NORTHBRIDGE Northbridge Middle School, giving back to the local community is at the core of the school's mission. That's why several students organized a food drive recently, collecting more than 2,500 items for the town's community food pantry.

"We wanted to do something positive for the community," said Northbridge Middle School Assistant Principal Nick Hoffman. "Through the food drive, students got the opportunity to work with students from other grade levels organizing and planning the whole activity. As important as life skills such as leadership, time-management, communication, and collaboration are, I am a believer that no act of kindness is ever

Moore, Fattman, and Muradian vote to pass 'Child Wellness' legislation

BY KIMBERLY PALMUCCI

REGION — Senators Michael O. Moore (D-Millbury), Ryan C. Fattman (R-Sutton) and Rep. David K. Muradian, Jr. (R-Grafton) announced recently the passage of legislation to support the health and wellness of children in the area and across the state.

The bill aims to break down silos of service to better address the complex health and wellness needs specific to the 1.4 million children in Massachusetts. The effort seeks to create a foundation for better access to services and more data to inform future policy, while supporting a holistic approach to children's health and safety, according to a recent statement.

"As a father, and as a legislator, I was proud to support this bill because the wellbeing of the children in our Commonwealth is of paramount importance," said Moore. "Providing increased access to health care and enhanced services is critical to helping our youth thrive."

Among its provisions, the legislation seeks to address child wellness in several key areas. In particular, the bill secures healthcare benefits for foster children until the age of 26, making it easier for this vulnerable population to access the MassHealth benefits to which they are entitled, at minimal cost to the state. It codifies

the practice for Massachusetts in the event of change on the federal level to the Affordable Care Act. "I am proud to have voted for this legislation, which strives to improve the health and wellbeing of our youth in the Commonwealth," said Fattman. "This legislation is an important first step toward ensuring access to behavioral health services for our most vulnerable youth populations, especially those in our foster

The bill also requires insurance companies to maintain accurate and accessible provider directories for health plans, the statement reads. The provision directs companies to make the directories available without requiring users to create a new online account or profile. The bill also creates childhood behavioral health centers of

Sutton police raising awareness for adoptable pets

SUTTON — Members of the Sutton Police Department recently visited one local animal shelter to spread awareness for adoptable pets and help find these local dogs and cats their fur-ever homes.

"We are very appreciative of the support and these acts of kindness make such a difference in the community," said Second Chance Animal Services Development Director Lindsay Doray. "The generosity and support of the community, the businesses, and fundraisers like this enable us to help more pets and their owners."

According to a statement from the Sutton Police Department, several officers headed out to Second Chance Animal Services in East Brookfield recently to help raise awareness for the need of permanent homes for these pets. The effort is tied into the department's No-Shave November campaign. Previously, it was announced that throughout the month of November, the department had committed to forgo shaving to raise awareness and funds for the critical, life-saving care that Home Base provides to veterans and their families to heal from invisible wounds, such as post-traumatic stress and traumatic brain injury.

Each member had individually pledged to donate and/or fundraise $100 for that cause. Now, the department's officers will be donating an additional $100 each to the shelter so they may continue to grow beards at work for the month of December, the statement reads.

"If you cannot commit to providing a 'furever' home for one of these shelter animals, please consider making a donation to help support their work," it continues.

Chance Animal Second Services is a nationally recognized organization that provides innovative programs and services to help animals. The group has been helping animals since 1999, and is a non-profit charitable 501c3 organization that operates a no-kill animal shelter,

Distracted driving legislation signed into law

BOSTON – Senators Michael O. Moore (D-Millbury), Ryan C. Fattman (R-Sutton) and Rep. David K. Muradian, Jr. (R-Grafton) announced that the Legislature gave final approval of a bill to ban drivers from using handheld electronic devices in vehicles unless they are in hands-free mode. The bill was recently signed into law by Governor Charlie Baker.

The new law defines hands-free mode as one that engages in voice communication with and receiving audio without touching, holding or otherwise manually manipulating a mobile electronic device. Law enforcement officials will issue warnings to drivers for first offenses of the new law until March 31,

"The use of mobile devices while driving is a serious issue that we see all too often," said Senator Moore. "Whether on highways or back roads, it's hard not to find a distracted driver whose attention is focused on their phone. With thousands of lives at risk, this issue merits a legislative response.

"Distracted driving is a serious and dangerous threat that compromises the safety of our roadways," said Fattman. "We have lost far too many lives due to a driver being distracted by their phone while operating a motor vehicle. This legislation will help save many lives by improving the safety of both drivers and pedestrians alike."

"There have been far too many accidents that have been caused by the use of hand-held mobile devices on the road," said Muradian. "The passage of this bill will help reduce the number of traffic related incidents and deaths caused by distracted driving, and I am confident that it will further protect the residents of our Commonwealth."

Additionally, the new law improves transparency in public safety by granting expanded access to traffic stop data. It has been 15 years since the last public report on traffic stop data; under the new law, the state is required to publish and analyze the data annually. Expanding access to this information improves transparency and improves public safety outcomes.

The law also:

Allows for drivers to use mapping or navigation devices if they are affixed to the windshield, dashboard or central console or integrated into the vehicle and only involve a tap or a

Exempts use of electronics in the case of an emergency and for first responders if they are using the devices as part of their duties;

Penalizes drivers with $100 fine for the first offence, $250 fine and safety course for the second offence and $500 fine and surcharge for third and subsequent offences; Expands data collection of identifying characteristics including age, race and gender and location when police issue a uniform citation;

Holds law enforcement agencies accountable, if data suggests those jurisdictions may be engaging in racial profiling, by requiring them to collect data on all traffic stops for a one-year period and provide implicit bias train-

Requires the Executive Office of Public Safety and Security (EOPPS) to publish data online annually

Mandates EOPSS to contract with a research institution to conduct an annual analysis of the data collected.

Directs the EOPSS Secretary to hold three public hearings across the Commonwealth annually to present the findings of the annual report and analysis and field public testimony; and Creates a public awareness campaign informing and educating drivers on the dangers of using technological devices while driving.

Soter supports education reform bill

BOSTON - The House and Senate have finalized a comprehensive education reform bill that will increase state education aid to cities and towns by $1.5 billion over the next seven years while also establishing strong accountability standards for local school districts to close student achievement gaps.

Senate Bill 2412. An Act relative to educational opportunity for students, reflects compromise language that was negotiated by a six-member Conference Committee. State Representative Soter, R-Bellingham, noted that the passage of the bill will help to ensure that the students of the 8th Worcester District will have access to quality educa-

The bill, which represents the first major overhaul of the state's education funding formula since the passage of the landmark 1993 Education Reform Act – was approved unanimously by the Senate and the House of Representatives on November 20.

The Student Opportunity Act requires school districts to develop three-year plans to address persistent disparities in student achievement. School districts will also be required to submit annual reports to demonstrate their progress in closing achievement gaps. The Commissioner of Education will review each district's plan to ensure that it contains clear and achievable goals and standards for student improvement.

Soter said the bill raises the annual cap for school building assistance projects to $800 million and adjusts future caps to factor in inflation so that more school districts can qualify for state aid. The bill also expands funding for out-of-district special education transportation costs and establishes a timeline for fully funding charter school reimbursements by Fiscal Year 2023. Furthermore, the Student Opportunity Act increases special education enrollment and cost assumptions to accurately reflect district enrollment and Soter says, "The passage of the Student Opportunity Act will directly benefit the schools in the 8th Worcester District. The funding mechanisms that are proposed in this plan will relieve stress from school and town budgets, allowing the school districts to focus on improvements and continuing to deliver quality education to our children. I'm also very pleased with the additional measures included in the bill such as setting financial literacy standards as a statewide educational goal and reevaluating special education enrollment and costs to accurately reflect district enrollment and costs. I have been working with the schools in my district so they understand the changes coming down the pipeline and will continue to do so.'

Estrella and Militza Ages 9 and 10

Hi! Our names are Estrella and Militza and our nicknames are Mimi and Star.

Militza and Estrella are sisters of Caucasian and Hispanic descent who hope to be adopted together! Militza is outgoing, warm, and friendly. Her favorite activities include swimming, dancing, and singing. She loves to pretend that she is on stage and singing in front of a crowd. Militza has a strong bond with her sister and is very protective of her.

Militza's vounger sister, Estrella, is a quiet and reserved girl who craves adult attention and nurturance. She does well academically and enjoys going to school. Estrella loves animals, and, like her older sister, enjoys swimming and singing.

Legally freed for adoption, Militza and Estrella are looking for a family that can provide them with love, nurturance, guidance, and structure. Militza and Estrella's social worker is open to considering two-parent families of any constellation, with or without other children. A family should also be open to maintaining contact with the girls' birth mother and an adult sibling.

Who Can Adopt?

Can you provide the guidance, love and stability that a child needs? If you're at least 18 years old, have a stable source of income, and room in your heart, you may be a perfect match to adopt a waiting child. Adoptive parents can be single, married, or partnered; experienced or not; renters or homeowners; LGBTQ singles and couples.

The process to adopt a child from foster care requires training, interviews, and home visits to determine if adoption is right for you, and if so, to help connect you with a child or sibling group that your family will be a good match for.

To learn more about adoption from foster care, call the Massachusetts Adoption Resource Exchange (MARE) at 617-964-6273 or visit www.mareinc.org. The sooner you call, the sooner a waiting child will have "a permanent place to call HOME."

excellence via a pilot program that designates three regional centers to act as clearinghouses to connect families, providers, and educators to services and training opportunities.

"The safety and wellbeing of our children in the Commonwealth has always been a top priority of mine," said Muradian. "I was proud to support this bill because of its initiatives to secure healthcare benefits, and guarantee our most vulnerable population access to the services they deserve."

Lastly, the bill establishes several special commissions and requires the Heath Policy Commission to conduct an analysis of children with medical complexities to analyze costs and population characteristics of this group in order to develop recommendations about how to serve this population. One of the special commissions established under the bill is tasked with reviewing and making recommendations on mandated reporting to improve responses to child abuse and neglect.

The bill will now go to Gov. Charlie Baker for his consideration. To continue tracking the legislation, H.4210, visit the Legislature's Web site, www. MAlegislature.gov.

Hunting forges a special bond between mother and son

THE GREAT OUTDOORS RALPH

The start of the Mass. shotgun deer season was different from many of the past season openers. Rain, snow, wind, and downright nasty conditions kept many hunters out of the woods for Monday & Tuesday, but then the action picked up on Wednesday, as hunters took advantage of some real good tracking conditions in the freshly fallen snow. It is normal for deer to hunker down during snow storms, but when the weather breaks, they start to feed again, and in this case, bucks were still looking to breed does.

It sure is going to be a long winter for residents in New England this year, with numerous meteorologist predicting a very active weather pattern this winter, and It will come with a lot of snow. By the time March & April get here, we will sure be ready for spring, if the predictions are right.

Although shotgun season for deer opened this past Monday, hunters are reminded that bows and black powder guns are also allowed. Numerous deer hunters that I know use their black powder guns during the shotgun deer season. They like the challenge of having only one shot, and they also like the accuracy of the new rifled barrels. They are extremely accurate right out of the box, but they should always be checked for accuracy prior to hunting.

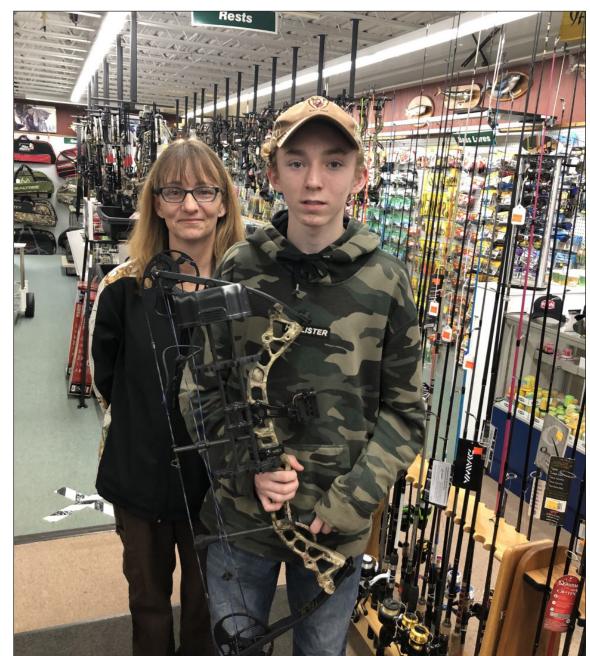

Back in the day, the 56 caliber smoothbore guns required hunters to use a ball, patch & gun powder to load them. The loading of the new rifled barrel guns makes using the weapon a lot more enjoyable. and more accurate, which has hunters harvesting more deer, and less deer wasted because of a bad shot.

This past week, I had the pleasure of meeting 14 year old Thomas Stinchfield and his mom Jenifer at Jerry's archery pro shop In Milford. Tom was getting some new arrows made up for his future hunting expeditions in the valley. Tom had already harvested two deer this season with his compound bow, one being a nice doe during the Mass. youth hunt. The second was a nice buck. His mom Jen had accompanied young Thomas on both hunts, sitting in a ground blind.

"I got to admit, I never could picture myself accompanying my son on deer hunts," she stated, "but now I get as excited as my son."

This week's picture shows Tom and his Mom at the archery pro shop last week. The family belongs to the Blackstone Valley Beagle club in Douglas, and has a long record of hunting. They also eat all of the venison they harvest, and rarely purchase meat from the market. Venison is sure a lot better eating than market beef, and it is better for you.

On Jan. 18, 2020, the Whitinsville Fish & Game Club will hold their annual "Founders Day" prime rib dinner at the club grounds in Douglas. The dinner is always a sellout, so be sure to get your dinner tickets early. You can call the club at 1-508-476-7204 to reserve your tickets, or you can purchase them at the club on White court in Douglas on weekends. Do not miss this great dinner and fun night at the Whitinsville Fish & Game

Selecting and caring for your Christmas tree

GARDEN Moments

The holiday tree is the center of many family celebrations. Ornaments collected over the years decorate the boughs while brightly wrapped gifts are carefully placed underneath.

But the hunt for the perfect tree can be an important part of the tradition. Many try to find the right size and shape for the space allotted, a fragrance the whole family prefers and good needle retention for long lasting beauty. Load the family into the car or walk to the corner Christmas tree lot and let the hunt begin.

Size and shape are important. Your tree needs to fit but finding a fresh tree to last through the holidays is equally important. Here are a few tips to help you find the right tree and keep it

Proper selection and care of your Christmas tree will ensure that it lasts throughout the holiday season.

looking its best throughout the holidays.

Buy local. You'll support local Christmas tree growers and reduce the risk of spreading unwanted pests into your landscape when purchasing locally grown trees. Your local University Extension Service and Department of Natural Resources will provide updates on any threats.

Select the right variety. Family tradition may dictate your tree choice. Many prefer the fragrance of balsam fir and the needle retention of other firs like Fraser, white, Grand and Noble. Though not a true fir, Douglas fir needles have a wonderful aroma when crushed. White pines lack the fragrance that many prefer. Its pliable branches only support lightweight ornaments, but the soft needles have less bite than the popular Scots or Scotch pine. This evergreen has stiff branches that support heavier orna-

dles hold even when dry.

Check for freshness. A fresh tree will throughout the holidays. Run your hand along the stem. The needles should be pliable, yet firmly attached to the branch. Avoid trees with lots of moss, lichens, vines, broken branches and other signs of poor care.

The right fit. Look closely at the overall shape and size of the tree. Stand the tree upright to make sure it will fit in the allotted space. Check the trunk. It should be straight and the base small enough to fit in your tree stand.

Make a fresh cut. Remove at least an inch from the base of the trunk before setting it in the stand. Straight or diagonal cuts work equally well. A diagonal or V-shaped cut may make it difficult to properly support the tree in the stand.

Proper watering is key. Fill the stand with water and check it often. Fresh trees can absorb as much as 2 quarts of water in the first 24 hours. Keeping your tree stand filled with water is the best way to keep your tree looking its best throughout the season.

Once your tree is in place you can add lights and decorations. Then be sure to take time throughout the busy holiday season to sit down, relax with your favorite winter beverage and enjoy the beauty of your Christmas tree.

EDITORIAL

The spirit of the season

It's official — the holiday season has arrived with a bang, leaving us with our first winter Nor'Easter of the year under our belts.

Thanksgiving is the perfect segue into Christmas and Hanukkah. It's when all of the fall decorations and the dilapidated pumpkins get tossed and the candy canes, reds and greens come out. Black Friday and Cyber Monday have passed, and now it's time to wait with anticipation until the big day arrives.

When we were younger, the holidays were magical and fun for most of us, with a minimal amount of stress and an abundant amount of gifts to those fortunate enough to receive them. As we get older and have families of our own, holidays remain fun, as we pour that magic into making our own children's holidays memorable.

However, there comes a time when our children are grown, and the holidays can seem to be more of an obligation, a day to get through with gritted teeth rather than one to savor and create lasting memories with. Not only that, but we long for the days when we had all of our family members alive, when the holidays were the 'good ol' days.' Moving forward, for some, can actually be quite depressing. Hopefully, that isn't the case for many, but for those who feel that sense of Grinchy dread (or is it Grinch-esque?), we have some tips that can help put the spark back into your hot apple cider.

If you remember what it felt like to have an amazing holiday, use those memories to pass down the same magic onto someone else. Even if it's not a child. Do something creative to make someone's holiday one they can remember, something they don't expect. When you take the time to essentially play Santa Claus, the joy you get back is

As for relieving stress, don't put too many expectations onto yourself and respect your own limits. You don't have to do everything, you can delegate. As for shopping, you can find just about anything online, even from local shops, making gift buying easier. If shopping isn't your thing, hand out gift cards with a handwritten letter.

Throughout the season, take in the lights and remember to take in the holiday spirit of those around you. Go for a walk in the snow and listen to how quiet everything is. Begin and end each day with something you find enjoyable. We find that watching holiday movies, eating sugar cookies and listening to Christmas music really can be uplifting. "A Christmas Carol," while a bit creepy at times, does put things into perspective. If you haven't read the book in a while or watched one of the myriad film versions (the 1951 adaptation with the incomparable Alastair Sim as Scrooge is our personal favorite), there is no better time than now.

The point of the holidays is to spend time with our favorite people. While we can't go back in time and re-live the days when trains circled our Christmas trees we can live in the present and create new adventures with memories that will put a smile on your face for years

"May you never be too grown up to search the skies on Christmas Eve.'

Life is better when you are laughing

POSITIVELY

By Gary W.

MOORE

I love to laugh. Even more so, I love to make others laugh. Last week I wrote of my addiction to BPTS ... Breaded Pork Tenderloin Sandwiches. It was all, of course, meant to be tonguein-cheek. I do love the sandwich, but addiction may be an overstatement. The column did create the largest Email response I have ever received, and surprisingly, it was all positive. I did worry after I submitted it for publication that some suffering from real addictions may think I was making light of a very serious problem. Fortunately, those who responded all thought it was funny ... until I picked up my daughter, the Pastor, at the airport and she said, "I was so worried and upset when I read the first half of your column. I could not believe you were confessing to the world vou have an addiction and didn't bother telling your family first!"

A friend, and fellow columnist wrote, "I along with most of your readers were on my knees praying for you, until I realized your addiction was a sandwich!" The response has been surprising and huge. Thank you.

The biggest windfall of the column has been all the pictures of BPTS and suggestions of where I can find the best locations to quench my appetite. Thank you and trust me ... I'll try them all.

I think this verifies the need to laugh in our lives. Life is better when we laugh. The news of the world doesn't offer many opportunities for humor. Impeachment, corruption, collusion, foreign interference in our elections ... it's a wall of negative information trampling over us daily. As I have said before, never in my lifetime have I witnessed nor experience the vitriol coming out of our nations' capital. Politicians are fighting for airtime to deposit their prewritten and rehearsed sound bites rather than doing our business, the business of We the People. So, I think it is more important than ever that we smile and laugh more. Not because what is happening isn't important ... it is ... but because it is essential ior our mental health that we look up from the fray, take a breath and find reasons to laugh.

Laughter really is the very best medicine.

According to research from Loma Linda University, there are eight convincing health benefits of laughter. Emily Lockhart, writing for "Active Beat," lists the following eight benefits.

Laughter is a natural pain killer. Laughter produces endorphins, that serve as a "happy brain chemical" that soothes stress, reduces anxiety and eases chronic pain.

Laughter strengthens your heart. Believe it or not, laughing is cardio in the same way that walking benefits your heart. So, you can walk or laugh. Better yet walk with a friend and laugh together!

Laughing wards off disease. A Harvard study revealed that the more you laugh and approach life positively (like reading this column, I'll strategically insert) the fewer chronic diseases you will develop.

Laughter tones your abs. Spending hours doing sit ups? Get off the floor and laugh your way to an abdominal six-pack!

Laughing boosts immunity. Laughing activates your body's T-cells (immune system cells) that help you ward off germs, flues and illness.

Laughing decreases blood pressure. The number of American's on blood pressure medicines is at an all-time high. Don't stop taking your prescription medicines but laugh more and you and your doctor may be positively surprised at the result.

Laughter banishes stress. Rough day at home or at work? Laughter won't solve all your problems, but it is proven that it reduces the anxiety produced by living or working in a stressful environment.

Laughter helps those suffering from depression. A 2011 study from Oxford University shows how laughter improves our overall outlook on life.

Long before Loma Linda, Harvard and Oxford, my grandmother always said, "Laughter is the best medicine," and it appears, even though she never attended medical school, she was right.

I hope last weeks spook on my addiction made you laugh. I laughed for hours writing it and laughed all week at the responses.

Opinion and commentary from the Blackstone Valley and beyond $in\ your$ family and community

FINANCIAL Focus

DENNIS ANTONOPOULOS

Why do you invest? For many people, here's the answer: "I invest because I want to enjoy a comfortable retirement." And that's certainly a great reason, because all of us should regularly put money away for when we're retired. But you can also benefit by investing in your family and your community.

Let's start with your family members, particularly the younger ones. How can you invest in their future? One of the best ways is to help send them to college. A college degree is still a pretty good investment: The average lifetime earnings of a college graduate are nearly $1 million higher than those of someone with a high school degree, according to a study by the U.S. Census Bureau.

To help your children or grandchildren pay for any college, university, vocational school or other postsecondary education, you may want to open a 529 savings plan. With this account, withdrawals are federally tax free, as long as the money is used for qualified higher education expenses, including those from trade and vocational schools. (However, if you withdraw some of the earnings on your account, and you don't use the money for qualified expenses, it will be taxable and can also incur a 10 percent federal tax penalty.) Plus, you retain control of the funds until it's time for them to be used for school, so if your original beneficiary chooses not to pursue some type of higher education, you can name a different eligible beneficiary.

Another way to invest in your family is to help your adult children avoid feeling obligated to provide financial assistance to you. For example, if you ever required some type of long care, such as an extended stay in a nursing home, could you afford it? The average cost for a private room in a nursing home is more than $100,000 per year, according to a study by Genworth, an insurance company. And Medicare typically pays very few of these expenses. So, to avoid burdening your adult children - while also preserving your own financial independence – you may want to consider some type of long-term care insurance. A financial advisor can help you determine what coverage may be appropri-

Moving beyond your family, you may want to invest in the social fabric of your community by contributing to local charitable, civic, educational or cultural groups. Of course, now that we're in the holiday season, it's the perfect time for such gifts. Furthermore, your gift will be more appreciated than in years past because one of the chief incentives for charitable giving a tax deduction – was lost for many people due to tax law changes, which raised the standard deduction so significantly that far fewer people chose to itemize deductions. However, you might still be able to gain some tax benefits from your charitable gifts. To name one possibility, you could donate financial assets, such as stocks that have risen in value, freeing you of potential capital gains taxes. In any case, contact your tax advisor if you're considering sizable charitable gifts.

Saving for your retirement will always be important. But don't forget about investing in your family and your community - because these investments can provide satisfying returns.

Antique and auction news

antique and auction news column from a month ago focused on recent finds of antiques and other treasures. I'll share antique auction news in this column.

A rare painting of Mozart sold well above estimate at a recent auction. Reuters reports that it was painted by Italian painter Giambettino Cignaroli in 1770. It depicts Mozart as a teenager, wearing a white wig and red coat and playing the harpsicord. There is musical score visible on the side of the frame. It is only known from the painting, and is believed to have been written by Mozart himself. The painting was estimated for between 800,000 to 1.2 million Euros but brought 4 million Euros ($4.4 million U.S.). Some valuable pieces of Hollywood memorabilia will go on the auction block on Dec. 16. A jacket worn by William Shatner when he played Captain Kirk in "Wrath of Khan" will be one of the items being auctioned. It has a pre-auction estimate of $80,000 to $100,000. The cape worn by Christopher Reeve in the 1978 'Superman" movie will also be going

The New York Times reported that the bat Babe Ruth used to hit his 500th home run is being auctioned this month. Ruth had gifted it in the 1940's to Jim Rice who was the mayor of Suffern, N.Y. After the mayor and his wife passed away, the bat was handed down to the couple's only son, Terry. He was afraid to display the valuable bat, or even to let anyone know he owned it. It is conservatively estimated to sell for at least $1 million. The bat that Ruth used to hit his first home run sold for $1.26 million in 2004.

Tips to Drive Safely in Snow

Hot on the heels of a Nor'easter, it's time once again to review some winter driving tips to keep safe while navigating icy, snowy roadways. When the wintry weather finds you slip sliding away this season, keep in mind these common sense strategies to up your odds of a safe trip.

And remember readers, send in your best wintertime hints - you could win dinner for two at the Publick House!

Accelerate slowly to reduce wheel spin. If starting from a standstill on slick snow or ice, start in second gear so the vehicle is less likely to spin the tires. The automatic transmissions on some vehicles have a winter mode that automatically starts in a higher gear.

Reduce your speed and drive smoothly. In slippery conditions, tires lose their grip more easily, affecting all aspects of your driving: braking, turning, and accelerating. The key is to drive as smoothly as possible, avoiding sudden actions or rapid movements of any kind. Drive as if you have a bowl of water in your lap and don't want to spill any.

Don't lock your wheels when braking. Locked wheels can make the vehicle slide or skid. If you have a vehicle without an antilock braking system (ABS), you may need to gently apply the brakes repeatedly to avoid having them lock up the wheels.

Perform one action at a time when accelerating, braking, and turning. Asking a vehicle to do two things at once-such as braking and turning, or accelerating and turning--can reduce your control. When taking a turn, for instance, slowly apply the brakes while the vehicle is going straight. When it's at the right speed to take the turn, let up on the brakes and smoothly turn the steering wheel. After you're through the turn, slowly depress the accelerator to regain your speed.

From the Archives: This ten year old tip from Robert P. Beauregard of North Oxford bears repeating each winter. Thanks to him for pointing us in the right direction when it comes to steering clear of skids. His tip is worth remembering:

"What's the best advice when a front wheel drive automobile (and that includes almost all cars on the road) goes into a skid? Most people would say to cut the front wheels in the direction of the skid and gently apply brakes. That's fine if you have a rear wheel drive vehicle. But with a front wheel drive, you steer away from the direction of the skid by accelerating the vehicle, since the drive wheels are up front. And there's no reason to tap on the brakes. This way, you'll come out of the TAKE THE

Did you know tires are your most important weapon against slipping and sliding? Take into account these top tire tips:

Cold temperatures decrease the air pressure in tires, which adds to the rolling resistance caused by snow and slush. So be sure to check tire pressure regularly, especially after there has been a sharp drop in temperature.

When buying allweather or snow tires have them installed on all four wheels. This provides even traction all the way around and gives you top notch steering and stopping.

Can't replace all four? If you can only afford two snow tires, some tire experts suggest you get them mounted in the rear. Here's why: If your front tires skid, you can still maintain some control over the car by steering those wheels. But if your rear tires lose contact with the road, it's much harder to control where the car goes. For that reason, the tires with the greatest amount of traction are supposed to go on the

Make sure you have enough tread on your tires. The drive tires must provide traction to push your vehicle over wet pavement and through snow. The steering tires must have traction to steer the vehicle. Experts say you should have at least one eighth inch of tread to plow through snow effectively.

Note: The driving advice above was culled from various sources including State Farm Insurance Agency, Consumer Reports, and Michelin Tires.

Rams shake off state semifinal loss to defeat Uxbridge in Battle of the Bridges

With plenty of protection provided by the offensive line, Northbridge quarterback Ryan Boyce airs out a pass down the field.

BY KEN POWERS

UXBRIDGE — Junior Brennan Mahoney hauled in a pair of touchdown passes and rushed for a score as well, helping Northbridge High bounce back from its disappointing loss Amherst-Pelham Regional in the Division 5 state semifinal with a 27-7 win over Uxbridge High on Thanksgiving Day in the Battle of the Bridges at UniBank

"This does take some of the sting away, considering the rivalry and how hard we worked [throughout] the season," said Mahoney, who caught scoring strikes of 10 and 22 yards from Ryan Boyce, the Rams' sophomore quarterback. "We came in wanting to 1: finish with a winning record, and 2: a win at the end of the year.

Field.

"This [win over Uxbridge] definitely feels good, but this isn't the place we wanted to be at the end of the year; we wanted to finish the season at Gillette, but it didn't happen," Mahoney added, referring to the site of the Division 5 state final. "I'm still so proud of my team and everything that we accomplished considering how we started and how we fought back in every single game. It still stings [the loss to Amherst-Pelham], but this win over Uxbridge does make it feel a little bit better."

gave Mahoney Northbridge (7-5) a 6-0 lead with 3:30 left in the first quarter when he gathered in Boyce's 22-yard touchdown pass. Junior Nicholas Riccardelli booted the extra point to push the Rams' lead to 7-0. On the first play of the second quarter Northbridge doubled its lead, to 14-0, when Mahoney caught a 10-yard touchdown toss from Boyce (9 of 15, 207 yards) and Riccardelli added his second of three extra points.

Northbridge head coach Ken LaChapelle said he wasn't surprised to see Mahoney finish with four receptions, two for touchdowns.

"They all can catch," LaChapelle said of his receivers and running backs. "Mahoney can run and he can catch, that's why he's in there. There are other kids who can run but can't catch, so they're not in there."

Northbridge extended its lead to 20-0 with 2:09 left in the second quarter, Jonathan Cray bulling into the end zone from 2 yards out. Cray's score came two plays after he intercepted Uxbridge quarterback Matthew Stark and returned the pick 43 yards to the Spartans' 2-yard line.

The Rams led, 20-7, at halftime.

"Our intention was to come out and strike first and strike hard," Mahoney said. "We wanted to put some points up on the board, which we did. We wanted to come in and dominate early and I think we did that." Northbridge, which leads the Thanksgiving Day series with Uxbridge 21-5, went ahead 27-7 on the opening drive of the third quarter, driving 80 yards on five plays, Mahoney crashing in from three yards out for the score. The big play in the drive was Boyce's second 57-yard completion of the game to junior Christian Wermuth.

Northbridge defense played as integral a part in the win as the offense did, intercepting Stark three times and coming up with a fumble recovery. In addition to Cray's interception, Rocco MacNeil picked off a pair of passes and senior Zach Hayes recovered the fumble.

"Our defense has been our strength all year," said LaChapelle, who seemed delighted his team finished the season with a winning record and the Central Mass. Division 5 champion-

"Absolutely. After starting 1-3 I had visions of...sugar plums," said with a laugh. "We bounced back. It wasn't smooth. It was a very helter-skelter kind of a season. But they did win seven games and we did win the Central Mass. [Division 5 title]. That's something they can hang their hat on. Anytime you win your last game of the year, that's the positive you send everyone home with." Uxbridge's lone touchdown, a five-yard run by senior Ryan Silbor, came with 11 seconds left in the first half. The 26-yard drive, and Silbor's score, was set up by a fumble recovery by Spartans' senior Lucas Maietta.

"We fell in a hole early, but I was proud of the way we fought back; the kids didn't get down early," Uxbridge head coach Jeff Stewart said. "We came out at halftime and I think we were respectable, but we didn't play well enough to beat these guys today. They're a real good team. I was proud of how we hung around."

Uxbridge's Matthew Stark releases a pass down the middle of the field.

Jack Morvan of Uxbridge carries the ball into a hole in Northbridge's defense.

"We had some injuries — you can't make excuses — and we also had a lot of young players playing. We started two freshmen today,' encouraged going forward. We just told the senior class that they're great leaders and they taught us how to get to the playoffs. Now they're passing the baton and we've got younger guys coming up and we're optimistic and we look forward to next year.'

A beautiful day in the neighborhood as Blackstone Valley Tech takes Battle of Pleasant Street from Nipmuc

UPTON — On Thursday, Nov. 28, the Blackstone Valley Tech varsity football team hosted Nipmuc Regional in the annual Thanksgiving Day showdown. This Thanksgiving Day game, often referred to as 'The Battle of Pleasant Street,' is a historically young rivalry. The first meeting of these teams occurred in the 2007 regular season with a 21-20 win for the Beavers.

Heading into this game, the Warriors were enjoying a three-game winning streak against the Beavers, although BVT held a 7-4 overall record (6-4 on Turkey day) against their neighbors. And this year it was the Beavers (9-2) who served up a 35-7 win against Nipmuc (3-8) to take home the Pleasant Street trophy this year.

No Substitution

"If you want to know what's going on in your town

- whether the news is about the mayor or taxes or high school football – there is no substitute for a local newspaper. Wherever there is a pervasive sense of community, a paper that serves the special informational needs of that community will remain indispensable...

Why have our customers chosen us over another window company?

1. Fibrex® Material

Our exclusive Fibrex material was researched by Andersen for 30 years before it was installed in even one home. Our Fibrex material is twice as strong as vinyl.

2. Unique Look

Our window has the elegant look and strength of a wood window, but our Fibrex material doesn't demand the same maintenance of wood.*

3. Accountability
