

Veterans Home pays tribute to victims of Sept. 11 attacks

BY DONNA RHODES

TILTON — “Their sacrifices shall not be in vain. Let us always remember. Let us never forget,” said Army veteran Thomas Wiley, State Commander of the American Legion Department of New Hampshire during last Sunday’s Patriot Day Observance at the New Hampshire Veterans’ Home in Tilton. On the 15th anniversary of the Sept. 11 attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, and the thwarted fourth attack when civilians aboard United Airlines Flight 93 crashed it into a field in Shanksville, Penn., Wiley said there was one thing special he recalls about that day.

It was a day that united the country, bringing everyone together. “It was an act meant to cause confusion in the United States of America, but what happened is, it caused more resolve among Americans,” he said. The residents of NHVH began their tribute last Sunday morning with an invocation by Chaplain David Clark of the Resident Council and the Pledge of Allegiance led by Sergeant-at-Arms Richard Milyaro. Bill Bertholdt, president of the council, also had several observations about that dark day in American history. He noted that plans to build the 110-story SEE TRIBUTE, PAGE A15

Van Tassel resigns from Sanbornton Select Board

dhrhodes@salmonpress.com

SANBORNTON — Sanbornton Selectman Johnny Van Tassel regretfully submitted his letter of resignation to fellow board members John Olmstead and Karen Ober on Aug. 31, citing the fact that his new job will greatly affect his level of participation in the town. Van Tassel recently left the Town of Tilton, where he served as their Public Works Director and returned to his former position with the state’s Department of Transportation. In his role as the Pavement Marking Foreman for the Bureau of Traffic, he travels all over the state, making his ability to serve much more difficult than a local job. “They were willing to work with me, so I gave it so time. I recently had to pull crew off the job early one day so I could get to a meeting and I don’t think that’s fair to them,” said Van Tassel.

He said he is sad to step down as a selectmen and wished he could at least finish his term, which ends next March. The harsh reality however is that his job has to come first and he just can’t continue to do both at the level of commitment they each require and deserve. Van Tassel’s two-week notice gave the board time to seek letters of interest from those who would like to fill the remainder of his term and on Sept. 14 they were scheduled to re-SEE VAN TASSEL, PAGE A15

Sanbornton Rec officials saddened by break-in at snack shack

SANBORNTON — A building at the Sanbornton Town Park was broken into over the Labor Day weekend, and thieves got away with a number of items used to not only support programs for the recreation department, but food and beverages that were earmarked to help raise funds for a new town recreation building. “They took things I need to run my programs. They took stuff from the kids; that’s es-

Lonergan said that the thief or thieves spent time prying open one lock box but were unsuccessful in opening the second. That key did give them entry to one-half of the small building however and they made off with several items, including a new Shop-Vac, a new megaphone, a compressor, tools, heavy extension cords, and cases of food intended for a fundraiser. “I want to thank them for not taking the kids’ soccer balls, though,” Lonergan said. Shaker superintendent search committee announces focus group discussions

REGION — The Shaker Regional School District, serving the towns of Belmont and Canterbury, has begun the process of a search for their new superintendent. Last year, the Shaker Board made the decision to hire an interim superintendent, Michael Tursi, for the 16-17 school year, and then begin a complete search this fall. The selected candidate from this search will begin on July 1, 2017. As part of the process, the Board has created a search committee made up of representatives from administrators, teachers, parents, support staff, community members, and central office staff in order to make sure all perspectives are taken into account. In addition, there will be four focus groups—one held at each school—open to all Belmont and Canterbury residents, in order to gain feedback about what the needs are for Shaker’s permanent superintendent. The dates for these are: Canterbury Elementary School: Sept. 15 at 7 p.m. Belmont Elementary

School: Sept. 22 at 5:30 p.m. Belmont Middle School: Sept. 13 at 5:30 SEE FOCUS GROUPS, PAGE A14

Youth Assistance Program launches new “Why Try” initiative

BY DONNA RHODES
drhodes@salmonpress.com

TILTON — The Youth Assistance Program, serving residents of both Tilton and Northfield, is introducing a new program to the area, titled “Why Try,” designed to better assist children and teens in their daily lives as they face life’s many pressures and challenges in a rapidly evolving world. The program comes to YAP through a grant from the Franklin Savings Bank Fund for Community Advancement.

Dawn Shimberg is the director of YAP and said the goal of Why Try is help youth answer the question “Why try in life?” when they are frustrated, confused or angry and perhaps feeling there is nothing more they can do.

“The Why Try program teaches youth that trying hard in life and putting effort into challenges at home, at school and with peers is worth the effort,” she said.

Since its inception, YAP has worked to help make a difference in the lives of youth who struggle with low self-esteem, academic failure and problems at home. These and other difficult challenges can often leave them at risk of making poor choices. As a result some may not realize their academic potential, while others drop out of school or end up in trouble with the law.

Through YAP, troubled young individuals can take part in juvenile court diversion programs. They can also participate in substance abuse prevention or early intervention programs along with a number of other educational and support-oriented opportunities, like the newest Why Try program.

Why Try groups will begin next month and are being offered at no charge to residents of Tilton and Northfield. Before the program even gets underway however, area youth are encouraged to stop by YAP’s offices after school on Monday, Sept. 26, for their open house. Refreshments and more information on Why Try and other programs will be available at that time.

The Youth Assistance Program is located at 291 Main St. in downtown Tilton, just a short walk from both the Winnisquam Regional High School and Middle School.

Two harbingers of the seasons: A garden about to become “so yesterday,” as the kids would say, and a furnace about to chuff.

One season ends, another begins: Time for the garden to die

By JOHN HARRIGAN
COLUMNIST

My garden is like a weekend guest--it arrives all of a sudden, we get to know each other again, and then it's gone.

I put it in just yesterday, over Memorial Day weekend, in the usual manner: corn to the rear, then beans, then beets and carrots and radishes and lettuce, and finally three round mounds of cucumbers. It all has a seasonal cadence, near the end a foxtrot with frost.

And now most of it has seen its day, ready to be pulled, gone to seed.

I remember riding in a car with my mother and her mother, when I was very small, driving down the Vermont side of the Connecticut River, in Lemington, along the steep and dark and spooky side of Monadnock, our Monadnock, not to be confused with Thoreau's love story in Jaffrey, and my grandmother saying that most of the wildflowers had gone to seed. I heard it as “Gone to sea,” and in the wonders of childhood imagined thousands of flowers floating down the river, floating all the way to the sea.

No, gone to seed, as in “Job done, time to die.” There is my Black-Seeded Simpson, for instance, bolting for the sky, too late to reach, its leaves long since too bitter to eat.

My Grandfather Carl Harrigan was one of the best gardeners in Lisbon, 70 or so miles and ten days' growing season down the valley from where I live now, and every spring he would compete with a gardener across town, on the other side of the Ammonoosuc, for the first peas. When I was five or so he bought me a little kid's gardening set, and sectioned off a little square of his garden nearest the house for me, and taught me how to plant it.

And there is was in the good soil and bright sun along the road to Landaff, my own little garden, and as I spent SEE NOTEBOOK, PAGE A15

PET OF THE WEEK

Hoagie arrived at New Hampshire Humane Society in May. There really is nothing about this extremely handsome cat you could not be totally enamored with. He's resplendent in his lovely luminous white coat, and those spectacular yellow eyes will pierce your heart. Look down at his paws and see he has that special feline gene that created extra toes, his paws look ever so much like oven mitts!

Hoagie wasn't in the best of shape when we first took him in – but we've fattened him up, brought his vaccines up to date, freed him of the parasites that were living off his body, and generally given him hope that a new forever home awaits. Hoagie of course, rests blissfully at our animal shelter, he may be hard of hearing making a firm pre-requisite, we want him to be an indoor cat- assured of safety at all times. Perhaps about four years young, Hoagie and his new family will enjoy many years of cozy companionship. Visit this majestic boy – you be glad you did.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Open select board seat should be filled by someone with experience

To the Editor:

Perhaps we should be asking those who have previously served on the Sanbornton Select Board if they would consider the possibility of filling the temporary Selectmen vacancy position until March! Come March, anyone interested in running for a full three year term would have an opportunity to get their name on the ballot for that position.

Our town needs someone with the experience gained from having been a Selectman, as we go into budget development time and some major road projects on the agenda for this year. Let's do what's best for all the residents of Sanbornton!

Call your Selectmen and express your views on this important decision that they will make next week.

Central NH begins to feel effects of widening drought

BY DONNA RHODES
dhrhodes@salmonpress.com

REGION — Skies have been sunny for the greater part of this summer, and while that may seem very beneficial for outdoor activities, there is a down side to that as well — specifically, dry wells, low water levels for fishermen and boaters, and even an impact on wildlife and forests.

WMUR Meteorologist Kevin Skarupa said the southern and central regions of New Hampshire gradually worked their way into drought conditions beginning in June this year, while typically November is the month most temporary drought conditions occur.

“We never saw this coming in the spring, but here it is, and it’s probably only going to get worse before it gets better,” Skarupa said.

The key to restoring the state water table to normal conditions would be a tropical storm. Skarupa, along with other meteorologists, are keeping a close eye on storms now developing off the coast of Africa. That, he said, is the “breeding ground” for most tropical storms and hurricane and they are hoping one will eventually veer this way.

“The help for us (in New Hampshire) could come with a fall weather pattern brought on by a tropical storm, although we don’t want to see any devastation from such a storm. Just the rains,” he said. “There are several waves of storms coming off of Africa and we have a month of that weather activity left so we’ll just have to wait and see.”

If nothing heads to the northeast, however, that could make for a “tough November,” Skarupa said.

“Without tropical storms to shake things up in the weather pattern this time of year, the jet stream generally stays the same,” he noted. “There’s no way to anticipate right now what will happen later in the year until we see if a tropical system heads our way.”

New Hampshire generally has an average of 3.5-inches of rain per month each autumn. With a current deficit of seven to 10 inches of precipitation since the calendar year began, that means it would take up to five inches of rain a month, for a couple of months, to get things back on track. By November, however, the ground is typically frozen, disallowing rain to penetrate the ground. That could potentially mean other woes in the future if this weather patterns continue, leaving early autumn remains dry and storm free.

A cove off the Pemigewasset River in Bristol, typically the site of a vibrant water flow, is one of many areas in central New Hampshire left with little to no water this summer due to drought conditions that have struck the state.

Natural springs across parts of the state are experiencing difficulties with higher bacterial counts over this dry summer and some have had to be shut down for cleaning and testing. That adds to further inconveniences for those who must now look elsewhere in search of drinking or cooking water for their homes.

“I’ve had to rely on friends who have town water to fill jugs or take a shower,” said one resident who wished to go unnamed. “Other than that, I’ve been collecting what little rain water we’ve had to just flush my toilet as I’ve waited for my well to come back up again.”

Recreation is taking a bit of a hit, too.

Recent kayakers on the Pemigewasset River said there were several “bone spots” where they had to port their vessels and make their way around rocky outcroppings in the river bed. Despite the hardships of low water, they still enjoyed seeing a low-flying bald eagle, muskrat and families of merganser ducks in search of food.

“There were some tough spots out there for sure, but we still had a great day paddling and enjoying nature,” they said.

Wildlife is yet another aspect of the drought taking a big hit. Many brooks and small ponds have left fish struggling in pools between the rocks with no way to make it up or down stream. Deer and other wildlife are left seeking places to find drinking water, and dry woods also means fewer berries and other food sources, affecting bear, moose, fox, deer, coyote, and even birds which rely on the wild vegetation.

Because of the lack of natural food sources in the wild, people are reminded to secure garbage, bird feeders and other attractants to wildlife in order to prevent unwanted encounters as animals seek other resources.

While no water bans have been placed in central New Hampshire towns yet, residents are still cautioned to use their water resources wisely in order to maintain a reliable source of water in their homes..

Skarupa said the last time New Hampshire has had a drought of this magnitude was in the 1940’s, following the great hurricane of 1938 when thousands of acres of trees were toppled by high winds. During the decade that followed those trees rotted and conditions dried out. Wildfires then ran rampant across the state, most frequently in the eastern sector.

Recent light overnight rains have kept the fire danger levels to “Moderate” but a few hot, dry days can rapidly make a change in those conditions. Residents and visitors should consult their local fire department’s Web site for fire danger levels before considering any permitted brush burns on their property.

Celebrate the opening of Lake Winnisquam Scenic Trail on Sept. 17

BELMONT — Belmont's Lake Winnisquam Scenic Trail is ready for residents and visitors to enjoy. A Trail Opening Ceremony is planned for Saturday, Sept. 17th at 10 a.m.

After more than 15 years of planning and effort under the leadership of Ron Mitchell and support from Town residents and staff, Belmont has a beautiful 1.8 mile paved trail for walking, running, bicycling, snow shoeing and cross country skiing. The "Winni Trail" extends from Leslie Roberts Road (Town Beach Road) to Osborne's AG Way where it ends at the Daniel Webster Highway. It weaves through the woods over rolling terrain with some scenic vistas across the lake. When completed this fall, the second phase of Laconia's WOW Trail will connect with Belmont's trail offering 4.5 miles of continuous paved trail between Belmont and Laconia.

The Lake Winnisquam Scenic Trail ribbon cutting ceremony and celebration will be held at the trail entrance adjacent to Leslie Roberts Road in Belmont. Following the Opening ceremony, there will be an opportunity to walk or cycle the trail with Belmont Trail Committee members. Bring walking shoes or your bicycle if you want to join in the tour of the new trail. Parking is available in lots along Leslie Roberts Road. More information will be provided on the Trail Opening Celebration on the Town website and the Winni Trail Facebook site: <https://www.facebook.com/winni.trail.7>.

The Belmont Recreation Trail Committee welcomes suggestions and is looking for volunteers. For a map of the Winni Trail and more information, you can track what's happening on Facebook. The next goal will be to continue extending the trail to the west along the south shore of Lake Winnisquam. Discover the secret of “The Red House” on LRPA

Classic film noir is this weekend’s “After Dark” feature

LACONIA — Join Lakes Region Public Access Television at 10:30 p.m. this Friday and Saturday night (Sept. 16 & 17) for our “LRPA After Dark” presentation of 1947’s psychological film noir “The Red House,” starring Edward G. Robinson, Judith Anderson, Allene Roberts and Lon McCallister.

“The Red House” introduces us to Pete Morgan (Robinson), a disabled farmer who lives on an isolated farm with his sister Ellen (Anderson) and Meg (Roberts), a teen that they adopted as an infant when her parents died. Pete is having trouble keeping up with the farm, so Meg’s classmate Nath Storm (McCallister) comes as a hired hand to help with the chores. Meg is delighted, as she has a crush on Nath, even though he has a girlfriend. The Morgan farm is surrounded by Ox Head Woods. Pete forbids the teens to enter the woods, and warns them of an abandoned building there known as The Red House. One night, Nath takes a shortcut through the woods, where someone knocks him out cold. As more strange events unfold, Nath and Meg become suspicious of Pete’s obsession with the woods and the Red House. They begin to ask questions and explore on their own, which fills Pete with unspeakable rage – and slowly drives him mad. Meg and Nath feel that their lives may be in danger; what might have happened at The Red House to turn Pete into such a jealous, unstable person?

“The Red House” has all the makings of a film noir classic: great stars (Robinson and Anderson), along with fantastic performances from the supporting cast (including a young Rory Calhoun and a gorgeous Julie London); a cool plot with psychological surprises; creepy music that sets the film’s tone, etc. So why hasn’t it become a cinematic classic? Some reviewers think it’s because the pacing of the plot is a bit slow, while others feel that it’s because the subject matter was, for its time, distasteful. “The Red House” was well received by critics, who thought that Robinson’s performance was very strong. This truly is a film that is not shown very often, so grab your popcorn and meet us after dark for this rare cinematic gem.

LRAA announces September speaker

TILTON — Sara Rines, owner of U-FrameWe-Frame in Laconia, will be speaking on “Framing Your Art to Enhance and Protect” at the Sept. 19 meeting at the LRAA Gallery at Tanger Outlets.

Rines has worked in the family business of framing since the age of 13, taking over as the owner a year ago. She will discuss professional framing techniques and materials that preserve and protect art as well as ready it for shows, sale, or for hanging at home. Besides offering full framing services, her shop is unique in that she will sell you framing supplies and serve as a resource to answer any questions you might have about framing your own work.

“I love when people ask me questions,” she said, “because there is a lot more to framing than people realize.”

She will show and explain the differences in glass, mats, and hanging hardware, providing samples and will explain how the right frame can make all the difference.

U-Frame We-Frame is in their new location at 50 Canal St. The meeting begins at 7 p.m. at the LRAA Gallery at the Tanger Outlets. The session is free and open to the public.

Money raised at Get Your Rear in Gear NH helps fund colon cancer screening room at Healthfirst Family Care

FRANKLIN/LA-CONIA — The Colon Cancer Coalition has awarded HealthFirst Family Care Center a grant to fund a colon cancer screening program. The money for this grant comes from funds that were raised during the 2015 Get

Your Rear in Gear® – New Hampshire run/walk event. HealthFirst Family Care Center (HealthFirst) is a Federal-Qualified Health Center that covers a five-county service area in central New Hampshire, with a population of approximately 2,063 people aged 50-75 years. HealthFirst provides primary health-care services through an intervention, prevention, and education model following that of a Health Home and Community Health Center.

Federal Health Resources and Services Administration data for 2015 indicates that 91.8 percent of HealthFirst patients are at or below 200 percent of poverty and their colorectal cancer screening rate is 30 percent. HealthFirst is actively working to increase the screening rate by offering average risk patients a postage-paid, take home fecal immunochemical test (FIT) kit. To become a HealthFirst patient or to learn more about FIT kits, call HealthFirst Franklin, 934-1464, or Health-

First Laconia, 366-1070. The 2016 Get Your Rear in Gear® – New Hampshire event is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 24 at Gould Hill Farm in Hopkinton. For more information, visit coloncancercoalition.org/newhampshire.

About the Colon Cancer Coalition

The Colon Cancer Coalition is a non-profit organization based in Minneapolis, Minn. dedicated to encouraging screening and raising awareness of colon cancer. The organization's signature Get Your Rear in Gear® and Tour de Tush® event series are volunteer-driven in communities throughout the United States. Since 2004, millions of dollars have been granted by the Colon Cancer Coalition to local programs that promote early prevention, screening, and patient support services for this disease. By making the words colon, colorectal and colonoscopy a part of the everyday language, we believe we can overcome the fear and decrease deaths from this largely preventable cancer. For more information, visit coloncancercoalition.org.

Central NH VNA & Hospice is looking for volunteers to join interdisciplinary Hospice Team

REGION — Central New Hampshire VNA & Hospice will be holding one hour Information Sessions for anyone who wishes to explore the possibility of volunteering with our Hospice clients and their families.

Sessions are being held at these locations and dates:

Moultonborough Library – Sept. 19 at 11 a.m.

Laconia Library – Sept. 21 at 10 a.m.

Gilman Library (Alton) Oct. 5 at 3 p.m.

Tuftonboro Library – Oct. 6 at 1 p.m.

Being a Hospice Volunteer is a very gratifying experience. We are looking for individuals who have served in the military who as hospice volunteers may visit with and provide some companionship for our veteran clients in our “We Honor Veterans Program.” Also, we would like to engage volunteers who have the ability to provide Pet Therapy, Reiki, singing with our newly formed A cappella group as well as those who want to share some time volunteering with patients in their homes or nursing facilities during this very challenging time. We also have other administrative volunteer opportunities. Volunteers provide important services to Central New Hampshire VNA & Hospice and the people we serve. Whether it's providing companionship to a person in the final months and weeks of life, offering support to family members and caregivers, or helping with community outreach and fundraising, the contributions of volunteers are essential to the important work provided by our hospice program. In fact, hospice care in the U.S. was founded by volunteers and there is continued commitment to volunteer service.

This is a wonderful opportunity to be part of a team that cares for those with life ending illnesses at a very meaningful time. The rewards of this work are many and it is a privilege to be allowed into a person's life as they reach this particular chapter. By being a hospice volunteer, you can gain great personal satisfaction from knowing that you have made an impact in another person's life and in your community.

If you would like to find out more about the Hospice Volunteer Program, please contact Randy Macdonald, Volunteer Coordinator, at 524-8444 or Martha Horton, Volunteer Coordinator, at 569-2729.

tral New Hampshire VNA & Hospice serves Lakes Region communities in Belknap and Southern Carroll County and provides Home Care (nursing and rehabilitation services in the home); Pediatric Care (direct health care, education and support services for children and families); and a comprehensive, team-based Hospice program. 'Lakes Region Uncorked' returns Nov. 3

A tasteful tradition benefits LRCS and celebrates the best of the Lakes Region

MEREDITH — Uncorked returns to Church Landing at Mill Falls in Meredith on Thursday, Nov. 3 from 5-8 p.m., where the rustic elegance of Church Landing creates the perfect atmosphere for guests to sample locally crafted food and beverages that are second to none.

In its fourth year, Lakes Region Uncorked has become New Hampshire's showcase event to enjoy locally-made wine, beer, mead, cider, spirits, fine foods and much more.

"We are grateful for the excitement and enthusiasm Lakes Region Uncorked generates year after year. It has quickly become an event that people look forward to and share with their friends and colleagues. Uncorked is great fun, supports small local businesses and is the largest fundraiser of the year for LRCS," said Christine Santaniello, LRCS Executive Director.

Each year, this event features new and returning vendors. Uncorked guests enjoy trying new products and sampling their favorites introduced in past years.

"We are excited to welcome New Hampshire-made spirits to the tasting room this year. Libations are very popular and New Hampshire boasts some very fine local distilleries. Joining Uncorked 2016 are Tam-worth Distilling, Tall Ship Distillery, Flag Hill Distillery and Haunting Whisper Spirits," commented Joanne Piper Lang, LRCS Director of Development.

All guests enjoy an assortment of fine foods - appetizers and hors d'oeuvres and New Hampshire made chocolates, cheeses, cakes, toffee and locally roasted coffees. This year, Uncorked will feature Chef Kevin Halligan, owner and executive chef of Laconia Local Eatery. The Chef will prepare dishes using fresh, local ingredients and pair small plates with wines and spirits featured at the event. A limited number of Celebrity Chef Tickets for a 5:30 or 6:30 p.m. session with Chef Halligan are available.

At every turn, guests will find Uncorked to be a truly special occasion - as they enjoy live harp music presented by Harpist Emilia Pepen, start their holiday shopping with silent auction items donated by local artisans and businesses and participate in an expanded 'Wall of Wine' charity raffle where everyone is a winner!

Vendors in our Tasting Room include: Canterbury Aleworks, Coffin Cellars Winery, Farnum Hill Ciders, Flag Hill Winery and Distillery, Gilmanton Winery and Vineyard, Haunting Whisper Vineyard & Spirits, Hermit

The popular Wall of Wine raffle is one of many popular and unique features of Lakes Region Uncorked, the signature fundraising event for Lakes Region Community Services. Tickets are on sale now for Uncorked 2016 - Nov. 3 at Church Landing in Meredith.

Woods Winery, LaBelle Winery, Moat Mountain Brewing Co., Newfound Lake Vineyards, Sap House Meadery, Squam Brewing, Tamworth Distilling; Tall Ship Distillery; Seven Birches Winery; Whippletree Winery; and Woodstock Inn Brewery. The Tasting room also features Hampshire Toffee, Huckins Farm; Ooo La La Creative Cakes; Sweet to Eat Cheesecakes; Win-nipesaukee Chocolates and Woodshed Roasting Company.

For those who truly want to make a night of it, overnight accommodations for Thursday night are being offered at a discounted rate at the Inn at Mill Falls and Church Landing. Availability may be limited. For reservations and details, call 1-800-622-6455.

"Because of the generosity of our corporate sponsors, ticket sales directly help the many people LRCS serves in Belknap and S. Grafton counties - people with developmental disabilities, brain injuries, and children and families in need of support, as well as elders and veterans, added Santaniello. This is a wonderful event for Village Savings Bank-Coaster and Bank of New Hampshire Pavilion - Music sponsor.

Tickets are $55 in advance and $65 at the door. Tickets for Uncorked with the Celebrity Chef session are $75 in advance or at the door space permitting. Visit www.lrcs.org or the Lakes Region Community Services Facebook page for more information. Tickets are available online at www.uncorked16.eventbrite.com. For a print brochure or questions email uncorked@lrcs.org.

At the core of LRCS' work are inclusion, acceptance, and building strengths and partnerships - whether at the individual, family or community level.

LRCS Executive Director to speak at Taylor Community

LACONIA — Established in 1975, Lakes Region Community Services - originally named Lakes Region Twin Rivers Human Services Coordinating Council - began as a grassroots effort organized by local citizens who felt better planning was needed for a variety of human services.

Christine Santaniello, LRCS's executive director, will explain all about this vital organization in a presentation at Taylor Community's Woodside Building on Tuesday, Sept. 20 at 2 p.m. The event is free and open to the public, but RSVPs are requested by calling 524-5600.

Today, LRCS has offices in Laconia and Plymouth, providing services to 1,200 individuals and families with disabilities annually in Belknap, Grafton and Sullivan Counties. It employs more than 350 staff members and contract with an additional 150 vendors.

Seminar to present options for maximizing Social Security benefits

TILTON — 62, 66 and 70; these are the three ages most people associate with Social Security, and in nearly every circumstance would not provide you with your maximum lifetime benefit.

From your 62nd birthday until your 70th birthday, there are 96 months that you could file for Social Security benefits. When you include options your spouse would have, survivor benefits and advanced filing options, there are more than 20,000 variations that a married couple could file for benefits. Each option would not only give you a different monthly benefit, but would also result in a different lifetime benefit. But if you just go by the conventional wisdom of filing at age 62, 66 or 70, you will likely be missing out.

Join us for a complimentary class that was created to help you understand:

Why maximizing Social Security should be at the core of your retirement plan and strategies to optimize your filing

Why in almost every case an individuals' assets/investments are over exposed to risk

How you can manage the impact of the "Social Security double tax" hit

Please note: Married couples who have not yet filed for benefits but are planning to will gain the most from this program.

Restaurant on Route 3 in Tilton and collected donation for the cause. Joining them for the night were athletes of the central New Hampshire Winnepesaukee Warriors Special Olympic team who greeted customers, cheered the officers on and gratefully accepted donations for their own team as well.

Liam of Gilford was busy greeting customers as they arrived and Timmy, a Belmont Olympian, also pitched in to hand out menus to everyone.

Betty Loos of Alexandria brought two of her athletes, Richard and Peter, to Applebee's that night to enjoy dinner and help out as well.

"We thought it would be nice to come have dinner and take part in Tip-A-Cop again. This is our second year of coming here and the guys will go around with a bucket to take donations," Loos explained.

Peter said he really enjoys SONH competitions like running, jumping, softball and basketball, but he was especially looking forward to the start of bowling at Funspot, which got underway on Sunday.

Alicia, one of the original members of the Winnepesaukee Warriors, lives in Campton and made the trip down to Exit 20 to join her fellow athletes for the night. For the past nine years she has been involved in track, bowling, and also does

DONNA RHODES

Tilton Police Officers Noelle Glenn and Elizabeth Murray were all smiles as they delivered dinner to customers at Applebee's Restaurant last Wednesday night. Their service was part of the annual Tip-A-Cop fundraiser for Special Olympics New Hampshire.

downhill skiing with a team from Nashua.

"We don't have a ski team right now, but I get to ski with the Nashua team, and it's a lot of fun," she said.

Applebee's got started with their fundraising on Aug. 8 when manager Chris McNamara said they started selling "Torches" that display names of local contributors or people they wished to honor with a donation. The restaurant also sold raffle tickets for the chance to win a Tom Brady jersey to help raise as much money as they could for SONH.

General Manager Darryn Martin also gave his all to the night by climbing into a dunk booth out in front of the restaurant where people were able to buy chances to knock him into the chilly water. Later in the evening Tilton Police Chief Robert Cormier took his turn in the booth as well and all proceeds were given to SONH.

Chelsea Gill is the Director of Development for SONH and said that over the last four weeks as many as 14 Applebee's restaurants around the state were participating in the campaign for Special Olympics. Highlighting the fundraising was Tip-A-Cop, where police officers took over some of the duties of the wait staff and drummed up further contributions for the cause. Fifteen-percent of each dinner was also donated to SONH.

"We've had a partnership with Applebee's for a long time now and we couldn't be prouder. Our goal here in Tilton tonight is to raise $1,500 in 'tips' and we couldn't make that happen without Applebee's, Chief Cormier and the Tilton Police Department," she said.

Another contributor to the evening's success was a crew from the Tilton-Northfield Fire & EMS who helped draw attention to the event with their ladder truck and flashing lights along the highway.

Last year New Hampshire's Applebee's restaurants and the Tip-A-Cop night generated $64,000 in total contributions to SONH. The money raised helps athletes and their families participate in the Winter and Summer Olympic Games. For more information or to make a donation, visit them online at www.sonh.org.

Use "Open Enrollment" to Help Improve Your Financial Outlook

It's Open Enrollment Season, so if you work for a medium- or large-sized company, you will need to make some choices regarding your employee benefits — and these choices can have a big impact on your financial situation.

Depending on your employer, your benefits package may include various types of insurance, plus access to a 401(k) or similar retirement plan. Here are some suggestions for getting the most out of these benefits:

- Health insurance — Companies regularly change plans and providers, so the coverage and premiums you had last year may not be the same this year. In any case, look at all aspects of your coverage options — premiums, deductibles, co-pays and total out-of-pocket limits. A lower premium may seem attractive, but you could end up paying even more if the coverage is not as good. So, choose wisely.
- Life insurance — You may want to take whatever life insurance your employer offers, but it still might not be enough. To determine how much life insurance you need, consider a variety of factors — your age, income, family size, spouse's income, and so on. If your employer's coverage is insufficient, you may want to supplement it with a separate policy.
- Disability insurance — This could be a valuable employee benefit — but, as is the case with life insurance, your employer's disability coverage may not be enough for your needs, especially if you'd like to protect yourself against an illness or injury that could sideline you from work for a long time. Consequently, you might want to consider purchasing your own disability policy.

Apart from reviewing your insurance options, you may want to examine your 401(k) or similar retirement plan. Of course, your employer may allow you to change your 401(k) throughout the year, but you've got a particularly good opportunity to do so during open enrollment, when you're already looking at all your employee benefits. So look at your contribution level. Are you putting in as much as you can afford? Your 401(k)'s earnings can grow tax deferred, and you typically contribute pretax dollars, so the more you put in, the lower your taxable income for the year. (Taxes are due upon withdrawal, and withdrawals made before age 59½ may be subject to a 10% IRS penalty.)

At a minimum, invest enough to earn your employer's matching contribution, if one is offered. And increase your own contributions whenever you get a raise.

As far as your investment choices, you'll want to spread your dollars among the different investments within your 401(k) in a way that reflects your risk tolerance and time horizon. During the early stages of your career, when you have many years to go until you retire, you can probably afford to invest more heavily in growth-oriented accounts. These will fluctuate more in value, but you have time to potentially overcome the downturns. When you're nearing retirement, you may want to shift some of your assets into more conservative vehicles — but even at this point, you still need some growth opportunities. After all, you may spend two or three decades in retirement, so you'll need to draw on as many resources as possible.

Open enrollment isn't just a time to fill out a bunch of papers. It's also a chance to reconsider — and maybe even upgrade — many areas of your financial outlook.

another happy summer there, given up by my parents for the season, up it grew, with me. So the other day I went out to the garden for a cuke, and contemplated the havoc of what just yesterday was straight and neat. It is a disheveled mess, awaiting the heap that will begin its transition back to soil. If you want an example of something holistic, contemplate a garden. But pulling up a garden planted just a moment ago is not a sad thing for me, any more than thinking about when to start dragging trees for the outdoor furnace or splitting up a little more kindling. It is all about loving the life.

twin World Trade Towers began in 1961 and the center opened on April 4, 1973- 28 years, five months and seven days before two planes brought them crashing down in September of 2001.

"Many died that day, many are still suffering and we're here to honor them all today," said Bertholdt.

Killed in the attack were 2,194 civilians who worked or did business in the trade center. Along with them, 343 members of the New York City Fire Department and 71 New York City Police and Port Authority officers also lost their lives as they raced to save as many people as they could.

"These were indeed heroic acts of people who went about doing their job without thinking of their own safety, not unlike those in service to the country," said Bertholdt as he acknowledged the room filled with U.S. veterans. "We must all go on day by day and remember those who have passed."

U.S. Navy veteran and Resident Council second vice president Elaine Baker read "We Shall Never Forget," a 9-11 tribute written by Alan W. Jankowski. Bertholdt then followed with an untitled poem written by Poet Laureate Andrew Motion for a service at Westminster Abbey, honoring British residents who were killed in the New York City attack.

Cynthia Woodward of Sen. Kelly Ayotte's office gave the senator's regrets for not being able to attend the observance. Instead she was in Manchester honoring first responders lost in the attacks by climbing stairs for the equivalent of those that they climbed in an effort to reach victims trapped inside the two skyscrapers. Woodward delivered written remarks from the senator however and NHVH Resident Council's first vice president Gary Simard also read remarks and tributes sent by Sen. Jeanne Shaheen and Congresswoman Ann Kuster.

A touching video with photos and song, titled "Sirens," was then presented before the ceremony came to a close with the playing of "Taps."

Executive Councilor Joe Kenney attended Sunday's observance and recalled afterward where he was when the first plane struck the World Trade Center.

Kenney said he was on active duty with the U.S. Marines at the time, working on a special assignment at the U.S. Marshal's office in Boston. A television was nearby and he was able to hear the initial report of a plane flying into the North Tower.

"I looked at my supervisor and told him it was a terrorist attack," he said.

While many believed it was just a horrific accident, Kenney said he was certain it had to be more.

"It was a beautiful, clear day. A plane wouldn't be hitting the tower in weather like that. I knew it had to have been a deliberative attack," said Kenney.

Sept. 11, 2001, he said, was a horrific day and so many people have a connection to it, knowing people in one way or another who were involved or aboard one of the fated airlines.

"It's important that we remember them and all that happened that day, and maintain our vigilance so something like it never happens again," said Kenney.

tain was placed back inside the broken lock box when they left.

The park has been the site of a number of incidences ever since the two aged portable buildings used as offices and storage space for the recreation department were torn down in December of 2014. Since that time Lonergan has been operating out of an office at the town's highway department building and storing equipment for recreation programs wherever there has been space for it all.

A request for money to build a new recreation office and storage room at the park was narrowly defeated by voters at the March 2016 town meeting, leaving the department to now raise money on their own for the much-needed building.

"Since 2014, there's been a significant increase in vandalism at the town park without us having a presence there. It's such a remote location and we really need to get located back there and hopefully stop some of this from happening," said Lonergan.

Last year, vehicles drove out onto the playing fields, tore up the grass and left ruts all over the property. The damage was so bad that the fall soccer season had to be cancelled while repairs were made. Since then large rocks have been strategically placed along the edge of the field to prevent similar occurrences in the future but the area is still vulnerable to destructive activity.

Last week, Lonergan met with selectmen to explain the situation and ask for their assistance.

Chairman Johnny Van Tassel said the board is looking into a number of new security options, including the possibility of placing cameras in the park that could help police track down perpetrators.

"It saddened me to hear about this," said Van Tassel. "The Rec. Department works so hard for the kids and the people of our town, and for someone to do that is just awful."

Anyone with information on the break-in or with knowledge of where some of the stolen items may have been stored or sold is asked to contact the Sanbornton Police Department.

Offense can't break through as Raiders edged by Campbell, 1-0

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

BELMONT – The schedule makers didn't do any favors to the Belmont High School girls' soccer team during the early portion of the regular season. The Red Raiders drew two perennial Final Four contenders in the opening three games of the slate, and despite playing tight contests, a 1-0 loss to Campbell High School on Friday afternoon dropped Belmont to 1-2 overall entering this week's action.

"We're improving but it's moving a little slowly," said first-year head coach Cevat Vural. "The biggest thing is that every girl has a huge heart and the attitude has been excellent."

The lone goal came with just 4:07 left in the first half on Friday, as Campbell's Sara Keane popped a shot over the head of Belmont senior goalkeeper Mariah Watson that put the Cougars up 1-0.

"(Belmont) had the ball in our zone for probably 60 or 70 percent of the time but we defended well and were able to get out on the counterattack, which led to a nice goal for us," Campbell head coach Gary Karibian said. "We aren't going to win games 6-0, so our strategy is to take advantage of our opportunities and attack when we can. We really play a team game where everyone is involved in our success."

Belmont had several nice chances against

Campbell (5-0 overall), with the best opportunity in the first half coming on a shot by sophomore Kaitlyn Delisle that necessitated a diving save by Campbell goalkeeper Mackenzie Wagner.

The Raiders dominated possession in the second half, though the scoring chances didn't quite come to fruition in the final third of the field. Seniors Hannah Shirley and Kelsey Scott made key plays and distributed to teammates in the midfield, though Wagner was rarely tested by point blank opportunities in preserving the shutout.

Watson made several nice sliding stops in the second half to keep Belmont within striking distance, while the defensive work of sophomore Makenzie Donovan was also strong in closing Campbell forwards.

"We are seeing what mistakes we're making and what we need to do better right now," said Vural. "But I will say, our positioning has been better and we're doing a good job switching the field and understanding what we should be doing with the ball."

Senior Jasmine Syed had a solid game on the outside for the Raiders, as did Emma Chase and Katie Gagnon. Chloe Sotak helped settle things in the midfield along with Scott and Shirley.

"The girls did get tired on a hot day like this and we don't have a lot of depth so that made for some problems," Vural explained.

Both of Belmont's defeats entering this week came by one-goal margins, with the 1-0 defeat coming after a 2-1 overtime loss against Hopkinton to start the year. The squad did get its first victory over Lakes Region foe Inter-Lakes, and the regular season marches on with road trips this week against Somersworth and White

Raiders get off to fast start, ultimately fall to Mascenic

BY JEFF LAJOIE

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

BELMONT – It wasn't a win, but the Belmont High School volleyball team seemed to put the train back on the tracks Friday night.

After a difficult week, the Red Raiders rebounded with a stellar opening set against visiting Mascenic. But after falling into a quick hole, the Vikings came back with victories in each of the final three frames to earn a 19-25, 25-17, 25-14, 25-21 win in Division III action at BHS.

“We're trying to rebuild some things but there are really only positive things I see with the group moving forward,” said Belmont head coach Colleen Brownlee.

The Raiders (1-2 entering this week) opened play with a convincing 25-19 victory in game one, as all signs pointed to a big night. With senior Shannon Davies (10 kills) leading the way offensively, Belmont jumped out early and had Mascenic on the ropes from the get go.

That changed in the second stanza however, as the Vikings turned a 12-12 score into a 22-14 advantage thanks to a 10-2 run that took advantage of some Red Raider wildness on the defensive end.

Mascenic would even the score thanks to a 25-19 win, and the Vikings also snatched control of the third set after a back and forth opening portion that saw kills from Davies and junior Jordyn Lavallee. The visitors dominated the late part of game three, closing out the set on a 12-4 run to grab a 25-14 victory.

The Raiders indeed had their backs against the wall in the fourth, and Mascenic appeared to have things well within hand up 15-5. The advantage was 24-15, setting up match point, until Belmont put together arguably its best stretch of play on the night. Needing to win nine straight points to keep a glimmer of hope alive, the Raiders went on an impressive 6-0 run to get back within 24-21.

Senior setter Emily LaFlam finished with 18 assists and three digs in Belmont's 3-1 loss to Mascenic on Friday.

Kills from Davies, Lavallee and Lindsey Huckins did the trick, with Lavallee putting the pressure on from the service line. But finally, Mascenic (2-

1) managed to nab the clinching point, ending the night with a tight 25-21 win.

“It was really a complete turnaround from the other night against Winnisquam,” said Brownlee of a 3-0 sweep at the hands of the Bears. “We're getting back on track now and I'm excited to see what we have in store moving ahead.”

Davies had three aces, seven digs and two blocks to go with her team-high 10 kills, while senior setter Emily LaFlam dished out 18 assists and added three digs and two aces. Lavallee added seven kills, five aces and eight digs, while the serving of Morgan Ferguson was also key in several Belmont offensive runs.

This week's Belmont schedule features matches against Inter-Lakes and Nute.

Belmont's Antonucci earns medalist honors at Den Brae

BY JEFF LAJOIE

SANBORTON – Led by senior Nicole Antonucci's big day, the Belmont High School golf team finished third in a four-school match on Friday at Den Brae Golf Course. Winnisquam Regional was a close fourth, with Plymouth and Sanborn going 1-2.

Antonucci took medalist honors on the day, as her round of 41 on the Par 36 course had her first overall in the 26-player field. Michael Marrone (47), Trevor Hunt (51), Wyatt Paquin (51) and Will Robarge (51) all figured into the scoring for Belmont, which totaled a 190 to take third on the day.

Winnisquam (197) was led by Ethan Bryson's 46, while Caleb Kuczkowski was right behind him with a round of 47. Thomas Drowsdale (55) and Jason Shevlin (69) rounded out the scorers for the Bears.

Plymouth (183) and

Sanborn (189) led the field with the two locals squads right behind.

On the road at Pheasant Ridge, the Red Raiders took second in a three-school match on Sept. 7. Belmont combined to shoot a total of 199, behind host Gilford's 178 and ahead of Plymouth's 211.

Antonucci led the Raiders with a top score of 47, while Paquin was next with a 50 and the pair of Hunt and Marrone each shot 51 to account for the rest of the scoring.

Robarge (60), Hunter Davies (61) and Karley Towne (66) also competed for Belmont on the day.

Field hockey Bears get on track with pair of wins

BY JEFF LAJOIE

jlajoie@salmonpress.com

FRANKLIN – It was a big bounce back week for the Winnisquam Regional High School field hockey team. After dropping their first two games of 2016, the Bears rebounded with a pair of wins last week and entered this week's slate of games with a 2-2 record.

The week closed with a 3-1 win on the road at rival Franklin, as goals from Makenzie Snow, Cailey Clogston and Lilli Keegan enabled the Bears to pick up the victory. Keegan and Meghan Cote (two) added assists in the win, while goalkeeper Riley Toupin recorded six saves in the Winnisquam net.

The victory came on the heels of the team's first win of the season at home against Laconia, as Winnisquam broke through with a 3-0 win in Tilton.

Keegan and Molly

Tinker scored first half goals to put the Bears up 2-0 at the break, and Cote found the back of the net in the final minute of regulation to put things away, 3-0.

Cote, Ema Atherton and Emily Decormier had assists for Winnisquam, which plays White Mountains and Monadnock on the schedule this week.

Dragons softball tryouts are Sept. 25

REGION — Dragons ASA Softball open tryouts for U10 and U14 teams will be Sunday, Sept. 25, at Woodland Heights Elementary School, 225 Winter St. in Laconia. A rain date will be posted on Facebook if needed by noon on Sept. 25.

Tryouts for 14U pitchers and catchers will be from 1:30 to 2 p.m. Tryouts for all 14U players are 2 to 3 p.m., from 3 to 4 p.m. for all 10U and from 4 to 4:30 p.m. for 10U pitchers and catchers. Tryouts are free.

ASA gives players that love softball the opportunity to play longer in the summer and at a higher caliber of play on a travel team. ASA also only allows certified coaches and patched umpires. This truly is the next level of play.

The Dragons organization believes at U10 and U12 girls shouldn't have to choose between playing Babe Ruth or ASA. They want them on the field as much as possible to foster competitive future high school teams. Therefore these teams will have tournaments after the closing of the Babe Ruth season. They will have practices, however they will be working closely with Babe Ruth coaches so schedules don't conflict with practices.

Belmont senior Logan Wilder eyes the ball on the foot of Derryfield's Trent Henrich during the first half of the host Raiders' 2-0 loss in Division III play on Friday. The defeat was the first of the year for Belmont, which fell to 4-1 entering this week's action.

Newcomer Derryfield hands Raiders first loss of 2016

BY JEFF LAJOIE
jlajoie@salmonpress.com

BELMONT – One of the great unknowns in the NHIAA Division III soccer landscape this fall is how will newcomer Derryfield School shape the conversation and postseason discussion?

The four-time defending state champion in Division IV was bumped up to D-III this season, bringing with it a pedigree of success and dominance, albeit against smaller schools and programs. Belmont High School got its first crack at the Cougars on Friday afternoon, and the hype appears to be warranted.

Visiting Derryfield got a pair of goals from Jeff Pratt – one in each half – and withstood some solid Belmont scoring chances to earn a 2-0 victory over the host Red Raiders. The loss was the first of 2016 for Belmont, which fell to 4-1 on the year while Derryfield improved to an identical 4-1 overall. The Cougars lone loss came via a 1-0 defeat to Campbell.

“You tip your cap to Derryfield,” explained Belmont head coach Mike Foley. “They applied pressure throughout the field all game. They let us know they were here.”

After allowing just one goal against in its first four games, Belmont surrounded its second of the year midway through the first half. In a scoreless game, Pratt snuck a shot past senior goalkeeper Jonny Leclair with 16:50 remaining to put Derryfield up 1-0.

Leclair would make some fine saves to keep it a one-goal deficit the rest of the half. His diving stab with 4:12 left turned away a solid Cougar chance, and Derryfield settled for the 1-0 advantage at intermission.

“We came to play today but we just didn't keep the pace that we normally want to play with and that hurt us,” offered Foley.

Perhaps Belmont's best scoring chance came with 30:28 to play in the second half. Sophomore Colby Brown played a nice through ball to senior Logan Wilder, who fired a cracker on frame. The ball was tipped over the crossbar by Derryfield keeper Connor Diehl however, giving the Raiders a corner kick but keeping the Cougars in the lead.

With the Raiders pushing for the equalizer and establishing some territorial dominance, Derryfield caught them against the run of play for an insurance goal that put the game out of reach. With 12:15 to play, Pratt took a lead pass from teammate Oliver Simon and got in alone, flicking a right-footed ball into the corner of the net to put the Cougars on top, 2-0.

John Stark thumps Eagles in home opener, 42-0

BY JEFF LAJOIE
jlajoie@salmonpress.com

GILFORD – After a solid road performance in Week 1, the Gilford-Belmont football team certainly had its work cut out for it on Saturday in the home opener. Facing a John Stark team that many expect to be amongst the top squads in Division II this fall, the Golden Eagles were overmatched in a 42-0 thumping at the Meadows.

JEFF LAJOIE
Gilford-Belmont quarterback Braedon Lacroix tries escape the grasp of a John Stark player during Saturday's 42-0 loss to the visiting Generals at the Meadows.

“(John Stark is) a program that is playing at a high level right now and we're working hard to become a program like that in the future,” said G-B head coach Josh Marzahl, whose team fell to 0-2 on the young season after a season-opening loss to Kennett. “(Stark) hasn't always been a top flight program, but the last few years they've been very solid.”

The visiting Generals (2-0), which beat Souhegan in the opener before coming to town on Saturday, scored on all five of their offensive possessions in the first half, and added a sixth score on an interception return for a touchdown to lead 42-0 at intermission. That triggered running time in the second half, and the teams matched zeroes for the final 24 minutes of play.

“(Against Kennett), I thought our execution was a lot better than it was (on Saturday),” said Marzahl. “We didn't execute the way we need to in order to be successful. We're going to have to go back to practice and ramp up our preparation in order to get better next week.”

John Stark senior quarterback Drew McQuarrie, who has college scholarship offers from several schools, threw two touchdowns and ran for two more. The 6-foot-5 signal caller was 7-of-10 through the air for 95 yards, and he added 49 yards on eight carries in just under a half of work. He guided the General to a 7-0 lead just 2:26 into the game with a 26-yard TD toss, and he threw a second to Leif Mailloux just over three minutes later to make it 14-0.

Gilford-Belmont's offense was unable to match the Stark attack, as the Eagles were held to just 11 yards of offense in the opening half. It was 21-0 after one quarter before Stark put up 21 more points in the second period to take the 42-0 halftime advantage.

G-B did have two drives move into Stark territory on the day, though the Eagles did not take a trip into the red zone. The best drive came in the third quarter, when quarterback Braedon Lacroix guided his team from their own 18 yard line to the Stark 32. Lacroix connected with Dom Troiano on back-to-back completions of 23 and 13 yards during the march, and Lacroix added a 12-yard carry of his own while Dylan Gansert scampered for nine yards two plays later. But two sacks stalled things and moved the ball all the way back towards midfield, forcing a punt.

Lacroix was under fire all day from the Stark defense, and he finished the afternoon 4-of-13 for 59 yards and an interception through the air. Troiano caught two passes while Gansert and Tanner Woods also hauled in single receptions. Joe Bonnell was a bright spot on the ground for the Eagles, as he totaled four carries for 24 yards.

The regular season continues for the Eagles on Friday night (Sept. 16), as Gilford-Belmont travels to Bow High School, which also moved up from D-III this fall, for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

Despite some offensive chances from Wilder, Zach Ennis and Doug Price, Belmont was unable to get on the board. The Raiders were held scoreless for the first time since a quarterfinal loss to Campbell last fall.

“We knew we'd get battle-tested with the schedule that we have,” said Foley. “You need games like this. We'll be a better team for it. We've not played 80 full minutes yet in a game so we need to keep improving and make that the goal going forward.”
