Making an impact musically

NHS MUSIC DIRECTOR EARNS NATIONAL RECOGNITION

BY RAYANNE COOMBS
TRIBUNE CORRESPONDENT

NORTHBRIDGE — Music runs deep at Northbridge High School. From concert band, marching band, and jazz band, to concert choir and a'capella choir, students have an opportunity to hone and perfect their talents and abilities. Conducting all things musical at NHS is James Verdone, music director, who is also one of 25 semi-finalists for the prestigious Music Educator of the Year award. According to Music & Arts, a nation-wide one-stop-shop for students, parents and teachers, "Music educators across the country put so much into creating amazing music programs and inspiring our youth. However, music educators do not receive the recognition they greatly deserve. In order to promote excellent teaching, we created programs like our annual Music Educator of the Year award. This helps remind us of the amazing impact educators have on students and communities." Among hundreds of other nominations from across the country, Verdone was chosen for the effort and attention he gives to his students, and the music program at NHS. Verdone, who earned a Bachelor's degree in music education, and his Master's degree in instrumental conducting, has been teaching at

Uxbridge Quaker Meetinghouse to host service of Thanksgiving

On Thanksgiving morning why not take time before your guests arrive to celebrate the true meaning of the holiday with your family? There is no better place to do that than at the traditional non-denominational service sponsored annually by the Uxbridge Quaker Meetinghouse Association. It will be held this year on Nov. 23 at 9:30 a.m. in meetinghouse, which is located at the corner of Aldrich Street and Quaker Highway in Uxbridge. A fellowship gathering in the carriage shed will follow the service. Bring a blanket to warm your legs and bundle up in layers as you join your neighbors in the historic 1770 meetinghouse. The space is heated primarily by two blazing fires, but the warmth of thanksgiving always prevails in the simple service of music and thoughtful reflection. Representatives of the area faith community assist with the service; traditional music sets a peaceful tone. The Uxbridge Quaker Meetinghouse Association is a non-profit organization whose primary purpose is the preservation of the historic structure. In addition, the group encourages the use of the building for religious, historical, educational and civic purposes. Several open house events, featuring the craft of weaving, the hobby of beekeeping, an architectural presentation and a musical afternoon, were held on the grounds this summer. Similar programs are planned for 2018. The work of the association is funded solely by contributions from members of the community. For more information, contact Joe Proia at (508) 278-2386 or go to UxbridgeQuakerMeeting.com on Facebook.

Down in Purgatory, owners Kevin Mulvehill and Brian Distefano

There's a new brew in town

BY RAYANNE COOMBS
TRIBUNE CORRESPONDENT

NORTHBRIDGE — After months of planning, preparing, renovating, and brewing, Purgatory Beer Company opened its taproom doors to an eager mob of thrilled customers on Saturday, Nov. 4. Using only Facebook and word of mouth advertising, owners Kevin Mulvehill and Brian Distefano were pleasantly surprised by the size of the crowd that turned out for their opening day. Based on the high volume of sales, Mulvehill and Distefano estimate that well over 1,000 people visited their taproom on its first day of business. Opening Purgatory Beer Company has been a labor of love for the owners, who have been renovating the space for the past 14 months. Located in the Linwood Mill complex at 670 Linwood Ave., the space has been host to many unique businesses. Distefano explained "Originally our area of the building was a storehouse for the cotton mill, however it was also a space used by a company who made cemetery vaults. Most recently, it was a motorcycle repair shop, and at one time, a printing business was in the space." The story behind Purgatory Beer Company goes back to 1995, when Mulvehill began experimenting in the brewing process. He explained "I started brewing out of my Mom's kitchen with my brother. Back then home brewing wasn't what it is now. I was primarily bottling, and working with extracts, making brown beers, but the beer wasn't

Just how to use those science smarts

Students and teachers from Northbridge Middle School participated in a STEM career exploration program by visiting international advanced manufacturer Saint-Gobain Research and Development facility in Northborough. The program, which coincides with Massachusetts Manufacturing Month, was sponsored by Blackstone Valley Education Foundation (BVEF). The students attended a welcome session conducted by management that introduced them to the global reach of the company, its products, and its multiple overseas facilities. Employees then conducted tours of the facility, including production areas, research and development, and product inventory. The focus of the tour was to inform students about the multiple STEM career areas in a large global manufacturer. Tours were followed by a panel presentation and discussion relating to how individual workers and managers became involved in their jobs, courses they took in high school, and their continuing education and training beyond high school. Lunch was then provided so that students could informally continue discussions with several of the workers. Northbridge Middle School is a member of Blackstone Valley Education Foundation. BVEF provides numerous career-oriented on-site learning experiences throughout the academic year that extend classroom learning experiences for students, teachers, guidance counselors, and administrators of member school districts.

Car Buying Tips
Customers ask place: Should I buy a new or used vehicle?
The RIGHT answer: This is a question that people have asked for years. The answer is one that is dependent on a number of factors. Some people are concerned about potential problems when buying a used car. At Place Motor we complete a 172 point inspection of our used vehicles. We make sure that our customers can feel confident they are getting a good car or truck when they do business with us. While an extended service plan can help alleviate these concerns it doesn't always do enough to make a customer happy. New Vehicles carry the factory warranty to solve these issues.
Usually a defining factor is budget. Customers must consider what they can comfortably afford. Buying a used car or truck saves customers thousands of dollars as compared to a new vehicle. Sometimes when buying a used car payments can still be a problem for a customer's budget. Many banks will shorten available terms or require more money down and this can strain anyone's budget. We work with several lenders and offer certified used vehicles so in most cases we are able to help customers achieve their required budget. While new vehicles are more expensive than used, new vehicles generally have rebates or special finance rates to make them more affordable. We have seen cases where the monthly payment for a new car is very close to that of a used car. With the availability of leasing programs a new car payment could even be less than that of a used car.
Here at Place Motor our goal is to help you get the RIGHT vehicle for your needs and budget. We will spend some time with you to make sure we understand your needs, offer you affordable solutions and make sure that you get the RIGHT vehicle at the RIGHT price. Come see why at Place Motor we are the RIGHT PLACE SINCE 1923.

‘Tis the season for craft fairs

BY GUS STEEVES
STAFF WRITER

With the holiday season around the corner, people have already begun seeking places to get gifts, ornaments, and other Christmasy things. While some have no problem hitting the malls and chain stores, others would much rather find quirky, unique and handmade things that have character.

For them, there are a long list of arts and crafts fairs over the next month around the region, some of them long-running, some just being born.

The list starts this weekend at Pine Ridge Country Club in Oxford with the “One-Stop Holiday Shop,” run by Dawn Oxnard.

“This will be a family-friendly shopping adventure where you can hopefully cross a bunch of names off your list,” its Facebook page states, noting its aim is “supporting local women in business.”

At the day’s core, though, is a “superhero-themed” fundraiser for the family of Devin Suau, who died last month at age 6 of what his obituary dubbed “a terribly underfunded and unknown cancer” abbreviated DIPG. Officially called Diffuse Intrinsic Pontine Glioma, Dana Farber’s website describes it as “highly aggressive and difficult to treat tumors found at the base of the brain.” About 300 children, usually between ages 5 and 9, get this diagnosis annually, but the tumors “do not generally appear in adults,” it adds.

“I ordered superhero masks for everybody [vendors and volunteers, that is] and people are encouraged to come as their favorite superhero,” Oxnard said, noting a friend of hers is close to Devin’s family.

This is the sixth fundraiser vendor fair her group, the Bay State Network, has done, but she also did similar things when living in Rhode Island, she said. It will feature “a huge raffle table with items from each of the 28 vendors.” Before and after the event, people can donate by sending checks to #whynotdevin, PO Box 755, Framingham, MA 01701, with the money seeding a foundation to support further research into and treatment for this illness.

The following weekend, Nov. 18, there are at least two fairs nearby, and “many people make the loop of craft fairs that day,” said Stephanie Nikopoulos, who is promoting Overlook’s 26th annual Holiday Craft Fair in Charlton.

“This is 100 percent run by the residents,” she said, noting the money from table fees, food and other things is the primary source of funds for an annual $1000 scholarship awarded to four residents or family members annually.

“I’ve never had a problem attracting vendors, and a lot of town people know it’s that day,” she added.

Although some fairs (including Pine Ridge’s) will have Santa stop by, Nikopoulos said Overlook tried that a couple years ago and it didn’t really work. “It’s not really something kids come to,” she said.

He’ll probably be at Shepherd Hill’s Festival of Crafts that same day, though. For 26 years, that event has raised funds for the school’s Chorus program. That event’s site includes a very long list of area crafters who are involved, and is already seeking vendors for next year’s festival.

One of them is Imelda Lundstrom of Southbridge, who makes American Girl doll clothing out of recycled fabrics. She started tabling at the festival about five years ago and said she does about five fairs during the Christmas season, with many of her customers being older adults who “are still working and don’t have the inclination to make doll clothes,” so they buy hers.

“You’re not really making a lot of money, but I’m not there with other people, laughing with children, sharing American history,” she said. She added that she especially enjoys promoting the American Girl book series, which highlights a wide range of girls doing things in historical settings, teaching about the past while providing strong messages of young female empowerment. “That’s exciting for me.”

Lundstrom said she finds a key aspect of the fair “precious” -- the fact the students who staff it are mostly in costume, singing songs and otherwise “making it fun.” Each vendor is met by students in reindeer outfits who help carry material to their tabling location, among other things.

Combined all of the area’s craft fairs represent only a tiny fractions of the “nearly 310,000 people employed by the creative economy in New England -- working within and organization or freelancing -- who combined [to] earn nearly $17 billion a year,” according to the June 2017 “Jobs in the Creative Economy” study by the New England Foundation for the Arts (NEFA). “This group is a more prominent part of New England’s economy than the national average....”

Many have a regular job besides the creative one that might bring them to a craft fair; some make a living at their art, writing or crafting and would therefore be included in NEFA’s “70,800 creative non-employers, most of which are self-employed individuals.” Of them, half report “using their home as their primary work space, so their home life and work life are intimately intertwined,” it found.

In general, NEFA found the creative economy has been harder hit by the long-running recession than most economic sectors, but some aspects have actually done well. “Most of the job losses have been concentrated in the manufacturing, wholesale and retail sectors of the creative economy ... while those sectors that rely on an audience (e.g. artists, museums, theaters, etc) have remained stable or have grown over time,” it states.

Just a few of the many arts and crafts fairs around the region are:

Nov. 18: Festival of Crafts at Shepherd Hill, Dudley, from 9-4.

Nov. 18: Holiday Craft Fair at Overlook, Charlton, from 9-3.

Nov. 19: Arts and Crafts Show at Southbridge Hotel and Conference Center from 10-4.

Nov. 24-25: Folk Art Craft Show at Sturbridge Host Hotel, all day.

Nov. 25: Vendor and Craft Show at St Joseph’s Parish Center, Auburn, from 9-2.

Dec. 1: PTO Vendor and Craft Fair at North Brookfield Elementary School, from 6-9 pm.

Dec. 2: Holiday Craft & Vendor Fair at Alternatives, Whitinsville, from 11-5.

Dec. 16: Townwide Holiday Craft Fair at Auburn High School, from 9-4.

Dozens more fairs and similar events are listed at the Central Mass Vendor and Crafts Fairs Facebook page and/or at www.fairsandfestivals.net/states/MA/, where most of these came from.

NcNamee completes certification program

The Massachusetts Association of Conservation Commissions announced it has award Barbara McNamee, associated with the Northbridge Conservation Commission, a certificate of achievement for successfully completing eight units of MACC’s Fundamentals for Conservation Commissioners training program.

The program provides conservation commissioners and others with the basic knowledge and practical tools essential to carrying out many responsibilities of administering the Wetlands Protection Act and for open space planning and protection. Such training promotes sound, consistent, fact based decision making and builds respect for conservation determinations. MACC’s training program is the only comprehensive program offered to those involved with the Wetlands Protection Act and open space planning.

MACC is a nonprofit environmental organization founded in 1961 to support, educate, and advocate on behalf of conservation commissions. MACC works for strong, workable, science based laws and regulations regarding wetlands, other water resources, open space, and biological resources. MACC offers educational programs throughout the state. Call MACC at (617) 489-3930 or visit www.maccweb.org for more information.

November Real Estate Market Update

The interest rates have continued to fall due to low inflation and global political risks. Last time rates were this low were near the end of 2016. According to Bankrate.com as of 11/13 the rate on a 30 year fixed loan was 3.80% compared to 3.95% just 2 months ago. Depending on when you last refinanced your home it may make sense to evaluate if you can lower your payment now by refinancing especially if you didn't have equity in the past causing you to not be able to refinance your loan.

Today we have 1846 single family homes for sale in Worcester County compared to 6 months ago where we had 1663 homes for sale or about a 11% increase in homes for sale over that 6 month period but is down 8% form 2 months ago. It is a good sign to see the inventory dropping this month which is caused by homes selling but also many people taking their homes off the market with the intention on waiting till the spring to sell again. The average days on market is currently 120 days while it was 121 days in May which tells me we are continuing to cycle through the inventory but slightly slower than 2 months ago. If

we look at homes sold over past 12 months compared to the same time for the previous year there is an almost 1.1% increase in sales and a 6.0% increase in sales price while it is taking over 20.6% faster to sell the homes this year than last year in Worcester County. This shows that prices are still rising and homes are still selling quicker than a year ago. However, the percentage increase in amount of sales and days to offer is slowly decreasing which just may mean the market is starting to stabilize.

These numbers are important to continue to review and they will show the direction that the market is going in so we are prepared when a shift in the market happens. At this point the numbers still are extremely healthy and it is a great sign to see our days on market only slightly increase and to see a slight inventory drop. As always hire a Realtor that knows your market and can tell you how this data directly affects you and your home buying or selling decisions.

anything to get crazy over." By happenstance, in 2008, Mulvehill, originally from New York, and Distefano, born in New Jersey, met when they were both living in Sutton and their kids were in school together.

Mulvehill said, "One thing I learned very quickly from my experience was that you really need to brew with a partner. When it comes to bottling, packaging, cleaning, the whole process needs to be celebrated with somebody. So, I asked Brian to join me."

The pair started brewing on a regular basis, creating their own recipes and sharing with friends who, as it turns out, really liked their beer. They knew that they might be on to something.

Distefano said "Sitting out in the garage, brewing and talking, we started brainstorming about taking it to the next level. We both thought it was worth it to at least try."

After trademarking their name, Purgatory Beer Company was born, and Mulvehill and Distefano began searching for a location. Through an extensive quest to find a space in the local area, Mulvehill discovered the Linwood Mill.

Distefano described it, "The space was just bare cement floors, covered with oil stains, the ceilings were painted black, the I-beams were rusty, the walls were painted white and it smelled."

Two days after the pair signed the lease they received a call that there was a massive fire in their building. The damage was extensive, but Distefano said it turned out to be an incredibly lucky break. He explained, "The company above us owns some very high-end equipment that had to be taken out of the building because of the fire. With the equipment removed, we had the opportunity to sand blast the entire space."

Mulvehill added, "Every inch of the room was pulverized and cleaned off."

No small feat for the pair who still have full-time 'day jobs' in marketing and advertising.

After thousands of hours of demolition and renovation, including plumbing, wiring, and finish work, with the help of their friend Geoff Vincelle, the space has been totally transformed.

Using natural woods, exposed brick, and warm lighting, the Purgatory Beer Company taproom has a rustic and cozy vibe. There are several hand-made wooden bistro tables to provide ample seating, and shelf bars throughout to rest a flight of beer for tasting.

Each week, the taproom changes its selections of brews. With names like 'Dirty Swan IPA, Firebox Double IPA, Crate Chocolate Milk Stout, and Murgatroyd Pilz Pale Ale, there is always something different and unique to sample. Although a full menu is not served in the taproom, local favorite, Maison De Manger (located just across the mill) brings in Bavarian-style pretzels with dipping sauces, and charcuterie boards (cash only). These amazing snacks pair well with all of the Purgatory offerings.

Selections at Purgatory are reasonably priced. Depending on the brew, a taster is $2.50-$3, twelve and sixteen once pours range from $5 to $6.50, and a refillable growler will go for $14-$16. Tasting is encouraged as it states on the menu, "We could come up with some elaborate descriptions of how you will experience our beer. Instead, why not just drink it?"

The Purgatory Beer Company is located at 670 Linwood Ave. Building C of the Linwood Mills, in Northbridge. They are open on weekends only; Saturdays 11:55 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and Sundays 11:55 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. For more information about weekly selections contact pbc@purgatorybeer.com, or visit the Purgatory Beer Company Facebook page.

NHS for the past nine years.

He explained his inspiration to become a music teacher, “When I was in middle school, the director of music for the city of Brockton came to a concert and wanted me to come play trumpet at the high school. I had been planning on attending a vocational school to start training to be a plumber. Once I met with Mr. Macrina I knew I wanted to go to Brockton High. He made it known that he believed in me and that I could excel at BHS with hard work and dedication. I liked that feeling and knew from that moment that I wanted to create that feeling for kids. When I got to UMass Amherst I met the marching band director, George Parks, and he helped me in many ways to get into the music department and to become the teacher I am today.”

Verdone’s primary instrument is the trumpet, however with his vast musical training he is able to play all of the traditional band instruments, allowing him to teach his students a wide array of pieces. He’s also involved in music outside of NHS.

He explained, “For many years I was a trumpet player for a group called ‘Better from a Distance’. It was a party band that played hits from the ‘70s through to today.”

He added, “I was also a sub trumpet player for a couple of bands in the Boston area.”

Given Verdone’s talent, and zest for teaching, it is not surprising that being a music teacher at NHS has impacted his life immensely. He said, “I don’t look at this as coming to work every day. I get to come to school and make music with great kids who have a passion for the arts. I love what I do. I face new challenges every day, but I look at them as opportunities to grow and become a better person and teacher.”

He added, “Hands down the best part of my day is working and interacting with our students. We have amazing kids here at NHS and I pride myself on trying to get to know as many as I can, especially the ones who are not involved in music or are not in any of my classes. Teachers make a difference every day and most of it comes creating meaningful relationships with the students that are based on trust, respect, and empathy.”

Verdone, who enjoys an eclectic array of music which includes jazz, funk, hip-hop, and Broadway, has found his niche is teaching the high school-aged students.

“The most rewarding thing is seeing students succeed and grow into the young men and women that will do great things in our world. The growth from freshmen year to senior year is amazing and we as high school teachers get to see that transformation every year. The most challenging thing is having to say good bye to my seniors at the end of the year. Most of them take my classes every single year and it is extremely bittersweet to see them go off to college and the work force, but I am always proud with who they became.”

He added, “I am very thankful for my students and colleagues who play major roles in my life. Many of the teachers I work with have become life-long friends. I love hearing back from alumni and keeping track of all the amazing things that they do in their lives.”

Verdone was nominated for the Music Educator of the Year award by his students. The lengthy process included an application, letters of recommendation, and a curriculum vitae. From hundreds of nominations, Verdone was selected as one of 25 semi-finalists to receive the award, which will be announced at Music & Arts’ annual Midwest Reception on Dec. 21 in Chicago.

BVT Adams scholars make the grade

UPTON – As students await acceptance letters from colleges and universities around the nation, a tuition-free college education is one of the many options available to the 75 Blackstone Valley Tech students named recipients of the John and Abigail Adams Scholarship.

Each year, the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education awards the scholarship to students who earned scores of Advanced and Proficient on grade 10 MCAS tests in English language arts, mathematics, and science and technology/engineering (with at least one score of advanced) and earned a combined score within the top 25 percent of their school district.

Students who accept the John and Abigail Adams Scholarship and enroll as full-time students in a Massachusetts state university or college will receive a tuition-waiver for up to eight semesters, which must be completed within six years of the recipient's high school graduation. Recipients must also maintain at least a 3.0 grade point average during their enrollment.

Superintendent-Director Dr. Michael F. Fitzpatrick noted that last year, the John and Abigail Adams Scholarships were among nearly $4 million in renewable scholarships and awards earned by Valley Tech graduates.

Valley Tech views college as a continuation of learning; many Valley Tech students simultaneously pursue a post-secondary education while retaining employment in their vocational industry.

The following members of the BVT Class of 2018 (listed alphabetically by town) were recently informed of their eligibility for the John and Abigail Adams Scholarship:

Douglas: Jarod Ayotte; Sydney Connor; Dominic Corso; Josephine Garland; Margaret Gurney; Damon Llopiz; Harley Mowry; Priya Patel; Olivia Setzer.

Uxbridge: Emily Baca; James Lutton; Morgan O'Brien; Meaghan Remillard; Justin Thayer; Katarina Whitney.

Blackstone Valley Regional Vocational Technical High School serves the towns of Bellingham, Blackstone, Douglas, Grafton, Hopedale, Mendon, Milford, Millbury, Millville, Northbridge, Sutton, Upton and Uxbridge. Located in the heart of the Blackstone Valley, Blackstone Valley Tech creates a positive learning community that prepares students for personal and professional success in an internationally competitive society through a fusion of vigorous vocational, technical, and academic skills. The school's website is www.valleytech.k12.ma.us.

BVT Adams Scholars Class of 2018: The 75 members of the Valley Tech Class of 2018 were recognized Nov. 2 for putting the exclamation point on a successful high school career with stellar performances on the MCAS exams. Each student is now eligible for the John and Abigail Adams Scholarship, which provides tuition waivers for eight semesters at a Massachusetts college or university. In a traditional display of gratitude, the students posed for the photo alongside Valley Tech teacher assistants, as well as Assistant Superintendent-Director/Principal Anthony Steele and Superintendent-Director Dr. Michael Fitzpatrick. Assessment Coordinator Stephen Grabowski designed and organized the award winners' photo.

Who Can Adopt?

Can you provide the guidance, love and stability that a child needs? If you're at least 18 years old, have a stable source of income, and room in your heart, you may be a perfect match to adopt a waiting child. Adoptive parents can be single, married, or partnered; experienced or not; renters or homeowners; LGBTQ singles and couples.

The process to adopt a child from foster care requires training, interviews, and home visits to determine if adoption is right for you, and if so, to help connect you with a child or sibling group that your family will be a good match for.

To learn more about adoption from foster care, call the Massachusetts Adoption Resource Exchange (MARE) at 617-54-ADOPT (617-542-3678) or visit www.mareinc.org. The sooner you call, the sooner a waiting child will have "a permanent place to call HOME."

Santa plans arrival at the Whitinsville Golf Club

NORTHBIDGE — The Northbridge Middle School Booster Club announced the annual Breakfast with Santa will return on Saturday, Dec. 9 to the Whitinsville Golf Club. Tickets will include a magical morning with Santa including a hot buffet breakfast, crafts, raffles, and children of all ages will have the opportunity to share their wish list with Santa Claus himself.

In addition to the breakfast, the Boosters are also busy organizing an online holiday auction. All proceeds raised from both events will directly fund sports programs at the Northbridge Middle School.

Middle School sports have been fully funded through fundraising activities created by the Booster Club as well as a participation fee since the programs were cut from the Northbridge public schools budget in 2014. The Booster Club takes on the overwhelming task of raising over $40,000 each year to fund all sports including football, field hockey, soccer, basketball, baseball and softball.

“We know that we, and many other groups are consistently reaching out to the generous business owners of our community seeking fundraising help. We love that these two fundraisers give the local business owners a break and strictly rely on community involvement,” commented Boosters President, Jennifer Rice.

“The breakfast and online auction are our opportunity to reach out and get participation from the younger families in town. Year after year we meet new young families at our breakfast and they get to interact with and meet our Middle School athletes whom volunteer at the event. It is a great opportunity for them to directly see who they are helping, and on top of that it is a very special and magical morning with Santa.”

on Dec. 9 beginning at 9:30 a.m. Tickets must be purchased in advance at www.nmsboosterclub.com. Tickets for children aged one and younger are free, 10 and younger are $15, and adults are $18. Tickets include a delicious hot, breakfast buffet, crafts, and a photo opportunity with Santa. Photographer Barb Johnson will be on hand taking photos that will be available via digital album following the event. Families are welcome to take their own photos as well.

The Boosters are currently collecting items for their online holiday auction which takes place on their Facebook Page. The auction will feature a variety of baskets ranging from sports baskets, board game baskets, coffee basket, scratch ticket trees and so much more. Anyone can participate in the auction, which will begin Sunday, Nov. 26 and ending on Wednesday, Nov. 29 at 8 p.m. The auction is held on Facebook, with the Boosters posting images and descriptions of each basket and bids can be made by commenting. The highest bidder at 8 p.m. on the 29th will win the basket! For more information visit the club’s Facebook page: NMSBooster Club. All proceeds from the auction will benefit Northbridge Middle School sports.

The Northbridge Middle School Booster Club is a donation-based Not-for-Profit created in 2014 after the sports programs were cut from the Northbridge public school’s operating budget. The Northbridge Middle School Booster Club is operated by volunteers and collaborates directly with the Northbridge public schools to provide funding for middle school sports programs. For the fifth year in a row, members of Alternatives’ Greater Milford Advisory Council presented a donation to the Milford public schools thanks to proceeds raised at the Council’s annual Milford Fall Family Fun Day.

The Fall Family Fun Day, held in October, was hosted by the Council in partnership with the Rotary Club of Milford to help raise awareness about Alternatives and bring people of all abilities together for an afternoon of entertainment, food and games. Alternatives is one of Central Massachusetts’ leading human service providers helping people with disabilities build successful lives in the community. Several of the agency’s 60 programs are located in Greater Milford.

In addition to supporting the Milford public schools special education department, funds raised from the Fall Family Fun Day will also support Alternatives’ services for adults with disabilities in the Greater Milford Area.

Edging into paying attention

Nonprofit enterprises, those who are attempting to alleviate a lack somewhere in our society for the most part, are tightening their belts a lot this year.

And they are more than a little scared. The proposed tax cuts by the federal administration would favor not allowing taking credit for charitable donations for the most part. That will discourage a great number of people from giving at all; because while we might truly want to believe in human kindness, it is often the reality of the human wallet that governs decisions.

And many would not give if they didn't think they couldn't get credit for it later.

Then there's the part where you don't credit for your mortgage payments.

Or for the taxes you currently pay to the state you are can claim as a deduction to Uncle Sam. Or vice versa. These are gains (or at least a help) that won't be there soon.

These are a few of the problems not thoroughly researched in the proposals. We can see why the tax laws need adjusting, and we aren't necessarily against some real changes, but we aren't certain the correct ones are being tweaked.

They will harm in places not even considered.

Like giving to worthy causes. As we enter the traditional "giving" season, it is a weight to consider, because a lot of people know if they are going to give at all they will do so before Dec. 31 in order to take that deduction in the current year's taxes. In the same vein; the letters from the various and sundry groups who could really use that funding, are out in force, hoping against hope they will attract attention.

Most people have favorites, for one reason or another. An animal rescue, a children's charity, a service club, a local museum or service group, perhaps a school or library or senior center. The idea is that the funding is given freely, and we hope used wisely to alleviate a need, to help a cause and both the giver, the recipient and those it helps will have a resulting warm feeling about the way it all works.

We can only say this, should it come down to the final moments and the decision comes to no deductions for charity, we hope no one becomes miserly with the causes.

The needs won't go away, even if the taxes change.

Be grateful you can be in a position to make such a decision.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Keegan: what's happening in Uxbridge?

To the Editor:

This is not a rhetorical question, because citizens should be demanding straight answers to many questions on many fronts. For the present though, let's address the ZBA where members swear to weight equally all plusses and minuses of any proposal where Zoning Bylaws conflict. Admittedly, the ZBA is required to make a correct choice between 'denial' or 'accepting with conditions'- a hard balancing act.

In the case of the much-debated Cumberland Farms 'permitted' at the corner of North Main and Hazel streets, one should be puzzled by the ZBA decision-making process. Ironically, almost everyone involved, from initial to final decisions, has resigned...wonder why? With no quorum available to conduct old or new ZBA business to what board should citizens now turn for redress about anything?

Several issues, raised in the prolonged permitting process, were largely ignored: siting a busy operation in what is mainly a residential neighborhood (less two commercially re-zoned residences on North Main); safe passage of private & emergency vehicles on narrow Hazel Street; pedestrian safety; extended operating hours; noise and light pollution, etc. These are not without merit so perhaps the 'why' of the ZBA decision can be best explained by an overwhelming desire for new revenue trumping all else.

Among the ZBA conditions (13) placed on Cumberland Farms, how will these (3) contribute to being a 'good neighbor' as executives pledged: operating hours from 5 a.m. to midnight; lights 'on' at 4:30 a.m. and 'off' by 12:30 a.m. daily; privacy fencing set at only six feet high? And missing from the conditions is mention of a maximum noise level from outside audio playing from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. Go see their massive new structures in Hopedale or North Smithfield! Here, it will be as if an alien space ship landed in a particularly inappropriate spot. In my opinion, the ZBA could have been considerably more thoughtful on 10/04 about putting lipstick on this pig by requiring more 'neighborhood-friendly conditions'!

Moreover, hope of filling town coffers with gains in tax dollars may be dashed early- a For Sale sign is up already! How many more may be coming? With CF looming (literally) next door, who will bet on the likelihood of homeowners, who may want to get-out-of-Dodge, actually selling at higher prices? Time will tell if a net loss results, or if this decision creates the revenue windfall envisioned by the ZBA.

For now, the ZBA is non-functioning, and we face major loss of vital institutional knowledge with departures of Town Manager, Asst. Town Manager, Town Accountant/ Assistant, and School Superintendent, each integral components needed to run our town's 'engine'. What's happening In Uxbridge, because the ship-of-state seems badly adrift. If true, who will step forward to chart a new course?

A potpourri of hints

Sometimes it's fun to share a potpourri of tips and tricks that didn't fit into a themed hint column. With that in mind, this week's column will feature a grab bag of (mostly unrelated) ideas that are sure to make your life a little easier!

TRAINOR

Here's another: To save money on gas, don't carry around unneeded items in the trunk. Extra weight decreases gas mileage. Save again by using the cruise control on your car to maintain a constant speed if you have to commute to and from work on a highway!

Baking Hint: Buy a new (organic or chemical free) powder puff to keep in your flour container. It's perfect for dusting cake pans before you pour in batter!

If a recipe calls for clarified broth, simply pour regular broth through a coffee filter to clarify it quickly and easily!

And here's the easiest way to degrease cooled meat soups and stews. Just put a sheet of waxed paper directly on top of the liquid before refrigerating.

Want to reduce your cholesterol? Try topping soups and stews with ground flaxseed to reduce heart attack risk. In a study, 40 grams of ground flaxseed every day for three months reduced cholesterol by six percent. And fats aren't always the bad guys in a diet. Corn oil as well as corn oil margarine and other vegetable derived margarines contain compounds that may actually improve LDL levels!

Fighting cholesterol? Try this tip too: Scottish studies showed that over a three week period, a daily snack of two carrots lowered cholesterol levels by 10 to 20 percent! Research reveals a cup and a half of dried lentils or kidney beans a day, has lowered total cholesterol levels by up to 19 percent!

This Thanksgiving want to avoid that after dinner-have-to-nap syndrome? Try these tips: In the morning, eat small, light foods and avoid junk food. Eat your Thanksgiving dinner slowly and stop when you're full. Don't binge on carbs, drink plenty of water with your meal, and finally, take an outside walk to digest your feast. Try not to make the meal your only source of Thanksgiving entertainment!

Once Thanksgiving's over you'll likely be left with heap of leftovers! Did you know for safety's sake your leftover turkey should be refrigerated or frozen within two hours after roasting? Wrap the turkey as airtight as possible in aluminum foil and refrigerate. Store the meat in zipper bags in one- or two-cup portions for easier thawing and use. For the best quality and flavor, freeze for no more than two months.

Here's a quick energy saving tip! Sometimes it's the little things that add up to save energy dollars! Simply cleaning your dryer lint screen with every use and avoiding overloading the dryer can save you up to five percent on your electricity bill!

Non-stick Green Tip: Here's a green way to make your pots non-stick! Pour white vinegar into a pan the desired level. Boil at medium heat for about five minutes. Allow to cool and you're done! You can even reuse the vinegar to treat other pans! This non-stick treatment lasts at least a couple of months!

Think you've heard all the uses vinegar? Betcha haven't heard these! Got a sore throat? Put two teaspoons of white vinegar in your humidifier for overnight relief. And dry up that cold sore fast by dabbing it with white vinegar three times a day!

Cast offs can find new life in the workshop — here's how! Rescue a child's old foam boogie board for use in the workshop. The firm, yet cushiony surface serves as a great anti-fatigue foot mat when you're standing at the bench for hours. And don't toss those old record albums, save the cardboard sleeves to safely sort and store saw blades.

Did you know ordinary sponges do double duty? It only takes a few swipes with a damp, clean sponge to remove lint and pet fur from clothes or upholstery. Pop a new sponge in the freezer for a great pliable and drip-free compress for injuries. And put a damp sponge in a plastic bag with the stems of freshly cut flowers to keep them garden fresh until you use them!

Win Dinner for Two
Your tips can win you a great dinner for two at the historic Publick House Historic Inn in Sturbridge! Simply send in a hint to be entered into a random drawing. One winner per month will win a fabulous dinner for two at the renowned restaurant, located on Route 131 across the town common in historic Sturbridge. Because I'm in the business of dispensing tips, not inventing them (although I can take credit for some), I'm counting on you readers out there to share your best helpful hints!

Do you have a helpful hint or handy tip that has worked for you? Do you have a question regarding household or garden matters? If so, why not share them with readers of Stonebridge Press publications? Send questions and/or hints to: Take the Hint! c/o Stonebridge Press, P.O. Box 90, Southbridge, MA 01550. Or e-mail kdrr@aol.com. Hints are entered into a drawing for dinner for two at the historic Publick House Inn.

How can you share your financial "Abundance"?

FINANCIAL
ANTONOPOULOS

Thanksgiving is almost here. Ideally, this day should be about more than football and the imminent arrival of Black Friday mega-sales. After all, the spirit of the holiday invites us to be grateful for what we have and for the presence of our loved ones.

But it's important to look beyond just one day in November if you want your family to take part in your "abundance." If you want to ensure your financial resources eventually are shared in the way you envision, you will need to follow a detailed action plan, including these steps:

Identify your assets. If you haven't done so already, it's a good idea to take an inventory of all your financial assets – your retirement accounts (401(k) and IRA), other investments, life insurance, real estate, collectibles and other items. Once you know exactly what you have, you can determine how you would like these assets distributed among your loved ones.

Get professional help. To ensure your assets go to the right people, you will need to create some legal documents, such as a will and a living trust. The depth and complexity of these instruments will depend a great deal on your individual circumstances, but in any case, you certainly will need to consult with a legal professional because estate planning is not a "do-it-yourself" endeavor. You may also need to work with a tax professional and your financial advisor, as taxes and investments are key components of the legacy you hope to leave.

Protect your financial independence. If your own financial resources were to become endangered, you clearly would have less to share with your loved ones, and if your financial independence were jeopardized, the result might be even worse – your adult children might be forced to use their own resources to help support you. Consequently, you will need to protect yourself, and your financial assets, in several ways. For one thing, you may want to work with your legal professional to create a power of attorney, which would enable someone – possibly a grown child – to make financial decisions for you, should you become incapacitated. Also, you may want to guard yourself against the devastating costs of long-term care, such as an extended nursing home stay. Medicare typically pays very little of these expenses, but a financial advisor may be able to suggest techniques or products that can help.

Communicate your wishes. Once you have all your plans in place, you'll want to communicate them to your loved ones. By doing so, you'll be sparing your loved ones from unpleasant surprises when it's time to settle your estate. And, second, by making your plans and wishes known to your family well in advance of when any action needs to be taken, you'll prepare your loved ones for the roles you wish them to assume, such as taking on power of attorney, serving as executor of your estate, and so on. And you'll also want to make sure your family is acquainted with the legal, tax and financial professionals you've chosen to help you with your estate plans.

Thanksgiving comes just once a year. Taking the steps described here can help ensure your family will share in your financial abundance as you intended.

Youngsters learning the ropes and becoming outdoor enthusiasts

.....

The recent cold blast has cooled down local ponds and lakes, and trout fishing has picked up big time for anglers that have not put there fishing gear away. This week's picture shows young Scarlett Hendricks with her catch of some impressive trout recently at the Uxbridge Rod & Gun Club. Her dad Brian stated that she reeled in the three trout all by herself. Another youngster that will hopefully continue fishing throughout her life and enjoy the great outdoors.

The second picture this week shows 14 year old Tyler Conroy with his harvested deer during the Massachusetts annual youth deer hunt November 8, 2017. Tyler harvested the deer with a family Remington 1100. Tyler made a great shot at 50 yards. Congratulations to both young sportsmen.

Local archers have been doing very well harvesting deer. Sitting in a tree stand this past Saturday, waiting for a deer to present a shot, tested the hunter's patience. The freezing temperatures had the hunters sipping hot coffee and kept the hand warmers close by. Having the correct clothing for cold temperatures, kept many hunters in there tree stand longer than those that did not dress properly for the hunt.

Archers are noticing a big surge in the theft of tree stands and trail cameras this year. Some of the gear has been returned after archers did some of their own investigations, but most of it is lost forever. Cameras and tree stands are not cheap, and if the culprits are caught they could face felony charges. Is it worth it?

Back more than 20 years ago this writer lost a tree stand to thieves, and I to started my own investigation. I started by knocking on doors in the area of the theft, and asked if anyone they knew in the area was a deer hunter. In a few days I returned to the area of the stolen tree stand to hunt, and found my stand laying against the tree that it was stolen from. Lucky for me I must have knocked on the correct door. A week later I shot a huge buck from the stand. I still have the tree stand at home but no longer use it.

Tautog fishing remains red hot in Mass. & Rhode Island waters. My nephew Captain Mel True of "FISH NET CHARTERS" had his recent clients returning home with limits of tautog and sore arms. To see some of his most recent charters, check him out on his web site fishnetcharters.com or on face book .

Pheasant hunters are enjoying some great bird hunting in local covers and at pheasant preserves. Local covers also have some cotton tail rabbits this year. I am hoping to have my wife's beagle encounter one soon. She has found a few pheasant and quail for me this year, but no rabbits. I am surprised that she has not opened up on the hot trail of a running pheasant, but she continues to trail them silent. It is great to watch her working a scent, as her tail wags side to side, almost like she had a motor on it, but the beagles bark will provide the ultimate hunt. A pack of beagles trailing the elusive rabbit is missed by this writer.

In my younger years, I had three beagles that I would take to the Douglas State Forest, Tyler Conroy during the annual youth deer hunt made a great shot to bring down this fine deer.

and meet up with a couple of hunting buddies that also had a few beagles. At that time many hunting clubs in the valley bought live snow shoe hare from a trapper in Canada and stocked them in area swamps and woodlots. We would run the beagles all summer at night. The sound of the hounds chasing the hare was music to our ears. Maybe some day in the future the hare stocking program will return to the valley, but I do not think it will happen in my life time. Future generations will never know the great fun we had with our hounds.

During the upcoming winter months, local Rod & Gun Clubs will be holding meat raffles and dinners. They provide great entertainment and good food, at a good price. The Whitinsville Fish & Game Club, Singletary Rod & Gun Club, Wallum Lake Rod & Gun Club, Uxbridge Rod & Gun Club, Blackstone Valley Beagle Club, Auburn Sportsmen's Club are only a few clubs that welcome the public to their functions. Check them out on their web sites for a list of upcoming events.

Plant based essential oils boost mind, body & spirit

.....
MELINDA
MYERS

Ease into the hectic holiday season with the help of aromatherapy. The fragrances of plant-derived essential oils have long been used to improve the health of our mind, body and spirit.

Boost your energy and increase your focus as you work to balance work, family and holiday fun. Peppermint has long been prized for this and so much more. You'll find it also helps relieve headaches and indigestion.

Freshen your home with the scent of grapefruit. It's the perfect solution when unexpected guests drop by for a visit. You may also find the grapefruit aroma, along with your company, help to lighten your mood.

Use eucalyptus essential oil in the fight against colds and flu this winter. Just place a few drops into a diffuser on your desk at work, in your bedroom or family room. The diffusers come in a wide array of shapes and sizes. Some use heat, ultrasonic vibrations, fans or wood wicks to disperse the fragrance throughout the room. Others, like the Eden aroma diffuser, allow the fragrance to seep through the porous portion of the diffuser pot and into the room.

Or use a eucalyptus eye mask to help relieve sinus pressure and sooth tired eyes. Just gently heat or cool the mask, cover your eyes and relax into a bit of relief.

End your day with relaxing lavender. It helps reduce anxiety, relieves headaches and improves sleep. Turn up the heat and fragrance with the Ultimate Lavender Wrap (gardeners.com). Simply pop the flax, rice and lavender infused insert into the microwave. Place it back into the cloth cover and drape it over your neck and shoulders. This can provide relief for those suffering from tense or aching muscles and winter chills.

Encourage a good night's sleep by tucking a lavender-filled sachet under your pillow. Or set a bundle of dried lavender stems in the bathroom, bedroom or anywhere you want to enjoy the fragrance of a summer garden and a bit of relaxation.

When you incorporate some aromatherapy into your routine you'll find yourself smiling and more relaxed. The boost in energy and reduced stress will help you navigate the many gatherings, rich food and busy schedules ahead. And consider giving the gift of aromatherapy to someone you love, so they too can enjoy improved harmony and health into the New Year.

Surgically repaired wing helps Hendriks, Beavers soar past Leicester

BY KEN POWERS
SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

WORCESTER — Of all the players, coaches, parents, families and friends thrilled and elated that Blackstone Valley Tech captured its first Central Mass. title in football on Saturday, Nov. 11, none was as thrilled or elated as BVT senior quarterback and captain Reece Hendriks.

The top seeded Beavers defeated No. 2 Leicester High, 21-14, to win the Central Mass. Division 7 championship on Saturday Nov. 11 at Commerce Bank Field at Foley Stadium. It was the second time BVT beat the Wolverines this season.

Twenty-six days ago Hendriks thought that his high school football career was over. Even if the Beavers made it to the title game, he would not be on the field, thanks to the broken right collarbone he suffered in an Oct. 16 win over Bay Path Regional.

But there Hendriks was on Veterans Day, leading the Beavers' offense past Leicester and helping the winning cause by completing 5 of 9 passes for 62 yards and a touchdown and running the ball three times for 11 yards.

"If there's a tougher kid in Central Mass., I haven't seen him," Valley Tech head coach Jim Archibald said. "He's out there playing with a rod in his shoulder, which is keeping everything together. He's as tough as nails. He really answered the bell for us today."

Yes, you read that correctly. Hendriks was playing less than four weeks after having a rod inserted in his shoulder for stability.

"There was no way I was missing this game. A game as big as this one, you think I'm going to sit out? No way. This is what I live for," Hendricks said. "When the injury happened I was heartbroken. But, fortunately, I had surgery right away and the doctors put the rod in and the collarbone quickly healed around the rod. One of my doctors, he said the injury was healing quicker than he had ever seen before. When he said that, I knew it had to mean something. I knew I had a chance to play."

The Beavers jumped out to a 6-0 lead on their second possession of the game, taking advantage of a short field after Leicester had to punt from deep in its own territory. BVT needed five plays to march 36 yards, senior Conner Polymeros capping the drive with a three-yard run.

Despite the Beavers dominating play throughout the first half, the game was still a one-possession affair with time winding down before halftime. That's when Leicester began to make a series of errors that resulted in 15 points for BVT, who went in to the locker room with a 21-0 lead.

The Wolverines' first mistake was Kyle Padeni's decision to call for a fair catch at his own four-yard line on a punt that was going to carom off the Foley Stadium turf and go into the end zone, which would have given Leicester the ball at its own 20. On the first play following the fair catch the Wolverines were called for a false start, which moved the ball back to the two-yard line. On the next play quarterback Dan Mero handed the ball off to Padeni, but Padeni could not get out of the end zone and was tackled for a safety, pushing the Beavers' lead to 8-0.

On the ensuing free kick BVT's Sam Niro caught the ball at his own 45-yard line and returned it to the Leicester 42. The Beavers needed just seven plays to score, Niro bulling in from the one-yard line to push the BVT lead to 14-0 with 38.8 seconds to play in the half.

Leicester fumbled the ensuing kickoff and the Beavers' Ethan Lynch recovered the ball on the Leicester 33. BVT quickly drove to the Wolverines' five-yard line, getting there with just two seconds to play. On the final snap of the half Hendriks found Conner Christensen in the left corner of the end zone as time expired.

"The last three minutes of the first half we made a ton of mistakes; I don't even know what team that was out there for us," Leicester head coach Tim Griffiths said. "The mental error after mental error in that stretch is what cost us the game. It was just God-awful. The whole first half was a comedy of errors on our part."

Leicester rallied in the second half, scoring a pair of touchdowns while keeping the Beavers out of the end zone.

On the second play of the third quarter, Mero found Billy Roberts, the Wolverines' senior wide receiver, for a 47-yard scoring strike, to cut the Beavers' lead down to 21-7. Leicester then trimmed Valley Tech's lead down to 21-14 with 4:47 to play when Mero hooked up with Jack O'Neill on a 60-yard touchdown toss.

The Beavers, however, ran out the clock on the ensuing possession, driving from its 34-yard line to Leicester's five-yard line before time expired.

Valley Tech (10-0) will play Western Mass. champion Wahconah (9-1) in the state semifinals back at Foley Stadium on Saturday, Nov. 18 for an 11 a.m. kickoff. The Wolverines (7-3) next play at David Prouty Regional on Thanksgiving.

Plethora of Valley cross-country runners advance to All-State meet

Nick Ethier photos

Sophia Masciarelli of Holy Name — a Northbridge resident — finished third in the Division 2 race.

Joseph Thumann finished sixth in the Division 2 championship race, enough to move the Whitinsville Christian athlete to the All-State meet.

Keely Mungeam of Douglas finished 10th in the Division 2 district cross-country meet.

Emma Ronan of Northbridge finished eighth in the Division 1 girls' race and will run in the All-State meet.

Zack Bergeron of Blackstone Valley Tech is off to the All-State meet following a fifth place finish in the Central Mass. Division 2 race.

GARDNER — With Central Mass. hosting its district cross-country championship meets on Saturday, Nov. 11 at Gardner Municipal Golf Course, plenty of the Blackstone Valley area's best were hoping to place high enough in the 3.1-mile trek and advance to the final race of the season — the All-States.

Grounds for All-State inclusion included a top-three team finish or any top-10 individual that didn't qualify as a team in the district race. And many locals delivered strong performances to move on.

The girls' Division 1 race went off first, and Northbridge High's Emma Ronan — only a seventh grader — finished in eighth place in 20:29.

The girls' Division 2 race was next, and three more athletes punched their tickets to All-States. Sophia Masciarelli of Holy Name High — a Northbridge resident — finished third in 20:01. Douglas' Keely Mungeam was 10th in 21:10 and Blackstone Valley Tech's Madison Gannon was 13th in 21:16. Gannon's time was the ninth fastest of non-team qualifiers.

No locals qualified in the next race (Division 1 boys), but the Division 2 boys' meet, the final race of the afternoon, provided some desired results. Blackstone Valley Tech's Zack Bergeron finished in 17:08, which was good for fifth place. Whitinsville Christian's Joseph Thumann was next in sixth place (17:14), while Douglas' Trevor Mungeam was seventh (17:17). Another Douglas runner, Clark Bishop, was 12th (17:34) and qualified by being the sixth best non-team entrant.

The All-State meet takes place at the Wrentham Development Center on Saturday, Nov. 18.

Mound-presence Mortimer inks letter to play softball at Iowa State

On Wednesday, Nov. 8, Northbridge High senior softball standout Shannon Mortimer signed a National Letter of Intent to play at Iowa State University next season. SALE

Our biggest discount of the year ends ON Black Friday.

To help protect your home against leaking and cold drafts, strong windows and patio doors will be one of the most important home improvements you can make
BEFORE the winter.

November 1st to November 24th only!

SAVE 20%

on windows and patio doors¹

Interest accrues from the purchase date but is waived if paid in full for 12 months. Minimum purchase required.

PLUS
$100 OFF

every window and patio door¹

No minimum purchase required.

Plus, don't pay a thing for a year

NO NO NO for one
Money Down Payments Interest full year¹

We won't let new windows impact your holiday spending.

Why? Because you won't pay anything until next November. Breathe easier this holiday season with no money down, no payments and no interest for a whole year!

Don't take a chance on a vinyl window.

Vinyl windows can warp, leak and cause drafts, so trusting a poor-quality vinyl window is a poor choice. Our window's Fibrex® composite material is twice as strong as vinyl.

You've got enough on your plate this time of year, we've got this.

We build, sell, install and warrant all of our windows; that means there's no middleman to deal with, and as the full-service replacement window division of Andersen, we're about as trustworthy as you can get.
