Old Sturbridge Village keeps tradition alive with virtual Gingerbread House Contest

STURBRIDGE — Old Sturbridge Village’s (OSV) annual Gingerbread House Contest is a popular feature of the holiday season at Old Sturbridge Village during their Christmas by Candlelight program. Due to spatial and safety concerns, it is not possible to have the 2020 contest in the same format as previous years. Instead, the Village created a virtual contest to allow those in our community to participate from home.

The contest is open to the public. Gingerbread houses can be created using traditional or non-traditional methods. Gingerbread houses can be any size, any shape, and made of any material. The Village’s Gingerbread House contest is a fun way to bring the holiday season to your home.

Winners will be chosen based on the creativity, execution, and popularity of their entry. The Village will make a special visit to Tradewinds Clubhouse in Southbridge on Dec. 3, Worcester County Sheriff Lew Evangelidis, Member Shirley Blanchette, Unit Coordinator Deb Aikey, Member Gayle Frowein & Member Ross Flowers.

SOUTHBRIDGE — The Sheriff was in town for his Annual Winter Coat Drive on Thursday, Dec. 3. He made a special visit to Southbridge to donate and deliver over one hundred brand new winter jackets, protective masks and warm socks to Tradewinds Clubhouse Program Director Samantha Aikey, Program Coordinator Ashley Lester, Member Jay Malone, Sheriff Lew Evangelidis, Member Shirley Blanchette, Unit Coordinator Deb Aikey, Member Gayle Frowein & Member Ross Flowers.

QCC to offer free healthcare training in the New Year

WORCESTER—Quinnipiac Community College’s Workforce Innovation and Development Education Center (WIDC) is offering free courses to aid in career development. Central Home Health Aide and Administrative Medical Assistant Professional Program courses in 2021.

The free 120-hour Nurse Assistant / Home Health Aide Training program provides students with the necessary theoretical knowledge and practical skills to provide basic nursing assistant care in a home health care setting, facility, or home health care agency. Upon successful completion of the program, students will be eligible to take the Massachusetts Certified Nurse Assistant Competency Exam. A free virtual information session will be held Jan. 5, 2021 via Zoom to learn more. Space is limited. For eligibility requirements or to reserve a seat, contact Katelyn Jones at kjones@qcc.mass.edu. This program is funded through a grant from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Nursing Program, Allina Health, and the Massachusetts Path to Work.

The Administrative Medical Assistant program instructs students for a career as a Medical Assistant and provides proper guidelines of healthcare settings. According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, the projected employment growth rate for Medical Administrative Assistants from 2019 to 2029 is 15 percent more than the 4 percent average growth rate for all occupations. In QCC’s program, students will learn the roles and responsibilities of a healthcare team, interpersonal communication, medical record management and compliance with HIPAA, as well as diagnostic and therapeutic procedures. Students will also include lessons in how to handle medical billing and revenue, and complete the courses, students can also pursue more advanced education. For more information about QCC, contact Josh Marti, Director of Institutional Communications at 508-885-3763 or jmarti@qcc.mass.edu.

First vaccine distribution expected to begin this week at Harrington

We’re working closely with the state to implement the phased distribution of the COVID vaccine in our area over the next several months, and we will continue to communicate to the public about when, where and how these vaccines are available,” said HHC President and CEO Kil Moore. “Vaccinating our staff first will help us ensure a smooth workflow as we work to provide the vaccine to the rest of the community in the coming months. As additional shipments of the vaccine are received at Harrington, our next step will be to vaccinate our health care providers, followed by residents at Harrington home facilities and other healthcare organizations. We will then extend vaccinations to the staff and residents of those communities in the coming months or as the vaccine allows,” Moore said. “In the meantime, we cannot stress enough how important it is to stay away from others outside your household, and wash your hands often. No one tool alone is going to stop this pandemic. We all need to re-commit our efforts in continuing to follow all of the proper guidelines in order to protect ourselves and others.”

For further information on the COVID-19 vaccine, the Massachusetts COVID vaccine distribution plan, and other COVID-19 updates, visit mass.gov/COVID.
Bay State Savings Bank appoints Rachel G. Hall, Assistant VP, Human Resources

WOCESTER — Bay State Savings Bank is proud to announce Rachel G. Hall has been appointed Assistant Vice President of Human Resources. Hall will be responsible for the oversight of the Bank’s human resource department including salary and benefits administration, employee relations, recruitment, and training.

Prior to joining Bay State Savings Bank, Ms. Hall was employed by the New England Children for Children where she served as a Director of Human Resources. Hall holds an MBA from Assumption University and is certified SHRM-SCP from the Society of Human Resource Management.

“Rachel joins Bay State Savings Bank with valuable experience in the Human Resources field, particularly in employee benefits, that will be an asset to us and our employees,” said Bay State Savings Bank Senior Vice President, Diane Giampa. “The experience she has will also help us in repositioning our staff so that customer expectations can continue to not only be met, but exceeded. We are so happy to welcome Rachel to our team!”

Rachel Hall

Ms. Hall volunteers at various venues in the community geared towards children and looks forward to continuing her volunteer work as soon as the pandemic is behind us. She currently lives in Whitinsville.

Police seek identities of suspects in recent thefts

STURBRIDGE — Police are asking for the public’s help in identifying a pair of jewelry suspects.

The Dec. 11 incident occurred at the Goodrich Insurance Agency at 28 Franklin St. The crime took place approximately 2:30 p.m. A witness was able to take a photo of the vehicle the suspects left in, which was waiting outside the store with an unknown operator.

The suspects left in a possibly a Ford or Lincoln SUV with a Connecticut license plate. Security camera images of the suspects are available on the SPD’s Facebook page.

If you have any information on the incident, please contact the Sturbridge Police Department at (508) 347-2325.

Who Can Adopt?

Can you provide the guidance, love and stability that a child needs? If you’re at least 18 years old, have a stable source of income, and room in your heart, you may be a perfect match to adopt a waiting child. Adoptive parents can help the child feel safe and secure.

The sooner you call, the sooner a waiting child will have a permanent place to call home.

How Do You Adopt?

QCC’s credit for prior learning program makes college more affordable

WORCESTER — At Quinsigamond Community College, students are attaining their dreams for a college education or re-education in less time through the Credit for Prior Learning. By earning credit for life experience, students can save time earning their degrees, as well as realize significant savings over QCC’s already affordable tuition.

In 2020, 1,472 credits were awarded to 310 students. In 2019, 1,272 credits were awarded to 226 students. QCC’s Career Services and Credit for Prior Learning program works with students to assist them in translating their life experiences into college credits. Students may earn college credit for acquired life experiences in a variety of ways that include taking a challenge exam, earning portfolio assessments or Industry-Recognized Certifications, or using credentials from credentialing of prior learning, of which he said, “I can’t say I wasn’t tempted to use all applicable credits for a general degree. He said, “I plan to graduate from QCC in Fall 2021 and then work to find the best job I can.”

“Credit for Prior Learning is a great way for students to take advantage of the knowledge they’ve gained over the years and have it pay off in a lucrative way. We always promoted and was sold on it.”

To learn more, visit Credit for Prior Learning website (www.qcc.mass.edu/cfp/credit-prior-learning). For more information about QCC, contact Josh Martin, Director of Institutional Communications at 508-595-3931 or jmartin@qcc.mass.edu.

The holidays are already in full swing, as evidenced by the usual retail buzz and reports that symptoms of anxiety and depression have increased compared to pre-COVID-19 rates and seasons.

Read on for a variety of natural ways to help you manage stress and the holidays with good cheer.

Note: Consult with your health care provider before taking any new habit.

Meditation practice: Meditation can aid you in reducing stress and can help you refocus your thoughts. Practicing mindfulness can help you keep your mind from racing, allowing you to relax.

Carbs are calming: Complex carbohy- drates, whole grains and starch foods can nourish your brain, a powerful neuromodulator, and calm you down and is beneficial in reduc- ing cortisol and managing stress-related disorders. Studies also show that complex carbohydrates can help relax anxiety and help light sleep.

Mindful breathing: Inhale and exhale slowly and deeply, focusing on your breath. This is one of the most effective ways to reduce stress.

Coping strategies: Try implementing coping strategies to help you manage stress. These can include talking to a friend or family member, writing down your thoughts, or engaging in physical activity.

If you are feeling overwhelmed, reach out to those who have conquered anxiety and irritability. It is also important to identify problem-solving strategies and to see it fast. One way is to make a list of what needs to be done, prioritize it, and set time limits. This can help you feel more in control and less anxious.

Coping with stress during the holidays:

1. Start a new habit:
   a. The holidays are a great time to try a new health habit. Many people think of weight loss when considering new habits, but there are many other health habits you can try, such as exercise, meditation, or eating healthier.
   b. By taking a leap that is too big, you can feel overwhelmed and may lose motivation. Start small and build up to larger goals and will also give you a sense of accomplishment.

2. Use a SMART approach:
   a. Pick a goal that is achievable.
   b. Pick a goal that is relevant and time-bound.
   c. Pick a goal that is specific and measurable.
   d. Pick a goal that is easy to obtain.

3. Use a SMART goal:
   a. Pick a goal that is relevant and time-bound.
   b. Pick a goal that is specific and measurable.
   c. Pick a goal that is easy to obtain.

4. Use a SMART goal:

SOUTHBOROUGH – Last week, Southborough joined a growing list of communities by announcing plans for a short list of communities who began using a local emergency dispensing site for the COVID-19 vaccine rollout is starting giving the first of two doses to first responders at the Community Center.

According to Fire Chief Paul Normandin, the town got a little less than 10,000 doses of the Pfizer vaccine, an amount that won’t cover all the people in that group. But he noted there is no mandate to take it, as there is no vaccine for needed. The Department of Public Health’s online guidelines, there is no mandate to take it, so there is a lot of flexibility.

Under the state Department of Public Health’s online guidelines, the actual list for Phase 1 is longer. It specifies the priority order as being: healthcare workers directly working with or exposed to Covid patients; police, fire and EMS crews; long-term care facilities, retail homes and assisted living facilities; congregate care settings (including congregate care for the developmentally disabled); and public health workers and health care professionals doing non-COVID care.

This phase is estimated to run through February.

In Phase 2, the priority order is people with 2+ comorbidities (high risk for COVID-19 complications), education, transit, grocery, utility, food and agriculture, sanitation, public works and public health workers, Adults 65+, and “individuals with one comorbidity.” In medical-speak, “comorbidity” simply means any chronic illness or physical condition. That phase is slated to run through April.

In Phase 3, the vaccine becomes available to everyone age 16 and older, 30 days after the end of Phase 2.

It is possible to create a festive holiday centerpiece crafted from materials found in winter gardens.

Walter R. Snyder, Jr., 89

CHARLTON - Robert H. Paulhus, 97, of Masonic Home Rd., formerly of Fall River, passed away on Monday, Dec. 28, in the Overlook Masonic Health Center, Charlton, after a long illness. His beloved wife of 69 years, Shirley J. Paulhus, passed away in March of this year. Their only child, Robert Paulhus Jr., passed away in 2012. He was the son of Leo and Adrienne (Desrosiers) Paulhus. He honorably served in the US Navy during WWII. Robert graduated from the Overlook Masonic Home Rd., Charlton, MA 01507.

Robert worked for 38 years as a setup technician for 10 years before retiring in 1981. He was a member of the Quarter Century Club at the American Optical Company. Robert was a life member of the American War Veterans. Robert was a member of the Overlook Masonic Home Rd., Hampton Beach and Cape Cod. Robert loved golf and was a skilled avid fan.

The family would like to thank the staff of the Overlook for the wonderful care and compassion they gave to Robert.

Funeral Mass will be held Saturday, Dec. 19th, at 10 a.m. at St. Ann's Church, 90 Church St., Charlton. A Calling hour will be held on Saturday, Dec. 19th, in the Denis Y. Morris Funeral Home, 15 Hamilton St., Southbridge, from 3:00 to 9:00 prior to the Mass. Burial in Oak Ridge Cemetery will be private and held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers donations may be sent to the Overlook Masonic Home Rd., Charlton, MA 01507.

Burial in Oak Ridge Cemetery will be private and held at a later date.

For I'm spending Christmas with Jesus this year.

But I am not so far away, we really aren't apart.

For it's beyond description to hear the angels sing.

Remember I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

Please love and keep each other with Jesus Christ this year.

My First Christmas in Heaven

My First Christmas in Heaven

I hear the many Christmas songs that people hold so dear,

And I feel in my heart the love that you're near,

And I find the joy of Christmas as the song goes on,

And the day that Jesus was born.

And I know the joy of Christmas in my heart today,

And I know the joy of Christmas in my heart.

My First Christmas in Heaven

great to support children and family programs in the region. The project is a requirement of the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA). The $2.8 million project is being funded through the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA). Over the next year, MassDOT crews will begin the transition to reflect the exit numbering changes. Local businesses and organizations are encouraged to make updates as well, including featuring travel information and other mate- rials.

"Businesses that reference exist- ing numbers in their advertising or marketing must revise those materials," read a news release from the MassDOT. "Old exit signs will remain in place for a minimum of two years, giving businesses time to adjust to the new exit numbers during this transition period."

Several public meetings and virtu- al events were held throughout the state over the past two weeks to provide residents with additional information on the project. The MassDOT will continue the renumbering project throughout the winter and spring.

For more information on the new exit numbering system, as well as a list of local highways and exit num- bers, visit www.NewMassExits.com.

The DPH guidance also provided tips for those planning to celebrate or attend celebrations and traditions this holiday season, while discouraging high-risk activities.

"Any time you gather with others outside of your household, you should adhere to the guidelines for limiting exposure and practicing social distancing. You must also wear a mask, maintain a six-foot distance, practice good hygiene, and wash your hands frequently. This is especially important during the holiday season, when we see a rise in cases and hospitalizations."

All residents are reminded to con- tinue following COVID-19 guidelines, including practicing social distancing. You must also wear a mask, maintain a six-foot distance, practice good hygiene, and wash your hands frequently. This is especially important during the holiday season, when we see a rise in cases and hospitalizations.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you’ll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you sacrifice your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

SUDOKU

Here’s How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
