Veterans honored with Quilts of Valor

BY JASON BLEAU

DUDLEY – Several veterans of the United States Armed Forces were presented with special, hand made quilts on Sunday, Nov. 10 during a special ceremony in the middle of the Dudley Congregational Church's morning service.

The veterans were honored with Quilts of Valor, blankets provided through an effort started by the Quilt of Valor Foundation which was founded in 2003. Sandra Smith was one of four women who knitted the quilts and was on hand for the service to discuss the significance of the quilts and the history of the foundation. She explained that the quilts are given to veterans who were "touched by war" in an attempt Local veterans Army Sergeant Richard Bernier, Navy veteran Christopher Bonczek, Master Sgt. David Canty, Master Sgt. Jim Dunne, Major Scott Ludwig, and Staff Sgt. Jack Zajkowski were presented with Quilts of Valor on Sunday, Nov. 10. Not pictured is Marine Sergeant Nelson Craver who was also honored but passed away in October.

"It is different for each person," said Smith. "Any veteran or service member who feels they have been 'touched by war' can apply for a quilt. No questions asked."

Each quilt contains a specific patch that acknowledges it as a Quilt of Valor. Smith also noted there's a special person touch to each of the quilts as they are all handmade and not mass produced.

"Each of these quilters sews the quilt with love and I think people feel that love when they are wrapped in the quilt," Smith said before addressing the veterans. "As you look your quilt over today or in the coming weeks you might find a mistake. Not to worry. This tells you it is homemade."

Of the seven veterans being honored six were alive and present to receive their quilts while one was awarded posthumously. The first quilt presented was to Army Sergeant Richard Bernier who served from 1968 to 1970, including stints in Vietnam and Cambodia. His wife, Donna Bernier, not only knitted his quilt but had the honor of presenting it to him as well. Bernier also knitted the quilt for her son, the second honoree of the morning Navy veteran Christopher Bonczek. Bonczek served as a Special Warfare Combatant Craft Crewman on the USS Constellation Aircraft Carrier from 1994 through 1998 during Desert Storm and served on Special Boat Team 22 in the early 2000s.

McDonald takes reins at Oxford FD

BY GUS STEEVES CORRESPONDENT

OXFORD — This week, a new face takes the reins of Oxford Fire Department, as Monson Chief Laurent "Butch" McDonald formally begins the job next Monday.

Contacted over the weekend, McDonald said he saw Oxford as "an opportunity to grow professionally," but found it "hard to leave" Monson, where he's been chief and lived since 2011.

"Things can make you skeptical and cynical, but working in Monson has helped refresh my sense of community and public service," he said, thanking the town for welcoming him and his wife.

"For me, Proverbs says it well-'As irons sharpens iron, one person sharpens another," he added. "I've grown and developed from my interactions with [Monson's people]. I reach out and help them, and they reach out and

Pearle L. Crawford Library looks ahead to 2020

BY JASON BLEAU

DUDLEY – With the year coming to a close the Pearl L. Crawford Library director and trustees are reminiscing on a productive 2019 and looking ahead towards a busy 2020.

One big change for 2019 was the hiring of Drusilla Carter as Library Director who spoke with the Library Board in early November about the success of the library over the last 11 months. This has included numerous events in the both the main facility and the children portion of the library including the success Pearle Jam music series. The library has also seen numerous repairs including with its HVAC system and security cameras. But the real excitement is for the future as 2020 looks to be a historic year for The Pearle. Carter said the next year will bring several milestones to the facility including a landmark anniversary and the library's first hosting of a legislative event of a legislative event.

"The tenth anniversary of the building will be on Saturday, July 11 of next year. We're starting to nail down what we're doing for that and July will be here before you know it," Carter said.

Later, she announced the library will also host a public meeting with local legislators, the first time state leaders will be part of a public forum at the facility.

"We were asked if Dudley would host a legislative breakfast for our regional legislators which would be sometime in January or February," she said. "We have to consult with the senators' schedule."

Plans for the 2020 Pearle Jam series and summer reading theme are already in the works as well and financially the library looks like its

Library, Head Start partner for healthy cooking class

BY GUS STEEVES

WEBSTER — In many respects today, Americans take food for granted. It's relatively cheap (compared to most other nations) and easy to get. But many of us don't really know how to cook, claim to lack the time, or dislike doing it – all traits studies link to increased fast-food intake, obesity and related problems.

Back in September, the Friends of Gladys Kelly Library, Head Start and D.C.-based Cooking Matters teamed up to address that, initiating a sixweek cooking skills class with a grant from Mapfre.

"I watch what's happening and I'm learning some things" despite having cooked for many years, said Friends President Tom Klebart, who's there as a volunteer not a student. He specifically cited learning a new technique for cutting green peppers.

The program includes 16 young parents who have children at Head Start, with the school department's Ellen Nylen running the actual cooking sessions. According to the Cooking Matters website, "Lessons cover meal preparation, grocery shopping, food budgeting and nutrition. Participants practice fundamental food skills, including proper knife techniques, reading ingredient labels, cutting up a whole chicken, and making a healthy meal for a family of four on a $10 budget."

To older generations, these were basic things, typically learned at mom's side. While that's still true, a 2016 study in the International Journal of Behavioral Nutrition and Physical Activity found "as there is a reported deskill-

Hannaford donates more than $12,000 to Food Bank

SHREWSBURY Supermarkets today announced a $12,800 donation to the Worcester County Food Bank, which will allow the non-profit organization to establish food pantries in partnership with the Athol-Royalston Regional School District and other community partners.

Designed to serve as a vital and convenient resource to students and families in need while also increasing access to healthy and nutritious food, the in-school pantries are dedicated spaces where students and their families can select food they enjoy based on their preferences and cooking abilities to provide nourishment both during and after the school day.

The donation is one component of an overall $1 million commitment from Hannaford Supermarkets through its new "Fuel Kids at School" program, which is designed to directly address food insecurity and improve access to fresh and healthy food in schools in New York and New England.

"At Hannaford, we strongly believe that our business goes far beyond selling products and that a key component of being 'greater than groceries' is investing into the communities we serve. As a community contributor, we have a longstanding commitment to aiding hunger relief in our neighborhoods. This effort often begins at school, where hunger directly impacts a student's ability to learn, grow and suc-' said Hannaford Supermarkets Vice President of Retail Operations Todd Bullen. "These food pantries will fulfill a critical need for students and their families. All of us at Hannaford are honored to support the Worcester County Food Bank's efforts through this donation as we reaffirm our commitment to nourishing our communities, one child at a time.'

"Worcester County Food Bank believes strongly that people should have access to food in their communities and that barriers to that food should be removed whenever possible. This grant from Hannaford allows us to support schools and organizations in Worcester County in a way that brings healthy, nutritious food to students and their families. Access to healthy food reduces stress on students and has been shown to increase school attendance and success. This partnership helps to build healthy students, families, communities and a healthy future," said Worcester County Food Bank Agency Relations Manager Seana

"Athol-Royalston Regional School District is excited to partner with the Worcester County Food Bank to explore placing a food pantry at our high school. Many families across the community are in need of food resources. Our district knows to teach a student; we must first ensure that basic needs are being met, food, clothing, and shelter," said Athol-Royalston Regional School District Superintendent Darcy help me. That's how you grow a community."

Hannaford Supermarkets has a longstanding commitment to supporting hunger relief in its communities. In 2018, Hannaford donated nearly 26

Chief McDonald is a highly skilled candidate with significant training, education, certifications and credentials," Oxford Town Manager Jen Callahan said. "He will be a tremendous asset to our Public Safety Team and it is an honor to welcome him here to the Town of Oxford.'

McDonald has 38 years of experience as a firefighter and began his fire services career in the United States Air Force, where he served for 21 years as both a firefighter and fire officer. He said he hopes to retire in Oxford but admitted "that was the plan in Monson, too," and has nine more years before retirement is possible.

Comparing the two towns, he said Monson's department was not 24/7 when he started - full-timers covered 20 hours a day, but call firefighters did the other four and weekends. In his tenure, he got town support to make it a 24/7 department, add staff including paramedics, and get new equipment.

Oxford, by contrast, already has those things. He said it'll be a little different because it's busier in general, has more industrial and commercial property, and is denser but smaller in area. But he didn't think Oxford would be "much different because it still has that small-town aura about it," noting one of the first things that jumped out at him was the "pride people take in" the town's history and public cooperation. That was quite similar to Monson, something he noticed while starting right after the tornado of 2011 roared through downtown.

He described Oxford as "a pretty level-headed town," and noted he'll have to move to somewhere closer. Under the town's charter, firefighters have to live within a 15-mile radius

Besides being Monson's chief and Emergency Management Director, McDonald has also served for five years as the Fire Protection/ Inspection Certification Manager for the National Fire Protection Association, where he managed four fire service professional credentials. He also previously served as the Director of Training for the Massachusetts Department of Fire Services. He has been appointed as an Adjunct Professor of Fire Science and Service Administration at Anna Maria College and has his Master in Public Administration in Emergency Services Management. Additionally, he has served as Board Director for the New England Association of Fire Chiefs, was chief in Dudley, and did a stint on the Southbridge Town Council, including serving as chairman of both the Council and the Charter Review Committee.

Gobi discusses farm bills

BY JASON BLEAU

DUDLEY - The town of Dudley hosted a special guest on Tuesday, Nov. 2 as Sen. Anne Gobi stopped by to discuss issues pertaining or agriculture and farming in the region. Gobi serves as Chair of Environment, Natural Resources and Agriculture Committee in Boston and was invited to the Dudley Town Hall by the Dudley Grange to hear concerns from local farmers and discuss matters being taken up in Boston that pertain to agriculture businesses and farm bills.

The forum lasted over an hour and saw questions and concerns voiced by several citizens in regard to several different issues on both the local and state level. Among the biggest issues brought to the table were the use of pesticides, the state's lack of support for hemp producers, and food waste. Gobi also took the time to delve into some issues she has heard from across the state. These include the healthy initiative program geared towards promoting farmers markets and fresh produce to those with food stamps or in need of food assistance and the House Bill that passed this year enacting limitations for gestation housing. There has also been discussion on the state level about Massachusetts joining Connecticut in banning plastic bags from shopping areas although Gobi said there is debate about whether this should be a state mandate or if towns should handle this matter on their own.

Gobi said she found the back and forth to be productive and insightful, especially in terms of the passion that some citizens had for the issues that concern them. She felt it was a good opportunity for her to connect with constituents and even some who aren't represented by her at the state level.

"Even though a lot of people aren't necessarily my direct constituents it's absolutely important for me to hear from anyone who is involved in agriculture about their issues and problems," Gobi said after the forum. "We deal with them in committee and we really need to know what people are thinking. This is the best way to do things, through one-on-one and having this direct contact.

Gobi said she will take several things back to Boston with her for consideration, including the passion for supporting hemp production and even a new idea one citizen provided on how to manage food waste which would involve a large-scale composting practice.

Linda Brink, a spokesperson for the Dudley Grange who sponsored Senator Gobi's visit, said she was happy and grateful for the outcome and was glad that the Senator took the time to hear input from local farmers and producers. 'Anne spoke at the state grange convention last year so it was just us seeing if she could keep it up and tell us what's going on from a year ago. That

Sen. Anne Gobi payed a visit to Dudley on Nov. 2 to talk about farm bills and issues involving agriculture in the commonwealth was part of the motivation," Brink said. "I think everybody was enthused about her taking the time to hear what we had to say. There's an inner structure to the grange. We're not just on the local level – There's areas in each grange and levels that we can push to have our opinions expressed. We'd like to keep getting the farmers involved."

Now's the time to force a few spring flowering bulbs

GARDEN Moments MELINDA

In just 15 minutes, you can plant a beautiful garden guaranteed to brighten your spirits and indoor décor this winter. All you need is a container with drainage holes, potting mix and some tulips, daffodils and other spring flowering bulbs. Once you have gathered the needed materials, you can get started planting.

Select bulbs labeled for forcing, shorter varieties that are less likely to flop or bulbs that didn't make it into the garden this fall. Plant a container of one type of bulb or use a combination for added color, texture, form and a longer bloom time. Tulips, daffodils, and hyacinths are most common, but you may want to add another layer of color with shorter bulbs like crocus, squills, and grape hyacinths.

Select a container with drainage holes and cover the bottom with an inch or two of well-drained potting mix. Set the bulbs on the potting mix with the pointed side, if it has one, up and root side down. Place the flat side of the tulip bulb toward the outside of the pot for a better display. Pack the container full of bulbs for an impressive display. Cover the bulbs with soil and water thoroughly.

Or create a garden of spring flowers in a pot using a variety of large and small bulbs. Place the largest bulbs on the lowest level of a large container. Cover with soil and add the medium sized bulbs. Cover these and add the smallest bulbs. Then cover with several inches of potting mix and water thoroughly.

Move potted bulbs to a cold location with temperatures between 35 and 45 degrees for 15 weeks to initiate flowering. This is often the most challenging part of the process. Place the potted bulbs in a spare refrigerator where you do not store fruits and vegetables that produce ethylene that can interfere with flowering. Otherwise, sink the pot in the ground, or set it in an unheated garage away from the door with a bit of insulation around the pot. Water thoroughly whenever the soil

Start removing the pots from cold storage after fifteen weeks of chilling. Extend your enjoyment by removing the pots at one- or two-week inter-

Move the chilled container of bulbs to a cool location with indirect light for two weeks. Water thoroughly and often enough to keep the soil moist. Move them to a bright sunny window when the leaves are about four to six inches tall.

When forcing bulbs, select combinations that will provide plenty of color, texture and form.

Bright sunlight and temperatures around 65 degrees Fahrenheit will give you the best results. You'll be enjoying flowers in about three to four weeks after removing them from storage.

Use pots of forced bulbs as centerpieces or flowering accents indoors. Save a few to use outdoors on your balcony, deck or front steps for added color in your spring landscape. Dress up your display by placing the pots in window boxes or planters and cover with mulch or moss.

Planting and forcing bulbs will help keep you gardening as the days grow shorter and colder. And when you've had just about all the winter you can stand, it will be time to break out the forced bulbs for a bit of spring color.

Soda fountain memorabilia

Soda fountains were once a fixture in drugstores. Now it's rare to find one. Hallet's Store in Yarmouth Port, Mas. and Shady Glen in Manchester, Conn. are two establishments in our area that still have soda fountains. Many people that visited them have fond memories of soda fountains and the memorabilia still appeals to collectors.

There was a long history before soda began being served at fountains in the 20th century. A 1962 American Heritage article notes that water had been "bubbling up out of springs and spas since the dawn of history." Joseph Priestley developed a process for artificially carbonating water according to a University of Southern California article. According to a McGill University article, he lived near a brewery and became interested in the "airs" (gas bubbles) that produced bubbles in beer. In 1767, he hung a vessel over a beer fermentation vat creating carbonated water. Much later in 1832 John Matthews left England for America where he manufactured carbonating machinery and started selling soda water to retailers. Matthews added flavors to the soda water and licensed soda water equipment. The USC article

notes that "by the time he died, Matthews owned over 500 soda fountains. He was known as the 'Soda Fountain King." Our area also played a part in the development of soda fountains. A Lowell Sun article notes that Gustavus D. Dows patented the first marble soda fountain in 1861. He installed a marble soda fountain in a Central Street pharmacy in Lowell. Ice cream later became a top seller at soda fountains. Encyclopedia.com the heyday of soda foun-WAYNE TUISKULA tains as running from 1890 to 1940. They describe "classic American soda fountain(s)" as light, cool, and airy places furnished with marble-topped counters and tables, shining mirrors, and sparkling glass and chrome serving dishes.

Soda fountains used advertising signs to advertise their specials. National companies also advertised their brands on signs, syrup and soda dispensers, trays, clocks, glasses and anywhere else they could. These items that were given to the soda fountain to promote manufacturers can be very valuable now.

A 12-piece Three Millers soda fountain sign sold for $2,600 at auction last year. A Moxie soda fountain sign went for $2,750 in a 2015 auction. A 1902 celluloid Coca Cola sign fetched $8,000 at a 2012 auction. At a 2016 auction, a rare Allens Red Tame Cherry tin embossed sign reached $10,250.

Dispensers can also bring strong results. A Coca Cola porcelain brought $10,000 in a 2018 auction. A Jim Dandy Orangeade dispenser went for $28,000 in 2010. An Earl Hires 3-piece dispensing bowl with platter sold at auction in 2015. It was made by Mettlach who also made quality German steins. Despite having some restoration, it went for $74,000.

A complete marble and alabaster fountain soda that was over 21 feet long was auctioned in 2012. It was created by the Liquid Carbonic Co. for the 1893  $C \ o \ l \ u \ m \ b \ i \ a \ n$ Exposition. bubbled well over the top of the $75,000 - $125,000 estimate when it

All Saints Academy charts a path for the coming years

WEBSTER — On Wednesday, Nov. 5, families of All Saints Academy shared in a discussion on the vision and direction for the school in the coming vears. Also in attendance were the head of school, Mrs. Joan Matys, members of the Board of Trustees, the President of the Endowment Committee, and faculty and staff. The new vision includes the evaluation of items such as: physical plant, program, safety procedures, student experience, climate and culture, and ultimately, where to best put forth our resources.

Unlike many schools in the Diocese, ASA has been blessed with an endowment. The Endowment Fund has provided operational support to ASA since its inception, off-setting the difference between the school's income and expenses. With two aging buildings nearing a century each in age, the costs of maintaining both classroom buildings continue to grow and impact our budget. As a result, an evaluation of each property was conducted to examine not only the physical plant, but the flexibility of each property in terms of outside space. After consideration of each building, the BOT voted in favor of making the elementary campus the one classroom building for all students effective for the 2020-2021 academic year. The Corporation, to which the board reports and includes Bishop McManus, Fr. Reidy, Vicar General, Dr.

Diocese, Fr. Sanders and Fr. Adam, confirmed the vote to go to one classroom building. ASA will remain All Saints Academy and a multi-parish community, but the educational instruction will be located at 48 Negus St., beginning in the '20-'21 school year. The school's athletics and social events will continue to be held at Sacred Heart of Jesus Church Hall at 11 Day Street.

Over the coming years, the Endowment Committee will continue to provide operational support to the school. But beyond that, the Committee has also committed to providing the additional funding of $250,000/year for two years to assist in making the necesty and programming - making ASA the best school it can be. We will be investigating, among other areas, our academic programs, our science lab, gymnasium, parking lot, stage, classroom technology, storage solutions, after school program, and the playground area. This will be a multi-year project/ investment.

We look forward to the possibilities this will open up for our students and the opportunities to build and strengthen their educational experiences at All Saints Academy.

Put a little love in your heart

Alongside the bright red ribbons, boughs of holly, and countless images of Jolly old Saint Nick that seem to greet us everywhere we go during the holidays, those of you who have braved the malls or, better yet, stayed closer to home and browsed the shops in your own community this season have likely encountered another iconic holiday image in your travels - the dedicated volunteers who bundle up and brave the chilly air with jingling bells in hand to collect donations for the Salvation Army.

These hearty souls can be seen everywhere, from their outposts on Main Street to the entrance of your local Wal-Mart. Always seeming to be ready with a cheerful greeting and a warm smile for the crowds of shoppers who file past them every day, their presence serves as an important re- minder to all of us that now, more than any other time of year, is the time to turn our thoughts toward the less fortunate among us ... and that sometimes, the greatest gift of all can be a helping hand in a time of need.

With many of us tightening our belts more than usual when it comes to our holiday shopping in recent years, and the stress of dealing with family dysfunction or traveling away from home for the holidays occupying our thoughts, it can be all too easy to forget that times are that much harder for those at the bottom of the economic ladder. Right here in our own backyard, there are a great many families who have fallen on hard times, often through no fault of their own, and who have nowhere left to turn for help but the generosity of strangers.

Fortunately, there are no shortage of charitable organizations throughout the area that are prepared to meet the growing demand for assistance, but only with the support of their respective communities. So as they rush around in these last few weeks before Christmas grabbing those last-minute stocking stuffers or that much sought-after game system, we encourage our readers to think of their fellow man and put a little love in their hearts (as Jackie DeShannon once sang), and remind themselves of the true meaning of the season by offering a helping hand to those who need it. Whether it be through a donation of canned goods to your local food pantry, a monetary gift or a donation of used clothing to your church's relief efforts, or simply by slipping a handful of bills into one of the bright red Salvation Army coffers manned by those spirited, bell ringing volunteers, remember that it may only take a small amount of effort to make the season bright for a neighbor in need.

Share your bounty with family

Thanksgiving approaches, it's meaningful to reflect on the origin of the holiday -Native Americans and pilgrims sharing their bounty of food with each other. As you gather with your loved ones this year, perhaps you can think of ways to share not only your dinner, but also your financial bounty.

In terms of bounty-sharing, here are some suggestions you may find helpful, no matter your age or that of your young children, you may want to get them started with a savings account to help them develop positive financial habits. You could even make it a

Thanksgiving tradition to measure how their accounts have grown from year to year. But you can go even further by starting to fund an education savings vehicle such as a 529 plan. This account can provide valuable tax benefits and gives you total control of the money until your children are ready for college or trade school. Other education-funding options also are available, such as a custodial account, commonly known as an UGMA or UTMA. If you have grown as generous as possible to your loved ones during your lifetime, you may desire to leave something behind as part of your legacy. And that means you will need to develop a comprehensive estate plan. Such a plan will allow you to express your wishes about where you want your assets to go, who will take care of your children if something happens to you, how you want to be treated should you become incapacitated, and other important issues. Your estate plan will need to include the appropriate doc-

And it's essential

And you can make it a family affair by asking your loved ones which groups they would like to support. Not only will you be helping a worthy cause, but you'll also be teaching your children about the value of money - in this case, the ability to use money you've saved to help make a positive contribution to society.

By sharing your bounty with your loved ones and your community on Thanksgiving, you'll help create a more memorable holiday for everyone. So, be generous, be creative – and be prepared for how much satisfaction you can get from your actions.

No Shave November

CHIEF'S CORNER STEVE

WOJNAR

Many departments, including ours, are participating in "No Shave November" to raise awareness for cancer screenings and early detection. This is the reason you may notice so many hairy cops out on the street. This week, I wanted to stray off the law topics and address a subject which is near and dear to me.

Many of you may recall, back in April of 2014, I was diagnosed with Stage 3 colorectal cancer. I experienced some bleeding and went to see my primary care doctor. He sent me for a colonoscopy as a precaution. That is when the cancer was found. When this happens, life as you know it changes forever for you and your family (who really battle it the same, if not more, than the patient). Thanks to the support of my wife Christine, my family, friends, co-workers, and numerous others, I was not alone in the fight. After two rounds of chemotherapy, radiation treatments, two surgeries, and some great work on behalf of my doctors at Umass, I embarked on the road to recovery. Over the last five years, I have received many questions about my health from so many of you. I greatly appreciate everyone's concern and support. I never have an issue discussing my situation, particularly if it will help someone else. Fortunately, this past week, I received the good news that I crossed the fiveyear mark since my diagnosis, and I am considered cancer free. This was obviously great to hear, and I thought this would be a good opportunity to thank evervone.

I am grateful every day to the staff at UMass Hospital and Dana Farber for all the work they do toward advancing care and treatment for cancer patients and their families. More can be done, and you can certainly do your part. In addition to getting screened, try to do something to raise funding and awareness. We are so fortunate to have some of the best hospitals and doctors here in our backyard. Whatever you can do, certainly makes a difference. As President of the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association last year, I constantly challenged the members to get involved and raise funds. I left them with the thought, "How would you feel if the dollar you raised led to the cure."

Too many of us have faced cancer So many family members, friends, and numerous others have faced this devastating diagnosis and the uncertainty that lies ahead. Our own Officer Jim Rivera has been fighting for over a year and is hopefully on the road to recovery. Family members of our officers are also going through the fight. Some battles have been lost, but many have been won. Early detection is crucial when it comes to cancer. The type I had was slow growing and may have been in my system for ten years before it was discovered. That is key information for anyone with a family history of any type of cancer, or if you have hit the "magic age" and are due for your colonoscopy. If you qualify for either category, get it done. I can honestly say if my primary care doctor did not send me for mine, I would be dead today. Take it from me, the day of discomfort prepping for a test certainly beats the long and painful alternative. If you have been screened already, great job. If you have been putting it off, get your butt in gear (yes pun intended) and do it. It can and will save your life. Thanks once again to everyone who was there for me during a difficult time. Your support and well wishes mean more than you know. I truly realize I am blessed to have a great wife, family, friends, and supporters. I am also fortunate to work in the great Town of Dudley.

Thanks again for your questions and comments. Please send them to me at the Dudley Police Department, 71 West Main St., Dudley, MA 01571 or email at swojnar@dudleypolice.com. # Timely Tips to Cut Home Energy Costs

With cold weather here and fuel prices on the rise, it's time to take a proactive role to cut costs down toward efficient fuel to size. From making your house cozy warm to reducing household hot water use, the following tips are geared usage, which can translate into impressive savings!

Numbers game: It's no secret setting the thermostat lower can reduce home heating fuel use. Here are the numbers According to the Dept of Energy: For every degree you lower the dial, expect to save from 1% to 3% of your heating bill. Better yet, lowering it five degrees for four hours a day can add up to a ten percent savings!

Rising temperatures: While you're turning down the thermostat, why not turn up your internal thermostat to multiply the savings effect? Donning a lightweight, long sleeved shirt averages two degrees of warmth, while putting on a heavy or wool sweater can propel your warmth quota four degrees!

In hot water: Families typically use more hot water in winter months and heating up the water can account for nearly 15 percent of total household energy costs. Lowering the temperature on the hot water heater to 120 degrees can add up to substantial savings throughout the winter. Some manufacturers set water heater thermostats at 140 degrees, while most households only require 120 degrees. According to the U.S. Dept of Energy, each 10 degree reduction in water temperature, you can save between 3 to 5 percent in energy costs. Another benefit? Reducing your water temperature to 120 degrees also slows mineral buildup and corrosion in your water heater and pipes helping the water heater operate at its maximum efficiency to last longer.

Unplugged: The average family has 40 "phantom" or "standby" electronics that sap energy 24/7 as long as they are plugged in. Unplugging these phantom energy users or connecting them to a power strip that can easily be turned off when not in use, saves 10% of a typical family's electricity use.

TAKE THE HINT KAREN

Most moisture: Did you know a humidifier can boost the effect of heat-Moist air retains ing? heat better than dryer air, which translates into lower fuel costs! Laundrylist: Doinglaundry takes its toll on water usage and hot and warm water cycles use more fuel than you might think. Save money by buying a cold water detergent and doing all your laundry in cold water. Typical savings realized by a family of five is up to $250 annually.

Shower switch: Switch out a hot bath for a shower. While a long, hot bath is tempting, remember, it will almost triple your cost over a shower as more water is used and must be heated. To save even more on hot water costs, replace shower heads with low flow models.

Duct work: Studies show if you have non insulated ducts that run through attics, cellars or other unheated spaces, heated air can be reduced by 60% before it reaches the room to be heated! Insulating duct is a cost effective fix. Small leaks in the ducts also allow heated air to escape. The remedy is as simple as applying metallic duct tape or a spray sealant.

Free inspections: It costs nothing to do a vent check, but it can lower heating costs. If you have baseboards, make sure they are fully open and operable. Move any furniture or drapes that could be blocking warm air flow. Vents or baseboards that are even partially blocked result in an unnecessary hike in heating costs.

Shut it up: Did you know leaving your chimney flue open when not in use is the same thing as opening your window several inches? You should also make sure your dryer vent closes properly to keep cold air from coming in.

Air flow: According to the US Dept of Energy, the inexpensive task of changing your furnace air filter monthly or whenever it's dirty permits a better flow of air through your heating system.

Some hints for harvesting deer

THE GREAT OUTDOORS RALPH TRUE

Numerous 200-pound deer were harvested again this past week in the valley by bow hunters, along with other large deer sporting some very impressive antlers. Ground scrapes and tree rubs by bucks were common place this past week. Reports of lost deer because of bad shots were reported this past week, which only supports the passing of a crossbow bill in Massachusetts. Sportsmen and women should contact their State Representatives and State Senators, asking them to support the bill, which will soon be coming up for a vote.

Deer hunters that harvest a deer, and are planning to have the deer mounted for that special room in the house, need to make sure the hide is properly removed from the animal. Too often, deer hunters do not take the necessary steps to skin the deer, and find out too late that the deer was not properly skinned for the taxidermist to mount to their specifications. Taking the time to find a good taxidermist to mount your deer head is very important. Be sure to get the cost of mounting the deer and when you can expect to get your deer back in writing.

Field dressing a deer in the woods is another important task to ensure a good tasting deer. Too often, deer hunters fail to dress the deer properly in the woods. When the deer is prepared on the grill or stove, they find out very quickly that they did something wrong. I often hear someone say they do not like venison, and it is because the deer was not properly dressed in the field, or the deer was not properly processed. Freezer burned venison is also another reason the venison did not taste good.

Packaging your deer meat with a good vacuum packing machine will ensure the meat is as good in a few months, or even a year, if it is done correctly. Hiring a professional butcher to process your deer can cost you $150 or more, but is well worth the price if you are not experienced in processing your deer. Cutting the deer into steaks, roast, hamburg, or sausage can make some great eating throughout the year. Do not forget to share your venison with the farmer or property owner if you are hunting private property. It will go a long way when you return to hunt on their property next year.

Tautog fishing remains strong in both Massachusetts and Rhode Island waters. This week's first picture shows an impressive tautog, caught last week on the Island Current fishing charter boat out of Snug Harbor, R.I. An 11 pound tautog was also caught on the boat this season. You can get more information on the Island Current fishing boat on their Web page at Islandcurrentfish ingcharters.com.

This week's second picture shows an impressive deer harvested a few years ago in Douglas. This massive 14-point deer has left some of his genes behind, and hunters continues to harvest massive deer in the Douglas State forest and surrounding areas.

Pheasant hunting remains strong in the valley, but the season is winding down very fast. Stocking of birds will end next week by Massachusetts Fish & Wildlife crews.

Ice fishing is looking good so far this year, and if we can keep the temperatures low in the coming days, some local ice fishing could be done during the holi-day weekend. Only experienced ice fishing anglers should attempt to walk on first ice. I always felt that two inches of good black ice was safe for a single angler. Constant monitoring of ice thickness needs to be practiced. Ice skating is not recommended until the ice thickness is 4 inches or better.

Have a great Thanksgiving.

COOKING CLASS

continued from page 1 ing of domestic cooks, mothers may no longer have the ability to teach cooking skills to the next generation. A focus on alternative sources including practical cooking skills education starting at an early age is required."

The study was done by Fiona Levelle and others in Ireland, but is probably relevant to the US. They were specifically looking at learning to cook among children, finding "those who learned cooking skills as a child spend more time cooking and are less reliant on convenience food or takeaway.' Cooking was identified by other British research her team cites as "the fifth most important life skill for modern living (the highest non-tech skill).'

'Among adolescents, those involved in food preparation have been shown to have a higher diet quality than those with no involvement in their meal preparation," Levelle's team wrote. "In the adult population increased and/ or improved cooking skills have been shown to improve cooking attitudes, confidence, healthy food choices and dietary outcomes.'

To Klebart, the most notable missing skill he sees is the ability to "put together menus that provide proper nutrition. I think that's true not just of this group, but of many young people." He said he came up with the idea of hosting a class after reading an article on the lack of such skills about a year ago, and got $5.300 from Mapfre to fund it plus three others on finances, job search skills and library services.

He's now pulling together teachers and volunteers for the finance class, which he hopes to begin "by the end of the first quarter" of 2020, with the others coming after that. While the cooking class was limited in size, the others will be larger and open to the public. All of them are free.

"It's been a real opportunity," he said, adding that Head Start was "excited about partnering with us.'

To get it going, he said he had to overcome two hurdles - childcare and language. Head Start solved both of those, by offering a translator and on-site care paid by the grant, while the Friends of the Library provides volunteers who do the dishes and cleanup afterward.

According to the Cooking Matters website, a follow-up study of its program participants in 2014 found participants were "more confident" their abilities, tend to cook healthier meals, eat more vegetables and less salt and fat, and "more confident they can stretch their food dollars." The latter is critical, the site states, since "Families view cost as the primary barrier to healthy eating. ... Eighty-five percent of families skip healthy purchases at the grocery store because of price and fresh produce is passed over most often."

A clogged filter greatly decreases the furnace's efficiency and makes it work harder.

In addition, a clean filter reduces the strain on your furnace, which can extend its life.

Fan folly: During the winter months, use your stove and bathroom fans sparingly, as they remove precious warm air from the room. Obviously, you'll want to use a vent to dispel moisture in the bathroom, but there's usually no need to switch on the vent fan every time you put on the bathroom light. Ditto for a kitchen fan vent. Use it periodically while cooking; do not leave it on constantly unless smoke is an issue.

Pioneers just too powerful for Shepherd Hill in Central Mass. Division 3 Final

Shepherd Hill's Gabe Dos Santos breaks through Patrick Spellane of St. John's tackle.

BY KEN POWERS SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

as it might, Shepherd Hill Regional simply could not slay the dragon.

The dragon being, of course, St. John's High's varsity football team, the Rams' opponent in the Central Mass. Division 3 Tournament championship game, played at historic Doyle Field on Saturday, Nov. 16.

The Pioneers scored on their first eight possessions and captured the title with a convincing 56-21 victory.

win St. With the John's, which lost its first two games, improved to 8-2 and advanced to a Division 3 state semifinal where it played Western Mass. champion Springfield Central High (8-2) at Tantasqua Regional on Friday, Nov. 22 at 6:30 p.m. With the loss Shepherd Hill dropped to 7-3. "I told my guys that this team has a lot to be proud of," Shepherd Hill head coach Ryan Dugan said. "This is the first male sport in the history of the school to play in the highest division in a district championship-type game. We've got a lot of meat still on the bone of this season. We've got an outstanding opponent on Thanksgiving in Tantasqua, so come Monday we're going to get right back to work."

It was the second time this season St. John's defeated Shenherd Hill The Pioneers' fist win over the Rams, back on Oct. 4, was more of a shootout, St. John's winning, 63-52.

After St. John's took a 7-0 lead 12 seconds into the game on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Colin Schofield to Eamonn Dennis, Shepherd Hill came back to tie the game, 7-7, on a 19-yard run by senior Gabe Dos Santos with 6:18 left to play in the first quarter.

It took the Rams three more possessions to score again, senior quarterback Ethan Quinn bulling in from 2 yards out to pare the Pioneers' lead to 28-14 with 4:59 remaining in the first half.

St. John's then scored on its final three possessions of the first half to lead 49-14 at halftime. The Pioneers pushed their lead to 56-14 on the opening possession of the second half, scoring with 9:07 remaining in the third quarter.

At that time, per

Associations (NFHS), the game began to be played with a running clock, meaning the clock did not stop for the remainder of the game for any reason except injury Shepherd Hill closed out the game's scoring on the final play of the third quarter, senior James Labarge scampering in from 7 yards out.

Shepherd Hill, who ran the football more than 50 times, picking up nearly 300 yards in the process, was led by Dos Santos, who gained 91 yards on 14 carries. Sophomore Zach Christenson added 67 yards on eight rushing attempts, while senior Anthony Oriente picked up 56 yards on 14 carries.

The Rams again were forced to play without senior running back Nate Cooper, who was injured earlier in the season. Cooper played defensive back for two plays in the second quarter, but came out of the game after those two plays and did not return.

"We put Nate in for a couple of plays to see if he could go, but he couldn't," Dugan said. "Not having the best player on our team really hurt us."

After the game Dugan was asked what he thought the difference in the game was.

"We're a school of 500 boys playing an all-star team. The MIAA deemed that this is the division we're supposed to be in with 500 boys playing a school of 1,000 boys that's an all-star team," Dugan said. "We can play a school of 1,000 boys, we just beat Wachusett, a school of 1,000 boys. But when you play a school of 1,000 boys that's also an all-star team, it's really hard. "I have nothing against St. John's; they're a fantastic team, but you've got to ask yourself, what are we doing here in Division 3," Dugan continued. "We can be hurt and stung that this is how the game went, but we can't hang our heads. We've got to be excited that this is what we accomplished. When the season's over we're going to come back and look at this and say, 'wow, we accomplished a ton.'

Right now it stings.'

Shepherd Hill seniors sign National Letters-of-Intent on the dotted line

From left, Shepherd Hill Regional seniors Kiley Wong-Li, Skylar Pietz and Emma Sullivan prepare to sign their National Letters-of-Intent. Wong-Li will play softball at Siena College, Pietz lacrosse at Southern New Hampshire at Southern New Hampshire University, and Sullivan will run track & field at Jacksonville University.

BY KEN POWERS SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

DUDLEY — Shepherd Hill Regional seniors Emma Sullivan, Kiley Wong-Li and Skylar Pietz all made their college choices official on Thursday, Nov. 14, each signing a National Letter-of-Intent (NLI) to attend the schools they have selected to continue their academic and athletic careers.

With a Standing Room Only crowd of family, friends, teammates, teachers, staff and administrators packing the school's John F. Canavan Library, Sullivan signed her Division 1 NLI to attend Jacksonville University, where she will participate in Track & Field for the Dolphins.

Wong-Li also signed a Division 1 NLI, choosing to continue her education at Siena College, where she will be a member of the Saints' softball program.

Pietz signed a Division 2 NLI with Southern New Hampshire University (SNHU), where she will continue her lacrosse career under the watchful eye of the school's mascot, Petey Penmen.

A fourth Shepherd Hill senior. Madison Marsh, was scheduled to sign her Division 1 NLI with UMass-Lowell for Track & Field with Sullivan, Wong-Li and Pietz, but Mark Kelley, Shepherd Hill's assistant athletic director, said Marsh was out of town attending a family reunion and could not attend.

Kelley said Marsh will sign her NLI on a later date.

Sullivan was the first to sign her NLI, and after she did so she delivered an inspiring speech about the tremendous impact the Shepherd Hill community has had on her in her time at the Dudley-Oxford Road school.

Sullivan had to stop during her speech several times as her emotions got he best of her, and when she was finished it didn't appear that there was a dry eye in Canavan Library.

Sullivan, who won the Central Mass. Division 1 Cross-Country individual championship on Nov. 9 at Gardner Municipal Golf Course, holds the school record in the 800 (outdoors), the 600 (indoors), and the long jump (outdoors).

In addition, Sullivan was a member of the 1,600-meter relay team that captured the Division 1 state championship last spring, a team that holds the school record in the event both indoors and outdoors. She was also part of the sprint medley relay team that holds the school record both indoors and outdoors, and she has run the fourth-fastest time in school history on the Rams' home cross-country course.

"I just fell in love with Jacksonville when I visited," Sullivan said. "I absolutely love the coaching staff and the school itself has a really cool vibe.' Siena College, located about two hours from Dudley in Loudonville, N.Y., sold Wong-Li with its beautiful campus, excellent coaching staff and friendly student-body.

"The big thing for me is the fact that Siena has a great academic program and is known for its high rate of placing graduates in jobs in their majors after graduation," explained Wong-Li, who said she is thinking about majoring in

In her first three years in the Shepherd Hill softball program, Wong-Li has amassed 80 hits, 17 of those hits being home runs, and driven in 89 runs while putting together a threeyear combined batting average right around .400.

Like Sullivan and Pietz, who both spoke before her, Wong-Li was overcome with tears on several occasions.

"I blame Emma for all the tears," Wong-Li said with a laugh afterward. "She got everybody crying and then Skylar said she wasn't going to cry and then she couldn't stop crying. If I had gone first maybe I wouldn't have cried so much, but by the time it got to me and the two of them were already crying, I couldn't help but cry, too.'

Pietz said she considered many schools before ultimately choosing SNHU, but in the end she knew Southern New Hampshire was where she was meant to spend the next phase of her education.

"I went to other schools for clinics and camps and overnight visits, but no matter where I went, I found myself comparing wherever I was to Southern New Hampshire," said Pietz, who received a lot of interest from many colleges, the most serious inquiries from Wingate, Southern Connecticut and Franklin Pierce, in addition to SNHU.

"The facilities, the field, the professors, the coaches at Southern New Hampshire, I was thinking about all of that when I was at the other colleges I visited," Pietz continued. "Because of that, I knew Southern New Hampshire University was the place for me.

Pietz, in her first three years with the Rams' girls' lacrosse team, has recorded 302 career points, 236 of those points coming on goals. She holds the record for most points (97) and assists (19) in a season. Her freshman year the team was 4-14, last year they were 18-2.

Pietz's bother, Tristan, is a sophomore at SNHU and a member of the men's lacrosse team.

"I was a little iffy at first about going to Southern New Hampshire because of that. 'Do I want to go to the same school my brother goes to?' I asked myself," Pietz said. "But I think it's going to be a good thing, a plus. There are four pairs of siblings on the girls' and the boys' lacrosse teams at Southern New Hampshire, so I think it will be a lot of

Lazo does it all for victorious Pioneers, 43-20 over Bay Path

Bay Path defenders Jomar Torres (8) and Nikko Vitkos combine to tackle Southbridge's Carlos Morales-Miranda

BY KEN POWERS SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

SOUTHBRIDGE — Talk about having a day for yourself.

Ben Lazo did a little bit of everything for the Southbridge High varsity football team in the Pioneers' 43-20 rout of Bay Path Regional at Harry J. McMahon Field on Friday, Nov. 15.

The junior, a starting offensive and defensive tackle, also lined up at fullback on offense and carried the ball five times, gaining 13 yards and scoring a pair of touchdowns on runs of 1 and 2

"We've been joking around with the idea of me going to fullback for a few weeks. Coach [Tony] Santilli told me he had a package of plays for me and we started working on them in practice and it led to [tonight]," Lazo said. "I have to say, though, it wouldn't have happened if it wasn't for my line. It was all my line. I can't take any credit.'

So, the offensive linemen that Lazo usually works with to open holes for the other running backs on the Southbridge team got a chance to open holes for Lazo against Bay Path.

"It's a beautiful cycle," Lazo said with a smile while clutching the game ball. "They love seeing me rumble."

On defense the agile 6-foot-2, 260-pounder recovered a fumble after teammate Max Renaud stripped the ball from Bay Path running back Nikko Vitkos, sacked Minutemen quarterback Michael Keeler twice and recorded nine Lazo now has 102 tackles and 20 quarterback sacks on the season.

"The Lazo family has been haunting me for several years," Bay Path head coach Matt Fall said. "It seems like every time we play Southbridge they've got a kid named Lazo on the team and he ends up being a huge pain in the neck for us."

Southbridge (5-5) dominated the game from start to finish, leading 14-0 after the first quarter, 30-6 at halftime and 37-12 through three quarters.

The Pioneers had several players turn in impressive performances in addition to Lazo.

Senior Alex Torres rushed for a gamehigh 81 yards on 15 carries and scored on a 6-yard run in the second quarter. Sophomore Carlos Morales-Miranda, Torres' backfield mate, gained 43 yards on 10 carries and scored a touchdown at the end of the first half on a 90-yard kickoff return.

On the play, the kickoff from Bay Path got behind Morales-Miranda, who finally tracked it down on his 10-yard line. He started his return in the middle of the field, but cut sharply to his right to elude a pair of Bay Path would-be tacklers. Morales-Miranda then turned another Bay Path player completely around, faking outside and then inside before going outside, getting to the sideline and sprinting the last 70 yards into the end zone.

"Carlos has got some moves," Southbridge head coach Frank Koumanelis said. "He can run."

Pioneers' senior Juan Tula-Rojas gained 62 yards on six carries and scored on a 6-yard run in the third quarter. Southbridge freshman Randy Melendez closed out the scoring with a 1-yard plunge into the end zone with 3:30 remaining.

Southbridge finished with 267 yards of total offense, 226 on the ground, the other 41 coming in the passing game, quarterback John Cortez completing 2 of 3 passes, one a 35-yard gainer to Torres.

"We have a lot of confidence in our ground game. The line is coming together. We played well tonight; I thought we played a complete game," Koumanelis said. "We're looking forward to playing Bartlett on Thanksgiving. I think we're going to do OK.'

Bay Path (2-8) finished the game with 171 yards of total offense. The Minutemen had a pair of extended drives in the first half cut short, the first when Keeler was intercepted by Southbridge's Thomas Dupuis with three minutes remaining in the first quarter, the second on Lazo's fumble recovery with 11 minutes left in the

We had turnovers on back-to-back drives and they turned both of them into quick scores," Fall said. "It's hard to score when the ball is in the other team's possession.'

Junior Tyler Gillespie, who did not play in the first half, finished the game with a team-leading 72 yards on five carries and scored on runs of 11 (in the third quarter) and 62 yards (with less than a minute to play in the game).

Tyler had to sit out the first half because he was called twice for taunting in last week's game [a 36-8 win over Worcester North]," said Fall, who explained the punishment is based on the rules implemented this year by the National Federation of State High School Associations.

Bay Path's other touchdown came in the second quarter on a 9-yard pass from Keeler (4 of 8, 67 yards) to freshman Jonathan Nussey (2 catches, 31 yards).

ALZHEIMER'S SUPPORT: The Webster Alzheimer's Support Group meets the second Monday of each month at Webster Manor, 745 School St., from 6-8 p.m. Anyone in the area who feels they are in need of help, doesn't know what to do, or is a caregiver for someone with Alzheimer's, is invited to attend and express their concerns regarding the care for their loved one. The members of the group will discuss the ways, means, and the help you will need as your loved one progresses in this disease.

NUMISMATICS: Looking for a new hobby? Come learn about the hobby of Coin Collecting. Or maybe you are an old time collector. Our club, the Nipmuc Coin Club, has both. We learn from each other through our monthly guest speakers, show and tell presentations, monthly coin auctions and free attendance prizes. Our group loves to share their knowledge with each other. Each month we have a simple dinner with dessert and refreshments just prior to our meeting, which allows us time to socialize too. Fourth Wednesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. in the Oxford Senior Center located at 323 Main St., the building directly behind Oxford Town Hall. For information contact Dick Lisi at (508) 410-1332 or lisirichard15@yahoo. com.

Meetings at Dudley Senior Center every first and third Monday of the month, 6:30-8 p.m. We spend so much time with our addicted loved one, that we become victims ourselves.

Join us. It's informal, confidential, with tough love advice from the heart, sharing of resources, hope and hugs.

Peer Recovery Center's mission is to provide support and resources to those suffering from addiction and their loved ones. Our newest endeavor is a support group for the family and friends of those suffering from this disease. It is a family and friends illness. The meeting is not affiliated with any other group. It is designed to provide an informal forum for those who are suffering where they can share experiences in a safe, anonymous and supportive place. The gatherings are on Thursday evenings from 7 to 8 p.m. at Opening the Word Peer Recovery Center, 10 Mechanic Street, Webster. If you have any questions, feel free to call Mark at 774-482-6013. We hope to see you there.
