Church gives away $30,000 to parishioners

WEBSTER—Imagine on a Sunday when the Church typically calls its members to make a pledge on what they will give to the Church for the following year, something different happens. In fact, something radically different occurs!
Saints Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church in Webster decided to give each of its parishioners the gifting of an envelope either with $100, $200 or $300 cash. That’s right. The Church gave out to its church members $30,000 asking only for their act of love, and what the money they received, how they spent it, and what the response of the recipient was.
We want to gather inspiring stories to share with one another, so that we all can be motivated to do even more! We hope to create a contagious spirit of giving in our Church Family that will multiply and that will

2018. Do-Right Flea Market which closed in 2018 will eventually serve as the home for the Dudley Right-Do-Flex Market which closed in 2018. The rehabilitation is in the very early stages of negotiation between Town Council and Counsel for Camden Partners. Ruda said. Camden Partners is the company trying to transform the mall into a series of apartments and retail space facilities. The type of work that the developers see can be done by Ingrid Loray Mills. Ruda said. “They saw a high-end, serious development firm and we’re working through some initial steps that they may need to take as they navigate our zoning bylaws.”

Ruda revealed to Dudley’s selectmen in early November that conversations had begun with Camden Partners and would include around 35 apartments and supporting amenities. There would also be space for rent for events and possibly even town meetings and there has been discussion of possibly adding a pub to the plan as well. The proposed $25 million project would be funded through state federal historic preservation programs and possibly even town meetings and there has been discussion of possibly adding a pub to the plan as well. In a nutshell, this is the right fit for Dudley. I’m anxious to get into the discussions and bringing in town at the table of advisors that will be helping me through the process,” said Ruda. The WEBSTER Police Department released the following report on automobile accidents during the week of Dec. 7 - 13. The office operates 24 hours a day and has remained busy in the recent snowy conditions.

A 35-year-old Dudley man, Daniel M. Murphy, age 31, of Dudley was arrested on Dec. 4 for Assault & Battery with a Dangerous Weapon, Kidnapping, and Larceny From a Person. Jesse L. Thibodeau, age 44, of Dudley was arrested during the same incident for Armed Robbery, Assault & Battery with a Dangerous Weapon, Armed Assault on a Person, Armed Assault From a Motor Vehicle, and Adult Threw a Deadly Weapon. The Dudley Police Department reported the following information.

One example of this occurs on the first Saturday of every month when the reported drop-off point is a “Thanksgiving Lunch”, a delicious fresh meal that typically crosses the state line. I have heard, more than once, from some of our guests who tell me that they are reminded of coming to our church on the first Saturday of every month. Last year, we were also able to offer a meal on Thanksgiving Day, which was a wonderful opportunity to bring some of our families together coming to our Church for that meal. This year, our church community offers their “Living Bread Challenge” will run for six months.

In the early years of our Church, we had an immigrant church that was founded and grew from 90 supporting families to 55 families who receive their gift around Easter. The same with Christmas baskets and food hampers that we have distributed in the recent years.

Example of this occurs on the first Saturday of every month when we do our fire prevention week on October to have an open house in the church. We also have a meeting place in the church and have a plan in place in case a late-night fire does break out.

“Every Town Deserves a Good Local Newspaper”

This is what it means to be an Orthodox Christian.

The “Good and Faithful Steward Challenge” ran for five months. The first 55 families received their gift in one of nine trips to change the lives of the families. The “Good and Faithful Steward Challenge” was a success; the last round of 55 families was received by the end of November.

As 2019 draws to a close, you may be anticipating – or have already received – a bonus or monetary gift to pay off, or at least pay down, some of your less desirable debt, or use a 529 savings plan to pay for K-12 education for your young children or grandchildren. You can use your year-end bonus or monetary gift to pay for your college fund. If you haven’t already started such an account, you might want to use this money for that purpose. You could open a 529 plan, which provides considerable tax benefits and gives you control over the funds until it’s time for them to be used for college or some type of vocational training.
The Dudley PTO held their annual Polar Express event last Friday night, and it was a huge success. A pancake dinner was served as the gym was full of games and activities for the children to play. Santa attended and the children took photos and wrote letters for the North Pole. The children made clay time ornaments, played Escape The Pike and hung out with Arthur from the Mass Pirates Football team. Lastly, the families filed into the auditorium for a reading of the Polar Express to end the magical night had by all.

Webster welcomes Santa

WEBSTER – From outside, someone passing Town Hall at about 6:30 p.m. Saturday wouldn’t have seen much – just a dark building with people occasionally going inside. But in there, the auditorium featured a blur of kids running around, tossing small balls at each other to the sound of Christmas carols. Around them, adults sat and chatted drinking coffee and hot chocolate, some of them joining the play. All of them waiting for the cue to bundle up and head into the chill outdoors for the evening’s star attraction.

At about 7 p.m., a fire engine rolled around the corner bringing the guest of honor – the bearded, jolly fat man in red, who turned on the town’s official Christmas tree with a touch. At least 100 people attended to usher in the holidays.

Mashed Potatoes,
As we swing into the final days of the Massachusetts deer season, it is a time to reflect on the story that successful few days. Two snow storms kept many older hunters away from the woods because of the hard walking conditions. The few were not moving much because of the heavy snow this Monday & Tuesday, but hunters did manage to harvest some very impressive deer. One of the most impressive bucks was harvested on opening day by Mark Kinca of Whitinsville, shown in this week’s photo. The mouse like antlers were awesome. This past Saturday, the success rate of local hunters increased dramatically as walking and tracking conditions improved in the snow, although the deer were not overly underfed. Hunters that consisted of four or five more trackers did very well hunting this week.

When we arrived at the checking station on Linsley Highway, checking was decided to be on this week’s second day. The eight point buck weighed in at 344 pounds field dressed, so on permanent Saturday, the checking station had been closed for the week normally. We never saw more than one hunter hunting this week. Although the numbers of deer and harvests increase very quickly this time of year, only someone who has done it many times, or the one in the woods over the weekend, but the second deer will be left behind. The deer will be the last opportunity for the monarch butterfly. The milkweed’s seedpods can be crafted into wreaths, art and more. Milkweed pods are gaining in popularity. Popularity.

DUDLEY — Jolly Old St. Nick paid his annual visit to Dudley on Tuesday, Dec. 3 to visit and meet with local children during the annual tree lighting ceremony at the town’s municipal complex. Santa arrived courtesy of the Dudley Fire Department before meeting with children and presenting them with small goodie bags while listening to their Christmas wishes. Visitors were then treated to pizza and snacks and a slew of activities including crafts over the course of the evening. Of course, the night also included the lighting of Dudley’s town Christmas Tree which will serve as a reminder of the holiday spirit for the rest of December.

Mary and Richard Carmignani were among the first kids to visit Santa.

Members of the Dudley Women’s Club played a big role in making the tree lighting celebration happen including serving pizza, coffee and treats.

Aislyn and Vienna of Dudley tell Santa their Christmas wishes.

Editor’s Note: Leicester High was the only Stow-Medway Press affiliated school to reach the state championship game. During the course of their season, the Wolverines defeated local teams from Barre High, Oxford High and Bay Path Regional.

“REGRETTABLY,” it wasn’t the start that Leicester High’s varsity football team wanted following the coin toss that Leicester High’s varsity football team won. Their plan didn’t pan out, though, as the Wolverines fell to local teams from Barre High, Oxford High and Bay Path Regional.

Heroes over average — Marie Piegorsch 362, Kris Girouard 118, Erin Van Dam 113, Pranaitis 122, Tom Smith and Richard Wilbur 379, Doll Gardecki 345, 480.

Leicester quarterback Dan Mero sends a pass down the field.

“Twelve and zero coming into this game and fight like we wanted to,” he said. “The seniors set the tone this year, and the team a lot and the morale early.”

“Leicester can’t complete undefeated season, loses to Abington in Division 7 State Final, 21-7

It helped to move the ball, but the two promising drives they had both eventually stalled, ending with 31 yard-51 yard field goals that didn’t help their cause either. "We did some things that we haven’t done all year long. We made a mistake here and there in the first half,” he said. But it’s not the only reason we didn’t win, because we didn’t execute for whatever reason. We had a great year, but this is tough.”

Another exception Gosselin added, “giving up that first touchdown in three plays that hurts, that hurts a team a lot and the morale early.”

“answered, and they did — with the help of a little trickery. With 6:52 remaining in the quarter, Gosselin lined up for a fake snap and quarterback Dan Mero out wide. Mero went in motion as Klein covered the snap. The ball was handed off to Mero in a jet sweep motion, as a charity’s defense collapsed on the senior quarterback, he flipped it to his brother Michael Mero who then threw a strike to Josh in the end zone to slice the deficit in half 7-6. "We practiced it during the week,” Gosselin said. “Whatever, it is what it is.”

"We needed a sense of urgency in the first half and I was happy to see our defense did enough to keep us in the game. I called the offense and we didn’t get it done on the offensive side of the ball, so that is on me. We didn’t execute, but maybe the defense couldn’t break through. Whatever, it is what it is.”

High’s offensive line was on the other end of the coin toss before the series, winning the toss and choosing the open field in hopes of starting quickly, settling nerves and putting points on the board early. Their plan didn’t pan out, though, as the Wolverines fell to local teams from Barre High, Oxford High and Bay Path Regional.

With the holidays around the cor- ner, the focus turns to homemade pies, cookies and other comfort foods that conjure up fond holiday memories. One of the sim- plest pleasures of turning out home baked goods this time of year is the unmistakable aroma of such spices as cinnamon, nutmeg and ginger.

The next time you’re stocking up on those “pie spices” you might want to grab an extra jar or two. Studies show popular holiday spices can benefit your health as well as your taste buds. Read on for this column’s annual review of how to use these powerful and delicious gifts from the kitchen cupboard, from clearing colds and cramps to helping relieve joint pain.

Cinnamon: Move over cinnamon toast and apple pie, the spice has a new look. It has recently been hailed for its power to tame a tummy ache? It’s also a well known home remedy for motion sickness. A single dose of crystallized cinnamon killed 99.5 percent of the bacteria. Just one teaspoon of cinnamon killed 96.3 percent of the bacteria after three days at room temperature.

Cinnamon has been used for thousands of years in traditional and home remedies. For centuries, it has been well known for its ability to kill food poisoning bacteria. In fact, a study conducted by Kansas State University found that 95 percent of the bacteria killed by cinnamon were E. coli. The health benefits of cinnamon are not limited to killing bacteria; it has also been shown to reduce inflammation and swelling.

Ginger: Ginger bread and ginger maps are familiar holiday treats, but did you know ginger has long been hailed for its power to tame a tummy ache? It’s also a proven anti-inflammatory agent that can help relieve arthritis and sciatica pain. A simple Ginger tea is made by adding 1/8 teaspoon ground ginger powder to one half cup of boiling water. Allow to steep for ten minutes, then strain and sip. As a bonus, studies suggest that sipping Ginger tea can help maintain brain function and promote heart health.

Allspice: Christmas pudding, mincemeat, and pumpkin pie are just three of the addition of allspice, but did you know that it has been shown to be a powerful anti-inflammatory? One gram of ground allspice contains an anti-inflammatory compound called berberine, which is known to reduce inflammation and swelling.

Nutmeg: This spice has been used for centuries to aid in relieving arthritis and sciatica pain. It is also known to relax smooth muscle tissue, which can help relieve discomfort from digestive problems. Nutmeg has also been hailed for its power to tame a tummy ache?
