs will receive notification this week.

New attorney joins Wescott Law

LACONIA — Wescott Law is pleased to announce Brett Allard has joined the firm as an associate attorney. A May 2016 graduate and Daniel Webster Scholar from the University of New Hampshire School of Law, Allard clerked for the firm for over a year prior to joining as an attorney. He is licensed to practice in all New Hampshire State Courts,

Brett Allard
as well the United States District Court for the District of New Hampshire. A graduate of Plymouth State University, Allard earned a Bachelor of Science degree in social sciences, with concentrations in history and political science, and was recognized as a member of Pi Gamma Mu, an International Honor Society in social sciences. While attending law school, Allard served as an extern to the Honorable Charles S. Temple of the Carroll County Superior Court. He also worked as a legal intern with the Land Resources Management Bureau at the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services where he focused on shore land and wetland protection and compliance matters. A resident of Derry, Allard is eager to relocate to the Lakes Region and become involved in the community. “Everyone here at Wescott Law is thrilled that Brett has joined the firm,” states Attorney Alison Ambrose, Managing Partner. “During the year he interned for us, we gained appreciation for Brett’s experience in varied practice areas, as well as his strong sense of ethics and civic mindedness. He is a perfect fit for the firm and will be a great benefit to the Lakes Region community as a whole.” Allard maintains a general practice, but focuses on residential and commercial development, real estate transactions and land use matters, including planning and zoning. While he primarily works from Wescott Law’s Laconia office, Allard also sees clients at the new Meredith location by appointment, which may be arranged by emailing him directly at ballard@wescottlawnh.com or calling the firm’s main line of 524-2166. For more information on the firm, please go to wescottlawnh.com.

Winnisquam Printing leases new location in Streetcar Building

LACONIA — Local business owner, Walter Bentley, knew he needed more space to satisfy growing customer demand for services. As the new owner of Winnisquam Printing, he knew that he needed more parking and loved the convenient location. When introduced to the available space in the historic Streetcar Building in downtown Laconia, he knew it was the right fit; for him and his customers. Open in the new location since May, 2016, Bentley is thrilled to be part of the downtown community and still have the former long term manager, Mike, on board with his graphics talent. Weeks Commercial handled the transaction. Sales Associate Kevin Sullivan brokered the lease of this 1,987 SF unit at #71 Beacon St. W, Laconia. Sullivan maintains the listing for the available remaining spaces in the building. The Streetcar Building houses professional/office and restaurant space in a historic brick manufacturing building. Completely renovated in the 1980’s for its current use, the building was originally home to the Laconia Car Company, which manufactured cable cars and then the Laconia Shoe Company. Other tenants in the building include All Staff, Beyond the Fringe, Hector’s Restaurant, Genesis Administration, Carla’s Tangles and State of NH – Health and Human Services. Bill Dube, owner of Cable Car Realty, reflected on his confidence at having a locally owned real estate firm handle the transactions in the building. “Weeks Commercial has done a great job bringing quality tenants to the Streetcar Building,” said Dube. “Cable Car Realty has a history of downtown revitalization efforts in New Hampshire and we want to be an integral investor in the redevelopment of downtown Laconia.” For more information on sales and leasing opportunities in The Streetcar Building contact Kevin Sullivan, Sales Associate, Weeks Commercial by phone

Bank of NH Pavilion introduces new food & beverage partner

GILFORD — It’s an exciting time at Bank of New Hampshire Pavilion as the 2016 Eastern Propane Concert Series takes shape. The biggest schedule in the venue’s history, with the likes of Dave Matthews Band, Rod Stewart, Chris Stapleton, Keith Urban, Ringo Starr, Don Henley and many more, are sure to keep you entertained at every turn. And now, with a brand new full-service food and beverage partner, Best Beverage Catering, concert-goers can enjoy a full, all-around experience at each and every show.

Best Beverage Catering or BBC, as they’re commonly known, is a full-service, professional catering company specializing in large-scale concert venues and festivals like Coachella, Stagecoach, and many more. They are well-respected in the music industry for their unique ability to maximize the concert experience by delivering superior quality and service in their food and beverage operations. They were chosen by the venue as a strategic partner based on their professionalism, use of local, quality products, reasonable pricing, team building management and friendly staff. Their dynamic team is led by General Manager and local favorite, Mary McDonald. Mary brings with her over 20 years of experience in the food and beverage industry, as well as many years of experience with the venue previously. BBC will be partnering with some local brands to help improve the overall quality of the food offerings. Lakeside Pizza will be providing pizza and other Italian specials. Scott Ouellette from the O Steaks & Seafood and Canoe brands will be presenting his Rubbin’ Butts BBQ brand and the Wine-ing Butcher will be providing many delicatessen selections with marinates to die for. The venue will be offering all new menus at many different areas throughout the venue. Please visit our Web site, <http://bnhp.us/menus> for full details. This new partnership promises to deliver an improved experience for all concert-goers by increasing points of sale to reduce lines and wait times, increasing quality through strategic partnerships and superior menu planning, utilizing local products as much as possible and finally, a more integrated experience. This relationship between Bank of New Hampshire Pavilion and Best Beverage Catering comes down to one thing – One Team, One Dream. Get ready to enjoy the best combination in the Lakes Region – Bank of New Hampshire Pavilion and Best Beverage Catering.

Local author to appear at Annie's Book Stop

LACONIA — Local author Catherine Dougherty will be signing copies of her novels, “In Polyester Pajamas,” “In Woolen Bikinis” and “In Leather Chaps” at Annie’s Book Stop in Laconia on June 4 from 3-5 p.m. All three books are part of a women’s fiction series based in the Lakes Region. Dougherty’s first novel, “In Polyester Pajamas,” published in June 2012, won the New Hampshire Writers’ Project 2013/2014 Readers’ Choice Award for outstanding work of fiction. It was the first book in the Jean and Rosie series. She has also published several essays and poems, and was a featured author in the 2012-2013 publication “50 Great Writers You Should be Reading,” presented by TheAuthorsShow.com. Catherine Dougherty, a native of New Hampshire, lives with her husband in the Lakes Region area, near Lake Winnepesaukee. She is a member of the New Hampshire Writer’s Project. Her latest book, “In Leather Chaps,” released last year, features scenes with the main characters riding Harleys and enjoying Weirs Beach festivities during Bike Week. To find out more about the author and her books, visit her Website/blog at <http://catherinedougherty.com>. Annie’s Book Stop is located at 1330 Union Ave. in Laconia. You may purchase some copies of Dougherty books in the store prior to the book signing. See you there!

us save more lives from cancer.

Purple is the color that represents cancer awareness and can be found everywhere at our Relay

For Life Events. But we don't want to stop there! We want to "Paint The Town Purple," to create more awareness for our cause and to bring more people to our events.

To help finish the fight, community members can "Paint The Town Purple" by donating $10 to The Relay For Life of Lake Winnepesaukee and receive a decorative purple bow to display inside or outside their home or business. Residents can also "Paint The Town Purple" by doing other activities including putting up purple themed displays in storefronts, hanging purple lights, or selecting a day to wear purple at work or school. Businesses can also ask for donations for purple items sold in their stores. Proceeds will support

The American Cancer Society.

When you join The Relay For Life movement and help "Paint The Town Purple," you are helping to fund the mission of the American Cancer Society. Dollars raised help the society educate people about how to reduce their risk for cancer or detect it early when it's the easiest to treat, provide free information and support to people facing the disease, and fund research that will help protect future generations.

During Memorial Day ceremonies in Belmont on Monday, Boy Scout Troop 65 and their fellow Cub Scouts solemnly saluted as "Echo Taps" was played on trumpet by Belmont High School band members Robert Tonkin and Arianna Janosz.

Members of the Belmont Police Department Honor Guard presented a gun salute to fallen heroes during Memorial Day ceremonies in Belmont Village.

Girl Scouts MacKenzie, Rebecca and Vivian, along with Troop 21532 leader Diane Cleveland and American Legion Auxiliary Post 58 member Sue Flanders had the honor of tossing flowers into the Tioga River last Monday in a special tribute to American heroes lost at sea over the past 241 years.

Veterans of American Legion Post 58 in Belmont joined hands for the singing of "God Bless America" at the end of Memorial Day ceremonies on Monday.

rang a traditional bell in their honor.

Over the course of the ceremony, the Belmont Police Honor Guard also presented a gun salute to pay tribute to all the nation's fallen heroes, and BHS students Robert Tonkin and Arianna Janosz performed "Echo Taps" on their trumpets.

Speaker for the day was Army National Guard Lt. Col. Roy Hunter IV who recounted the history of Decoration Day, now Memorial Day, and spoke with much emotion about local residents, such as his fellow comrade Cpl. Scott Dimond of Franklin who, on Oct. 13, 2008, lost his life while serving in Afghanistan.

At that time, Dimond was the fifth soldier from New Hampshire to be lost in recent combat; since then 38 others have sacrificed their lives in the Middle East during both Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom. An additional 17 men and women of New Hampshire have also lost their lives while serving state-side, Hunter noted.

Simply put, he said, they died so we could live our lives in freedom.

To close the ceremonies Commander Stanley invited everyone to join hands and sing along with BHS student Grace Shaw as she led them in "God Bless America."

Following the ceremonies, children aged 12 and under were invited to stop by the Belmont Fire Department where the Legion had provided tickets for them to enjoy a free ice cream at Jordan's Ice Creamery in Belmont.

The dandelions are in full bloom and absolutely beautiful. In Vermont's nearby Northeast Kingdom the Dandelion Run is held in late May "on dirt roads through the dandelion fields of Morgan, Holland and Derby," as the story in the local paper enticingly put it.

Not only do we enjoy seeing dandelions, we actually dig and wash-wash and then wash again and eat them, while people far to the south persecute them in pursuit of the Perfect Lawn.

Remillard adds more hardware in final state championship

Belmont 4x800 relay captures title

BY JEFF LAJOIE

BRISTOL – The numbers are staggering for Jaila Remillard. The Winnisquam Regional High School senior capped what has been an outstanding career at the NHIAA Division III state championship in style on Saturday.

Remillard won two more state titles, giving her a whopping five career championships. She finished in the top three in all four of her events on Saturday, qualifying for the Meet of Champions in each discipline. For her career, Remillard amassed 13 top five finishes at the state meet and 10 top three finishes. Simply put, she was a dominant figure in the D-III landscape throughout her time in a Bear uniform.

“I’m honored and privileged to be able to take home two more state titles for my team and in my senior year of track,” said Remillard. “I’m thankful for everyone who’s supported me through my seven years of track.”

Remillard began her day with a win in the long jump, her signature

In her final state championship, Winnisquam senior Jaila Remillard captured a pair of titles, including a win in the long jump for the third consecutive year. Remillard’s top leap of 16 feet even put her in the top spot yet again, and she added a title in the 400 meters – her first in that discipline – at the NHIAA Division III state championship in Bristol on Saturday.

Allman, Stock rule supreme in Division III

BY JEFF LAJOIE

BRISTOL – Eli Allman felt a nudge. For many runners, the surprising jolt mid-race would be more than enough to throw them off their game. But Allman was ready for it. And he proved more than up to the task.

Nearing the midpoint of the finals of the 110-meter hurdles, the Belmont High School junior, occupying lane four, was bumped by Stevens High School’s Matthew Gobin in lane three as the two were neck and neck heading for the finish line of Saturday’s NHIAA Division III state championship. Despite the quick bump from his competitor, Allman powered through. He caught his foot on the final hurdle before the finish line, but still had enough left to capture his first-ever state title, crossing first overall with a time of 15.83 seconds to power the Red Raiders in extremely hot conditions at Newfound Regional High School.

“I don’t hear anything, no cheering whatsoever... nothing once that race starts,” said Allman of the 110 hurdles. “I’m locked in at what I have to do. But I was sort of expecting that (Gobin) might end up coming in contact with me during the race. We were both running so close to each other that I was prepared for the possibility. In the end I think it screwed him up more

Raiders thump Laconia, earn top four seed

BY JEFF LAJOIE

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

LACONIA – The biggest game of the season brought about the biggest performance from the Belmont High School baseball team.

The Red Raiders put it all together on May 25. In the season finale on the road against fellow power Laconia High School, Belmont pushed five runs across in the second inning and pulled away for a convincing 10-2 victory at Robbie Mills Field. The victory secured the No. 3 seed in this week's NHIAA Division III tournament after an outstanding 13-3 overall record. The Raiders will host Stevens or Fall Mountain today, Thursday, June 2.

“The guys came in and played well as a team, like they have throughout the season,” said Belmont head coach Matt LeBlanc, whose team earned its highest-ever postseason seed since he took the job in 2011. “We’ve been fortunate all season that we’ve gotten team wins. Our lineup, one through nine, everyone hits. You saw that again today.”

The win completed a season sweep of the Sachems for Belmont, which also won a 2-1 contest in the season opener back in April. The victory also enabled the Raiders to leapfrog Laconia in the standings, moving from the fourth seed to the third. For morale purposes, it was an enormous win. After starting the season 11-1, Belmont dropped two out of three games the week leading into the Laconia tilt. Looking to secure a top four seed was very much the goal for LeBlanc's club.

“Absolutely, it was nice to see the guys be able to erase last week and put it behind us,” the coach said. “You can't go back and play those games again, you have to look forward.”

With the score tied 1-1 in the top of the second inning, Belmont took control of the game. Cam Magerer walked and Jonny Leclair singled to lead off the frame, and No. 9 hitter Griffin Embree came through with an RBI single to plate Magerer and put the Raiders up 2-1.

Second baseman Matt Pluskis, like he has all season, came through with another big hit, lacing a two-run single through the left side to extend the advantage to 4-1. Pluskis would score on an error to make it 5-1, and Doug Price pushed the lead to 6-1 with an RBI single as the Raiders gave starting pitcher Josh Guptill plenty of early offensive support.

Guptill danced around some early trouble and settled in on the mound. He wound up tossing a complete game, striking out six batters while walking two and allowing two earned runs on six hits. Against a high-scoring Laconia squad, it was quite an impressive effort for the righthander.

“He was hitting his spots when he had to,” lauded LeBlanc of Guptill. “He commanded the zone, followed the game plan and really earned this one. It started and ended with Josh for us today. He pitched a great game. I think it was his best effort of the season.”

With Guptill doing the job on the mound, the Raiders' offense continued to put runs on the board in the top of the fourth. Corey Derosier led off with a double to deep left field and scored on an error, while Cole Contigiani reached on a fielder's choice that plated Pluskis for an 8-1 advantage.

After Guptill left the bases loaded in the home half, Embree drove in his second run of the afternoon on an RBI ground out, scoring Leclair (single) for a 9-1 lead.

Laconia scored its only other run of the game in the fifth, and Belmont matched that with a run in the top of the seventh when Leclair reached on an error and scored on a balk for a 10-2 advantage. Guptill struck out the final batter to close out the win in the home half of the seventh.

“It was so important for us after last week to get this win,” said LeBlanc. “This definitely puts us in a better state to start the playoffs with a win like this.”

Derosier went 3-for-4 at the plate with two runs scored, while Leclair, Price and Contigiani all had two hits for Belmont.

Eventful doubleheader for Bears in season finale

BY JEFF LAJOIE

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

TILTON – In a spring of ups and downs, it was fitting that the final day of the regular season featured a chaotic afternoon and night for the Winnisquam Regional High School baseball team.

The Bears began their day with an afternoon home game against Fall Mountain on May 26. After dispatching of the Wildcats, 7-2, the squad quickly hit the road to play at rival Franklin in an evening doubleheader nightcap. Just like game one, Winnisquam finished with a convincing victory, thumping the Golden Tornadoes, 8-1, to finish with a 9-7 overall mark heading into this week's Division III tournament. Winnisquam is the 11th seed and will be at Bow today, June 2, for the first tournament game.

The day started with the win over Fall Mountain. Senior Devin Martinez took the ball and held the Wildcats in check for five innings, giving way to Tim Harmon for the final six outs and the 7-2 win.

Martinez allowed just two runs on three hits, striking out five and walking three before giving way with a 6-2 lead. Harmon allowed just one hit in the final two frames to grab the save.

Josh Shevlin had three hits and three RBIs in the win for Winnisquam, while Jack Decormier also drove in a run and scored a pair of runs. Christian Serrano continued to make things happen offensively, going 2-for-4 with a run. Jake Snow had two RBIs in the convincing victory.

Hightailing it to neighboring Franklin for the nightcap, the Bears again got a strong pitching performance, this time from Hunter Tierney. Like Martinez, Tierney tossed five innings to earn the win, striking out eight before giving way to Harmon for the final two frames.

Snow had three hits, including an RBI in the top of the first inning to get Winnisquam off and running. The Bears never trailed, leading 4-1 after four innings and tacking on four more runs in the fifth to pull away for the victory.

Softball

The Winnisquam softball team also dealt with a hectic final day of the regular season and a doubleheader. Things got off to a strong start in the afternoon, as Molly Tinker's complete game shutout led the Bears past Fall Mountain, 1-0. Tinker struck out three and walked just one, allowing only two hits in her best outing of the season.

Winnisquam scored the game's lone run in the bottom of the third, as Cailey Clogston reached and scored on a Marissa DeBlasie sacrifice fly for the 1-0 advantage. Tinker did the rest, shutting the Wildcats down in the heat.

The regular season came to a close later that night under the lights in Franklin, as the Bears nearly slayed the high-powered Tornadoes before falling in extra innings, 5-4, at Odell Park.

Franklin, which finished the season with a 15-1 overall mark, received a walk-off single from Hailey Haskins to break a 4-4 tie in the bottom of the ninth, dropping the Bears to a final mark of 9-7 overall entering the postseason. Winnisquam trailed 2-0 before tying the game in the fourth with RBI singles from Clogston and Talia DeBlasie. With the game then moving into extras, the Bears appeared destined to snatch a huge victory in the top of the eighth. Clogston again

Burbank tops 100 goals as lax Raiders cap season

BY JEFF LAJOIE
jlajoie@salmonpress.com

BELMONT – It was an eventful season for the Belmont High School girls' lacrosse team. The Red Raiders took some steps forward in their third year of varsity competition, though there's still a long way to go to sustain a consistently competitive program.

The 2016 campaign culminated on May 24, as Belmont held senior day at home in a 19-7 loss to Con-Val that saw the Raiders finish their season with a 1-13 overall record.

“There's definitely been improvement that we've seen,” said second-year head coach Marie Lander, who won her first game with the program in a victory over Campbell on May 12. “We still have a long way to go but the lacrosse knowledge, tactics, those types of things... there's definitely improvement we've seen and I think other teams have seen as well from us.”

The finale marked a milestone for the program, as senior Allivia Burbank recorded her 100th career goal early in the first half. Burbank, the team's leading scorer, tied the game 2-2 with her 100th tally, and she finished with five goals and 103 for her career – the new high mark in the BHS record books.

Belmont seniors Andrea Murphy and Sarah Thayer embrace classmate Allivia Burbank (14) after she scored her 100th career goal in the Raiders' 19-7 loss to Con-Val in the season finale on May 24. Burbank set the program scoring mark with 103 career goals.

“She's just very consistent every game,” said Lander of Burbank. “We know what to expect from her every time out. Her goals have been so helpful to the program but she's always giving 100 percent in all aspects of the game and that's the most important contribution she's provided. She knows how to pick things up when we need her.”

Belmont led 3-2 early in the game against Con-Val thanks to a wraparound goal from senior Clorissa Roode, who took a feed from Burbank and buried it into the back of the net.

But Con-Val responded with a big run, scored 12 of the next 15 goals to take a commanding 13-6 lead into the break. The Raiders got a second half goal late from senior Hannah Leger to cap off their scoring load.

Burbank, Roode and Leger are three of nine seniors on the roster, along with Anna Scott, Jen Hamilton, Sarah Thayer, Andrea Murphy, Natalie Annis and manager Emily Ennis, who was forced to miss the season due to an injury but shined as the team's scorekeeper in a high-paced environment.

“Losing nine seniors... that's really tough, especially with how dedicated they've been to the program the past few years,” Lander said. “We'll miss them. I'm confident in the sophomores and juniors coming up and hopefully they'll be able to contribute as well as our senior class.”

Despite the tough season in the win/loss column, the Raiders hope the future is bright, despite the lack of an immediate feeder system in the youth ranks. Thayer led a clinic for eighth graders as her senior project this year, and the squad had three eighth graders practicing with them throughout the season.

“The hope is that slowly we can start bringing the sport to the middle school and maybe lower into the youth level,” said Lander. “You have to remind the girls every now and then that success happens in stages, not overnight. Hopefully we can continue on that path moving forward.”

drove in a run, and Emily Decormier also had an RBI single to give the visitors a 4-2 advantage.

But Franklin responded, tying the game with two runs of its own in the home half of the eighth and earning the comeback win in the ninth.

Second baseman Hunter Tierney tries to put a tag on a Fall Mountain baserunner in the Bears' 7-2 win on May 26.

It was quite an eventful final week for the Bears, which also had an extra inning tilt against Bishop Brady. In that contest, also on the road, Winnisquam scored two times in the top of the 10th to sneak past the Giants, 9-7.

Senior first baseman Lindsay Raymond had a huge day for Winnisquam, stroking four hits and scoring four runs, while Lauren Bolstridge and Ema Atherton had two hits apiece. Marissa DeBlasie's performance in the pitching circle saved the day, as she entered in the fourth and tossed seven innings of relief to pick up the win.

Hacking's five goals powers Raiders in finale loss to Gilford

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

BELMONT – Thanks to a big second half, the Gilford High School boys' lacrosse team ended its season in winning fashion on Friday. The visiting Golden Eagles held rival Belmont High School to just two goals after intermission, pulling away for a 13-7 victory in the Division III finale for both squads.

The victory puts the Eagles with a final record of 4-10 this spring, and the squad won two of their final three games to end on a high note. Belmont wound up 2-12 overall in its inaugural varsity season with wins over Manchester West and Stevens.

A late second quarter charge enabled the Raiders to tie the game 5-5 at halftime, though Gilford came charging out of the intermission to take control of the game for good. Seth Valpey scored on the Eagles' first possession of the third quarter, and Drouin Brulotte made it 7-5 with a tilt just two minutes later.

Belmont senior Nick

Belanger cut into the deficit, pulling the hosts within 7-6, but the tandem of Seth Valpey and Brulotte again scored late in the third to extend the Gilford advantage to 9-6 entering the fourth.

Nate Cobis pushed the lead to 10-6 on a deflected shot for Gilford to start the final stanza before Chaz Hacking answered for Belmont with a goal off a feed from Tanner Woods to make it 10-7. That would be the last goal the Raiders would muster however, as the Eagles closed the game on a 3-0 run with goals from Seth Valpey, Cobis and Sander Valpey to pull away for the 13-7 victory.

Gilford led just 2-0 after a back and forth opening quarter dominated by the defenses, though neither team managed to sustain possession for large periods of time.

Hacking, who finished with a team-high five goals, put Belmont on the board just 20 seconds into the second quarter, cutting the lead to 2-1.

Cobis made it 3-1 Gilford just minutes later, but Hacking again buried a shot after a great clearance from defender Hunter Kenney to pull within 3-2.

Despite being a man down, Gilford got a goal from Nate Hudson for a 4-2 lead midway through the second, and Josh Valentine tallied his second of the day for a 5-2 advantage.

Belmont put together its best string of play late in the half however. Hacking scored his third of the afternoon on a shot that bounced off Gilford goalkeeper Ethan Ormes' helmet, and he followed with a nice spin move goal three minutes later. Josh Atherton closed the mini 3-0 run just seconds before the half-time whistle. After the Raiders killed off a man down situation in their offensive zone, Atherton blasted a shot through traffic to send the game into the break tied at 5-5.

Seth Valpey, Cobis and Brulotte all scored three goals in the win for the Eagles, while Valentine added two in a balanced scoring attack.

him up more than me. I would've liked to not have hit so many hurdles but I was pretty excited to be able to get the win."

Allman led a Belmont team that finished an impressive fourth overall in the boys' race with 45 points. With a deep and talented roster this spring, the Raiders had an outstanding season that culminated with a plethora of athletes qualifying for the state championship. Allman's time was good enough for a school record in the 110 hurdles, as he continues to break his own mark – something he's done several times this season.

"Last year was my first year running (the event) and the first couple of races I didn't really like it to be honest," he said with a laugh. "But by the end of the year, I was all in. I really love the race. (The 110) is my race now."

Allman added a fourth place finish in the 300-meter hurdles to add points towards the team total, as he crossed with a time of 42.13 seconds. Teammate Ian Remenar had an outstanding finish in the event, snagging second place overall in 41.46 seconds to put two Raiders in the top five.

Allman wasn't the only local to capture a state title on Saturday. Winnisquam Regional High School's Henry Stock showed a flare for the dramatic in the javelin. Down to his last throw and staring a third place finish in the face, Stock uncoiled a monster heave to come charging from behind. The senior added over 11 feet to his best throw of the day in his final attempt, registering a toss that measured in at 157 feet, eight inches. The total, a personal best by some 10 feet, enabled him to leapfrog two competitors and capture the state championship by a margin of nearly two feet.

"I already knew I was going to Meet of Champions (top three finish) so I just went for it on the last one," said Stock, who also finished 10th in the discus (102-11) and 10th in the shot put (35-9.5). "You're definitely less afraid to go for it when you know you've got one of your goals locked up. The second I let it go, I knew it was good."

In addition to Allman's win, Belmont had several outstanding performers on Saturday. The 4x100 relay team earned its share of headlines, as the quartet of Allman, River Mathieu, Marc Forgione and Colby Leroux set a new school record with a time of 45.55 seconds. The previous mark stood at 46.0 seconds, and the relay team entered the day very much in striking distance with their personal best of 46.1 seconds. The squad wound up second overall, earning an MOC invite after finishing behind only Kearsarge (45.37 seconds).

The 4x400 relay team also took second to qualify for the MOC, with Leroux, Remenar, Nick Randos and Kyle Gelinas crossing the line in 3:37.

Gelinas joined the other top finishers as an MOC qualifier in the 1,600 meters, where he moved up from a fifth-best qualifying time to nab third overall in 4:29.

Belmont High School junior Eli Allman moves through the barriers in the 110-meter hurdles en route to a victory in the NHIAA Division III state championship on Saturday in Bristol. Allman set another school record in the event, capturing the state title with a time of 15.83 seconds.

Winnisquam's Scott Hinds took fourth place overall in the pole vault at Saturday's NHIAA Division III state championship.

Adam Sojka rounded out the point-scorers for the Raiders in the triple jump, where he finished sixth overall with a top leap of 39 feet, five inches.

The 4x800 relay team of Zach Ennis, Nolan Gagnon, Max Schott and Remenar opened the day with a seventh place finish (9:01), while Brandon Scheffer added an eighth place performance in the shot put (37-9). Mathieu (200, 24.39) and Randos (1,600, 4:46) were both 10th overall in their respective events, while freshmen Caleb Duggan (11th, triple jump) and Ennis (16th, 1,600) both competed in their first-ever state championship for the Raiders.

Stock's big day lifted Winnisquam to a tie for sixth place overall, as the Bears compiled 20 points on the day.

Scott Hinds scored points in two events for Winnisquam, as he was third overall in the 400 meters (52.20) and fourth overall in the pole vault (10 feet, six inches). Jake Hinds was 10th overall in the 800 meters for the Bears (2:07).

Freshman Kyle Mann qualified in two events, taking 10th in the 400 (55.46) and 12th in the 3,200 (10:53), and he also ran a leg on the 4x400 relay team that finished sixth (3:44) along with Scott Hinds, Jake Hinds and Tyler Mann.

The 4x100 relay team of Brady Ellsworth, Jesse Fredette, Tyler Mann and Dytter Moran took home 17th place with a time of 51.83 seconds.

will headline a large contingent of MOC competitors this weekend, when the event is held at Winnacunnet High School in Hampton on Saturday, June 4.

"I'm looking to PR and put my name on the board," said Allman of his goals for the MOC.

Stock said his ultimate goal would be to break the school javelin record of 169 feet, though he'll aim to at least try and top the 160-foot mark.

"I didn't think (MOC) would be a realistic goal at the beginning of the year so I'm just going to go out there and do my best," he said.

Raiders cap regular season with eighth straight win

BY JEFF LAJOIE

LACONIA – It was quite a finish to the regular season for the Belmont High School softball team.

At one time, the Red Raiders stood at an even 4-4 overall following three straight losses. But some eight wins later, Belmont entered the postseason as one of the hottest teams in Division

III. An 8-3 victory over host Laconia in the finale on May 25 at Opechee Park secured a top eight seed in this week's D-III

Tournament with a final record of 12-4. The girls host Newport today, Thursday, June 2. Senior pitcher Megan Prescott fired a complete game, striking out 10 batters against Laconia. Her offense provided plenty of support, with a three-run third inning putting the squad ahead for good.

Junior Nicole Antonucci went 3-for-4 with a pair of RBIs, while classmate Taylor Lavallee added two RBIs and two runs. Fellow junior Shannon Davies had two hits in the win, while Jordyn Lavallee and Courtney Clairmont each drove in runs for Belmont.

Belmont earned a first round bye and a home game in the D-III second round with the victory. That tilt was slated for June 2, and a win would catapult the Raiders into the quarterfinals on Saturday (June 4).

10-mile race, relay return to Great Glen on June 4

PINKHAM NOTCH — Great Glen Trails Outdoor Center will host the There's A Black Fly In My Eye 10-mile Trail Race and Relay event on Saturday, June 4, at 10 a.m. This year's race, sponsored by Solomon and Pearl Izumi, and now a part of TrailRunner's 2016 Trophy Series, is comprised of both individual runners and relay teams made up of two to three people running the diverse and challenging terrain of the three-loop course.

The course, designed to test the individual abilities and limits of the runners, is comprised of three loops, each having its own unique character. The first leg, referred to as the North Loop contains winding and rolling carriage roads. Next is the Aqueduct Loop, the most rugged of the three with a rocky trail surface with stream crossings and boggy segments. The West Loop finishes the race off, consisting of carriage roads, single track, a river crossing and an uphill sprint to the finish.

Awards and a cash barbecue follow the race. Participants are able to pre-register for the race online, and save $5, at www.GreatGlenTrails.com or register the day of the race by 9:30 a.m. Registration is $30 for individuals, $40 for teams of two and $50 for teams of three. The Black Fly In My Eye 10-mile Trail Running Race and Relay event begins promptly at 10 a.m.

TrailRunner's Trophy Series is a point based series of 202 trail runs in the United States and Canada. All Trophy Series events are divided into two categories: Non-marathon (races shorter than 26 miles) and marathon and longer (races 26 miles and longer). For additional information on the 2016 TrailRunner Trophy Series, including the race calendar, rules, news and updates, visit www.trailrunnermag.com/races/trophy-series.

Anyone interested in volunteering with the race, should contact Kim Hoyt at 466-2333. Volunteers will receive a ticket to the barbecue and a trail pass.

event. She won it for the third year in a row, posting a top jump of 16 feet even to hold off her next closest finisher by a sizable margin of 8.5 inches. It was the third year in a row that Remillard captured the event with a winning jump of over 16 feet.

She added a title in the 400 meters for good measuring, crossing the line in 61.17 seconds to take home a championship that has eluded her over the past four years. Remillard was second fourth in the 400 last year, and took second in the event during both her freshman and sophomore years.

Her big day also included a runner-up finish in the 100 hurdles (15.73 seconds), an event she won as a sophomore in 2014 and finished second last year. Remillard was also third overall in the 200 meters, crossing in 27.24 seconds. It was her first-ever state meet appearance in the event.

Remillard's performance elevated Winnisquam to a sixth place team finish, as she scored all 34 of her team's points in the event held at Newfound Regional High School in sweltering heat.

One week after capturing first place at the Wilderness League Championship, the Belmont High School 4x800 relay team entered Saturday's meet as the top seed and favorite in Bristol. The Raiders shook off nerves, traversing the course in the first running event of the day to capture their first state title as a quartet.

The team of sophomore Alexis Day and juniors Emma Chase, Jessica Hutchinson and Jasmine Syed moved around the eight lap 4x800 with a time of 10 minutes, 31 seconds, putting them three seconds ahead of runner-up White Mountains and third place Campbell. With all four runners posting consistent splits, Belmont took control on the third leg, when Hutchinson created some separation and handed off to Syed for the final portion of the race with a lead. Syed did the rest, cruising to victory and continuing what has been an impressive relay season to this weekend's Meet of Champions.

JEFF LAJOIE

Belmont freshman Alice Riley runs the 1,600 meters at Saturday's NHIAA Division III state championship in Bristol. Riley finished fourth in the event, and added a runner-up showing in the 3,200 meters during her first-ever state championship.

"We all think of our own personal races but today, we really thought about things as an entire team," said Hutchinson.

Day got Belmont on solid footing in the opening leg, and the Raiders were never anywhere but at or close to the front of the pack at any point in the race.

"There's a lot of pressure to get off to a good start," admitted Day. "You have to set the pace so it's a bit of a full out sprint to get to the front and not be stuck behind a bunch of runners."

Chase continued the momentum, staying right with competitors from White Mountains and Campbell before handing off to Hutchinson. By the time Syed took the baton, the championship was as good as locked up.

"I definitely wasn't worried about Jasmine," said Chase.

Despite the lead for her final leg of the race, Syed said she still approached the final 800 meters like every other race.

"I never get too comfortable in that situation," she said of running with a lead. "I always expect someone is right behind me. But I wanted to keep our place and not let the team down."

It's been a truly remarkable rise for Belmont this spring. The Raiders, which will continue their pursuit of a school record in the 4x800 at the MOC, finished sixth in the event at last year's state meet, and they shaved nearly 30 seconds off that time from one state championship to the next.

"I think it was about taking everything more seriously this year," Day offered. "We all improved our splits by quite a bit."

Belmont's win in the 4x800 led the Raiders to an eighth place finish on Saturday as a team. The squad totaled 23 points on the day.

Competing in her first-ever state championship, freshman Alice Riley was a key figure in the scoring load. The distance specialist braved the heat to finish as the runner-up in the 3,200 meters (12:18), and she also added a fourth place finish in the 1,600 meters (5:40) for quite a long day on the track.

"I really wanted to win the (3,200)," admitted Riley, who finished second behind Monadnock's Joelle Lafreniere. "I was seeded first so I'm a little disappointed. I wanted to hit my seed for the 1,600 and I did that so I was happy with that race."

The heat certainly affected the 3,200, so much so that officials handed out water throughout the race and runners took advantage.

"We're not used to the heat, especially this season because we haven't had any days like this," said Riley. "It was very hard conditions and I applaud anyone who went out and ran in it."

Riley said the heat was most noticeable on her third lap of the 3,200. Lafreniere held back early in the race before making her move, letting Riley and White Mountains' Leah Dutkewych, who finished third, do most of the heavy lifting in the early going.

"I think between the third and fifth laps, but especially the third, I thought to myself, 'This is so hard,'" recalled Riley of running in the heat. "(Lafreniere) played it smart. She didn't go right out. She stayed behind and it wound up being a smart race by her."

Still, her runner-up finish has Riley qualified for her first MOC this weekend. It's quite an honor for what has been a breakout freshman campaign.

"I'm excited for (MOC)," Riley said. "I'd really like to run a (personal record), that'll be a goal for me."

Syed scored a point for Belmont by taking sixth place in the 800 meters (2:32), while Hutchinson wasn't far behind in 10th overall (2:32). Senior Kylie Donovan captured eighth place in the 100 hurdles (17.40) and finished 16th in the 300 hurdles (56.59), while Ashley Olisky was the lone field event qualifier for the Raiders and finished 16th in the shot put (26-1).

Besides the title-winning 4x800 relay team, Belmont had two more top 10 finishes in the relay events. The 4x100 squad finished ninth, with Chloe Sottak, Taylor Murray, Kaitlyn Delisle and Elise Hall posting a time of 55.50 seconds. In the final event of the day, the quartet of Day, Emma Chase, Sarah Chase and Syed took eighth in the 4x400, crossing with a time of 4:42.

While Remillard scored all of Winnisquam's points on the day, the Bears did have several qualifiers compete in Bristol. Phoebe Keck earned a top 10 finish in the 200 meters, taking 10th overall with a time of 28.58 seconds, while Olivia Doubleday nabbed 13th in the shot put (26-10.5) and 15th in the javelin (77-10).

The 4x100 relay team of Keck, Mackenzie French, Kaylianna Genier and Meghan LaBelle finished 10th overall (56.20), while the 4x400 relay quartet of Remillard, Mackenzie Snow, Caitlin Dumont and Jasmine Piper crossed in 12th place (4:54) to close out the day.

Two businesses, same building, same bank.

Upstairs is Chase Street Market, downstairs is Biederman's Deli & Pub. Running between their two businesses in Plymouth's historic Rollins Building requires an adept balancing act. The Biedermans knew they wanted a bank with the same commitment to high quality and personal service that they offer their customers. They found what they were looking for and MVSB quickly became another local favorite.
