Dudley reserve officers approve release officer candidates

As we look forward to our upcoming 150th Anniversary, we wish to congratulate our citizens from The Church of the Reconciliation as they celebrate a matching milestone.

May both communities be blessed with many years of serving God and His people.

DUDLEY – The Dudley Board of Selectmen voted to approve the condition-al appointment of four reserve officers on Aug. 12, as part of the Dudley Police Department’s effort to fill ten open spots on their reserve force.

In June, the Board of Selectmen authorized Police Chief Steve Wojnar to add ten new officers to the reserve force leading the department to accept qualified applicants to put their names in consideration to join the department. Police Department working hard to keep Webster safe

WEBSTER — Webster’s new Police Chief, Michael Shaw, has been in his new position for six months, and is working hard with his department to keep the residents of Webster safe.

In his biannual report to the Selectmen, Chief Shaw says making Webster safer is one number one priority of the Police Department. Over the past 26 months, the Police Department has seen a real boost in attendance at about 20 percent since Chief Shaw took part in the promotion of Detective. With the increased staff, the department has seen an increase in calls for service and the need for it.

In the past two months, two new officers transferred from the Framingham Police Department. Officers Hurton and Mirenda are great assets to our community and we hope they serve the people of Webster providently for a long time.

The department also has a new officer in training, Francesco Cedeno, ready to when he finishes the Police Officer Academy this summer. In January, with the promotion of Michael Shaw to Chief of Police, we also had a new Lieutenant, Deputy Chief, and Gordon Wentworth was promoted to Sergeant along with Officer Deeny. We welcome all the newcomers and those in new seats at the Police Department—we know you’ll serve us well.

The last six months have been busy for the Webster Police Department. With the increased staff, we are seeing notable increases in citizens and arrests in Webster. Notably, there were over 9,000 calls for service in the first half of 2023, a total of 1,586 citizens were served. Not only do these citations make our community safer to drive, but many of these citations lead to further action by the police department. For instance, with some steadfast investigative work, the department was able to seize a kilo of cocaine and search warrants from which the department was able to seize a kilo of cocaine and search warrants from which they served the people of Webster providently for a very long time.

BOSTON — The Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection (MassDEP) has assessed Benali Properties for violating wetlands regulations in Southbridge. Benali also failed to comply with an order from the state, but also significant penalties. "Obtaining proper permits before conducting work in wetlands resource areas is necessary to ensure protection of water resources," said Mary Jude Pigsley, director of MassDEP's Central Regional Office in Central Massachusetts. MassDEP is responsible for ensuring clean air and drinking water, safe management and recycling of solid and hazardous wastes, timely cleanup of hazardous waste sites and spills and the preservation of wetlands and coastal resources.

The Police Department does more than just fight crime; they also save lives. On the Fourth of July, Sgt. Patrick Perry, with the assistance of others, heard a call for a distressed swimmer in the lake and immediately took a boat and was able to locate the distressed swimmer. Sgt. Perry jumped in the water and saved the man moments before he would have drowned. Additionally, the Webster Police Department served Notice to8 number of residency to 8 number of residents in the area, and I am fortunate to be here to return a call. I cannot say thank you enough to all of the men and women of the Public Safety for their hard work.

The Webster Police Department is also very active in the community. They truly believe in being an active part of community events. One of these events is the police hosted Night Out held this past Tuesday. Hundreds flocked to Memorial Beach for games, food and community bonding. Other police-hosted events include Hoops for Hope at Park Ave.

Taking the “Measure” of Shakespeare

WEBSTER — For the second year, the famous bard came to the Riverwalk last week, as Brown Box Theater returned with Shakespeare’s “Measure for Measure.” Around 100 people brought lawn chairs, blankets and drinks to partake of a tale of corruptions and chicanery that touched on themes all too common today: abuse of power, sexual manipulation, hypocrisy and deceit.

Vienna’s Duke of Ceris (Kandra) takes a trip to avoid having to enforce ultra-restrictive moral rules that call for the execution of Claudio (Cleveland) for getting his fiancé Julietta (Ryan) pregnant before their wedding. The duke leaves his deputy Angelo (Spencer Tew) in charge to play enforcer, but when he proceeds sentence, Claudio’s sister Isabella (Boess), a postulant nun, appeals for clemency — to the point of agreeing to give Angelo her virginity.

In the middle of everything, Isabella and Claudio get advice from a shadowy Friar (also Kandra), who is playing his own game against Angelo, bringing in Angelo’s rejected fiancée Marianna (Brophy) for a little bait and switch with Isabella, while also leading Isabella into thinking Claudio does get executed.

Most of the characters are pretty slimy and untrustworthy, yet the cast played them all well, to the point of making sure the audience went home thinking about what was not being said. It’s a lesson that unfortunately hasn’t changed much since Shakespeare wrote this 500 years ago. When a culture demonizes healthy, normal sexuality, it comes out in manipulative and unhealthy ways.

An irate and increasingly desperate Isabella confounds Angelo trying to get her brother released.

Francis Norton and Aislinn Brophy rehearse in costume before the play begins.

Regardless, Board of Selectman Chair Steve Sullivan felt the town administrator’s plan for consolidating clerk positions is the right way to go either now or later.

It's that time of year again, when the days are getting shorter and the weather begins to turn again. It's the time to start thinking about next year's school year, to plan for the fall, and to prepare for the return of the books.

As with most things, we enjoy tracking the data and numbers that have occurred over the years. This year's data shows that students are heading back into the classroom. We recall the days of back-to-school shopping, when Trapper Keepers were all the rage. These days, students can run the gamut of school supplies, from digital tablets to colorful notebooks.

As we reflect on the past, we also look forward to the future. We hope that this new academic year brings joy and success to all students. Whether you're starting a new chapter, continuing your education, or just enjoying a break, we wish you all the best in the coming year.

Don’t settle for poor-quality vinyl windows.
Not only can they look shiny and low-end, some poor-quality vinyl windows can warp, leak and become drafty after just a few years. Our windows are made of our exclusive Fibrex® material, which is twice as strong as vinyl.

Unlike some other companies, we warrant our windows and installation.2
Renewal by Andersen is the full-service replacement window division of Andersen Corporation, and because they’ve been around for 116 years, you know we’ll be around to stand behind our window, our service and our installation.2

Cape Cod.

In the 1980s, she served as a parish chairwoman of the Sargent Guild at Church in Henrietta, NY. She was a kind and generous woman who devoted countless hours to doing various arts and crafts projects in New York City shops, organized a women’s book club that collected items for a women’s shelter, and even volunteered to drive to visit friends, to visit friends, to visit friends.

Travel was a constant in Evelyn’s life. She went to Paris in her father’s 85th birthday. She went to Ireland in her 60th birthday. She went to France where she took a walking tour through the deep south to disrupt the world to a very private trip to regions of Arizona and Utah.

Her love for travel was present throughout her lifetime, traveling the most being the farthest. A very special highlight was her beginning in childhood, as she enjoyed the classics, especially Shakespeare. In later years she appreciated mystery novels from authors Sue Grafton and Tony Hillerman. A constant companion on drives were books on tape. Her other hobbies included photography, gardening, cooking, baking, knitting, weaving, reading, playing golf, cards, and board games. She was raised by her father, in 1972, her mother, in 2003, and her brother in 2016.

Even since her early years, Evelyn had found a second home in Livonia. She spent many summers were spent in Canada and on both coasts. She even traveled to New York, where she organized a women’s book club. Other clubs included the Geneseo in 1980.

As it was the first 4 year degree earned at SUNY Geneseo, the degree in education was of great importance to her family. She later received a master’s degree in education from SUNY Geneseo.

After college, Evelyn taught English at Oxford Middle School from 1965 to 1988. In 1988, she began new life in Livonia, NY. She was co-owner of a business in Livonia, in which she retired in 2001. She continued to serve on the board and to travel seeing the successes of her former students in Livonia.

Although Evelyn arrived as a stranger in Livonia, she never left the family. Having never married, her friends also became her family. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Livonia, which was gathering at Leaume’s Restaurant on Main Street for 10 years after she found a second home in Livonia. Still, her love for service remained even in the mid of Yankee country!

As it was the first 4 year degree earned in Webster. She was a member of the New York State Education Association and the Delta Kappa Gamma Society. She found immense peace at Schoodic Peninsula.

Evelyn’s family not only lost her to Alzheimer’s, but also collected items for a women’s shelter. Evelyn was predeceased by her brother in 2016.
