

Local veterans honored for community service with bridge dedication

BY DONNA RHODES
drrhodes@salmonpress.com

SANBORNTON — Sanbornton residents Don Foudriat and Carmine Cioffi are members of the “Greatest Generation,” having served most honorably during World War II in the Navy and Marines, respectively, but last weekend, the pair was also recognized for their lifelong community service in a surprise presentation where they discovered that the Black Brook Bridge was being dedicated in their honor.

The two are not only close friends and former neighbors, but were also born just a day apart nearly 91 years ago, a fact that has only solidified their ties over the decades.

During WWII, Foudriat was a Navy pilot in the Pacific arena while Cioffi was a U.S. Marine anti-artillery gunner who served in Okinawa from start to finish.

“Thank God for the freedom we all enjoy today due to their sacrifices during World War II and later to our town and community,” said neighbor Doug Rasp who initiated the entire bridge dedication process.

For several years, Rasp watched and listened to all the two men have done to better the their community, which included extensive work on the (then) ailing Black Brook watershed and their growing neighborhood’s needs.

Approximately six months ago, he decided he wanted to express appreciation for such service and commitment by naming the new bridge in their honor.

“Carmine and Don, you both have immeasurably helped our community in many ways,” Rasp said before a crowd of more than 100 friends, family members and neighbors last Saturday morning. “Your families, neighbors and town official have all made this (dedication) a reality and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.”

With Black Brook being a key feature of the men’s shared neighborhood, they have worked for many years, both environmentally and politically, to preserve both the quality of life for residents and improve water conditions in not only the brook but Lake Winnisquam as well.

Cioffi has served for many years on boards and commissions in Sanbornton where he supported and promoted re-

Magic fills the air as Sanbornton Library launches summer reading program

BY DONNA RHODES
drrhodes@salmonpress.com

SANBORNTON — Sanbornton Public Library got their summer reading program off to a magical start last Wednesday morning with the help of Alejandro’s Olde Tyme Magic Show, which provided a lot of mystery, fun and laughter for people of all ages.

Magic, he told the crowd, is merely a product of imagination and expectation and he had some fun teasing them with a few obvious tricks, which demonstrated his point and what boys and girls could all figure out. Or could they?

Telling the crowd there was a trap door in his magic cup, Alejandro handed it off to one boy to examine thoroughly.

“These are all just tricks. It doesn’t really open but it’s always fun to watch him try,” he said on the sly to the audience.

His humor continued throughout his show when he did a few tricks in “sloooooow moooooootion” to see if they could catch the slight of hand, but then went on to amaze them with the actual tricks he sometimes had literally up his sleeve.

For one trick, known as “Will Our Story Match?” Alejandro named four children to be “deputy librarians.” Each deputy was handed a card they were asked not to reveal. With the oversight of volunteer Andrew Pinard of Alejandro’s Old Tyme Magic Show had volunteers David and Asha assist him with a magic trick as he helped kick off the summer reading program at Sanbornton Public Library last week.

Adrian, who he designated as the “Switch Guy,” Alejandro then performed a story-telling stunt to see if he could match up a deck of cards pertaining to classic tales such as Cinderella, Goldilocks, Snow White and The Three Little Pigs.

As Alejandro dealt the cards face down, Adrian could yell “Switch” at any time. The order of the cards being dealt would then change until

Unique crafts on display at Gunstock fair

BY ERIN PLUMMER
eplummer@salmonpress.com

GILFORD — Visitors to Gunstock this weekend could find an assortment of unique creations at the Fourth of July Weekend Craft Fair at Gunstock.

On Saturday and Sunday crafters set up their creations at Gunstock for the fair organized for the third year by Joyce's Craft Shows.

Joyce Endee of Joyce's Craft Shows said on Saturday that the fair had been going "excellent." Around 77 vendors displayed their creations, which Endee said was about the same number as last year. She said attendance had been excellent as well.

The vendors came from all over New England with some coming from New York. All of them displayed a variety of goods including food, pottery, wood, jewelry, t-shirts, and many others.

The Rockin' Daddies entertained participants on Saturday

The mother-daughter team of Sharon and Eva Ilg paint and frame pieces of birch bark and other wood scraps for their company Abnormal Creations. Eva will paint in black and white and Sharon will paint in color.

Their materials are fallen birch bark from the woods. Eva's uncle owns a lumber mill and they get scraps from him as well.

Their whole company started when Eva Ilg found a piece of birch bark on the ground and tried to see if she could do something with it. The piece was painted and put in a frame.

"I knew I had something going," Eva Ilg said. "It just started from there."

The team is based out of the Salem and Pelham area and does 25 craft the industry, but very few potters do it," Kennedy said.

Kennedy said it is a difficult process requiring high-firing.

"We like the science of it; trying to come up our own glazes," Kennedy said.

Lloyd has been making this pottery for the past 10 years, and Kennedy joined her on it seven years ago. They both are from Florida, though they have a home in Madison. They have made half their pieces in Florida and half in New Hampshire.

This is their second year at the Gunstock fair.

"It's a nice crowd, incredibly beautiful location," Kennedy said.

Brittany Toscano of Manchester makes an assortment of small terrariums for her company Brittany's Moss Gardens. She will collect a variety of different mosses while hiking and layer them with sand, pebbles, and other items in jars, bowls, globes, and more to create mini landscapes.

Her creations started in Colorado when she found some nice moss. She said she didn't intend to make a business out of her creations until she put some together for Mother's Day.

"They've just kind of been turning into their own pieces as I go," Toscano said.

This has been her first year doing craft fairs. She said she is really trying to get herself out there and has been offering her creations to most of New Hampshire by now.

Toscano said this is their second fair with Endee.

"I think she does really well running it," Toscano said.

She said Endee is great with advertising and Gunstock is a really nice spot.

Local police diffuse tense situation in Belmont

BELMONT— On Saturday evening, June 26 at 11:35 p.m., Belmont police were summoned to the area of Tee Dee Drive to investigate a report of a distraught 28-year-old male armed with a high powered SKS rifle. The party who reported the incident was concerned for the man's well-being.

The SKS model rifle fires a high caliber 7.62 round, so out of an abundance of caution, the area around the man's home was secured with the assistance of Gilmanston and Northfield police, while the Belknap Regional Special Operations Team took the man into custody. He was taken for mental health services. The incident remains under investigation. A loaded SKS rifle was found, and is being held for safe keeping by the police department.

JOHN HARRIGAN

Ah, camp — where few problems seem to arise, and those that do seem to have a very short shelf life.

NORTH COUNTRY NOTEBOOK

The Care Bears come to camp

Shyne and I hiked into camp one day last week. That was the good part. The bad part, for a moment, came when I went down to check the spring. “Mr. Shyne,” I reported, “we have no water.” For some reason I always call him, for the first time at least, “Mr. Shyne.” It lends at a semblance of formality to our forays into camp.

This posed a more or less immediate problem, at least on the planning level, because not having water nearby--the pond is a hike--meant (a) not being able to do dishes, which meant (b) not dirtying dishes, which meant (c) using paper plates, which was a problem because (e) we were having a couple of pretty nice steaks for supper, which posed another problem because (f) Red-Meat-Eating Rule Number 3, Paragraph 6, says “Never eat a steak on a paper plate.”

I posed this dilemma to Shyne, who really didn’t care because he was sizing up a job to bend copper tubing for a new gas line extension in camp. With copper tubing Shyne is downright artsy, which rhymes with something else, which is also true.

“We’ll just double the paper plates and pretend they’re metal,” I decided.

“Okay,” said Shyne.

“Wait a minute,” I said. “You can’t just agree like that. We have to talk this through, have a discussion and all, or else you might get offended.”

“Do I look offended?”

It went like that for the whole time we were in camp. Something came up, one of us made a suggestion masquerading as a decision, and that was that.

On the porch, while Shyne was peering at bent copper tubing and I was trying to tie on a fly, I brought up the Care Bears, who invented a whole new school of conflict resolution, a fancier name for problem solving. “You remember the Care Bears, right?” I quizzed Shyne, who didn’t seem all that interested.

The Care Bears came onto the scene just about when I was running out of kids to read to at bedtime. In the Care Bears’ world there were no rotten-to-the-core bad people, only people who were misguided, underprivileged, disadvantaged, unloved, challenged, deprived, unfortunate, and so on. There were no thugs, just temporarily confused souls who happened to have blackjacks in their back pockets.

Nobody ever took individual, concerted, decisive action, either. Everything had to be done by committee. There were a lot of meetings. If some big bad kid came along and pushed a little kid into the mud, no one from your Older Kid Protection Team was supposed to go over and clean his poor disadvantaged clock.

CALI

Cali has that ‘come up and see me sometime’ come hither look about her. She has been living with us at New Hampshire Humane Society since February.

Pretty as a picture, sweet and demure, gentle, calm, likes the company of other cats, truly folks, what’s not to love about CALI?

This lovely calico girl was found as a stray and brought to us by a concerned citizen who knew she would be cared for properly at our Meredith Center Road shelter. She’s been overlooked, not due to personality but because she is older than other cats here – we think she is ten years old at least.

Why should she not enjoy her later years in a loving forever home? Why should she not feel again the comfort of a cozy lap to snuggle in? Why should she not revel in the persistent cat behavior of waking up her humans with a gentle pat on the cheek or an accidental knocking over of a water glass? She has love to share and purrs to bestow and waits patiently with the company of other cats in our social wing.

Please visit Cali – you will be bowled over with her quiet confidence.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sanbornton Town Office water unsafe to drink?

To the Editor:

On June 3, the H.L. Turner Group submitted their Evaluation/Study of two of the town’s buildings to the Sanbornton Board of Selectmen.

Many issues and concerns were raised by The Turner Group which I feel will take quite a while to resolve, except for one! They recommended that the town should place signage adjacent to water faucets notifying people the water is not safe to drink.

This is a serious issue which should have been addressed immediately by the Selectmen, and for some reason it has not been. The question is, why? A simple, inexpensive OSHA Caution Non-Potable Water Do Not Drink Sign should have been posted at any location in the buildings where unknowing individuals attending any board meetings would have access to the tap water. Hopefully, this concern will be addressed at their next summer scheduled meeting on July 6. Hopefully, all the Selectmen will be attending!

By the way, if interested ask at the town office for a copy of the H.L. Turner Group study; I am sure you will find it very comprehensive!

Thank you for helping us honor Peter Karagianis’ legacy

To the Editor:

In the late 1960’s and early 1970’s, Peter S. Karagianis led the charge to save and preserve the Belknap Mill from its almost certain fate: to make way for 14 parking spaces. Even now, it is hard to believe the dramatic difference the absence of the Mill might have made to the Lakes Region. We might have lost a beautiful landmark that defines Laconia’s skyline and marks its entrance with grace. We might have lost a building of profound historic significance, one of the oldest remaining industrial sites of its kind in the country. We might have lost the chief symbol of our community’s manufacturing heritage. We might have lost a vital resource for education, culture and civic engagement.

It is hard to imagine our community without the Belknap Mill.

It was therefore a heartfelt honor to recognize and celebrate the man whose vision and leadership profoundly changed Laconia and the Lakes Region for the better. We will always remember Peter S. Karagianis’ contributions.

It is with gratitude and humility that we acknowledge the contributions of those who helped us to celebrate Peter’s remarkable legacy. Our presenters, whose words evoked deep regard for Peter as a community statesman, colleague, friend and father: John Walker (President of Laconia Kiwanis), Senator Andrew Hosmer, Laconia Mayor Ed Engler, Attorney Rod Dyer and S. Peter Karagianis. We thank the City of Laconia for their enthusiastic consent when approached by the Laconia Historical Society with the proposal to designate Peter Karagianis Way. Thank you to Warren Huse, Judy Buswell, David Stamps and Judy Taggart for their invaluable support and guidance. The Board of Directors is continually grateful for the staff of the Belknap Mill Society, Tara Shore and Jennifer McLean, for their boundless energy and unflagging commitment. And we offer our deepest appreciation to S. Peter Karagianis and the Karagianis family for their open-hearted generosity and their ongoing support of the Belknap Mill.

Finally, thank you to the many people who shared this occasion to pay their respects to Peter and remember his important work. This was truly another day for the history books at the Belknap Mill.

*Sincerely,

Playhouse celebrates 400 years of Shakespeare with “A Midsummer Night’s Dream”

MEREDITH — As theatres around the world mark the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare’s death this year, his most whimsical and enchanting comedy will be presented on the stage of the Winnepesaukee Playhouse in Meredith. “aA Midsummer Night’s Dream” will be performed from July 6 through 16.

When four criss-crossed lovers flee from their overbearing parents into an enchanted forest, they become unknowingly embroiled in the battle between the king of the fairies and his bride. Add to the mix a troupe of would-be actors, a mischievous sprite, and an errant love potion, and you have the recipe for Shakespeare’s most-loved comedy.

The Playhouse’s production will be a new twist on the centuries-old comedy. Director Timothy L’Ecuyer and set designer Andrew Stuart have invented a world where the nine versatile performers in the production can run, jump, and gender-bend their way through an imaginatively constructed forest. Almost two dozen characters will be brought to life by nine actors including John-Michael Breen, Richard Brundage, Will Champion, Versee Damien, Kevin Killavey, Katrina Michaels, Molly Pietz Walsh, Rebecca Tucker, and Nicholas Wilder.

Take a “Detour” into suspense with this weekend’s After Dark feature on LRPA-TV

LACONIA — Join Lakes Region Public Access Television at 10:30 p.m. this Friday and Saturday night (July 8 & 9) for our “LRPA After Dark” presentation of 1945’s dark film noir thriller “Detour,” starring Tom Neal, Ann Savage and Edmund MacDonald.

In “Detour,” we meet down-on-his-luck Al Roberts (Neal), an ill-fated piano player who hitchhikes to California to reunite with his girlfriend. Along the way, he gets a ride from Charles Haskell (MacDonald), who tells Al an ominous story about his recent encounter with a female hitchhiker. Haskell suffers a fatal heart attack in the middle of nowhere. Al, fearful that he will be accused of murder, buries Haskell’s body, takes his possessions, and assumes his identity. He stops at a gas station, where he picks up a drifter named Vera (Savage). Vera soon figures out the situation and uses it to her advantage, threatening Al to join her in a scheme or to be ratted out to the cops. Will Al be able to extract himself from this nightmare series of events, or will Fate continue to dog him wherever he goes?

“Detour” is an extremely low budget thriller, shot in only six days by director Edgar G. Ulmer, who had previously found success setting horror icons Bela Lugosi and Boris Karloff against each other in the psychological thriller “The Black Cat.” At a running time of less than 70 minutes, the movie packs a lot of story into short film. “Detour” has a cult following among fans of film noir, as it is often considered to be one of the most gloomy and existentialist examples of that genre. Famed critic Roger Ebert was a fan of this film, writing, “ ‘Detour’ is an example of material finding the appropriate form. Two bottom-feeders from the swamps of pulp swim through the murk of low-budget noir and are caught grasping in (the director’s) net. They deserve one another.” It’s a must-see! Grab your popcorn and join LRPA after dark for this dark drama from the past.

How Should Investors Respond to “Brexit”?

Next week, we observe As you know by now, the United Kingdom (U.K.) has voted to leave the European Union. The “Brexit” vote is expected to have major implications for Britain’s trade and economic relationships – but how might it affect you, as an individual investor?

At first glance, you might be worried. After all, right after the results came in, we saw a sharp decline in stock markets around the world, including here in the United States. And we may well see more volatility in the near term. But by taking a step back and looking at the big picture, you might see that the outlook for investors is nowhere near as gloomy as you may have thought.

Here are some suggestions for maintaining your perspective:

- Be patient. Despite the Brexit vote, it’s not so simple for the U.K. to just pack its bags and bid “adieu” to the European Union. In fact, it may take three or more years before the U.K. actually departs. This extended time period can give financial markets a chance to absorb the new reality – while giving investors time to ponder their long-term strategy.
- Don’t forget about the “fundamentals.” Financial markets dislike uncertainty, which is why they fell so sharply after Brexit. But the markets move much faster than the fundamentals that actually drive stock prices – and, despite Brexit, these fundamentals remain generally positive. In the U.S., economic growth is expected to continue in the 2%–2.5% range, and the prospects of a recession remain small. U.S. companies will continue to operate in Britain as before, and British companies will still participate in the global economy.
- Review your investment portfolio – and look for opportunities. If you’ve done a good job of building a diversified portfolio that’s based on your individual needs, goals, risk tolerance and time horizon, you may not need to take any action in the immediate aftermath of Brexit. Diversification is especially important, because it’s possible that some financial assets may be more negatively affected by Brexit than others; you can blunt this impact by owning a wide range of investments. (Keep in mind, though, that while diversification can ease the effects of volatility, it can’t guarantee profits or protect against all losses.) As you review your holdings, you may even want to consider adding international and U.S. stocks, if appropriate for your situation, to take advantage of the drop in price of many quality companies. As always, of course, be aware that the value of your shares will fluctuate and you may lose principal. Also, international investing does carry some special risks, mostly related to currency fluctuations and foreign political and economic events.

- Keep your focus on the long term. If Brexit-inspired volatility does go on for a while, keep your focus on your long-term financial goals, which have not changed. By staying focused on the “far horizon,” so to speak, you’ll be less tempted to make short-term moves that may not be in your best interest.

The Brexit vote may not be a positive development for the global economy. But we’ve gotten past bigger events in the past, including wars and other political crises, and we’ll get through this one, too. As the British themselves famously posted on their walls during World War II, “Keep Calm and Carry On.” That’s good advice for investors, too.

Laurent E. Drouin, 86

BELMONT — Laurent E. Drouin, 86, died at his winter residence in Loxahatchee, Fla. on Feb. 11, 2016, surrounded by his wife, sons and granddaughter.

He was born on July 9, 1929, the son of the late Valerie and Kilda Drouin of Belmont. Laurent attended Laconia and Belmont schools and joined the United States Army Air Force near the end of World War II as a radar and radio operator on B-29's. After the service, he returned to Belmont, met and married his wife, Joan Avery. They moved to Portsmouth while he attended the University of New Hampshire. He left college to operate and manage the family business, Ladd Hill Dairy, until it was sold.

For the next 26 years, he was employed at Scott & Williams, the local knitting machine factory, as a set up man, a general inspector and assistant foreman. During these years he also worked part time as a rural mail carrier for the United States Postal Service. He was also elected as President of Local 4524 of the United Steelworkers of America and served for over 12 years in that office. From 1966 to 1981 he had served as chairman on many committees, negotiations, health and safety, alcohol and drug, workers compensation, civil rights, trial, job evaluation and central grievance. He was also very active in local, state and national politics, especially on the campaigns of John King, Hugh Gallen, Tom McIntire, John Durkin, Estes Kefauver and President John F. Kennedy. Laurent himself ran for Belknap County Sherriff against former classmate and good friend Rodney Crockett. Jokingly he often said "he ran but they didn't catch him!"

With the closing of Scott & Williams, he became employed as a correctional officer and then the unit manager of closed custody at the New Hampshire State Prison in Concord. During that same period, he attended New Hampshire College on nights and weekends and graduated with a degree in human services. Laurent had been a member of the V.F.W., the American Legion, the Elks and the Knights of Columbus. In earlier years he enjoyed hunting, fishing, boating and harness racing the state fairs and especially attending all the athletic events that his sons participated in. He was also a volunteer fireman and an assistant athletic coach.

In later years, Laurent and his wife took pleasure in their trips to Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Germany, France, Switzerland and Hawaii. He enjoyed watching NASCAR and professional football on TV, and was looking forward to the summer Olympics. Nothing he liked better than discussing politics, even though sometimes a bit heated. His greatest enjoyment as his sons were growing up were the many summers that were spent at the family camp on Lake Winnisquam and not to mention all the lobster and clam cookouts, which were his very favorite. His family was his life and love. He will be greatly missed and always loved by each and every one of them. Also feeling his absence are his two furry four-legged companions, Jasmine and Zoey.

Mr. Drouin is survived by his wife of 66 years, Joan Drouin of Belmont; his five sons (Brian Drouin and his wife Janet of Martinez, Ga., Mark Drouin and his wife Rita of Loxahatchee, Fla., Brett Drouin and his wife Linda of Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., Larry Drouin and his wife Joanna of Belmont and Craig Drouin and his wife Debra of Concord); two granddaughters, Rebecca Marceau and her husband Chad of Penacook and Lauren Drouin of Cambridge, Mass., nine grandsons (Eric Drouin and his wife Kimberly of Andover, Jared Drouin and his wife Shana of Belmont, Jacob Drouin and his wife Megan of Epsom, Matthew and Craig Drouin, both of Atlanta, Ga., Anthony Drouin of Ewa Beach, Hawaii, Isaac Drouin of Jupiter, Fla. and David and Nicholas Drouin, both of Alabama); seven great grandchildren (Raelyn and Madyson Drouin, both of Andover, Benjamin Marceau of Penacook, Carson Drouin of Epsom, Jillian and Jordan Drouin, both of Peoria, Ill. and Kaikane-Makana Drouin of Ewa Beach, Hawaii); one sister, Edith Wilbraham of Mentor, Ohio; and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by five sisters (Dora MacEslin, Joanne Shaw, Rita Flack, Alice Laurent and Patricia Hollinghead) and three brothers (Maurice, John and Leo Drouin).

DONNA RHODES

Sanbornton residents Don Foudriat and Carmine Cioffi were pleasantly surprised when the Sanbornton Police Department picked them up to take them to a surprise dedication of the Black Brook Bridge last Saturday that honors their commitment to the community.

DONNA RHODES

As a sign dedicating the Black Brook Bridge in honor of local residents and World War II veterans Don Foudriat and Carmine Cioffi was unveiled, organizer Doug Rasp read a tribute to their decades of service to the nation and their surrounding community.

pairs to infrastructure in the rural Black Brook Road neighborhood. His friend Foudriat used his own skills and knowledge to restore and protect water quality on not just Black Brook, but ultimately Lake Winnisquam and beyond.

Foudriat's work on clean water grants, numerous studies, and legislation at both the town and state level has actually impacted not only the five communities surrounding Lake Winnisquam but gone on to benefit connecting waterways all the way to the Atlantic Ocean.

Through their enduring efforts, phosphate levels were lowered in the local watershed, roads were repaved, the bridge was rebuilt and fish populations have once again increased in the formerly affluent Black Brook.

For those reasons and more, Rasp and town officials agreed the two were worthy of having the bridge named in their honor and July 4 weekend was selected to also honor their service to the nation.

With lights blazing the men were transported by Sanbornton's Police Department to the site of the ceremonies. There at the bridge approximately 100 people greeted them, waving American flags and cheering for the two veterans.

"This is wonderful. It's unbelievable I tell you," said Cioffi as he was led from the cruiser to seats beside the bridge that were reserved in their honor. Joining him was his sister Joann from Connecticut.

Foudriat, was also taken by surprise and said he was honored.

"Thank you, everyone. This was totally unexpected," he said.

Among those in attendance were representatives of both the police and fire departments, Town Clerk/Tax Collector Marla Davis and selectmen Karen Ober and John Olmstead.

As selectmen presented Cioffi and Foudriat with plaques commemorating their latest honor, signs on either end of the bridge were also unveiled last weekend. They read, "Bridge Dedication July 4, 2016 in Grateful Recognition Carmine Cioffi and Donald Foudrat. Dedicated to Country, Town and Lake Winnisquam."

Also taking part in the roadside ceremony was six-year-old Teagan who led the crowd in the Pledge of Allegiance and members of the Lakes Region Marine Corps League who honored the men for their military service.

Children and adults alike lined up to then shake their hands and thank the men for their selfless dedication to the world around them. Following the ceremony, a reception was held for the neighborhood that included a cake decorated in half Marine, half Navy insignias, which was cut with a ceremonial sword to also honor their military service.

"These gentlemen, Don and Carmine, come along once in a lifetime," said Rasp. "I thank you all from the bottom of my heart. This is what Sanbornton is all about."

Franklin VNA & Hospice unveils Hospice Memorial Garden

FRANKLIN — Franklin VNA & Hospice has completed the first phase of work on a new Hospice Memorial Garden. This was a joint project between volunteers from the VNA and students at the School of Agricultural Science at Winnisquam Regional High School. Janet Rosequist, a teacher at the Agricultural School, supervised several students in the design of the garden and the students took charge of buying the various flowering plants and shrubs and planting them.

Christine Fournier, VNA Hospice Administrator, says "It has long been our desire to have a Hospice memorial garden. We hope this will become a place for our Hospice families to go and remember their loved ones among the peace and beauty of the plants and flowers. We are very grateful to the Winnisquam agricultural students and Janet Rosequist for all of their hard work and dedication to this project."

The garden is located behind the VNA office at 75 Chestnut St. in Franklin, in an area described by Fournier as “a previously untamed wilderness”. The area was cleared in 2015 by donated equipment from MB Tractor and the “elbow grease” of many volunteers, among them several Hospice volunteers and at least one Board member.

Says Fournier, "Once we had cleared the area, we knew we needed some help in designing the garden so one of our volunteers contacted Janet at WRHS and asked if this was something they would be interested in doing. We were met with a resounding 'yes.' The students made several trips to our location to get the design just right and in May started purchasing plants. They worked hard to make our dream a reality."

The garden features a white stone path encircling the main planting area which, when all plants have bloomed, will be a rainbow of colors and have an interesting variety of flowers and shrubs. Future plans include a bench or two and possibly more greenery.

"We hope that this garden will become a place of peace for all of our Hospice families. We are so thankful to all of the volunteers, to MB Tractor, and especially to the WRHS Agricultural Department's teacher and students for making this garden literally come alive in such a beautiful way. This is an example of what can be done when people work together for the common good and we are so fortunate to serve in communities where people are willing to do so," Fournier concluded.

Franklin VNA & Hospice is an independent, non-profit organization established in 1945 to serve the Home Health care needs of the community. The list of services offered includes: skilled nursing, physical/occupational/speech therapies, home health aides, homemakers, Hospice care by an interdisciplinary team, Medical Social Worker, foot care clinics, immunization clinics, community education and health screening and disease care management. They provide home care services to Andover, Belmont, Boscawen, Canterbury, Franklin, Hill, Northfield, Sanbornton, Salisbury, Tilton, Webster and surrounding towns, as requested.

LRGHealthcare recognizes Rhoda C. Ladd and Sally Proctor award winners

LACONIA — LRG-Healthcare held its 14th Annual Meeting of its members April 27 at Beane Conference Center in Laconia with more than 100 people in attendance.

As part of the evening's program, two recipients were honored with the 2016 Rhoda C. Ladd and Sally Proctor Awards, which are given annually to individuals who give of themselves to improve the community's healthcare system.

On behalf of LRG-Healthcare, Scott Clarenbach, Chairman of LRGHealthcare's Board of Trustees, presented the Laconia based, Rhoda C. Ladd Award to Vascular Surgeon, Samuel Aldridge, MD and the Franklin based, Sally Proctor Award to Family Practitioner, Paul Friend, MD.

Dr. Aldridge joined LRGHealthcare in 1994 and is one of their five star patient review providers just like his other two practicing partners at the Vascular Surgery and Wound Healing Center. Though most people would know him as a down to earth physician who's willing to make house calls and loves swapping fishing stories, he's been a true asset to LRGHealthcare. Patients and colleagues alike are fond of him. He's always happy to help and has a way of bringing out the best in people with a knack for bringing them together to work toward a again be deployed in a few months.

"He's humble and an all-around good guy," comments Chairman of the Board, Scott Clarenbach. "We're so lucky to call him a provider and friend of LRGHealthcare.”

Lakes Region Cupcakes, now featuring Mel's Creative Cakes, re-opens in Tilton

TILTON — Lakes Region Cupcakes, located on 285 Main St. in Tilton, recently re-opened under new ownership. Melody Hanks, of Mel's Creative Cakes, acquired Lakes Region Cupcakes in May 2016 with financing help from Meredith Village Savings Bank (MVSb) and Belknap County Economic Development Council. Lakes Region Cupcakes, featuring Mel's Creative Cakes, re-opened on June 4.

Hanks is a self-taught Cake Artist who specializes in designing and decorating edible works of art.

"I'm incredibly fortunate to have found such a lovely space and well maintained facility thanks to Shelli Shumway, the previous owner of Lakes Region Cupcakes," said Hanks. "Shelli was invaluable when it came to helping us get established in this new space. She spent countless hours training us and was even present for our opening day.

"Even though I came into this transaction well prepared, we still faced a few challenges during the purchase. It's wonderful to have such a great team of local resources, like Gracie Cilley from MVSb and Sally Holder and Ken Wilson at Belknap EDC. Sally, who put me in touch with Ken, had incredible knowledge. Her expertise made the process smooth by assisting us with our documentation. She even helped us set up our books!"

Ken Wilson, Loan Officer for Belknap EDC, added "We are very pleased and proud of our role in assisting with the financing for the purchase of Lakes Region Cupcakes. New and longtime customers alike will be delighted by all of Melody's hand-crafted cupcakes and desserts."

"It's been such a pleasure to work with Melody as she pursued the purchase of Lakes Region Cupcakes," said Gracie Cilley, Vice President and Commercial Loan Officer for Meredith Village Savings Bank. "We believe in her talent and ability and wish her so much success in this new venture."

Stacy Trites, Branch Services Supervisor at the MVSb Laconia Office worked with Hanks on other banking services that the shop will need. "The services that the MVSb offers are so convenient. We can easily bank remotely at times that are most convenient for us," added Hanks. "Stacy was responsive and excellent at getting us set up and the relationship has been hassle-free."

Known for taking a situation from chaos to calm by his rational thinking and steady demeanor, he leads by example. Yet, he’s never too busy to care for a patient in need. He’s professional, personable, and still makes house calls. Most recently, he joined Dr. Paul Racicot and Hori-

Clarenbach shared, “We have immense respect for him and appreciate all his contributions to this organization and our community.”

The theme for this year’s Annual Meeting was “Winds of Change” and in addition to the awards, the program for the evening included the medical staff report and the financial report as well as a guest presentation given by Ken Lowrie of Prism Healthcare Partners, LTD. He discussed the benefit of having Prism at LRG-Healthcare to work with

To close out the evening, there was a question and answer session which opened the floor to all attendees to ask any questions pertaining to the evening’s program and/or the many changes taking place at LRGHealthcare. The panel taking the questions included Scott Clarenbach, Outgoing Chairman of the Board; Scott Sullivan, Incoming Chairman of the Board; Bob Evans, MD, Interim CEO; Henry Lipman, CFO; John Vignati, MD; and Ken Lowrie of Prism.

In the end, magically, each deputy had a card that went along with the story card they were handed in the beginning.

Magic words like “Ginkgo Biloba” helped some of the magic occur but in the end it was “Herman,” a spunky little “100-percent trained poodle,” that looked suspiciously more like a skunk puppet, who held the key to the finale. A card trick that young Asha had started with Alejandro much earlier in the show came to a conclusion when “Herman” delved back into his bag to find the card Asha had selected.

“That was awesome,” she said after “Herman” tossed cards across the room before producing the Three of Hearts that she had signed her name across.

“This was a great kick-off to our summer reading program,” said SPL director Marcia Haigh. “We started the day with 54 kids signed up and by the end of the day I believe we will have 100 participants registered once again this year.”

“On Your Mark, Get Set, Read!” is this year’s theme for the children’s reading program, which they can easily sign up for by stopping by the Sanbornton Public Library during regular hours. It will continue with a number of fun programs, starting Saturday, July 9, with a fun story walk on the land behind the library.

Other events will be karate with White Mountain Tiger on July 13, some Science Technology, Engineering and Math fun with Diane Travlota and a Read-a-thon/Eat-a-thon on Thursday, July 14. Pre-registration through the library is requested for some of these special programs.

On July 20 everyone is invited to have some fun with an Olympic Obstacle Course at 10 a.m. and the following Wednesday, July 27, Devyn Abbott will whip up some Healthy Smoothies for families to not only enjoy but learn to make at home.

Wrapping up the program will be a must-see presentation at 10 a.m. on Aug. 3 when the Seacoast Science Center brings tide pools and all their wonders to Sanbornton.

Adults have a lot to look forward to as well and the public is invited to take part in book discussions and art groups as well as a fabulous look at some of the gardens that grace the town.

“Tickets are on sale now for a Farm and Garden Tour that is being sponsored by the library and the Harmony Grange,” said Haigh.

Tickets are $20 each and tours will include not only the beautiful landscapes created by local gardeners but refreshments and a chance to win special door prizes at each of the stops. Maps for the tour will be presented with each ticket purchased.

“It should be a lot of fun and I know I’m personally looking forward to seeing all these gardens have to offer,” said Haigh.

Shyne and I were supposed to fish that night, but a Force Four gale blew us off the pond. Every time we tried to throw a fly into a little opening in the bushes and grass where the fish were, noses down and stacked like sardines on account of the cold spring-water billowing forth below, the vagaries of the winds put the flies where we would never get them back.

Shyne had been looking forward to fishing something wicked, and I thought that after having been so unfairly deprived of it he might need counseling, and so I turned from my latest Paul Theroux train-travel book to ask him, in my best Care Bears voice, whether he was, you know, okay, but he was fast asleep.

Honor humbles Belmont's LeBlanc

BHS skipper tabbed D-III Coach of the Year

BY JEFF LAJOIE

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

BELMONT – The pedigree has always been there for Matt LeBlanc.

His father, Victor, coached little league baseball for 33 years in Swampscott, Mass. There isn't much the elder LeBlanc hasn't seen in coaching, hasn't experienced. Matt helped his old man out once he got to high school, gaining his first reps as a baseball skipper. He hasn't slowed down since.

With those lessons serving as the foundation of his coaching career, LeBlanc achieved arguably his highest honor this season. The Belmont High School baseball coach was tabbed as the Division III Coach of the Year by the New Hampshire High School Baseball Coaches Association (NHHSBCA) after guiding the Red Raiders to a 14-win season and a quarterfinal appearance.

"It's different because this was not something I'd certainly ever expected," LeBlanc explained.

JEFF LAJOIE

Belmont head coach Matt LeBlanc stands with junior Cole Contigiani during a break in the action in a game against Laconia earlier this season. LeBlanc, who just finished his sixth year with the program, was named the Division III Coach of the Year by the NHHSBCA.

"I really believe it's a team award because in order to get recognized as Coach of the Year, you have to have good things happen and people recognizing that our team was a good team."

Belmont's 14 wins were the most in LeBlanc's six years with the program, and it was the second straight quarterfinal appearance under his leadership.

"We've built a program here so I'm super proud, I really am," he said. "I joke a lot about it but it's really a cool honor and it's something I'm obviously going to remember. I put a lot of work in, my wife (Julie) has been so supportive and my kids (Gracey and Sawyer) love coming to games. It's a lot of long hours and commitment so without their blessing, I wouldn't be able to be here."

After graduating college at Plymouth State University, LeBlanc began his coaching career in Farmington, teaching and coaching the middle school program for three years. When he made the switch to teach at Belmont Middle School, he took over the BMS program for three years before bumping up to JV for four more years. The varsity job came calling in 2011, and he took the reigns and ran with them.

"It was kind of cool because when I first started with the middle school, Brett Sottak was the varsity coach and then this past season, he was the middle school coach with his son (Nate) coming up and I'm up at varsity so it definitely goes around like that here," said LeBlanc. "I got the opportunity after getting the award to call some of the old coaches who I coached with over the years and let them know, and they were all so supportive."

LeBlanc said he wasn't expecting anything on the day of the All-State meeting in June. After voting on the respective teams of players, it was the association's turn to pick coaches of the year. Someone nominated LeBlanc, and the support from Lakes Region coaches like Winnisquam's Fred Caruso and Gilford's Matt Finch quickly followed.

"I'm sitting there watching it and all of a sudden thinking, 'Really, this could happen,'" he recalled. "All of a sudden, next to my name there's all these votes. It's tough in Division III because you don't play everyone so not everyone knows who I am. But being here for six years, I'm starting to know more and more guys and I think they know how hard I work and how talented our team was this season. But guys like Fred (Caruso), Dave Joyce (of Franklin), Matt Finch, all those guys were so excited for me and congratulated me afterwards which was really nice."

LeBlanc wasn't the only Belmont coach recognized, as assistant coach Jeff Pluskis took home Assistant Coach of the Year for his work, the majority of which is spent guiding the pitch-

Hunt, Saunders power Lakes at GSG

BY JEFF LAJOIE

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

MANCHESTER — There's something to be said for all-star games. But oftentimes, the atmosphere lends itself to laid-back, 'happy to be there' mentalities. That was certainly not the case for the Lakes Region boys' basketball at this year's Granite State Games.

The Lakes squad was in it to win it, with practices proving as physical and competitive as any head coach Jim Cilley has seen.

"The intensity level in practices was through the roof leading up to these games," said Cilley, the head coach at Belmont High School. "These kids will get better just being a part of this team. There's no question in my mind. A lot of the talk was about how they wish we could keep going after the competition ends because everyone is working so hard."

Indeed, the team, consisting of many of the top Lakes Region returning high school players, got plenty from participating in the event.

"It's different because with events like these, everyone is committed to the game and everyone is willing to work hard and push each other because they chose to be here, they want to be here," said Belmont rising senior Trevor Hunt, who played in the GSG for the second year in a row.

Soon to be Inter-Lakes High School senior Zach Swanson agreed.

"Everyone on this team loves basketball and they all want to play well and win for each other," he said. "Practices were really intense with everyone going all out. It's good preparation going into the summer and then next year."

The Lakes Region squad opened the four-team competition at Southern New Hampshire on June 23 against the Southern team, which included Nashua South's DJ Frechette, one of the top guards in the state. Lakes came firing out of the gates, with Tilton School's Isaiah Saunders scoring seven points in a row and Hunt also adding a bucket to put the squad up 9-3 early.

Southern tied the game 10-10 before Gilford High School rising senior Ethan Carrier hit a layup and followed with a three-pointer on his next trip down the floor for a 15-10 advantage.

Fellow Gilford resident David Guyotte, who attends Tilton School, helped key the charge in the back court, and Lakes appeared to be very much up for the challenge of battling the Southern squad featuring many D-I and D-II players.

But turnovers plagued Lakes late in the first half, and Southern's 3-point shooting enabled to squad to rattle off a 16-1 run after Carrier's three-ball. A free throw from Franklin's Matthew Hennessey and a putback just before the halftime buzzer from

Tilton School's Isaiah Saunders looks to go back up for a basket with Southern's DJ Frechette defending in Granite State Games action on June 23.

Swanson had the Lakes within striking distance however, trailing 26-19 at halftime.

"The talent is here to beat these teams we're playing even though we're mostly all Division III and IV kids against Nashua and Manchester kids," admitted Cilley.

Southern was able to keep Lakes at arms length in the second half, though Moultonborough Academy's Reese Swedberg and Saunders hit back-to-back three-pointers to keep the squad within 36-27.

Lakes made a late charge, with Belmont's Derek Stevens hitting a jumper in the lane and Hunt following a layup of his own. Lakes closed the game on an 11-4 run, but a running time format proved difficult in erasing a double digit deficit. Hennessey's three-ball in the waning seconds made it a single digit final deficit, with Southern pulling out the 49-41 victory.

"We want to win games but overall it's a great experience," said Hunt. "It gives us something to look forward to going into the summer; to get that extra work in to help improve our games."

Saunders led all Lakes Region scorers with 11 points, while Carrier added seven points. Hunt and Swedberg tossed in five a piece, while Swanson (three points) and Stevens (two) all found the scoresheet for the local players.

"The toughest part about this game was you have running time and that keeps running with free throws so trying to balance getting 13 kids in a game can be a challenge," Cilley offered. "But regardless, everyone will be able to take away from this experience the practice time we had and the hard work that went into preparing in just a short amount of time."

Lakes Region wound up finishing third in the event, beating Coastal, 58-40, in the third place game that Sunday at SNHU after falling to the same team one day earlier in pool play.

The Lakes Region roster featured: David Guyotte (Gilford), Derek Stevens (Belmont), Dylan Gansert (Belmont), Ethan Carrier (Gilford), Hudson Ingoldsby (Alton), Isaiah Saunders (Tilton), Kevin McGrath (Hopkinton), Matthew Hennessey (Franklin), Reese Swedberg (Moultonborough), Trevor Hunt (Belmont), Zach Swanson (Meredith) and Jayden Torres (Franklin).

Yelle, Lakes Region fall to Monadnock in third place game

BY JEFF LAJOIE

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

MANCHESTER — Despite making several lengthy runs in the second half, time ran out on the Lakes Region girls' basketball team at the 2016 Granite State Games on Sunday, June 26.

The squad pulled within one point with 1:40 remaining against Monadnock but was unable to come all the way back, falling 52-48 in the third place game at the field house at Southern New Hampshire University.

"I think the girls were definitely tired by the end of it," said

Lakes Region head coach Erica Knolhoff, the athletic director at Belmont High School. "Four games in four days... I tried to sub more the last two days because we only have eight girls on the team and that hurt a little bit."

Trailing 44-38 with 3:45 left in regulation, St. Paul's School's Mad-dy Buffet hit a layup and added a free throw, and a layup from Laconia's Helen Tautkus made it a 44-43 game with 2:53 left.

Gilford rising senior Stevie Orton added a bucket with 1:40 remaining to keep the Lakes Region within 46-45, but free throws from Monadnock's Megan Wheeler down the stretch iced the game.

"I thought we played well. The kids worked hard throughout the tournament," Knolhoff said. "It was a good mix of kids and I think everyone leaves having gotten a little bit better."

Monadnock led 25-19 at halftime before a big run from Lakes early in the second half propelled Knolhoff's team in front. Orton started the spree with a basket, while hoops from Tautkus, Carly Huck-ins (Merrimack Valley), Megan Johnston (Merrimack Valley) and Devon Mello (Laconia) also contributed in what was a 13-0 run to put Lakes up 34-27.

Orton finished with 15 points in the loss for Lakes, while Belmont's Taylor Yelle also aided the cause with seven rebounds and some timely interior defense.

a little out of shape but you get right back into it the more you play,” said Orton, one of two returning starters for the defending state champion Golden Eagles next year. “We had a good mix of different players on the team and I definitely thought we worked better with each other the more time we spent playing together.”

Yelle said the experience of seeing players from different regions is one of the best parts of the tournament. She also played last year in the inaugural event.

“It’s exciting playing these girls who we never see during the high school season,” she explained. “You get better playing that kind of competition.”

Lakes went 1-2 in pool play, beating Monadnock during round robin action before falling in the rematch to settle for fourth place overall. Southern beat Coastal, 53-49, for the gold medal later in the day.

Lakes played close games throughout the event, beating Monadnock 44-41 while falling to Coastal 52-47, and Southern, 46-38. Every single game of the tournament was decided by 12 points or less, speaking to the competitive balance of the four squads.

ing staff at BHS.

“Jeff being recognized shows the kind of staff that we’ve assembled here,” said LeBlanc. “Guys like Sean Malone, Dave Marden, Jim LeClair and Bobby Cozzens... we’ve got a group of coaches here who I think are as good, if not better, than any other team in the state.”

LeBlanc, who lives in Gilmanton, said his assimilation into the Belmont community has been smooth and rewarding.

“They have a saying, ‘Once a Raider, always a Raider,’” he explained. “Most people are born into it and I’m lucky enough to have been adopted. The community has been awesome.

“I remember the very first day I came on to coach middle school (13 years ago), and I’m giving my first talk,” he continued. “I don’t have any other coaches on staff with me at the time and I really don’t know anyone. But here’s this guy sitting here listening who comes up afterwards and says, ‘I really appreciated what you had to say and I’d love to help you out with the team if you want some help.’ Well, it was Jim Fortin, who had a son on the team. So Jimmy and I ended up coaching together for eight years and it all started that day right there.”

While Fortin served as LeBlanc’s right hand man into the varsity years, he picked up a new one at the behest of Fortin in Malone.

“Once Jimmy moved on, it really broke my heart but Jimmy was the one who told me I had to go get Sean Malone because he’s a young (Fortin),” LeBlanc said. “And Sean came in and kind of picked off where Jimmy left off.”

Despite all the help and support he’s received along the way, LeBlanc’s top contributor has always been his father, who is a regular in the crowds at Belmont games.

“No matter what, most of what I learned about coaching came from those Swampscott Little League days,” said LeBlanc. “They had an unbelievable stretch of success in the 80s and 90s, and my dad was really the guy who said you put the kids first and that’s really all I’ve tried to do. It’s their team, it’s all because of the kids that we have the success. It’s a matter of having good kids and working for them. I want them to have success more than I ever want it for myself.”

And how did his dad take the news of the Coach of the Year honor?

“I think he was more tickled about it than anyone,” said LeBlanc with a laugh. “He was emotional about it. We’ve been through a lot in coaching together and he’s always been my number one supporter.”

Like father, like son.
