Local Lutheran Church recognized for public welcoming statement

STURBRIDGE — Bethlehem Lutheran Church has been recognized by Reconciling Works (formerly Lutherans Concerned/North America) as the most recent Reconciling in Christ congregation in central Massachusetts. This recognition comes after the congregation fully adopted a public statement of welcome for people of all sexual orientations and gender identities.

The statement reads, in part, "With this statement we commit to being a Reconciling in Christ Congregation.

"We believe and admit that all people are created as both one hundred percent sinner and one hundred percent saint; that all people are undeservingly cherished children of God, loved, and saved by grace through faith.

"We are called to love our neighbor as ourselves, whoever that neighbor might be.

"We understand the injustice that has been the burden of the LGBTQIA+ community, the damage that has been done by the Church, and we seek forgiveness for that through that understanding. All we have to offer is our love and our community, and we offer it.

"All genders, all races, all ages, every sexual orientation and gender identity or expression; there is room for you here at our table, come and be fed."

The Rev. Dan Purtell, Pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church sees this statement as an essential step in living out our faith and the message of the gospel. We are reminded that we are united in the Body of Christ, and this statement and action to become a Reconciling in Christ congregation, moves us forward in our efforts to live into that, particularly in the ways that we recognize how historically the church has done great harm to the LGBTQIA+ community. The Reconciling in Christ recognition means that the congregation will be listed on a roster of congregations, organizations and synods in the United States and Canada, which publicly welcomes members of all sexual orientations and gender identities.

Aubrey Thonvold, Executive Director of Reconciling Works, said "We welcome Bethlehem Lutheran Church to the Reconciling in Christ family. It is with love we are called to welcome all God's Children Into our congregations, communities, and our world. We thank Victor Matheson and Boyd Wood for being active members working for reconciliation and growth within the church so people of all sexual orientations and gender identities can share a lived experience of love, welcome, and family."

Reconciling Works is a Christian ministry affirming God's love for people of all sexual orientations and gender identities. Reconciling in Christ is a program of Reconciling Works.

Donations sought for Treetops Montessori School

FISKDALE — In the wake of a recent fire that caused heavy damage to the Treetops Montessori School on Brookfield Road, community members have taken to social media seeking donations to help the school's owners get classes back on track as they search for a temporary location.

"Your donations would be greatly appreciated!" reads a message posted to the Sturbridge MA Community Facebook page last week. "As the owners work diligently to get a temporary location so the kiddos can get back in their routine of being at school, they need the community's help!"

Supplies for math, language and sensorial activities are needed the most, including white glue, dry erase boards and markers, sponges, paper towels, toilet paper, cleaning products, spray bottles, table and floor mats, moveable alphabet letters, sandpaper letters and numbers, a spindle box, small tables and chairs, child size shelves, wooden trays, Play-Doh, colored sand, small bowls and pitchers, marbles, pomp oms, child size utensils, hammers, scoops and spoons, child size tongs and tweezers, crayons, regular and construction paper, glitter, sequins and table confetti, regular and colored pencils, and glue sticks.

Donations are currently being accepted at the Strbridge Coffee House (407 Main St.), Hearthstone Market (630 Main St., Fiskdale), BTS Smokehouse (392 Main St., Sturbridge), and Kid Power Gymnastics, Inc., 221 Sturbridge Rd., Charlton.

Financial donations are also welcome either through an account at Cornerstone Bank or a GoFundMe page established in support of the school.

Second Chance leads the pack in access to veterinary care

SOUTHBRIDGE — How do you end the cycle of overcrowded animal shelters? How do you keep pets in their homes? To Second Chance Animal Services the answer was clear - access to veterinary care. The nonprofit added that to their mission in 2013 and never looked back. They knew that while adoptions are an important part of helping pets get a Second Chance, they needed to focus on preventing surrenders in the first place.

Second Chance started offering veterinary services back in 2006 when they opened their low cost spay/neuter clinic. They quickly recognized additional needs for these pets and moved on to include vaccine clinics at their facility and throughout the state. In 2009

Second Chance expanded their spay/neuter clinic and in 2013 began the journey to full service veterinary care. What impact did that have? The organization went from helping a few thousand pets a year to over 40,000 pets a year (in 2019).

Access to services, like in humans, plays a vital role in keeping pets healthy and in their homes.

"We didn't realize when we opened our first full-service hospital how great the impact could be on the pets in the community," stated Sheryl Blancato, CEO. "It didn't take us long to open up our second hospital in Worcester, and then our third hospital in Springfield."

A staggering 23 million animals are living at or below the poverty level, and 77 percent of pets in underserved communities have never seen a veterinarian according to the Humane Society of the United States.

"Looking at these numbers, we see it's imperative to give pet owners access to care within a reasonable driving distance," notes Blancato.

Second Chance recently announced their next hospital which will be located in Southbridge, slated to open in the fall of 2021. This hospital, unlike the previous three, will include a partnership with the local voca-a relatively new addition to Charlton that replaced the more traditional signs previously utilized by the library to inform commuters of meetings and town events. At a meeting on Feb. 25 Jeff Sorel, the town's IT technician, sought to take advantage of a state program that would make the sign a prime source of emergency alert information as well.

"It's a free service from the state and federal governments. It doesn't cost the town anything. We have the option to discontinue service any time if we feel it's intrusive," Sorel told selectmen. He said the recent Amber Alert in Springfield helped inspire him to explore the program which would allow FEMA, MEMA, Amber and Presidential alerts to be more front and center for those traveling through Charlton.

"It's not controlled by us as far as ow the alert gets posted. It's done by the emergency management agencies issuing the alert and it's all done by geographical location," Sorel explained.

The alerts would not include flashing lights or anything too visually distracting. They were described as simple text and visuals informing commuters or those in the area that an alert has been issued and any other pertinent information to the situation.

Selectmen embraced the idea with Selectman John McGrath making the motion to sign up for the program which he said can only help keep residents safe and informed of any situation local, statewide or nationwide they need to heed.

"I think it's just an added feature to be able to have MEMA or public government groups to be able to post those emergency alerts," said McGrath.

The vote to enter the program was unanimous among selectmen who were

Southbridge library to host introduction to Yiddish song

SOUTHBRIDGE The Edwards Library, located at 236 Main St. in Southbridge, will host "An Introduction to Jewish Heritage with Yiddish Song" Thursday, March 19 at 6:30 p.m.

Yiddish, the thousand-year-old language of the Jews from Eastern Europe contains within its vocabulary, idiom and grammar the experiences, world view, and culture of Ashkenazic Jewry. In this program, Yosl Kurland will perform Yiddish and Loshn Koydesh (holy tounge or Hebrew) songs of lullabye, love and liturgy, social justice, of kindness and of hope spiced with the humor of Yiddish vaudeville. The Yiddish is made clear with story, explanation, and projected translations. In introducing Jewish music and culture to diverse audiences, Yosl works to foster intercultural understanding. Yosl will be accompanied on accordion by Aaron Bousel.

Vocalist and educator Yosl Kurland, a founding member of the Wholesale Klezmer Band (www.ganeydn.com) since 1982, performs and writes Yiddish songs and synagogue music. With his band he performed widely for weddings, bar/bas mitzves and concerts, including at Carnegie Hall with Pete Seeger, and has taught workshops at elementary, middle and high schools on Yiddish music, dance, literature. He developed programs on "Yiddish Songs of Cultural Resistance in the Holocaust" and "A Jewish Perspective on Social Justice in Song." He taught history at an inner-

Board of Health inquiring into rumored transfer station

BY JASON BLEAU

CHARLTON - Following a recent report printed in the Charlton Villager, the town's Board of Health is clarifying that recent conversations have not involved support for a landfill, but rather involved rumors of a transfer station, as well as the possibility of exploring recycling opportunities for local residents.

In an interview with the Villager, Charlton Board of Health Chairman Matthew Gagner clarified that any thoughts of the Board of Health being in favor of a landfill are untrue especially in light of the landfill concerns that have plagued Charlton in recent years. The Board of Health chair and his fellow members were inadvertentmisquoted and misrepresented from their meeting on Feb. 18, which discussed rumors of a transfer station, not a landfill — the difference being that a transfer station is a temporary holding area for waste, while a landfill is defined as a more permanent trash disposal location.

'The rumor that we heard was that there may be a transfer station being opened in Southbridge, not a landfill. A resident has asked us a couple of times if we heard anything about a transfer station in that town, and there's nothing to report. We haven't heard anything. The rumor was the town of Southbridge, or perhaps Casella, was going to open a transfer station in Southbridge and that's where we have Charlton residents inquiring what we plan on doing about it if anything.

If it's in Southbridge, then there's not a lot that this town can do about it," said Gagner. "The only talk of a landfill is where we were discussing our own landfill that has currently been capped.'

Currently, the landfill at 54 Flint Rd. is in the early stages of being capped, while the 90 Flint Rd. landfill has been capped and is retired.

Gagner also clarified that the idea that caught Charlton health officials' interest for pursuing wasn't a landfill, but a recycling center or similar concept. This is in line with recent discussions involving numerous boards in early 2020 about the need for a place where Charlton residents can dispose of recyclable material or yard waste.

"The recent conversations involved a recycling center which would be a place where we could go and recycle white goods like kitchen stoves and things like that or a drop off and disposal areas for yard waste. Our town of Charlton does not have an area where somebody could go and drop off that material right now," said Gagner.

The town of Southbridge, however, does have a recycling drop off center which the Board of Health feels could be a good starting point for inspiration.

Further commenting on the landfill controversies, Gagner said the real story there is that the water lines have been installed and the 90 homes effected by the landfills are now receiving public water. Gagner wants citizens to be aware that no conversations about interest in a landfill have taken place and that any such information is the result of misconceptions or misquotes. He also stressed that the Board of Health has an open door policy and are willing to answer any questions about any issues that members of the public may have.

"We allow people from other towns to come in and speak their peace on other issues. We're very easy going and our office runs very smoothly as a result of that," Gagner said. "I do not believe for a second the town of Charlton Board of Health is in favor of any landfill in any of our communities. I don't think the town of Charlton has any interest seeing a landfill going in our town or any of our neighboring towns. I think if there was consensus of reality on our board, we wouldn't be in favor of that.'

Create your own low maintenance relaxation garden

GARDEN Moments MELINDA MYERS

Create an outdoor space to relax and recharge. Transform a corner of your landscape, deck or balcony into your own escape from everyday deadlines and stress.

Use decorative fencing, sheer curtains or plantings to define the space and create a bit of privacy. An outdoor carpet, steppers or groundcover can also help define the space and create added comfort.

Provide a bit of protection from the blazing hot sun with a shade tree, pergola, umbrella or retractable awning. Deciduous trees and vines add shade during hot summer months, but let the warm sunlight shine through during the cooler months of the year.

Reduce maintenance by growing plants suited to your climate and growing conditions. Use fewer varieties and more of each to provide unity while reducing maintenance. Include permanent plantings of low maintenance trees, shrubs and perennials. Further reduce maintenance by selecting All-America Selections (AAS) winning plants (all-americaselections.org) that have been trialed across the US and Canada and selected for their performance in home gardens and containers.

Select varieties known for being low maintenance. Interspecific Supra Pink and Jolt dianthus are both such plants. Their showy flowers brighten the garden all summer long despite the heat and with no deadheading.

Add some therapeutic fragrance to your space by growing a pot or patch of Lavender lady, an English lavender. Brush your hand over the foliage and flowers to enjoy its relaxing fragrance. This compact variety flowers just 90 days from sowing and is hardy in zones 5 to 9.

Perfume the air with blue Evening Scentsation petunia. Perfect for containers and hanging baskets, its fragrance peaks during the evening hours. Set a container of compact Deep Purple nicotiana near your chair or entryway for a fragrant greeting in the evening.

Get a boost of color and health benefits by inviting birds and butterflies into your sanctuary. Being in nature lowers your blood pressure and improves your mood and adding bird watching to the mix increases these benefits.

Plant Tip Top Rose nasturtium to bring in the hummingbirds and butterflies. This compact plant boasts showy rose-colored flowers that bloom all season long. Pluck a few of the edible leaves and flowers to enjoy in your salad.

Summer Jewel Salvias include red, white, lavender and pink flowered wind and rain tolerant beauties. You'll enjoy the butterflies and hummingbirds visiting the flowers and goldfinches feasting on the Extend your enjoyment into the evening with some night lighting. Drape a string of lights over a pergola, arbor or tree. Lead the way to your retreat with some solar powered path lighting. Within the space, light a few candles or lanterns for more intimate lighting.

Brighten the night garden with a few flowers that shine during the darker hours. Gypsy White baby's breath is a non-invasive species and has better branching and heat tolerance, making it an attractive low maintenance option.

Mega Bloom Polka Dot vinca's bright white flowers are a standout in the garden. Its pure white petals with bright pink center provide a nighttime glow as well as daytime

Be sure to include a comfortable chair, hammock or glider to relax into the space. Add the soothing sound of water to help mask any unwanted noise.

Then grab a good book, your favorite beverage and escape to your own backyard retreat. You'll leave the space refreshed and ready to embrace and enjoy whatever comes next.

celebration of strong women

International Women's Day, observed this past Sunday, may seem like a new progressive holiday; however, it stems back to 1909, when the Socialist Party of America organized a day for Women on Feb. 28 in New York. One year later, the International Socialist Woman's Conference announced that a day for women be held each year.

Fast forward to 1917 in Russia, where, on March 8, women were given the right to vote. In 1975, the holiday was adopted by the United Nations.

The long and the short is that this day is a day to celebrate women past, present and future. With that said our staff chose to highlight the women that we feel have had a standout role in influencing how our world operates today. The list was endless; therefore, naturally hard to choose, so in order to prevent a 200 page editorial, we narrowed the list down to our favorites.

Social reformer Emmeline Pankhurst founded the Women's Social and Political Union in 1903 to campaign for the parliamentary vote for women in Edwardian Britain, 'Deeds, not words' being its motto. Pankhurst is described as a charismatic leader and powerful orator, Pankhurst rallied thousands of women to demand, rather than ask politely, for their democratic right in a mass movement that has been unparalleled in British history. The battle did not come without consequences. she endured 13 imprisonments, leading her name and cause becoming known throughout the globe.

At the age of 15, Claudette Colvin was arrested at the age of 15 in Montgomery, Ala., when she refused to give up her bus seat to a white woman. This event gave the famous Rosa Parks the courage to do the same. Colvin was one of five plaintiffs involved in the federal court case filed by civil rights attorney Fred Gray in 1956, in which they challenged bus segregation. The outcome, was that a judge ordered that the local laws in regards to bus segregation were unconstitutional. To find Colvin's name in a history book is rare. This in part because she was an unmarried teenager who apparently was with child. Colvin went on to become a nurse's aide.

In an interview in 2005, Colvin said, "I feel very, very proud of what I did. I do feel like what I did was a spark and

As for recognition, Colvin said, "I'm not disappointed. Let the people know Rosa Parks was the right person for the boycott. But also let them know that the attorneys took four other women to the Supreme Court to challenge the law that led to the end of segregation.'

Colvin's family has been trying since 2016 to have her recognized and honored in the National Museum of African American History and Culture. Colvin was not invited officially to the opening of the museum in 2016.

Marie Curie is the next on our short list. Curie was a Polish and naturalized-French physicist and chemist who was the first to delve into radioactivity. Curie who was born in 1867, was the first woman to win a Nobel Prize, and the only person to win it two times. Collecting several firsts, Curie was the first woman to become a professor at the University of Paris. In a time when most women spent their days in the home taking care of their children and husbands, Curie had to smash several ceilings for her own advancement. Curie was known for her honesty and moderate lifestyle. All of her prize money, she donated to scientific research and refused to copyright the radium-isolation process so that her fellow scientists could continue research unhindered. In 2011, Poland and France declared the year would be 'The Year of Marie Curie.' She became the first woman to be entombed on her own merits in the Pantheon in Paris in 1995.

Birthing dreams

POSITIVELY

SPEAKING

By Gary W.

MOORE

I'll never forget the day when my grandsons were born. While in many ways, it was a blur of a mixture of intoxicating joy and anxiety, there are several images that are forever ingrained in my memories. Birthing is a nine-month process, no doubt, but I got to see the final inning. Both boys brought on minor complications for their mother, so it was the team of doctors and nurses that made this miracle possible in the ninth inning.

There was a couple of doctors and several nurses on hand to birth a single child. All the focus of several adults was to make sure the babies were born and entered the world safely while keeping mother healthy. For some kids, that may be the most positive attention they will receive from a group of adults. Birthing is always a miracle.

This morning when I woke in my happy place - Sierra Madre, Calif. - my grandsons, Caleb and Noah were sleeping in the bedroom next to me. The joy I felt was indescribable. There is nothing that lifts the human spirit like being in the presence of people you love and who love you in return.

As I reflected on this gift of being under the same roof as Caleb and Noah, I was brought back to the days they were born and was overwhelmed with pure gratitude for what it took to bring them here on earth. As I said, birthing is always a miracle.

Yesterday, I witnessed a different kind of miraculous birthing - the birth of a dream in the imagination of a boy. It was opening day of Sierra Madre Little League's spring season. It began with a parade of the teams and ended with a ceremony at the baseball park. What I found to be incredible, is how this town of ten thousand people turned out to support these kids. The parade route was lined with residents and after their team passed, they fell into line and followed them to the ceremony.

There were over 50 volunteer coaches, hundreds of kids in baseball uniforms and I'm guessing a thousand or more residents in attendance. As I sat in the bleachers listening to the introduction of teams and coaches, I listened to the conversations around me and realized many of those in attendance did not have a child on the team, yet they turned out to support the youth of their community.

But what stood out to me the most was the wonder I saw in the eye of my grandson, Caleb. Of course, I'd be bragging if I told you all about how Caleb not only had a three-run homer, and drove in another 6 runs with two singles, but something much more beautiful was unfolding – a dream. When we got home that night, Caleb was asking questions about college baseball, and then Babe Ruth, and Ted Williams. He had a sparkle in his eye - the glimmer of a dream being born. Caleb, no doubt, has dreams of being a great baseball player someday.

I've learned through years of experience that kids who are involved in group or team activities are better students and get into less trouble. And if their parents or guardians turn out to volunteer and support them, the positive impact of the activity is compounded. Whether its sports, music or any activity that teaches them discipline, focus and how to achieve a goal, these kids have a greater shot at growing into successful and happy adults, and even better, a better chance of birthing big

We've all heard the old African saying that says, "It takes a village to raise a child." I would also add, it takes a village to birth a dream in a child. Because of the dedication of coaches, and the community of Sierra Madre, kids like my grandson, Caleb, are dreaming big dreams. I don't know about you, but we need more of that in America. Sierra Madre, California is showing the rest of us how to not just dream dreams, but birth dreams. The actions of this village are not just raising children but planting dreams and creating young people who develop habits of achievement that will follow them into adulthood. Like the moment of birth, this community is planting dreams that will be born later in the form of successful and productive

What happened on a Saturday morning in Sierra Madre wasn't about baseball, it was a community midwifing dreams in the minds of children. The community helped their children know that they mattered. It wasn't a day about sports but about love and miracles.

Will your money last as long as you do?

Focus

What FINANCIAL your fellow citizens fear most? Almost half of them 49 percent are most afraid of running out of money during retirement, a higher percentage than the 44 percent whose chief concern is failing health, according to a recent survey by Aegon Center for Longevity and other groups.

What steps can you take to help ensure your money will last as long as vou do?

Here are a few suggestions:

- Estimate your longevity. None of us can say for sure how long we'll live. However, you can make some educated guesses based on your health and family history. And once you do have at least a ballpark figure, you can then determine about how much money you may need to last the rest of your lifetime. A word of caution: It's probably going to be more than you think. Health care costs alone can run into the hundreds of thousands, even with Medicare.
- Determine when you'll retire. Your retirement age will have a big impact on how long your money can last. The longer you work, the more you can contribute to your retirement plans, such as your IRA and 401(k). Plus, if you have health insurance through work, you should be able to cover some of the out of pocket health care costs you'd normally have to pay if you're retired.
- Invest as much as you can in your retirement. During your working years, contribute as much as you can afford to your IRA and your 401(k) or similar employer-sponsored retirement plan. And every time you get a raise, try to increase the amount you put into your employer's plan.
- Protect yourself from long-term care costs. If you're fortunate, you'll never needany type of long-term care. such as an extended stay in a nursing home or the services of a home health care provider. Still, there are no guarantees, and long-term care expenses can be big enough to threaten your retirement savings. The average cost for a private room in a nursing home is about $100,000 per year, while a home health aide costs about $50,000 per year, according to the insurance company Genworth. Medicare typically pays just a small portion of these amounts, so you may want to purchase a long-term care insurance policy that will pay for qualified long-term care costs. Or you might consider a "hybrid" policy, which combines longterm care protection with life insurance. So, if you never needed longterm care, your hybrid policy would pay a death benefit to your beneficiary, but if you did need the care, your policy would pay benefits toward those expenses.
- · Choose an appropriate withdrawal rate. During your retirement, you'll need to withdraw money from your IRA, 401(k) and other retirement accounts. But you'll want to avoid taking out too much each year, especially during the early years of your retirement. It's important to establish an annual withdrawal rate that's appropriate for your needs, taking into account your age, sources of income, lifestyle and other factors.

The thought of running out of money during retirement is scary indeed but by making smart choices, you can go a long way toward alleviating this fear and enjoying your life as a retiree.

Do-It-Yourself Tips for Health and Well Being ing good health and well being!

Improve Memory: What's your memory grade? If you're a flunky when it comes to remembering, it may be time to get your brain back in shape with some mental gymnastics. No matter what your age, experts say exercising your brain really may make the difference between using it and losing it. Activities such as doing crossword puzzles, playing word games or cards, strengthens the receptors between brain cells in memory transmission areas. If you sense memory loss occurring, use mental helps such as calendars, calculators, list making, and group discussions to exercise your memory receptors. And relax. According to the experts, worrying about what you're going to forget can actually cause a mental block!

Effortless Memory Boost: Too tired to exercise your brain to boost memory? Dab on your favorite perfume! Believe it or not, medical studies show memory skills are enhanced while people are wearing a fragrance. The theory is that because the part of the brain that stores memory is located near the part that senses smell, the memory is boosted when you sniff a fragrance. Now, if you can only remember where you put the Stress Busters: It's 2 p.m., you've got a pile of unfinished work, you've yet to each lunch and the phone keeps ringing! If the high tech and high stress world has got you chewing your acrylic nails off, try these easy office stress busters: At the first sign of stress, massage therapists suggest simply massaging the palm of one hand by making a circular motion with the thumb of the other. Or, when you're stressed out, reach for a steaming mug of decaf or other hot beverage and cup your hands around the mug. Bring your warm hands to your closed eyes for a few seconds and take a deep breath to induce calm. And here's a good excuse to snack on the job: Carbohydrates stimulate serotonin in the brain, so reach for a bagel, crackers or pretzels to help calm down fast.

are more likely interested in flea markets with antiques and collectibles than t-shirts and food products. Check Web sites before you go, and you should be able to get a pretty good idea of what you will find. Also be sure to check to see the dates when outdoor flea markets open. Some good local flea markets have permanently closed, but others have opened in the area to take their place. You may want to call or

We've sprung foremail the flea market you plan to attend to get details before traveling there.

Some long running flea markets are right in our backyard. Most of you should be familiar with the Grafton Flea Market, Charlton Flea Market, and Douglas Flea Market.

The Rietta Flea Market in Hubbardston is one of the largest in the area. They are open on Sundays beginning sometime in April. Their website says "for as long as most of us can remember, Rietta Flea Market has been one of the largest and most popular flea markets in the Northeastern

Another nearby flea market is in Sturbridge. Sturbridge Flea Market's website describes it as "3 Levels & 150-plus Dealers 1000's of unique items at fair prices!" Traveling a little further west on Route 20, you will reach the Yankee Flea Market. Their website description is " ... home to over 165 vendors in our 15,000 square foot indoor market. We have everything from new to old, vintage to antique." Even further west you will find the Flea Market at Eastfield Mall in Springfield. Their description is "upscale resale, craft, art and antique vendors in a unique climate-controlled market space."

Another one where I have made good finds is the Olde Hadley Flea Market. The fields are typically full of vendors on days with nice weather. Kev's Barnyard of Granby is a newer flea market. They describe the market as a "wide array of merchandise from antiques to pre-owned items and furniture. Our co-op sits inside a historical 19th century post and beam, New England barn."

Traveling north, the Hollis Flea Market is a good option. It claims to be the longest and oldest running flea market in New Hampshire. Todd's Farm in Rowley invites you to "Be Up Before the Cows!" They tout over 240 vendors from New England and New York.

In Connecticut, websites for the Eastern Connecticut Flea Market in Danielson and Elephant Trunk in New Milford note that they are open regularly. There will also be a special one-day flea market on Saturday, May 16 at 9 a.m., sponsored by the Salmon Brook Historical Society in Granby. In the next state over, there is a regularly running flea market at the General Stanton Inn in Charlestown, R.I.

Other flea markets are a short drive away. Somerville, MA Flea Market claims that "the majority of our vendors deal in vintage and antique wares that have been reclaimed restored and repurposed." If you vacation at the Cape, the flea market at the Wellfleet Drive-in typically has vendors selling antiques.

Lastly, an article on flea markets wouldn't be complete without including the Brimfield Antique Flea Market. The 2020 dates are May 12-17, July 14-19, Sept. 8-13. I hope to see you on the fields!

I'll be presenting on antiques for The Sturbridge Rotary Club on March 18. I'll be appraising items for the Douglas, MA

Historical Society on May 3. Other events are being scheduled. Please see www.centralmassauctions.com for details on these and other events.

Spring arrives early

THE GREAT OUTDOORS RALPH TRUE

Spring came early this this year, and it was none too soon. This past week, the peepers (tree frogs) were already chirping in my back yard at the small pond on my property. My first Robbin was also spotted last week. Some daffodils are already well ahead of last year, and should blossom in a couple of weeks in my back yard. Wild turkeys are already strutting there stuff and when the wild turkey season starts in Massachusetts on April 27 this year, there should be little problems calling in your bird.

The youth hunt for wild turkeys starts April 25, and it is a great opportunity for parents to take the youngsters out for a day in the field hunting for this great game bird. During the youth hunt, a full day of hunting is allowed starting at a half hour before sunrise until 5 p.m., unlike the regular season, where hunting hours are a half hour before sunrise until noon.

The Massachusetts Fish & Wildlife personnel have started their spring stocking of trout in numerous lakes and ponds in the Central District. Cape ponds have received numerous stocking of trout providing anglers with some great early fishing. For a complete list of ponds and streams that have been stocked go to the Mass Fish & Wildlife Web site. A reminder that Wallum lake is closed to all fishing until April

This past week, I received a letter and picture from Francis Darling of Uxbridge. Francis was going through some of his dads papers and came across an old picture that had been printed in the Woonsockett Call in the late '40's. After World War 11 his dad helped build the road leading into the Uxbridge Rod & Gun Club. His dad also donated a replica of a Parker double barrel shotgun that was made of wood, which had been hanging in his barn.

His dad's relatives had a store in Woonsockett, R.I. called "E. R. Darling Guns and Cutlery," which was closed in The gun still hangs over the fireplace at the Uxbridge Rod & Gun Club. The gun once hung over the club road, but was later hung over the fireplace. The gun was also stolen from the club many years ago, but was found and returned to the club. This week's picture shows, from left to right: Robert Rabidor, vice president, William Albin. The gun was presented to the club by Benjamin Green, president of the Beagle Club, and Henry Gardiner was vice president

The gun was presented as a symbol of "good will and fellowship " between the two organizations. It is always great to have this kind of history brought back to light, providing the current generations with some knowledge of the work and vision the sportsmen had back in the day. I would like to thank Francis Darling for sharing this important piece of history of the Uxbridge Rod & Gun Club. Anyone that his this type of history, that would like to share with our readers, would be greatly appreciated. Send it to Ralph True, Sr., 367 Mendon Rd., Uxbridge, MA 01569, or to my e-mail at oldsalt 65@msn.com!

This is the time of year that sportsmen need to think about purchasing a four legged hunting companion for the 2020 bird hunting season if they do not already have one. Purchasing a new pup for the family, and for hunting birds will have him or her ready for the field by the time October rolls around. I have always been partial to a female dog. They just seem to mind a lot better, and are easier to train. Purchasing a pedigree dog from a well known breeder is extremely important. Ask to see both parents and make sure they have good papers.

Labrador Retriever pups are my favorite, but Brittany and German Shorthair pointers are also a popular dog among bird hunters. Make sure you

Sammies take over in second quarter, bounce Bartlett from sectional final Bartlett's Taven Phanthavong employs a full-court pressing defense on a Sutton player.

BY NICK ETHIER SPORTS STAFF WRITER

Editor's Note: The following articles detail the results from the three teams in the Stonebridge Press coverage area that reached their respective Central Mass. Tournament finals.

WORCESTER — The Central Mass. Division 3 Tournament final between the Sutton High and Bartlett High boys' varsity basketball teams, the top two seeds in the bracket, played out like most thought it would in the first quarter. The top seeded Sammies and second ranked Indians, both quick, high-flying squads, were putting up points in bunches at Worcester State University's John P. Brissette Competition Court on Saturday, March 7. Play entered the second quarter with the score knotted up at 18-18.

But Sutton's coaching staff got through to its players between periods, explaining that defense would in turn lead to offense.

"We kept harping on them that we have to defend," said Sammies' head coach Andy Niedzwiecki. "You can't go up and down with Bartlett because they're just too good. Our big thing was getting back. Once we get back and keep guys in front of us, we're a tough team defensively, and it showed."

Sutton won second-quarter scoring by a 24-10 margin to lead 42-28 at intermission. The second half played out much like the second frame — the Sammies won the third quarter 20-9 and the final frame was tied 9-9 — as they rolled to a 71-46 victory.

"That second quarter was a killer quarter," explained Bartlett head coach Tony Paranto. "It's disappointing, but we got beat by a better team tonight."

The second quarter belonged to Sutton's Brendan Faucher. The Sammies started the frame on an 11-0 run, with Faucher netting 10 of those points. Faucher added another three baskets on two layups and a hook shot later in the period as he scored 16 of his 18 points in the eight-minute stanza.

Brendan had a great second quarter, he scored 16 points, and we didn't have an answer for him inside," said Paranto, "We had three different people trying to contain him a little bit and we couldn't contain him.'

It also didn't help the Indians' cause that they'd take a shot, miss it, the Sammies would corral the rebound and then, more often than not, score down the other end of the floor.

"We were one and done each time. We had 10 points in the second quarter and then nine and nine; obviously that's not going to win too many ballgames for us," said Paranto. "We also only had four 3-pointers and we average 10 a season per game. They did a good job taking away the 3-pointer."

Joey Anderson of Bartlett works the baseline on a drive toward the basket.

Bartlett was 4-of-19 shooting the 3, while Sutton was 8-of-19. The Sammies' Bryson Grenon (26 points, 11 rebounds) made three of the 3-pointers, while twin brother Trevian Grenon (13 points) also made three 3s. Faucher canned the other two triples.

"Bryson controlled the game from start to finish. He had a lot of points from the inside and he's the smallest kid out there. He's just a tenacious player," Paranto said of the opposition. 'Their big three stepped up and unfortunately for us it wasn't our big three that stepped up."

Bartlett's big three of guards Logan Paranto (15 points, 13 in the second half), Brandon Boucher (12 points, 8 rebounds) and Wilson Aybar (7 points) were held to a combined 34 points, while the other big-time scoring option of Dylan Grandmaison, a forward, was limited to three points. Niedzwiecki gave compliments to all of his defenders for the low scoring totals.

"We can switch everything with the personnel we have and contain," said Niedzwiecki. "Because we switch everything, everyone's got to know who they switch onto and what they can do. We did a really good job of containing. They were forced into some very tough shots."

Sutton, now 23-2, will play Western Mass.representativeSabisInternational Charter (15-8) in a Division 3 state semifinal after press time.

Bartlett finished 20-4.

"Twenty wins is great as a numerical figure, but in our system we're here to put championships up too," said coach Paranto of the bittersweet close to the season. "I told the kids not to hang their heads but at the same time that's what we're here for.'

Tony Paranto's time coaching his son, Logan, has come to a close after six years.

"It's been fun as a father, fun as a coach, and it will probably sink in tomorrow that that era will be over," said Tony Paranto. "It's been really fun. To be able to coach your kid for six years — I've been doing this for 28 though, too — it will be something that will be a little bit remiss for the following years if I decide to keep coaching."

Bartlett High head coach Tony Paranto and co-captains Logan Paranto, Brandon Boucher and Wilson Aybar accept the runner-up trophy from the Central Mass. Division 3 Tournament. The Indians lost 71-46 to Sutton High.

Beavers can't weather Hurricane Jordan as Maynard storms its way to title

BY KEN POWERS

WORCESTER — With four minutes remaining in the first half of its Central Mass. Division 4 Tournament final with Maynard High, everything seemed to be going according to plan for the Blackstone Valley Tech (BVT) girls' varsity basketball team. The Beavers had overcome a slow start, hit four 3-pointers and led by nine points.

That's when Hurricane Jordan descended upon WPI's Harrington Auditorium.

Jordan Tucker, Maynard's 5-foot-8 senior guard, took over the game at that point. She scored all 13 of the Tigers' second-quarter points, finished with a game-high 25 and led Maynard past BVT, 52-39, on Saturday, March 7.

Blackstone Valley Tech, the No. 3 seed in the tournament, finished its season 20-6. With the win top-seeded Maynard (19-4) advanced to the semifinal round of the state tournament where it played Monson High, the Western Mass. champion, after press time.

"We knew she'd be a problem," Valley Tech head coach Britt Kahler said of Tucker after the game.

Tucker didn't score in the second quarter until she hit a 3-pointer from the top of the arc with 4:40 to play to pull the Tigers to within six, 18-12.

While BVT could muster just two pairs of free throws the rest of the period, Tucker scored four more baskets — a left-side jumper, two layups and another 3-pointer, this one from the left elbow extended — and added a free throw. Tucker's second trey of the quarter tied the game at 22-22 with 1:14 remaining in the half, which was where the score stood at halftime.

When the teams left the court at the break, even though the game was tied, Maynard left looking like a team that was in the lead while BVT left looking like a team wondering what had just happened.

"I don't think we did a great job of defending [Tucker] in the first half," Kahler said. "She caught the ball a lot in the middle, which is something she should never have been allowed to do."

Maynard, seemingly, took control of the game early in the third quarter, scoring the first five points to go ahead 27-22. BVT didn't score until 2:23 remained in the period, sophomore Riley Webster hitting a pair of free throws to cut the Beavers' deficit to three, 27-24.

Maynard led 31-26 with 90 seconds left in the period, but Valley Tech senior Victoria Russian (six points) scored on a slashing drive through the paint with 28 seconds to play in the quarter to cut the Tigers' lead to 31-28 as played headed to the fourth quarter.

The Beavers pulled to within a point of tying the game, 31-30, with 6:39 remaining on a runner in the lane by sophomore Emma Ballard (a team-high 12 points). It's the closest BVT would come to regaining the lead, however.

Maynard scored on its next three possessions, getting five points from 6-foot-2 sophomore center Hayle Thompson and two from Tucker, while BVT had a pair of turnovers and a missed shot on its next three trips down the court. When the dust settled the Tigers led by eight, 38-30, with five minutes to play. The Beavers never seriously threatened Maynard from that point on.

After the game Ballard, Russian and Kahler reflected fondly on the season that had just come to an end.

"I'm really proud of this team," Ballard said. "We started off slow but then we really clicked, and we came together. The energy we had on the court is just unforgettable. This is a great group of girls and I'm just so proud of how far we went."

Russian, who finished her career playing in two Division 4 finals (both losses to Maynard), smiled when asked about being a part of the BVT program.

"I've had so many great moments over the last four years, especially this year. We really worked together and worked so hard at practices," Russian said. "This is just a great team to be a part of."

Kahler said this year's edition of the BVT girls' basketball team was one of a kind.

"This is a special team, for sure. It took us about a month to get going and to bond. Once we found our groove, this group is fun. They love being together, they love the game," Kahler said. "We won the State Vocational Tournament and we won the league, but in all of that the best thing about the season is the memories we made together. This was one of the most enjoyable seasons I've ever had."

Blackstone Valley Tech can't keep pace with up-tempo Blue Raiders

BY KEN POWERS SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

WORCESTER — It may have taken all season, but the Blackstone Valley Tech (BVT) boys' varsity basketball team finally found an opponent that likes to run the court and play an up-tempo style of basketball as much — if not more — than it does. Unfortunately, the meeting of these similar teams came in the Central Mass. Division 4 Tournament final, where the Beavers faced Hopedale High.

The Blue Raiders attacked the basket the first time they had the ball, the last time they had the ball and on seemingly every possession in between. Hopedale's net result was 36 made field goals, eight from beyond the 3-point arc, four players scoring in double figures, and an 86-47 victory at WPI's Harrington Auditorium.

With the win second-seeded Hopedale (19-5) advanced to the semifinal round of the state tournament, where it played 16-7 Drury, the Western Mass. champion, after press time.

Valley Tech, the tournament's No. 5 seed, finished its season 15-9.

"Hopedale played a really strong game. They're well coached, they're strategic and they want to win," said BVT head coach Brew Cupid, now in his second year with the Beavers. "We came out with a plan, but we did not execute that plan the way we expected. That's the game of basketball.

"The game is a game of momentum. In the first half we couldn't find the momentum. When Hopedale has the momentum, along with everything else, it's hard for us to compete," Cupid continued. "We came out in the second half with a [different] strategy and it looked good for a few minutes, but we just didn't deliver."

The Blue Raiders were in control of the game from the outset. Hopedale jumped ahead 6-0 two minutes in and led 17-7 at the end of the first quarter. The Blue Raiders extended that lead to 43-27 at halftime and 68-35 after three periods.

Senior Dan Liberatore led Hopedale, scoring a game-high 26 points, 18 off those points coming on 3-pointers. Sam Morelli, Liberatore's classmate, added 17 points, while sophomore Alex Luccini chipped in 14.

Hopedale's fast-breaking style of play led to a lot of easy baskets. The Blue Raiders finished the game with 26 two-point field goals, 21 coming from within four feet of the basket.

Valley Tech was led by junior Shea Finnegan and sophomore Ryan Flauto, who both scored 12 points. Another sophomore, Josh Mateo, added 10 points. Both Finnegan and Mateo hit a pair of 3-pointers.

"I'm proud of the team and the overall season. This is a young team and it's important to know that basketball is about getting to the ultimate game. We got there," Cupid said. "Winning teams are about not being satisfied to be there but figuring out how to get there again. So, while I am proud of this team, we have a lot of work to do to be back here in a year."

Cupid said he didn't believe the lopsided loss was simply a matter of his team just being happy to have advanced to the first tournament final in boys' basketball in school history.

"I don't think that we were [happy] to just be here. I was concerned, however, that our success might come to an end earlier than I expected it to. I expect to put the team in a position to win every game," Cupid said. "I think we had a legitimate plan, but again, Hopedale is a well-coached team and they played their game. We didn't play our game today."

Cupid beamed with pride when asked to quickly reflect on the just-completed season.

"This is our 24th game of the season. We started off 0-3 and it wasn't a happy holiday," Cupid said. "But, since then, we've won 15 of 21 games. To say that I am proud of this team is an understatement. I am excited for this team. I am excited and proud to be their coach. We'll see this facility next year."

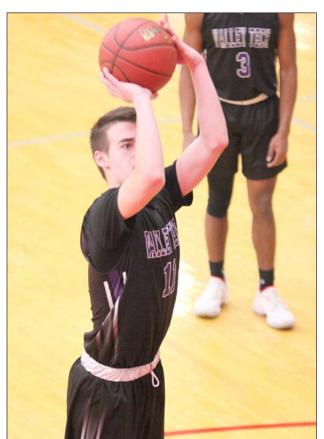

Andrew Galicki of Blackstone Valley Tech moves the ball down the court while in transition.

Blackstone Valley Tech's Shea Finnegan keeps the ball away from Hopedale defender Sam Morelli while driving toward the basket.

Blackstone Valley Tech's John Furno makes a turnaround jumper between Hopedale defenders Chris Casey and Alex Waswill.

Alwin E. Schmidt, Jr.

STURBRIDGE-Alwin E. Schmidt, Jr., 68, of South Shore Drive, Sturbridge, passed away Wednesday, February 26, 2020 at Northampton, MA. He was a longtime resident of Northampton until 2011. Alwin was born at Putnam, CT July 6, 1951, the oldest child of Alwin Emil Schmidt and the late Darthia Pursel Bernheim. Raised in Eastford, CT and later in Sturbridge, MA where his parents settled in 1961, Alwin graduated in 1969 from Tantasqua Regional High School; in 1973 he earned a BA in history and in 1985 a MA in Public Administration, both at UMass Amherst.

Alwin was deeply committed to the values and ideals of social justice and economic and racial equality, to women's reproductive and civil rights, and to lifelong learning and education. These values were partly shaped by the cultural unrest and political protest of the 1960s. During Alwin's undergraduate years he enrolled in UMass's experimental residential college, "Project Ten," which encouraged student-led learning and courses that addressed political and social debates of the time. In the early 1970s he participated in numerous student organizations, including advocating against the Vietnam War, joining the Committee on Poverty of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Social Action Council, and organizing for better working conditions for graduate student employees and campus food and hospitality workers.

In 1980 Alwin joined the staff of the Family Planning Council of Western Massachusetts in Northampton where he worked for almost two decades as Director of Public Affairs. While there he served as cochair of the Massachusetts Family Planning Association from 1992-97 and in 1996 received the advocacy and public service award from the National Family Planning and Reproductive Association and was inducted into its board of directors. In 1983 Alwin was one of the four cofounders of the National Priorities Project, an independent research organization advocating for peaceful and socially progressive federal funding priorities, based in Northampton. Later in his career Alwin worked as a human services consultant, including projects for MASSCAP, the statewide association of community action agencies.

Alwin moved to his longtime family home on South Pond in Sturbridge in 2011, coinciding with a cancer diagnosis. He devoted his later years to researching and writing in scholarly genealogy, and was completing a multivolume study on the New England ancestry of his maternal grandmother when he died. A recent article by Alwin was published in the New England Historic Genealogical Society's quarterly "Register" in 2019. Alwin was caring, compassionate and kind, with a keen sense of humor. He loved baseball, music, swimming, and he made many friends and continued lasting friendships from his high school and college years.

Alwin was always close with his family, and he will be very deeply missed. He leaves his father, Alwin E. Schmidt of Sturbridge; his brother Matthew P. Schmidt and sister-in-law Eva Rueschmann of Hadley; and his sister Ellen W. Shaughnessy and brother-inlaw John Shaughnessy of Sturbridge.

A private family service will be held in the coming days at Oak Ridge Cemetery in Southbridge, MA. His family and friends plan to hold another remembrance in the Northampton-Amherst area later in the spring, to be announced later. Donations in his name can be made to a public library or charity of choice.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles?
Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Level: Intermediate

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
