

Thieves strike again at Sanbornton Rec storage facility

BY DONNA RHODES
dhrhodes@salmonpress.com

SANBORNTON — Thieves have struck once again at the Sanbornton Town Park, this time gaining access to both doors to the Recreation Department's storage building and making off with more items necessary to operate children's programs in the town.

Recreation Coordinator Julie Lonergan said she received a phone call last Saturday morning from the Sanbornton Police Department telling her that while on patrol an officer discovered both doors to the building were kicked in and access was gained.

When Lonergan arrived to access what, if anything, was missing, she saw right away that a borrowed compressor, meant to temporarily replace the one stolen last month, along with more snacks for children's programs were gone.

"Then they emptied the refrigerator and took every last snack and all the drinks we sell that weren't taken the last time," said Lonergan.

Also missing were medical first aid kits, fire extinguishers, collapsible laundry bins used to gather sports team pinnies after a game, large rolls of trash bags and even the trash bins themselves.

Lonergan said she and the police felt the bins were probably used to help haul off all the other items stolen in the break-in.

"Those first aid kits are vital, though. The coaches need them for the games, and now they're gone," she added.

After the last break-in over Labor Day weekend, which resulted in stolen tools and other items purchased for fund-raising efforts, one resident stepped forward to ease the pain a bit and Lonergan was very grateful for his help.

"Tom Gosselin dropped off a couple of heavy duty extension cords to replace the ones that were stolen and I'd like to thank him. That was very kind of him," said Lonergan.

As for the rest, she will now have to take time to purchase the essential missing items in order to keep the recreation programs up and running.

Both she and the Sanbornton Recreation Commission firmly believe that a lack of presence at the park is now taking its toll. In the past the operational buildings and automatic lights installed on them gave the remote area a better security factor. Since the former portable offices were destroyed, crime and vandalism has been on the rise, including damage done to the playing fields last fall.

Lonergan said the commission has met with selectmen about installing security cameras in the park and the board is currently working on that request.

In the meantime, if anyone has any information as to who may be responsible for the recent break-ins, they are asked to contact the Sanbornton Police Department at 286-7116.

TNFD battles house fire on Mount Tugg Road

BY DONNA RHODES
drhodes@salmonpress.com

NORTHFIELD — At 2:10 a.m. on the morning of Sunday, Sept. 25, the owner of a two-story home located at 50 Mount Tugg Rd. in Northfield was awakened by his dogs’ barking and the sound of smoke detectors and, after safely exiting the home with his pets, he notified 9-1-1 of the situation. Tilton-Northfield Fire & EMS responded within five minutes, and upon seeing smoke and flames coming from the second floor of the residence, they immediately requested a second alarm. Due to the remote location and a minimal water supply in the area, more equipment and manpower was necessary in battling the blaze. Deputy Chief Tim Joubert said that by using a hand line the crew first knocked down flames visible from the exterior of the building before heading inside for a more aggressive attack on the fire. The situation was declared under control at 4:30 a.m. and there were no reported injuries to either the homeowner or any fire fighters. “The first arriving crews gave an outstanding effort. Their ability to quickly and safely get water on the fire saved the structure and a majority of its contents,” said TNFD Capt. David Hall.

Assisting in the effort were members of Franklin, Belmont, Sanborn-ton, Laconia, Gilford, Concord, and Gilman-ton fire departments while Bristol and New Hampton crews provided station coverage. Joubert reported that the fire was considered accidental, and was the result of faulty electrical wiring in the residence.

Monsters can be left for display through Halloween or taken home immediately. Teen Read Week™ is a national adolescent literacy initiative created by the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA). It began in 1998 and is held annually in October the same week as Columbus Day. Its purpose is to encourage teens to be regular readers and library users. Doug Ross and his dogs were romping around a field in Newington when they came upon this possum, which promptly played dead, and its babies, which didn't.

It's a possum (or opossum) if it's playing dead, with babies

By JOHN HARRIGAN
COLUMNIST

Doug Ross was out walking his dogs in a field in Newington one day during the first week of August when he (and the dogs) came onto something that looked like a dead animal, with tiny little babies crawling around its belly. Newington is a town just above Portsmouth, along the Piscataqua River. "Piscataqua," by the way, is a pretty tough name for some people to pronounce, and even local radio announcers sometimes have a hard time with it, especially if they are new on the job and are from somewhere far away, maybe places where people are accustomed to having their home towns mispronounced-- say, Spokane or Des Moines or Presque Isle--and so you'd think they'd be SEE NOTEBOOK, PAGE A14

Developmental screening services are available to those in need

To the Editor:
Developmental screening of young children provides critical information on how children are doing as they grow. Like a yardstick for measuring height, developmental screening is a tool that helps families measure important areas of their children's development through the early years. Early brain research confirms that brains are built over time, and "from the bottom up," with simple circuits and skills providing the foundation for learning more complex skills. As such, the sooner developmental concerns are identified; the sooner children and parents can get the supports they need to maximize their children's potential. In New Hampshire, one out of every five New Hampshire children under the age of five are at risk of developmental or behavioral concerns. Unfortunately, most of New Hampshire's children do not receive standardized screening for developmental or behavioral concerns. As a result, some children with delays do not have access to the early identification and services that are so critical to their development. Identifying and intervening early to address developmental delays in young children can help prevent additional problems. In some cases, this is as simple as helping a child with a speech problem that might otherwise keep him/her from playing with other children and/or succeeding in school. Intervening early can prevent or minimize the need for costly special education services. The start of a new school year is a powerful reminder that every child deserves the chance to enter school ready to learn. Ensuring that all children are screened for developmental concerns and receive the services needed to promote their optimal development is an important part of ensuring success for the State's youngest students. Family-Centered Early Supports and Services (FCESS), New Hampshire's Early Intervention system, is a service provided to families and children until their third birthday who have a developmental delay, disability or an established condition. Services are provided in the home and community to assist families in providing the best evidence-based practices to enhance a child's growth and development. For more information, call 524-1235.

“Meet John Doe” on LRPA TV this weekend

LACONIA — Join Lakes Region Public Access Television at 10:30 p.m. this Friday and Saturday night (Sept. 30 & Oct. 1) for this week’s “LRPA After Dark” encore presentation of 1941’s romantic comedy “Meet John Doe,” starring Gary Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck.

In “Meet John Doe,” the viewer is introduced to columnist Ann Mitchell (Stanwyck), who has been laid off from her newspaper due to budget cuts. In her last act at the paper, Ann composes and prints a fake letter in her column from an anonymous, down-on-his luck man who threatens to jump from the roof of

City Hall on Christmas Eve as a protest against the mistreatment of the little man and continued societal injustices. She signs the letter “John Doe.” The column becomes a sensation, selling papers and creating loads of interest from the public. Everyone wants to meet John Doe! The editor is delighted with the sensation that the column has created, but is dismayed when Ann reveals that the story is bogus. The two decide to hire an unemployed man to impersonate John Doe, eventually settling on Long John Willoughby (Cooper), a former baseball pitcher whose bad arm has forced him out of the game and into hard times. He is kind, quiet and a bit naïve: just the man for the job. John Doe’s story and popularity begin to spread, and local “John Doe” political clubs begin to spring up around the country. At first, Willoughby enjoys the attention and perks that come with being John Doe, but soon starts to see that many people want to use him for their own benefit. The newspaper’s publisher, D.B. Norton (supporting actor Edward Arnold), wants to use Doe’s popularity to run for political office. When Willoughby realizes what’s happening, he faces a moral dilemma: should he expose Norton and condemn his plan? If he does so, what happens to his own credibility and his future?

Directed by Frank Capra, “Meet John Doe” is considered to be one of the director’s finest films. The plot’s concerns were a favorite of the director: how does an ordinary man make his way, against all odds, in a difficult situation? Film historians see this movie as the final film in Capra’s trilogy about American Individualism, the other two being “Mr. Deeds Goes to Town” and “Mr. Smith Goes to Washington.” It is Capra’s powerful indictment of the dangers of Fascism and “group think.” “Meet

John Doe” was huge success with movie goers and critics alike. It was one of the top grossing films of the year, and helped to cement Gary Cooper’s status as a film legend. Maybe you’ve never had the pleasure of seeing “Meet John Doe.” If that’s true, then meet us on the couch, grab your popcorn and join LRPA after dark for this heartwarming “drame-dy” from the past.

Lakes Region Singers launch fall season with open invitation for new members

GILFORD — Lakes Region Singers, the community choral group that performs at First United Methodist Church in Gilford, began their fall season with a first rehearsal on Tuesday night, Sept. 27. According to Director Karen Jordan, this season will feature an exciting line-up of new music, especially chosen for the holiday concert coming in December, as well as some old favorites. For example, this year our program will include some beautiful new pieces such as “Carols of the Night” and “Angels from the Realms of Glory,” as well as traditional favorites like “I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day” and “Joyful All Ye Nations, Rise!”

So every Tuesday night, the Youth Chorus (for singers in grades two through 10) will meet at 6:30 p.m. in the church, and the Adult Chorus (for singers in grades 11-12 plus all adults) will meet there at 7:30 p.m.

“We welcome everyone interested in performing good music, and we don’t require auditions,” added Jordan. “So if you know of anyone who might like to join our groups, encourage them to come, or bring them along with you!”

There will again be two performances of the holiday concert, one on Friday, Dec. 16, and another on Sunday, Dec. 18. Both the youth and adult groups will perform in both concerts.

“This year, we will be adding a Youth Bell Choir,” said Jordan, “as well as two small instrument ensembles that will provide additional accompaniment for the new pieces.”

As in the past, some numbers will feature vocal soloists, organ, or four-hand piano accompaniments. During this season Phil Breton on piano will continue accompanying the adult chorus, while Kelly Cleveland will once again accompany the youth chorus and also sing with the adult chorus.

According to Jordan, “We are very excited to be singing again. If you plan to join us but can’t make the first rehearsal, just let us know and we’ll save a folder for you. When you do come, bring a friend, as we are always ready to expand our membership and share the fun!”

For more information call the director at 524-0835 or 998-8545, or email kpj@jordanassociate-sinc.com.

Greater Lakes Region Children’s Auction finds new home

LACONIA — After years of calling the Conference Center at the Lake Opechee Inn and Spa home, the Greater Lakes Region Children’s Auction is pleased to announce the 2016 Auction will be broadcast live from Pheasant Ridge Golf Club in Gilford.

With the impending closure of the Conference Center, the Children’s Auction Board of Directors began its search for a new location. It was no simple task given the many needs of the auction. It would have to be a space conductive to housing the Auction set, items, office equipment, countless volunteers, and visitors as well as have the technical capabilities to broadcast live across the Lakes Region, have multiple phone lines, and high speed Internet access to ensure connectivity for the many moving parts of the Auction. In addition, it needed to be a convenient location for folks to make donations, pick up items, or simply stop by to watch the action.

A search committee was formed and after careful review of several locations throughout the Lakes Region and beyond, it was clear that Pheasant Ridge fit the bill.

“Pheasant Ridge meets the many needs of the Auction to keep us going,” states Sandra Marshall, Co-Chair of the Children’s Auction Board of Directors. “We’d like to thank Jim Contigiani who has welcomed us with open arms even during one of his busiest seasons. We appreciate his help in supporting our mission to help the children in our communities and hope to call Pheasant Ridge home for many years to come.”

Testing their skills in floral design, plant identification, problem solving and teamwork were Winnisquam seniors Kirsten Frender, Brenna Audet and Sabrina Bellerose as well as 2016 graduate Sierra Laughy. The team placed third in the Eastern Region for floriculture, with Frender capturing third place individually and Audet securing the seventh place spot.

WRMS hosts annual PTO dinner, Parent Forum, and Open House

BY ROB SEAWARD

Principal

Winnisquam Regional Middle School

TILTON — The Winnisquam Regional Middle School's annual open house event started with an amazing dinner organized by the Parent Teacher Organization (PTO). The PTO worked diligently with local businesses to put together a menu that would be appealing and affordable to all. Business partners included: Tilton House of Pizza, Pizza Hut, Uno Pizzeria & Grill, Olive Garden, Hannaford's, Coca Cola, and the WRMS PTO. Business partners provided delicious pizza, salad and dressing, water and many desserts.

A middle school student attending the event excitedly expressed, "This is awesome. I love coming to the open house because the food is so good."

Her mom and dad both agreed and thanked us for making them feel welcome. Mike Bryant, in his first year as the middle school Assistant Principal expresses a similar sentiment when he explained how, "Many parents commented that the climate and culture of the school was filled with positive energy."

Wednesday night was another first for WRMS. As part of the annual PTO dinner, parents and students were presented with a first look at the why and what of competency based education coming to the middle school in the fall of 2017. Many parents expressed excitement for the change with one parent explaining that this change is long overdue and will help WRMS be a better school with better educational opportunities for her children.

Finally, parents and students were able to move about the building, meet teachers, visit with each other, and learn about many things from school and community based organizations/businesses. These informational booths included: Youth Assistance Program (YAP), Highland Mountain Bike Park, Civil Air Patrol, Title 1, Competency Based Education, and more.

Principal Rob Seaward summed up the evening by commenting,

"The Winnisquam Middle School community, including parents, students, staff, and local organizations/businesses, has really come together over the last couple years, developing into a positive, collaborative and mutually beneficial relationship where the success of our children is placed above all else. I could not be happier with how far we have come and for the journey that remains ahead."

Local McDonald's restaurants to hold fundraiser for NH Association of Chiefs of Police

57 participating locations, including Tilton, eye fundraising goal of $50,000 this October

REGION — On Oct. 5, McDonald's Restaurants of New Hampshire are spearheading a fundraising effort to raise $50,000 for the New Hampshire Association of Chiefs of Police. From 4 to 8 p.m., McDonald's customers can lend their support by purchasing a meal at their local New Hampshire McDonald's. A percentage of that evening's sales will be donated directly to the New Hampshire Association of Chiefs of Police. All 57 McDonald's locations in the state of New Hampshire are participating.

"McDonald's of New Hampshire is proud to help the local New Hampshire police departments, as the service they provide is vital in maintaining the safety and well-being of our state," said Peter Napoli, a McDonald's owner/operator in New Hampshire. "Every McDonald's location throughout the state will be doing its part to support those who protect the communities in which we do business."

During the Oct. 5 fundraiser, a local area police officer and a cruiser will be on site at each McDonald's from 4 to 8 p.m. The officers will meet and greet families and children in addition to providing educational tips and information to customers. McDonald's will also recognize several officers throughout the state who go above and beyond in the line of duty, as well as those officers who are highly invested in the community.

The New Hampshire Association of Chiefs of Police is a 501 (c) (3) organization with a focus on public safety and elevating the standards of police service and the advancement of the highest ethical and professional standards.

The money raised through this event will assist in providing high-quality law enforcement training and the continued development of the profession of law enforcement toward police efforts in supporting the communities they serve.

"The New Hampshire Association of Chiefs of Police welcomes our new partnership with McDonald's. Together, we believe that by interacting with our communities and their children, we can offer insight into law enforcement and the challenges law enforcement face today. It is through this initiative that McDonald's is providing an important platform on which we can build a bridge between the police and the communities we serve," said Pat Sullivan, Executive Director, New Hampshire Association of Chiefs of Police.

It started in March, when McDonald's owner/operator Peter Napoli read about police training budgets in New Hampshire being cut. Mr. Napoli organized the other McDonald's operators and the operators committed to raising $50,000 for police training. Napoli and State Police Executive Pat Sullivan and Bob Cormier, President of the Police Chiefs Association, began organizing an event to help raise awareness.

The date of Oct. 5 from 4 to 8 p.m. was selected. On this date, police officers will be present at each McDonald's in the state with a police vehicle to meet with members of the community.

One of the great features that has arisen is a booklet to celebrate and honor excellence in performance above and beyond and recognize officers for intense dedication in their communities. That booklet will be handed out that evening during the event.

Since the planning of this event, police across the nation have been targeted and gunned down while performing their duties. People have tried to find opportunities to thank police officers. Oct. 5 gives the communities in New Hampshire an opportunity to show their support for the law enforcement community for their bravery and commitment to make the places where we live and work safe by turning out to their local McDonald's restaurant.

SPELLING BEE

High School Auditorium.

Each year, teams from various area businesses, community organizations and schools come together for an evening of competition and fun, all to benefit a good cause. Teams are asked to dress in costume and many blend humor with their expertise in “o-r-t-h-o-g-r-a-p-h-i-c study” to get a chance to add their name to the list of winners on the much sought after Bee Trophy.

Each of the Bee teams is sponsored by area businesses or benefactors. The competition is lively and provides the audience with a unique evening’s entertainment. This year’s emcee with be WEMJ’s own Pat Kelly and our pronouncers will Rick Crockford and Rhetta Colon. Manning the gavels will be judges Marcia Hayward and Marilyn Lynch.

Last year the winning team was LHS Class of 1977 made up of Judy Ball, Ruth McLaughlin and Sherry Weeks. With last year’s win, this team, sponsored each year by the Belknap Landscape Co, accomplished a recording setting feat. They scored a “hat trick.” They are three time winners of the Community Spelling Bee.

Last year, the team members told the Scholarship Foundation, that they planned to retire from the competition and so now the field is open. Will the previous year’s winner, the Laconia Librarians score a second win in an attempt to get to the coveted triple crown? What about LHS Faculty/Teachers? LHS has had two wins in the past.

The Lakes Region Scholarship Foundation is a non-profit organization that currently acts as a clearing house for scholarship funds from close to 250 donors. This year the Foundation celebrated its 60th anniversary. The idea for the foundation began in 1956 with a small group of concerned citizens and was supported by just eight local civic groups and organizations (including the Laconia Citizen.) The awards that year totaled just $2,650 to 16 recipients. It has grown over these six decades, and this year LRSF awarded more than $43,760 to 299 local students. Over the 60 years, the foundation has awarded $5,540,000.00. All of this has been accomplished thanks to the generosity of about 525 donors over the years, not including the thousands who have contributed to specific memorial funds or special fundraisers.

The Spelling Bee is the foundation’s major fundraiser to raise much-needed revenue for the administrative costs of the foundation.

While the primary focus of the scholarship foundation is to generate more dollars for scholarships to benefit area students in their quest for continuing education; the operating costs to run the office continue to be an annual challenge. By supporting the Community Spelling Bee, the board and staff will be able to continue their work.

Annual Feed the Hungry Food Drive to be held Oct. 1

dhrhodes@salmonpress.com

TILTON — The sixth annual Feed the Hungry Food Drive, in honor of the late Vicy Virgin of Tilton, will be held on Saturday, Oct. 1, and organizers are asking the public to once again step up and make this endeavor to help needy residents in the community another big success.

Committee member and Tilton selectman Pat Consentino said last week that once again the food drive will benefit not only the Northfield-Tilton Congregational Church food pantry, which Virgin started many years ago, but the St. Gabriel's Catholic Church food pantry as well.

"We want to fill those pantries so they can continue to help our local residents in need," she said.

John Bruno from St. Gabriel's said their pantry is currently assisting 40 families or more each week and all donations are gratefully appreciated.

"This food drive has helped us over the past couple of years, and any help we can get to help people who live here is greatly appreciated," said Bruno.

Volunteers for the food drive will be stationed that day outside Market Basket and Walmart in Tilton. As people shop they can conveniently drop extra canned goods and other nonperishable items purchased for the pantries in the designated carts by the exits. From there the food will then be transported to the two pantries. Cash donations are also greatly appreciated to allow the pantries to purchase other items they may need.

The food drive will take place from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

This is a day devoted to strengthening the ideals of peace, both within and among all nations and peoples. Peace Day is celebrated all across the world in many different ways. Teachers and children spent the last couple of weeks talking about and studying peace in the classroom. October is cereal month at Twin Rivers Food Pantry

FRANKLIN — October is cereal month at Twin Rivers Interfaith Food Pantry, located in Franklin. We are looking for "The cereal shot from guns" which is "Kid tested. Mother approved." Some come with "Two scoops of raisins..." and "They're Gr-r-reat!" Don't be a "Silly Rabbit, Trix are for kids!" they say. When shopping, be careful as some cereals just "Brings out the tiger in you, in you!" Ather breakfast table children playfully giggle: "I'm coo-coo for Cocoa Puffs!" because my brother.... ah, no!..."He likes it! Hey Mikey!"

Then, let's not forget...um, the older kids late at night, eating in the dark when shouts come asking "What are you eating? Shocked, Dad whispers: "Nuttin' honey!" Innocently looking Dad replies, "it sure "Stays crunchy, even in milk!" Mom only grins and asks: "Can't get enough Super Sugar Crisp?"I see? "Snap! Crackle! Pop!" and you are nowhere to be found! Dad smiles and says: "They're magically delicious!" too. Therefore, my friends, "Follow my nose. It always knows." that "A is for Apple. J is for Jacks." Help families get "Quisp for Quazy energy" and enjoy sharing "The Breakfast of Champions" together. Sure, "It's a honey of an O...." but, hot or cold, cereal always starts the day out right. Only one question remains: "Got Milk!"

Pantry hours: Tuesday & Thursday 9-11 a.m. and Thursday 5-7 p.m., or call: 934-2662.

International Film Series continues with “Rams”

LACONIA — The Laconia Human Relations Committee, in cooperation with the Laconia Public Library, will show the film, “Rams,” on Monday, Oct. 3 at 6:45 p.m. This is another in the International Film Series shown monthly from September through June at the Library.

This 2015 film is a marvel of deadpan comedy within tragedy, set in the beautiful landscape of Iceland. Two sheep farming brothers haven't spoken to each other for 40 years and suffer petty jealousies and rivalries. They are unmarried, living on adjacent properties. They communicate through notes that one of their dogs carries between them.

Both famers are very attached to their flocks. An infection in one flock brings a crisis for all sheep farmers. All the sheep across their valley have to be destroyed to avoid re-infection. Wooden pens must be burned and barns disinfected.

One brother, Gummi, kills his own flock before the biohazards team arrives, but the other brother finds this harder to do. Will this bring reconciliation or betrayal?

Harvest Supper Oct. 1 celebrates Kelley Corner School renovation project

GILMANTON — Gil-manton neighbors and friends are invited to a pot-luck Harvest Supper at the Kelley Corner School to learn more about an ambitious project to renovate Gil-manton’s first one-room schoolhouse, the only one still owned by the School District. The event begins at 5 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 1 at the school house on San-born Hill Road, off NH Route 129 a half mile from the junction with Route 107. Bring a dish to share.

The Kelley Corner School was the first school authorized by the Town in 1787. It is one of two surviving public buildings in Lower Gilmanton, the first village settled in the Town. (The other is the First Baptist Church on Route 107, just north of the junction with Stage Road.)

The Lower Gilman-ton Community Club has leased the building from the School District since the late 1940s after schools in the Town were consolidated and it was no longer used as a school. Since then it has been used as a meet-ing place and for neigh-borhood events such as the Harvest Supper and educational visits by school classes.

Where were we? The dead animal. Doug didn’t poke it with a sharp stick or anything, but instead recognized it right away as a possum. Doug is a former Fish and Game Commissioner and long-time outdoor guy, and knows his wildlife.

“I initially thought the mother had been hit by a car and was dead, with her babies getting the last bit of milk,” he said. “However, upon closer inspection I saw that she was alive and well, either playing possum or just relaxing in the sun.”

Possums, whose range is either determined by the severity of winters or by human habitation and behavior, take your pick, seem (to me) to be creeping northward, like earwigs, ticks, turkey vultures, and people who don’t like dirt roads. During my near-forty-year statewide outdoor writing gig for the New Hampshire Sunday News, I kept getting reports of them, inching their little feet up through the state’s Southern Tier.

When threatened and unable to run away, or at least shuffle away, possums experience an involuntary reaction similar to a faint, which can last up to four hours. Their young often fail to faint and just go on feasting, as was the case with Doug’s possum.

Pat Tate, who is the furbearer biologist and a lot else at Fish and Game, says railroad expansion in the late 1800s probably helped possums extend their range. He has had possum reports from as far north as Berlin.

In the meantime, the budget is something she is keenly familiar with and she looks forward to lending her expertise to the task of preparing a new budget for taxpayers to consider in 2017.

“I should be able to make a seamless transition into this position, since I’m already famil-teers to help with yard work and other odd jobs for local seniors. Representatives of ServiceLink, which provides assistance to seniors, were also on hand to celebrate the center’s success.

Clarenbach welcomed them all, and after they toured the facility and settled in for the luncheon, told them none of what they saw would be possible without the community support they have received over the past several years.

North has also had ex-umentary presentations and other programming. Qualified personnel offer foot and blood pressure clinics, flu clinics, age-relevant exercise programs and more. Their next Healthy Cooking class will feature chef Joe Jesseman who will help seniors prepare a hearty vegetable soup in a bread bowl.

“Each and every time I walk through this door, it thrills my heart to see all the activities going on here,” said Consentino, a lifetime member of the Tilton Senior Center executive board and one of the founders of the center. “To have the community so supportive of this building and all it stands for is profound. I hope it continues for a lifetime.”

Clarenbach’s goal has been to help seniors “Find Balance” in their lives and printed interviews placed on the dining tables last week showed she has succeeded.

Ron and his wife Judy stopped by for the center’s open house in 2011 and have been regulars ever since, enjoying the speakers, special programs and social opportunities. Four years ago Irene said she dropped by the center at the urging of a Tilton Town Hall employee and has been coming ever since. She has made friends, received a lot of encouragement in her life, and most of all, has had the chance to dance and play games again. Irene enjoys the center so much that she even became one of their many volunteers.

“It’s a lot of fun and gets me out of the house,” she told Clarenbach. “The one problem I have is, I never get caught up on my housework!”

For Claire, who no longer drives, getting a ride to the center on the Community Action Program bus helps get her out of the house. She said she likes attending the healthcare programs, the weekly lunches and most of all, she loves to sing at the Wednesday night Acoustic Country Pickin’ Parties. In fact, Claire enjoys her time at the center so much that she wishes there was a bed there so she wouldn’t have to leave.

Stories like those, Clarenbach said, are what makes the center so special and she’s glad to be a part of it.

Raiders, Eagles settle for draw in battle of heavyweights

BY JEFF LAJOIE

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

GILFORD – It's rare that a Belmont-Gilford boys' soccer game disappoints. Saturday's first of two annual meetings was no exception.

The visiting Red Raiders struck early before the Golden Eagles equalized. The teams went back and forth from there, and 100 minutes weren't enough to settle things in a 1-1 draw that sets up nicely for the rematch this Saturday in Belmont (3:15 p.m.).

"This was exactly the game we thought we'd get against Gilford," admitted Belmont head coach Mike Foley. "It was our ninth game of the season and it's a benchmark kind of game for us. We have to find out how we play against the top four type of teams in our division and Gilford is definitely one of those top teams."

It was yet another

"Give me these games every day because these types of games will help us tremendously down the road," Gilford head coach Dave Pinkham offered. "We're hoping to put the pieces together to make a run and you learn what you need to do in order to do that against a team like Belmont."

The Red Raiders (7-1-1) struck first in this one, getting on the board just eight minutes into the first half. Senior Logan Wilder's corner kick connected with classmate Doug Price's head, and he pushed it past Gilford goalkeeper Ethan Warren for a beautiful goal and a 1-0 lead.

"For us, getting off to good starts is super important, especially against a defense as good as Gilford's," Foley said. "We're coaching our team to try and score that first goal, especially in games against Gilford. You need to come out in those first 15 minutes and put pressure on them. And our corner kicks have been a life blood to us getting quality chances."

Gilford (7-1-1), which played its third consecutive overtime game, settled in after the up and down opening 20 minutes. The equalizer came with 13:34 left before halftime in what was an impressive build up. Patrick O'Connor played a lead pass up to Sandor Valpey, who got a shot on Belmont keeper Jonny Leclair. The senior turned the initial attempt away to his right, but Gilford's Sandor Gamache was right there on the doorstep crashing for the rebound. He buried a shot into the open net, knotting the game 1-1.

"Sandor really gave us something up top, which is a spot he's really never played," said Pinkham. "That goal was a gorgeous goal. We had about five passes leading up to it and he was right where we needed him to be."

The Eagles continued to put the pressure on from there, and that strong play carried into the second half where Leclair was forced to make two or three outstanding saves to keep the contest even. His defense, paced by River Mathieu, Tyler Fleming, Caleb Burke and Corey Derosier, was tested by responded. The unit held an opponent to one or fewer goals for the eighth time in nine games this year.

The Gilford defense also held, with Logan Essaff, Alden Blais, Tyler Hanf and Seth Valpey once again doing the job for a unit that has allowed six goals in nine games.

"Defensively, we really aren't giving up many opportunities," said Pinkham.

First half turnovers doom Bears in loss to Bishop Brady

BY JEFF LAJOIE

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

TILTON – Five first half turnovers was certainly not the formula for success on Friday night.

Under the lights on Homecoming, the Winnisquam Regional High School football team found that out the hard way. The host Bears spotted visiting Bishop Brady a 20-0 halftime lead, turning the ball over five times before intermission. While Winnisquam battled back to make it a one-score game late, the deficit proved to be too much to overcome in a 20-12 loss in a key Division III South Conference tilt.

“It took us too long to get to where we needed to,” admitted Winnisquam head coach Pat Riberdy, whose team dropped to 2-2 on the season with the loss. “We came out flat and just never got anything going. We’re still trying to find that balance. When we did move the ball forward in the first half, we shot ourselves in the foot with turnovers and penalties. We need to find a way to keep drives going.”

Bishop Brady (3-1) gained just 100 yards of offense in the first half, but the Green Giants stormed out to a 20-0 lead at intermission thanks in large part to Winnisquam turnovers. Brady scored just 1:30 into the game after putting itself in outstanding field position with a big kick return, and the squad finished off the drive when quarterback Joseph Bernard hit Aidan Plumpton for a 10-yard TD and a 7-0 lead.

That lead would hold into the second quarter, when the Giants added two more touchdowns due to Winnisquam interceptions. Winnisquam QB Hunter Tierney was picked off by Plumpton with 7:53 left in the second quarter at the Bear 32 yard line, and two plays later, Moses Murenzi scampered 14 yards for a touchdown to make it a 14-0 lead.

The big blow of the first half came with 3:59 remaining. After crossing midfield looking for a score before halftime, Tierney was intercepted by Sean Sullivan, who returned the ball 76 yards for a touchdown that quieted the crowded and gave Brady a commanding 20-0 lead. Tierney had a difficult first half, completing just five of his 20 passes for 46 yards and four interceptions, though the Bears also shot themselves in the foot with penalties.

“When he’s struggling, he’s hurrying a bit but when he gets relaxed back there and in a groove, things tend to click for him,” said Riberdy of Tierney.

Despite not much going right for Winnisquam in the first half, Riberdy said the message at intermission was to just keep plugging away.

“We talked at halftime that if we can just get a score and some momentum, we’re right back in the game,” he offered.

The Winnisquam defense held tough in the third quarter, and the offense finally broke through with 10:02 remaining in the fourth period. The Bears marched 55 yards in 13 plays, grinding their way down the field before Tierney connected with Brendon Vaughn on a slant pattern for a nine-yard touchdown pass that cut the deficit to 20-6.

After a quick three and out, the Bears wasted little time finding the end zone again. On the team’s first play from scrimmage, Tierney hit Caleb Mulleavey, who somehow snagged the ball after it deflected off a Brady cornerback, and he took off for a huge 71-yard touchdown that brought Winnisquam right back into the game. Just like that, the Bears were within 20-12 with 8:41 to play.

“When the effort is there, we can be a pretty good football team,” said Riberdy.

Winnisquam’s defense again came up big, stopping Bishop Brady for another three and out. Tyler Moran came up with the key stop on third down, tackling Murenzi in the backfield for a four-yard loss on third-and-three.

The Bears took over with 6:33 to play, and they once again moved the ball with a red-hot Tierney hitting Mulleavey for 23 yards. Tierney added an 18-yard run of his own after scrambling away from trouble, and Winnisquam eventually moved into Brady territory with the clocking ticking away. A holding penalty ultimately doomed the offense however, and on fourth-and-14, Tierney’s pass down the field went off the hands of a receiver for a turnover on downs. Brady managed to pick up two first downs on its ensuing possession, running out the clock and surviving with the 20-12 victory.

Tierney finished the night 16-for-36 through the air, throwing for 199 yards, two touchdowns and four interceptions. Tailback Dominic Lamanuzzi rushed for 43 yards on 19 carries, while Mulleavey hauled in six catches for 131 yards – all in the second half.

Next up for the Bears is a road trip to Raymond this Saturday, where Winnisquam tries to rebound against the 1-3 Rams.

Bears edged by Mascoma in OT, 3-2

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

TILTON – Peppering the goal looking for the game-winning goal, the Winnisquam Regional High School field hockey team looked on the brink of a huge regular season victory last week. But after turning the ball over in the offensive zone, the Bears could only watch as visiting Mascoma Valley sprinted up the field and scored against the run of play in the final minute of overtime.

Instead of a huge win, Winnisquam suffered a tough defeat as Mascoma’s Alyssa Hammond finished off a fast break and lifted the Royals to a 3-2 victory in Division III action on Sept. 20.

The Bears dominated the 7 on 7 overtime period, putting all sorts of pressure on the Mascoma defense. Winnisquam’s Meghan Cote and Emily Decormier did the bulk of the work up front, while the rest of the squad on the field for the extra session – Makenzie Snow, Kaylee Tierney, Cailey Clogston and Jasmine Gove – offered support with the Bears knocking on the door.

Decormier’s rush up the left side had the Bears in position to score, but her shot was kicked away by the Mascoma keeper with just over a minute left. The Royals went up the field the other way, and Mikayla Doucl’s lead pass snuck by a pair of Winnisquam defenders and onto the stick of Hammond who buried the opportunity and dealt the Bears a crushing loss.

Mascoma led 1-0 with a goal 20 minutes into the first half, though the Bears came charging back with their best stretch of hockey. Winnisquam ramped up its pressure over the final 10 minutes of the frame, getting the equalizer with three minutes remaining. Snow sent a hard cross through traffic in the penalty area, and Lilli Keegan finished it off with a one-timer into the back of the cage to tie the score 1-1.

Pressure up front from Lindsey Phelps late in the stanza enabled the Bears to win a penalty corner with the clocking ticking into the final minute before intermission. Snow sent a blast back into the box, and senior Molly Tinker got her stick on the hot shot, deflecting it up high and just under the crossbar for a goal just as the buzzer sounded and a 2-1 halftime lead.

While Winnisquam had all the momentum after the late barrage, the Royals came out on fire to start the second half. Mascoma generated three penalty corners in the first five minutes of the half, and it was rewarded with a goal off the third one when Kayla Hammond beat Winnisquam keeper Riley Toupin front point-blank range to tie the game 2-2.

It was back and forth the rest of regulation, with both teams pushing through despite hot conditions and an end-to-end contest. Toupin came through with two big saves late, keeping the Royals off the board and ultimately forcing overtime.

Clogston had a big game in the middle of the Winnisquam defense, while the unit that also included Samantha Wood and Tierney played well. The outside tandem of Decormier and Cora Kelley did a nice job working in unison for much of the second half, while Snow was her usual active self in the midfield, shepherding the ball in transition while moving all over the field. Phelps also had an outstanding game, getting into passing lanes and putting constant pressure on the Mascoma ballhandlers.

The Bears got back to the .500 mark with one of their most impressive wins of the season on Homecoming. Winnisquam blanked visiting Hopkinton, 2-0, to improve to 4-4 overall.

Raiders settle for scoreless draw with rival Gilford

BY JEFF LAJOIE
jlajoie@salmonpress.com

GILFORD – One hundred minutes of soccer wasn't enough to separate the Gilford High School and Belmont High School girls' soccer teams. The two rivals battled to a 0-0 draw on Saturday during GHS Homecoming, setting the stage for what will undoubtedly be an intense rematch in Belmont this Saturday with bragging rights for the 2016 season on the line. Gilford (1-7-1), which picked up its first win of the season earlier in the week against Laconia, played one of its best games of the year on Sat-

had eyes for the far corner of the Gilford net. Perkins came up with her best save of the day, leaping sideways to snag the ball out of the air and forcing the Raiders to settle for the 0-0 final. After a solid first half from Belmont saw Scott and Emma Chase pepper the Gilford net, the Eagles responded and played a much better second stanza to force OT. Still, the Raiders had their chances to get on the board after intermission. The best chance came with just 8:06 to play in regulation, when senior Hannah Shirley's blast hit a Gilford defender's hand in the box, drawing a penalty kick. Scott took the PK, but her shot was wide of the mark, and the Eagles survived. Gilford nearly stole the game with 3:30 left before OT, as Sophie Leggett's corner kick floated dangerously across a vacant goal line with several Eagle players just out of reach. No one was able to get their foot or body on the ball, and Belmont defender Sana Syed eventually worked it away from her own goal area. The Raiders played the game with little in the way of substitute help after suffering through a rash of injuries recently. The defensive unit was powered by a trio of sophomores in Sana Syed, Paige Dillon and Kaitlyn Delisle along with senior stalwart Jasmine Syed.

Riley rules again, captures Finale in the Valley title

BY JEFF LAJOIE
jlajoie@salmonpress.com

WATERVILLE VALLEY – There's certainly been no sophomore slump for Alice Riley this season.

The Belmont High School star continued her stellar fall on Saturday, capturing the individual title at the annual Finale in the Valley cross country race held in Waterville Valley under comfortable temperatures with a strong field of Division II and III schools in attendance.

Riley's time of 20 minutes, 38 seconds put her 31 seconds ahead of runner-up Sare Campbell of Moultonborough Academy, and she helped the Red Raiders to a fifth-place team finish with 146 points. Kennett, Kearsarge and MA went 1-2-3 on the day.

Belmont's ability to field a team on the girls' side this year has been a big step, and Riley's partner in crime, Alexis Day, once again provided a strong second scoring option by finishing 12th overall in 22:52.

Makayla Palmer was next across for Belmont in 16th place (23:13) giving the Raiders three runners in the top 20, one of just three schools to tackle that feat along with Kennett and Kearsarge.

Teammates Abby Camire (80th, 29:58) and Taylor Yelle (87th, 36:32) rounded out the BHS contingent in the girls' race.

The Belmont boys' team was powered by the two-headed monster of Ian Remenar and Nick Randos, as the duo once again performed well in cracking the top 20. Remenar was first across in 14th place overall (18:06), 11 seconds ahead of Randos in 16th place (18:17). The duo led the Raiders to a fifth place team finish, mirroring the girls' team with 149 points. Kearsarge, Kingswood and Kennett went 1-2-3 in the boys' team race.

Belmont's Isaiah Knowlton was the third scorer on the day in 28th position (19:07), followed by Aidan Rupp (44th, 19:46), Connor Jackson (56th, 20:26), and Adam Sojka (101th, 23:00).

Late rally sends Bears to impressive win over Moultonborough

BY JEFF LAJOIE

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

TILTON – Momentum shifts dominated the first of two meetings between expected powers and unbeaten squads last week. But host Winnisquam Regional High School had the ultimate answer in the end, shaking off a sizable fourth game deficit to knock off Moultonborough Academy, 22-25, 25-13, 25-18, 28-26 in a huge early season Division III contest on Sept. 21.

“I knew this would be one of the hardest matches on our schedule all year,” admitted Winnisquam head coach Mike Livernois of the tilt against MA. “But to be out of the gates with really a brand new team and be undefeated at this point... that’s really a testament to this group of girls.”

The Bears (6-0 entering this week) trailed 23-16 in the fourth set, and it appeared as though a feisty Moultonborough squad, still playing without All-State junior Alexa Price (injury), would force a winner-take-all fifth frame. But on the service of Aubrey St. Onge, Winnisquam came charging back. Senior Nicole Matcheski put down a pair of kills, and some tight play from the Panthers, which missed two serves into the net on game point, wound up tying the score 26-26. Meghan Harmon came up with a huge block to set up match point, and Shannon Goodwin put down one of her team-high 16 kills to seal the deal, 28-26.

“Winnisquam is a good team and they have some great hitters,” said MA head coach Cori Schult. “I think for us, it was maybe a little bit of a mental game. The whole (being) undefeated thing was in some heads and we got a little distracted at times.”

All told, Winnisquam finished the match on a 12-3 run, an impressive sign for a very young and inexperienced varsity roster.

“Very few teams that I’ve coached have come back from that kind of a deficit,” began Livernois. “And especially them being such a young team. They could’ve just packed it in and let it go

(to a fifth game) and they didn’t. They’re gaining valuable experience.”

While Winnisquam showed its ability to come back in the first game, it was the Panthers that struck first in the opening set with a comeback of their own. Trailing 14-8 early, Moultonborough played its best volleyball of the night the rest of the frame. Senior Megan Duddy came up with some clutch kills, while Madison Perrotti also put down three kills late. Brianna Lear’s kill set up game point, where Jess Lear served an ace for a 25-22 win that capped a 17-8 run.

“We had a great lead in game one and we couldn’t hold it,” said Livernois. “I told the girls, now we have to get after it because the room for error is even smaller.”

The Bears were solid in the next two frames, turning a 10-9 lead in the second into a 25-13 win after snagging 15 of the next 19 points. Goodwin’s service run spurred the rally, while sophomore setter Talia DeBlasie (24 assists, 10 digs) notched three of her six kills late to give Winnisquam a diverse offensive attack.

The third set proved similar, as the Bears led throughout and took advantage of two key blocks from Harmon en route to the 25-18 win that set up the back-and-forth fourth frame.

“We had some people in different positions and they did well, but we’re still working out some things throughout our lineup,” offered Schult.

Jess Lear finished with 25 assists for the Panthers, while Danielle LeBlanc added 10 assists. Duddy’s 16 kills and 23 digs led the way, while junior libero Carlee Morgan had a busy night in the back row and performed quite well with 30 digs. Mikayla Galipeault dropped in four aces and did a nice job filling in on the outside.

“I will say this team is very good overall at staying even-keeled and on track so hopefully that will continue to be the case even when we face some adversity,” Schult said.

Goodwin’s 16 kills and 13 digs powered the Bears, while St. Onge added 12 kills and seven assists. Matcheski (nine TILTON – Looking to go back-to-back in a series with major stakes on the line, the Winnisquam Regional High School boys' soccer team fell just short in its attempt for that elusive first win of the season on Friday.

The host Bears played even with visiting Newfound Regional High School for 80 minutes, but a goal from Newfound's Jarrod Fairbank with less than a minute remaining in the first sudden death overtime enabled the visitors to capture the Amy Dutton Memorial Cup with a 1-0 victory in Division III action.

“This game is so important to everyone here, with everything that Amy meant to our program,” explained Winnisquam head coach Nick D'Agostino. “Winning it last year (a 2-1 victory) was a big boost to everyone back then. We're still searching for that first win this year but this is very much a young team learning how to get better each game.”

With the game scoreless in overtime, Newfound (4-4-1) came through with the lone tally of the afternoon just before the whistle. Justin Shokal took a corner kick, and the ball was one-timed into the corner of the net by Fairbank for the 1-0 victory.

“I thought we played a much better second half and into overtime, but we gave (Newfound) a few too many chances late and eventually, a team like that is going to take advantage and put one away,” D'Agostino said.

The Bears (0-7) had their share of scoring chances in the second half. Connor Young's shot off a corner kick in the 47th minute was just wide, while Eddie Gallien nearly broke the scoreless tie in the 61st minute as he took a feed from Hunter Hinxman and broke in on the Newfound goal area. Gallien's blast from 15 yards out was poked away however, keeping the Bears searching for that elusive first tally.

Winnisquam goalkeeper Trevor Gray came up with two big saves late in regulation to keep the Bears alive, including a sliding stop of Fairbank at point blank range with just eight minutes remaining. He also turned away a shot destined for the back of the net early in OT by Cian Connor, aiding a defensive unit that played very well on the strength of senior captain Scott Hinds.

“Trevor made some big saves and I was really impressed with our defense,” said D'Agostino. “Scott did a great job keeping their strikers in check and limiting their opportunities as much as possible. The biggest thing for us is I'd like to see our offense get some more opportunities because we haven't been able to create all that much so far.”

Hinxman and Caiden Gamble, both coming off injuries, gave the Bears strong minutes off the bench, while the mid-field work of Patrick Welch also impressed on the afternoon.

It was yet another in a string of close losses for the Bears this season. In seven losses, Winnisquam has dropped five games by just one goal. The offense has struggled, scoring just three goals in those seven games. The regular season slate continues this week with games against Sanborn, Prospect Mountain, and Franklin.

“We haven't gotten the results we've wanted but I'm happy with the hard work of our team to this point,” D'Agostino said.

kills, 15 digs), Harmon (three blocks, two kills, three aces), Kerry Boyle (12 digs) and Madisyn Skeats (three kills, two blocks, five digs) all contributed in the victory.

“I've got girls who are hungry, who have played all year and want it now that it's their turn,” said Livernois. “And they're sponges. You tell them to do something and they do it.”

The teams will meet again for a highly-anticipated rematch in Moultonborough on Oct. 3.

Vote for Smart Investment Moves

The presidential election is little more than a month away. Like all elections, this one has generated considerable interest, and, as a citizen, you may well be following it closely. But as an investor, how much should you be concerned about the outcome?

Probably not as much as you might think. Historically, the financial markets have done well – and done poorly – under both Democratic and Republican administrations. Also, many factors affecting investment performance have little or nothing to do with the occupant of the White House. Consequently, no one can claim, with any certainty, that one candidate is going to be “better for the markets” than another one.

Still, this isn't to say that any given presidential administration will have no effect at all on investors. For example, a president could propose changes to the laws governing investments, and if Congress passes those laws, investors could be affected.

But in looking at the broader picture, there's not much evidence that a particular president is going to affect the overall return of your investment portfolio. As mentioned above, many factors – corporate earnings, interest rates, foreign affairs, even natural disasters – can and will influence the financial markets. But in evaluating a president's potential effect on your investments, you also need to consider something else: Our political system does not readily accommodate radical restructuring of any kind. So it's difficult for any president to implement huge policy shifts – and that's actually good for the financial markets, which, by their nature, dislike uncertainty, chaos and big changes.

The bottom line? From your viewpoint as an investor, don't worry too much about what happens in November. Instead, follow these investment strategies:

- Stay invested. If you stop investing when the market is down in an effort to cut your losses, you may miss the opportunity to participate in the next rally – and the early stages of a rally are typically when the biggest gains occur.
- Diversify. By spreading your dollars among an array of investments, such as stocks, bonds and other investments, you can help reduce the possibility of your portfolio taking a big hit if a market downturn primarily affected just one type of financial asset. Keep in mind though, that diversification can't guarantee profits or protect against all losses.
- Stay within your risk tolerance. Investing always involves risk, but you'll probably be more successful (and less stressed out) if you don't stray beyond your individual risk tolerance. At the same time, if you invest too conservatively, you might not achieve the growth potential you need to reach your goals. So you will need to strike an appropriate balance.

- Forget about chasing “hot” stocks. Many so-called “experts” encourage people to invest in today's “hot” stocks. But by the time you hear about them, these stocks – if they were ever “hot” to begin with – have probably already cooled off. More importantly, they might not have been suitable for your needs, anyway. In any case, there's really no “short cut” to investment success.

Elections – and even presidents – come and go. But when you “vote” for solid investment moves, you can help yourself make progress toward your financial goals.
