Gilford keeper Hannah Gannon charges out to knock down the ball in front of teammate Ashley Kulcsar and Belmont's Emma Winslow in action Saturday.

Sports Editor
BELMONT — The Gilford girls' soccer team played spoiler to the Belmont Homecoming on Saturday morning, scoring one goal in each half on the way to a 2-0 win.

"They played well, but I don't think we took our chances as well as we could have," said Gilford coach Rob Meyers. "We controlled play, but we just didn't push it in the box as hard as we have in other games."

"We didn't spend enough time on their side of the midfield and forward," said Belmont coach Jeff Malcolm. "We relied a lot on our defense."

Gilford got early chances from Reece Sadler, Molly McLean and Alyssa Craigie, while the Belmont defense held strong, led by Jada Edgren and Helena Papadopoulos. At the other end, Emma Winslow just missed connecting with Lena Rodrigues.

Millie Caldon had a good run in that Belmont keeper Brooke Matthews was able to snare, while McLean and Anna Coapland also had chances stopped by Matthews. McLean and Sadler had chances go wide of the net and Geena Cookinham sent a ball through the crease.

Gilford got on the board with 27:53 to go in the first half, with Cookinham slipping a shot past Matthews for the 1-0 lead. Brooklyn Erlick came back with a good defensive play for the Raiders and Courtney Burke cleared a pass from Marlow Mikulis out of the zone.

Belmont got a nice move into the zone from Darci Stone and Quinn Jewell while Gilford's Jaiden McKenna had a nice defensive stop on Kailey Gerbig. Gerbig sent a nice ball up to Winslow and Ashley Kulcsar made a good defensive stop. Sadler sent a shot on net that was stopped by Matthews and Allie Kenyon had a direct kick that Matthews stopped.

Gerbig, Stone and Winslow went in for chances for the Raiders that Gilford keeper Hannah Gannon was able to stop and McLean had a bid at the other end that Matthews stopped. Addy

MVSB supports Gale School redevelopment project

BELMONT — MVSB (Meredith Village Savings Bank) recently purchased $10,000 in tax credits from Lakes Region Community Developers (LRCD) through the New Hampshire Community Development Finance Authority (CDFA) to support their efforts in the Gale School Redevelopment Project at 60 Concord St. in Belmont Village.

The Gale School was built in 1894, and was used by the Belmont School District until the mid-1980s when it was vacated. Since then, the empty building has stood vacant and fallen into disrepair. In 2017 it was selected as one of New Hampshire's Seven to Save and in 2018 was named to the New Hampshire State Register of Historic Places.

In July 2020, the building was successfully moved by the local Save Our Gale School Committee (SOGS) to its new location at 60 Concord St. in Belmont. Lakes Region Community Developers (LRCD) agreed to partner with SOGS to redevelop the building and, once funding for renovations have been secured, SOGS will donate the land and building to LRCD and the Gale School will become part of LRCD's real estate portfolio.

The newly renovated community facility is expected to host a child care center operated by the Boys & Girls Club of Central NH and a Lakes Region Community Services (LRCS) Program Center. The child care center will add 35 new child care slots to the Lakes Region and the Program Center will serve over 100 families.

"We are grateful to Meredith Village Savings Bank for supporting our efforts to revitalize the Gale School as the project will save a beau-

Harlow's second place paces Bears in Bristol

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

BRISTOL — Despite small numbers, the Winnisquam cross country team had a solid day at the Newfound Fun Run on Tuesday, Sept. 14, in Bristol.

Brianna Harlow had a great day in the girls' race, finishing in second place overall with a time of 25:49 in a field of 20 runners from Plymouth, Lin-Wood and host Newfound.

Coach Rileigh Gou-lette noted that the meet gave an award for the first "Bear" to finish, either from Winnisquam or Newfound. Harlow earned that with her second place finish.

"With the first meet behind her, she is excited to face the same course again next week (after deadline) with the goal of decreasing her time," Goulette said.

On the boys' side, freshman David Swain made his cross country debut and finished fifth overall with a time of 20:55, the fastest time for the Bears this season.

"On the rugged course with varied terrain, uphill through the woods, pavement and grassy fields, (he) didn't let it stop him from holding his pace in the 5K distance," Goulette said. "He is a great addition to the small team and will be an asset to its growth over these next few years."

Other runners for the Bears included sophomore Lily Webster, junior Collin Phelps and sophomore Dylan Al-lard, who all tackled the same terrain with perseverance.

Winnisquam is slated to be at Mascoma on Tuesday, Sept. 28, at 4 p.m.

The perfect time of year

“The wind is rising, and the air is wild with leaves. We have had our summer evenings; now for October eves!”

Poet Humbert Wolfe wrote those words about fall, and the first day of fall is here. Sept. 22 marked the first day it is socially acceptable to drink pumpkin and apple flavored coffee, doughnuts, bread and burn fall scented candles. Starbucks and Dunkin’s have already unleashed the beast roughly two weeks ago.

Pumpkin enthusiasts beware, however; on the flip side, there are several people who think it is too soon. A survey that posed the question, ‘When is it ok to start drinking and eating pumpkin?’ produced the following responses--‘Right now!’ ‘First day of fall,’ ‘I always strive for after Labor Day but often start on July 12,’ ‘I’m waiting until Sept. 1,’ and ‘After zucchini season.’

It is true, there are more people in New England who are holding on to every last bit of summer than those looking forward to fall. To those people, we get it. Some people refuse to swap their flip flops for boots until the first snow fall.

The end of the summer season really isn’t so bad. With fall comes hearty crock pot recipes, crisp evenings, sweaters, boots, homecoming and Halloween. The closer to Halloween we get, the closer to snow, which means the ski resorts will soon be open for businesses. Winter hiking is epic as well. What could be better?

Perhaps the best part about fall, however, is the foliage. The leaves are already changing and soon New England will be swarming with tourists, cameras in tow. Peak foliage in New England will hit during the last week of September through the first week of October.

The 2022 Old Farmer’s Almanac comes with a winter warning: Prepare for a “Season of Shivers.” This winter will be punctuated by positively bone-chilling, below-average temperatures across most of the United States.

Within the next four weeks temperatures will drop drastically, with some hot days still sprinkled in for balance. The good news is, there is still plenty of time to sneak in a few more summer hikes, a kayak on the lake, a few more barbecues or a day reading out on the hammock.

So whether you’re still sipping pina coladas or drinking a pumpkin spiced latte while dreaming of jack-o-lanterns and the smell of wood stoves, this is the perfect time of year for you.

STRATEGIES FOR LIVING

Giving the Devil his due

BY LARRY SCOTT

Jamie, a 30-year-old factory worker, and the ex-husband of a group of women challenging his request to be granted parental custody of his children, was in deep trouble. The problem was a tattoo, an upside-down cross on his arm which formed the letter “t” in the word Satan. He was, he said, a member of the Church of Satan.

A satanic priest, called as an expert witness, “said that their religion doesn’t believe in a real, personal devil or in any god or supernatural power. Satanism, instead, worships the ego, the power of self. That’s what the upside-down cross is about, the turning on its head of the Christian values of humility, meekness, and servitude. Satanism isn’t really devil worship, he said, since Satan is just a symbol for ‘pride, liberty and individualism” (Russel Moore, “Tempted and Tried,” p. 129).

I, obviously, disagree, for the Bible supports the view of a living, active being, variously called Lucifer, the devil, and Satan. The Apostle Peter called him, “your enemy the devil [who] prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.” Working quietly behind the scenes, happy to go unrecognized and ignored, there is a personal force at work in society dedicated to destroying everything God and the Christian faith stands for.

And let’s give the devil his due. The devil and the lifestyle he offers—the worship of “pride, liberty and individualism” accurately reflects what the Bible defines as sin: self-centeredness and absolute freedom to live as we please. No God, no objective standard of morality, no limits to my drives and desires. Within the context of common sense, what is legal, and what I can do without hurting others and my family, I’m going to do it MY way!

And what, you may ask, is wrong with that? Many non-Christians live a lifestyle that is outstanding, respectable, self-disciplined and worthy of respect. They may be irreligious, God may never enter their thoughts, but they have it all-together. As one man told me, “I don’t need God.”

I hear you, but are you sure? There is one factor never covered by such a lifestyle: life after death. To ignore the fact of death, coming to each of us whether we are prepared for it or not, is to me the height of irresponsibility. It may be convenient to live from day to day, taking things as they come, and deny the reality of eternal life, but that doesn’t make it prudent or right. We are eternal beings, like it or not, and our eternal destiny is at stake.

The Bible makes it quite clear: eternal life is a fact for each of us. The only question is, how are we going to spend it? If we walk with God here, we are going to spend eternity with him, and that the Bible calls heaven; if we live without God here, we are going to enter eternity without God, and that the Bible calls hell.

Perhaps you can now understand why I am so passionate to share my faith. My walk with God has never limited my “pride, liberty or individualism,” it has simply placed my drives and ambitions under the leadership of a loving heavenly Father. And I can tell you from experience: God is good!

For more thoughts like this, follow me at in-defenseoftruth.net.

It’s easy — you just go over, under, around, and through

By JOHN HARRIGAN
COLUMNIST

We used to kid Rudy mercilessly when he sketched out a plan for the next day’s hunt. Reader, please bear in mind that this was back in The Day, when we served meals to two sittings of hunters at the Main Camp’s big table, and nearly everyone went home with a Christmas tree and a deer.

It was the heyday of sport-hunters and sport-hunting, not that hunting is a sport, at least in my book, and more so with the passage of time, because betting on the horses at the track is a sport, whereas hunting is a deadly serious business, and back then there was a certain logic to it all, in that there was an economic payback for every deer that hit the ground. Us, for instance, and the camps, and building boats and emptying slops and cutting wood and ranging for Christmas trees as just one more way to survive, and then, of course, the life.

“You start here, on Jimmy Ricker’s sugar place,” Shatney would say, making an “x” on paper, figuring that everyone could imagine the scene.

“Then you go over,” he’d say, drawing a squiggly line, “and then under”---another squiggly line---“and then around, and through.”

The “you” Rudy referred to was me. As his helper on the hunt, my job was to follow any fresh track we cut, while he went out to one side. The other main part of my job was dragging deer.

This was on weekends and school vacations before and during my teenaged years, when I was part of the Shatney family at hunting and fishing camps at Clarks-ville Pond, and I can still remember every sketch and every hunt, and every deer I dragged out, from Deadwater over the hump into Labrador Brook and beyond.

Many of the sports were World War II vets. Some had served all through the European Theater and had been in battle with Rudy, holder of the Silver Star. As his wife Joan once told me she would too, they’d have followed Rudy to the Moon.

In later years, I had more than one occasion for drawing a little map. “You start here,” I’d say to the boys, and later, to the girls. “And then---” and I had to stop myself from saying, vaguely, while drawing squiggles, “over, and then under, and around, and through.”

I always marvel at how well, most of the time, these escapades turn out, after making some vague sketch of a plan at the last minute the night before.

So on Saturday, these two guys came all the way up from Lisbon and went right past the turn to my road, and on up over the height of land to another road, and after quite a little spell took a hard right onto still another road, and onward to an unmarked and unremarkable log-landing, which is near where, oh, maybe Birchbark Brook and the East Branch of Stillwater almost meet, and shouldered packs and lugged a weed-whacker and a chainsaw, and did trail work all the way in, and opened up camp and cleared out dead mice and dust (mice come in when we're there, cooking and consuming, and then after we're gone they die from lack of food and water because we leave neither crumb nor drop) and fetched wood and water, and got bunks down from the walls for the night, and had cocktail hour (or two, or three) (hours, not necessarily cocktails, although you never know, and who's counting anyway?) on the porch and actually relaxed and enjoyed the place, and then rustled up supper, mice no doubt watching from the rafters, and then in the morning swept and neatened the place up and broke camp, and then worked on the trail all the way out, and then called me pretty damned close to the pre-arranged time, and met me for lunch at the Bear.

Given the happenstances of such trips, God smiles when you're even close to the plan.

Edward Jones: Financial Focus

Are your loved ones prepared to be caregivers?

Once you're retired and your children are grown, they are likely "off the books," as far as your financial responsibility for them is concerned. Yet, you're probably still prepared to do anything to help them – but are they ready to take care of you if the need arises?
Consider this: Almost half of retirees say that the ideal role in retirement is providing support to family and other loved ones, according to the Edward Jones/Age Wave study titled Four Pillars of the New Retirement: What a Difference a Year Makes – and a slightly earlier version of the same study found that 72% of retirees say one of their biggest fears is becoming a burden on their family members.
So, if you are recently retired or plan to retire in the next few years, you may need to reconcile your desire to help your adult children or other close relatives with your concern that you could become dependent on them. You'll need to consider whether your loved ones can handle caregiving responsibilities, which frequently include financial assistance. If they did have to provide some caregiving services for you, could they afford it? About 80% of caregivers now pay for some caregiving costs out of their own pockets – and one in five caregivers experience significant financial strain because of caregiving, according to a recent AARP report.
One way to help your family members is to protect yourself from the enormous expense of long-term care. The average cost for a private room in a nursing home is now over $100,000 a year, according to the insurance company Genworth. Medicare won't pay much, if any, of these costs, so you may want to consult with a financial advisor, who can suggest possible ways of addressing long-term care expenses.
Even if you don't require a long stay in a nursing home, you still might need some assistance in the future, especially if your health or mental capacities decline. So, start talking to your loved ones about their possible roles if you should ever need caregiving. You may want to create a caregiving arrangement that specifies payment for caregiving services and outlines the expenses to be reimbursed if paid out of pocket by a caregiver. Also, you may want to create the appropriate legal documents, such as a durable power of attorney for health care, which enables someone to make medical decisions on your behalf should you become incapacitated, and a durable power of attorney for finances, which allows you to name someone to make your financial decisions if you become unable to do so yourself. A legal professional can help you make these arrangements and incorporate them into your overall estate plan. A financial advisor can suggest ways of preparing for the costs involved with caregiving and can direct you to relevant resources, such as social services provided by your city or county.
Clearly, there's much you can do to help shield your family from the financial strain of caregiving. But you are not alone: By drawing on other resources and outside help, you can ease the burden on your loved ones. And everyone will feel more secure when you have your arrangements in place.

Raiders take Royals to five sets in Homecoming loss

Kaitlyn Bryant goes up to the net for a hit in action Saturday afternoon.

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

BELMONT — The Belmont volleyball team put up a good fight in its Homecoming match against Mascoma on Saturday, but the Royals were able to win the fifth and deciding set to claim the 3-2 win.

“We have such a great group of girls that fight hard,” said assistant coach Stephanie D’Abbraccio, who was filling in for coach Andy Edgren. “They’re scrappy, they are in it for every single point. They worked hard.”

The first set was back and forth the entire way. Belmont got out to a 3-0 lead on a hit from Kaitlyn Bryant and a couple of aces from Sarah McLaughlin and then built the lead to 6-1 on another hit and ace from Bryant. Mady Cryans added a hit at the net and Belmont slowly built up a 14-6 lead, getting a tip for Bryant for the 14th point. Lilly Carter added a tip at the net and Cryans added a hit as the Raiders got out to the 19-11 lead. The Royals came charging back, pulling to within 20-17 before Bryant got a hit. Belmont pushed the lead to 22-19, but the Royals were able to tie the game at 22 and then took the one-point lead. Bryant pulled Belmont even, but the Royals went up by one again. The Raiders tied the game at 24 and then got the final two points to finish the 26-24 win.

Belmont got out to a 3-0 lead in the second set, but the Royals came back with five points in a row to take the lead. The Raiders battled their way back to tie the match at six on an ace from Madeline Johnson and the two teams went back and forth, with Cryans adding an ace as the teams tied at seven, eight, nine, 10, 11 and 12. Destany Berocales had a nice return and Cryans added a hit as Belmont continued to stay in it. Johnson had a pair of aces to give Belmont a 17-15 lead but Mascoma came back and took the 18-17 lead.

After Belmont tied the match at 18, they surged to the lead on a couple of nice plays by Cryans and went up 21-18. However, Mascoma battled back and tied things at 21 and then went up 24-21. A Cryans service ace helped pull Belmont to within one at 24-23, but the Royals got the final point for the 25-23 victory.

Bryant had a great service run to start the third set, running off four aces in a row to get the Raiders out to a 5-1 lead before the visitors rallied to tie the match at five. The two teams went back and forth from there, with Cryans and Madi Paquette getting service aces as the teams tied all the way up to 101 and then Belmont went up 12-10.

Bryant had another hit and the Raiders were able to stay in it but the Royals took a 22-18 lead. Belmont battled back to cut the lead to 24-22, but the Royals got the final point for the 25-22 win and the 2-1 lead.

The Raiders needed a win to stay alive in the fourth set and got it. McLaughlin had an early ace and Johnson had a hit as the Raiders opened the lead up to 9-5, with Cryans adding a service ace. Carter had a nice tip at the net and Belmont was able to build the lead up to 17-7. The Royals got a couple of points in a row to cut the lead to seven, but Belmont finished strong, closing the game out at 25-13.

The Royals got the first five points of the fifth and deciding game before Belmont got a hit from Carter and an ace from McLaughlin to cut the lead to 5-3. Bryant also had a good hit, but the Royals didn’t let the Raiders get terribly close and finished out the 15-5 win for the 3-2 win.

“They’re positive and they want to play hard,” D’Abbraccio said. “We say it to them (in a break) and then you see it on the court.

“It’s great to work with girls who love the game,” she added. “They didn’t give up and they fought to the end.

“It’s a big game and they didn’t back down,” D’Abbraccio added.

The Raiders are slated to be hosting Moultonborough on Monday, Sept. 27, at 6:15 p.m. and will be at Portsmouth Christian on Wednesday, Sept. 29, at 6:15 p.m.

Fast start propels Golden Eagles past Knights

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

WOLFEBORO — The Gilford-Belmont football team kept the early-season roll going, scoring 34 points in the first quarter on the way to a 41-6 win over Kingswood on Friday, Sept. 17.

“We’re happy with the way we’ve started right now,” said Gilford-Belmont coach Josh Marzahl. “But it’s a long season and we haven’t accomplished anything in terms of the long term.”

“We’re a young team learning about ourselves and developing character along the way,” said Kingswood coach Paul Landry. “They’re working their tails off, learning the game and devel-

play of the game, when quarterback Isaiah Reese hit Riley Marsh with a screen pass and Marsh did the rest, running 68 yards to the end zone for the touchdown. The extra point made it 7-0 just 53 seconds into the game.

Kingswood went for it on fourth and two on the next drive, but Andrew Keniston’s run came up short, giving Gilford the ball back at the 26. Three plays later, they were in the end zone. Reese ran 25 yards to the one-yard line and from there, Michael Kitto carried in. The Knights stopped the two-point conversion and G-B had the 13-0 lead with 8:49 to go in the first.

The Knights went three and out on the next drive and Gilford needed just three plays to go 52 yards to the end zone. Reese connected with Logan Grant for a 32-yard touchdown pass with 5:28 to go.

The Golden Eagles then recovered the ensuing kickoff and one play later, Marsh caught a 29-yard pass in the end zone for the 27-0 lead just seven seconds after the previous score.

A sack from Michael Macaione and Blake Reid stopped the Knights and forced another punt and four plays later, after a pair of Austin Norman runs of 13 yards and 40 yards got the Golden Eagles inside the 10 and from there, Luke Loyer ran nine yards into the end zone with 1:52 to go for the 34-0 lead.

Kitto then stepped in front of a Kingswood pass on the next drive and Loyer closed out the first quarter with a run and started the second quarter with three consecutive runs, eventually scoring from four yards out for the 41-0 lead.

Neither team scored the rest of the first half, with Kingswood stopping one G-B drive on a sack by Robbie Hotchkiss and another on a fumble recovery by Keniston.

The lone touchdown of the second half came on the first drive of the half. Riley Saxby, Aiden Brierley, Keniston, Anthony Domko and Matt Perkins ran the ball down the field and Perkins eventually took the ball in with 2:52 to go for the lone touchdown of the second half. Domko also had a late fumble recovery for the Knights, while Tyler Davignon and Derek Kelly carried the ball well for the Golden Eagles.

“We talked about urgency on both sides of the ball,” said Marzahl. “The first two games we did enough to win, but we didn’t show urgency to come out at the start.

“There was a little more urgency today,” the Gilford-Belmont coach continued. “We’re proud of the way they played and we got a lot of kids reps and playing time.”

The Golden Eagle coach also noted that Lebanon next week will provide a big challenge for the squad.

“We know we’re in for a battle next week,” Marzahl said. “But every week is a battle in Division II.”

“Kudos to these guys for sticking with it,” Landry said. “These kids here are not quitters.”

Gilford-Belmont will be hosting Lebanon on Saturday, Sept. 25, at 2 p.m.

Kingswood will be at Sanborn on Saturday, Sept. 25, at 2:30 p.m.

BELMONT — The Gilford boys' soccer team kept its undefeated start to the season going with a solid 3-0 win over Belmont on Saturday afternoon.

The game was part of Belmont's Homecoming celebration, which also featured girls' soccer and volleyball games.

"We've got a really good group, the team as a whole," said veteran Gilford coach Dave Pinkham. "They've played a lot of soccer and we're still a pretty young team."

"It's Gilford, we talked about trying to match their energy," said Belmont coach Mike Foley. "But my guys are going to give you a battle, they're going to come out ready to play."

Gilford came out with some early chances from Aiden Bondaz and Tanner Keenan, but Belmont keeper Jacobb Bivens was able to come through with some solid saves. Gilford had a couple of corner kicks, with Owen Guerin getting a shot on the first and Anthony Haddocks getting a head on the second one, but Bivens held his ground. Max Bartlett also had a chance for Gilford that was stopped.

Gilford had another corner but it went wide of the net and Will Riley made a nice defensive stop on Gilford's Anthony Aguiar, while at the other end, Mitchell Berry just missed connecting with Owen Waldron on a big boot up the field. Berry also had a nice clear on a bid from Andrew McDonough and Aguiar sent a ball wide of the net.

Gilford got on the board with 25:45 to go in the first half when Guerin sent a shot on net that Bivens stopped, but Tristan Reinhold was there to pop the rebound in for the 1-0 lead.

The Golden Eagles had another bid from McDonough that went wide of the net and Belmont's Liam Waldron made a run up the sideline but couldn't get the ball into the box. Gilford had a corner kick that Liam Waldron headed out of the box and Bartlett made a nice feed into McDonough, but Bivens made a diving save to keep the game at 1-0.

Aguiar had a shot that Jaxson Embree cleared and Bartlett had a bid denied by Bivens. Reinhold had a good cross but Berry was able to clear the ball out of the zone. Gilford had another corner but could not convert and Belmont got a bid from Riley and Owen Waldron that was stopped by Gilford's Chance Bolduc.

Belmont had its first corner, with Kaden Jewell getting a shot on net that keeper Thomas Donnelly saved and Ronan Taylor sent the rebound wide. Berry just missed connecting with Taylor on a bid and Gilford got a bid from Reinhold that was stopped by Bivens. Gilford also had chances from Bartlett, Keenan and Aguiar that missed the net.

Gilford had another corner that Liam Waldron cleared and Haukur Karlsson sent a shot over the top of the net for the Golden Eagles.

However, in the final few minutes, the Golden Eagles were able to get the second goal of the game, with Aguiar making a nice run into the zone and firing a shot in, giving Gilford the 2-0 lead heading to halftime.

In the second half, Gilford had some early corner kicks and on the third one, they connected, just about eight minutes into the half, with Aguiar picking up his second goal of the game for the 3-0 lead.

Izaak Walton had a nice clear for Gilford and Keenan sent a good cross in that Manny Mahoney cleared out of the zone. Bartlett also sent a shot wide of the net. Gilford continued the assault on the Belmont goal, with a number of solid corner kicks, but Bivens and the Belmont defense held tight. Guerin and Aguiar had the best chances on those corners but couldn't connect.

Berry had a couple of direct kicks for the Raiders but his shots missed the mark and Gilford came back with a couple bids from Haddocks and Keenan. Gilford made a goalie switch, with Caleb Giovanditto taking over in net.

Berry had a couple of late direct kicks miss the mark and Tyler Lafond had a late chance for Gilford also miss the net and the Golden Eagles took the 3-0 win.

"This is one of the most technical teams I've had, every player has very good technical skills on the field," Pinkham continued. "That's where we're beating teams."

"The kids are working their tails off, what do you want more as a coach," he continued. "All the teams we've played have been good and that helps us."

"And Belmont, they were outstanding in the way they played and the effort they gave," Pinkham added. "That was a tough game for us."

"We lost two games this week (one to weather, one to transportation issues), we haven't played since last Friday," said Foley. "At this level, you need games."

"Had we been able to match what we did against Trinity in a couple of games, we would've felt a little better coming in to this one," the Belmont keeper continued. "But we just have to go forward and find that win."

The two teams are scheduled to meet again on Saturday, Sept. 25, in Gilford at 11 a.m. Belmont will also be at Laconia on Tuesday, Sept. 28, at 4 p.m. Gilford will also be hosting Winnisquam on Tuesday, Sept. 28, at 4 p.m.

Meet Gannon! This big doofus loves to play, go for walks and eat treats. He's an experienced fella who needs an experienced owner to help him lean his manners! Gannon isn't a big fan of other dogs or cats, so he's seeking to be the only pet in his new home. Because Gannon is inexperienced with petting and handling, and he's still learning to share his things, he will do best in a home without children. Gannon is currently being treated for a skin condition that may or may not resolve with his current treatment plan. His adopters should speak to their veterinarian, and be prepared for the possibility that Gannon will need to take medication or be on a prescription diet for the rest of his life. Gilford came out early in the second half with chances from Coapland, McLean, Cookinham and Kenyon all getting chances, but Matthews stood strong in the Belmont net and Edgren and Bourque helped out with solid defense.

Less than five minutes into the second half, Gilford got its second goal of the game, with Kenyon ripping a shot on net that Matthews was able to get to. However, the ball dropped down into the net to give the Golden Eagles a 2-0 lead.
Gannon made a nice grab at the other end on a bid from Gerbig and McLean had a bid at the other end that went wide. Kenyon fired a shot off the post and then sent another shot over the net on a Gilford corner. Winslow just missed connecting with Gerbig on a bid for Belmont and Gilford got a good defensive play from Gracey LeBlanc on another Winslow run and a good defensive play from Craigie on a Stone run into the zone.

Stone had a pair of direct kicks that missed the mark, while Bourque sent a shot wide of the net as well. Gilford had a corner kick that didn't connect and Belmont had perhaps its best chance a few moments later. Gerbig sent the ball into the Winslow and Gannon

"The girls were excited to play after we had a week off," the Gilford coach added.
"Brooke (Matthews) has been playing on her head for us this season," Malcolm said. "Everything clicked (today), we just had a couple of un-
