CHARLTON — The town of Charlton held its annual municipal election on May 4 with 1,207 voters turning in ballots. Staff credits in the early morning hours and early voting for the reason behind the large voter turnout.

According to a release from the Charlton Police Department, ballots were received at around 3:30 a.m. from the area of Roberts Boulevard where a resident was setting his dog out and observed the youths breaking into vehicles in the neighborhood. The juveniles fled in a stolen vehicle which the resident described to police as a color that was consistent with their prior vehicle.

Charlton Officer Stephen Birtz was the first to spot the vehicle on Station Road and followed the car onto Colburn Road. Officer Birtz activated his police radio, the car being tracked by another officer. The juveniles fled in a stolen vehicle, but the three remaining were taken into custody at that time but the three remaining were not arrested.

Officer Birtz was joined by Charlie Officer Timothy Smith and Dudley Officer James Fiske Jr. with help from Charlton Detective David White at 508-248-2250. According to a release from the Charlton Police Department, the juveniles breaking into vehicles throughout the town are asked to contact the police department.

The four suspects, all juveniles from Waterbury whose names were left out of the report due to their ages, were taken into custody and processed at the police station. Officer Birtz said the juveniles have a history of breaking into vehicles throughout the town and the town leadership as well as the police have made four arrests on Saturday, May 4 after a local police made four arrests on May 1 with 1,207 voters turning in ballots.

Annual Fishing Day held in Charlton

CHARLTON—Fay Mountain Farm and Snows Pond hosted the annual Fishing Day in Charlton on Saturday, May 4. Sponsored by the Charlton Conservation Commission and the Massachusetts Division of Fisheries and Wildlife, the event allowed families to enjoy an afternoon of catch-and-release at the pond with no licenses required and all gear provided.

For some, it was simply a nice day in the New England weather, for others it’s a yearly tradition that brings parents and children closer together to embrace the popular outdoor pastime.

STURBRIDGE—Auburn firefighter Adam P. LaFlash of Sturbridge, who is a part-time employee of the Auburn Fire Department and has been working as a part-time employee of the Sturbridge Fire Department for nearly three years, was placed on administrative leave after an investigation and seeing the outcome of a petition for a restraining order, according to a police statement on social media recognizing the incident.

“Are we aware of the allegations that a woman was sexually assaulted? That occurred in the Town of Sturbridge,” said Lauren Mitchell, an administrative assistant with the Sturbridge Fire Department.

“We have employed the person in question on paid administrative leave pending an investigation, so there will be no additional comment on the matter,” said the statement.

LaFlash denied these accusations, saying that everything that hap- pened between them was consensual and even invited by the dispatcher. For more information on this incident, contact the Sturbridge Police Department at 508-385-5273.

A judge ordered that he be released on $280 bail with the condition of his release being that he stay away from and have no contact with the victim. LaFlash is due back in court on Monday, May 13.

The Town of Sturbridge has suspended LaFlash’s part-time position, however, the captain has not been placed on administrative leave, according to a police report.

According to a police report, the Sturbridge Police Department began investigating the incident in the early afternoon of Sunday, April 28, starting with an employee review with the dispatcher. Furthermore, a complaint was filed against an employee by a former female co-worker after being unresponsive to an employee’s investigation in March. The former employee said she had been sending inappropriate messages after he returned from vacation in February, but had exchanged messages prior to his arrival.

“When he returned and began investigating after he became uncomfortable with his messages and she said she would lock him up for work-related purposes,” the dispatcher, she said.

LaFlash denied these accusations.
Silverstein was present on March 18 and Spiewak made a bold statement that it doesn’t happen again.” Silverstein said he was informed by attorney Silverstein for comment and mentioning Silverstein as the suspect. “Who was the one who was on the phone with VGG counsel Michael Rosen after the March 18 Board of Selectmen meeting? The March 18 Board of Selectmen meeting was held in the Land Court without proper identification or identification and it was attended by Mr. Silverstein as the suspect. “Who else may have been the one who was on the phone with Mr. Silverstein?” Silverstein went on to say that he didn’t encourage VGG’s counsel to submit his statement to the court regarding the recording. He added that he even declined to participate or join that correspondence to the judge. He concluded by saying that Silverstein was someone, whether Rydlak or another party, who recorded the call and encumbered a Land Court discussion without proper identification or identification, and that person recorded the call without the knowledgment of the court.

Constitutional rights do not allow for office hours to voice any concerns or requests or assistance, or to schedule an alternative meeting time with the board members. Silverstein always contact his office at the State House by calling (617) 722-0700.

Taking the season’s first turkey

The first week of Wild Turkey hunting in Massachusetts opened Monday, April 29 and provided a great week of hunting success for local sportsmen. My brother Ken har vested in a 20 pound bird in Northbridge on the second day of the season. It is one hunt he will remember for a long time. Setting up early in a local apple orchard, he sat in a tiny portable blind and heard a turkey gobbling quite a distance away. Using his cell and making a few calls, the bird immediately answered him. Patiently wait ing for the bird to come closer, he spotted the bird still a ways off. The turkey was still at least a hundred yards away. A few more calls had the bird rapidly closing his way.

It was not long before the bird spotted his decoys and he came strutting into the blind, less than 20 yards away. Ken slowly raised his shotgun and carefully took aim out of his blende small window. Slowly squeez ing the trigger, the discharged shell sent a well placed load of lead that dropped the bird in his tracks. Shooting a bird any other way does not bring the satisfaction and ultimate fun of harvesting a wild tur key.

Some turkey hunters enjoy shooting a turkey by staking them, but that can be dangerous, as a few hunters over the years found out. Encountering a trigger happy hunter can be fatal as one hunter in a neighboring state was shot & died from his injuries. Fortunately, Massachusetts has been accident free for many years now. One of this week’s pictures shows Jim Lavallee with his 21 pound bird harvested on opening day. His bird came in silent but Jim was ready. Nice bird!

This week’s other two pictures show winners in the Whitinsville Fish & Game Club derby last Saturday. First prize winner shows Moe Greeneus with his “tiny tiny” brown trout which took first prize in the small trout category. His fishing buddy Al could not resist making a little fun of his catch. Al won a cool $70 for his catch. Young Tyler Conroy took first place with his two pound, six inches trout that measured in at a half inch long. The young or generation continues to show the old timers how to fish. “Take A Kid Fishing”!

The Uxbridge Rod & Gun Club will hold their annual kids fishing derby this Saturday May 11. The derby starts at 8 a.m., with breakfast being served free to all youngsters that enter the fishing derby. It is a great time to introduce a youngster to fishing, and to share some great times. Prizes are available to any youngster that does not win one. Do not miss this great outdoor event. Take A Kid Fishing and the opening day of the season took place prior to derby day.

The Yankee Fleet had a great day of blackfishing May 2, on the Marathon trip. Most all anglers limited out with over 12 blackfish. Captain John Bebe reported a hot bit ter black fishing the end of last week, and they expect the fishing to improve as weather conditions become better this week. A liberal daily limit of 12 blackfish per day is now allowed. Cod fishing remains closed on the Gulf of Maine, but they are catching some nice cod while black fishing. Cod fishing is on again.

Stripers are starting to show along the Mass & Rhode Island coast. Captain Tony’s Red Hot & Tackle reported great Tautog fishing in the Providence River and a lot of scoolie bass, but no report of any keeper bass as of last Sunday. No report of any stripers in the river, but that can change any day now. Red Top & Tackle shop reported on an occasional keeper size bass being caught as of this past Sunday. Bass are on the move, and many keepers are available to any youngster that enters the Kids’ fishing derby.

Fishing rods and bait remain closed on the Gulf of Maine. Anglers are catching some nice cod while black fishing. Cod fishing is on again.

John Boats reported a lot better activity. Not many anglers were out, but they needed to be released. Action is on again. A liberal daily limit of 12 haddock per day is now allowed. Cod fishing, but they need to be released. Cod fishing is on again.

Is college debt a catastrophe in the making?

It's chart time. Over the last 25 years, students are committing to colleges and making a life investment for their future. And after graduation day, college tuition has gone up so high that many students are putting off seeking a career in various trades in order to save up as much money as they can. But this is not a simple process, since the amount of money they can save is often a small fraction of their annual expenses incurred during study.

The cost was about $250 per year, with extremely low, compared to today's living expenses incurred during study. Since nothing transforms quicker than paint, it's a noticeable difference. If you're painting an entire room or a piece of furniture, the following amazing transformations can be your perfect finish!

UPTON — Nate Carty provided the pitching, Pat Wilbur and Evan Kokocinski the batting and shortstop Cole Lewandowski the defense as the Shepherd Hill Regional varsity baseball team defeated Nipmuc Regional, 2-1, on Tuesday, April 30, in a non-league game that was played in a crisp 89 minutes.

The game was scheduled to be played at Shepherd Hill, but because the Rams’ home diamond was unplayable due to all the spring rain the region has received, it was moved to Nipmuc. Shepherd Hill, however, remained the home team, batting at the bottom of each inning instead of the top.

Carty, a senior, tossed a complete-game four-hitter allowing just an unearned run while striking out six and not walking a batter. A right-handed pitcher, Carty pitched to contact all day, recording seven ground-ball outs — four on balls hit to Lewandowski — and five fly outs.

“I was throwing a lot of strikes in the zone and [the Nipmuc batters] were hitting a lot of groundballs so I kept doing that the whole game,” said Carty about his first win of the season. “I’m not usually much of a strikeout pitcher. I’m more of a guy who wants them to make contact and let the defense behind me make the plays and get the outs. My defense did a great job today. As a pitcher you love to see your defense backing you up no matter what the play is and that’s what today was. Rams head coach Shaun Ducharme said he’s come to expect the performance he received from Carty against the Warriors.

“Nate has pitched at the varsity level for three years,” Ducharme said. “He’s got experience; he’s got a lot of poise on the mound. He knows his game plan; he knows exactly what he is going to throw. I feel comfortable putting him on the mound in any situation, against any opponent. If we can get one or two runs for him, I know he’s going to keep us in the game and we’re most likely going to win the game,” Ducharme continued. “He’s that special.”

Shepherd Hill (3-5) got those previously mentioned two runs for Carty, scoring once in the second inning and once in the third.

In the second inning Wilbur (2-for-3, double, RBI, run) got things going with a leadoff single to left-center field. With one out Kokocinski (2-for-3) singled to left. Wilbur moving to third on the play. Lewandowski followed Kokocinski’s single with one of his own, Wilbur scoring home on the Lewandowski hit to give the Rams a 1-0 lead.

After Nipmuc (4-5) tied the game, 1-1, in the top of the third inning on an unearned run that was scored as a result of an error and a pair of singles, Shepherd Hill re-took the lead in the bottom of the frame.

Mike Rotians opened the bottom of the third with a walk. Chris Kustigian followed with a sharp line drive right to the Warriors’ second baseman, who, after making the catch, alertly threw to first base to double up Kustigian. Alex Popovich then reached base on a fielder’s choice at second base. Popovich then fielded a two-out single to left field and scored to make it 2-1 Shepherd Hill, coming home on a booming double to the base of the fence in center field by Wilbur.

From that point Carty and the Rams’ defense did the rest. Carty, in fact, got stronger as the game went along. Five of the final six Nipmuc outs were strikeouts by Carty.

“I think that string of strikeouts was a combination of my confidence with how the game was going, my being completely warmed up at that point and my wanting the game to be over with,” Carty said with laugh.

“Tarpout the adrenaline picked up and he’s a bulldog, and he gets more and more confident on the mound as the game went along,” Ducharme said. “He helps when plays are being made behind you and he is focused when he is out there on the mound. He’s been doing this a long time. He knows when the game starts to get a little tight and it’s time to pick it up a little bit.”

Shepherd Hill’s Nate Carty prepares to deliver a pitch to the plate.

Shepherd Hill’s Brayden Michelson sprints as fast as he can to third base.

Head coach Shaun Ducharme and Shepherd Hill’s Liam Xirones have a chat down the third-base line.

Shepherd Hill’s Chris Kustigian retrieves the ball and throws it back in from the outfield.

Beavers mount rally, battle back to beat Bay Path in walk-off fashion

SPORTS

BY NICK ETHIER

UPON — After trailing by a 7-0 count following the top of the fourth inning, the Blackstone Valley Tech varsity baseball team had the unlikely opportunity to rally past Bay Path Regional on Wednesday, May 1.

And, thanks to a seventh-inning offensive explosion, the Beavers completed the rally in walk-off fashion, defeating the Minutemen, 8-7.

The Beavers cut into the deficit against Bay Path with a four-run bottom of the fourth inning, and then finished the job with four more runs in the seventh.

The Minutemen's Erik Johnson kept his eyes on the ball while swinging the bat.

The heartbreaking loss dropped Bay Path to 4-4 on the season.

“We had a similar situation last week against Doherty,” explained Valley Tech head coach John Burke. “We were down, 4-0, and then we scored four in the sixth and three in the seventh to take the lead (and the win) at their place.

Mother’s Day gift ideas

Explore the many ways to reconnect with Mom even if you live far apart.

RECONNECT WITH HOME

If Mom is the one who ventured from family to pursue her career, then help her to reconnect with her hometowns or another place she feels attached to. Skip her favorite regional foods that can only be bought in town. Make a photo or video montage of places of interest in towns. These little touches of home can mean the world to her.

CREATE A SPECIAL DAY

Even if you do not live near your mother, you can still plan a fun day for her in her town. Make reservations for a spa, hair salon or other sources of pampering and surprise her with all the things that make her feel special. With a little creativity, even families separated by geography can share the magic of Mother’s Day together.

TREAT HER TO THE ULTIMATE SURPRISE

If possible, make a surprise visit this Mother’s Day. Coordinate the plan with your father or another relative and then enjoy seeing her eyes light up when you arrive.

Select Mother’s Day gifts that will make Mom feel special.

Wrap a crossed collar of monogram paper around the outside of each dish, extending well above the rim. Secure with adhesive tape, then tie tightly with string.

Pour the water into a small heatproof bowl and sprinkle the gelatine over the surface. Leave for 5 minutes or until spongy. Place the bowl in a pan of hot water, stirring occasionally, until the gelatine has dissolved.

Boil the eggs with the superfine sugar and milk in another heatproof bowl. Place the bowl over a pan of simmering water and continue to whisk until the mixture is thick and frothy. Remove from the heat and continue whisking until the mixture cools. Whisk in the liquid gelatine.

Pour the remaining mango pieces in a food processor or blender, then blend the puree into the eggy milk mixture with the orange rind. Set the mixture aside until starting to thicken.

Whip the heavy cream to soft peaks. Reserve 1 tablespoon cream and fold the rest into the mango mixture. Spoon into the ramekins until the mixture is 1 inch above the rim of each dish. Chill for 3 hours, or until set.

Cautiously remove the paper collars from the soufflés. Spoon a little of the reserved cream on top of each soufflé and decorate with some toasted flaked or coarsely shredded coconut.

Mothers, stepmothers, grandmothers, and many more remarkable women often work tirelessly and without fanfare to pro- vide for their families. Even though they may not receive a Mother’s Day celebration throughout the year, men and women of all ages and ages celebrate Mother’s Day.

Many people give heartfelt gifts on Mother’s Day to express their love for the mothers in their lives. The perfect gift may focus on Mom’s interests and the things that make her truly happy. With that in mind, the following shopping tips can help anyone find the perfect Mother’s Day gift.

Explore gift packages. What mother wouldn’t benefit from some new recipes for her family? If you don’t feel like cooking,inks and sauces. And there’s always a ladies night out and encourage other moms to join in the fun. Or challenge them to masterpiece together. Give tickets to a show or sporting event. Whether Mom is a sports fan or she prefers the theater or live music, event tickets can make a wonderful gift. Unique gift ideas include tickets to Cirque du Soleil, Shen Yun or a Broadway play, opera and dance. Restaurants can be very special for the entire family and support local businesses. Check on the vineyards’ rules for guests. Many times those under 21 can attend but will not be permitted to consume wine, though other refreshments may be available.

Mother’s Day offers the perfect opportunity to lavish attention on special women. Gifts that come to Mom’s interests in general will make the biggest splash.

Mother's Day ideas for moms from all walks of life

Caring for children, running households, and performing even mundane tasks can be a major responsibility. As a mom, it can seem as though your time is consumed with these demands and there’s not much left for you. This Mother’s Day, it’s important to make time for yourself and to give a little of the love that you pour into the lives of others. Here are a few ways to celebrate Mom’s uniqueness and make the day that much more meaningful and memorable.

THE CRAFTERS

Mothers who are avid crafters may enjoy a craft-themed Mother’s Day. A family crafting project can make for a fun afternoon and provide moments that Mom will cherish for years to come. Daughters and kids can plan the project in advance without Mom’s knowledge. Arranging all of the materials ahead of time and setting up the crafting station the night before, or while Mom is in bed, is a nice thoughtful touch. Kids can even get a head start on the day by making their own craft for Mom and giving it to her as a Mother’s Day present. Daughters can keep the craft theme going at dinner and get a laugh out of Mom by pouring her a craft beer when dinner is served.

THE READERS

A 2017 survey from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics found that women read more than men. Women read an average of 19.8 minutes per day, which can make a Mother’s Day focused on Mom’s love of reading an ideal and unique way to spend the day. Kids can write Mom their own books, and Dad can help put them together. Dads can visit rare bookstores and look for original copies of Mom’s favorite books that she might not find elsewhere.

THE RELAXATION SPECIALIST

Girls’ night out provides an ego boost. — which can be a nice self-care treat. Loosening up with a glass of wine can help some women feel more comfortable. Nights out with friends also will probably lead to a few laughs, which can be a much-needed break. A relaxing morning at the spa can be the perfect way for moms to begin Mother’s Day before they enjoy a brunch of dinner out with their families. Mother’s Day celebrations can be as unique as the women being celebrated.

A 2016 report from the Outdoor Foundation found that 46 percent of people who participated in outdoor activities were women. If Mom is a nature enthusiast, families can plan a Mother’s Day enjoying the great outdoors, even giving her a new fishing pole, hiking gear or other items that align with her favorite nature activity. Mothers may perform similar tasks, but no two moms are the same. Finding ways to celebrate Mom’s uniqueness can make the day that much more meaningful and memorable.

Nights out help mothers recharge

Caring for children is a demanding and exhausting job. Even through institutional care, parents can exact the most attention and devotion that their children present new challenges. Raising children presents new challenges, as does being a mom, a caregiver or any other roles that those demands can certainly pack on the pressure. Winding down with friends can make it a bit easier for moms to juggle the responsibilities of being a mom, a caregiver or both. A relaxing evening at a spa, with a relaxing morning spent with friends, can make it a bit easier for moms to juggle the responsibilities of being a mom, a caregiver or both. THE NATURE LOVER

Fishing and other outdoor activities might have a reputation as predominantly male hobbies, but studies show that’s not really the case.
