Snowmobile enthusiasts take to the trail in support of Hebron Fire Department

BY DONNA RHODES
drhodes@salmonpress.news

HEBRON – The Hebron Fire Department hosted their third annual snowmobile Poker Run last Saturday as part of their fundraising campaign to purchase a NASCO Crisis Manikin that will be used to train firefighters and EMTs in many valuable ways.

“This mannequin will actually meet all of our needs for training,” said the department’s Training Officer, Lt. Patti Oakley.

With the life-like device, the crew will be able to practice ECG pattern recognition, take blood pressure, do defibrillation, hone their IV skills, learn Basic and Advanced Airway Management 50-mile trail. At each designated stop along the way, they drew another card in the hope of coming up with a winning hand at the end of their ride. After a staggered start for all of the snowmobile entrants, people without a snowmobile were also able to take part in the fun by driving their vehicles to each station where they could draw their playing cards. The route, whether by car or snowmobile trails, led them to Sculptured Rocks in Groton, Plain Jane’s Diner in Rumney, Newfound Country Store and Bridgewater Inn before heading back to the Hebron fire station.

Gina Rescigno and her husband John were among the participants, testing not only their luck with the cards, but trying out their new snowmobile as well. They teamed

Newfound Business Manager answers budget questions

BY THOMAS P. CALDWELL
Contributing Writer

BRISTOL — Groton Selectman John Rescigno went before the Newfound Area School Board on Feb. 11 to get answers to what he saw as budget discrepancies, but which School Administrative Unit 4 Business Administrator Michael Limanni explained as fixed-cost purchases made possible by seeking efficiencies and taking advantage of money from staff turnover.

Rescigno came to the meeting at Newfound Regional High School armed with specific budget questions.

“I’m all for saving the town money and making sure it’s spent wisely,” Rescigno said, “but I’m also for education. Kids need certain things. It’s about spending money wisely.”

He started with a budget line for technology services, saying the budget called for spending $25,000 in 2017, but the district spent $88,000. The next year, there was nothing in that budget line, but the district spent $6,000.

“How can you be off by so much?” he asked.

Superintendent Stacy Buckley pointed out that the school district has to budget a year in advance, before knowing what specific children’s needs will be.

“We deal with students, not widgets,” she said.

Limanni explained that the school district prepares a budget each year with known priorities and costs, but because Newfound operates under a 2 per-and much more, Oakley said.

Such a training tool is not cheap, however, so all proceeds from this year’s Poker Run were earmarked to help HFD reach their $6,500 fundraising goal.

The day began at the fire department where people registered and picked a card to start their poker hand. They then climbed aboard their snowmobiles and headed out on the

Excitement building for Alexandria Fire Department Ice Fishing Derby

ALEXANDRIA – Excitement is building for the 28th annual Alexandria Volunteer Fire Department Newfound Lake Ice Fishing Derby that will take place this Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 23-24. Large lake trout, rainbow trout, pickerel, cusk and perch are typically pulled up through the ice during this derby and it has become a challenge for many to see if they can be the lucky angler to take home one of the top cash prizes.

DONNA RHODES

It’s derby time on Newfound Lake, and many ice-fishing enthusiasts have already staked out their favorite spots on the ice.

Children are also encouraged to compete for trophies and prizes in their division, too.

Tickets for the derby are on sale now at the Newfound Trading Post on Lake St. in Bristol. Headquarters for the derby will be set up beside the boat launch at Wellington State Park where members of the fire department and their support group will also be selling food and tickets for numerous great raffle drawings.

Local Girl Scouts kick off annual cookie sale

NEW HAMPTON – Members of local Girl Scout Troop 13139 kicked off their annual cookie sales at the Irving/Circle K store on Route 104 in New Hampton last weekend and had a very successful two days of raising funds for both summer camp and a fun getaway to Six Flags Great Escape resort in upstate New York.

Besides selling their many flavors of cookies, the girls and their troop leaders also offered some recipe ideas, like placing their S’mores cookies in the microwave for a delicious melted treat. They also recommended

Sunny skies and fresh winter air drew large crowds to the Squam Lakes Association's headquarters in Holderness last Saturday afternoon for their 22nd Annual Winterfest Celebration, where cups of hot chili and lots of outdoor activities were the focal point of the day.

Inside the lodge, people sampled hearty chili dishes from nine local eateries, then cast a vote for their favorite. Taking part this year were the Common Man Restaurant of Ashland; Six Burner Bistro of Plymouth; the Common Man Café and Tavern from Rumney; Walter's Basin, The Manor, and the Golden Pond Country Store in Holderness; Rubbin' Butt BBQ from Center Harbor; and both Hart's Turkey Farm and Sunshine and Pa's Restaurant in Meredith. While all the recipes were crowd-pleasers, for the eighth time since 2003, it was The Manor that received the most votes from participants in the event.

They honor Presidents Abraham Lincoln and Ronald Reagan, both of whom had February birthdays. The PBVRC will hold their Annual Lincoln-Reagan Dinner on Wednesday, Feb. 27. The Woodstock Station will once again host the dinner at 135 Main St., No. Woodstock, starting at 5:30 p.m. for the social hour and dinner at 6:30 p.m.

This year, they will be joined by keynote speaker Greg Moore, the New Hampshire Director of Americans for Prosperity, and newly-elected chairman of the New Hampshire Republican Party, Steve

He has been Director of Policy and Communication, Campaign Manager, and Communications Director to congressional and gubernatorial races. In these roles he has directed all aspects of the campaigns, including advertisement, field operations and earned media.

Also speaking at the dinner will be the newly elected chair of the New Hampshire Republican Party, Stephen Stepanek, who will discuss his vision and plans for the NH GOP at one of his first stops as he takes the reins of the organization.

Mr. Stepanek, of Amherst, co-chaired then-candidate Donald Trump's New Hampshire presidential campaign in 2016 and held the first house party for Trump in the first-primary state. He served five terms in the New Hampshire House, including as deputy majority leader and minority whip.

Plymouth State University to host regional dance conference

PLYMOUTH — Nearly 400 collegiate dancers from across the region will travel to Plymouth State University (PSU) to participate in the American College Dance Association New England Conference from April 4 through 7. Talented students and dance faculty from more than 35 colleges and universities will participate in workshops, seminars and classes throughout the weekend. They will also host several performances, which will be open to the public.

"Hosting the annual conference at Plymouth State gives us a tremendous opportunity to showcase how the university's Integrated Clusters model can help build critical thinking and problem-solving skills," said Amanda Whitworth, Director of Dance, Plymouth State University. "PSU faculty members will host sessions that will take participants beyond technical movement and more traditional elements of dance and introduce them to concepts of entrepreneurship and innovation in dance, including personal branding, event planning, and marketing — all of which are important elements of the creative economy."

The upcoming conference represents months of collaboration between multiple PSU programs, including the dance program, the physical therapy program, and the Silver Center for the Arts. Physical therapy grad-

Under the weather

"How about this weather?"

If ever there was an easy, non-challenging conversation opener, this is it. You can be in line at the grocery store, serving jury duty or pushing papers around at work – it doesn't matter where you are – this line never fails.

Everyone seems willing to talk about the weather. It's a built-in, slam-dunk, easy topic that allows complete strangers to either commiserate or celebrate, depending on the daily meteorological situation.

So, what is it with the weather? Why do we love to discuss, comment and re-hash it?

Weather is complicated, frustrating and ultimately uncertain. Weather breaks our hearts and lifts our moods and forces daily choices for everyone. Weather drives our decisions, affects our attitudes and makes fellow survivors out of strangers.

Weather is our most true common denominator. No matter what our life circumstances – student, professional, retiree – when you live in the same geographic area, you and your fellow community members have the weather in common.

Weather doesn't care about politics or sports teams or vacations or the date on the calendar. It is an equal opportunity annoyer and a great equalizer – everyone has to drive in snow, or dash to the car in the rain, or stand in long lines at the fair in the hot sun. Almost everyone has had a picnic cancelled, a vacation spoiled or a ball game rained out.

But weather is also the unexpectedly warm, sunny, sweet-smelling spring morning that causes smiles and banter with co-workers. It's the light snow flurries that add sparkle to early December and prompts holiday greetings between shoppers. It's the crisp, snappy feel of fall football games and the slow, sultry, humidity of summer evenings spent on backyard patios. It's the backdrop of every day of our lives.

So, what is it with the weather? Maybe we love the topic because it's universal. Maybe we love the excitement of something that will change – either for the good or the bad. Maybe it's that it is temporary and fleeting and something to either be withstood or enjoyed, knowing that it will not last. Maybe it's simply because weather is always with us...whether we like it or not.

CADY is excited to announce that we have partnered with The Rite Aid Foundation and are now a participating organization in KidCents. KidCents is a program created by The Rite Aid Foundation that allows Rite Aid wellness+ rewards customers to round up their purchases to the nearest dollar and donate their change to organizations that help support youth in the community. CADY will now be listed as an official KidCents charity on kidcents.com.

A contribution to CADY is an investment in our children and in creating a safer, drug-free community. Our mission is to educate, engage and empower our schools and communities to prevent and reduce youth alcohol, tobacco and other drug use and to promote healthy environ-

According to the National Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse, 75 percent of all high school students have used addictive substances including tobacco, alcohol, marijuana and cocaine. Youth substance use, including alcohol, greatly affects the developing teen brain and can rewire it for addiction. We work to build both community and parent awareness by offering education, skill-building and mentoring for our youth. By working to prevent substance misuse, we are helping to build new possibilities for their future.

Preventing addiction changes everything. The National Institute on Drug Abuse reports that 90 percent of all people with substance use disorders started smoking or drinking before the age of 18. Through our unified efforts, we can

PET of the Week Bailey

No need to worry about not taking a left turn in Albuquerque, we have your rabbit here. Meet Bailey, a spunky lil one year old indoor dwarf white rabbit. Bailey was brought to us back in October when his caretakers could no longer keep him. Despite being cast out on the tiles, he is incredibly social, so if you have other hoppers at home, it's the perfect atmosphere for Bailey who is very much looking forward to making new friends. He especially likes to show off his prowess to the lady rabbits, one of his favorite moves is flipping his litter box.

What a romantic huh? Bailey would really love to go to a home with older children as little ones tend to have exuberant hands that could easily injure this fragile boy. Seniors or first time rabbit parents are also ideal as Bailey, while active, is relatively low maintenance. So if you go chasing rabbits, you know you're going to fall... right smack in love with this little darling boy.

Strategies for Living

When blackface trumps infanticide

BY LARRY SCOTT

A 1984 photo of two men, one in blackface and one in a KKK uniform, has created a political firestorm in Virginia. The picture, allegedly including Gov. Ralph Northam, prompted a host of calls for his resignation. But when New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo signed a bill legalizing late-term, day-of-birth abortions, there was no such call. Instead, the public cheered. Who would have thought the day would come when blackface trumps infanticide.

And the fall-out continues. The State of New York will try a Queens man, Anthony Hobson, for murder for the stabbing death of his pregnant girlfriend. But the State will not try him for abortion; they have removed it from the state's criminal code. Jennifer Irigoyen's death is murder, and for that Anthony Hobson will be judged. But the baby's death is unfortunate; call it "collateral damage." It will go unpunished.

It may be the law, but infanticide by any other name is still infanticide. It is immoral and unforgivable, yet another sign of America's deteriorating standards of morality. We have rejected a belief in absolute truth; the concept of right and wrong has become a matter of choice. Without an objective standard of authority, all options are open.

The last twenty years have seen a significant change in the moral principles that guide our nation. Men and women, educated in a system that removed God and the Bible from the classroom, now lead our nation. They have developed a progressive platform that challenges fundamental principles of morality given in God's Word. A group of them are now vying for the opportunity to occupy the White House. That is their right; the tragedy is that America is giving them a hearing.

Our situation is no more dire than that of the people of Israel in 480 BC. The nation was facing extinction, but Queen Esther of Assyria came to their rescue. "Who knows," her uncle told her, but what "you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this." Israel survived; the question is, "Where does America go from here?"

God has given us a clear set of directives. These directives were not given to destroy our individuality or limit our freedom. He did so because he knows how prone we are to go to extremes. God is committed to our well-being, but he doesn't want us to self-destruct.

Washington is talking of a national emergency; we have a national emergency. It is not political; it is moral and spiritual. And it will have a greater impact on the future of our great country than the political battles Washington is currently fighting. We are in deep trouble. This is not fear-mongering and I am not sounding off as a feel-good exercise. I, along with many others, have warned that this day was coming; it has arrived.

Blackface may have trumped infanticide, but that doesn't change the facts. Late-term abortion may be popular, but that doesn't make it right. It is still murder and the Bible calls it sin. We may not have stopped America's drift to the left, but now is not the time to give up the battle. We can vote, and we can support those who uphold principles of morality consistent with our faith. It is time for God's people to stand and be counted.

Call it pasture or field, it's gravity calling the tune

I was headed down my dirt road with a friend in her Jeep (always a great triple combination!) when the subject of pastures and fields came up.

Specifically, while the two terms are not mutually exclusive, still, a piece of land tends to be considered, over time, one or the other. To fend off confusion when a piece of land is alternately pastured or hayed, as some are, farmers often resort to that clever dodge of calling it a "place."

Thus, Lyman Forbes, when referring to the seven outlying farms that helped him milk 105 cows, called them off, as haying commenced, "Reed Place. Shallow Place." And then the ultimate, the 40-acre behemoth (and farthest away) "Paquette Place."

I thought about this nomenclature question for a mile or so and then said "I figure you pretty much hay where you won't tip over, and pasture the rest."

Our family farm is typical of its surroundings, which is glacial moraine, meaning glacial outwash, often laid down (if its timing is compressed) in a zig-zag pattern of ridges. Thus, the old term "hillside farm" is quite apropos.

On this hodgepodge piece of land, I hayed what I could get away with haying, and pastured the rest. On Ancestors' Field, for instance, I barely even got away with haying.

On this dome-shaped piece, I could judiciously bale up and down hill, but there was no escaping the mowing. I had to follow the contour, which any way you figure it is the sharpest angle toward plumb.

Fortunately, my dedicated mowing tractor was a 1947 Ford, one of the most ground-hugging tractors of all. Still, the first time I mowed it was a breath-catcher. Even with the belly-mounted sickle-bar mowing machine on the uphill side, the uphill front wheel often seemed to want to go airborne. I swore I could see daylight under the rubber. It turned out that I had plenty of gravity to spare, of course. Still, there was never once over the years when I mowed the steepest part of that piece without my heart thumping in my throat.

My Dad's brother, my Uncle Carl, passed on earlier this month at 95, all worn out, as he said, and glad to go. He loved to come over from Andover, Maine once in a while and take part in whatever chore was at hand. Carl was a Second World War vet, having served in the Army Air Corps, the precursor to the U.S. Air Force of today. He always said he made more money shooting craps on the troopship home than he got paid for the whole war.

I'll always remember one June evening in particular when he sat on his tailgate, beer at hand, and watched me mow the last few swathes of Ancestors' Field. Or actually, listened to me, as I disappeared over the crest in the gloaming, the smooth "snick-snick-snick" of the mowing machine telling where I was.

Steepness wasn't the only criterion for deciding whether to pasture or hay, of course. There was also wetness, and for want of a better term, "rockiness." Well, one wonders, why not pull and haul the rocks? Well, because one looks at just too many half-buried rocks and boulders, some of which will most certainly turn out to be attached to Mother Earth, and just thinks "No."

As for wetness, a boggy area has a deceptive way of looking firm and dry, but if you're lucky, you find out the truth on the cheap, meaning "Not a lot of equipment involved."

And even the feeblest mind can figure out that if you got stuck there once, you're likely to get stuck there again. So, you go there again, all right, but maybe only to pick berries.

MARK ON THE MARKETS

BY MARK PATTERSON

In 1934, the Roosevelt administration put forth the "New Deal" which included the entitlement we know as Social Security. Originally Social Security was not accessible until the age of 65. Now SS can be started at the age of 62, or even younger if disabled. When we started SS, there were 42 people paying into the system for every one person taking from the system, making it very solvent.

A generation of people born in the 1920's and '30's, some who fought in World War II and were later referred to as the Henry Ford generation but named the Greatest Generation by Tom Brokaw. Those soldiers who returned from WWII created the "Baby Boom" generation that is defined from 1946 through 1964. During that 18 year span, there were 78 million people born in this country. After this generation, we have had Generation X and Gen Y blending in with the Millennials, all who have not had nearly as many children as that Baby Boomer generation.

The Baby Boomers are now retiring at the rate of 10,000 per day driving the ratio from 42 contributors to 1 recipient of SS entitlements and Medicare/Medicaid to only three contributors to one recipient. Within the next ten years, the ratio will be one to one.

Let's estimate an individual's annual SS and Medicare entitlements at age 66, which is full retirement age currently. Maybe 24,000 in SS and 15,000 in Medicare, not to mention any additional Veterans benefits. My high powered calculator tells

Edward Jones: Financial Focus

Your Financial Advisor Can Do Some "Life Coaching"

Life coaches – not surprisingly – strive to improve the quality of life of their clients. And financial professionals essentially embrace the same mission. So, if you decide to hire a financial advisor, you should expect to receive some "coaching" as you work toward all your important objectives, such as sending your kids to college, enjoying a comfortable retirement and leaving a legacy that can benefit the next generation.

What tips from life coaches might you also get from your financial advisor? Here are a few:

Create a plan. A life coach can help you create a plan for your future, taking into account your career aspirations, relationships, hobbies, charitable activities and so on. And a financial advisor will also take a "holistic" approach by looking at many elements – including your age, income, family responsibilities and desired retirement lifestyle – to create a long-term investment strategy. Of course, you may need to adjust this strategy in response to changes in your life, but it can still serve as an overall map on your journey toward your financial objectives.

Identify and prioritize goals. A life coach will help you identify and prioritize your life goals, whether they are personal or professional. And your financial advisor can help you do the same with your financial goals. For example, your goal of retiring comfortably at age 65 may take precedence over your wish to purchase a vacation home. As such, you will need to focus your efforts first on the retirement goal, and then, if it appears likely that you will meet that goal, you can devote the resources necessary for your vacation home by the mountains or the sea. You may even be willing to accept a lesser goal, such as renting, rather than owning, your vacation residence.

Move beyond your comfort zone. A trained and experienced life coach can help you recognize your perceived limitations – and move beyond them. For instance, if your new job requires that you make many presentations, but you are nervous about public speaking, your life coach may offer techniques to help you get past this fear – to move you out of your "comfort zone," so to speak. This same scenario could play out in your interactions with your financial advisor. If you happen to be a cautious and risk-averse person by nature, you might be inclined to bring those same traits into the investment arena. But a competent financial advisor – one who truly has your best interests in mind – will likely warn you that you will have trouble achieving your financial objectives if you try to avoid all risk by sticking exclusively with so-called "safe" investments, which do not offer much growth potential. Instead, your advisor will help you incorporate your risk tolerance, along with your time horizon and your short- and long-term goals, to help shape an investment mix appropriate for you. Such a mix may well include those "safe" investments, but it would also contain a reasonable percentage of growth-oriented ones.

Whether it's self-improvement or your financial future, you can benefit from good coaching – so take full advantage of it.

Hill Village Bible Church

Youth Ministries

In a world filled with pain, confusion, and questions, HVBC Youth Group ministry seeks to give answers and solutions based on the Word of God. In our Sunday School class, we study different parts of the Bible to understand why God gave us this portion of Scripture and how we are to apply it to our lives. In our Wednesday night Bible study, we dig even deeper and key in on practical issues such as how to pray, how to study the Bible, and how to share your faith. At HVBC we also want to provide fun outings and hangout times outside of the church. We have a monthly activity where we do community service, go hiking, play games at a gym, or have a game night at the church. We also have a monthly H.A.C. (Hangout After Church) time where a church family hosts the youth group; we eat, sing, play games, and have a challenge from the Word of God. Something that Youth Pastor Nate Pelletier does to try to reach the teens in our public schools, is coach. He has coached basketball and soccer at the Newfound Memorial Middle School and is currently coaching the Boys JV Basketball team at Newfound Regional High School. It is our desire at HVBC to impact our community with the Word of God as it has the answers that teens need to deal with every situation that comes up in their lives. Our youth group is for teens grades seven through 12. For more information, contact Pastor Nate at 934-3500.

About Us:

At Hill Village Bible Church, we desire to "grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ" as He alone can meet each need. Join us for the preaching of God's Word, singing of heart-warming hymns, and joyful fellowship with believers. HVBC is a faithful church. We believe the Bible is God's Word, which is practical for today. So, at HVBC we seek to be faithful to the message of the Bible as we bring the life changing Gospel to our community. We would enjoy the opportunity to minister to you and your family.

Please call 934-3500 and speak to Senior Pastor Daniel Boyce, Associate Pastor Andrew Hemingway, or Youth Pastor Nathan Pelletier. You can also visit us at www.hillvillagebiblechurch.com or our Facebook page.

LRSO celebrates Beethoven's 9th Symphony

MOULTONBOROUGH — The Lakes Region Symphony Orchestra (LRSO) invites you to our concert on Saturday, March 23 at 7:30 p.m. at Moultonborough Academy Theater in Moultonborough. Regular concertgoers accustomed to Inter-Lakes Auditorium, note the venue change. The concert "Ode to Joy – A Concert for Peace" is a performance of Beethoven's inimitable Symphony No. 9, the 4th movement of which contains the world-renowned theme "Ode to Joy."

LRSO is pleased to be accompanied by the 70+ member chorus of The Suncook Valley Chorale (SVC) under the direction of Mr. Scott Lounsbury. The Suncook Valley Chorale was organized in Pittsfield in 1982 as part of that town's bicentennial celebration, and has thrived in the decades since. Now based in Concord, SVC (www.svcnh.org) draws singers from a large number of surrounding cities and towns.

In addition to the full choral accompaniment by SVC, the symphony features four renowned area soloists: soprano Hannah Murray, alto Emily Adams, tenor Fredric Scheff, and bass Mark Andrew Cleveland.

The symphony itself is regarded by musicologists as one of Beethoven's greatest works and one of the supreme achievements in the history of western music. It consists of four movements, with a total duration of 70 to 80 minutes depending on tempos. The symphony, which premiered in Vienna in 1824, was the first example of a major composer using voice es in a symphony. The lyrics are sung during the final movement by four vocal soloists and a chorus. They were taken from the "Ode to Joy," a poem written by Friedrich Schiller in 1785 and revised in 1803, with text additions made by Beethoven himself.

The fame of the symphony aside, it is regarded as most remarkable since Beethoven was almost totally deaf when he composed it. At its premier performance, it is cited there were five standing ovations, and the audience waved handkerchiefs in the air, hats, raised hands, so that Beethoven, who could not hear the applause, could at least see the ovations.

This March 23 concert is the third in the LRSO's spectacular 2018-2019 season. Reserve the dates for our final dual-performance POPS concert on May 18 and May 19, a tribute to Barbra Streisand featuring singer, dancer, and actress Ashley Whalley. Full concert details are at www.

LRSO.org.

Tickets are $20 for adults and $10 students college-age and under (no children under age 5 please). Tickets are available online at www.LRSO.org/TICKETS, or from these ticket outlets: Innisfree Bookshop in Meredith and Greenlaw's Music in Laconia. Any unsold tickets will be available at the door starting one hour before the concert.

The LRSO greatly appreciates the support of its concert sponsor the Robert T. Smith Family Trust. Bob's love of the LRSO and his generous support is a big part of what makes the LRSO, a community orchestra, possible.

creative expression to explore the many ways in which people relate to forests, and to the White Mountain National Forest in particular.

The Mallett Brothers take the stage at Pitman's this weekend

LACONIA — Pitman's Freight Room at 94 New Salem St. in Laconia is pleased to announce the following events for this weekend:

Friday, Feb. 24, 8pm, $20: The Mallett Brothers

The Mallett Brothers Band plays original music with a unique style that spans across country, rock and roll, Americana and "alt-country" genres. The band has grown a dedicated fan base across the country since releasing their debut record in 2009. With songs that can range from alt country, to americana, honkytonk, jam or roots rock, theirs is a musical melting pot that's influenced equally by folk and singer/songwriter influences as it is by harder rock, twang and psychedelic sounds. Led by brothers Luke and Will Mallett, the band is rounded out by Brian Higgins on drums, Nick Leen on bass, Wally on dobro and electric guitar, and sometimes filled out by Matt Mills on lead guitar, pedal steel and banjo. It's song-driven music that holds up under the lens of solitary listening, but that's equally apt to crank.

For reservations, call 527-0043.

Saturday, Feb. 25, 7 p.m., $20: Swing Dance with the Tall Granite Big Band.

From the syncopated heart of New Hampshire, the Tall

Granite Big Band carries on its Swing tradition Texas style! This 18-member band has its roots in Texas with music collected over seven decades by the late Houston bandleader Johnny Dyson. The Dyson band's early repertoire included classics from Glenn Miller, Count Basie, Perez Prado, Duke Ellington, Harry James, and other greats. But Dyson also worked closely with Texas arrangers including Don Elam and Fred Baetge, and over time his bands acquired unique material reflecting the vital "Third Coast" culture and its Blues and Latin influences, which help distinguish Tall Granite today. Today, our members are drawn from around the Granite State and our focus — as it was in Dyson's day — remains on dancing! Our Pitman's Dance Nights typically are prefaced with a complimentary Swing dance lesson from area instructors to help everyone acquire or brush up their moves! So if you're done with dueling banjos or screaming guitars, grab your two-tone shoes, slick back that hair, join us at the excellent Pitman's Freight Room and swing and sway or just relax to the Tall Granite Big Band's smokey horns and unique sound! Free Dance Lesson before the show from 7 – 8 p.m. Doors open at 6 p.m.

For reservations, call 527-0043.

up with friends who were experienced riders and looked forward to the adventure.

"This sounds like it's going to be so much fun. It's good to be riding with someone who knows the trails though," Gina said.

Janet Wallace of Groton was in their group and was equally excited to head out and enjoy a crisp sunny day in the woods.

"We've done this in the past, and it's always a great time," said Wallace.

Sam Comeau and his children Stacy and Jamie were the last to leave so they could make sure everyone made it safely along the route. Comeau said he and Stacy drove the course on Friday to set out all the markers and found the snow conditions to be great.

"Everything was freshly groomed, and it's good to go," he said.

That evening, everyone gathered at the Hebron Community Center, where they enjoyed a lasagna dinner prepared by Nancy Brooks as they awaited the announcement of this year's winners. In first place and the winner of $100 from Bridgewater Inn was Neci Peter-son who drew the best hand for the day. In second place, receiving $50 from Hannaford's, was Bruce Tramuller, and Robert Ellis won $25 donated by Sculptured Rocks Farm for his third place finish. Sarah Smith ended up with the worst hand of the day but it paid off in the long run when she was presented with a gift certificate to Plain Jane's Diner. There was also a 50/50 raffle and drawings for other prizes.

cent tax cap, many of those items have to cut to bring the budget in under the cap.

"The key is the savings," Limanni said, noting that staff turnover results in savings of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Because half of the staff is nearing retirement age, those who leave are replaced by people lower on the pay scale, he said.

"Teachers' contracts are 80 percent of the budget," Limanni said, "and through turnover, we have $800,000 to $1 million in benefit and wage savings. We can't anticipate the turnover, because we offer the contracts in April," but not all those who are offered contracts choose to return.

Grant funding is another area where the district may receive unanticipated revenue, but the grants must be used for specific items — sometimes items that were not included in the budget. School Board Chair Jeff Levesque of Groton noted that a library grant they received fell into that category, allowing them to purchase library material.

Limanni said the district was able to install a fiber optic system through unbudgeted revenues that came in, and they accomplished a lot by seeking efficiencies in purchasing. By changing purchasing policies and negotiating service contracts, the district realized some significant savings, he said.

Other places publicize such accomplishments but, Limanni said, "Frankly, we don't have time."

At mid-year, Limanni said, the facilities and tech staff, along with principals and administrators, go back and revisit the items that had to be removed from the budget, and with the savings, they are able to make some fixed-cost purchases — items that can be taken care of with that year's funds, without becoming an expense in the following year's budget.

Limanni said all of the costs Rescigno listed were items that had been priced a couple of years in advance, but were unable to be listed in the budget because doing so would exceed what is allowed under the tax cap.

He said that, before spending any surplus funds, the administration has several conversations with the school board and budget committee chairs.

at this year's Winterfest though. Outside there were plenty of activities to keep everyone warm. Some families took time for sledding on a hill above the lake while others headed straight for the ice where there was a skating oval, a hockey rink and the always popular mini-golf course for all to enjoy. Still more folks strapped on snowshoes or cross-country skis to experience an outing on the lake or surrounding woodlands. And when anyone needed to take a break from all that fun, a warm campfire, marshmallows to roast, and cups of hot cocoa were available on the shore.

"This has become a great way for us to engage the public in what we do here," explained Melissa Leszek of SLA.

The McCormick family, who were staying in Moultonborough, were among many who were excited about the event. Dad John McCormack said his children were on their winter vacation break this week, and for the past few years, they have made Winterfest a destination.

"We're kicking all the fun off here today. It's a great time," he said.

Another family from Methuen, Mass. was quite enthusiastic about their first trip to Squam Lake and the Town of Holderness. Dad Bryan said he spotted the event on the Internet, gathered the family together and drove up just for the day.

"We really wanted to be able to get out and skate on a lake — something we can't do back home. And now we've done it," he said. "We love New Hampshire. We love the White Mountains. This is just a living photograph here today; it really is. It's like a Currier and Ives scene."

His wife said they fell in love with Holderness as they drove through the town that morning, and hope to make more trips to the area now that they've discovered the beauty of the lake and surrounding mountains.

LACONIA – Take a drive on White Oaks Road in Laconia on any Saturday in March and you're bound to see a lot of action. That's because Prescott Farm is hosting the popular, month-long maple sugaring program, "Tap into Maple."

From tapping a tree to tasting delicious maple syrup, hundreds of participants throughout the month will engage in every step of the syrup making process. Prescott Farm's environmental educators go "beyond the sugar shack" in their sharing of information, expertly leading guests in how to identify the appropriate species and size tree, understanding the parts of a tree and their functions, using historical and modern tree tapping tools, learning the history and legends of maple sugaring, and understanding the math and science involved the boiling process.

Environmental Educator Andie Hession enjoys the excitement around the program and has noticed an increase in participation each year. "This really is one of our most popular programs of the year," Hession said. "It's great for families or adults who are interested in learning more about this New Hampshire tradition."

Beginning on Saturday, March 2, visitors to Prescott Farm can attend one of the 90-minute "Tap into Maple" sessions. Programs begin on the hour and run from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. Pre-registration is recommended. Participants should be aware that the program begins with a guided 20-minute walk down to the authentic sugarhouse in the woods around Prescott Farm. If necessary, snowshoes and/or ice cleats will be provided for individuals who do not have them.

Additional Tap into Maple program and registration information is available at prescottfarm.org, info@prescottfarm.org or 366-5695. ## Bears finish as third seed in Division III

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

BRISTOL — The Newfound hoop girls won their final two games of the season to head to the playoffs in fine fashion at 15-3.

The week began with a game against Gilford on Thursday, Feb. 14, and the Bears opened a huge lead before finishing out a 69-53 win.

Newfound was up by 30 heading into the fourth quarter before the Golden Eagles were able to close the gap a little bit.

“I think we played our best basketball of the season,” coach Kammi Williams said.

Senior Ashlee Dukette led the way with 33 points and 11 rebounds, which put her within 47 points of the 1,500-point mark for her career. Fellow senior Madi Dalphonse had her best game of the season with 13 points, while freshman Paulina Huckins finished with nine points and nine rebounds.

The Bears finished the regular season with a 51-

20 win in Somersworth on Friday night.

“We knew we had to go in and play basketball, we had to go in and play well,” Williams said, noting that the “Toppers have been struggling so it was important to take care of business.

It was a balanced night for the Bears, as Bailey Fairbank had her best game of the season with 13 points while Dukette finished with 12 points and Huckins added nine points.

“That’s how it’s been, it’s typical we’re getting scoring from four, five, six or seven players,” Williams said. “That’s what we’ve been trying to do, getting six scorers every night.

“If we can have six kids scoring we’re going to be good,” the Bear coach added.

The Bears finished the regular season at 15-3 and earned the third seed in the Division III tournament. Williams’ best guess (after figuring out tiebreakers) is that the Bears were going to be taking on Prospect Mountain.

“If we play like we have the last few games, we’ll be good,” Williams said. “The team’s in a pretty good place right now.”

The Division III tournament continues on Saturday, Feb. 23, at the home of the higher seed and the semifinals are Wednesday, Feb. 27, at Southern New Hampshire University at 5:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Unified Bears get overtime win in Gilford

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

BRISTOL — The Newfound unified hoop team entered the final game of the season in search of a playoff spot, thanks in large part to an overtime win over Gilford on Feb. 11.

The Bears traveled to Gilford for the game and came away with a 51-46 win over the Golden Eagles in overtime.

Matt Perkins led the way for the Bears with 13 points, while Cole Frye added eight points. Christian Duba, Zeke Richardson and Devon Anderson each put in six points for the Bears.

Coach Alex Sobolov noted that the Bears, with their 2-4 record, were sitting in a tie for 10th place overall heading to the season's final game, which took place after deadline on Monday against Hanover.

“If we win, we secure

The return of skiing State Meet week

Sitting in the office on Sunday, with the Daytona 500 on the radio, it's been an interesting week, one that didn't feature a lot of time in the office for once.

When our Wolfeboro office closed a few years ago and I began working out of our Meredith office, I realized that it just wasn't feasible to be in the office every day, like I was in Wolfeboro.

However, I traditionally still am in the office during the day for four days a week, with Friday reserved for doing all the things I need to do to keep life going, including shopping, banking and even a little relaxation.

During the last few months, however, I've been at alpine races on Friday so I've found other days and times to try and get that stuff done.

Last week was one of my favorite weeks of the year, skiing State Meet week. I missed last year's State Meet week because I was in PyeongChang for the Olympics, so it was nice to get back on track this year.

Both the Division II boys and the Division III boys and girls were in action on the same day. Though the Division III teams were closer, one of our other reporters was going to that meet to cover his teams and got pictures for me, so I headed south on Monday morning for the Division II boys at Crotched Mountain. The last time I covered a State Meet at Crotched, there was a major delay that kept the race from starting until after noon.

This time, however, the race went off without a hitch and the Kennett boys picked up the Division II title with a solid day of racing.

The Division II girls were originally scheduled to race on Tuesday but the decision was made by the time we left Crotched on Monday that the meet would be moved to Thursday due to the incoming weather. So, instead of being out of the office on Monday and Tuesday, I came to work on Tuesday. I was planning on coming to work on Wednesday, but when I woke up, the driveway wasn't plowed and I didn't feel like leaving the apartment, so I didn't. I was able to write some stories and do some work and eventually went out and covered a game on Wednesday night in North Conway.

On Thursday it was off to Pat's Peak for the Division II girls. Things didn't go quite as smoothly as on Monday, but things eventually wrapped up with the Kennett girls finishing as the runners-up.

From there it was off to the state ski jumping championships at Plymouth. I love ski jumping meets and the championship also brings some extra fun to those meets. Kennett's Zach Grzesik picked up the overall win on the night, capping off a busy day.

So, counting the previous Friday's meet at King Pine, I spent three days out of seven on the slopes and that's not a bad thing. It made for a busy weekend of writing (since I usually do lots of that on Thursday), but it was nice to be out and about a little.

Finally, have a great day John and Kristen Brule.

season at the Division III State Meet on Monday, Feb. 11.

The meet was held on what coach Jonathan Young called "some difficult race courses" at Gunstock Mountain Resort in Gilford.

For the boys in the giant slalom, Newfound was led by Matt Karkheck, who finished in 16th place overall in a time of 1:14.53.

Jacob Blouin was next in for Newfound with his time of 1:18.12 for 25th place overall and Tuan Nguyen was the third scorer with a time of 1:28.1 for 39th place overall.

Owen Henry rounded out the scoring with his time of 1:30.55 for 42nd place.

Jacob Pfister finished in 1:53.86 for 54th place and Reid Wilkins finished in a time of 2:14.81 for 56th place.

After their sixth place finish in the giant slalom, the Bears slipped to 10th place in the slalom with only two skiers able to complete both runs.

Karkheck finished in a time of 1:22.87 for 17th place and Wilkins was 22nd in a time of 1:36.53.

Overall, Newfound finished in ninth place, with Kearsarge, Belmont and St. Thomas taking the top three spots.

The Bears had just three girls competing and in the giant slalom, freshman Hayse Broome led the way in a time of 1:15.7 for 17th place as Newfound finished in eighth place.

Hannah Owen finished in 32nd place in a time of 1:26.48 and Stephanie Norton finished in 35th place in a time of 1:30.4.

In the slalom, Broome led the charge with a 10th place finish overall in a time of 1:14.47, which earned her an invitation to the Meet of Champions on Feb. 28 at Cannon Mountain.

Owen finished in 25th place in 1:37.71 and Norton was 26th in a time of 1:42.76.

Newfound finished in seventh place overall with Kearsarge, Gilford and St. Thomas taking the top three spots.

Young congratulated Wilkins on his four-year career with the Bears and also noted that Cian Connor and Gabe Bauer also competed in their senior seasons.

While the season has finished up, the team is still selling tickets for their annual raffle. Prizes include a gift card to Common Man, two weekday/night tickets to Pat's Peak, two midweek tickets to Loon Mountain, two primetime (anytime) tickets to Gunstock and two anytime tickets to Bretton Woods.

Anyone interested in supporting the team by buying a raffle ticket ($5 each) can contact coaches Craig Wilkins (cwilkins@sau4.org) or Young (jyoung@sau4.org). Tickets are on sale until Feb. 22.
