Riverwalk to be focus of CDBG funds

BY GUS STEEVES
STAFF WRITER

WEBSTER – The town aims to focus all of the coming year’s Community Development Block Grant money, $825,000, on expanding the Riverwalk along the French River.

According to Economic Development Director Carol Cyr, that project has been “a priority since 2010. It’s brought a lot of attention to the river and serves economic development “maybe not as an engine, but as a hook.”

Residents already know the Riverwalk from the fact it hosts summer concerts and the farmers’ market, but the long-term plans call for extending it in both directions over several phases, the most costly of which exceeds $1 million. Because of the price tag, Webster can only do around 300 feet at a time. The project is also indirectly connected to several other nearby improvements, including the recent Police Station and library projects, reconstruction of a couple short streets, and other work.

“The Riverwalk has created interest on the back side of Main Street,” Cyr said, noting that area has seen the establishment of Kretchmann Brewery and a brand new “escape room” business in recent years. The next part of it, Cyr said, will “really make an impact on the river’s edge,” and she noted it will take four to five more years to finish the planned work down there, depending on continued funding.

In a sense, the focus on the river is a fairly recent change for Webster’s CDBG projects. Longtime CBDG consultant Peter Sanborn noted Webster “did a lot of work on housing over about 50 years,” with this year’s report stating it has provided “housing rehabilitation assistance to nearly 170 Webster households” since 1995. The report notes all of the funds for that part of the program this year, and some from fiscal 2016, are going to help fix “a severely deteriorated c. 1860 two-family residence.”

Assessor Mark Becker noted it’s “very expensive to fix old homes and strip them,” with the various hazardous materials laws that now exist. Mostly, Webster aims for “moderate” properties, but has renovated a few that had been condemned, and Cyr noted she’s generally “resisted using the money for demolitions.” Last year, Webster intended to do 10 units, but only had money for six.

Traditionally, Sanborn said, they’ve “focused almost exclusively in the neighborhoods” until around five years ago, when Webster started alternating between neighborhoods and downtown. That was partly fueled by a revised Master Plan and a “Slum and Blight

11th annual Webster Lake ice-out contest underway

Einstein is back! The Webster Lake Association is sponsoring their 11th annual Ice-Out contest. Proceeds will benefit the Webster Lake Association, Webster Fire and Rescue, and the Reconciliation House of Webster.

Einstein was placed in Lakeview Marine Cove on Saturday, Jan. 20, at noon. There is a 40-pound weight attached to him. When the ice melts enough for the weight to drop into the water, an attached rope will set off the timer. The winners will be determined by the closest ticket to the exact month, date, hour and minute he went through the ice. Tickets are $5, and entrants must be 18 years old. This year the prize money is to be a total of $4,000.

First place prize is $2,000, second place prize is $1,000, third place prize is $500 and fourth and fifth place prize is $250 each. In the unlikely event of a tie, the prize will be divided equally. Last year’s winning time was Feb. 25 at 1:28 p.m.

Tickets MUST be received no later than midnight Feb. 19, 2018. Tickets are available through outlets at

Keeping the feathered friends from freezing

BY AMY PAUL
STONEBRIDGE CORRESPONDENT

Surviving in these cold and snowy weather conditions is easy if you have a roof over your head, warm foods to eat, and a thick blanket. But how do we best help the wild birds struggling to keep warm while living exposed to winter’s chills? A mix of bird-friendly yard plantings and feeders are the best way to maintain bird biodiversity and add to inexpensive winter entertainment.

Ellen Sousa, whose Spencer farm has been a certified wildlife habitat by the National Wildlife Federation since 2006 says, “the best way to help birds in your backyard is to provide bird-friendly plantings for food and shelter. Lots of shrubs with fruits that persist into winter such as winterberry and American holly, crabapple, chokeberry, and evergreen trees such as pine and juniper, that provide safe cover from predators and a sheltered place to weather the storms. Also, leave areas of your property wild instead of mowing/cutting down perennials and grasses in the fall — the seed stems standing above the snow are a very important winter seed source right now. Though this year much of that is buried in deep snow.”

Sousa adds, “Mostly what feeds wild birds in the winter are the seeds, fruits, nuts, buds and insect eggs found on native perennials, shrubs and trees. Spend time looking at plant and seed catalogs; plan to incorporate some bird and pollinator plantings into your landscape in the spring. Native perennials such as coneflower, aster and milkweed, and flowering shrubs such as dogwood, viburnum, chokeberry and native roses will provide food, shelter and housing at various times of the year for birds and the insect life that birds will feed their nestlings come springtime.”

If birdfeeders, rather than plantings, are your choice for feeding wild birds, Nancy Cormier of The Bird Store and More in Sturbridge says certain seeds

Webster named Green Community

BY GUS STEEVES
TIMES CORRESPONDENT

WEBSTER – To celebrate the new year, Webster joined 210 of the state’s 351 communities in claiming the Green Community designation.

With the name comes the first $180,885 of what Webster’s hoping will be many years’ worth of grants for energy efficiency and similar projects.

“We pretty much expected it,” said Town Administrator Doug Willardson. “It’s a rigorous process to apply, but if you do it, you get it.”

Although Webster has “nothing finalized” in terms of what the first funds will be spent on, Willardson said the immediate priority is likely to be the streetlight conversion project. That effort, approved by town meeting last October, aims to buy the remaining streetlights the town doesn’t own from National Grid and convert the entire system to LED bulbs at a cost of $330,000. The same meeting also approved one of the Green Community

Act’s key criteria by accepting the “stretch energy code.”

According to the Central Mass Regional Planning Commission, “Green Communities designation requires the completion of five criteria, including as-of-right siting of renewable or alternative energy facilities; adopting an expedited permitting process for the energy facilities; developing an energy use baseline and energy reduction plan; purchasing only fuel-efficient municipal vehicles; and adopting an energy efficient “stretch” building code. All Green Communities commit to reducing municipal energy consumption by 20 percent over five years.”

CMRPC Planner Dominique DuTremble said her agency has helped five towns get this designation so far.

“My agency’s role is to take the ‘heavy lifting’ of achieving Green Community designation off the towns’

Competitive pay a concern for Dudley assessors

BY JASON BLEAU
TIMES CORRESPONDENT

DUDLEY – Dudley’s Board of Assessors is looking for a way to make the town a more competitive option for top-level personnel after confirming the resignation of assessor’s office clerk Margaret Kane.

Board of Assessors Chairman Conrad Allen appeared before the Personnel Board on Jan. 16 to explain the resignation is a sign of Dudley’s inability to compete with higher wages within the local area to retain workers in the town hall. It’s a concern he feels the Personnel Board and others in the community should be aware of, as it prevents Dudley from competing for the most capable and devoted employees on the job market.

“We’re having a difficult time maintaining help in our department because we’re not competitive with the (surrounding towns). They pay their clerks much more than we do,” Allen said. “We’re just playing musical clerks.”

Allen said he has spoken with Town Administrator Greg Balukonis about the situation, but there’s not long-term solution in place. Allen said other local communities pay a starting wage of $16 an hour to clerks but did not specify what Dudley’s current starting wage is during the public meeting.

“In our budget that was approved it was at the lower range. We just got a clerk back full time. We were operating on one and a half people for a few years. We’re grateful to have had our clerk back, but now that she’s leaving we again have to find a clerk. This economy is starting to improve. We’re starting to see the labor pool tighten up,” Allen said.

Members of the Personnel Board did not deny the situation leaves Dudley playing catch up with other communities, however board Chair Lorna Wade admitted the Personnel Board may have very limited powers to authorize any resolution.

“I think we all sympathize with that situation. I do not think we are in the position to say, ‘yes you can increase the salary,’” Wade said.

“I know it’s the town administrator’s goal, because he has stated it at our meetings, to at least get people so they’re at least 90 percent of what the rates are in our area.”

Personnel Board Alternate Peter Fox, a former selectman, said he supported

Car Buying Tips

Customers ask place: When is the best time to buy a Car or Truck?

The RIGHT answer: (Part 2)

There are some times of the year that seem better than others. I already spoke about the end of the year. Another good time is toward the end of winter going into spring. We all know about the Presidents Day sales in February. Customers, dealers and manufacturers all are beginning to feel a little stir crazy from the long cold days of January and early February. As this holiday comes along there is a bit more excitement and a strong desire on the dealer and manufacturer to get selling for the spring and summer markets. Usually this is also a time in which the manufacturers step up their advertising and incentives to support this goal. The model year changeover is a good time to buy. This is normally the September, October time frame. Incentives on the current model year are usually strong and inventories are still pretty good as the new model year is beginning to show up. Dealers will be making room for the next years vehicles and starting to trim inventories approaching the year end and holiday seasons. At Place Motor we will always do our best to save our customers as much as possible whenever you decide to buy. We will lay out all your options for you to see and make your best decision. We want the time you choose to be the right time to buy your new car or truck.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT
WALTHAM — Artur R. Lachcik was named to the Bentley University President's List. Artur, resident of Dudley, is a junior studying finance. To be named to the President's List, a full-time student must have a grade point average of 3.7 or higher with no course grade below 3.0 during the term.

ONEONTA NY — Carey Beth Boucher of Oxford recently achieved academic excellence at Hartwick College in Oneonta, NY, named to the Dean's List for the fall 2017 semester:

Inclusion on the College's Dean's List is an indication of excellent academic work, including the completion of a full course load with at least a 3.5 grade point average based on a 4.0 scale.

FAIRFIELD, CT — Olivia Rose Mason of Webster, a Fairfield University student, received Undergraduate Dean's List Honors for the Fall 2017 semester. In order to be placed on the Dean's List, students must have completed a minimum of 12 credit hours in a semester, have no outstanding or incomplete grades for that semester, and have attained a semester grade point average of 3.50 or better.

BRISTOL, RI — Select students have been named to the Fall 2017 Dean's List at Roger Williams University in Bristol, R.I. Full-time students who complete 12 or more credits per semester and earn a GPA of 3.4 or higher are placed on the Dean's List that semester.

Samantha Alves and Jessica Daury of Oxford; Ryan Fontaine, Samantha Kelley, and Madison O'Brien of Webster.

WORCESTER — The Assumption College Office of Student Activities has announced that Emily Powers, of Webster, has been elected, and is currently serving, as Vice President of Medlife for the 2017-18 academic year. Medlife is one of nearly 60 clubs and organizations available to students allowing them the opportunity to network with professionals; take on leadership roles; and use classroom knowledge in the community. The student-run clubs appeal to a variety of interests and include offerings such as academic clubs (French, Italian, Pre-law, etc.); media (College television station, literary magazine and student newspaper, Le Provocateur); honor societies and many more.

EASTON — The following students have been named to the Fall 2017 Dean's List at Stonehill College. To qualify for the Dean's List, students must have a semester grade point average of 3.50 or better and must have completed successfully all courses for which they were registered.

Cassie Ford, Class of 2019, from North Oxford and a graduate of Oxford High School.

Katie Konieczny, Class of 2018, from Dudley and a graduate of Shepherd Hill Regional High School.

MANCHESTER, NH — It is with great pleasure that Southern New Hampshire University congratulates Logan Filo-Loos of Dudley and Sarah Gover of Oxford on being named to the fall 2017 President's List. Eligibility for the President's List requires that a student accumulate an academic grade point average (GPA) of 3.7-4.0 and earn 12 credits for the semester.

BOSTON — In honor of their outstanding academic achievement, Emmanuel College has named nearly 700 students to the Dean's List for the Fall 2017 semester. To earn a spot on the Dean's List, Emmanuel students must achieve a grade point average of 3.5 or higher for a 16-credit semester. Local students receiving this honor are: Darcy Anderson and Caitlin Cunic both of Webster; and Emma Dellea of North Oxford.

WEBSTER TO ELECT DELEGATES TO DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION
Registered Democrats in Webster will hold a caucus on Saturday, Feb. 17 starting at 10 a.m. in the Selectmen's conference room at the Webster Town Hall, 350 Main St. to elect delegates and alternates to the 2018 Massachusetts Democratic State Convention. This year's state convention will be held June 1-2 at the DCU Center in Worcester, where thousands of Democrats from across the state will come together to endorse Democratic candidates for statewide office, including Constitutional Officers and gubernatorial candidates. The caucus is open to all registered and pre-registered Democrats in Webster. Pre-registered Democrats who will be 18 by Sept. 18, 2018 will be allowed to participate and run as a delegate or alternate. Webster can elect 6 delegates and 4 alternates to the Convention. Youth, minorities, people with disabilities, and LGBTQ individuals who are not elected as a delegate or alternate may apply to be an add-on delegate at the caucus or at www.massdems.org.

Upgrades coming to the Pearle

BY JASON BLEAU
TIMES CORRESPONDENT

DUDLEY — The Pearle L. Crawford Library is not only progressing with planned technological upgrades to start off 2018, but now also must contend with a new issue as a heating mechanism has malfunctioned.

Library Director Karen Wall recently discussed the matter with trustees at their first meeting of the new year and said that a water heater has expired in the library, leaving the building without hot water for the time being.

“It’s been pretty cold coming out of the faucet for a while, but it hasn’t been subzero temperatures. It’s getting really cold outside, so it would be nice to wash your hands with warm water for a change,” Wall told trustees.

The library sought out an opinion from Jay Spahl, the chair of Dudley’s Water and Sewer Commission and the town’s plumbing and gas inspector, who reported back to Wall that the heater likely needs to be replaced. A price tag on the replacement of the heater was not divulged during the meeting, but Wall said Spahl is working to bring in a company to do the work.

“I’m sure he is dealing with much bigger problems than giving us our water to wash our hands,” Wall said of Spahl’s involvement. “I can imagine there are a lot of burst pipes out there. Still, we may have to replace that. It’s a tankless, wall mounted unit so it’s not going to be a bank account breaker.”

As for the new computers the library is adding, Wall said the first batch of desktops are expected to be installed soon with the help of RetroFit Technologies, a local IT support company that has been hands on with the library director showing her the ropes of the new system.

“We are moving forward with the upgrades,” said Wall. “It was a matter of what am I going to do? What is RetroFit going to do? I set some up doing as much as I can do with those and doing a dry run to make sure nothing is beyond my area of expertise. We’re good to go — I’m just waiting to hear back from them on scheduling.”

In late 2017 Wall announced 13 computers would be added to the library replacing older, out of date technology in the adult section of the library. However, it appears the children’s library will also receive a slight upgrade with the plan to be to have most, if not all of the computers in the facility upgraded in the foreseeable future.

“All adult computers will be replaced because those have been dropping like flies. Also, the catalogue computer in the children’s room went kaput so that’s going to get replaced. I have 26 total computers that need to be replaced in the library and I bought half of them. I need 12 for the adult room and I just so happened to have that extra one I’m going to use in the children’s room to

Library still due to open in spring

BY GUS STEEVES
TIMES CORRESPONDENT

WEBSTER — Despite a few hiccups, the Corbin Library building project still seems to be on schedule for completion on April 12. After that, it may take another month to furnish it and move the collection and everything else in.

According to library Director Amanda Grenier, plans are still in the works for a grand opening, but “I definitely think we’ll have something. We’re really looking forward to opening.”

On Jan. 11, the Finance Committee included an update on the project in its regular meeting. At that time, Town Administrator Doug Willardson noted the contractor is having an issue with getting window glass and is temporarily filling the window spaces with insulation to complete the building’s shell so work can be done inside. He noted they’re also having some trouble finding workers, but added that’s a common issue for construction firms “across the state.”

“The contractor’s timeline does say April 12, but there’s still a lot that’s unknown,” he told them.

FinCom member Neil Dixon said he’s been attending library building committee meetings and was “assured it would have no effect on their budget. The building will get done when it gets done, but as long as it doesn’t cost taxpayers more money,” he’s satisfied, he said.

Willardson added that even if it does take a little longer, Webster won’t have an issue some other towns have had. Since the library is now housed in the town hall auditorium, extra time won’t cost Webster anything extra in rent.

Project Manager Alicia Monks, the town’s supervisor on site, agreed, saying she suspects the delay is due to growing demand for construction materials. She noted it’s “a little behind schedule, but we’re trying to make up the schedule without sacrificing quality” by going ahead with putting up drywall inside.

One advantage, she added, is that a project like this lacks a firm deadline a school has to meet. When it opens in April, there will probably still be some exterior work, mostly landscaping, to do, she said.

To Grenier, moving the library back into its own home will be a big plus. Right now, she estimated the library is seeing “about the same number of patrons coming in,” but the circulation is noticeably lower because “about a quarter of the collection is in storage.” She predicted “a lot more residents” will visit the new library, in part because it will offer several things the old one lacked.

Those include a local history room (“previously, that was just two shelves,” she noted), four study rooms, a young adult room and a 120-seat meeting/community room that will be available after hours.

Back in July, a special town meeting made a major change to the project when voters approved buying two neighboring house lots to expand parking and avoid the need to redesign the property’s rear retaining wall. But doing so didn’t add to the total cost, since the funds were within the library’s contingency budget. Previously, town voters approved $12 million for the project, of which the state is reimbursing about $7.5 million, the town’s debt exclusion is for $2.3 million, and private donations are covering $1.2 million.

shoulders,” she said. “Most towns need as much assistance as they can get.”

In Webster’s case, that meant doing an energy-consumption study of 11 public buildings, the street lights and the town’s vehicle fleet and identifying “a ton of measures to help them achieve a 20 percent reduction in energy use,” she said. CMRPC will help implement the early stages of the program and do the annual reporting by which Webster maintains its status, with DuTremble noting there are “a lot of low-hanging fruit” that can be picked quickly.

“It’s really amazing to see where the infrastructure is going,” she said. She’s particularly happy about the push for electric vehicles, which she’d like to see “fully fleshed out” and meeting state goals by 2030.

DuTremble said many often fairly simple things – such as stickers reminding people to turn off computers and lights, encouraging little games and competitions within the office, etc., can promote an additional 30 percent reduction in energy use beyond changing the physical systems. She noted CMRPC also works to help towns with big-picture changes such as public transit, although that’s not her particular area of expertise.

Willardson said he’d like to focus on “a project that brings a good return on investment,” particularly something that will help reduce the costs of running town buildings over time while ensuring savings are greater than the cost to convert. While several towns are obtaining electric vehicles, “that’s a lower priority for us,” he added.

Inventory” of the area, which then had numerous vacant storefronts and a riverfront nobody particularly wanted to visit.

One serious concern, however, is that there are rumblings in Boston regarding eliminating the “mini-entitlement grants” that make this work possible. Webster is one of 11 towns the state has designated a “mini-entitlement” community, meaning it automatically gets CBDG funding every year as long as it applies for the money. If that program is discontinued, such towns will be thrown into the same pool all others get funds from, which is competitive.

Cyr said she expects Webster would still get funds that way, “but we’d lose the ability to do long-term planning,” because it would not be guaranteed.

Sanborn agreed, noting the current system allows “more flexibility.”

When Cyr originally proposed this year’s CBDG grant application, it included five potential activities besides the Riverwalk. Those were continuing housing rehabilitation, a “comprehensive assessment of the needs of residents for various social services and the resources that currently exist,” funding such services, street repaving, and commercial property improvement downtown. The report notes all of these things have been cited as priorities by various public forums, the Master Plan, the Community Development Strategy, and other town documents.

How do I get my offer accepted?

REALTOR’S

BLACK

I know I have written about this subject before and that is because the market every month continues to get more positive in Real Estate. The days to offer keeps decreasing and the price increasing in most areas. If you want to get your offer accepted in this competitive environment then you have to get creative. You need to ensure that your offer stands out from all of the other offers. Here are some ways to have your offer win over the others

Higher Earnest Money – This will show you are more serious. Instead of giving a $500 or $1000 deposit with the offer you can give a $5000 or $10000 deposit. Then instead of putting 3-5% down when the Purchase and Sale agreement is signed you could put 10% down.
Write a letter – Write a letter to the owners about how much you love their home to add a personal touch to the transaction.
Agent call the other agent – Many times I will see agents will email an offer without ever calling me to tell me the offer was sent or discuss the offer with me. This gives the agent and the seller a better feeling Lender call the other agent – I know some loan officers will actually call the listing agent on the home to let them know why you are a good buyer for the home and answer questions on their pre-qualification process. This gives that agent and seller a good feeling that they will keep things on track with the sale timeline Give the seller what they want – Make sure you agent finds out what is important to the seller about the offer. It may be that the sellers needs the transaction to close as quick as possible or they may want a flexible timeline. They may be afraid to have a home inspection and will take less money if the sale is smooth with no contingencies. You don’t want to assume what is important to one seller is important to every seller.

Don’t ask for excluded items – Many times the seller will exclude or not include certain items with the sale. Do not ask for these in an offer and if you have to ask for them please ensure your agent is discussing with the sellers agent why you are asking so they know why it is important to you as the buyer to have it included.
Use a reputable Lender – I would make sure to use a lender who is local that most likely the seller or their agent has had a good experience with. You could also ask if there is a lender they would prefer you obtain a pre-approval from. You also need to ensure you have a preapproval before submitting an offer or they will not take your offer seriously.

Respect the sellers – Ensure when you are showing the home that you show up on time for the showing and leave the home in the same condition that it was before you showed it. If you track dirt on the floor clean it up and better yet remove your shoes before entering.
Escalation Clause – This has been much more common over the last few years. This would say that you would offer X amount more than the next highest offer. I would also ensure they provide you with a copy of the other offer you won against. Again you want to ensure the agent is communicating this to the sellers agent properly because if they don’t understand this clause it may cause your offer to not get accepted.

If you hire the right Realtor then they should be able help you come up with creative ways to get you the home you want. This is why you always want to sit down and interview the agent before deciding to hire them to represent you because this could you your largest financial transaction you will ever make.

"I personally support employees at the 90 percent factor throughout the communities, but I don't know what those numbers are," said Fox. "I'd like to see them as well as a copy of the updated job description."
The Personnel Board moved to request Balukonis examine the documents Fox requested once they are provided by the Assessor's Office. The goal of the motion was to compare those documents to other towns in the region and to consider the possibilities for adjusting the salary figures as needed.

TAX TIP #26

Do Social Security benefits get taxed?

The answer depends on your total income from all sources (including tax-exempt interest), as well as your filing status. When social Security is your only income, benefits are generally not taxable. If you have income from other sources as well, up to 85 percent of your benefits can be taxable. Give us a call with questions about your taxable benefits.

Frost surpasses 6,000 consecutive roll call votes in 21st yearA

BOSTON — State Representative Paul K. Frost (R-Auburn) has maintained a perfect voting record through the first half of the 2017-18 legislative session, participating in all 305 roll call votes cast in the House of Representatives in 2017. Frost, currently serving in his 11th term, has not missed a single vote since taking office in 1997. The Auburn Republican, appointed as an Assistant Minority Leader Whip in 2015, has extended his total consecutive roll call votes to 6,171; one of the longest streaks of active House members and second only to House Minority Leader Brad Jones.

Frost cast votes on a number of prominent legislative actions signed into law over the past year, including the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act, which requires employers to provide reasonable workplace accommodations for expectant and nursing mothers. He backed the efforts to reimburse cities and towns for the costs associated with implementing the state's early voting law during the November 2016 election cycle, and supported the proposal to double the one-time survivor benefits paid to the families of police, firefighters and other first responders killed in the line of duty.

During debate on the comprehensive criminal justice reform legislation, Representative Frost was instrumental in changing Assault and Battery with Serious Bodily Injury on a Police Officer to a felony charge instead of a misdemeanor.

Frost represents the 7th Worcester District. It is comprised of Auburn, Charlton (Precinct 4), Millbury, and Oxford (Precincts 2 & 3).

State Senator co-sponsors legislation to protect internet consumers

BOSTON — State Senator Ryan C. Fattman (R-Sutton) recently voiced support for two pieces of legislation that assess how to keep the internet open to consumers, and prevent internet service providers from charging additional fees for faster speeds or blocking content that would otherwise normally be available. The legislation comes on the heels of the repeal of the net neutrality by the Federal Communications Commission last month.

The first bill, passed unanimously in the State Senate on Jan. 18, would create a special commission on net neutrality. The second bill is designed to limit internet service providers (ISPs) from blocking content, throttling internet speeds, or allowing paid priority provisions in internet services offered to customers.

“Above all else, it is our duty as legislators to protect the rights and freedoms of our constituents. This legislation will protect free speech because without neutrality in internet services, ISP’s have the ability to block and censor websites, apps, and networks that they are competitors with or don’t agree with without any say from people in a democratic fashion,” said Fattman.

According to the bill, the Department of Telecommunications and Cable would oversee the implementation of the legislation, and act as the enforcement body if successfully passed. In an effort to not shut out ISPs completely, the legislation would allow for them to waive certain prohibitions on paid prioritization if the ISP “demonstrates that the practice would serve a legitimate and significant public interest and would not harm the open nature of the internet in the Commonwealth.”

“Consumers may be shocked to find that one day the websites they visit, videos they stream, or apps they use may be blocked in the future unless they pay an additional fee... that’s not right,” said Fattman. “The internet is a tool that everyone should have access to at an affordable rate.”

Constituents with questions or comments on the legislation may call the Senator’s office at 617-722-1420 or email joseph.zarrella@masenate.gov.

Rock Voices Auburn makes appearance

BY GUS STEEVES
NEWS CORRESPONDENT

AUBURN — When you see several dozen people dressed well up on a stage, what do you expect? Show tunes, classical or opera?

Well, if you go to Shepherd Hill Jan. 27, leave that preconception at the door, because what you’ll be hearing is rock: B-52s, Queen, Beatles, even Janelle Monae and James Taylor. No Bach or Gilbert & Sullivan here.

That night represents the debut concert of a new area choir called Rock Voices Auburn, led by retired Shepherd Hill music teacher Connie Galli.

“It’s a wonderful community and a great way to bring people together,” she said of the nearly 60 members. “I’m particularly impressed with their commitment and dedication. They’re just working so hard, have really formed a wonderful community and have definitely formed their own choral sound.”

The group formed last fall as the fifth Rock Voices choir in central and western Massachusetts. The idea was the brainstorm of Northampton musician and music teacher Tony Lechner six years ago, when he turned 37 people into such a choir in Hadley. He noted two new groups are starting this spring, and all of them (including Auburn) will begin rehearsing for the spring season Feb. 8.

“My life has been all about getting people singing,” he said. “I thought this kind of music would be a very accessible way to do it, so I started a choir that only sings rock. I wanted to show them how easy it is to sing songs they’ve probably loved all their lives.”

Since Lechner started, he’s tossed his singers a fairly wide range of material. Generally, members vote on most of what they want to sing, but he always tries to include a few pieces that will challenge them. They tend to favor harmony-laden tunes, making those of the ‘60s and ‘70s popular especially with older members. But younger ones tend to pick more recent material, and one of this year’s repertoire is ‘Tightrope’ by Janelle Monae, which he admits “is not the type of song you’d ever see a choir sing.” Not only does it include a rap section, he felt a need to censor, and he laughs when reminded the kids have probably heard it uncensored.

Probably more unusual is ‘Lift Me Up,’ from a Swedish jazz a cappella outfit called The Real Group. Not only have most members probably never heard of them, Lechner had to rearrange it himself to suit the fact the choir will have a backing band led by former Auburn resident and regional music legend Mitch Chakour.

Chakour’s website is a who’s who of blues and rock stars. Among others, he has played with the Tedeschi Trucks Band and Warren Haynes (both linked to the Allman Brothers), Koko Taylor, Muddy Waters, B.B. King, Aerosmith, Bonnie Raitt, and J. Geils Band, and was Joe Cocker’s long-time music director, keyboardist and vocalist. He has led several of his own bands over the years, including Mitch’s Mission Band and Shaboo All-Stars.

“Whenever possible, I try to get someone who’s a local celebrity in the band,” Lechner said. “Mitch grew up in Auburn, his mom still lives there, and he has some star power. It gives members a little bit of celebrity by association...and everybody feels like rock stars.”

To Galli, the fact they’re singing rock “might be a bit less threatening” for many members than classical. She knows how that feels, since she still leads Shepherd Hill’s Fantasy show choir, which generally sings rock and pop, too.

“This is really kind of special for me because my kids will be opening the show,” she said, noting they’ll get a chance to see adults doing what they’ve been doing. Some Rock Voices members are Shepherd Hill choir alumni.

But they don’t have to be. In fact, one of the Rock Voices selling points is that new folks are always welcome and do not require any singing experience. Galli said a few of her members have sung in other, more traditional choirs and a couple came from one of Lechner’s other rock choirs.

“We have a few with some real skills and a lot of people who have nice singing voices,” she said. “Each choir learns to listen and balance, and that takes time. They picked that up quickly and learned to listen to each other well.”

Over the last six years, Lechner said he’s seen lots of people “join these groups who didn’t think they could do it,” but found they could and found a community in the process. A few in the Northampton area have even been asked to sing with established area bands, creating some “interesting cross-collaborations,” he said.

The Jan. 27 show will partly be a benefit for Shepherd Hill’s music program, but Lechner said he normally tries to use performances to raise funds and awareness for homeless shelters, food pantries and similar community groups. Tickets are $15, $12 for seniors and $8 for students; doors open at 6 p.m. and the show starts at 7.

Students have art on display commemorating King principles

The rainbow hands encourage the sharing of ideas

Congratulations to the All Saints Academy 4th grade class on their second place finish in the Worcester Historical Society's Martin Luther King Jr. contest. Students were encouraged to contemplate the following:

In 1967, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. spoke to a group of junior high school students about their life's Blueprint. He encouraged them to keep moving in the struggle for justice and to make our nation a better place in which to live. He concluded "FOR IT ISN'T BY SIZE THAT YOU WIN OR FAIL. BE THE BEST OF WHATEVER YOU ARE." How can YOU be the best of whatever you are to make our community a better place?

The students worked together to develop their idea and to bring their idea to life through art work. The students were honored on Jan. 20 by the Worcester Historical Society and the Black History Month Committee for their second place finish.

Their work will be on display at the Worcester Historical Museum through February 2018. The Grade 4 students are Nicholas Albright, Rose Givner, Alivia Argentieri, Kenneth Arpin, Kara Bianchi, Hunter Coombs, Sarah Guinto, Avery Montigny, Connor Timlege, Natalie Vigeant.

ASA STUDENTS WIN AT POETRY CONTEST

We are proud to announce poems written by Hayley O'Connell and Marisa Bianchi were awarded first place in the Worcester State College Martin Luther King Jr. poetry contest.

Their poems were based on the principles and goals of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on unity, non-violence and equality and answered the question 'What injustices do you see happening today and if you were Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., how would you approach the injustice to bring about change?'

Hayley and Marisa were recognized at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Youth Breakfast on Jan. 14.

New international internship program challenges Bay Path alumni

CHARLTON — An exciting agreement was inked by Educational Xperience Philippines, a Boston-based social enterprise with a mission to provide quality learning experiences in a global health setting while caring for communities in need and Bay Path Practical Nursing Academy. Bay Path Practical Nursing Academy alumni through eXP academic programs may endeavor to promote a spirit of giving and sharing to less fortunate members of society and enjoy travel nursing.

“I want to thank Dr. Castro-Zarraga for inviting Bay Path Practical Nursing Academy alumni to join eXP’s global health internship program,” Academy Director Gretheline Bolandrina said. “I believe we share a commitment and common passion for working towards health equity for underserved communities and in educating our students on social responsibility in a global perspective.”

Dr. Castro-Zarraga, director of community health internships, explained that eXP offers year-round opportunities of 2-6 weeks duration, for immersion in rural areas across the globe, working with local anti-poverty organizations. Learners will serve local village clinics, nursing schools, and community hospital settings. The trip often becomes the starting point for a longitudinal trans-national relationship as health care volunteers.

As the case is with University of Massachusetts medical student Greg Zandrow who launched a pediatric malnutrition program which started with the first step of establishing an urban garden project in cooperation with the Department of Agriculture and local nutritionists.

Crafting a global health nursing program to engage Bay Path Practical Nursing Academy alumni in community service abroad is on eXP’s initiatives. Examples of established programs include annual pediatric influenza vaccination, training of literacy program coordinators, and family workshops on child-centered needs assessment. All programs and activities allow alumni to apply academic concepts on the field and hone their clinical acumen.

Robotics leads teams to competition

In early December three LEGO Robotics teams from St. Joseph School competed at the Worcester qualifier event at WPI. St. Joseph School is proud to announce that two of its teams received recognition for their projects.

The 2017 LEGO Challenge Theme was HYDRO DYNAMICS. In addition to completing robot missions associated with this theme, teams were tasked through the Project challenge to identify a problem within the human water cycle, design a solution that makes this problem better, and share their problem and solution with others. People use water every day, but they don’t think much about how and why they use water. Whether it’s directly (drinking or washing) or indirectly (manufacturing the products they use or producing food or energy), humans have a lot of different water needs. The goal of the Project challenge for the HYDRO DYNAMICS season was to improve the way people find, transport, use, or dispose of water.

Team Hydrobeasts received the Research Award for their project recommending the implementation of a protective sleeve on a pH probe used at the Webster-Dudley Advanced Wastewater Treatment Facility. The Research Award recognizes a team that utilizes diverse resources to formulate an in-depth and comprehensive understanding of the problem they have identified. They worked with senior operator Pamela Welsh to learn about the importance of monitoring the pH of the wastewater as well as learn about the process. The sleeve they designed will help minimize cleaning time and reduce injuries to operators. Team members include: Grade 5: Dale Boudreau, Lucas Boynton, William Colebourn, and Lauren Gingo; and, Grade 7: Patrick Mahler and Olivia Montione.

Team Riptide received the Judges Award for their project to bring a simple, easy to build water filtering process to Sainte Anne Parish in Chardonner, Haiti. The Judges Award recognizes teams that have a story that sets them apart in a noteworthy way and whose unique efforts, performance or dynamics merit recognition. The team hopes to work with a local bottling company to supply clean bottles of water to the parishioners of Sainte Anne. Once the water is consumed, the team’s goal is for the bottles to be used to create simple filters. The team tested several filtration methods and then designed a label with easy to understand instructions in English and French illustrating how to build the filter. They also designed the label so that it can be used as part of the filtration system. Team members include eighth grade students: Seth Boudreau, Jacob Boynton, Benjamin Colebourn, Hayden Dery, Benjamin Duval and Szymon Mamro.

St. Joseph School’s third team, the Water Wizardz, had a fun day and also put forth a great effort! Team members include fifth grade students: Elizabeth Mahler and Grace Pomfret; and sixth grade students Toriana Baldassari, Tessa McCabe, Noalani Perez, and Dominic Pigeon.

The teams are coached by Michal Mamro, Joey Boudreau, and Beth Boudreau. They’re sponsored by Leonard Montione of Nordic Shield as well as bankHometown.

Team Hydro Beasts earned a research award for their work.

The last one to leave...turn off the lights

A few hundred years ago, mankind began getting itchy feet. Some of the cause was better economy; it took fewer workers to do the same number of chores, the advent of machinery managed to free up some time, and yes, people discovered one another through outbreaks of war that brought the soldiers from one area to another so that they discovered new places.

The old song about keeping Johnny down on the farm after seeing a city is all too true.

And so, the Gauls moved over here, the Vikings went over there, the Romans went west, the islanders sailed from port to port hopping from one clump of land to another discovering their way across the Pacific. And if there were already people there, when they arrived, they either made friends and inter-married or fought with them. It was a toss up which happened and just how warlike the immigrants migrating were. Vikings usually fought, islanders...not so much.

Eventually, once Europe had fought their way back and forth over their own land several times, conquered the African and Asian nations back and forth a bit (or been largely ignored by the Asian nations who were just happy to not be invaded thank you very much, we'll just do a little trading with you, now go away); hardy sailors found out wow, there's another big chunk of land, or a couple of them, over...there.

And so the Americas became a target.

Too bad there were already people there. They didn't count. Still don't.

A few different groups decided they'd be the ones in charge; they fought over that a bit, and eventually it shook out to a bunch of old white guys who made the rules and laid down the laws.

And it's been that way awhile now.

There's been some slight changes. Some big ones, some smaller. Like people with different color skins got told ok, we won't own you but you still can't do everything exactly the same 'cause we don't completely trust...it's just different. People will swear that isn't true, but it is. It's subtle, but it is.

And everyone over the age of 18, men and women no matter whether they own property or not, can vote.

Except...

Some can't. There are again these subtle little stoppers here and there. And there are little taxes laid on, or requirements on top of requirements...

And we still don't have one part of the country agreeing with another. How we've hung together as one country this long is amazing. The differences between southern California, south Alabama, South Dakota and the Downeast southern shore of Maine are insurmountable. We don't entirely even speak the same language! Soda, tonic or pop?

Part of this country was once French. Part of it was once Spanish. Part of it was once its own country. And yet we believe we can all be one under one government.

Of course we fight over what that should be.

And now, our government is shut down again. Because we can't get our leaders to stop fighting among themselves long enough to make compromises on budget questions; and they drag every other darn thing into the discussion that doesn't belong there.

Budget discussions should NOT include political discussions about immigration, race, or constitutional changes. They have nothing to do with the budget. Those discussions belong in a category without dragging funding into it at all.

As for the DACA controversy? While it is true the children were brought here without their consent, they are now adults and as such can make decisions for themselves. The solution, and it's way too easy, is to provide these now adult emigres with the information and help with the paperwork to apply to become full citizens. If they have been here for years, they most likely have a record of education, and a paper trail, to allow them to fulfill the requirements for application. If they want to stay, do so legally. If for some reason they do not qualify, then they don't and should be treated as any other immigrant with deportation issues. If they have these issues, then that's a different situation and they shouldn't stay.

While our fearless leaders battle one another, the worker bees try desperately to keep some semblance of order in the offices and parks and the military bases across our country. Many are doing so without pay. Some offices are doing so without paying bills. Our government is not paying its people, or its debts. The military won't get a check again until Feb. 2 at the earliest, if then. So we are waiting with bated breath for the first fed up bureaucrat to toss up their hands, yell the infamous "I'm not going to take it anymore..." and walk off the job.

And that, we imagine, will be the beginning of the end of the grand experiment.

VIEWPOINT

Would we leave our nets as they did?

Recently, as I was riding in an elevator in a building in Worcester, I overheard part of a conversation between two men who were also passengers. They were discussing a work colleague, and one of the men was very upset because apparently, that colleague had asked him to take on a new work-related focus. The irritated man said to his friend, "Does this guy think I'm just waiting around for him to give me more to do? Like I'm going to just drop everything and completely change how I do my work?"

As I silently accompanied the two men, I caught myself thinking that I've felt exactly the way the angry man did on more than one occasion. I was happy when the elevator stopped on my floor, and I could exit the conversation that was making me feel more than a little uncomfortable. As I walked down the corridor toward my destination it occurred to me that those times when I've been upset about others asking me to change direction mid-stream were, more often than not, times when I really did need to change what I had been doing. I just didn't like others telling me so. I mean, what do they know about me and my life anyway, right?

This scenario stands in juxtaposition to times when I've allowed myself to be a "reed in the wind," as Jesus put it, blowing this way and that, taking on any new thing that I find appealing — or, worse yet, that others find appealing for me! Somewhere in between those two extremes lay the balance we all need to live a full and happy life, and I have come to believe that only God knows where that balance is for me — and probably for everyone else.

Mark 1:14-20 tells the story of Jesus choosing his 12 apostles, who would not only help him with his earthly ministry, but also carry on his work once he was gone. Jesus already knew whom he should choose, (including the one who would betray him), but it was up to each of the men to use his own free will to say yes or no. I am truly amazed and impressed by the fact that each one answers "yes" without any hesitation. These simple fishermen left their work, their homes and their families when invited by Jesus to follow him. How could they possibly have been so trusting? How could they have been so willing to literally change the course of their lives at the invitation of an itinerant preacher from a small town of little or no consequence? Did they know that Jesus was the One who knew what was best for them, or were they merely going along for the ride like those "reeds shaken in the wind?"

.....
REV. JANICE FORD, RECTOR
THE CHURCH OF THE
RECONCILIATION
(EPISCOPAL) WEBSTER

We will never know exactly what was in the minds of these men as they agreed to follow Jesus and become "fishers of men," but we can take from what unfolded for them later that they gave their will and their destiny over to this man whom they barely knew based on some kind of grace given to them by God. We, too, have the opportunity to do as they did, and trust God enough to say "yes." We all know that saying "yes" is the most difficult thing we will ever do. With that "yes," comes the turning over of our will to God with complete blind faith. We usually have no idea what God will expect of us going forward. We may be asked to be completely selfless and sacrifice those things that we hold most dear. We may be asked to act as God's witness to his Word, and to bring that Word to others. We most surely will be asked to put God before everything and everyone else, for that is what it means to truly "follow him."

Most of us believe, and understandably so, that we have already said yes to God. After all, we are good people who have a relationship with God, and who care about those around us. But, I think we are only fooling ourselves with this kind of thinking. I doubt that any of us truly puts God before all else. If we did, this church would be filled to capacity each week with people who desire — even need — to worship God and express gratitude for all his loving mercy and kindness. We would be seeking out more and more ways to help those in need of a kind word, a helping hand, and to hear the Word of God.

When the apostles "left their nets" and their families to follow Jesus, they not only gave up their livelihood and strained their family relationships, they also completely turned their will over to God in every way possible. As I said, this kind of complete submission comes only through a special grace given by God. I recently gave a small gift to someone dear to me that bears the inscription, "The will of God will never take you where the Grace of God cannot protect you." These few words are at the heart of what I am writing about today.

So how do we do it? If we truly want to say "yes" to God and submit to his will completely — if we have the courage to do it — how do we begin? I believe we begin by saying the words, "Lord, I want my will to be your will. Give me grace I need to make it so."

With that small prayer, the course of our lives will be changed forever. With that small prayer, we begin the journey back to a place we cannot name or describe. It is the heart of God from which we came.

Safety first when walking...and when driving

With winter in full effect, the daylight hours are very short. Many people are still out walking or jogging on the streets and sidewalks. This is of particular concern during these times of early darkness or when the sun is particularly "low" in the sky. With this in mind, I wanted to provide some reminders for pedestrians and drivers.

Pedestrian rules are contained in both state laws and local regulations. If sidewalks are in place on a particular street, they should be used. If there are no sidewalks, people should walk along the shoulder of the roadway facing into traffic. You will most likely see a vehicle heading toward you if walking in this fashion. Crossings should also be made at crosswalks where available. If there are no crosswalks, pedestrians should yield the right of way to vehicles before crossing and avoid "jumping out" into traffic. This can cause a hazard. Also, remember to stay single file if walking on the road outside of a sidewalk. This will keep the roadway open as much as possible and allow for safer travel.

To assist with pedestrian safety, we are reminding people to keep the sidewalks in front of your property clear of snow and ice this winter season. This is extremely important to limit the number of pedestrians on the travel portion of the roads. There are many people who are physically unable to perform this task. As a community service, students from the Shepherd Hill High School Performing Arts Department have volunteered to clear the sidewalks of the elderly or disabled individuals free of charge within 48 hours of a storm. If you are in this category, need assistance, and wish to take advantage of this service, please contact Ms. Becky Bussiere, Mr. David Macuga, or School Resource Officer Phil Megas at (508) 943-6700.

Many side streets, dead ends, or other lightly traveled locations allow for a more relaxed approach to these rules. This does not mean to ignore the basic safety rules of looking both ways and always paying attention to the possibility of cars. This time of the year adds to the danger. Drivers may not see pedestrians as easily due to darkness, extreme sun, or severe weather. Pedestrians must be aware of the difficulties and dangers when on the road. Vehicles may come from anywhere, so it is always important to treat these locations with the proper amount of caution. Sharing the road and respecting each other's use of it will limit accidents and injuries.

Thanks again for your questions and comments. Please send them to me at the Dudley Police Department, 71 West Main St., Dudley, MA 01571 or email at swojnar@dudleypolice.com.

Time for your pre-retiree checklist?

Like everyone, you want to enjoy a comfortable lifestyle when you retire. But a successful retirement doesn't just happen — it requires a lot of planning. And that's why it's a good idea to draw up a "pre-retiree checklist."

Such a checklist might look like this:

—Twenty years before retirement: Try to estimate a "price tag" for your retirement, incorporating a variety of factors — where you might live, how much you might travel, what activities you'll pursue, and so on. Then, assess if your retirement savings are on track to help you meet your expected costs. From this point, monitor your progress every year.

—Fifteen years before retirement: Although you're still fairly far away from retirement, you'll want to bring your goals and challenges into a clearer focus. For starters, try to establish a firmer target goal for the assets you'll need during retirement. Also, consider your legacy goals and start developing your estate plans, if you haven't already done so. You might also explore methods of dealing with potentially enormous long-term care costs, such as an extended stay in a nursing home. Solutions to long-term care may become much more expensive later in life.

—Ten years before retirement: At this stage, in addition to reviewing

your target asset and spending levels, you'll want to get more precise about how much income you can expect as a retiree, whether through your investments or retirement accounts (such as your 401(k) and IRA), or through some type of part-time work or consulting. Maintaining an adequate income flow is extremely important, because you could spend two or three decades as a retiree, and some of your expenses — health care in particular — will likely rise during the later years. It's important to plan for health care and long-term care, given the costs and ability to qualify for coverage later in life.

—Five years before retirement: Re-evaluate your investment mix to help reduce the risk of having your portfolio vulnerable to a market downturn when you plan to retire. Generally speaking, stocks and other growth-oriented investments are more volatile than bonds and other income-producing vehicles. So, you may want to consider shifting some — but certainly not all — of your investment dollars from the "growth" portion of your portfolio to the "income" side.

—Two years before retirement: This close to retirement, you'll want to pay particularly close attention to health-care expenses, so you may want to investigate Medicare supplemental policies. You'll also want to ensure that you have an adequate emergency fund to cope with unexpected costs, such as major home repairs. In addition, you'll want to think about whether you should take Social Security right away or if you can afford to wait until your monthly checks will be bigger.

—One year before retirement: Now it's time for some key decisions: How much can you withdraw each year from your 401(k), IRA and other retirement accounts without running the risk of outliving your money? Have you lined up your health care coverage? And, finally, are you really set on retiring in a year or could you delay retirement to improve your financial picture?

This checklist isn't exhaustive — but it can give you a good idea of the various issues you'll need to consider on the long road to retirement. And the sooner you start planning for that journey, the better.

Ice is nice as anglers take to the surfaces

This last weekend provided anglers with some great ice fishing on all fronts. It was a perfect day Saturday for the Uxbridge Rod & Gun Club's annual ice fishing derby which drew 40+ anglers to enjoy some great fishing for trout. Most every anglers, young and old, caught fish and enjoyed the day in the great outdoors. Cash prizes were awarded for the largest trout caught. Ice fishing on local ponds and lakes had a large group of anglers fishing catching bass, pickerel & perch. This week's picture shows Matt Fontaine relaxing on the ice at the Uxbridge event last week fishing and sipping coffee. Matt is the treasurer for the club. Pete Tellier relaxes in his ice shanty in the second picture.

The rain that was predicted for this Tuesday is sure to make some ice unsafe. Shoreline ice is very unpredictable, so be sure to use caution especially with youngsters of the family.

The Blackstone River in Blackstone was giving up some large pike during the fall season of 2017. With the snow free shoreline along the Blackstone River, some anglers are taking their rod & reel to fish for pike and trout. The state of Rhode Island also stocks trout annually in the Blackstone from the Woonsocket line south. The Blackstone River was also stocked in Massachusetts at Tri-River approximately 10 years ago by this writer's fly fishing class that was held annually at the at the Uxbridge High School. More than $500 worth of rainbow trout and brown trout were stocked which was raised by the group. Hopefully, another group of anglers, or the Mass Fish & Wildlife will start to stock trout in the Blackstone River soon. The water has cleared up substantially over the years with the help of numerous organizations, including the Blackstone River Watershed Association!

268 black bear were harvested in Massachusetts in 2017, which was a bit shy of the 2016 count of 287 in 2016. 119 bear were harvested in Berkshire County, 65 Franklin, 36 Hampden, 38 Hampshire, & 9 in Worcester County.

The preliminary 2017 deer harvest figures are as follows: 109 deer were harvested during the youth hunt, four during the paraplegic hunt, 5,095 during archery, 4,766 during the shotgun, 3,519 during the primitive arms hunt.

It should be noted that the archery season had a substantially larger number of deer harvested than the shotgun season. With all of the high tech bows on the market today accuracy is much better, resulting in more deer being shot and retrieved. Hopefully the state will finalize the crossbow and Sunday hunting bills this year. All surrounding states have them. Sportsmen deserve no less. They are waiting!!

The New England Outdoor Writers Association is seeking submissions for their 2018 youth outdoor writing contest for young people, from New England in grades 6-12. The deadline for submissions is Feb 15. Cash prizes of $150, $100, $50, and $25 are being awarded. For full details go to the web site at www.neowa.org/youth-writingcontest.html.

The Singletary Rod & Gun Club will hold their annual ice fishing derby for members only this Sunday Jan. 28, starting at 7:00 a.m. with a buffet breakfast at 6:00 a.m. The event has a carnival like atmosphere with more than 200 ice tilts being set out on the ice. Members will be cooking numerous meals on the ice for their groups of fishermen & women to eat and I am sure venison will be on the grill. Numerous prize will be awarded for the largest trout caught. The derby ends at 1:00 p.m. A "Seal A Meal" system and a turkey fryer will be raffled off at the event.

Massachusetts Junior Conservation Camp two week event is being awarded by the Singletary Rod & Gun Club to junior hunters, fishermen & women again this year. Any person interested in having their youngster attend the camp at no cost should send a letter stating why you want to go to the camp. Deadline is March 9. For more information go to the web site at www.juniorconservationcamp.org or call Ruth Granger at (508) 892 9301. (If your youngster likes hunting, fishing, and the outdoors) this is a great opportunity to send them to two weeks in the great outdoors, and meeting new friends. AND IT IS FREE! Limited openings are available so get your letter in ASAP.

Goose hunting open last Saturday under ideal conditions and if you had a cornfield or golf course to hunt, you should have had plenty of action. The five bird daily limit is in effect until Feb. 10. A new 2018 state waterfowl stamp is needed to hunt geese, however your 2017 federal stamp is still good for the late goose season, and all coastal waterfowl hunting.

Latest antique and auction news

There has been a great deal of antique, collectibles and auction news since my last update.

An auction record was set for a doll this month. WTOP reports that the doll brought $335,000 at a Jan. 6th auction. The doll was created by French designer, Antoine Edmund Rochard, in 1868. The doll retained 24 of the 28 original jewels. The jewels contained miniature photos of French views such as Fontainebleau and the Louvre. Stanhope optical devices magnify the scenes on the jewels so that the small images may be easily seen. The winning bidder was the Barry Art Museum at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia. It is expected ed to be on display in the fall.

Two Florida college students may make a windfall with a thrift shop find. The Palm Beach Post reports that 20 year old Talia Rappa and 24 year old, Skyer Ashworth made their discovery in a Titusville, FL thrift store. They paid $1.20 for five blue NASA flight suits and one white "control suit." The suits are believed to have been worn by George "Pinky" Nelson, Robert A. Parker, and Charles D. Walker during 1980s space shuttle missions. The suits are expected to sell for $5,000 each when the students send them to auction.

Three New Jersey brothers found that a painting in their mother's estate brought well over an appraiser's and their own expectations according to the New York Post. The brothers had a silver set, china and a painting from the estate appraised. The silver was appraised at a couple of thousand dollars and the painting was appraised at a couple of hundred dollars. When the painting was auctioned, they were surprised to see it reach $5,000 very quickly. They were even more surprised when the bidding ended, and it had sold to a German bidder for $1.1 million. The buyer revealed the oil painting is "The Unconscious Patient (An Allegory of the Sense of Smell) by Rembrandt."

In other auction news, a rare penny brought $300,000 at auction recently according to the Orlando Sentinel. The coin was one of the first struck at the Philadelphia Mint in 1793. It is believed to be one of 500 in existence.

A rare Mickey Mantle card has also come up for auction. Forbes reports that the buyer purchased the card at a Lancaster, PA flea market two months ago along with a Yogi Berra card. The cards were the only examples ever found. The bidding ends on Jan. 28th. The Berra card had reached $1,200 and the Mantle was at $18,500 as of Jan. 18th. What contributed to these cards being so rare? They were premiums only offered to those who bought dog food.

We have an estate sale scheduled for Jan. 27th and 28th in Webster. I'll be teaching my Evaluating your Antiques class at Bay Path Evening School on March 5th. Other sales and events are being planned. Keep checking www.central-massauctions.com for details.

are better than others in supplying the energy needed for birds to thrive and survive in the cold temperatures.

Cormier says, "Look for seeds high in oil and fat content. Black oil sunflower seeds are the best all-around food for all bird species. Though, partially or completely hulled sunflower seeds and split peanuts are also good choices."

Cormier also recommends suet as an excellent source of food, "Pre-packaged suet is good for any weather conditions. Yet, many people enjoy making their own suet by picking up beef fat from the butcher. This is fine, and very good for the birds, but it is important to note that if temperatures rise above 40°, butcher suet will rot and make the birds sick enough to die."

Safflower seeds, according to Cormier, are a good choice if squirrels are a problem, "they are more bitter, making them unappealing to squirrels, but still high in oil content, an excellent option to maintain a bird's energy."

Finally, Cormier recommends a heated bird bath if attracting many varieties of birds is a goal and to provide the best conditions for all birds you attract, "Having an open water source is important in attracting and feeding birds. The heated bird bath is an excellent choice, maintaining a temperature of 35°. When birds eat snow, their body temperature is reduced, using more energy."

Sousa recognizes the entertainment and gratification feeding wild birds can bring, "When it's too cold and stormy to be outdoors, bird feeders and planting a bird habitat outside the window is one way for a nature lover to get their daily dosage of our favorite feathered friends: the chickadees and Carolina wrens! It's a nature gardener's paycheck time — the work of planting is done, and you can enjoy watching your efforts be used and appreciated by wildlife at a very difficult time of year."

Tea Time Tips

Relaxing with a cup of hot tea is a simple pleasure this time of year, but according to numerous health studies, the steaming brew may also be just what the doctor ordered! Tea is an age old beverage that has long been hailed as a cure all for many common ailments in addition to its role as warm, comforting refreshment. Read on for some highlights on the virtues of tea!

It's no secret sipping tea offers an array of terrific health benefits. From to easing arthritis pain, tea has been shown to possess impressive healing properties.
*A study funded by the Arthritis Foundation suggests drinking green tea may help ease rheumatoid arthritis. The tea's benefits are attributed to a class of compounds called polyphenols, which are abundant in tea made with fresh or green leaves.
* Here's good news for allergy sufferers. A medical study reveals a compound in green tea may help inhibit aspects of the immune system response that produces symptoms of common allergens such as grass, pet dander, grass or mold!
*Did you know a sore throat can be relieved by using a strong, hot tea as a gargle? Simply brew the tea of choice, allow it to cool, and gargle once or twice a day during the cold and flu season. As a bonus, the natural, herbal gargle tastes great.

TAKE THE HINT
KAREN TRAINOR

* Medical studies reveal green and black teas take center stage when it comes to boosting the immune system. Test-tube studies also suggest that the flavonoids in tea may have more antioxidant activity than certain better-known antioxidants like vitamins C and E.
*According to researchers at the University of Geneva in Switzerland, green tea is packed with caffeine and catechin polyphenols, substances proven to speed up the body's calorie-burning ability. A study they performed showed drinking three cups of the Ancient Japanese cure per day can rev up your metabolism as much as an average man walking 17 minutes!
*Research reveals green and black tea contain fluoride and polyphenols that prevent plaque from sticking to your teeth. Studies show tea decreases the activity of the oral enzyme amylase, which is responsible for breaking down starch into sugar in the mouth. In addition, the tea plant naturally contains fluoride in its leaves which makes tooth enamel stronger and more resistant to acids. Tea also inhibits bacteria growth in the mouth.

*Sipping both black and green teas has been associated with a lower risk of heart disease. It's been speculated that the antioxidant activity of chemicals in tea called flavonoids are at least partly responsible. Black and green teas each contain different flavonoids that appear to be beneficial to health.

Drinking tea isn't the only way to reap the benefits of the healing herbs. Here are some ways natural teas can take the place of commercial health and beauty aids.
Stress Reliever: Make up this green tea and oatmeal bath recipe from a New York City Day Spa, and you'll be soaking in the lap of luxury for mere pennies! The popular treatment is a great stress buster for both men and women as the green tea tones your skin and helps you unwind after a stressful day, while the oatmeal serves as a soother for sensitive skin.
To make: Combine one half cup of loose green tea leaves (available at health stores) and one half cup rolled or instant oatmeal. Place the mixture in a muslin or cheesecloth bag to make a sachet. Then hang the bag from your bathtub spout with string or ribbon and let the warm water rush over it while filling the tub. Once steeped, remove the bag and enjoy a relaxing soak for 15 minutes or so.

Treat Tired Eyes: If late nights and little sleep are making your eyes puffy, this quick and easy treatment will erase the telltale signs as well as a costly cream. Brew loose tea (try a calming herb, such as chamomile) and chill in the freezer until very cold but not frozen. Dip a cotton pad in the tea to saturate, wring out, and place on puffy areas. Lay back and keep pads on for at least ten minutes.

Acne Alternative: Recently publicized studies claim green tea can be as effective as 4% benzoyl peroxide in treating acne. Better yet, the research reveals the tea is gentler on the skin than the chemical. To try at home, simply apply brewed green tea to the skin with a cotton ball.

Highlighting Hair: Tea acts as a natural highlighter to brighten hair and bring out the shine. Brew tea and use as a rinse after shampooing. For brunettes, black tea adds a hint of richness and shine. Chamomile tea can bring out highlights in blonde or red-heads.

Tea Note: Here is a rundown of how the caffeine in an average cup of tea compares to coffee: Espresso (2 oz.) 60-90 mg; Drip coffee 60-180 mg; Black tea 25-110 mg; Oolong tea 12-55 mg; Decaf coffee 22-45 mg; Green tea 8-16 mg; Decaf tea 4-6 mg.

Backed by Binienda’s 18 points and 7 rebounds, Bartlett breezes by Southbridge

Nick Ethier photos
Bartlett’s Kyara Binienda scored a game and season high 18 points in the Indians’ 47-32 victory over Southbridge.

BY KEN POWERS
SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

WEBSTER — Kyara Binienda poured in a season-high 18 points, nine coming in the four quarter — which opened with Bartlett High scoring 10 straight points — to help lead the Indians past visiting Southbridge High, 47-32, in a girls’ varsity matchup played Tuesday, Jan. 16.

The victory snapped a four-game losing streak for Bartlett (2-8). The Pioneers dropped to 2-9 with the loss, their fourth in a row and sixth in the last seven games.

“Kyara played awesome,” Bartlett head coach Julie Silva said. “She was driving to the hoop, which she does a great job of day in and day out. It’s always nice to see her drive to the hoop because when she is doing that it usually means she’s having a big game. She’s a hard worker.”

The Indians led, 34-26, as play entered the fourth quarter. Binienda, a senior captain for Bartlett, kicked off the 10-0 run with a long offensive rebound and a strong drive to the basket to put the Indians ahead by 10, 36-26. Julia Podedworny (eight points) extended the Bartlett lead to 11 (37-26) on its next possession by hitting one of two free throws. Katelyn Picard (four points) pushed the Indians’ lead to 39-26 with 6:47 remaining in the game on a layup off an offensive rebound.

Binienda closed out the run with five straight points — and old-fashioned three-point play on a drive to the hoop, and then another drive to the basket that resulted in a layup. When the dust had settled there were six minutes to play and Bartlett led by 18 points, 44-26.

“It felt good to get the win; we needed it,” said Binienda, who also found time to pull down seven rebounds. “We’ve always had a good rivalry with Southbridge. They’re a great team.”

The Indians, who led by four, 8-4, at the end of the first quarter, extended their lead to eight, 22-14, by halftime. Breanna Ward (four points) and Podedworny both hit 3-pointers in the second period while Binienda scored four points — all coming on free throws — and assisted on a layup by Allison Grzembski (eight points) with a highlight reel behind-the-back pass in traffic in the lane. Picard also had a put-back basket in the quarter.

“We didn’t really do anything different, really, in the second quarter,” Binienda said. “We just improved our focus, especially offensively, by putting our heads down and making sure we drove to the basket every single time.”

Silva said she wasn’t surprised to see Binienda take control of the game, especially in the second and fourth quarters when the Indians added to their lead.

“I wasn’t surprised at all,” the coach said. “The way she works on her game it was no surprise at all. She comes to practice every day and works hard. She’s a captain for a reason.”

Binienda, who is averaging six points a game, scored in double figures for just the second time all season. She dropped in 17 in a hard-fought 36-30 home loss to Douglas on Dec. 29. Silva said she thinks the 5-foot-5 guard’s performance against Southbridge could be a breakthrough game for her.

“I think she’s beginning to understand that she can drive to the basket and score or get fouled and go to the free throw line,” Silva said. “She has a good outside shot, too — she hit a 3-pointer tonight — and if she can get her inside gig going it will open up the outside game for her.”

Southbridge was led by senior Julitza Delgado and her 13 points, most coming on an array of drives to the basket. Ashanti Morales-Rivers added 10 points for the Pioneers and hit a pair of 3-pointers.

“Defensively we were just trying to make strong stops on Julitza because she is incredible off the drive. So, we tried to focus on not letting her get to the basket. I thought we did that well tonight,” said Binienda, who has been squaring off against Delgado for a long time. “We’ve been playing against each other since the seventh grade. It felt great to play well against her and get the win.”

Southbridge head coach Elvin Rodriguez was frustrated after the game, feeling that the Pioneers let a chance to win slip through their fingers.

“Our transition from offense to defense was lackadaisical; we were lazy getting back on defense,” said Rodriguez, who was without the services of senior post player Mya Torres, who missed the game because of illness. “I can think of five easy, quick layups they got just from running by us down the court on the way to the basket.

“Defensively they just stuffed up the paint on us with their 2-3 zone,” Rodriguez continued. “We couldn’t get anything going to the middle. Usually with Julitza we pick and roll and have her go into the middle and pop it out to the corner. We had a few plays where we were able to execute on offense, but they did a very good job defensively on us.”

Katelyn Picard of Bartlett holds the ball high and away from Southbridge defender Kailey Ortiz.

Bartlett’s Allison Grzembski catches a pass down on the wing and contemplates shooting a deep jumper.

Kayla Berthiaume of Bartlett attempts to catch a pass after it sails over the reach of Southbridge’s Ashanti Morales-Rivers.

Bartlett’s Julia Podedworny sends a pass down the court versus Southbridge.

Oxford builds big enough lead, then holds on to beat Cougars

BY NICK ETHIER
SPORTS STAFF WRITER

OXFORD — Defense was the name of the game for the Oxford High girls' varsity basketball team, especially in the first half, when the Pirates hosted Quaboag Regional on Thursday, Jan. 18. Oxford held the Cougars to just two second quarter points en route to a 14-point halftime advantage.

The Pirates then held on when Quaboag mounted a second half comeback. The Cougars at one point trimmed the deficit down to six points, 40-34, with 2:20 to play, but their rally fell short as they dropped a 45-36 decision.

"We're really trying to focus on defense and that's how we're going to have to win," explained Oxford head coach Joe Pietrzak, whose team led Quaboag at the break, 26-12.

After scoring just 12 points in the first half, the Cougars scored 12 in the third quarter alone and 12 more in the fourth to win second half scoring, 24-19.

"It was a tale of two halves," said Quaboag head coach William Beauregard. "We just didn't come ready to play and that's on me. Once we adjusted in the second half the kids came out and played with the intensity that we should play with."

But the first half was not one the Cougars will want to remember. They trailed, 11-10, after the first quarter but fell behind, 21-10, when the Pirates scored the first 10 points of the second frame.

Quaboag trimmed Oxford's lead down to 21-12, but the Pirates scored the final five points of the first half to build a big lead.

A good portion of the second half then turned into the Kiarra Dorman show, as the Cougars' talented sophomore opened the third quarter by burying a 3-pointer and stealing an Oxford pass, which turned into a layup by freshman teammate Sydney Corfey (9 points, 8 rebounds). That got Quaboag back into the game, 26-17, as they stayed close to that deficit until the final buzzer sounded.

"She makes plays for everybody," Beauregard said of Dorman, whose second half stat line of 13 points and 13 rebounds would leave most players beaming after a full day's work. "When she has a half like that she's tough to stop because she's so athletic. Those are the kinds of numbers she can put up."

Dorman finished with 18 points, 19 rebounds and 5 steals.

"She's something else, isn't she," Pietrzak said of Dorman. "We were running three players at her and she was still making plays. She's just so tenacious on both ends — great player."

But the Pirates employ a great player of their own in junior Gina Parmenter. She scored a game-high 19 points and pulled down 8 rebounds, the latter stat something Pietrzak was proud of.

"Finding other ways when the shot's not going," he said of what makes Parmenter a special player, "and then the shot started to go."

Parmenter at times was bothered by the defense of Quaboag's Addy Ford (8 points, 6 rebounds), a sophomore.

"Addy's one of the best defenders on the ball in the league, in my opinion," said Beauregard. "We just failed to execute some things in the first half that cost us a little bit, especially defensively."

Parmenter was able to find the space for a 3-pointer and a drive to the basket that resulted in two free throws for a five-point swing in the final seconds of the third quarter, as the Pirates held a 37-24 lead heading into the final frame.

Quaboag pulled to within six points but could never get over the hump, as Oxford junior Felicity Steiger (6 points, 8 rebounds) unofficially finished things off with a traditional three-point play with 1:43 to go.

Freshman Chloe Davis was another player that helped the Pirates get the victory.

"We're really starting to get her a lot more minutes now. She finished around the rim," Pietrzak said.

When Pietrzak was told of Davis' stat line of 8 points and 8 rebounds, he repeated the phrase "that's fantastic, that's fantastic."

Both the Pirates and Cougars are hovering around the .500 line — Oxford is 5-6, Quaboag is 4-5 — so both need to keep winning to advance to district tournament play.

Rams force OT late, then squeak past Holy Name for second time this season

WORCESTER — The Shepherd Hill Regional and Holy Name High girls' varsity basketball teams have built a spirited nonconference rivalry with each other over the years, and this season has been no different.

The Rams edged the Naps back on Dec. 15, 56-54, and on Monday, Jan. 22, The Hill forced overtime late and eventually won in the extra frame, 59-57.

"It's a great rivalry," said longtime Shepherd Hill head coach Jim Hackenson, who has been battling fellow longtime Holy Name head coach Barry Finneran for decades now. "It's fantastic and no matter where we're playing — here or there — it's the same result [of a close matchup]."

The Rams' Isabella Nascimento turned out to be the game's hero when she buried a 3-pointer with 20 seconds to play in the overtime. Nascimento hit another 3-pointer in the game's first minute, but struggled from the field for the rest of the game. She hit her shot when it mattered most, though.

"She's a player," Hackenson said of Nascimento. "She had a rough time [shooting], but it happens. That [3-pointer] was so big."

Nascimento (10 points) made up for her struggles from the floor by also contributing 11 rebounds, 5 assists, 2 steals and 2 blocks.

Nascimento originally missed a 3-pointer in the overtime, but teammate Julia Dandridge (6 points, 7 rebounds) tracked down the offensive rebound. Seconds later, Nascimento was taking and making the 3 to give the Rams a 59-57 lead, which was Shepherd Hill's first advantage since it was 11-9 in the first quarter.

The Rams then got a defensive stop but threw the ball away during an inbounds pass. That gave the Naps a final chance to tie or win, but Logan Lornell's 3-pointer missed its mark.

"I should have called a timeout," Hackenson said of the inbounds pass. "I don't like timeouts, but that's a coaching move. If they can't get the ball in call a timeout."

Holy Name led after the first quarter (15-12), at halftime (29-25) and through three quarters (42-38), but the Rams found a way to force overtime by winning fourth quarter scoring, 16-12, to make it 54-54 at the end of regulation.

"We played pretty good defense and we grinded it out," Hackenson said of the keys to the victory.

Holy Name's top performers — Jaini Edmonds and Sophia Masciarelli — nearly gave the Naps (7-4) the win with their stellar play. Edmonds scored a game-high 26 points, while Masciarelli notched a double-double with 17 points and 14 rebounds.

But Shepherd Hill had plenty of performers besides Nascimento that led to the win. Molly Springer produced a double-double (17 points, 13 rebounds) and Bailey Savage chipped in 13 points.

"We couldn't get over the top. But we got over the top when it counted — in the end," said Hackenson.

Even though the Rams have now swept the Naps in their two regular season contests, these teams may not be done with each other. Both will take part in the Westborough Invitational Tournament before the postseason commences, and The Hill and Holy Name are both Central Mass. Division 1 teams.

"We may play them four times," said Hackenson, whose team now stands at 12-1.

The Rams' lone loss came to Wachusett Regional, 63-41, and Shepherd Hill's next opponent happens to be the Mountaineers. Hackenson likes how his team has played of late, though, as they have taken on — and beaten — some of the region's premier teams.

"We had a tough run. We had Leominster, Groton-Dunstable, Holy Name and now Wachusett. That's quite a stretch," concluded Hackenson.

Hot start helps Rockets ice Westborough in rematch, 5-1

AUBURN — Earlier in the season the Auburn/Shepherd Hill/Tantasqua/Millbury boys' varsity co-op ice hockey team suffered a close 3-2 setback to Westborough High. But, when the two met again in a Quinn Conference rematch at the Horgan Arena on Wednesday, Jan. 17, the Rockets made quick work of the Rangers, scoring four first period goals en route to a 5-1 victory.

"It's about time," Auburn head coach Glen Bombard chuckled afterward. "The last three games the first period's been a big downfall for us. They just came out and took care of their business quick."

The win lifted the Rockets' record to 6-4-1, while Westborough slid to 5-4-2.

Auburn's first goal came just 1:42 into the contest. Adam Lanier collected the puck just inside the Rangers' blue line and skated in toward Westborough goalie Will Schiffman. Lanier, a left-handed shot, then snapped the puck past Schiffman's glove and into the upper right-hand portion of the net.

"He kind of gave me that top right corner and I just put it there," explained Lanier, whose goal was assisted by Joel Miller and Caleb Mackin.

Then, just past the midpoint of the first period, Auburn doubled its lead — which turned out to be the game-winning tally. Collin McKeon, stationed in the slot, took a pass and wristed another shot that got past Schiffman via the top shelf. Ryan Lempicki and Alex Surmis had the assists.

The Rockets — and Lanier — weren't done there, though. At 10:46 of the period Lanier scored his second goal of the game. Mackin crossed the blue line with possession of the puck and made a nice pass over to Lanier, who then went backhand to score past a sprawling Schiffman.

"I saw the defenseman go over and I thought it'd be perfect," Lanier said of the developing play. "[Mackin] put it right on my stick flat — a nice saucer [pass] — and I saw the goalie go down and try to spread across the whole bottom of the net, so I just took it to my backhand because it's easier to roof it that way."

"Adam Lanier had a huge night for us with those two big goals," added Bombard. "They were good, quality goals."

Auburn was good for one more first period goal, and that one came with just 1.4 seconds remaining. Lempicki took a shot from the blue line, which was saved by Schiffman. But Ryan Slade gathered the rebound and banged it into the net before the buzzer sounded.

"Those are backbreakers," Bombard said of his team's fourth goal. "That was the nail in the coffin. You could see the sails come out of them a little after that."

Bombard was pleased to see Slade make such a heady play for the goal.

"You go until you hear a buzzer or you hear a whistle — you just never know," he said.

Westborough's Jonathan Rodenbush scored one minute into the second period on a low shot against the grain that got past goalie Mike Sosik, but from there the Rockets' net-minder was a brick wall. Sosik made his best stop of the night shortly after the Rangers' goal when he robbed Cam Sullivan with a shoulder save from in tight. In total Sosik made 27 saves.

"He's been playing great all year," said Bombard.

Auburn wrapped up the victory with 2:10 to play in the third when Westborough pulled its goalie while on the power play to make it six-on-four, but Slade scored into the open net for a shorthanded strike.

Auburn has now won two straight after losing three in a row.

Explosive interior offense leads Blackstone Valley Tech past Minutemen

Bay Path's Madison Paulhus takes a strong drive into the lane versus Blackstone Valley Tech's defense.

SPORTS STAFF WRITER

UPTON — Great guard play from Blackstone Valley Tech's girls' varsity basketball team led to great passes inside the paint, and strong rim presence by the forwards and centers allowed them to finish off interior baskets when the Beavers hosted Bay Path Regional on Tuesday, Jan. 16.

As a result Valley Tech made 22 two-point baskets — with the vast majority of them coming from inside eight feet — en route to a 50-29 victory over the Minutemen.

"It's always a focus for us. We have really strong post players," Valley Tech head coach Brit Kahler said of getting the ball inside to the bigs. "We can always take an outside shot, so if we can get it in and then pass it back out we get more open looks."

The Beavers led, 20-4, after the initial eight-minute quarter and never looked back. Valley Tech outscored Bay Path in the second, 15-6, to surge ahead to a 35-10 lead at the halftime break.

The Beavers are now a perfect 8-0 as the regular season's midpoint approaches.

"We're definitely taking it a game at a time," Kahler said of potential thoughts when playing in the postseason. "We were fortunate enough to go to the State Vocational Tournament last year and we ended up winning it for the first time, so that's a goal this year as well."

If Valley Tech keeps winning they will get a bid into the State Vocational Tournament as well as the MIAA Central Mass. Division 4 Tournament.

The Minutemen, who dropped to 6-2, are also off to a good start and are four victories away from also playing in the Central Mass. D4 Tournament. Head coach John Selen gave credit to Valley Tech's fast start and added that his team will only improve after playing a team like the Beavers.

"They're the cream of the crop right now in the Colonial League," he said of BVT. "You aspire to be what a BVT is. They're a great-coached team and they have some great players."

"You get better by playing good teams," Selen added. "This is a good learning experience for us."

Selen noted that Bay Path opened the game in a man-to-man defense, but the Beavers were able to take advantage of the one-on-one matchups down low. The Minutemen then switched to a 2-3 zone, which was when Valley Tech took advantage of the open space outside and began hitting deeper jump shots and one 3-pointer.

Bay Path had a more competitive third quarter, which the Beavers won by a 13-9 count to lead, 48-19, heading into the final frame. And the Minutemen won fourth quarter scoring, 10-2, to take the second half (19-15).

"We played tough and the girls hung with it," said Selen, adding that the team is currently playing without starting point guard Alexxus Afriyie, who suffered a sprained ankle a few weeks back.

Bay Path's scoring was balanced, with Nekelle Waskiewicz netting a team-high 7 points. Kiara Coates (6 points), Savannah Vangel (4), Emily Wong Kam (4), Madison Paulhus (3), Kayla Davis (3) and Kayla Morrison (2) also scored for the Minutemen.

"We're pretty happy with where we are right now. We're in a pretty good position," concluded Selen.

The Beavers also had a balanced scoring attack, which was led by Victoria Russian's 10 points. Kahler feels that her team is at its strongest when they spread the wealth offensively.

"I feel like we're a better team when there's not one or two girls you can stop and any one of them can go off at any time," she said.

Also scoring for BVT were Lyndsay Morse (9 points), Erin Fraine (8), Gabby Muscatell (7), Alyssa Clark (4), Kourtne Page (4), Isabelle Angelini (3), Kelley Muanya (3) and Meghan Leacy (2).

Kahler wasn't sure what to expect out of her group offensively before the season started, but noted that they have exceeded expectations — which could serve her team well down the road.

"The passing's great, we're really moving the ball and we're getting more aggressive on offense," she said.

Ethelinda “Linda” B. Montfort

WEBSTER - Ethelinda “Linda” B. Montfort of Cheshire, CT., formerly of Webster, MA, Long Island, NY, and Thompson, CT, died at home on January 17, 2018, at the age of 92.

She attended Bartlett High School in Webster and graduated from the Bancroft School in Worcester. She also attended Connecticut College in New London, CT.

Mrs. Montfort was active in the Girl and Boy Scout organizations and at St. Paul’s Episcopal Church in Long Island. She served on the Altar Guild, Vestry, church fairs, thrift shop and Sunday School. She was also a volunteer at the local Hospital in Glen Cove, Long Island, for twenty years. In 1990, she and her husband, Fredric H. retired to Thompson, CT. They celebrated their sixty-sixth wedding anniversary on February 19, 2010. While in Thompson, Ethelinda was a member of the Woman’s Board of Day Kimball Hospital, the Thompson Historical Society, the Friends of the Library, Learning in Retirement at Quinebaug Valley Community College and Christ Church in Pomfret, CT, where she served on the Altar Guild. In April of 2010, she and her husband moved to Cheshire, CT, where he died in June, 2010. She attended St. Peter’s Church in Cheshire, CT, until her passing. There, she was also active in the Altar Guild.

She leaves a son, Fredric C. Montfort (Judith Altman) of NYC and Bozeman, MT, daughters, Lucia Sherman (Edward) of Belle Mead, NJ and Linda Gremelsbacker (John) of Cheshire, CT, five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Her sister, Jane B. Howland died in 1991. Ethelinda was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Craigin Bartlett of Webster.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent in her name to Masonicare Hospice, 22 Masonic Ave., PO Box 70, Wallingford, CT, or the American Lung Association at www.lung.org

A memorial service will be held on Thursday, January 25, 2018, at 11:00am at St. Peter’s Episcopal Church, 59 Main St., Cheshire, CT. Paradis-Givner Funeral Home in Oxford is directing the arrangements.

Guy M. Cole, 74

WEBSTER - Guy M. Cole, 74, died Thursday, January 18, 2018 in Hubbard at Harrington Hospital. His wife of 35 years, Adele A. (Langlois) Cole died in 2014.

He leaves behind his best friend and loyal companion his dog Toby; 3 step-children, Julie L. Sterczala and her fiancé Robert E. Lee, Lorene M. and her husband James Gouin and Glenn A. Bacon, Jr. all of Webster; a daughter, Diane Cole and a grandson Adrian of Vancouver, WA; 3 grandchildren, Kelly L. and her husband Rich Barnaby, Stephen L. and his wife Katie Sterczala and Jenna E. Gouin; 3 great-grandchildren, Abby, Richie and Logan. He was predeceased by his brother, George Cole.

He was born in Hartford, Connecticut, a son of George and Estelle D. (Kogut) Cole.

He served in the United States Army during the Vietnam Era.

Mr. Cole worked as a corrections officer at the Somers State Prison in Connecticut before his retirement in 1998.

Guy enjoyed life, whether it was listening to an Irish band at McGuirk’s, or his other favorite places on Hampton Beach, walking his dog around Webster, or taking a drive to Foxwoods to try his luck. His greatest enjoyment was vacations spent with his wife and family, especially the yearly trips to Disney World and Hampton Beach throughout the childhood of his grandchildren.

In addition to all the big trips, our memories are full of all the times he made us laugh with his quirky ways. Guy was a great friend to many. He was friendly and fun to be around and will be missed dearly by his family.

A celebration of life will be held on February 17, 2018 at 1:00 P.M. in the Kosciuszko Society (Bush Hall) 10 Dresser St., Webster. Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Scanlon Funeral Service, 38 East Main St., Webster, MA.

225 Main Street
Worcester, MA 01608
Docket No. WO18P0095PM
CITATION GIVING NOTICE OF PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF CONSERVATOR OR OTHER PROTECTIVE ORDER PURSUANT TO G.L. c. 190B, §5-304 & §5-405
In the matter of:
Marsha I Stockley
Of: Webster, MA
RESPONDENT
(Person to be Protected/Minor)
To the named Respondent and all other interested persons, a petition has been filed by Lynda S Rodriquez of Webster, MA in the above captioned matter alleging that Marsha I Stockley is in need of a Conservator or other protective order and requesting that Lynda S Rodriquez of Webster, MA (or some other suitable person) be appointed as Conservator to serve Without Surety on the bond.
The petition asks the court to determine that the Respondent is disabled, that a protective order or appointment of a Conservator is necessary, and that the proposed conservator is appropriate. The petition is on file with this court.

You have the right to object to this proceeding. If you wish to do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance at this court on or before 10:00 A.M. on the return date of 02/13/2018. This day is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline date by which you have to file the written appearance if you object to the petition. If you fail to file the written appearance by the return date, action may be taken in this matter without further notice to you. In addition to filing the written appearance, you or your attorney must file a written affidavit stating the specific facts and grounds of your objection within 30 days after the return date.
IMPORTANT NOTICE
The outcome of this proceeding may limit or completely take away the above-named person's right to make decisions about personal affairs or financial affairs or both. The above-named person has the right to ask for a lawyer. Anyone may make this request on behalf of the above-named person. If the above-named person cannot afford a lawyer, one may be appointed at State expense.
WITNESS, Hon. Leilah A Keamy First Justice of this Court.

Free Yoga Classes for Cancer Patients — Restorative yoga classes for cancer patients are offered weekly and are open to patients, survivors, and their families or caregivers. Classes are held every Saturday morning from 8:15 to 9 a.m. at the Oxford Community Center, 4 Maple Road, Oxford, and on Wednesdays from noon to 1 p.m. at Saint Vincent Cancer & Wellness Center, One Eaton Place, Worcester. The Restorative Yoga program is a complementary therapy that is designed to help reduce lymphedema, increase range of motion, and soothe neuropathies that may occur during all stages of treatment and recovery. This program also promotes relaxation, which is a vital element in healing, as it brings emotional and physical relief from stress through moving meditation and gentle yoga stretches. These programs have been made possible through PinkHippy.Org, a 501(c)(3) non-profit holistic service and support organization that serves breast cancer patients, survivors and their families throughout Central MA, Northeastern CT, and Northwestern RI. Classes are free for those undergoing treatments or in recovery from breast cancer.

For more information please visit www.pinkhippy.org, call (508) 987-3310, or send an email to info@pinkhippy.org.
TWICE AS NICE: The Central Mass. Mother of Twins is a non-profit club to benefit those who are raising multiples and provide support and an outlet. The club meets from 6:30-8:30 p.m. every first Thursday of the month at the Oxford Community Center to discuss twins-related issues and have relaxing events such as movie nights and outings to take the children to and or your spouse or just for Moms. Anyone who is a child-care provider to multiples is welcomed and the meetings are held on the second floor of the building of the old school house.

Well Maintained 17,000± Sq.ft. Commercial Building on 7.3± Acres • Weare, New Hampshire 2017 Assessed Value: $969,800, Last Listed for $750,000, Selling to the Highest Bidder Above $200,000!
The first floor of this three story building located at 15 Twin Bridge Road totals 8,946± sq.ft. of finished space with large open areas. The second floor totals 8,136± sq.ft. with multiple private offices and large areas for gathering or for bullpen space. There is also an area which is set up for residential needs or sleeping quarters. The third floor is unfinished but would do well for additional space when needed and is accessible by elevator. There is an oversized, covered front porch that is a nice addition to the building along with parking for 51 vehicles and an under-garage for housing a plow truck and other maintenance equipment.
Built in 1987 with renovations in 1996 and an addition in 2001 this property has been home to several long terms tenants such as an Energy & Automation research and development firm and most recently a church with over 150 members. The property is accessed from Route 114 and is approximately two miles west of Goffstown Center.
PROPERTY TOURS: Wednesdays, January 24th and 31st from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Prayer to the Virgin Mary, never known to fail, the prayer is oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel fruitful vine, splendor of heaven, blessed mother of the son of God, immaculate virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh star of the sea, help me and show me herein you are my mother, oh holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech thee from the bottom of my heart to succour me in my necessity. Heal Sarah of all cancer. There are none that can withstand your power, Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (say 3 times) Oh holy Mary I place this cause in your hands (say 3 times). Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days. You must publish it, and it will be granted to you. In thanksgiving, Paul
