Community's support leaves Reneau family "beautifully overwhelmed"

BY DONNA RHODES

dirhodes@salmonpress.news

SANBORNTON – "I am beautifully overwhelmed," said Tom Reneau last Saturday at a community-wide affair to benefit his 35-year-old wife Amanda, who is battling cancer.

Amanda was recently diagnosed with Chondrosarcoma, a form of cancer that attacks the bone and surrounding soft tissue and does not respond well to treatment. In June, she underwent a 30-hour surgery, which took place in phases over the course of a few days and ultimately removed a more than five-pound tumor that encompassed an area from her pelvis to her tailbone and all the connecting nerves.

"It went well," Tom reported last weekend, adding that as part of the surgery doctors removed some of her fibula (a leg bone) to rebuild the pelvic area affected by the tumor. "She's been moved to a rehab center, and she's progressing well. She can stand up and even walk a little bit now. Every day gets a little better."

In an effort to help the family with mounting expenses, residents of Sanbornton rallied at the town park last weekend to raise funds through a day filled with food, music and love.

"Oh my gosh," Tom said as he was surrounded by friends and well-wishers. "This is all just a blessing."

Food for the event was provided by Rock House BBQ, which served up plates of pulled pork, brisket, sausage and Jamaican Jerk Chicken throughout the day. Owner Bill Wilcox of Sanbornton said he and his family donated the 650 lbs. of meat and gallons of other accompanying side dishes they prepared for the day so that all proceeds from the meals could go to the Reneau family.

"Rock House Barbecue is a part of our company Wilcox and Barton, Inc. with the mission of doing non-profit events like this. I like to cook and I like to give back to the community so about six or seven times a year, when we find the right cause, we bring this (food wagon) out to help raise money," Wilcox said.

DONNA RHODES

Tom Reneau and his son Tyler were overwhelmed to see how much support there was for their wife (and mother) Amanda at a special community run fundraising event last Saturday at Sanbornton Town Park.

Assisting him that day were his wife, who is an Emergency Room physician, local doctors and nurses she knows, and other members of the Wilcox family. Each of them generously donated their time to help prepare and serve the food.

Belmont celebrates 50 years of Old Home Day Road Race in August

BELMONT — On Saturday, Aug. 11, Belmont Old Home Day will celebrate with a theme of "Go the Distance" in honor of the 50th running of the Belmont 10-Mile Road Race.

The race was started decades ago by Sue Roberts, Bob St. Lawrence, and Ken Ellis. Both Roberts and St. Lawrence are no longer with us to help celebrate this milestone of the oldest road race in New Hampshire still run on the original course. The challenging race will start at 8:30 a.m., with registrations for the long distance race and the 30th Tioga Fun Run (starting at 8:45 a.m.) taking place in the parking lot of Belmont

Middle School on School Street. Forms are also available at Town Hall or online at <http://www.belmontnh.org/belmontoldhomeday.asp>. The kick off of the day will be the traditional Pancake Breakfast hosted by the First Baptist Church under the Tioga Pavilion on Mill St. at 7:30 a.m. and Flag Raising Ceremony near the library around 8 a.m.

Crafters, information booths, and concession stands will be set up near the Belmont Public Library until mid-afternoon with children's games and live entertainment on the bandstand. The band Back 2 Back (classics from the '60s '90s) <https://www.facebook.com/back2backbandnh/> will be on the bandstand at 10:30 am, leading up to the Parade on Main St. kicking off at 1 p.m. New to the parade this year will be an appearance of the NH Police Pipes and Drums and members of the New Hampshire Roller Derby. If you haven't experienced the action of roller derby live, then please check out their website at <http://nhrollerderby.com/> to catch their upcoming match in Manchester on July 15. We welcome all car, ATV, and motorcycle clubs to join us in the parade and also to set up an information booth to recruit new members. Parade, SEE ROAD RACE, PAGE A12

A July 4 accident left two people dead and others injured when three vehicles collided on Route 106 in Belmont near the town's Park and Ride facility. Two of the three vehicles were destroyed while the third sustained heavy damage to the back end.

July 4th accident leaves two dead, local woman seriously injured

dirhodes@salmonpress.news

BELMONT — Two local men were killed and a Belmont woman seriously injured on July 4 when a northbound vehicle suddenly veered into the southbound lane of Route 106 near the Belmont Park and Ride.

Police said that at 6:29 p.m. last Wednesday, 911 phone lines lit up with reports of a three-car collision with persons trapped in the vehicles, some with serious injuries, and fuel spilling out onto the highway.

Emergency responders from Belmont immediately determined the busy roadway would have to be shut down as they dealt with the situation. Assisting in the road closure were police from Laconia and Gilmanton, along with members of NHDOT. Off duty officers from Belmont were also called in to assist at the scene.

Belmont Police Capt. Richard Mann said accounts from eye witnesses, as well as physical evidence, have so far indicated that a 2007 Toyota Rav 4 was travelling northbound along Route 106 when it suddenly crossed into the other lane. In doing so, the vehicle struck the rear of a 2016 Hyundai Veloster. The impact consequently sent the Rav 4 into a spin in the southbound lane where it then collided head on with a Ford F-350 pick-up truck that was travelling behind the Hyundai.

Summer concerts bring music back to Tilton's Island Park

BY DONNA RHODES

dirhodes@salmonpress.news

TILTON – Island Park in Tilton is once again alive with the sounds of music on Sunday evenings where a variety of bands to suit everyone's taste can be heard.

The free concerts, now in their 26th year, are brought to the community each summer through generous sponsorships from local businesses and residents, honoring the legacy of Alan and Savina Hartwell who first envisioned music on the island, which is located in the Winnepesaukee River between the towns of Northfield and Tilton.

to fulfill her parent's dreams.

The 2018 season kicked off on July 1 with the Studio Two Beatles Tribute Band where the island rocked to classic Beatles tunes as people sang and danced along to their favorites.

Last Sunday it was the East Bay Show Band providing melo- SEE CONCERTS, PAGE A12

Early morning accident prompts closure of Route 3

TILTON – Many residents of Tilton received an early morning auto-call from the town on Monday, alerting them to the closure of Laconia Road in the Lochmere Village District due to a motor vehicle accident.

Tilton Police Capt. Ryan Martin reported that at approximately 5:40 a.m. on July 9, a 2009 Chevy driven by James Nelson, no age or address given, struck a utility pole on the corner of Laconia Road (Route 3) and Grange Road. While the vehicle had to be towed from the scene, there were no reported injuries to the driver.

That section of the busy road was closed for several hours during the morning commute however as utility crews installed a new pole and removed down lines so service to the area could be restored.

Police in Tilton were still investigating the cause of the accident on Monday evening. Anyone with information about the collision may contact TPD at 286-8207.

LRPC holds 2018 Annual Meeting

MEREDITH — The Lakes Region Planning Commission (LRPC) held its Annual Meeting last week on Monday, June 25, at 5 p.m. at Mill Falls at the Lake's Chase House in Meredith.

Chairman Wayne Crowley welcomed Commissioners and their guests, representatives of federal and state elected officials, municipal officials, and business leaders to the evening's packed, sold-out venue.

The Chair extended a very special welcome to the Town of Plymouth—located on the border between the two northernmost regional planning commissions—to change regional planning commissions.

After a buffet dinner, the election of officers took place with the current 12-member Executive Board re-elected to their respective positions: Officers Wayne Crowley of Northfield—Chair, John Ayer of Gilford—Vice Chair, Patricia Farley of Tamworth—Secretary, Barbara Perry of Moultonborough, Treasurer; Area Commissioners John Cotton of Andover, David Kerr of Barnstead, Jean Marshall of Freedom, and Robert Snelling of Holderness; and At Large Commissioners Dean Anson, II of Laconia, Steve Favorite of Bristol, Tony Giunta of Franklin, and Stephen Wingate of Tuftonboro. This year marks new term lengths of two years each, as amended and adopted in the Commission's by-laws last fall.

The evening featured the presentation of awards in three categories, led by Vice Chair John Ayer. The LRPC presented six Community Service Awards to honor eight individuals for a wide array of projects and initiatives, unwavering commitment, and countless hours of volunteer service to their communities, and thereby the greater region as a whole: Kathy Barnard of Wolfeboro, William "Bill" Dowey of Bristol, Gretchen and Barry Draper of New Hampton, Mary Phelps of Chocorua (Tamworth), Nancy Piper of Center Tuftonboro, and Todd Workman and Marty Parichand of Franklin. For more Award winner coverage, please visit the LRPC online at www.LakesRPC.org.

The Tamworth Village Association was recognized by the LRPC with its Award of Excellence for their septic system replacement project.

Finally, the LRPC presented Lisa Eggleston of Meredith—as the 29th recipient in 30 years—with The Kim Ayers Award for her stewardship of the water quality and sustainability of Lake Winnisquam and leadership as founding member of the Winnisquam Watershed Network. The Ayers award has been given annually since 1988 in memory of scientist, conservationist, and former LRPC Commissioner B. Kimball Ayers, Jr. of Moultonborough, who faithfully and persistently worked to maintain and improve the environmental quality of the Lakes Region of New Hampshire in the areas of water quality, wetland preservation, and wildlife habitat.

Executive Director Jeff Hayes introduced keynote speaker George Bald, who is current Chair of the Lakeshore Redevelopment Association and former Commissioner of the New Hampshire Department of Resources and Economic Development, as well as past Executive Director of the Peace Development Authority and a former three-term mayor of Somersworth. Affirming the use of regional planning, his profoundly positive message touched on local and regional challenges such as the relationship between economy and environment, brownfields redevelopment, and long-term commitment to one's community. He concluded his remarks by stressing that relationships are primary while all else secondary—in that each individual in a community acts as a de facto ambassador for his or her community, unwittingly or not, so we owe it to the places we live and work to always put our best forward, despite the unique challenges or handicaps a community may face.

LRPC's Annual Meeting was generously sponsored in part by: The Gilbert Block Company/Techo-Bloc, Meredith Village Savings Bank, Nobis Engineering, Bank of New Hampshire, Northeast Delta Dental, Pike Industries, Inc., Samy-D'Elia Architects, P.A., White Mountain Survey & Engineering, Inc., and the Irwin Automotive Group.

Disposing of common items: Latex paint, unused meds, and electronics

REGION — The Lakes Region Planning Commission (LRPC) will be holding the annual Household Hazardous Waste (HHW) Collections later this summer (July 28 and Aug. 4). However, there are some materials that we do NOT ACCEPT at these collections, including latex paint (water-based), unused medications, and electronics. So, what can you do with these materials?

Leftover latex paint: Use the paint up on other smaller projects or donate it to a local organization that could use the paint such as a theater group, school, recreational group, camp, or friends, neighbors, family, or even a local paint contractor. If you can't find a place to donate it, see if your local transfer station facility will accept it at their swap shop.

Latex paint is generally good for up to ten years, and you can determine whether it is still useable by stirring it, and wiping on newspaper. If there are lumps in the paint, then the paint is old and should be dried out and thrown it out in the trash, as it is not considered toxic waste. To help dry out paint, mix in clay-based kitty litter in a ratio of two parts kitty litter to one part paint. Many hardware stores now sell "paint hardener" for this purpose. Some people mix newspaper or sawdust with the paint to speed up the drying time.

Unused Medications: Unused medications entering local water sources can cause damage to the health of the community and aquatic life. The two main options for proper disposal are at one of the dozen different drop box locations around the Lakes Region or at the Lakes Region Household Hazardous Product Facility in Wolfeboro.

Currier-Sanborn Conservation Area purchased by Belmont Conservation Commission

BELMONT — The Belmont Conservation Commission (BCC) announces its purchase of the Currier-Sanborn Conservation Area, a significant parcel of conservation land between Silver Lake, the Winnepesaukee River, and Northfield.

The property was purchased from the Sanborn Family Trust, descendants of the long-time owners of the property for $125,000. The BCC used monies from the Conservation Fund as well as grant funding to help offset costs to the Town. Grants were received from the Land and Community Heritage Investment Program (LCHIP), the New Hampshire Dept. of Environmental Services Aquatic Resource Mitigation Program (ARM), and a State Conservation Committee Conservation Grant (Moose Plate).

Highlights of the 85-acre property are its half-mile frontage along the Winnepesaukee River, a significant marsh/flood-plain forest that ranks as “most significant wildlife habitat in the state,” a portion of the Tioga River, frontage on Silver Lake and it abuts another conservation parcel – the Tioga River Wildlife and Conservation Area previously purchased by the Town. Together the parcels total 273 acres. The property is a mixture of woodlands, marsh, and floodplain-forest. As are all of the BCC managed properties, it is open to passive recreation, hunting, and fishing.

The Five Rivers Conservation Trust (5RCT) holds a conservation easement on both of these parcels, collectively known as The Tioga Marsh, ensuring their undeveloped, protected status forever. 5RCT, headquartered in Concord, New Hampshire, is a non-profit organization dedicated to conserving open space across the greater Capital Region of New Hampshire.

LCHIP awarded Belmont a $57, 227 grant for the property’s protection. LCHIP is an independent state authority that makes matching grants to New Hampshire communities and non-profits to conserve and preserve New Hampshire’s most important natural, cultural and historic resources.

The ARM grant of $42,496 was awarded based on the protection value of the wetland and contributing upland on the property. The ARM fund is collected from applicants who have impacted significant wetlands where on-site mitigation is not possible and have made an in-lieu fee.

The BCC received a $7,500 Moose Plate Grant to offset the administrative costs of the conservation easement. The New Hampshire Conservation License Plate (Moose Plate) Program supports the protection of critical resources in New Hampshire, including scenic lands, historic sites and artifacts, plants and wildlife.

The BCC Conservation Fund receives 100 percent of the Land Use Change Tax, the 10% market value penalty when land is converted from Current Use. The Commission has used the Fund to protect a number of significant properties throughout town since it was established. The BCC manages just about 700 acres of property that has either been purchased or given to the Town. Properties fronting on the Tioga River have special significance to the BCC’s conservation priorities.

Disney’s “Lion King Jr.” coming to Tilton

TILTON — This weekend, One Light Theatre wants you to “Be Prepared” to see Disney’s “The Lion King, Jr.” onstage! As part of One Light’s Performing Arts Summer Camp, 23 children ages five to 14 will be taking on the iconic roles of Simba, Timon, Pumba, and Scar (among many others) to perform the stage version of the 1994 film. The production, modified for children of all ages to perform, includes all your favorite songs such as “Can You Feel the Love Tonight,” “Circle of Life,” and of course, “Hakuna Matata.” Will you “Be Prepared” to see this exciting production?

This is the second year that camp director David Sheehy has led this educational program.

“This year’s team is super solid,” Sheehy said. “I believe audiences will be incredibly impressed with not only the sets and costumes, but also the caliber of production these campers will be able to produce in only a week. This year we were even able to split our summer camp into two different weeks with two completely different productions.”

That’s right, “The Lion King, Jr.” is only one of One Light Theatre’s two weeks of performing arts summer camps. “The Lion King” will be immediately followed by “Charlotte’s Web,” a production performed the next weekend at the same times. The immense growth of One Light’s summer education program is very much thanks to its partnership with the brand new Tilton School Summer Institute. This Franklin VNA & Hospice would like to make summer safety a priority this month!

FRANKLIN — There are so many fun things that we do in the summer months, it’s easy to forget some of the things we all need to do to keep everyone safe, healthy and enjoying the summer! July is the perfect time to take a moment to make a to-do safety list!

Swimming is the most popular summer activity, but can be extremely dangerous! Franklin VNA & Hospice wants to make water safety your priority by giving you some simple tips. Enroll everyone in age appropriate swim lessons. Contact the Franklin Parks & Recreation at 934-2118 to learn more about swim lessons in Franklin. Ensuring that everyone in the family can swim well is an important first step. Now follow it up with only swimming in designated areas supervised by lifeguards. Use the buddy system, even at public pools or lifeguarded beaches! Never leave a young child unattended near water, not even with another child to watch over them! Always teach children to ask permission to go near water. Young children or inexperienced swimmers should always wear U.S. Coast Guard approved life jackets when around water. If you go boating, no matter how experienced a swimmer you are, everyone should wear a life jacket – most boating fatalities occur from drowning, and one half of those fatalities occur in calm water, according to the U.S. Coast Guard.

Sun safety is very important as well! Always remember to dress for the weather by wearing loose-fitting, light colored clothing made from breathable fabrics. Stay hydrated! Drink plenty of cool non-alcoholic drinks, especially water, before you feel thirsty. This will decrease your risk of dehydration. Protect your eyes from UV rays by wearing sunglasses. Limit the amount of time you spend in the sun especially between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. Use sunscreen with an SPF of at least 15 that is labeled as be-

STRATEGIES FOR LIVING

Two choices

BY LARRY SCOTT

Two choices in life. That is all we have. On these two choices hinge everything else. Either there is a God ... or there isn't. And it is a matter of choice, a perspective on reality that impacts everything we think and do.

God, at least the God of the Bible, never attempts to prove Himself. He simply acts. But that's the problem. When He acts He uses normal means, regular people, life circumstances to execute His will. You never know for sure. Was it God? Or was it circumstantial? That all depends on your perspective.

You say there is no God and live accordingly. Do as you please, live for today, develop your dreams, minimize the consequences. You go around only once, so enjoy life for all it is worth. Since there is no God, there is no tomorrow. This is your heaven; this is as good as it gets!

But hold on ... there is more to this issue. If you will go to the Bible in search of tangible evidence you will soon discover a unique perspective. The Bible never attempts to prove God; it just takes Him for granted.

The New Testament book of Hebrews tells of men - Noah, Abraham, and Moses - who knew God on a personal level. God spoke to them, and used them, in ways we find unbelievable. And yet, the writer goes on to say they did not receive "what had been promised since God had planned something better for us so that only together with us they would be made perfect."

Come again? They also had to live by faith, without provable, tangible, evidence that God was there. Yes, you read it right. They did not receive that which had been promised, at least not in this life. They also had to live by faith, without provable, tangible, evidence that God was there. But they stayed the course, they kept the faith. They chose to believe.

And, they discovered that God did not play them for fools. He had the audacity to send His own Son to settle the issue for them and for people like you and me. He gave us Jesus, and Jesus is all the evidence anyone needs.

Unless, of course, they don't want to believe. In the words of Philosopher Thomas Nagel, "It isn't that I don't believe in God, and naturally hope that I'm right. It's that I hope there is no God. I don't want there to be a God; I don't want the universe to be like that" (The Last Word, p. 130).

Life without God, however, is no cakewalk. Without the limitations God imposes, we self-destruct. "After desire has conceived," the Bible says, "it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death." A godless life is a dead-end street, a journey to nowhere.

I began life with two choices. I chose to believe in Jesus and the God He came to proclaim. In the words of the Apostle Paul, written just a short time before his execution by the Roman Emperor Nero, "I have fought the good fight. ... I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord ... will award to me on that day." That is my dream as well ... and I can hardly wait!

PET OF THE WEEK

ANTON

Wandering alone in Laconia back in March, when the weather was still cold, there was still snow on the ground, and life on the streets would have been fraught with danger of starvation and dehydration. This stately black cat arrived under Police escort with a rather sweet note that mentioned he had 'tiny ears'.

We've christened him Anton, he is calm and sweet, gentle, laid back, happy to be indoors where food is plentiful and humans are kind.

Anton awaits his next chapter enjoying the social rooms of the shelter, and our Catio, a nicely appointed three-season porch area. He likes the high spots to relax in and really is an easy keeper. Being a little older means Anton isn't that interested in running about the place, leaping off furniture or scaling the drapes at 2.00a.m like a rambunctious kitten. What he is interested in doing, for hours at time, like a big cat on the Serengeti, is relaxing and napping until dusk and supper time!

Anton tested positive for the Feline Immunodeficiency Virus, FIV- but we are able to confidently place him in a home, and he could live quite peacefully with other felines without compromising their health and vigor. He seems unconcerned about the barking of dogs, and the patter of children; truly, he's a family cat in the waiting. Please visit this handsome black cat - seeing his paws poking out of the cat tree he likes best, surely will enamor you! For more information check www.nhhumane.org

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Join the party and volunteer to help at Old Home Day

To the Editor:

The Old Home Day Committee has met since early spring to give the town a party - Old Home Day on Saturday, July 21. Please put it on your calendars! Look for a longer article in this paper's pages.

When I visited the fourth and fifth grades in early June, I heard happy reminiscences about the lemonade stand (run by John Shay and his parents) - this year, maybe someone will step forward to run it for a charity-cause? Kudos went to our Fire Station crew who set up hose for kids to try and a fire truck set out for "touch a truck." Popular too was the Balloon-Burst-Booth loaned to us by Franklin Savings Bank and run last year by teens from Mountain View Church, wetting down some volunteer victims for a "donation" into the hat.

The fifth graders had a good idea for something new that still needs a parent or adult to manage - a "Toy Swap." Bring a good toy you're done with and trade it for another you'd like to have. Free books were asked for - we can provide those from our Transfer Station's wealth of children's books. Or bring some from home to give away at the "Toy Swap" canopy in library field. Who will adopt "Toy Swap?"

Free cake slices - Old Town Hall event - served out with Rock Salt Creamery's cashew-based ice cream (we provide raspberry sorbet, too, no nuts); we can use a few more cake bakers. Those cakes need to be at Old Town Hall by 9 a.m. Call if you need your cake picked up (Lynn at 934-6486). So, these are a few loose ends.

If you want to help out with for-charity lemonade sales, or manage a "Toy Swap" for the kids, or bake a cake, or dream up a family or group parade entry - theme - "Sanbornton, Rural Paradise" - give co-chairs Lynn or Grita a call. Lynn at 934-6486; Grita at 286-3129.

Sincerely,
Lynn Rudmin Chong

Wow---that guy in the old movie is me

By JOHN HARRIGAN
COLUMNIST

Confinement is my worst nightmare, but if you have to be confined it's a pretty good deal to have television and books. As to the former, I can attest that Newt Minow's dismissal of the medium as "a vast wasteland" is still accurate. As for the latter, I'll never run out of books. People and publishing houses are always sending me new publications to review, even though I've never really been known as a book reviewer. And my local library and the state Bookmobile are great and seemingly inexhaustible resources.

I'm into television mainly for movies and breaking news (although these days everything seems to be "breaking news," no matter how mundane). In the movie category, I prefer older movies because they were so well written and so well made, with detailed and historically accurate sets and an actual story line that made sense. And in some of those old movies lately I've been seeing a bit character that is, well... me.

That would be the guy in the cops and robbers flicks with the big "Press" sticker in his fedora and an incredibly bulky camera. I never wore a fedora, eschewing hats in general, but I sure did lug the camera around.

When I started at the Nashua Telegraph in 1968, the first camera that mentor Mike Shalhoup shoved into my hands was a 4 by 5 Speed Graphic. The "4 by 5" part referred to the size of the film. Today's photographers, accustomed to 35 mm film, might say something like "Wow." No, wait--they'd probably say "What's film?"

Digital cameras are so fast and forgiving that they've made photography a whole new world. You can instantly see what you've shot, and if it's not up to snuff, shoot a few more. In that vein, there is utterly no such thing as "shutter discipline" any more.

However, some of the old rules still apply. You need to pay attention to the direction of light, and what kind of light it is. And attention to foreground and background and framing your shot are still requisites of the trade. You don't take a good picture, you make it.

The old Speed Graphics were cumbersome affairs, weighing in at something like six pounds. The model I used had a Zeiss Ikon lens the size of a silver dollar. Used with the correct film, it took excellent images that would stand up to the blowing up of even a small section, with remarkable detail and virtually no grain.

Along with the camera I carried a big canvas shoulder bag, to carry the film holders. You had two shots per holder. SEE NOTEBOOK, PAGE A11

Craig Pursley, award-winning oil artist, to speak to the Lakes Region Art Association

TILTON — On Monday, July 16, artist Craig Pursley, of Bath, will speak to the Lakes Region Art Association (LRAA) at their meeting that evening at 7 p.m.

Pursley has won several awards for his oils at various art shows around the country, including the Scottsdale Artist Show in Arizona and the Oil Painters of America 2018 National Salon Show in Ohio. He will also be displaying of number of his award winning paintings as part of his presentation. He was recently chosen by New Hampshire Magazine as “Best White Mountain Artist” and has two portraits on permanent display in the State House in Concord.

He will be speaking on his more than 60 years in art, from beginning with drawing when he was three, to doing an eight-foot-by-24-foot mural in high school, to the frustration of being a realist in college art classes in the '70s, as well as covering various other artistic experiences.

Pursley and his wife moved to Bath in 2002 after visiting the state to see the fall foliage and falling in love with the area. They opened their American Heritage Gallery of Art there, which also serves as his art studio. His artwork is also displayed in several other galleries and in collections all over the US and in several other countries, including a mural in the Reagan Presidential Library and a small painting in the Baseball Hall of Fame permanent collection.

He feels he has been very fortunate to have had supportive parents who knew nothing about art (they were bankers) and several lucky connections, as well as some terrific mentors, all of which he will be discussing in more detail in his presentation. Despite his successes and awards, he continues trying very hard to learn, grow and improve, knowing that he cannot live long enough to become the painter he wishes to be/

The presentation, which will be held at the LRAA Art Gallery, Suite 132, in the Tanger Outlets in Tilton, should be of particular interest to both artists and those who appreciate art. It is free and open to the public.

Fabulous '50s Month continues on LRPA with “The Limping Man”

LACONIA — Throughout July, Lakes Region Public Access Television will feature four films from the fabulous '50's, a decade known in cinema, for many things, including the end of the Hollywood musical; the “Red Scare” and blacklisting of screenwriters; film noir standouts; and Cold War/atomic panic. Join us each Friday and Saturday night at 10:30 p.m. as we salute this remarkable decade. This weekend (July 13 & 14) we'll show 1953's rarely seen British noir-ish crime drama The Limping Man, starring Lloyd Bridges, Moira Lister and Alan Wheatley. This film was directed by American screenwriter and author Cy Endfield under the pseudonym of “Charles de Lautour.” May 24 & 25: 1957's Attack of the Crab Monsters

o"-style siege tale based on the battle of Roarke's Drift, a British outpost in southern Africa that famously survived an assault by native Zulu warriors in 1879. Inspired by true events, “Zulu” is notable for featuring a young Michael Caine in one of his earliest starring roles.

Of “The Limping Man,” a reviewer wrote: “This film has more twists and turns than a roller coaster – and you'll love every minute of it!” So grab your popcorn and meet us after dark for this surprising noir thriller crime thriller from the past.

Mark your calendars for all of July's Fabulous Fifties Films:

July 20 & 21: 1950's “Panic in the Streets”

May 24 & 25: 1957's “Attack of the Crab Monsters”

Dayle Harbour Auger, 61

NORTHFIELD — Dayle Harbour Auger, 61, peacefully passed away on Tuesday, June 19, 2018 at her home in Ayden, N.C. with her family by her side, following a short battle with cancer.

Dayle was born in Franklin on Dec. 1, 1956, daughter of the late Harold P. and Beverly A. (Middleton) Harbour. Dayle graduated from Winnisquam Regional High School in 1974. She was a resident of Northfield for 61 years prior to a recent move to North Carolina to be with her daughter Kimmy and her family. Dayle was a dedicated employee who drove bus for Harbour Transportation for 16 years, and she just recently retired from the New Hampshire Veterans Home after 26 years of service.

DAYLE AUGER

Dayle was an avid Red Sox Fan who enjoyed spending time with her family and grandchildren, shopping, baking cookies and making people laugh. Dayle was an amazing friend, who was known for her sense of humor and kind hearted spirit. Dayle had a smile that could brighten a room.

Dayle leaves behind her former husband, Paul Auger; son Matthew Auger and granddaughter Martina of Northfield; and her daughter Kimmy and husband Troy Peele and grandchildren Tanner and Camdyn of Ayden, N.C.

Dayle was predeceased by her parents, Harold and Beverly Harbour, along with brother David and sister Debra. Dayle also leaves behind her sisters, Diane, Donna, Drina, brother Duane and many amazing in-laws, nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held Sunday, July 15, 2-4 p.m. at 19 Hidden Lane, Northfield. In Lieu of flowers donations can be made to NHVH Resident Benefit fund; In Memory of Dayle Auger, 139 Winter St., Tilton, NH 03276.

Dudley S. Dean II, 84

Dudley Dean

NORTHFIELD — Dudley S. Dean II, 84, of Northfield, died peacefully at CRVNA Hospice House in Concord on July 3, 2018 with his family at his side.

He was born in Detroit, Mich. on Sept. 14, 1933, the son of Joshua Reynolds Dean and Marion (Wolfe) Dean where he lived in Grosse Ile, Mich. before moving to Northfield at the age of 12.

Raised in both New Hampshire and Massachusetts, he graduated from Tilton-Northfield High School in 1953. As a young boy, his greatest memories were fondly remembered traveling by train and spending much time and endless memorable hours in the orchards with his late grandfather Dudley S. Dean of Cohasset, Mass.

Dudley resided in Webster for many years raising his family, then later in 2005 building his home and living out the remainder of his life in Northfield.

Before serving in the US Air Force as Airman 1st Class from 1953 through 1957, he tried out for the Boston Red Sox, where his love of baseball continued throughout his years and thereafter playing locally.

He had a great passion for the outdoors and turned that love into a career for over 40 years, working for, then retiring from the State of New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services doing what he believed in doing his best by keeping New Hampshire water ways pristine and in their natural state making him well-known in his field and respected by many.

Dudley, Dear Dad, was an independent man and found a great love in teaching and sharing his passions of vast knowledge with those around him. Amongst boating, deep sea fishing, field training his beloved Labrador Retrievers and all that encompasses the great outdoors and wildlife, his greatest passions were trains & baseball which he was able to later share with his great grandson, Mason.

He was a member of American Legion Whiteman-Davidson Post 49 and was a communicant of St. Mary of The Assumption Church in Tilton.

Family members include the love of his life, Shirley R (Hibbard) Dean; his two children, Heidi A (Dean) Stoddard and her husband, Perley H. Stoddard, Jr. of South Danbury, and his son Dudley (Dooley) S Dean III of Northfield; his granddaughter, Taryn N. (Stoddard) Johnson, her husband Joshua R. Johnson; and his two great grandsons that he adored, Mason Quinn and Jacob Hollis Johnson, all of New London; stepchildren, Sharron A. Silver of Alton, Carol A. Silver of Newport, and William (Bill) Silver and his wife, Linda (Cate) Silver of Colebrook; several step grandchildren and great grandchildren; two sisters, Barbara (Dean) McDowell of Northfield and Bebe (Dean) Lahey and her husband Michael of Laconia; two nephews, James (Jamie) McDowell of Northfield and Joshua Lahey of Laconia and niece Kate (Lahey) Conely of Laconia. Also included is his dear cousin Diana (Hunt) Thomas of Bedford, Mass.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, July 10, 2018 at 11 a.m. in Paquette-Neun Funeral Home, 104 Park St., Northfield. There was a celebration of Dudley's life following thereafter at his home in Northfield. A private burial was in Corser Hill Cemetery, Webster, for family the following day.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in memory of Dudley S Dean II to the New Hampshire Timber Owners Association (NHTOA) 54-118 Portsmouth St., Concord, NH 03301 And or the Northfield Historical Society, 21 Summer St., Northfield, NH 03276

MARK ON THE MARKETS

Still bull, or bear?

BY MARK PATTERSON

As the Wolfeboro Fourth of July parade is happening outside of my office at this time, I am inspired to give you my opinions on the global markets sitting in what I believe is the greatest country, with the best form of government and the best economic environment for those who want better for their families. I'm not going to delve into to politics because I have friends and clients on the right and left whose perspective on our current president is 180 degrees apart.

The business cycle low is known as the trough, and the height is known as the peak. Knowing where you are in the business cycle is very difficult, and only obvious in hindsight. Coming out of the 2008 trough, the economy experienced a very slow recovery which has, I believe, peaked this last December 2017. Now, I could be wrong, and we may still be on an upward momentum, but years from now, I believe looking back in the rearview mirror, we will see that the economic and market peak happened at that time. If you recall, US equity markets had a mild correction in January due to a quick jump in interest rates. That initially spooked our stock market and didn't help the bond market. When interest rates rise, bond prices fall in an inverse relationship. Whether it is because the federal reserve has moved short-term interest rates up or the talk of trade war and tariffs really doesn't matter. The business cycle or economic cycle is just that, a cycle of peaks and troughs. One indication of pending recession is the flattening and potential inversion of the yield curve; that is, when short-term rates become higher than long-term rates. Statistically, an inverted yield curve gives us a 70 percent probability of a recession. Just because the last recession, which had its trough or low point in 2008, was very bad for a lot of reasons, which had to do with securitized subprime mortgages, doesn't mean that a pending recession must be nearly as bad.

So statistically, we know that all things return to the mean, or the average. For instance, when the stock market gets ahead of itself, it will correct downward. Markets that fall will eventually recover and move back up in a reversion to the mean.

So, when you are investing money, your time horizon must be long enough to wait for recovery. If your time horizon is not at least 10 years, you should not be exposed to that risk to any great extent.

In 2007, when almost everyone was still bullish on the economy, I believed and stated in writing, that we were heading into a global recession. I thought it was obvious then simply because the economy had gotten so far ahead of itself that it had to revert to the mean, and the farther away from the mean you move, the farther you must return to get back to the mean. In other words, if an economy, stock market, bond market, commodity market or currency gets too far ahead or behind itself, the correction will be that much more dramatic!

I believe our US equity markets topped out in December 2017 ending about a nine-year run for the bulls, but that doesn't mean we will not have rallies that are typically lower highs and lower lows

I also believe that there still good opportunity and equities around the world, you just need to be cautious and pick the right sectors and companies. If you need income from your investments, a well-constructed bond portfolio of individual bonds managed with a potentially inverted yield curve in mind can stabilize your portfolio and provide current income. If we are heading into a mild recession, you might even see capital gain in those bonds.

Diversify your investment portfolio using "modern portfolio theory," utilizing low to non-correlated asset classes in a portfolio that has a low fee structure, mitigating risk, and maximizes return.

DONNA RHODES

Boating, beaches and barbecues highlighted a steamy Fourth of July this year in central New Hampshire, but for little Carter, who will be two next month, monster bubbles in his grandparent's backyard was the best way to celebrate the holiday.

Lakes Region Community College to host open house July 18

LACONIA —Lakes Region Community College is hosting an open house Wednesday, July 18 from 5 to 7 p.m. at their Laconia campus. Admission is free, and faculty and staff representing each program and department will be on hand to answer questions and help students through the process, from start to finish.

"This event offers a perfect opportunity for anyone interested in going to college to come and see what LRCC has to offer, ask questions, and meet with faculty and staff," President Dr. Larissa Baía said. "Explore options for enrolling in our fall semester or in an accelerated eight- or 12-week term as a full-time or part-time student."

Attendees will also have the opportunity to take a campus tour, check out campus housing, learn about the financial aid process, and complete an application for admission for the Fall 2018 semester.

Lakes Region Community College offers many associate degree and certificate programs including Business, Accounting, Culinary Arts, Hospitality Management, Electrical, Automotive, Nursing, Graphic Design, Advanced Manufacturing, and Fire Science just to name a few. Business and industry training programs are also available.

Lakes Region Community College is a fully-accredited, comprehensive community college located in the Lakes Region of New Hampshire that serves more than 1,200 students annually. In addition, LRCC provides a strong background in Liberal Arts for students who choose to do their first two years at a community college and then transfer to a four-year college or university for a baccalaureate degree. LRCC is part of the Community College System of New Hampshire. For more information, contact Carlene Rose at 366-5225.

Lakes Region Elite Basketball starts its first season

BY ERIN PLUMMER

mnews@salmonpress.news

GILFORD — Young basketball players all over the Lakes Region have the chance to shine and hone their skills over the summer in the new Lakes Region Elite league.

Lakes Region Elite is a 10-week program for boys and girls ages eight and 11 at the Gilford Youth Center. In its first year, they have 45 players on five different teams with kids coming from communities such as Gilford, Laconia, Gilmanton, Belmont, Barnstead, Alton, and more.

"It's a great experience for the kids to play basketball, continue their game," said referee and GYC director Scott Hodsdon.

Hodsdon said most of the kids in the program have taken part in school and parks and recreation basketball leagues.

Kids took part in trials at the beginning of the program and were evaluated on their skills. The kids were then put into different competitive teams: the Gators, the Mambas, the Renegades, the Jaguars, and the Vipers.

The players will practice during the week and play a game at the end of the week. Players get their own jerseys and team photos as well as the chance to win different trophies. The league's Web site has player and team stats along with photos and highlight videos.

Kids can hone their playing skills over the summer in a positive and competitive environment. Hodsdon also said the league is meant to be a stepping stone for the kids to play Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) basketball when they're older and play with some of the local teams. Hodsdon said Lakes Region Elite gives the players a taste of what AAU basketball is like.

"The ultimate goal is for Lakes Region Elite to grow every year," Hodsdon said.

He said he would also like for this to become a traveling team.

Richard Bushnell of Gilmanton is the coach for the Vipers. He is also coaches for Gilmanton and Gilford Boys AAU.

He said coaching for Lakes Region Elite has been a learning experience and he enjoys working with the kids.

"They all try hard, just getting them to try hard in games as well as practice," Bushnell said.

Barry Uicker of Gilford coaches the Gators for Lakes Region Elite and is also a coach for Gilford Recreation and the All Star Team.

"The skill level's a little higher and the game play is a lot more team oriented and competitive," Uicker said of Lakes Region Elite. "I think it's well run and the kids are great players and the kids are great sports too."

Gators player Mark Uicker of Gilford said playing on the league has been really fun.

"It's a lot more challenging," Mark said. "It's like the better players of the Lakes Region, that makes it a lot more harder."

Vipers player Spencer Bushnell of Gilmanton said he enjoys playing with kids he plays against on other teams.

Sanbornton rest area building closed for renovations

SANBORNTON — The New Hampshire Department of Transportation (NHDOT) and New Hampshire Department of Business and Economic Affairs (BEA) announce the planned temporary closure of the main building at the Sanbornton Welcome and Information Center on I-93 southbound, beginning at noon on Monday, July 9, and reopening on Friday, July 20 at noon.

Parking areas and the vending building will remain open during the closure of the main building. This closure is due to planned work on the sidewalks and main entrance to the building, and is part of a Statewide Welcome and Information Center Improvements project. Motorists are encouraged to plan ahead for this closure.

D.L. King & Associates, Inc. of Nashua, New Hampshire is the prime contractor for the project, which has a final completion date of Nov. 30.

FSB hosts Customer Appreciation Day in Franklin

Event will take place July 13 at the bank's upper Central Street location

FRANKLIN — Franklin Savings Bank will host a customer appreciation day event on Friday, July 13 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at its Franklin office located at 933 Central St.

"We look forward to hosting our customer appreciation days each summer," said Joseph Thornton, SVP, Retail Banking Officer. "This annual tradition provides us with an opportunity to have meaningful conversations with our customers, so we can learn more about their experience with us. With all the banking choices available today, holding these types of events is another way to thank our customers for choosing to do business with us."

Customers will enjoy a delicious BBQ, a chance to win some cool prizes, partake in games, as well as enter a raffle for a chance to win tickets to a Fisher Cats baseball game at Northeast Delta Dental Stadium.

Spaulding Youth Center receives donation from Pair-A-Dice Tattoo Company

NORTHFIELD — Spaulding Youth Center is happy to announce it was recently selected as the recipient of a $150 donation from Pair-A-Dice Tattoo Company, LLC., located in Tilton. The check presentation came from owner Mike Weatherbee in support of Ink4Autism and Autism Awareness Month.

Ink4Autism is a fundraising campaign that encourages tattoo shops and artists to partner with local non-profit autism charities, programs or organizations to help support those on the autism spectrum during Autism Awareness Month, which falls during April each year. Each location can choose the length and details of their fundraising participation.

Pair-A-Dice Tattoo Company participated in the Ink4Autism campaign for the second time this year. For the entire month of April, patrons were invited to show their support of Ink4Autism by getting a tattoo related to autism awareness at Pair-A-Dice Tat-

Edward Jones: Financial Focus

Help Protect Vulnerable Family Members from Scam Artists

If you have older family members whose cognitive functions or decision-making abilities have declined, or who are lonely or recently widowed, you might need to help protect them against financial scams. What steps should you take?

First of all, try to gain a good sense of their overall financial activity. Look for red flags, such as a reluctance to discuss money matters, consistently unpaid bills, unexplained withdrawals, mysterious wire transfers or a sudden need to purchase large quantities of gift cards. And watch out for new "best friends" or caretakers who show an unusual interest in your loved one's finances.

Whether or not you've observed any of these activities, you can help your elderly family members by making these moves:

Have checks (such as Social Security payments) directly deposited. You can help your family members avoid a lot of potential trouble by having their checks deposited directly into their bank accounts.

Seek permission to become a joint account owner. By becoming a joint account owner on your elderly family members' checking and savings accounts, you can review statements for suspicious activity. Of course, your loved ones may be initially reluctant to add your name, but if you have a good relationship with them, you should be able to explain the benefits.

Shred bank statements, credit card offers and notices of lottery or sweepstakes winnings. One of the most useful gifts you can give to your elderly family members may be a shredder. Encourage them to use it to shred old bank statements, credit card offers and other financial documents.

Get on a "do not call" list. Telephone scammers are persistent and devious. By registering your family members' house and cell phones at www.donotcall.gov, you may be able to reduce their exposure to unwanted calls.

Obtain power of attorney. By creating a power of attorney, your loved ones can designate you or another trusted relative or friend to assist with their finances now – for day-to-day assistance and protection from scammers – and later, should they become incapacitated. Again, you will need to employ some sensitivity when discussing this issue.

Check references of caretakers. As mentioned above, some caretakers are, unfortunately, dishonest. Before you hire one, check out this person's references. And even when you do, be careful – scam artists have been known to use accomplices as references, so you will need to be thorough in your research and questions.

Get to know your family members' financial advisors. If possible, become acquainted with your older family members' financial advisors. Any reputable advisor will welcome a connection with their clients' loved ones. And if you are involved in any estate plans, this multi-generational relationship will prove beneficial for everyone.

Ask to meet any new "friends" they have met online. When someone is lonely, they become vulnerable to online friendships. Sometimes, these new friends make promises of meeting, but never show – and then they suddenly need money for one reason or another.

It can be challenging to guard against all threats posed by the scammers of the world. But by staying alert and taking the appropriate preventive actions, you may be able to help safeguard your loved ones' financial security.

Chickens have arrived at Prescott Farm!

LACONIA — Prescott Farm Environmental Education Center is excited to welcome chickens back to the Farm! Five chickens arrived from Orange, Mass. — a gift from the daughter of one of the field teachers. Settling into the new hen house are three Golden Comets and two New Hampshire Reds, all about one year old and in prime laying condition.

“I am excited to reintegrate farm animals into our programming,” says Sarah Dunham-Milliotis, Program Director at Prescott Farm. “Not only will we be able to use the eggs for some of our upcoming camps and other programs, chickens provide other benefits to a Farm, such as fertilizing the ground and insect suppression, including ticks.”

The flock will be the basis for a new volunteer service learning opportunity and public program, Keeping Chickens, taking place on Saturday, June 30, from 10 a.m. — noon. Using the small flock as a model Prescott Farm’s environmental educators will teach you about chicken housing, food and water requirements, egg collection and more. You will be ready to start your own backyard flock, or become a Prescott Farm volunteer to help take care of theirs. For more information and to register, visit prescottfarm.org.

The chickens will also provide learning opportunities for Prescott Farm’s Fledglings Nature-Based Preschool and WildQuest campers, aged four to 14, at Prescott Farm’s WildQuest Camps year-round. The eggs will be used in various public programs, including the upcoming Farmhouse Kitchen series, and cooking projects with campers. Volunteers are needed to help care for the chickens year-round, and WildQuest campers and Fledglings preschoolers will also be assisting.

Prescott Farm is a nonprofit 501c3 dedicated to environmental education and preservation. For more than twenty years, Prescott Farm has been a destination for people of all ages to learn about New Hampshire wildlife, ecology, natural history and cultural history through hands-on public programs and service learning opportunities in the beautiful Lakes Region of New Hampshire. It is a designated wildlife viewing area with more than 160 acres of idyllic farmland, forest and pastures open daily, year-round to the public including more than three miles of woodland, pond and field trails, heritage gardens, and a Natural PlayScape, as well as Fledglings Nature-Based Preschool and WildQuest summer and vacation camps. For more information about Prescott Farm and all of its programming and ways to help, please visit www.prescottfarm.org.

This required flipping the holder between exposures. And it required some serious thinking between shots.

You could lug perhaps a dozen film holders around in the canvas bag, translating to 24 exposures, about the same as today’s (now yesterday’s) 35 mm film. Well do I remember rushing off in the middle of the night to what turned out to be one of Nashua’s biggest mill fires with only five or six holders in the bag. This required shutter discipline in the extreme. And I think I made some of the best photographs of my career with that clunky old Speed Graphic.

On late night movies,

I occasionally bump into an old film featuring a lot of police-press interaction, to me always a hoot. They remind me of the folly of the oft-used “Off the record,” and the hard lessons of everyday newsroom life.

There really is no such thing as “Off the record,” because there really is no “record” except for your mind, and in many cases you are never going to forget what you’ve seen and heard. “Off the record” is a movie term whose application I’ve never fathomed in the workaday world.

Instead, there are two handy terms to put to rest people who are worried about their identities being exposed. One is “For background only,” which means that you can use the information, but only in a way in which tracing its source is impossible.

The other is “Not for attribution,” which means that you can use a quote from someone who said something particularly newsworthy, but can’t say who said it.

I’ve abided by these rules for more than half a century, and can truly say that I never “burned” a source, even though on more than a few occasions it has made for some tiptoeing. But in the long run, it is the best way.

The Telegraph’s editor John Stylianos and City Editor Mike Shalhoup taught me the basics of good reporting, which I have carried ever since. Accidents never take place, they happen, or occur (“take place” connotes premeditation). A car and a tree cannot collide; for a collision, both objects have to be moving. Spell out numbers less than ten. A robbery involves at least two people, a robber and a victim, while a theft can take place in solitude. “Claimed” is a loaded term that should be used with great caution, if at all.

I now have a nifty little Canon digital camera, one of the few cameras out there that has a see-through viewing apparatus (seeing through the back of a camera when the sun’s at your back is next to impossible). In a world of change, the little Canon reminds me that some changes are vastly for the better (think of digital’s elimination of plastic film, silver halide, film developing chemicals, and chemicals, paper and silver solution for making prints).

And the other day, I asked my daughter to bring me up a couple of Reporters’ Notebooks from the News and Sentinel’s newsroom, the kind I was handed way back there in 1968, when as a very scared 21-year-old, I went straight from lumber yard to newsroom. And the notebooks hadn’t changed a bit.

(This column runs in a dozen newspapers covering the northern two-thirds of New Hampshire and parts of Maine and Vermont. Letters, with town and telephone numbers in case of questions, are welcome via campguyhooligan@gmail.com or Box 39, Colebrook, NH 03576.)

Heat illnesses include heat stroke, heat exhaustion, fainting, edema (swelling of the hands, feet and ankles), heat rash and muscle cramps. Heat illnesses can affect you quickly and are mainly caused by overexposure or overexertion in the heat. The Franklin T.R.I.P. Center is happy to offer a cooling station at their facility Monday through Friday from 8am to 2pm for anyone that needs to get out of the heat and into some air conditioning! They are located at 12 Rowell Drive right here in Franklin. Any questions, please call Nancy at 934-4151.

Pollen counts have a negative effect on almost everyone, but especially those with allergies and/or asthma! Air quality is something we need to keep a close eye on, as well as loved ones that we know have the hardest time when the air quality becomes dangerous! July and August are horrible months for those with mold and spore allergies. As the weeks go on during these two months these types of allergens only get worse. Mold and spores are the allergies of the summer! Mold grows on fallen leaves, compost piles, grasses and grains. By August they are at their worse so, if possible, run air conditioning with a HEPA filter to help keep your allergies and asthma under control as much as possible. If air conditioning isn’t a possibility for you, the T.R.I.P. Center is a nice option to escape those air quality issues!

There were also children's games, donations of stuffed animals for kids to "adopt," and a very popular Cornhole Tournament for people of all ages to compete in. A silent auction of 125 donated items or services had people bidding on everything from handcrafted goods, gift cards and overnight stays at local inns to a fabulous trip to Ecuador. Rock House Barbecue also offered a specially catered barbecue for up to 200 people at a minimum bid of $2,000

Singer/guitarists Doug Thompson and Samantha ("Sam") Tracy took turns entertaining all the people who listened from shaded tables set up along the field or while they enjoyed activities around the park. They, too, donated their time to the event.

As he took in the huge crowd of people who came out in support of his wife, Tom Reneau said he was deeply touched and knew Amanda would be, too.

"This is really what I feel our country is supposed to be—people coming together for a common good," he said. "All their prayers and support means so, so much to us. We're expecting miracles here for Amanda, nothing less."

ic big band tunes from days gone by while also featuring the vocals of Victoria Hartwell, the granddaughter of Alan and Savina.

Allison Hartwell heads up her parent's mission now and after celebrating 25 years of music on the island in 2017, this year she said they are changing things up a bit.

"We've always had food available, like hamburgers, hot dogs and drinks, but this year the concessions will be held to benefit a variety of local nonprofit groups," she said.

Former Tilton Selectman Joe Jesseman volunteers his time to man the grill each weekend where a meal of hamburgers or hot dogs, a side dish and dessert can cost as little as $5 per person, all of which will benefit four organizations during the course of the summer long concert series.

Last Sunday evening's concessions helped the Laconia Indian Historical Association with their annual Learner's Weekend and Labor Day Weekend Pow Wow events, and will be backed up by another benefit night on August 19.

On July 15 proceeds from the barbecue will assist the Tilton Senior Center in their programs for local seniors, with their follow-up benefit taking place on Aug. 12.

Dinners purchased on July 22 and Aug. 5 will support the Sober Café in Tilton and on both July 29 and Aug. 26, all money raised through the concert cookout will assist Compass Classical Academy with their free charter school curriculum and programs for children from many local towns.

"We felt this was a great way to give back to people who give back to others in the community," Allison Hartwell said.

Adding to the list of supporters in 2018 has been the fold from Rusty's Towing, who will provide free popcorn for concertgoers each Sunday night.

One other slight change this year will be the season finale. In the past the concerts have ended with a grand finale concert but this time around it will be even grander.

"Instead of our typical season wrap-up, this year we're ending the summer concerts with 'A Tribute to Our Vets,'" she said. "It's our way of saluting our veterans for their service. My father was also a veteran and I think he'd be proud."

Annie and the Orphans will perform that night, sponsored by American Legion Post 49, the Post 49 Ladies Auxiliary and the Sons of the American Legion. Chris Meinhold, who has been involved in the summer concert series since its inception in 1992, will also unveil his 50-foot American flag on the island that night as a tribute to those who fought to honor and protect it.

Other bands on this year's line-up are Club Soda on July 15, sponsored by Chuck and Kathi Mitchell; the 60's Invasion on July 22, sponsored by Gale Insurance and Partridge Construction; Rockin'

Daddios Doo Wop on July 29, sponsored by the Salatiello Family Trust; Karen Morgan & The Pony Express on Aug. 5, sponsored by Dick Dubois and Franklin Savings Bank; The Bel Airs Doo Wop '50's band on Aug. 12, sponsored by the Town of Tilton; Motown Soul Band on Aug. 19, sponsored by the Town of Northfield; and finally the Tribute to Our Vets with Annie and the Orphans on Aug. 26.

The July 1 performance by Studio Two was made possible through the sponsorship of both Tilton House of Pizza and the Hartwell Family, while last Sunday's performance by East Bay Show Band and Love Records recording artist Victoria was also sponsored by the Hartwell Family in conjunction with the Tilton-Northfield Rotary Club.

"We have a fantastic line-up this year that's been very, very well received already. We've had great weather, wonderful sponsors and we're looking forward to a wonderful summer on the island," said Allison Hartwell.

ACCIDENT

"There was little or no time for the Hyundai and Ford drivers to react," Mann said in his press release. "Speed did not appear to be an obvious factor in this crash so other areas of inquiry will be explored to determine why the Rav 4 left its lane of travel."

Driver of the Hyundai was identified as Timothy Lanza of Manchester who was not injured when the Toyota struck the rear of his vehicle.

A passenger in the Ford pickup truck, Erin Malloy of Belmont, also did not request medical attention at the scene but the driver of the truck, Laura Beebe of Belmont, sustained multiple injuries. Once she was removed from the vehicle, Beebe was transported by ambulance to Concord Hospital where she underwent surgery. There was no further word on her condition.

Thirty-seven year-old Brian D. Bennett of Tilton was operating the Rav 4 at the time of the accident and was taken to Lakes Region General Hospital where he died as a result of his injuries. His passenger, 47-year-old Michael Lima of Meredith, was pronounced dead at the scene.

As the sun set that evening, Belmont Fire Department provided high-rise scene lighting to aid the accident reconstruction team. Mann said Route 106 remained closed for six-and-one-half hours in all for vehicle removal, fuel clean up and the extensive investigation. NHDOT also worked with the state environmental services department to contain any possible fuel contamination in the area.

"This is a very active investigation into all aspects of the crash, to include the occupants of the Rav 4, where they were coming from, going, etc.," Mann said. "We understand this is a very difficult time for the families of the deceased and our thoughts go out to them. We will work diligently to find out as much as we can about the cause and contributing factors in this tragic event."

Anyone with information that may be helpful to the investigation is asked to contact Belmont Police at 267-8350.

Nor'Easters keep up solid summer of action

BY BOB MARTIN

Bob@salmonpress.news

NORTH CONWAY — The Nor'Easters 18U softball team has had a solid summer thus far, and most recently the team lost in the quarterfinals of the Mount Washington Valley Classic on the weekend of June 29 and 30, which involved 26 teams.

After a rain out in the first game against the Maine Lady Mavericks, the Nor'Easters had a 12-0 win in a mercy rule shortened game over the Northeast Hurricanes Wyse Elite team. Carly Catty of Winnisquam Regional High School, who is batting .378 this summer, was one for one with three runs and a pair of walks. Meeka Bolduc of Tilton was one for one with a walk and a run. Cait Malahan had a run scored and was one for two.

Sam McCann of Berlin, while only facing 10 batters, allowed no hits, one walk and struck out three batters.

The Nor'Easters won 5-0 in the third game of pool play against the Brattleboro Heat of Vermont. Catty was one for three with two runs. Lizzie Fleming of Belmont was one for two with a single. Ella Harris of Gilford pitched and allowed three hits, no walks and five strikeouts.

The Nor'Easters were seeded third out of 26 teams after pool play. In game one of the finals, the Nor'Easters won 5-0 over the Northeast Fusion Gold. Catty had two walks and a run. Jillian Lachapelle of Gilford hit her second homerun of the season in a one for three day. Bolduc was one for two.

McCann had another strong outing on the mound, allowing one hit and striking out two.

The second game was against sixth seeded Central Mass Xplosion and the Nor'Easters lost 5-3 in a rain shortened three and one third inning game. Harris pitched two innings and gave up five runs. McCann pitched an inning scoreless relief.

The 18U Nor'Easters now have a record of 13-2-1.

The 14U Nor'easters were runners up in the Blue Demon Bash in Waterville, Maine over the weekend of June 29 and 30. The team went 5-1 with the only loss coming in the championship game.

On June 29 the Nor'Easters had three victories with the winning pitchers being Norah Dunleavy of Laconia, Kelley Allen of Belmont and Lilly Simpson of Meredith. The Nor'Easters beat Down East Family YMCA 7-2 in game one. Game two was a 9-6 win over Plex. Game three was a 12-0 win over the Her-Icans.

The Nor'easters also had a 19-2 win over the Maineiacs and the team was cruising going into the final games.

Coach Bill Clary said it was impressive to see the bats alive all weekend with several mercy rule shortened wins.

Morgan Hall of Belmont was on the mound in the first game on Sunday against the Skowhegan Slammers in a 9-3 win. She also came in as a reliever in the second game.

The championship game saw the Nor'Easters come from behind and nearly take a win over the Skowhegan Slammers. The team put the tying run on second base and Jaiden McKenna of Gilmanton hit a double to drive in two runs with two outs to make it a 5-4 game. However, the next batter flew out to end the game.

"Great weekend to head into an off week," said Clary.

Cannons narrowly miss out on making national tournament

BY BOB MARTIN
Bob@salmonpress.news

NORTHBORO, Mass. — Local athletes continued their strong play with the Concord Cannons baseball team last week and narrowly missed heading to Florida for the Perfect Game National Tournament.

The team went 3-1 in pool play but lost the tiebreaker of least runs allowed.

“Even though we only allowed six runs in pool play, which was second least out of the 31 teams there, Show Baseball allowed four and advanced,” said coach Eric Duquette, who is also the coach for the Gilford High School baseball team.

The first game was a 5-1 win over the New York Blue Sox from New York City. Gilford’s Isaac Wallace got the win on the mound, going five innings while allowing only one run on three hits. Nick Ritchie of Laconia had two doubles to lead the offense. T.J. Carmilia and Adrian Siravo of Gilford each had a pair of hits, as well.

The second game was a 15-0 blowout win for the Cannons over the Base Astros of Boston.

Belmont’s Griffin Embree threw two innings on the mound and got the win. Alex Rives of Gilford and New Hampton School had two hits. Siravo also added two hits in the win. Wallace had three RBIs in the game.

The only setback for the Cannons came in game three with a 4-0 loss to Show Baseball of Andover, Mass. The offense was shut down and had only four hits, with two coming from Devin Bedell of Pittsfield. Rives went the distance on the mound and allowed seven hits while striking out five batters in the loss.

The final game was a thrilling 2-1, come from behind win over the New England Ruffnecks. The nationally ranked squad had a tough time with Siravo on the mound, who went five innings, allowing one run on three hits while striking out nine batters. Embree had a two-inning save and Duquette said he was equally impressive.

Carmilia supplied the game winning RBI in the bottom of the fifth.

The Cannons are now 18-2 this summer.

The Great Race makes pit stop at Mt. Washington Auto Road

tara@salmonpress.news

REGION — Participants in the 35th annual Great Race made a pit stop mid-race at the Mt. Washington Auto Road where lunch was enjoyed at the summit. The Great Race starts in Buffalo, N.Y. and ends in Halifax, Nova Scotia and takes about nine days to complete.

Racers stopped by 18 United States host cities on their way to Canada. Each competitor must be driving a car model from earlier than 1972 to enter. Director of Competition John Clasen devised a specific route with that includes a specific time drivers should reach their destination. Some of Clasen’s instructions were a bit cryptic as well. This time, speed, distance endurance rally isn’t easy with old cars, hence the challenge.

The goal is to reach the designated destination closest to the time pre-determined by Clasen. Each team consists of a navigator and a driver. The race course, that changes each year, began in Buffalo on June 23 and finished in Halifax on July 1.

The winners of the race this year were the father and son team of Jeff and Eric Fredette, who have come in second many years prior. The two hail from Beecher, Ill. The duo drove a Flathead V8-powered 1933 Ford pickup truck, which led them to a grand prize of $50,000.

The race was developed by Tom McRae in 1983 and plays homage in a way to the movie ‘The Great Race’ that was released in 1965. The comedy is based on a real life automobile race that took place in 1908 from New York to Paris. One star of the movie, Tony Curtis, used the car he co-starred with from the 1965 movie and participated in the race in 2004.

Next year the race will begin in Riverside, Calif. and will finish in Tacoma, Wash. The start day will be on June 30.

Gansert taking football skills to Anna Maria College

BY BOB MARTIN
Bob@Salmonpress.news

BELMONT — The Gilford-Belmont football team had a tough season last fall, but a bright spot for the Golden Eagles was Dylan Gansert who will be playing football next year at Anna Maria College in Worcester, Mass.

Gansert, a graduate of Belmont High School, explained that after the last football season he visited the division three college where he met with the head coach and did a tour. He liked what he saw and told the coach if he was accepted he would love to play. Accepted he was, and Gansert is heading to Anna Maria College on Aug. 7 for training camp.

Gansert explained that when he arrives at Anna Maria there will be a family barbeque, and not long after the team will drop into double sessions. He said he is looking forward to getting started and has heard great things about the team. Former Winnisquam Regional High School football player Hunter Tierney attends Anna Maria College, and Gansert said he has spoken highly of the program.

“He had a lot of good things to say about the coach,” Gansert said. “He said he can be hard, but it makes sense.”

In high school Gansert was a standout running back, linebacker and defensive back for the Golden Eagles. He said he will probably try to play safety or cornerback for Anna Maria College, but added that the coach could always see him as a fit elsewhere.

“I think I’ll be trying for defense,” said Gansert. “If I had the weight, I might try for running back, but I’m not at that point right now. We’ll see what they say when I get there.”

In the offseason, Gansert has been working on bulking up in preparation for college football. He has summer plans to work out with Angelo Glover, a coach at Winnisquam Regional High School, and also put in time on his own.

“My goal is to get to 185 pounds by the start of the season,” Gansert said, adding that he now weighs about 174 pounds. “That is one thing I really learned from football.

Gansert explained that he came from Florida where sports were huge, and he moved to Belmont in fifth grade.

In seventh grade he played for the Concord Capitals and he was brought up to the eighth grade team, where he helped the team win the championship. When he was in eighth grade he attended Gilford and in a strange twist the team faced the Concord Capitals in the championship and lost.

In his freshman year, Belmont and Gilford merged and created a new football team. In his freshman year the team went to the semifinals, but the team only won three games the next season. In his junior year he started at safety and running back, but the team only won one game. He continued starting as a senior and despite the team only winning one game again, he had a solid year rushing for more than 800 yards.

“It was a tough year,” said Gansert. “We lost our best lineman and it was just not easy. I did all right, but I wish we had won more than one game. We worked with what we had.”

Gansert was also the team leader in tackles during his junior and senior seasons with 48 and 49 tackles respectively.

It was a difficult senior season for the Golden Eagles, as the team was short on numbers, hurting from injuries and lacking experience. However, Gansert said there are things a player can learn through this type of adversity and he hopes it will help him in the collegiate level.

Last year Anna Maria College 1-9 with the only win coming against Alfred St. by a score of 36-34. The team was at the bottom of the Eastern Collegiate Football Conference, but Gansert said the solid coaching staff and young players could lead to big things. Gansert hopes that he will be able to see the field and maybe even step into a starting role in years to come.

“My goal is to play, and honestly I’d love to start,” Gansert said. “The team there is really young and the coach is really good. He understudies with Jim Har-baugh. I think the team has a chance to be really good.”

Gansert plans to study sports management and take an acting class in college. He said he eventually wants to be in sports journalism.

Host families sought for New England Wolves

LACONIA — The New England Wolves Junior Hockey Program is seeking host families for the upcoming season. The Wolves range in age from 15-20 years old and are recruited from all over the world, coming to develop as hockey players in the Lakes Region of New Hampshire. This year's team features players from England, Canada, Florida, Colorado, and many more destinations worldwide. In 2017-18 the Wolves program was awarded by the Eastern Hockey League as “Humanitarians of the Year” for their charitable work in their community.

Players arrive Aug. 25 and 26 and play a 50-game schedule over the course of seven months. Players return home at Thanksgiving and have a two-week break at Christmas.

All host families receive $375 per month, per player (can host more than one) for hosting Wolves. If you have a spare bedroom in your home and interested in hosting a player, please connect through e-mail the Wolves Housing Coordinator, Kerry Mull, at mullkl426@gmail.com or 998-6682 for more info.

Adaptive Fun Day scheduled for July 14

FRANCONIA — Copper Cannon Camp, the Littleton Elks and the Adaptive Sports Partners of the North Country will be joining forces again this summer for a special community day of fun at Copper Cannon Camp on Saturday, July 14. “This day is for the kid in all of us,” says Peter Christnacht, Executive Director of the Copper Cannon Camp and he encourages community members with disabilities, their families and caregivers to come to camp. The camp will host this fourth annual Adaptive Fun Day on Saturday, July 14, from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. “This is a super fun day and the staff at Copper Cannon is fantastic,” remarks Sandy Olney, Executive Director of the Adaptive Sports Partners. “This will be our fourth year as guests of the camp for a day of fun, games, arts and crafts projects, complimentary lunch, and all that the camp has to offer,” says Olney who encourages community members to contact her office to reserve a spot to enjoy the day and to learn more about Copper Cannon Camp, Adaptive Sports Partners and the Littleton Elks. This event is complimentary but reservations must be made in advance by phoning 823-5232.

Levy named Distinguished Athletic Trainer

PLYMOUTH — Linda S. Levy, EdD, ATC, has been selected as one of the National Athletic Trainers’ Association’s 2018 Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer (MDAT) award recipients. Levy, a resident of Holderness, was the athletic training program director at Plymouth State University for the past 18 years and will be on sabbatical for the next year before retiring.

The Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer award recognizes NATA members who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to leadership, volunteer service, advocacy and distinguished professional activities as an athletic trainer. MDAT exclusively recognizes NATA members who have been involved in service and leadership activities at the national and district level.

This award acknowledges outstanding dedication and service to the athletic training profession. Candidates for the award must have held the certified athletic trainer (ATC) credential, conferred by the Board of Certification, and have been an NATA member, both for at least 20 years.

“We are always excited to recognize the dedication, excellence, inspirational outlook and commitment of our honorees, and this year is no exception. These recipients serve as role models to their peers and represent some of the best of the best of the athletic training profession, said NATA Honors and Awards Committee Chair Charlie Thompson, MS, ATC. “We know they will continue to contribute to their place of work and their community at large in ensuring quality of care and optimal health moving into the years ahead.”

The presentation will be made during NATA’s 69th Clinical Symposia and AT Expo in New Orleans on June 28.
