Local garden club hosts special guest

BY KIM PALMUCCI
TRIBUNE CORRESPONDENT

During its recent December meeting, the Blackstone Valley Garden Club welcomed Henry Schmidt, senior horticultural designer at Weston Nurseries, who discussed with the group ideas for holiday decorating.

Schmidt visits the Club each December, and has for many years, said Carolyn Voss, Treasurer of the Blackstone Valley Gardeners. Although he has many years of experience, he enjoys keeping up with modern trends in decorating with natural plant materials and loves sharing his expertise. His creations were raffled off at the end of the presentation.

“He does a wonderful job of demonstrating his skills at decorating greens, and sharing his amazing knowledge and talent,” said Voss, adding that other speakers have also attended group meetings to demonstrate seasonal décor.

The Club was started by Ann Hanscom, Barbara Hall, and Barbara Gaudette in 1993, and recently celebrated its 25th anniversary. It was decided at the inception of the Club that they would not become a member of the Garden Club Federation, said Voss.

“We are a multi-community garden club for gardening enthusiasts and felt we would have more flexibility and choices not being participants in the Federation,” she said.

Members live in nearly all towns in the Blackstone Valley, and the focus is learning to be more

Santa visits local farm for the holidays

BY KIM PALMUCCI
Tribune Correspondent

DOUGLAS — There was a holly, jolly, holiday visit to the area recently, as Santa stopped by to visit the Douglas Orchard & Farm in Douglas.

The two-day event included a holiday open house at the farm with hot mulled cider and holiday cookies, holiday shopping with unique gifts at the country store, and visits and photos with St. Nick.

Douglas Orchard & Farm Store Manager and Owner Patty Socrat said the event was a huge success, with a total of 50 families and more than 75 local children telling Santa their Christmas wishes.

“Parents were happy there was somewhere local to bring their children. There was magic in the air as families exited after seeing Santa,” Socrat said. “Making a holiday ornament along with free hot mulled cider and cookies was an added extra surprise, which the families were thankful for...The fact that the event was free got a positive response.”

Socrat said the farm owners and operators felt happy to offer this special time for the local community.

“We worked hard making Santa’s home away from the North Pole look magical. The benefit from this free event was giving back to the community for their support of the farm,” she said, adding that members of the community are welcome to visit the farm whenever they

Miles above the rest in helping young adults

LIFE COACH HELPS YOUNG ADULTS GROW AND DEVELOP THEIR MINDSET & SELF-CONFIDENCE

WOONSOCKET, R.I. — Everyone has a story to tell, and Miles Vinciguerra is no exception. His path to where he is today took many curves and hairpin turns until one event stopped him dead in its tracks. What he did to address those issues made him understand the value of life and what people can offer.

He truly believes that what makes him stronger is his will to learn, admit mistakes and what he did to not only tackle the problems head-on but to also show others—particularly younger, impressionable clients—that there are better alternatives to meeting their goals in life.

Vinciguerra, who meets clients either by telephone, video conference call or face-to-face, works with clients throughout Massachusetts and Rhode Island. He notices how his clients transition into the workforce and adulthood, and how coaching helps them discover the next phase in their lives. He added that coaching also aids clients overcome issues ranging from anxiety, depression and worrying while helping them grow and develop their mindset and self-confidence.

“I wasn’t a very good student in high school, and getting into trouble while I was there didn’t help matters any,” he said. “There wasn’t a lot of

Blackstone Valley Polar Express train brings festive trips to the area

BY KIM PALMUCCI
TRIBUNE CORRESPONDENT

UXBRIDGE — During the holiday season, Santa’s home was just a train ride away for Uxbridge residents, as the town’s very own “North Pole” site served as a stop for the festive Blackstone Valley Polar Express train.

These popular family fun rides operated from the historic Train Depot in Woonsocket, R.I., and pulled into a festively decorated North Pole in Uxbridge, where Santa greeted train ride guests.

“This is the third year our family has gone to the Blackstone Valley Polar Express, and it is like no other,” said Jenn Reale, who took the trip again this year with her family. “From the moment you walk through the doors, you are transformed into the magic that is Polar Express.”

The train rides offered great visuals of the Blackstone Valley, with families and children of all backgrounds experiencing fun happenings celebrating the holiday season.

“Everyone from the Blackstone Valley adds to this excitement and magic that can make even the biggest skeptic believe. From the cookies, hot cocoa, sing-a-longs, and bingo, we love it all and can’t wait to go back again,” Reale added.

New exhibit opens at Spaulding R. Aldrich Heritage Gallery

WHITINSVILLE — “An Eclectic Mix,” a new exhibit featuring four local artists, will open with an artists’ reception from 5 to 7:30 p.m. on Jan. 18 at the Spaulding R. Aldrich Heritage Gallery, The Whittin Mill, 50 Douglas Rd., Whitinsville. The exhibit begins with sculpture, photography and paintings inside the Gallery and spills outside onto the Dennis H. Rice Community Plaza with additional sculptures.

Sam Tomasiello’s whimsical, dynamic imagery commands your attention and his simple, poetic style makes you smile. His work is carried by DMB Design, has been featured in a juried show at Arts Worcester and is on permanent display at the CANDO Clinic at UMass Medical Center.

Al Weems’ black and white photographs have been winning awards in the Blackstone Valley and beyond for years. This exhibit includes his new color photographs as well as some of his award-winning black and white photos printed on aluminum.

Jim Henderson’s wood tree sculptures, which are on display inside the gallery, are part of a series he started in the late 1990s. He then used these pieces as forms to create an aluminum tree (shown inside the gallery) and three bronze trees, which are currently installed on the Community Plaza. The exhibit also includes some of Jim’s smaller work and forms which illustrate how his bronze work is created.

“Distant” and “Pitcher,” two of Philip Marshall’s new steel and pigment sculpture are also on display on the Community Plaza. Philip will also share some of his drawings and inspiration for his sculpture work inside the gallery.

Come meet these four talented artists and speak to them about their processes and what inspires them to create their beautiful artwork.

This exhibit ends March 1. Regular gallery hours are Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., weekends and evenings by special appointment. Call 234-6232 or visit openskyks.org/news-events for more information.

are open to explore, see the animals, learn about how the farm runs, and learn all the benefits of farming local.

Ariana White attended with her six-year-old son, Jackson, and one-year-old Ella Rose, who both enjoyed their time with Santa.

“It was an intimate and homey experience,” White said. “They added to the experience with cookies and a craft. We would go again.”

Time was also reserved for children with special needs to visit with Santa at the farm, said Socrat. Some children with sensory concerns and/or over stimulation do better in a setting away from large crowds.

“We were happy to make special accommodations for this group,” Socrat said. “Many parents were so happy stating that this was the first time they ever got to get their child to interact with Santa and a photo with him. Most parents said that when they had gone to the malls to see Santa the lines and crowds were too much for their children.”

Established in 2016, the Douglas Farm & Orchard is open year round and offers a pick your own blueberry and apple orchard, produces a wide variety of no spray vegetables, herbs and shiitake mushrooms, and has a Country Store where they sell organic chicken and duck eggs, farm raised pork, lamb, chicken, locally sourced beef, raw honey, maple syrup, jams, alpaca socks/dryer balls, and many locally made artisan crafts. The group planned and installed the garden at Tri-River Health Center in Uxbridge, and have helped other organizations in the area with community improvement projects, said Voss.

“We also donate funds to local libraries in the area for them to purchase passes to Tower Hill Botanical Gardens for their patrons. We organize and hold a plant sale each spring, with plants dug from our own gardens,” she said, adding that this sale will be held in Upton next May.

structure to my day or subjects that I was interested in pursuing. It was a detriment being there because there was little I could see myself gaining from being in class.”

After he graduated high school, Vinciguerra went to work as a landscaper. He founded Miles of LandCare, Inc., in 2012. His foray into the business world started slow as he recalled, gradually building through “word-of-mouth” advertising and his attention to detail, outstanding customer service and taking the time to learn about each customer as if they were an extended family.

Because of those core values, Vinciguerra’s business grew to more than 100 clients. He lived the life he wanted—at least that was what he thought—until a decision completely changed his direction and career path.

“I was working some crazy hours back then, maybe 16-18 hour days, seven days a week,” Vinciguerra recalled. “There wasn’t a suitable outlet for me to just let loose or even wind down. I could not let my customers down; they depended on me to make their properties look great. To ensure that I could adequately service them; I made some bad choice to keep myself going. That ‘plan’ worked well initially. I addressed everyone’s needs and there were no complaints from my customers or the people who depended on me.

“My decision caught up with me,” he continues. “I was coming home after another long day of work, fell asleep at the wheel and hit a tree. Nobody was injured, but my truck was severely damaged. I had to look in the mirror to see who I was and what I wanted to do. I learned the hard way that my direction in life took me down a destructive path. I understood the hard way that if I didn’t change my habits, my situation could become much, much worse.”

After the accident, Vinciguerra attended a coaching school and started his own coaching school in August 2018 to help young adults overcome their personal issues and inspire others to make conscious decisions. That same month, Vinciguerra formed “Coach Miles V” as an outlet for young adults to talk about their situation in a non-judgmental format. It would become a way for people to open up about their hopes, dreams, struggles and fears with someone who has been down that dark road, he said.

Since his company formed, he seeks to speak at area schools to inspire and motivate others with his story.

“I truly believe in coaching. It’s a solution-focused process that helps y clients achieve their goals specific to their agenda. It’s non-judgmental, a space to be your authentic self, coach-

The truth behind some lunar legends

Is there any truth to the old legends inspired by the sight of the full moon? Does our closest celestial neighbor actually exert enough influence on the human body to turn people into lunatics? We're not so sure, but science has much to offer on the topic. With the latest full moon coinciding with Christmas — for the first time since 1977 — our curiosity on the subject was piqued, so we set out to investigate some of these lunar legends.

Some people claim that they become inexplicably moody for a few days whenever the moon enters its full phase, or have trouble sleeping. Some say they experience breakouts on their skin or other aches and pains that affect the joints. Typically, when people are observed acting slightly less than normal, you will hear the phrase “it must be the full moon.”

Logic would seem to dictate that since the tides are higher during the full moon phase due to the pull of gravity, our bodies, which are made up of 80 percent water, would experience similar effects. Such does not appear to be the case, however. According to experts, the gravitational influence exerted on the human body by the cup of morning coffee you hold in your hand at this very moment is thousands of times stronger than any such force exerted on us by the moon. So much for that.

Some myths claim that the full moon can incite epileptic seizures in people; however, a study in 2004 showed no such connection.

As far as the age-old tales of psychotic outbursts coinciding with periods of the full moon, one study in 2014 showed an increase of emergency room visits within 24 hours of the full moon; however, a study in 1996 showed no significant difference. The term ‘lunatic’ is derived from the word ‘Luna,’ the name of the ancient Roman goddess. Aristotle and Hippocrates once implied they thought the moon was at fault for abnormal behavior. Alas, that also does not appear to be the case if the scientific evidence gathered on the topic is to be believed.

Worthy of note is a study that took place in Colorado, where researchers found that the risk for pet injuries increased by 23 percent during the full moon phase. We have proof that animals behave differently during the full moon, in that the increased nocturnal light affects their hunting habits.

As for sleep deprivation, we all know that before modern times, the moon provided light during the nighttime hours. During the full moon, the increased amount of light was said to have wreaked havoc on those with bipolar or seizure disorders. Many people say they have trouble sleeping during a full moon; however, no studies have indicated a scientific correlation as of yet.

As far as myths go, the claim that a full moon increases fertility and births is as old as time. The truth, however, is that fertility methods based on moon phases have proven as inconclusive as the evidence for gravitational pull influencing human behavior.

February is the only month that may not experience a full moon because each full moon appears every 29.5 days. A super-moon takes place when a full moon coincides with the moon’s closest approach to earth. The last time we witnessed a super-moon was in 2015. The next one will occur in 2033. Some say that the full moon is an unlucky sign if it happens on a Sunday. Interesting to note is that the word ‘Monday’ is derived from the Old English word ‘Monandaeg,’ which means ‘moon day.’ Another fun fact is that on March 28, the Royal Air force used the light from a full moon to attack Lubeck in Germany during WWII.

When there are two full moons in one month, the second one is called a ‘blue moon.’ This occurrence takes place every three years. A red moon happens when the full moon phase occurs during the same time as a lunar eclipse.

The man on the moon that we often see during a full moon is nothing more than a trick of the light playing across dark areas called basaltic plains, which contrast with the lighter colored highlands of the moon’s surface. Interesting is that between 1765 and 1813, the Lunar Society of Birmingham, England met during the full moon

Opinion and commentary from the Blackstone Valley and beyond

Deer season comes to a close

2018 was a great year for sportsmen in the valley, and many hunting and fishing activities were reported by this writer in my weekly column . Unfortunately, the politicians and Mass. Division of Fish & Wildlife failed to get a crossbow and Sunday hunting bill passed, but the sportsmen will try again this year.

Ice fishing the past couple of weeks was spotty, and when the rain came it stopped all ice fishing activities locally. Ice fishing champ Dan Southwick managed to get in a few days of ice fishing at one of his hot spots as shown in this weeks picture. The pike weighed in at 21 pounds, 14 ounces. Dan releases all of his fish to be caught another day. A few local club ponds had safe ice for a few days which allowed my brother Ken and others to catch a few trout before the ice disappeared. Anglers are hoping for a good freeze soon so that they can do some ice fishing, but the latest report of warm weather in the near future is not good. In the past few years ice fishing on some of the Cape ponds was also minimal.

The last segment of the Mass. deer season ended on Monday, Dec. 31, in Massachusetts. There did not seem to be much participation by local deer hunters during the black powder season, but I am sure some impressive deer were harvested . Very little information by Mass. Fish & Wildlife on the deer harvest was released, and local sportsmen are waiting for the final numbers to be released to the press. The new registration system of harvested deer is great, but it does stop writers from releasing the harvest numbers until the new year when they become available. Many reports of deer eating back yard plantings like strawberries and ornamental bushes is a daily conversation among residents at local coffee shops. You have not seen nothing yet! With very little food for deer in the woods, they will be feeding in local back yards all winter long.

Coyotes and beavers have become a daily nuisance, and reports by local resident about there encounters will continue for many years. Coyotes are here to stay, and have killed numerous family pets this year. Beaver continue to devastate local rivers and streams, flooding out private property. The destruction of trees along the river banks needs to be stopped. As I stated in previous columns, trapping needs to be brought back to Massachusetts. The little bit of trapping allowed by local towns annually will never solve the problem. Even the few beaver that are trapped, are killed, as relocation of the buck teeth tree choppers are not possible.

Residents need to make a decision to allow beavers to endanger the lives of humans or take action to preserve our natural forest and rivers and streams. Beavers also carry a disease that is transmitted to family pets and humans themselves. Diseases that can be transmitted to humans include the plague, leptospirosis, to mention a couple and can cause sever complications like swollen glands, rash , and flu like symptoms. Very few physicians are aware of the diseases, and often fail to administer the proper medications. Lyme disease is finally being recognized by physicians, which for many years was overlooked and properly diagnosed for patients Common sense and control of all wildlife is needed to ensure the public’s safety.

This past week, a segment of the “60 Minutes” program was addressing the plastics problem in our country, as well as global warming. We need our politicians to wake up and address the problem soon.Our ocean is so polluted with plastics that reversing the problem will take many years. Fish and wildlife are dying from ingesting plastic. Global warming is real even though our President does not believe it. Tornados, hurricanes, massive fires, and many other major weather related problems are not normal. Melting of glaciers and weather changes are real. Our children and future generations are being left with major problems, that will impact there lives with disease and suffering! We can do a lot better!

Creative Multipurpose
Tips Save Money

Saving money is tops on many New Year Resolutions lists, and one of the easiest ways to pinch pennies is to get the most use out of the products you buy. Thanks to some creative repurposing, many ordinary items can do double duty all around the house. Read on for some unusual uses for everyday things.

And remember, readers, send in your best tips and you’ll be in the running to win a three course Dinner for Two at the Publick House!

Bamboo Skewers: Not just for shish kabob or fruit arrangements, a package of inexpensive wooden skewers come in handy! Use them to test the doneness of cakes; to easily turn doughnuts and other foods when deep frying; and insert into cake layers to invisibly stabilize a crooked confection.

Wooden skewers are also useful in the workshop. To camouflage a narrow nail hole, dip the end of a skewer in white glue, push it into the wall, break it off and paint over.

The most creative use of all? I once caught my niece using one of the wooden sticks as a hands-free Oreo dipper. She just stabbed the middle cream and dunked the whole cookie into milk!

***

Aluminum Foil: Hate to iron? Place a sheet of tinfoil under the ironing board cover (above the foam but below the cloth) to boost the heat of the iron and get the job done more efficiently and quickly!

Run out of steel wool pads? Crumple up a ball of tinfoil and use to clean pans (not non-stick).

And sharpening dull scissors is as simple as making several cuts through a double layer of aluminum foil!

***

Vodka: Is your potpourri losing its scent? Toss in a capful of vodka and mix it up to renew fragrance in the dried flower mix. Want your fresh flowers to last a bit longer? Simply add a few drops of vodka along with a teaspoon of sugar to the water in the vase. The vodka kills bacteria, extending the life of the blooms.

And you can whip up an effective air freshener with vodka.

To do: In a spray bottle, mix together six ounces water (distilled if possible), one ounce of vodka, and your choice of essential oil (about 20-30 drops). Shake up and spray!

***

Dental Floss: Hanging a picture and don’t have any wire? Doubled up dental floss is strong enough to substitute on lightweight pictures; Are photos stuck together? Instead of pulling apart, lessen the risk of damage by gently shimmying the floss between the photos to pry them off. Swaging holiday greenery? Green mint dental floss serves as a strong (and invisible) tie to wind around garlands to hang down stairways or along a mantle. And unflavored dental floss can also be used to truss a turkey.

Dental floss even works as a quick fix to restrng beaded jewelry. And if you happen to snap your fishing line, a length of dental floss can serve as a temporary substitute.

***

Here are some additional multipurpose ideas:

- Have extra roof shingles? Stow a few in your trunk during winter weather. If you get stuck, wedge the shingle under the tire for traction.

- For a quick and inexpensive car air freshener, simply place a few drops of essential oil on a cotton ball and put in your car’s open console niche (or ash-tray) to discreetly refresh the whole car.

- Save plastic newspaper sleeves The long bags are the ideal size and shape to protect shoes from other clothing when packing a suitcase.

- Wet boots from winter weather? Take a tip from the past: Stuff newspaper inside your shoes and they’ll dry out faster.

- Newspaper also works to prevent odors in thermos bottles between uses. Just pack crumpled newspaper into the bottle before closing to store.

- Stuff Styrofoam packing peanuts into a bean bag chair to puff it back up with-

Consider some New Year’s financial
resolutions

JEFF
BURDICK

As the year winds down, you may want to look ahead to see which areas of your life you can improve in 2019. Perhaps you’ll decide to exercise more, eat healthier foods, reconnect with old friends or volunteer at a school or charitable organization. All these goals are certainly worthwhile – but you also may want to add some New Year’s financial resolutions to your list.

Here are a few ideas to consider: Boost contributions to your employer-sponsored retirement plan. Good news! Contribution limits will be increasing for many employer-sponsored retirement plans. For 2019, you can contribute up to $19,000 (up from $18,500 in 2018), or $25,000 (up from $24,500 in 2018) if you’re 50 or older to your 401(k) or similar employer-sponsored retirement plan. It’s usually a good idea to contribute as much as you can afford to your employer’s plan, as your contributions may lower your taxable income, while any earnings growth is tax-deferred. (Keep in mind that taxes are due upon withdrawal, and withdrawals prior to age 59 and a half may be subject to a 10% IRS penalty.)

At a minimum, put in enough to earn your employer’s matching contribution, if one is offered.

Try to “max out” on your IRA. Even if you have a 401(k) or similar plan, you can probably still invest in an IRA. For 2019, you can put in up to $6,000 in a traditional or Roth IRA (up from $5,500 in 2018), or $7,000 (up from $6,500) if you’re 50 or older. (Income restrictions apply to Roth IRAs.) Contributions to a traditional IRA may be tax-deductible, depending on your income, and any earnings growth is tax-deferred. Roth IRA contributions are not deductible, but earnings growth can be withdrawn tax-free, provided you don’t start taking withdrawals until you are 59 ½ and you’ve had your account at least five years. You can put most types of investments – stocks, bonds, mutual funds, government securities and so on – into an IRA, so it can expand your options beyond those offered in your 401(k) or similar plan.

Build an emergency fund. Try to build an emergency fund containing three to six months’ worth of living expenses, with the money held in a low-risk, liquid account. This fund can help you avoid dipping in to your long-term investments to pay for unexpected costs, such as a major car repair.

Control your debts. Do what you can to keep your debts under control. Ultimately, the less you have to spend on debt payments, the more you can invest for your future.

Don’t overreact to financial market volatility. In 2018 – especially the last few months of the year – we saw considerable market volatility, with huge drops and big gains in rapid succession. What will 2019 bring? It’s always difficult – and usually futile – trying to forecast the market’s performance over the course of an entire year. But, in any case, try not to overreact to whatever ups and downs we may experience. Instead, continue pursuing an investment strategy that’s appropriate for your goals, risk tolerance and time horizon.

Following these suggestions can help you become a better investor in 2019 – and beyond.

Rams top improving Bartlett to remain unbeaten

BY NICK ETHIER
SPORTS STAFF WRITER

WEBSTER — Not always can both teams walk away with positives following an 18-point game — a game that the Northbridge High girls’ varsity hoopsters defeated Bartlett High, 62-44 — but that was the case for both the Rams and Indians on Thursday, Dec. 20.

Northbridge grabbed the victory (improving to 4-0 in the process), saw a high number of student-athletes score (nine) and witnessed a sophomore continue to shine on her way to potential stardom (Hannah Lomonaco). Bartlett, meanwhile, played the game evenly after falling behind by a 17-0 count and battled until the final buzzer, winning the final quarter (17-7).

“We try to make sure that there isn’t one person you can key on,” said Matt Gauthier, head coach of the Rams, when being told that six Northbridge players registered points in the opening frame, which they won, 17-2. “Everybody who steps onto that court has to make themselves a threat.”

Lomonaco was certainly the biggest threat, opening the scoring with a pair of fast break layups to make it 4-0 before finishing with a game-high 20 points.

“She had a few games where she could not hit a layup, I’m not kidding you,” said Gauthier of Lomonaco. “I thought it was getting a little bit mental so we just worked on it in practice and my assistant coach [Jami Flauto] talked to her a little bit and clearly you can see the difference tonight, I don’t think she missed a layup.

“She is about as fast as they come,” added Gauthier of Lomonaco’s speed once she gets going in the open court.

Gauthier wasn’t crazy about his team’s defense, though, because they surrendered a season-high number of points. The Rams’ goal is to keep teams at 30 points.

“I’m happy with the win, we’re sitting at 4-0 so I’m never going to complain, but inconsistent with our defense,” he said. “There was times when we were playing phenomenal defense, which is what I expect, and then there was times where I didn’t think our defense was up to what it should be.”

The second quarter is where Northbridge’s defense began to dip, but it’s also when Bartlett’s offense got into a groove — “I give Bartlett credit, they started hitting some 3’s and that changes things a little bit,” said Gauthier — as the Indians won the frame, 18-14. Bartlett hit three 3-pointers in the quarter off the releases of Camden Heenan, Kayla Berthiaume and Breanna Ward.

Bartlett trailed by just 11 points at halftime, 31-20, but Lomonaco scored seven points in the third as the Rams won the frame, 24-7, to regain a big lead, 55-27, heading into the fourth.

The Indians never hung their heads, though, and kept battling. That showed in the fourth quarter as they won it by 10 points and Berthiaume led the charge with 11 points in the frame.

“Take away that little stretch in the third quarter and this is essentially a 10-point game. The effort that they showed to dig out of that early hole... I’ve coached teams in the past that just would have curled up and that would have been over for the rest of the night,” said Bartlett first-year head coach Anthony Pukalo. “That’s a testament to what I’ve tried to bring to this program is that we have no quit in us and Kayla [Berthiaume] really encapsulates that. She’s a hell of a player and she has so much potential. She’s my spark off the bench.”

Berthiaume finished with 18 points, while teammate Allison Grzembksi scored 9 points and pulled down 7 rebounds.

Pukalo’s team is now 1-4, but he said that the group is growing into its potential each day.

“We got the first brick in the wall on Tuesday [Dec. 18] with the win [versus North Brookfield High], and then put together the stretches we had today and this is a team that’s trending in the right direction. Every little piece is a brick in the wall,” said Pukalo.

Northbridge — who also saw Madison Boormeester net 14 points, Jackie Puda score 8 and Jill Labrie add 7 — already has many bricks in its wall, and Pukalo had high praise for the Rams.

“The way that they play man-to-man defense, you really don’t see that at the girls’ level. To see a girls’ program, JV and varsity, play man-to-man defense like that, it’s really remarkable,” said Pukalo.

Northbridge’s Hannah Lomonaco is off and running with the ball on the fast break.

After Jill Labrie of Northbridge comes away with a steal and falls to the floor, she passes the ball to Abby Fraser.

Hopedale’s Frongillo spoils Tigers’ chance at 5-0 start

BY KEN POWERS
SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

DOUGLAS — A not-so-funny thing happened to the Douglas High girls’ varsity basketball team on its way to improving to 5-0 on Wednesday, Dec. 19, against Hopedale High — Bri Frongillo.

Frongillo, a freshman for the Blue Raiders, poured in a game-high 29 points — 18 in the second half — to lead Hopedale to a come-from-behind, 50-47 victory. The Blue Raiders improved to 2-1 with the win.

Frongillo scored in every way imaginable; she drained three 3-pointers, four midrange jumpers and six drives to the basket. One of the drives — the one where she pulled the Blue Raiders to within two, 33-31, with 3:11 left in the third quarter — was her finest moment of the game.

On the play Frongillo, while in the air, switched the ball from her left hand to her right hand in order to use her body to shield the ball from her defender. She then easily laid the ball off the glass for the easy two points.

“[Frongillo] was just too much for us,” Douglas head coach Ralph Quinn said. “She was on fire; she hit big shots at big times. And we almost matched it; we had a chance to tie it at the end, but we fell just short.”

Indeed the Tigers did. Following a missed free throw by Frongillo, Douglas took possession of the ball with nine seconds to play, called timeout and set up the potential game-tying play.

“The girls ran a beautiful play — they executed it perfectly, exactly the way we drew it up in the huddle — and we got the open look we wanted, the shot just didn’t go in,” Quinn said.

The shot, a 3-pointer from the left side by senior Melina Schilling, who scored a team-high 19 points, hit the side of the rim and bounced away as time expired.

“I talked to the girls after the game about the final play,” Quinn said. “Just the fact that in that situation, because they haven’t been in this type of game — not many of them anyway — just to have come out of the huddle and execute the play and get the open look like we did, was good. It would have been nice if it dropped, but...”

Also scoring for Douglas (which fell to 4-1 overall and 0-1 in Dual Valley Conference play) against Hopedale were senior Alexa Gresian (13 points), freshman Morgan Berthiaume (6 points), senior Devin Haire (4 points), junior Allie Benedict (3 points) and freshman Kate Peloquin (2 points).

“It was a good game. I’m sure it was a fun game to watch. I know it was a fun game to coach in,” Quinn said. “It was an all-around well-played game by both sides.”

The game, however, may have exposed a potential Achilles’ heel for Douglas — a potential lack of depth. Playing the brunt of the minutes in the game the Tigers were the starting five of Schilling, Gresian, Haire, Benedict and Berthiaume. Hopedale’s relentless full-court pressure and full-court trapping defense seemed to wear down the Tigers as the game progressed.

“We stumbled a couple of times against their pressure, but I thought we handled it pretty well overall,” Quinn said.

Jason McKay photos
Douglas’ Allie Benedict hustles past a Hopedale defender while on the dribble.

“Depth is a little bit of an issue for us right now, but we’ve got some young girls who are going to be able to step into those roles for us as the season goes on.”

Offensively, Douglas will look to continue to play its inside-outside game as the season goes on with Gresian serving as the Tigers’ post presence and Haire and Schilling as outside threats. Gresian, who has played just three games so far this season, is averaging 8.6 points per game (ppg), while Haire is averaging 12.2 ppg and Schilling 12 ppg.

“When Alexa gets matched up inside against the right people she is dominant for us,”

Quinn said. “We had a little problem making the clean pass into her [against Hopedale], but she had a good game. Haire and Schilling and Benedict can all hit from outside and they can all drive to the basket, too.”

“The two guards I had playing most of the [Hopedale] game were Morgan and Allie,” Quinn continued. “I think they played great [against Hopedale]. Any mistakes that were made were related to inexperience. They were not mental errors. I thought they both played great defense on [Frongillo]; she just broke us down a couple of times and then came back and hit shots from way out.”

because the extra light made the walk home safer.

June is said to be the best month to get married because it falls between the planting and harvesting of crops. The term ‘honeymoon’ is named after the first full moon in June for this reason.

Lastly, of course, we can’t wrap up this discussion of full moon mythology and not mention werewolves. European folklore claimed for centuries that if you slept outside under a full moon on a Wednesday or a Friday, you risked being turned into a ravening werewolf. Once again, however, this myth appears to be just as fanciful as the notion of Lon

Chaney, Jr. — star of Universal’s original “Wolf Man” film in 1941 — being the long-lost son and heir of a British aristocrat.

The werewolf myth has, however, made for some entertaining fare at multiplexes over the decades, from Chaney’s original “Wolf Man” to the astonishing transformation sequence in “An American Werewolf in London” to Michael J. Fox’s comedic take on the legend in “Teen Wolf.” Rather than venture out into the nighttime in search of real werewolves during the next full moon, we recommend putting on one of these classics and settling in for the night with a heaping bowl of popcorn.

But remember to keep some silver close at hand...just in case.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
