David Lynch enters the new, and newly-renamed, Webster public library. It's now the Gladys E. Kelly Public Library, after bearing Chester Corbin's name for many years. But the website is still www.corbinlibrary.org, at least for now.

New Webster library opens

TIMES CORRESPONDENT

WEBSTER — September 4 went down in history for two things, one that will probably be forgotten, one that many people will use for a long time.

The former was the routine political party primary. The latter was the opening of Webster's new library, after nearly two years in the town hall auditorium.

"In town hall, it was kind of a dungeon," said patron Laura Crotty, who was working on a puzzle with a client at the time. "This is nice and spacious, full of light."

As visitors will quickly notice, the new facility beside town hall also has a new name. After bearing Chester Corbin's name for many years, it's now the Gladys E. Kelly Public Library.

According to Library Director Amanda Grenier, the town tried to find a Corbin descendant without success. Since they'd received a "really generous donation" from the Fels Foundation, they opted to name it after Marilyn Fels' late mother, "who had just passed" and had been a strong library supporter.

"I'm really excited to have been part of this project, starting from design, choosing furniture and now we're open," Grenier said. "It's been a great experience, something I never thought I'd do."

Grenier said the staff is still "working out the kinks," particularly regarding technology the old site never had. Among other things, it now has more computers, a copy/fax system, and self-checkout that's "fairly easy to use. I think it'll be fairly popular once people start using it," she said.

Looking around shows there are also still some minor construction "punch list" items remaining, which is standard in almost any major project at this stage.

Several people visiting on its first day praised the building's open design and light like Crotty did. One couple, Alan and Leila Hoyt, brought their three young

Webster primary voters set November contests

BY GUS STEEVES
TIMES CORRESPONDENT

WEBSTER — Local voters reflected the state-as-a-whole's choices across the board in last Tuesday's primary balloting.

In November the key races will be: Republican Charlie Baker vs Democrat Jay Gonzalez for Governor, Democrat Quentin Palfrey vs the GOP's Karen Polito for Lt. Governor, Democrat Bill Galvin vs GOP Anthony Amore for Secretary of State, Democrat Suzanne Bump vs GOP Helen Brady for Auditor, Dem Maura Healey vs GOP James McMahon for Attorney General, Democrat James McGovern vs GOP Tracy Lovvorn for 2nd District US Representative, and Democrat

Elizabeth Warren vs GOP Jeff Diehl for US Senate. Coming out of the polls, Jason Piader said he had two major issues going into this primary: the governor and senate races.

"I wanted to make sure we had a successful person for governor who's winnable in Massachusetts," and "a viable candidate against Elizabeth Warren," he said, although he did not specify who he'd actually voted for in either case.

To him, it's important the state "continue on its track of fiscal responsibility," and would like to see the federal government take on some of that in the form of "a balanced budget that has

Selectmen set policy for new digital sign

BY JASON BLEAU
TIMES CORRESPONDENT

DUDLEY — If you've passed by the Dudley Municipal Complex lately you may have noticed something new about the facility. Adorning the front lawn of the facility is a brand new digital sign that now serves as a quick reminder of town events and meetings for locals as they pass by the facility which serves as the town hall, police station and senior center.

However, with a new sign comes the need for new regulations to make sure the precedent is set as to what can, and can't, be presented on the digital screen. During a meeting on Aug. 27 Selectmen made it clear they don't want the sign to turn into a simple advertising tool. Its purpose is to inform residents of ongoing and future events. With that in mind, Selectmen have implemented a new policy that dictates how this sign is to be utilized in the future.

Town Administrator Greg Balukonis discussed the policy with selectmen saying that the document was written up in a similar fashion to the digital sign utilized by the Pearle L. Crawford Library. Balukonis said he wanted to make sure the town remained consistent in its approach to these digital signs.

"We want to have parity between the two departments. The intent of the sign is to promote town ser-

Sam I Am and Red Hot reunited

The trail and its end: an adventure recited

KIMBERLY MASCHI
TIMES CORRESPONDENT

Through snow, rocks, roots, and water Sam Ducharme forged through the Appalachian Trail and came out victorious. With many experiences he shares his tales of struggle, resilience, and strength. On Thursday, Sept. 6, Ducharme visited the Oxford Public Library and gave an in-depth view into what it was like to be on such an adventure.

"I would like to give a big thank you to the friends of the Oxford Library for making this visit possible," says Ducharme.

Ducharme began his presentation of, Thru Hiking the Appalachian Trail with a bit about his past. Ducharme lives in Woodstock, where he raised two sons. Ducharme hiked, fished, hunted and explored with his children and has a deep connection to the outdoors. Ducharme retired from the prison he worked at, his sons had grown, and he lost his best friend in the world, his dog. Ducharme grew tired of his empty home and decided it was the right time to go on an adventure that would change his life. He planned for a month before heading down to Georgia to start his amazing journey.

In Georgia is where the Appalachian Trail begins. The trail is 2,190 miles long, expands through 14 states, and has a vast array of terrain and elevation. The trail usually takes about 5 to 7 months to complete. It took Ducharme about six months to finish.

"My first month was miserable," says Ducharme. "Every day was brutal. Everything hurt, my legs, my butt, my lungs, and my heart."

Car Buying Tips

People ask Place: What can I expect from cars of the future?
The Right Answer: The distant future of cars is yet to be determined but we can see the start of things to come in today's cars and some of the next generation vehicles. As for Ford even just the shape of cars is changing. Ford is eliminating the "TRADITIONAL SEDAN SILHOUETTE." In the coming years the cars will be more like today's SUV's or Crossover vehicles having shapes giving a higher seating position and view of the road and creating more interior space. These vehicles will continue to build on the technology being developed for self-driving cars. Collision avoidance, lane keeping and adaptive cruise control are the early adoptions from this developing technology. We can expect more electrification of the autos of the future. Ford is developing and introduced conventional Hybrid, plug-in Hybrid and all electric vehicles like our Focus and Fusion of today and upcoming versions of the Explorer and iconic Mustang. New unnamed models will likely blend all of this technology and some yet to be developed. There is speculation that concepts that show fully autonomous vehicles and even those that fly short distances will be entering the market in the foreseeable future. The future of automobiles looks to be an exciting one. Many things only dreamt of in SCI-Fi books are becoming reality just like much of today's reality was only dreamt of when Henry Ford built his first mass produced automobile.

Dudley planning inaugural Halloween parade

BY JASON BLEAU
TIMES CORRESPONDENT

DUDLEY – Halloween is merely a month away and the town is looking to add a new town wide celebration of the spookiest holiday of the year in the form of a Halloween Parade.

Selectmen discussed the possibility of adding the event to the town calendar in August, and while not all the details have been ironed out there is excitement about the prospect of a community-wide celebration that would allow kids to show off their costumes and embrace the fun of the holiday in a whole new way. Town Administrator Greg Balukonis said this idea wasn't just sparked from nowhere though. The parade is a requested town event that officials are now planning on making a reality.

"It's a new endeavor that people in the community have asked for," Balukonis told selectmen during a meeting on Aug. 27. "I'm told it won't take too much work."

There was some concern and confusion about a date and time however, with the initial proposal having the parade on Halloween night. However, Police Chief Steve Wojnar noted that this could interrupt trick-or-treating and the last thing that officials want is for children to have to choose between showing off their costume in the parade and going door to door for the annual trick-or-treat. Selectman Kerry Cyganiewicz suggested moving the parade to the day before Halloween instead which this year would be a Tuesday night.

"This way the kids can try out their costumes. Some parents enjoy that too," Cyganiewicz said.

Chief Wojnar added that the local Lions Club does a similar event the Sunday before Halloween and that the town may want to consider a joint event with that organization.

While the exact details are still up in the air, selectmen seemed to universally accept the parade as a great idea for the town. Selectman John Marsi spoke from experience that such an event could make for a neat new town-wide tradition having seen a similar parade find success in Woburn. He gave his own opinion on when the parade should actually be held.

"If you wanted to make it a big deal I'd do it on a Saturday, probably 11 a.m. until noon the weekend before (Halloween), versus the night of and make it a town thing and people will come watch it," Marsi said.

ACCURACY WATCH:

The Webster Times is committed to accuracy in all its news reports. Although numerous safeguards are in place to ensure accurate reporting, mistakes can occur. Confirmed fact errors will be corrected in a timely manner on page A3. We cannot run corrections based upon differences of opinion or unconfirmable facts. During non-business hours, leave a message in the editor's voicemail box.

Selectmen decided to table to discussion for another meeting in September to further discuss the details of the parade. While locals will have to wait just a little bit longer to know when and where they can participate it seems there is a lot of promise that Dudley's new Halloween event could become a modern town tradition.

Library partially re-opens after accident

BY SARAH CHAMPAGNE
STONEBRIDGE CORRESPONDENT

The Pearle L. Crawford Library's children room is back in business for the community after accidental damage to the building Thursday, Aug. 31. On that date, a car parked near the building accidentally hit the east side of the building due to a mechanical malfunction. The area of the building that was hit held the children's room of the library. After an assessment by structural engineers, two thirds of the children's room is now deemed safe and open to the public.

"Overall, we are grateful nobody was injured. Buildings can and will be repaired and I look forward to seeing work begin on the damaged area shortly," said Dudley Town Administrator Greg Balukonis.

The children's room is open during normal library business hours from the area of the story and craft areas to the back of the room. A portion of the children's room is inaccessible as repairs are arranged.

The Dudley Police Department confirmed that the damage was caused by an accident the day after the incident.

"This was an accident. The operator didn't do anything wrong. It appears to be a malfunction of the car," said Officer Chandler Boyd of the Dudley Police Department.

Does Real Estate Investing really give passive income?

Real Estate is considered passive income, however there are plenty of non-passive activities performed on rental property. One of the activities is just rent collection which could be you knocking on the tenants door on the 1st of the month and hoping they open it and give you money to having them transfer money every month into your account. You could also hire a property manager to do the rent collection for you. There are many other things to consider such as the lawn will need to be mowed, and the walkways and driveways shoveled. When the toilet is constantly running even though it is a simple fix you will probably need to go over and fix that or hire someone to do that. When one tenant is fighting with the other one and they call the police you usually end up with a phone call or when the tenants decide to have a bonfire going and the fire department shows up and calls you.

With all that being said, Real Estate is a great investment and many people have built lots of wealth Real Estate Investing while others have lost a lot of money. If you are doing a buy and hold strategy on investing and keeping them for the long term it is tough to mess up big time because the equity paydown over the years will probably fix your mistakes. If you desire to invest in Real Estate do not just buy a book and go out and invest. I suggest either finding a mentor who has successfully done what you plan on doing or a Real Estate Agent who can advise you on such things and also has successfully invested in Real Estate themselves. It is even better if you can have both. You always want to ensure you can afford to have vacant units in your buildings so you can be picky and only rent to qualified tenants. You also want to make sure you have trusted contractors such as Electricians, Plumbers and a handyman and possibly even a property manager if you do not have time to do any work yourself before making you first purchase. Lastly, ensure you have a business plan with how many doors you want to own and what is your target location so when looking you will not make emotional decisions in your Real Estate investing business.

Webster to auction two family home

The town of Webster will hold a real estate auction on Tuesday, Sept. 25 at 2:00 p.m. of a two family home at 21 Emerald Ave. This two family investment opportunity sits on a corner lot at the intersection of Summit Street. The live auction, will be conducted on site by The Zekos Group, Municipal Auction Strategies, a firm specializing in the auction of city and town owned real estate. The auction will be held on site and provides an ideal opportunity for local residents, contractors and investors.

Zekos Group President Paul T. Zekos said, "We are pleased to facilitate a live public auction that ensures transparency."

Town officials look forward to restoring the property to the tax rolls and having it become a vibrant part of the community.

Detailed property information and terms and conditions are available at www.zekosgroup.com. Prospective bidders will be required to present positive identification and a deposit in the form of a bank check (treasurer's, cashier's, or certified) to qualify to bid. Interested parties are urged to research the property and contact The Zekos Group at 508-842-9000 with questions.

vices, programs, events and resources. With that in mind we will promote special events for other organizations that benefit the community, but the sign is not something that is available for private businesses or events that do not in any way benefit the public," Balukonis said.

There was some discussion about whether or not the sign could serve as a potential source of revenue for the community. Balukonis said that there is the possibility of allowing companies to advertise on the sign, but it is not a one-person decision. It will require board approval as well.

"It could be (a source of revenue) if we were to use them it commercial purposes. I'm happy to approve the things that are public related. If they're not public related then those could come before the board for approval," Balukonis said. Selectmen debated this idea noting that such an approach could lead to companies feeling excluded by the town.

The one change selectmen made to the policy before finally approving it was striking the town accountant from the document as the alternate authority for the sign instead making the chair of the Board of Selectmen the go-to authority if the town administrator is unavailable.

Celebrating connections to Earth

The Lakota expression “Aho mitakuye oyasin” translates as “thanks to all our relations.” It’s echoed in various forms in many Native American languages, with “relations” meaning far more than just human relatives. Instead, the thanks go out to all the various species we share the world with, plant and animal, and in some cases to things like air and water our society doesn’t generally identify as alive, but are crucial to life.

People with various tribal ancestry gave such thanks Saturday and Sunday as part of the 38th annual Nipmuc Powwow, held this year at Lake Siog. For both days, people wearing a wide range of garb, from extra-colorful, tasseled, beaded, feathered and belled regalia to street clothes, took turns in the sacred circle, dancing to the beat of drums and the traditional chants of groups including the Walking Bear Singers and Blackstone Valley Singers. Outside, tents featured a wide array of jewelry, carvings, stones, beads, fabric art and other items celebrating Native life, art and history or material with which to make such art.

Sam Ducharme at the Oxford Library sharing his story

Ducharme struggled but overcame every harsh day and night.

"We walk 5 million steps on this hike, if you miss one, you go home."

Many who set out on this journey may not make it to the end. Many get injured or just cannot complete a hike that requires such dedication and preparation.

Over 2,000 miles of wilderness is full of danger, beauty and wonder.

"Wildlife will just walk right up to you," reminisces Ducharme.

Through the slide show pictures of spiders, snakes, deer, and an enormous black bear were all captured by Ducharme. Many stories accompanied each picture. Along the way, Ducharme experienced many kindnesses called trail magic. Coolers of ice cold water and soda were set out for hikers. Some even cooked meals for the weary travelers. Trail magic is a big part of the Appalachian Trail, "the trail will provide," says Ducharme.

Ducharme learned more about life while on this incredible journey.

"We are all the same here," says Ducharme.

The people he has met while hiking, no matter what profession, age, or ethnicity, they are all the same here, they are just hikers. When on such a journey, hikers will forge friendships and often give trail names, Sam Ducharme became Sam I am. Many friendships were forged and none forgotten. Ducharme met a man who had prepared for his hike for four years before he headed out. His trail name is Red Hot. Red Hot helped Ducharme get through the last 500 miles of the trail. When Ducharme wanted to give up and found each step getting harder and harder, Red Hot arrived and they teamed up. The pair worked together for the rest of the journey. Through acts of kindness, uplifting friends, and beautiful experiences; Ducharme made it to the end of the trail in Maine on Mount Katahdin.

"This trip means so much to so many people," says Ducharme.

Ducharme states that he became a new person through his experience. His number one tip to those who wish to take on this amazingly difficult and rewarding experience is to take your time. There is so much to see, so much to experience that those hiking should take their time and enjoy their adventure. IN a surprise ending to all who attended the presentation, Red Hot made a special appearance and Sam I Am reunited with his amazing friend. Ducharme returned to the trail, after he finished his hike, to share some trail magic of his own. He went back and cooked meals and shared stories with those who were on the same journey. Ducharme, Sam I Am, accomplished a momentous adventure that many wish to take but few may actually finish. Ducharme began the trail in Georgia and came out a different man in Maine. The Appalachian Trail "renewed my faith in people," says Ducharme.

FYI – IMO

If you use Facebook, or your cell phone. If you message or Twitter, you probably know the new shorthand, or at least a bit of it.

It is frustrating to know, despite the very best efforts of English teachers everywhere, the new crop of students in school right now will eventually lose all knowledge of grammar, punctuation, spelling and sentence structure as they continue to communicate only in word bites of 140 characters or less.

We heard recently of someone who wrote a 'novel' using Twitter B/C, YOLO & they could.

If that is so, how small could the newspaper be, if we could C.Y.E., dl, and Twitter the results directly with XOXO to our readers? YNT?

Of course, for most people, they wouldn't be getting the information they really needed; certainly never TMI.

Well, OBS.

There are some problems, beyond being understood with this language barrier; and parents are being warned to learn this new shorthand quickly as their kids have found ways to communicate in code. Sometimes to their own detriment.

Kids will find another way, if their parents figure it out of course, they always do. It's part of the rebellion IIRC.

FWIW, and AFAIK, there are no plans in the works to change the usual way of doing business at our own level. We will continue to double check our facts, edit for grammar and punctuation NTN.

Some of this shorthand is quickly recognizable of course, like ETA, TLC, OMG, or even LOL; in use so long and by so many they are no longer a mystery.

And a few need a good foreign language translator: TTFN (ta ta for now); or GOMB (get off my back), apparently in general use by teens worldwide.

We're just SMH (shaking my head) and realizing IDKWTID (I don't know what to do) with this information.

A language made only of initials completely understood by those in the know reminds us of an old Star Trek episode in which the entire population spoke in well know parables. Speaking just the name of the parable described an entire situation; that for the citizens gave them context. For the crew of the Enterprise, it was an infallible mystery.

And that is where we are at this point in our language development, as our younger, more savvy and technologically advanced citizens do initial speak to one another; they have a POA that OBS leaves out an entire 90 percent of the older citizens in the entire world. IKR?

So while you are geeking out over there at the veiled threat contained by this situation, realize this; in less than 10 years since the messaging world was invented, we could have written this entire essay in almost entirely initials, and only people younger than 25 could have read it.

As it is, we may have to translate those enigmatic initials we DID give you, but we can end with one those youngsters may scratch their heads over.

It may be that this is entirely a SNAFU.

VIEWPOINT

One word meaning of life

Every first Saturday in December The First Congregational Church of Dudley – United Church of Christ holds its annual Christmas Fair. In 2018 that date is Dec. 1 between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

While the Christmas Fair has become the most significant fundraiser for our church family, it is equally important as a gathering of our local community. Skilled vendors fill every available space within our church building. Delicious home style food is sold while musical entertainment lifts the spirits of everyone gathered. At 2:00 p.m. is our auction which includes both physical items and services.

Early on the question was asked: "What service could our pastor provide which people in attendance would be willing to bid on?"

Our church family had come to respect me and the work I do, yet for the longest time no one could come up with any ideas.

Why?

Well, truth be told, outside of my skill set I can find the experiences of my day to day life quite challenging. If something breaks, my wife Sarah is far more skilled than I am. If something needs building or you need financial advice or physical directions or emergency medical attention etc. you'll get far better results by calling highly skilled Sarah (fortunately my best friend) than me.

Someone thought about auctioning a funeral, believing I lead an excellent funeral. Although I appreciated the compliment, I quickly vetoed that idea. Then some suggested a wedding or renewal of vows. Reluctantly I agreed to give this a try. For years, I stood up front as people who valued me felt guilted into considering, on the spur of the moment, whether they actually wanted to recommit to the person sitting next to them or not! While one very successful 50th renewal of vows came of this...I found the overall experience of auctioning off weddings and renewals to be quite uncomfortable.

Yet, then an inspired idea came from Kenny Laferriere!

"Pastor John," he said. "Almost every Monday you hike Mt. Wachusett with Sarah. I bet people would love to bid on a hike with Pastor John. They could have you all to themselves for several hours. It would be a hit!"

I agreed to give it a try. Then, I thought, to create a particular buzz around this item, I would give serious consideration to what is, for me, the one word meaning of life, so folks who won the bid and climbed the mountain with me could be given this one word, like receiving wisdom from some "wise man" you had climbed to find at the top of the mountain.

I even agreed to sit in half lotus or full lotus while offering this word (something I actually can do) yet no one has yet taken me up on this. It's all in good fun, yet at the same time it has touched my heart deeply to realize how important this particular item has become to certain people who bid on it. I am truly blessed.

So, as I write this, if the weather cooperates, Kenny Laferriere, the highest bidder of this item at our 2017 Christmas Fair auction, will hike up Mt. Wachusett with me tomorrow and also learn my "secret" word, my one word meaning of life, the word which for me sums it all up. (My eldest son loves to joke: "Great dad! You know one word which sums up all of life, yet you'll only share it with the highest bidder?! Wow!")

In the first verse of the first chapter of the Gospel according to John we read: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." (NRSV) For me, Word with a capital W refers to Jesus. The 14th verse of that same chapter says: "And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth."

In chapter 15, verse seven, The Word, Jesus speaks some important words to us saying: "If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you."

Ah, this is where the rubber meets the road, so to speak. This is where it gets tough. You see, some of Jesus' words sound like the following from the 27th verse of the 10th chapter of the Gospel according to Luke: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

What?! What does that mean? Love my neighbor as myself?!

What do these words mean as we discuss borders and walls, legals and illegals, student debt, health care, honorably serving and speaking well of veterans who honorably served so we may freely speak? What do they mean as we collectively continue to care more for our personal political opinion than for working together, with those we might disagree with on many particulars, so we might move forward together, towards a better future for us all? The truth is, Jesus never gave a straight answer to any of these questions, other than love itself.

He said, without saying, when your words and actions speak love, then you will be abiding in me, and my words will be abiding in you, and when that happens, anything is possible. At least that's the word I hear. Blessings, Peace, and Love... Pastor John

Consider financial gifts for your grandchildren

National Grandparents Day was observed on Sept. 9. If you're a grandparent, you may get some gifts or cards – or maybe even a phone call! But you might feel that it's better to give than to receive, especially when it comes to your grandchildren. And you can make a real difference in their lives by making a financial gift for their future.

For starters, think about your grandchildren's education. If college or some type of vocational school is in their future, you may want to help them meet some of the costs, which can be considerable. One common education-savings vehicle is a 529 savings plan. With this plan, earnings on withdrawals are tax free, provided they are used for qualified education expenses. (Keep in mind that 529 savings plan distributions not used for qualified expenses may be subject to ordinary income tax and a 10% IRS penalty on the earnings.) You also may be eligible for a state income tax incentive for contributing to a 529 savings plan. Check with your tax advisor about these incentives, as well as all tax-related issues pertaining to 529 savings plans.

A 529 savings plan's contribution limits are quite generous. And, as the owner of a 529 plan, you have flexibility in choosing where the money goes – if your grandchild decides against college or another type of advanced education, you can transfer the plan to another beneficiary. And due to recent tax law changes, the scope of 529 plans has been expanded to include qualified withdrawals of up to $10,000 for tuition expenses per year per beneficiary at public, private or religious elementary or secondary schools. Be aware, though, that a 529 savings plan could affect any financial assistance your grandchild might receive. Although a 529 plan owned by a grandparent won't be reported as an asset on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), withdrawals from the plan are treated as untaxed income to the beneficiary (i.e., your grandchild) — and that has a big impact on financial aid. So, you may want to contact a financial aid professional about the potential effects of any gifts you're considering.

FINANCIAL FOCUS

DENNIS

A 529 savings plan isn't the only financial gift you could give to your grandchildren. You also might consider giving them shares of stock, possibly held in a custodial account, usually known as an UTMA or UGMA account. However, you only control a custodial account until your grandchildren reach the age of majority as defined by state law, at which time they take it over. They then can use the money for whatever they want – and their plans may not have anything to do with books or classes.

Still, your grandchildren might be particularly interested in owning the stocks contained in the custodial account – many young people enjoy owning shares of companies that make familiar products. And your gift may even get your grandchildren interested in long-term investing.

No matter what type of financial gifts you give to your grandchildren, make sure you keep enough money to pay for your own needs. It's important to balance your personal savings needs with your desire to be generous.

Giving financial gifts can be rewarding – to you and your grandchildren. Consider exploring some possibilities soon.

Hold up for horses and other livestock

Dudley has a mix of business, residential, and agricultural areas. As such, drivers can be exposed to some unique circumstances while driving. Domestic and wild animals are frequently on the streets. We also have people who ride horses along the roads for recreation. This is especially true as we approach the fall season. It is important for people to be aware of the presence of these animals. I was asked to remind drivers of the rules they must observe if they should encounter some of these situations.

Horses, cows, and other livestock are kept in various parts of town and they can be found on the road from time to time. Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 90 Section 14 provides the guide for drivers to observe when encountering these animals. It states in part, "Every person operating a motor vehicle shall bring the vehicle and the motor propelling it immediately to a stop when approaching a cow, horse or other draft animal being led, ridden or driven, if such animal appears to be frightened and if the person in charge thereof shall signal so to do; and, if traveling in the opposite direction to that in which such animal is proceeding, said vehicle shall remain stationary so long as may be reasonable to allow such animal to pass; or, if traveling in the same direction, the person operating shall use reasonable caution in thereafter passing such animal." Drivers are required to stop and/or shut off their motor if the animal appears frightened. It may also be necessary to stop and allow the animal to pass by your location to insure the move is done safely. Passing must also be performed with "reasonable caution." The penalty for violating this section is a civil traffic fine.

These animals can be on the roads either on purpose or by wandering out on their own. If startled, they can be injured, people accompanying them could be hurt, and property damage can occur. It is important to note, like pedestrians; these animals have been around much longer than motor vehicles. Therefore, the laws will favor the animal and the people in charge of them in most cases when it comes to an accident. Encounters of this nature can be rare and often unexpected. Drivers should be aware of this possibility and must exercise caution in these circumstances to avoid serious accidents and injuries.

Thanks again for your questions and comments. Please send them to me at the Dudley Police Department, 71 West Main St., Dudley, MA 01571 or email at swojnar@dudleypolice.com.

Goose, goose, grouse....

The first segment of goose hunting opened in Massachusetts this past Tuesday, but it provided very little action for local hunters. Even if there were birds available to shoot at, the weather was too hot for this writer, and using a dog in this weather to retrieve them would have been a bit too much for them also. Gunners hunting on the water would at least provide some relief for the dog. I am sure some goose hunters did very well outside of the Valley area. Hunting private golf courses and fields still produce the best action during the early goose season!

gist and other personnel to run the agencies need to require them to not only have degrees in their particular field, but they also need to make sure they have the sportsman that pay their salaries, are being represented. A little common sense would also be nice!! Too often brilliant minds lack any common sense. Making sure that new hires hunt or fish should be one of the requirements before being selected for the job.

The stocking of trout in local lakes and ponds by Mass Fish & Wildlife should start soon but the water temperature needs to drop a lot more before the fish are distributed in local waters. Rushing the stocking of trout could prove to be disastrous to the trout if the temperatures are too high at the time of stocking. It would sure be a waste of sportsmen's monies to lose the fish because the stocking of trout was too soon. The trout can also get infected with a fungus if they are placed in a stocking truck and bounced around prior to stocking. It is not a pretty sight and the trout will eventually die.

Last week this writer talked about the grouse population in the Valley and in neighboring states. It drew a lot of response from our readers although some of the younger generation of bird hunters never experienced the great grouse hunting that we old timers enjoyed back in the '60s in the Valley, they do not miss it as much as we do. The heath hen was another game bird in the '50s that became extinct because of problems of mismanagement and numerous other problems. We do not want to see this happen to the grouse. Hopefully Mass Fish & Wildlife will become more involved with reasons for the dramatic population drop in this once fast flying game bird. Loss of proper cover and West Nile are a couple of reasons that have been uncovered, but more needs to be done.

With the Massachusetts bird hunting season only weeks away, there is little for the average upland bird hunter to enjoy afield this fall, other than pheasant hunting. Woodcock have also hit an all time low in the Valley. With an annual limit of six pheasant per bird hunter, there is little reason for owning a dog like a setter or pointer unless you have deep pockets and can hunt a couple of hunting preserves once a week. It is the sign of the times! I guess I just miss the good old days!!!!

Fat Nancy's Tackle Shop in Pulaski NY reported fantastic fishing on Lake Ontario for king salmon this past week. A few salmon have entered the river but it will be a week or two longer before fishing explodes with action on the Salmon River. The water was running at 335 cfs as of last week. This week's two pictures were courtesy of Fat Nancy's last year on the Salmon River. You have not had a real fish on the end of your rod until you hook up with a king salmon!!

The Canal got hot for a few days last week with anglers catching numerous strippers daily. There were many fish that tipped the scales at 30 pounds but very few were considered monsters. Stay Tuned!

The Whitinsville fish & Game Club will hold their annual Field Day on Sept. 22 this year at the club grounds on White Court in Douglas. The event is open to the public. Grounds open at noon. Plenty of free parking is available. An old fashion clambake with all of the fixings will be only a portion of the great food available at the event. A chicken barbecue will also be available. Plenty of entertainment, and dancing to a DJ will also provide some great music for young and old. Don't Miss It. See You There.

Baby boomer toys

In my last column, I discussed the history of toys and shared some valuable old toy prices. We often find toys from the 1950s and 1960s in the estates that we handle. Despite there being so many '50s and '60s toys produced for the Baby Boomer generation, some are still quite valuable.

ANTIQUES,
COLLECTIBLES
& ESTATES
WAYNE TUISKULA

There are too many types of mid-century toys to cover them all, but I'll describe some of the most popular and valuable. Character toys are one type that remain very popular with collectors. Superhero toys command some of the highest prices. A 1958 tin Linemar tank that Superman halts and lifts sold for $5,500 in a November 2017 auction. A similar tank, this one featuring Popeye rescuing Olive Oyl, fetched $14,000. A 1967 mint in box Ideal Toys Captain Action Spiderman sold for over $7,100. A Japanese Yanoman Batman car with the box brought $8,500 at a May 2018 auction. A mint in box 1966 Batman playset sold for $10,000 in 2016.

Barbies are some of the most popular dolls from the '50s and '60s. A 1959 #2 brunette doll in a Sweet Dreams silhouette box sold for $5,500 in 2015 and a blonde #1 in near mint condition with the box brought $9,000 in 2011.

Space toys and robots are another example of desirable toys. Masudaya's Gang of Five toy robots, from the late '50s and '60s, are some of the most highly collectible toys of the era.

The five robots are: Radicon robot, Giant Sonic robot, Non Stop robot, Target robot and Machine Man robot. Masudaya Nonstop robot brought $6,000 at a 2012 auction. A Giant Sonic robot sold for $7,000 in a 2012 auction. A Target robot with the box sold at auction for $20,500 April 2011. A Radicon robot with original box sold for $25,000 in 2014. A Machine Man robot reached $38,000 at auction in 2012.

Many other toys from the era have also brought great prices at auction. A rare Lesney Matchbox No.30 Magirus Deutz Crane recently sold for over $4,600. A 1965 James Bond 007 Road Race set sold for $5,100. A Frankenstein bobble head sold for $5,150 in 2008. Four 1960s GI Joe military police figures and accessories sold for $5,500 at auction. A PEZ store display box picturing Bozo, Bullwinkle, Popeye, Mickey Mouse and other characters recently sold for $9,999. Mint condition toys from the '50s and '60s could earn you plenty of money to play with.

Our live toy and collectibles auction will be on Sept. 27 in Worcester. I'll be teaching my "Evaluating your antiques" class on Oct. 15 at the Bay Path Evening School in Charlton. We are planning a multi-estate antique auction on Oct. 25. I'll also be appraising items for the Winchendon Historical Society's appraisal event on Oct. 28 from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM. See www.centralmassauctions.com for details on these and other upcoming events.

One of those first-timers was Webster's Jason Villatico, who said he saw the event arrive from his house across the lake and rode his jet ski over to participate.

"This gets your adrenaline going," he said of why he does it. "It's an adrenaline-driven sport. You can't really get that doing it on your own."

Villatico said a friend from Auburn got him involved in the sport, but he'd previously raced professional motocross for several years. Water-cross requires a different technique, but "the mindset's the same. Racing mode is racing mode; you can click into it."

Yates said people came to Webster from as far away as Florida, participating in 17 classes based on experience and how powerful and/or old their jet skis are. A jet ski's basic cost is about $1,000, but those with "full race trim" are closer to $3000, and those with turbo go for up to $4,000. There were also a handful of powered surfboard-like vehicles, but not enough to support races. Yates noted those run around $13,000.

"Anybody who wants a tour championship title has to race here," he said, later thanking Webster "for bringing us in and being so accommodating."

That access came largely through Recreation Director Carol Marchand, who attended Saturday. She noted

Keith Gregory (tattooed) guides Mike Kelberer and Eric Degler into the beach after a race.

Domenic Kenney of Webster hangs out with Chris Kasabula on the beach.

Yates called her about using the lake after a couple of racers from Douglas let him know about the possibility. To check out the idea, Marchand took a trip to New York to observe an event.

"They run a pretty well-oiled machine," she said, noting everything she's seen so far has been "very respectful, very professional," including the participants who are camping at the beach overnight (in RVs).

Going into it, Marchand noted she had some concerns about noise, largely because previous events involving speedboats had triggered complaints from neighbors. But she said she felt water-cross was not particularly loud. Indeed, it wasn't; although you could hear the engines especially at the start of a race, the noise did not carry too far.

Marchand said she tries to balance the various competing uses on the beach by generally scheduling events like this for May or September, after the bulk of summer use.

"I'm surprised to see as few [spectators] as there are," she added.

Spectator Chris Kasabula agreed, noting, "Usually, for any kind of commotion like this, you see the boats come out and stack up to watch. But there are only a few today." Despite that he said, "It's a super-nice day for this, not too hot."

It is with Nichols College's well-rounded approach to career development that its students are prepared to take on the postgraduate world.

"We are absolutely thrilled to recognize Nichols College as a College of Distinction for its effective dedication to student success," said Tyson Schritter, chief operating officer for Colleges of Distinction. "Colleges of Distinction is so impressed with Nichols College's Professor Luanne Westerling, associate dean for business at Nichols College, said, "We are honored that Colleges of Distinction continually recognizes Nichols College as a leader in professional education. We attribute our strengths to our focus on providing experiential learning and leadership opportunities for all of our students.

"Building on our extensive liberal arts and business curricula, Nichols students are prepared to take what they learn in the classroom and apply those skills to a real business environment," added Westerling. "We also ensure our students are career-ready upon graduation by offering our signature professional development seminars. Through these seminars, all Nichols students focus on the development of a resume, and are provided with interview skills training and experience."

Colleges of Distinction's selection process consists of a review of each institution's first-year experience and retention efforts alongside its general education programs, alumni success, strategic plan, student satisfaction, and more. Foundation contributes to Family Fun Day

The Hometown Bank Community Foundation announced their contribution to the first Southbridge Family Fun Day that took place on Aug. 25.

As a major sponsor of the event, bankHometown worked closely with The Salvation Army, who put on the event, Southbridge Community Connections, Tradewinds Clubhouse and KIVA Wellness Center. The event served around 500 meals, much of which was donated, and provided free fun activities such as face painting, raffles donated from local businesses, two bounce houses and a live DJ.

"We wanted to do something for the community that was fun and free – a 'get away' from everyday life, even if it was only for a few hours," said Sabrina Grillo, branch manager of the bankHometown Sturbridge branch.

This was the first ever Family Fun Day in Southbridge, and due to the event's success, sponsors are looking into making this event happen annually.

Hometown Bank Community Foundation, Inc. was formed in early 2016 by bankHometown, a state-chartered cooperative bank headquartered in Oxford, Massachusetts with $750 million in assets.

bankHometown has served its communities since 1889 with offices in Massachusetts (Athol, Auburn, Leominster, Oxford, Lancaster, Sturbridge and Webster) and Connecticut (Putnam, Brooklyn, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock). Depositors of bankHometown have their deposits insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation for amounts up to $250,000 with amounts in excess of $250,000 insured in full by the Share Insurance Fund, a private excel insurer.

Bartlett boys' soccer program celebrates 50th anniversary

Dozens of former players attended Bartlett's 50-year anniversary reunion for the boys' soccer program.

On Saturday, Aug. 25 at the Polish American Veterans Banquet Hall in Webster, the Bartlett High boys' soccer program held a 50-year anniversary reunion to celebrate the first 50 years of the program's history. Over 90 people attended the event including 60 former players, coaches and managers. The event was spawned from an over two-year project current varsity head coach Ryan Renauld worked on in creating a history/record book. After researching newspaper articles, box scores and information received from past coaches and players, Renauld began to think strongly of putting together this unique fundraiser for the program.

A great time was had by all that attended and many of those that could not attend have reached out to support the program and purchase commemorative T-shirts and the book. High school sports are an important part of many teenagers' lives and this event and the response it received demonstrates what the boys' soccer program at Bartlett was, is and will continue to be to so many athletes who become a part of it.

Over $1,800 was raised for the program through the support of its alumni. Renauld would like to thank all of those who have donated their time while playing and/or coaching and continue to show support long after their playing/coaching days for the Green and White have ended. Without that support the program wouldn't be what it is today and the reunion wouldn't have been so special to so many.

The team has compiled a 404-345-119 record over the 50 years, good for a .534 winning percentage. Bartlett has made the playoffs in 25 of those years and won the State Championship in 2006.

Brian Henderson (Class of 2007) has the career record for goals (86) and points (124), while Nick Kobel (Class of 2012) has the career assist mark (43). Brian Tondel (Class of 2015) has all over the career goalie leading statistics with wins (39), shutouts (28) and goals against average (0.59).

Tantasqua's strong second half helps take down Indians

WEBSTER — With just four minutes to play until halftime and down a goal, 1-0, the Tantasqua Regional boys' varsity soccer team was reeling. But a tying strike before the break, followed by an inspired four-goal second half led to an impressive 5-1 victory for the Warriors over Bartlett High in the season opener for both teams on a hot and humid Wednesday, Sept. 5.

"Slow starts aren't good and we started slow today," said Tantasqua head coach Matt Guertin. "In the second half we played much better."

Guertin added that the 36th minute equalizer "deflated [Bartlett] a little bit. We needed that as a boost to kick-start us."

On the contrary, the Indians didn't have enough offensive flow to get back into the game.

"I thought for the most part we struggled to generate quality chances," said Bartlett head coach Ryan Renauld. "We had decent buildup into what could result into a dangerous cross, but their defense played very well.

"Once [Tantasqua] saw the ball going in they took that momentum," added Renauld. "We didn't have enough to stymie them."

The Indians scored their goal in the 32nd minute to take a short-lived lead. Patryk Piwowarczyk took a free quick from long range and, as the ball soared toward Tantasqua keeper Bradley Beu, Bartlett's Jacob Vosburg also attacked the ball. It eventually squirted loose and onto the foot of Justice Ofori, whose shot found the back of the net.

The Warriors, who saw many shots sail up and over the crossbar, finally got one to go in the net when Logan McCarthy took a short free kick. Able Lidonde and Brandon Rodrigues both touched the ball until Hunter Ramsland's boot provided the tying tally.

"We looked at that stat at halftime and we wanted to correct it," Guertin said of shots taken that didn't go on goal. "If you don't put it on frame, it's not going to help the team out."

That changed in the second half, as the Warriors scored in the 42nd, 53rd, 62nd and 67th minutes.

In the 42nd Tyler Rodrigues used his blazing speed to carry the ball down the left side. His pass went to McCarthy, who one-touched it off the right post and into the net.

Tantasqua's Aiden Casinghino, who peppered the net all game long but continued to either miss the target or see Bartlett keeper Taven Phanthavong (15 saves) make a nice stop, finally found the scoresheet in the 53rd minute. His bullet from 25 yards out on a free kick was deposited into the upper left-hand portion of the net.

Tyler Furey then scored in the 62nd minute off a rebound before Casinghino scored his second free kick of the half, this one from even deeper and in the 67th minute. His rocket again found the upper left portion of the goal.

"He'll be taking those the rest of the year," Guertin said with a laugh. "That's definitely a great attribute that he has."

Despite the loss, Renauld said that his team "battled" and that they "can take a lot from this and learn moving forward."

"I'm not disappointed with effort except for a 10- to 15-minute lapse...that we can't have," he added.

Bartlett's Justice Ofori (17) slips a shot past Tantasqua keeper Bradley Beu for the Indians' goal in a 5-1 loss to the Warriors.

Shepherd Hill falls short to Marlborough in Brotherton's debut

Shepherd Hill's Maria Holland dribbles the ball up the field.

BY KEN POWERS
SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

DUDLEY — Four different players scored — two in each half — for Marlborough High's girls' varsity soccer team, which ruined the debut of Shepherd Hill Regional's new head coach Amanda Brotherton, beating the Rams, 4-0, on Tuesday, Sept. 4 at Carmignani Field.

The game was the season-opener for both teams.

"Marlborough has a very strong team; they've got some great talent," Brotherton said. "It's nice to see where we're at so I can move on and make some changes. We have the potential; we've just got to make it work."

Brotherton, who teaches at Shepherd Hill, replaces Sarah Garneau, who also teaches at the school.

Despite that fact that she surrendered all four of the Panthers' goals, Shepherd Hill goaltender Alyssa Trueman was clearly the Rams' best player on the pitch against Marlborough.

"Alyssa is very strong," Brotherton said of her net-minder. "She's a very good goalie with a lot of talent and a lot of heart."

Trueman finished the game with seven saves, including a pair of diving and leaping stops. The final score of the game could have easily been double what it was had it not been for the play of the senior, who along with Reese Hammond, serves as a team captain for the Rams.

Marlborough took a 1-0 lead in the game's 14th minute, junior Madelyn Seder scoring from right in front of the net, faking a move to her right before firing the ball into the left side of the goal. The Panthers doubled their lead with 6:32 left in the first half, freshman Lindsay Lefebvre scoring on a long shot from the right side that got over Trueman's head and nestling into the upper left corner.

each scored in the first eight minutes of the second half to put the game away for Marlborough.

Offensively, Shepherd Hill appeared to struggle putting any momentum together. While the Rams did carry the play into the Marlborough net at times, they were unable to have any extended pressure on the Panthers' net.

"The talent level that I have up top is something I have to work on," Brotherton said. "We have to be cohesive; our practices have shown that. I think putting it out on the field tonight in our first game we had some first-game jitters and we spent a lot of time trying to figure each other out. It was a challenge for us, but now we know what we need to work on and we can go forward from here."

Shepherd Hill faced the Auburn High girls' varsity team in a scrimmage during the last week of preseason and defeated the Rockets, 3-0.

"We have it," Brotherton said. "We just need to find it."

Brotherton, who said several of the Rams' players have returned to the team after not playing last season, believes good on-field communication is important to winning games.

"Communication on the field is extremely key," Brotherton said. "I have four seniors that lead the team and a lot of the communication [against Marlborough] came from them. I think some of the other girls are trying to step into some sort of leadership roles so I want to make sure that their communication is on and they're learning to trust each other in the process."

"When we did communicate on the field, that's when we actually moved the ball around and got the ball out wide and used our outside midfielders the way we should have," Brotherton added. "That's one thing I've been working on and I've been pushing to work on with them."

Brotherton is well-known in girls' and women's soccer circles, both locally and nationally.

Known then as Amanda Brodeur, Brotherton was a standout soccer player at Auburn High, graduating in 2004. While at Auburn — she was inducted into the Rockets' Athletic Hall of Fame in 2016 — she helped lead the girls' soccer team to three Central Mass. titles and was a four-year SWCL All-Star as well as a Central Mass. and All-State All-Star for three years. She also played varsity basketball and ran indoor and outdoor track at Auburn.

After high school Brotherton attended William & Mary University in Williamsburg, Va., where she played Division 1 soccer for The Tribe on an athletic scholarship and helped lead the team to three NCAA appearances. She has previously served as a head girls' soccer coach at St. Peter-Marian High School and as an assistant women's soccer coach at the U.S. Military Academy in West Point, N.Y., and at the College of the Holy Cross.

Rams hang with powerhouse Wachusett until giving way in second half

SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

DUDLEY — Despite having given up a double-digit number of goals two days earlier to Central Mass. powerhouse Marlborough High, the Shepherd Hill Regional boys' varsity soccer team battled the Mountaineers of Wachusett Regional every step of the way in the game between the two teams on Thursday, Sept. 6 at Carmignani Field — and it showed.

Wachusett won the game, 4-0, thanks to a pair of second-half goals by Kevin Skagerlind and single markers by Luke Miller and Tanner Gigliotti, but the Rams showed that they can play with the top-tier teams in the area as the game was tied, 0-0, after the first 40 minutes.

For the Mountaineers, the game with Shepherd Hill was their season-opener; the Rams fell to 0-2 on the young season with the loss.

"We played so well in the first half; they threw everything they could at us and our keeper kept making good save after good save," Shepherd Hill first-year head coach Tim Cormier said. "I'd like to have the first three goals we allowed back."

The first two goals, which came in a four-minute span in the first 10 minutes of the second half were, according to Cormier, a result of the game conditions — it rained off and on throughout the game.

"They were a result of a wet ball on wet turf getting under the goalie," he said. "That was a blow to the team. The boys had been working very hard up to that point and that was a defeating aspect. Then, the third goal, from my perspective came right after a handball by a Wachusett player. On the play my player stopped, thinking there was going to be a whistle and it gave [Wachusett] the room it needed to score the ball. So, those three were easily avoidable goals, given the circumstances."

The significance of being in a scoreless tie with one of the dominant programs in the area was not lost on Cormier.

"I was in a good mood after the game. I thought that we played well. Wachusett is a big program; we highlight the games with those teams — the Wachusetts, the Marlboroughs, the Algonquins — basically our league, so we know what we're in for," Cormier said. "So, for it to be 0-0 at half, I was super excited. And I was pumped after the game, too. I knew for the kids the loss was terrible and that they had just worked really hard, but I was positive. We're trying to build something here and I think we took a very positive first step with the way we played against Wachusett in the first half."

Cormier said several Shepherd Hill defensive players performed well against Wachusett, starting in net with Jake Fortin. The junior made seven saves in the first half, including a few of the diving, leaping and lunging variety.

"Jake is a madman; he is just so focused and intense in his approach. He was everywhere in that first half," Cormier said. "I feel bad that through two games he's got 14 goals allowed, but I feel confident with him back there. And I know the boys really appreciate what he brings to the team. His intensity is where it needs to be."

While the entire defense in the first half caught Cormier's eye, the play of Cam Hackett, Matt Nguyen and Gabe Roach really got his attention.

"Cam is a sophomore center back. Last year I just dropped him back there in the middle as a freshman because he had confidence for the position and a body to play the position, and he's really stepped up. Last night he made so many plays that were all hard work and will," Cormier said. "Matt is a sophomore captain for us. He plays in the midfield and he leads by example. He's steady; he never puts his head down and he does the work."

Roach, a freshman who was making his first varsity start, is a midfielder.

"I thought Gabe player really well," Cormier said.

Shemar
Age: 6

Hi! My name is Shemar and I like to read and be read to.

Shemar is an adorable 6 year old boy of Caucasian and African American descent. Active and busy Shemar likes to play outside on his bike and his scooter. He also likes to read, play with Legos, play with his superhero figures, coloring and watching movies. He gets along well with all in his foster family including his foster dad, mom and 3 foster siblings. He needs clear expectations and limits and then he can easily follow a routine Entering 1st grade in fall 2018 Shemar does well in school with the help of a sticker chart. He gets along well with his teachers and with his school peers.

Freed for adoption, Shemar would do well in any family constellation with or without other children in the home. The ideal family will need to keep him active, loved and provide him with a structured home with clear routines and limits. He has sibling with whom he would like to maintain contact with monthly. Right now, they visit with Shemar monthly.

Who Can Adopt?

Can you provide the guidance, love and stability that a child needs? If you're at least 18 years old, have a stable source of income, and room in your heart, you may be a perfect match to adopt a waiting child. Adoptive parents can be single, married, or partnered; experienced or not; renters or homeowners; LGBTQ singles and couples.

The process to adopt a child from foster care requires training, interviews, and home visits to determine if adoption is right for you, and if so, to help connect you with a child or sibling group that your family will be a good match for.

To learn more about adoption from foster care, call the Massachusetts Adoption Resource Exchange (MARE) at 617-54-ADOPT (617-542-3678) or visit www.mareinc.org. The sooner you call, the sooner a waiting child will have "a permanent place to call HOME."

Gillespie (4 TD's) outduels Lazo (3 TD's) as Bay Path edges Pioneers

SOUTHBIDGE — Simply put, the final score of the Bay Path Regional versus Southbridge High varsity football game could have been 4-3. That is because when the two teams took to Harry J. McMahon Field on Friday night, Sept. 7, the Minutemen's Tyler Gillespie scored four touchdowns to Garrett Lazo of the Pioneers' three to make a 28-20 victory for the visitors.

"He's young and he's figuring it out as we go," Fall began on Gillespie. "He's really liking contact and he's just raw talent. I couldn't be more proud of him. He's a sophomore that came through in a big moment. He's definitely someone to look forward to in the future."

Fall and Southbridge head coach Frank Koumanelis also had strong words on Lazo.

"Garrett Lazo, that kid put his team on his back and carried them," said Fall. "Hats off to him because he was a warrior out there for them."

"I thought Garrett Lazo had a heck of a football game, both ways," added Koumanelis of Lazo playing both fullback and defensive end. "I think we've got to start using him a lot more. He's a tough kid."

Gillespie had nine carries for 77 yards and a trio of touchdowns, plus three receptions for 43 yards and another score. Lazo rushed 10 times for 40 yards and a touchdown, and also grabbed three passes for 35 yards and another TD.

The Pioneers scored first on their opening drive of the season. Alex Torres scampered for a 20-yard gain on the second play from scrimmage, and Lazo eventually scored from 2 yards out to make it 6-0 early.

The Minutemen responded on their first drive, as Gillespie had a 26-yard run four plays before grabbing a 14-yard pass from quarterback Michael Keeler for the touchdown. Keeler then connected with Joseph Rosario for the two-point conversion to make it 8-6 in Bay Path's favor.

At halftime the score remained 8-6 until a wild, back-and-forth second half ensued.

There, the Minutemen took a 14-6 lead when Gillespie strolled into the end zone from 5 yards out, but the Pioneers cut into the lead, 14-12, when quarterback John Cortez threw an 18-yard TD pass to Lazo.

Then, with 4:56 to play in the fourth quarter, Southbridge regained the lead. Facing a fourth-and-goal from the 6, Lazo barreled his way up the middle and in for the score. Cortez then hit Simon Gonyea with a two-point pass to make it 20-14.

Bay Path rallied, though, and tied the score at 20-20 with 2:35 to play. There, following a Southbridge offside penalty on fourth down, Gillespie took advantage of the flag and scored from 2 yards out.

After forcing the Pioneers to go three-and-out and punt, the Minutemen scored with just 51 seconds to play. Gillespie found the end zone from 6 yards out and tacked on the two-point conversion to make it 28-20.

"It was a dig deep moment," Fall said of the game's waning moments. "I thought that these guys have been preparing hard, they've been playing hard, they've been forcing each other to be better in practice, and I think when things were tough on the line they kind of gathered together and they were able to take care of business. Hopefully this transfers into another week of hard work."

Fall was proud to have beaten a Southern Worcester County League team before facing another one in Bartlett High on Friday, Sept. 14 at 7 p.m. at Webster's Memorial Athletic Field.

"Any time we play a SWCL team it's going to be a tough game," said Fall. "Even though we're a 10-town school, border wars are huge. It's all sending schools and you can never discount that type of rivalry."

And despite the loss, Koumanelis knows that his team battled hard and is a better group than 2017's squad that finished 1-10.

"We're a better football team than last year. These kids are committed. They were freshmen and sophomores last year, so now they're sophomores and juniors," he said. "I think they played their heart out tonight, but penalties killed us. We shot ourselves in the foot."

Southbridge will play at Ayer-Shirley Regional, also on Friday at 7 p.m.

controls for welfare.” But in general, Piader said he likes where the economy is going and supports things like the recent federal tax break, which gave him “a couple hundred dollars. That makes a difference for me.”

Mike and Sandra Macomber disagreed a few minutes later.

To them, “the federal level’s all screwed up,” and they felt the way to fix it is “get rid of Trump.” But they noted that would require “people to smarten up” to happen and attributed much of the problem to the fact too many people “don’t want to cross party lines.”

Regarding the primary itself, they thought there was “not much to choose from,” as far as candidates went, and hoped better choices come out for the 2020 election.

“We’ll see who comes out of the woodwork to run,” but aren’t yet thrilled by those who may be feeling out candidates. Two of the best known, John Kerry and Joe Biden, are both “past their prime,” they said.

Going into November, the Democrats and Republicans in several of the key races will face at least one third-party candidate, according to The Green

Papers (www.thegreenpapers.com). The Green-Rainbow Party is fielding three candidates: Juan Sanchez for Secretary of State, Edward Stamas for Auditor and Jamie Guerin for Treasurer, while the Libertarians are fielding one, Dan Fishman for Auditor. (The Libertarians are also the only third party currently with ballot status.)

For US Senate, there are six other people running, all of them unenrolled: Shiva Ayyadurai, John Devine, Joshua Ford, Louis Gallo, Sarah Pimental and Allen Waters (who first tried to get a Republican nomination); of them, the Ford and Gallo links go to dead pages and Pimental has no link. The Open Secrets campaign finance website doesn’t list several of them, just Ayyadurai and Waters, but includes the three primary Republicans (Diehl, John Kingston and Beth Lindstrom) plus a fourth, Heidi Wellman, who ran out of money in March.

For US Rep in District 2 (which includes Oxford and Webster), unenrolled candidate Paul Grady ended his campaign in July. In District 1 (which includes Dudley), unenrolled Frederick Mayock ended his campaign in August, leaving Democrat Richard Neal with no opponent in November, after he defeated Tahirah Amatul-Wadud Tuesday by a roughly 70-30 margin.

Plan your fall foliage excursion

Autumn means different things to many people. Students may embrace the dawn of a new school year, while others might embrace the crisp weather after a season of heat. One of the more widely enjoyed aspects of autumn is the chance to take in the brilliant foliage.

Although New England may be renowned for its bright, orange, red and yellow panoramas, dazzling displays of foliage can be witnessed anywhere temperatures descend enough for deciduous trees to shed their leaves.

The first step to a successful fall foliage excursion is to find the right spot. The Catskill and Adirondack Mountains of New York, Amish Country in Pennsylvania, the Great Lakes from Michigan to Ohio, and many other areas can be great places to witness nature at its most colorful. To make the most of fall foliage road trips, drivers can keep the following suggestions in mind.

- Get off the highway. To see great fall vistas, take a detour from major thoroughfares and visit small towns and mountain passes. Invest in some maps, as cellular networks may be inaccessible in remote locales.

- Avoid tourist-heavy areas. Drivers may prefer less crowded roadways to accompany the great scenery. Such drivers should visit areas that are not tourist meccas. Any area that plays home to forests and sprawling landscapes will do.

- Go on foot. To get the best photos, head out at sunrise or sunset. Soft, golden light dappled by leaves will bring out the golden tones in photos. Going on foot will help you discover the nuances of the season and slow down for a change.

Fall is the time of year to take in colorful foliage and landscapes.

- Don't overlook overcast days. Traveling in the rain may not be fun, but overcast days might be ideal. On such days, the sun won't be too warm and drown out the colors.

- Bring along binoculars. Wildlife is often mobile and abundant in the fall, as animals scurry to feed and gather supplies before the winter. As a result, autumn is a great time to spot wildlife that's normally hiding in thickets and woodland areas.

- Plan for stops along the way. Don't forget to bring some spending money in the form of cash so that you can enjoy the small farm stands and shops that often dot rural landscapes. Pick up farm-fresh produce or choose a plump pumpkin. Yard sales also are abundant this time of year. Small shops may not take credit cards, so if you plan to buy, cash is king.

Trees begin shedding their leaves as early as the beginning of September in Canada and the northern United States. As the days press on, the fall finery will gradually shift southward. For those who can afford to take a weekday off, do so, as weekends might be overcame with fellow nature enthusiasts.

Creative ways to recycle leaves

Leaves cascading down from trees indicate the arrival of autumn. However, colorful and awe-inspiring autumn leaves can be a hazard if left to lie on the ground too long.

Fallen leaves form a dense insulator to protect trees' roots and prevent competing plants from growing. Decomposing leaves also provide nutrients for the tree. But wet leaves can be a safety hazard and leaves left on the lawn through the winter can pose a threat to the grass. These are just a couple of reasons why so much effort is placed on leaf clean-up in the fall.

The following are some creative ways to recycle leaves that fall from your trees in the weeks to come.

- Mulch: Shredded leaves can make for a great amendment to fertilizer for garden beds and even the lawn. Leaves lying on the grass can be mulched into small pieces with a mulching mower so they don't choke the blades of grass. Leaves also can be broken down with a string trimmer, a leaf blower that has a vacuum function or a commercial shredder/chipper. Add the shredded leaves to a compost pile or use them to fill container plants before adding regular potting soil.

- Insulation: Collect leaves to mound over delicate perennial plants and shrubs. The leaves will add more warmth to the soil and may help plants make it through harsh winters. Just remove the leaves slowly when spring arrives so that the soil underneath can get the sunlight and water it needs to thrive. Leave some leaves in the yard so that animals can use them as nesting material and line their dens for the winter.

- Stuffing: Create whimsical scarecrows as part of your autumn decoration scheme. Gather older clothes that you no longer use and stuff the sleeves of shirts and the legs of pants with leaves, which are less expensive and easier to come by than straw. Use a few pieces of straw around the neck and hand areas of the scarecrow for visual effect. Tie off with twine and display your scarecrow.

- Bedding: Chicken owners can use fallen leaves as bedding in their chicken coops. Dry leaves also may create more comfortable and drier conditions for goats and other livestock. Goats may look to recently fallen leaves as a nutritious food source. Gather the leaves and let the goats munch before you further rake and compost the leaves.

- Decorations: Natural leaves can be used as decorations both inside and outside a home. String freshly fallen leaves together and wrap them around a grapevine wreath for a rustic door decoration. Leaves can be placed in clear vases and put on display for a cheap way to showcase some autumn color. Preserve favorite leaves with a lamination machine or by sealing them between heated sheets of waxed paper. Cut out the leaf shapes and use for hanging window decorations.

- Recreation: Leaves have long been favorite toys for children, who eagerly await jumping into large piles of fallen leaves. Fill paper bags with leaves and draw a target on the front. Let kids test their skill aiming for the targets. Children can camouflage their clothing with leaves and masking tape and have a more intense session of "hide and seek."

Leaf peeping planning guide

Millions of people each year look forward to the magnificent colors on display in autumn. Fall offers irreplaceable views, whether you're atop a mountain ridge or thick in the folds of a forest. In addition, the crackle of leaves underfoot and the earthy smell of the soil tempts the senses even more.

Some advance planning can help make fall foliage trips that much more enjoyable and awe-inspiring.

PEAK VIEWING TIMES

Areas of the northern-most latitude will start to show color earlier than more southern areas. Generally speaking, the leaf-viewing season begins in late September and runs through early November for much of North America. Peak times for viewing depend on areas of travel and time of year. For large swaths of Canada and the United States, plan trips for late-September to mid-October. The Weather Channel offers maps and charts at www.weather.com/maps/fall-foliage for the peak times for many areas of the U.S.

PICK YOUR DESTINATION

Anywhere with deciduous trees provides the opportunity to witness blazing autumn color. During leaf-peeping season, travelers can go coast to coast and see awesome vistas. Some regions are particularly known for their leaf displays. New York's Catskill and Adirondack regions are prime spots for visitors in the autumn. Those who live further north will find that leaves in Vermont are such an attraction that routes are published indicating where to enjoy the best views. Further south, Central and Eastern Virginia peak in late October. And don't forget the shores of the Great Lakes, which are awash in reds, oranges and yellows by mid-September. The travel resource Frommer's offers more leaf-peeping locales to visit.

PACK THE RIGHT GEAR

While most people are not without a smartphone that can capture amazing high-resolution imagery, serious leaf photographers may want to take out their prized camera equipment for leaf-peeping excursions. Also bring along a map or a GPS-enabled device so you can explore back roads and areas off the beaten path more readily.

There are plenty of apps that can help with foliage-finding adventures, so a phone is a handy tool. When packing, also bring along hiking boots, comfortable layered clothing and any equipment you'd normally take for an afternoon in the great outdoors.

Another idea is to hit the ATM machine prior to the visit. Many smaller towns and their local shops may not take credit cards, so it's best to have cash on hand for food and souvenirs.

EXTEND THE DAY

Make leaf-peeping part of a larger series of events for the day. Scope out vineyards where you can sample local wines or plan trips around orchards, where you can come home with beautiful photos as well as fresh-picked apples and pumpkins. You may find a county fair or street festival while exploring.

Natural ways to fight fall allergies

Leaves are a known cause of fall allergies. Raking them can stir up mold and pollen.

As the days become shorter and the weather cools down, a new crop of allergy symptoms can arise, turning the autumn season into one marked by sneezing, scratchy throats and itchy eyes. Medications can alleviate such symptoms, but allergy sufferers may want to investigate some natural ways to beat allergies.

According to the American College of Allergy, Asthma & Immunology, ragweed is one of the more common triggers of autumnal allergies. Ragweed contributes to "hay fever," which is a term to describe allergic rhinitis that occurs as a symptom of ragweed pollen in the air. Ragweed releases pollen in mid-August, and it can continue to be problematic until a deep freeze arrives.

Other sources of fall allergies include leaf mold and pollen that is present on fallen leaves. This gets circulated when people begin to rake or blow fallen leaves. Classroom pets and chalk dust in schools (although chalkboards are largely a thing of the past) are other autumn allergens.

The good news is that many natural remedies work just as effectively as over-the-counter medications in regard to combatting ragweed and pollen problems. Here's how to beat the fall allergy blues.

- Stay away from pollen. Stay away from pollen and prevent it from being tracked indoors. Remove shoes when walking through the door. Take off clothes worn outside and launder them promptly, showering to wash pollen off of the body. Use an air conditioner or keep windows closed when the pollen count is high.

- Increase omega-3 fatty acids. It is well documented that fatty acids are good for brain health and cardiovascular well-being. But these acids also may help with allergies. A German study linked foods high in omega-3 fatty acids with the ability to fight inflammation, which is a hallmark of allergy suffering. Foods that are high in fatty acids include walnuts, flax, eggs, and cold-water fatty fish.

- Rinse off pollen. Use a mild cleanser to rinse the eyelids and eyelashes of pollen, as this is where it tends to congregate after being outdoors. Use saline spray to clear nasal passages of excess pollen as well.

- Take natural supplements. A study published in the journal Clinical and Experimental Allergy found participants who used tablets of the herb butterbar showed significant allergy relief after only one week. Select herbs from reputable manufacturers who certify them.

- Use eucalyptus oil. This oil is great to have in the house to help clear up sinuses and provide nasal congestion relief. Mix a small amount with coconut oil and rub onto the chest. There also is some evidence that adding a few drops of eucalyptus oil to cleansing products can help kill dust mites around the house.

- Wear a mask. When doing housework or yard work, wear a mask to reduce the inhalation of specific allergens.

Avoid seasonal allergies by exploring natural ways to find prevention or relief of symptoms.

Autumn is a prime time to tend lawns and gardens

Autumn is gardening season. That statement may not seem right to those who think of the spring as the peak time to care for lawns and gardens. However, autumn is an ideal time to get into the garden and ensure that flowers, trees and garden beds will over-winter successfully.

A number of things make autumn a prime gardening season. The cooler days of fall enable gardeners to spend ample time outdoors without the threat of blazing heat. In addition, soil harbors a lot of residual warmth in autumn. Also, the colder temperatures haven't yet arrived in autumn, nor have the leaves completely fallen, making fall a prime time to assess what's already in the landscape, what needs pruning back and where to address planting for next year.

Gardening enthusiasts can focus their attention on these areas this fall.

- Pamper perennials. As annuals and perennials start to fall back, mark the spots where perennials are located so they can be easily identified later on. This way, when planning spots for spring bulbs or other spring layouts for next year, perennials won't be overlooked or covered over.

- Prune shrubs. Look at shrubs and trees and cut out dead or diseased wood.

- Clean up borders. Weed and tidy up borders and lawn edging.

- Install pavers or rock wall. Embrace the cooler temperatures to work on labor-intensive projects, such as putting in a garden bed, retaining wall or walkway.

- Remove spent summer veggies. Take out vegetable garden plants that have already bloomed and borne fruit. Tidy up vegetable gardens and start to sow cooler weather plants, such as onions, garlic, beans, and sweet peas.

- Rake and compost. Rake the leaves and gather grass clippings to add to the compost pile.

- Plant spring bulbs. Get tulips and other spring bulbs ready for planting so they'll burst with color next year.

- Dig up herbs. Relocate herbs like parsley or basil to indoor gardens. Otherwise, strip all leaves and freeze for storage during winter.

- Consider mums. Chrysanthemum plants are perennials. While they look beautiful in pots, if planted, maintained and winterized, they can bloom every fall.

- Fertilize the lawn. Fertilizing in autumn helps ensure grass will stay healthy throughout the winter.

- Add mulch and compost to the garden. Replenish spent soil with mulch and compost so garden beds will be revitalized for spring planting.

- Prune hedges. Tidy up hedges, as they won't be growing much more this year.

- Clean and store equipment. Clean, sharpen and oil all equipment, storing lawn and garden tools properly so they are ready for spring and not lying out all winter.

Autumn may not seem like gardening season, but there are plenty of lawn and garden tasks to tend to during this time of year.

Mums are perennials. When properly planted and cared for, they can bloom every autumn.

10 FUN FACTS IN TIME FOR FALL

Autumn is a season of many changes, with some of the most notable including the dramatic multicolored displays that occur just prior to trees shedding their leaves. It's also a time of year when many people feel reenergized by cooler temperatures and spend many hours outdoors enjoying all that fall has to offer.

Whether one is collecting leaves, picking apples, exploring corn mazes, or driving the countryside enjoying the foliage, autumn is full of fun facts that can make the season that much more enjoyable.

1. Autumn begins on the autumnal equinox, which occurs on or near September 22 in the northern hemisphere. This year, September 22 is the day when the sun crosses the celestial equator moving southward. When the equinox occurs, there are an equal number of daylight and nighttime hours.

2. Since ancient times, autumn has been an important time of year for many civilizations. Autumn is a main harvesting time in many areas, and a successful harvest was once necessary for survival. Many steps are, and have long been, taken to ensure a bountiful autumn harvest.

3. Fall is a time when trees and other plants prepare for dormancy during winter. As autumn progresses and the hours of daylight gradually decrease, trees begin to close down their food production systems and reduce the amount of chlorophyll in leaves. Chlorophyll is the chemical that makes tree leaves green, and as it declines, other chemicals become more prominent and shine through in the leaves. That is why leaves change color.

4. Some scientists believe that global climate change can impact autumn colors, such as delaying the change in trees. Also, red pigments may start to decline as trees use sugary fuel to grow new twigs rather than to cause red leaf displays.

5. Americans more readily refer to this time of year as "fall," while the British use "autumn." Both terms date back to around the 16th century. Prior to this period, autumn was known as "harvest."

6. Much of the United States bids farewell to monarch butterflies in the fall. Each autumn, monarch butterflies migrate from the United States to Mexico and some parts of Southern California. They fly at speeds ranging between 12 and 25 miles per hour.

7. A study of U.S. centenarians born between 1880 to 1895 published in the Journal of Aging Research, found that babies born during autumn months are more likely to live to age 100 than those born during the rest of the year. Thirty percent of the centenarians followed were born during the fall.

8. Squash, pumpkins and other gourds are prominent in the fall. The largest squash grown on record belonged to Joel Jarvis of Ontario, and his huge winner weighed in at 1,486.6 pounds in 2011.

9. The many-colored leaves are not the only display one might see during the fall. The autumn equinox signals the aurora borealis, also called the Northern Lights. Besides the lengthening of nights and cool evening weather, which are great for stargazers, autumn is "aurora season," according to NASA. That's because, during the fall, geomagnetic storms are about twice as frequent as the annual average.

10. Full moons are named for the month or season in which they rise. The Harvest Moon is the full moon closest to the autumnal equinox.
