N. Brookfield couple celebrate milestone anniversary

James and Gloria Kennan celebrated their 70th anniversary last week.

NORTH BROOKFIELD – The community came together last weekend in celebration of a local couple’s 70th wedding anniversary. Married four years after the end of the Second World War, James and Gloria Kennan were both 19 years old at the time. Now 89, they were joined by family and friends on Nov. 16 at First Congregational Church of North Brookfield. “They are very well-known and respected throughout the area. This is a tribute to them,” said Gail Gladu, one of the Kennans’ three daughters.

The couple was married in Spencer, and has lived in North Brookfield since 1950. They have three grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Family members and friends were thrilled by the outpouring of support from the community. Many residents dropped by to meet a couple still going strong after seven decades together. “It took a whole community to have this party,” Gladu said. “We thank everyone for coming out.” The event included a buffet dinner and several fun activities for guests. Many church members attended and volunteered.

Momentum going strong at Water Department

BY KEVIN FLANDERS
STAFF WRITER

EAST BROOKFIELD – Following a major structural change, the town’s Water Department continues to make progress on several projects. Earlier this year, the East Brookfield Highway and Water Department became two separate entities following a series of retirements, departures, and additions. Among the new hires is Joseph Kenney, the Water Department’s new superintendent. He has been pleased with the momentum of his department since the restructuring.

“The separate departments have been beneficial to have a department focused on just the water system,” Kenney said. “The EBWD’s focus is to continue to comply with the Safe Drinking Water Act and the Department of Environmental Protection’s water regulations to distribute safe and clean drinking water.”

With stricter state regulations on the books involving microbial contamination, lead and copper, and other contaminants, the Water Department is working hard to maintain compliance with all regulations. Town officials are also making several other changes involving the water system. Early in 2020, the Water Department will replace all water meters in town. This will allow for more efficient and accurate recording of data, officials said, as well as improved billing. “The meters will utilize current cellular technology to accurately record and bill water consumption, which will allow the EBWD to develop a fair and equitable rate structure and still allow revenue for large capital projects,” Kenney said. The meter project is estimated to take about 8-10 months to complete. Additionally, the town is seeking an engineering firm to assist officials with numerous capital improvement projects that will ensure compliance with DEP regulations. “One project of particular importance is a greensand filtration plant to filter out iron and manganese from the source well,” Kenney told the New Leader. “Iron and manganese is a large problem facing many New England water utilities.”

LHS student earns an “A +” from Channel 5

BY KEVIN FLANDERS
STAFF WRITER

LEICESTER – Students across central Massachusetts excel each day, but a Leicester High School senior recently discovered that only a handful of students earn an A+. Alicia Diaz was selected to be honored by the WCVB Channel 5 A+ Program, which highlights the accomplishments of students who are making a difference inside and outside their classrooms. Diaz, a Worcester native, has enjoyed all facets of her career at LHS. “The A+ Program is a show that Channel 5 hosts to shed light on students who have had hardships in their lives and yet still continue to maintain good grades along with pushing themselves to do the best they can in other ways, such as sports, community services, and more,” Diaz said. After reading one of her college essays, Diaz’s guidance counselor, Kathy Warnken, suggested that she submit an email informing A+ Program leaders of her many accomplishments during four years at LHS. Through hard work and dedication to her studies, she has impressed teachers and classmates alike. Shortly after sending her submission, Diaz learned that she was selected as an A+ student. Her standout resume includes membership on the LHS Student Council and the Environmental Club (she is the president of the latter organization). Outside of school, Diaz has an internship with Senator Michael Moore’s office. As part of this role, she travels to the State House in Boston, attends meetings, and assists with several administrative tasks. As if she didn’t have North Brookfield High School students explain the Edgenuity program to Jeffrey Riley (right), the state’s Commissioner of Elementary and Secondary Education.

Education Commissioner tours local schools

BY KEVIN FLANDERS
STAFF WRITER

NORTH BROOKFIELD – During a recent tour of the school district, a state educational leader and his staff were impressed by several new initiatives. On Nov. 13, Massachusetts Commissioner of Elementary and Secondary Education Jeffrey Riley visited both schools in the district. Several North Brookfield and local officials were on hand, including Senator Anne Gobi, North Brookfield Public Schools Superintendent Richard Lind, School Committee members, and building principals. At the first stop of the tour, North Brookfield Junior-Senior High School, Riley was introduced to the school’s Edgenuity initiative. Launched this year, the online program allows students to take dual enrollment courses and earn college credits. Nearly 50 students are enrolled in Edgenuity courses, including introduction to business, sociology, psychology, medical terminology, conflict resolution, art history, and digital arts, among others. Available to juniors and seniors, the online courses are instructed by college professors and other distinguished educators. Students are given 45-minute sessions during the school day to work on their online tasks and seek help from teachers. “Edgenuity provides our students with great opportunities to seek out challenging, interest-based courses,” Lind said. Riley and Gobi spoke with both school officials and students about their thoughts on the Edgenuity program. Students have enjoyed the many benefits of taking courses that wouldn’t otherwise be available in North Brookfield.

Free Thanksgiving Dinner at 1st Cong'l Church, N. Brookfield

Courtesy Photo

For the 20th straight year, The First Congregational Church of N. Brookfield will be providing a free Home-Cooked Thanksgiving Dinner.

NORTH BROOKFIELD — For the 20th straight year, The First Congregational Church of N. Brookfield will be providing a free Home-Cooked Thanksgiving Dinner. This meal will be served at noon on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 28, in the Church Fellowship Hall. It is open to area residents who would like to join in a large Thanksgiving community celebration. Event coorinator Crystal Caron and a team of church and community volunteers seek each year do something special for those who might otherwise be alone on this special holiday.

Volunteers have come to look forward to this event each year. Members of the Church begin preparations on Wednesday afternoon. Most of the Turkeys are roasted in Church members' homes, while the rest are cooked in the large oven in the Church kitchen. Dressing, Potatoes, Squash and other side dishes complete the menu. Apple, pumpkin and other pies are cooked in many different homes. On Thanksgiving morning faithful adults and teens help with setting up, cutting pies and many other jobs.

In addition to the meal at the Church, volunteers provide home delivery on request. Boxes are filled with generous servings of Turkey and all the trimmings and a big slice of pie, enough for at least two meals. Each year there 40 to 50 home deliveries, mostly to senior citizens, while a sizeable crowd comes together at the Church for the Community gathering.

If you would like to attend, need Transportation to the Church or meals delivered to your home please contact Crystal-Caron Duvall at (508) 208-5400. The 1st Congregational Church is located on North Main St. just North of Hannaford's.

Rotary youth leader visits Brookfields Rotary

WEST BROOKFIELD — Brookfields Rotary was honored last week with a visit from our sponsored 2019 Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) participant, Ainsley Maus, and her father Gary from Brookfield. Ainsley is an Honor Student at Tantasqua Regional High School. RYLA is an intensive leadership experience for High School Sophomores, organized by Rotary clubs and Districts, where students develop their skills as a leader while having fun and making connections.

Now a Junior at Tantasqua, Ainsley described how her experience at RYLA has improved her communication and problem-solving abilities. Together with her team, they also learned new leadership strategies that will be useful at school, in her community, and throughout her life. She found the experience so rewarding that she hopes to return as a facilitator at the District sponsored session in 2020.

Ainsley first learned about RYLA from her sister who participated in the program four years ago. In turn, she now is recommending the program to current Sophomores at her school.

Holiday happenings in store at Haston Library

BY KEVIN FLANDERS
STAFF WRITER

NORTH BROOKFIELD – Residents of all ages are invited to take part in several holiday happenings at Haston Free Public Library.

The festivities will be highlighted by the construction of a LEGO gingerbread house. Stop by every Wednesday in December from 5-6:30 p.m. and join the building process. Please sign up in the children’s library.

On Saturday, Nov. 30, the library will hold its annual Letters to Santa party from 4:30-5:45 p.m. Children are invited to stop in and write their letters to Santa ahead of the big day. Guests will also be able to make holiday ornaments to place on their trees back home. The event will feature piano students from a local music studio, and upon completion of the program, guests will be encouraged to take part in the North Brookfield tree lighting ceremony in the town center.

On Monday, Dec. 2, local crafter Lou Meierdierks will visit the library from 6-8 p.m. to help guests make beeswax ornaments. Attendees should come prepared to create up to five ornaments; registration is required.

On Dec. 10, the library’s book group will meet at 7 p.m. to discuss Trevor Noah’s “Born a Crime.” Two days later, on Dec. 12, Elisabeth Hyder, of Brookfield Paperworks, will offer a workshop for the creation of folded paper window stars. Please call the library in advance to sign up.

In the holiday spirit, the library will forgive fines for overdue materials if guests bring in nonperishable food items for the local food pantry. This offer applies only to fines; lost book charges will still be assessed.

The library also features the following ongoing programs:

Adult coloring group (Mondays from 5:30-6:30 p.m.)

Read, Build, Play storytime (Tuesdays from 10-11 a.m.)

Parent-Child Playgroup (Wednesdays from 9-11 a.m.)

LEGO Club (Wednesdays from 5-6:30 p.m.)

Writing Group (second and fourth Wednesdays of each month from 6-7:30 p.m.)

Robotics Club (Thursdays from 2:30-4 p.m.)

Kids Crafts (Thursdays from 4-5 p.m.)

The library is closed on Fridays and Sundays. Saturday hours are 9 a.m. to noon.

For more information about upcoming programs at the library, or to pre-register for an event, call 508-867-0208. You can also visit www.NorthBrookfieldLibrary.org.

Thousands more eBooks, audiobooks now available with your library card

EAST BROOKFIELD — Thanks to a new program called LEA (Library eBooks and Audiobooks,) East Brookfield and other local library residents will now have access to thousands of eBooks and audiobooks from across the Commonwealth. Powered by Overdrive and Libby, LEA makes it possible for you to borrow eContent from all Networks in Massachusetts regardless of your home library.

“LEA opens up a whole new world of access for library users” said Wendy Payette, East Brookfield Library director. “Now taking out an eBook or audiobook is more like borrowing a physical book, where you are not limited to just your library’s collection. You only need your library card and access to the internet.”

With LEA, you can access eBooks, audiobooks, and more from libraries across the Commonwealth using your phone, tablet, or eReader. There are 345 partnering libraries with an estimated collection of more than 350,000 eBooks and audiobooks.

Using it is easy: Residents first search for the title they are looking for in their home network. If it is not found there, they can check to see if another network has it available, and request a loan if it is. Users can log into all eight participating networks using their home library card, allowing access to thousands of books that were previously unavailable.

LEA represents a new level of cooperation between Massachusetts libraries, but eBook access is still limited by publisher restrictions. How many copies of an eBook a library can get and how long libraries have to wait after the book is released to the general public are both affected by publishers, and these restrictions can change at any time.

LEA is brought to you by the Massachusetts Automated Library Networks, the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners, the Massachusetts Library System, and your local library; funded in part by the federal Institute of Museum and Library Services. You can learn more about LEA at mass.gov/libraries.

LHS soccer standout signs with Merrimack College

BY KEVIN FLANDERS
STAFF WRITER

LEICESTER – In a feat as impressive as it is rare, a Leicester High School senior recently celebrated her commitment to a Division 1 soccer program.

Standout midfielder Nida Orloff was surrounded by family and teammates on Nov. 15, when she officially signed her commitment to attend Merrimack College in the fall of 2020. She became just the second LHS student-athlete in ten years to commit to a D1 program during senior year.

Held in the LHS library, the signing was attended by teammates, classmates, coaches, and school officials. Orloff was also joined by her parents, Daiva and Alexis, as well as teachers and administrators who have watched her excel in all facets at LHS.

“This is the first time this has happened since I’ve been here,” said LHS Principal Tracey Kenny. “She is an amazing athlete and a great student. We wish her great success at Merrimack.”

Coaches and teachers have not only been impressed by Orloff’s dominance on the field, but also her commitment to academics. She was described as having the perfect combination of focus and dedication that will greatly assist her throughout college.

Looking ahead, Orloff can’t wait to compete at the college level. After being coveted by several schools, she will attend Merrimack College next fall on an athletic scholarship.

“I toured there, and really liked the program and campus. It was a great environment,” said Orloff, who is hoping to pursue a degree in education and eventually work with students with special needs.

Having elevated this past season to Division 1 competition, Merrimack’s women’s soccer team has sought talented incoming athletes to improve the program. Orloff will be a big part of the Warriors squad as it expands its Division 1 footprint in the coming years.

Leicester High School senior Nida Orloff was congratulated last week after signing her commitment to play soccer at Merrimack College next fall.

North Brookfield Savings Bank employee earns Certified Regulatory Compliance Manager designation

NORTH BROOKFIELD — North Brookfield Savings Bank is proud to announce Patricia Bernard, Senior Vice President and Compliance Officer recently earned the Certified Regulatory Compliance Manager (CRCM) designation from the American Bankers Association.

The CRCM certification is awarded to individuals who demonstrate excellence in the field of bank regulatory compliance. To qualify for the CRCM certification, individuals must have certain levels of experience and education in the compliance profession, pass an exam and agree to abide by a code of ethics. The CRCM exam covers regulatory requirements as they relate to credit, deposits/securities, safety and soundness, information reporting and corporate responsibility. Annual continued education in the field of bank regulatory compliance is required to maintain the designation of CRCM.

Patricia Bernard

“Patty possesses in-depth experience and understanding in the bank regulatory compliance industry. Her success in earning her CRCM designation just further validates her commitment to excellence in her role as Senior Vice President, Compliance Officer,” said Donna Boulanger, North Brookfield Savings Bank President and CEO. “We are proud of Patty for her accomplishments and know her expertise will continue to bring great value to the Bank.”

Patricia Bernard, of Palmer, has more than 19 years of experience within the banking industry. As North Brookfield Savings Bank’s Senior Vice President and Compliance Officer she is responsible for the development, continuous improvement and administration of the Bank’s comprehensive compliance program which entails overseeing related policies, procedures and processes, staying informed of all changes within the compliance environment and offering support to foster overall organizational compliance. In addition, she holds a Certified Community Bank Compliance Officer (CCBCO) certification. She also chairs the Bank’s Regulatory Compliance Committee and is responsible for administering the Bank’s Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) program, in addition to assisting the Bank’s BSA Officer in carrying out their entity-wide BSA program.

Financial services professionals, working through ABA, initiated the CRCM certification and seven others in order to establish meaningful standards of knowledge in specialty areas of the financial services industry. ABA Professional Certifications formally recognize those who meet these standards and meet professional continuing education and development requirements.

If you want to reach Patricia Bernard, call 508-637-7408 or email pbernard@BankNBSB.com.

Iron and manganese are naturally occurring minerals found in rocks, soil, surface water, and well water. Higher levels of manganese can have adverse health effects, and Water Department officials are working with the DEP on a plan to lower the manganese concentrations in drinking water.

Officials are also committed to educating residents on the effects of elevated manganese. To that end, the Water Department has mailed a health advisory notice to residents and posted the document on the town Web site: www.EastBrookfieldMA.us.

The town will also hold continued hearings on the mandated upgrades to the water system. Most recently, officials hosted a public informational forum at a Select Board meeting, as well as an open house at the West Street well site.

enough on her schedule to keep her busy already, Diaz will begin a second internship in January with the Law Office of Michelle Murray in Spencer. It means a lot to her to be involved in the community, and she was thrilled to earn the A+ designation.

“This honor has shown me what it means to push myself for the greater good,” Diaz told the New Leader. “It feels great when people tell me that I have inspired them and motivated them to do better in their lives.”

Looking ahead, Diaz hopes her internships with Senator Moore and Attorney Murray teach her a lot about what it takes to earn sustained career and community success. The extra responsibilities also prepare her well for the challenges of managing college coursework and other duties.

“I hope to learn from both of these incredible people what it means to help people,” Diaz said.

In college, Diaz plans to study law and political science.

During their discussions with Riley and Gobi, students also explained how their feedback is helping to improve the facilitation of Edgenuity at NBJSHS. The program is also being used to expand students’ access to advanced placement courses not offered at the school.

“With any new program, you’re going to find a few kinks. The students have been very helpful in describing what is working well and where improvements can be made,” said Jeanne Powers, the district’s director of curriculum, instruction, and assessment. “This program offers opportunities that never would have been possible before.”

Making the short walk across campus to the elementary school, Riley witnessed hands-on learning in action. New this year, the school’s specialized math hallway allows for an array of projects to take place outside of the structured classroom environment. Students are free to explore concepts by taking part in engaging projects on the walls and floor. These include a problem of the day posted to the wall each morning.

“This seems like a lot more fun than when I was in elementary school,” Riley joked with school administrators. “You are all ahead of the curve with this type of learning. This is the direction we want all schools to go.”

In preparation for the new math hallway, several elementary school staff members repainted the walls over the summer. The initiative was the brainchild of Steve O’Neil, a math and science teacher at the elementary school.

“We want kids to experience math in a more interactive, hands-on way,” Superintendent Lind explained. “We were happy to invite the Commissioner to see the many engaging programs we have to offer.”

Elementary school students and teachers showed Riley several projects they’ve been working on. Students have benefited greatly from learning opportunities beyond the classroom, officials said.

Thanksgiving Leftovers

If the remains of Tom Turkey are still taking up half of your refrigerator space, it's time to use up all the leftover meat pronto or freeze it for future meals. According to the Center of Science in the Public Interest (CSPI), the Thanksgiving turkey can be eaten for four days after cooking. This week's column will spotlight some delicious meals perfect for last minute suppers - or beyond, if you have frozen the leftovers.

If you think hot turkey sandwiches and turkey noodle soup are your only options, read on. With a few extra additions, your post Thanksgiving meals can be as interesting as the memorable main event.

Leftover Turkey and Potato Casserole
This scrumptious recipe uses up turkey and mashed potatoes, and even that extra can of evaporated milk you have from baking!

Ingredients: three tablespoons butter; two tablespoons all-purpose flour; one (5 ounce) can evaporated milk; one cup cold water; one quarter teaspoon salt; one quarter teaspoon pepper; one quarter teaspoon onion powder; one cup cooked, diced turkey meat; one cup shredded cheddar cheese; two cups leftover mashed potatoes two tablespoons butter; one cup finely crushed herb-seasoned dry bread stuffing mix.

Instructions: Preheat oven to 350 degrees. For sauce: Melt three tablespoons butter in a saucepan over low heat. Add flour and stir until mixed. Slowly stir in evaporated milk and water, then season with salt, pepper and onion powder. Stir over low heat for five minutes; remove from heat. Place turkey in a lightly greased 9 by 13 inch baking dish. Pour sauce over turkey, then sprinkle with cheddar cheese. Spread mashed potatoes over cheese. Melt two tablespoons butter and add to stuffing mix; sprinkle stuffing over top of casserole. Bake, uncovered, in the preheated oven for 45 minutes.

Cream of Turkey Soup
Forget boring clear leftover soups, this one is rich and delicious!

Ingredients: one quart turkey broth; one cup diced, cooked turkey; one half cup diced, cooked carrots (optional); one cup light cream; four tablespoons butter; four tablespoons flour; one quarter teaspoon salt; one eighth teaspoon white pepper; one eighth teaspoon nutmeg or mace; one tablespoon minced parsley or chives

Directions: Melt four tablespoons butter in a large heavy saucepan over moderate heat and blend in four tablespoons flour. Add broth and cream and heat, stirring constantly, until thickened and smooth. Mix in all seasonings, turkey meat and carrots; cover, let mellow over low heat for about ten minutes. Serve hot. Makes about four servings.

Slow Cooker White Turkey Chili
This Mexican crock pot dish that uses up lots of leftover turkey, is an award winning recipe from Mary Torell with the Nebraska Dept of Agriculture.

Ingredients: one chopped onion; one cup chopped celery; four cups cooked turkey chopped; two 15.5 ounce cans Northern beans, drained; two 11 ounce cans shoe peg corn, undrained;; one four ounce can chopped green chilies; one quart turkey broth; one half cup mozzarella cheese, grated.

Directions: Place cooked turkey and all other ingredients in a slow cooker. Mix well and cook on low for 6 to 8 hours.

For a thicker sauce, remove the cover for the last hour. Sprinkle with Mozzarella cheese.

Turkey Timer Trivia: Pop up timers have saved many a Thanksgiving turkey from ruin. Have you ever wondered how they work? In case you missed this in a previous column, here's everything you've always wanted to know about the handy plastic pop ups!

A pop up turkey timer is typically comprised of the outside case, a red stick that pops up, a metal spring and a dab of soft metal similar to solder. The soft metal is solid at room temperature and turns to a liquid at about 185 degrees (when a turkey is fully cooked).

When the metal melts, it frees the end of the red stick that had been trapped in the metal. The spring pops the red stick up and you know the turkey is done! One little known fact is that these timers are reusable. If you dip the tip in hot water it will remelt the metal and you can push the pop up piece back into the metal. Then let it cool, and the pop-up piece will be back in its original position, ready to use again!

A time to be thankful

From 1621 to 2019, Thanksgiving has always been about celebrating an abundant fall harvest. The holiday's roots date back to the Plymouth colonists and the Wampanoag tribe, who shared the first Thanksgiving meal together.

The celebratory feast was held by individual colonies up until 1789 off and on, with the first Presidential proclamation recognizing its significance issued by George Washington himself. His successor, Thomas Jefferson — an ardent believer in the separation of church and state — felt that it was not the government's place to sanction a celebration that he believed had religious undertones, and it wasn't until Abraham Lincoln's Presidency in 1863 that the annual celebration was enshrined as a federal holiday.

Tasked with guiding the nation through its darkest period, Lincoln rightly intuited that a celebration focused on family and thankfulness would help to heal the wounds inflicted upon the nation's psyche by the bloody and destructive Civil War.

"Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens," he wrote.

As we sat down to reflect on what we are grateful for this year as Thanksgiving approaches, we have been thinking about the unseasonably cold snap that has ripped through the east coast. Winter seemed to come in in like a lion this year, and not everyone was ready.

There is, however, something unexplainably welcoming about hunkering down for a long winter. Spending time outside in the middle of a snow globe is refreshing, yet serene, and this year — although we know many of you out there may not share our inclination — we are thankful for the changing season.

When we can look at winter as something to be enjoyed rather than endured, a shift happens. Having a positive mindset will lessen the chance of seasonal depression setting in. When someone begins complaining about the cold weather and shorter days, counter it with something positive, such as how much fun it is to go snowmobiling, or skiing. Even a walk around your yard, kicking up freshly fallen snow can be a therapeutic plus. Staying physically active is key. Joining a gym, playing outdoors with your children or even following along with a 15 minute workout video indoors can give your mental state a boost.

Wintertime is also, of course, the season of holidays, and to us, nothing is better than gathering with family and friends to celebrate the season as you sip from a mug of hot chocolate with a dab of that New England favorite, marshmallow Fluff.

Whatever your own holiday traditions, and wherever you may be traveling this week, we wish you a safe journey, a hearty meal, and a wonderful time in the company of kith and kin.

LETTERS

Extra! Extra! Read All About It!

We think you're important enough to tell all our readers to turn to the Opinion pages and read your Letters to the Editor.

But first, you have to write us!

Mail your letters to the Spencer New Leader, P.O. Box 90, Southbridge, MA 01550.

Or e-mail your letters to the editor at news@stonebridgepress.news.

You'll need to provide your name and place of residence, along with a phone number, so we can verify the letter is yours.

We don't have a set limit, but if you keep it around 600 words or so, you're going to have a better chance at seeing all your words in print.

If you want to write a bit longer about a particular issue, maybe a guest Your Turn column is your cup of tea. If you do that, try to keep it between 700-800 words.

Remember, libelous remarks and/or personal attacks are a no-no and could lead to your letter not being published.

So, what are you waiting for? Start writing!

VIEWPOINT

OPINION AND COMMENTARY FROM SPENCER, LEICESTER AND THE BROOKFIELDS

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A Catholic's point of view

To the Editor:

In the Nov. 15 issue of the Spencer New Leader, there was a letter by Esther Cohen concerning abortion and some other Catholic concepts. I would like to take issue with a few of her points, the first being that conception within a human is not human, but only a cell. A species propagates itself; therefore, what else could the cell be if not human? In the vast majority of instances, a woman does not know of the presence of a baby until the sixth or seventh week of conception, and by that time, the cell has definitely taken on human qualities.

The second issue is obeying the law of the land. While Rowe vs. Wade legalized abortions, is not to say that it is a good law. Prior to WWII, Hitler legalized the incarceration and eventual extermination of people of Jewish heritage. It was the law, but was it a good law? There are six million Jews who would disagree. If a law does not support or enhance the wellbeing of the whole community, then it should be changed. In a democracy, we have that right and obligation to affect such change.

My next area of thought concerns the Catholic Church, and in particular the Pope's position in it. Catholics believe that our church is apostolic, meaning that its lineage traces back to the Apostles (chosen by Christ) to establish His church. Christ told Peter that he would be the rock upon which Christ would build His Church. Pope Francis is in direct lineage with Peter, the first Pope. Christ also told the apostles that they carried His authority to govern His Church. From the New Testament in Matthew 15:19, Christ told His apostles to point out the wrong doing of others. He also gives authority to the apostolic church that "whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed also in heaven." Catholics believe this gives the Pope infallibility in areas of faith (in Christ's Church) and morals. Do Popes make mistakes out of this realm? Of course! Pope Clement VII declared King Henry VIII of England a "Defender of the Faith" (a decision of policy). Later, when Clement would not annul Henry's marriage (a matter of faith and morals), Henry declared himself head of his own Church of England. Catholics are supposed to believe in and practice the teaching of the Catholic Church. We believe they are most closely in tune with Christ's mission on earth and to gain eternal salvation. In all honesty, sometimes it is not easy, but usually nothing good comes easy.

Ms. Cohen, I thought your comments very thought provoking and enjoyed responding to them. Your ending was particularly interesting. I believe it was Aretha Franklin's song "I Say a Little Prayer" that I will keep in mind for you (I don't wear makeup), and hopefully you for me.

Term limits are the solution to our problems in Washington

To the Editor:

Part of the problem in Washington — the service records of the Massachusetts Congressional delegation:

Democrat Richard Neal, 1st District, public paycheck since 1983...36 years!

Democrat Jim McGovern, 2nd District, public paycheck since 1997...22 years!

Democrat Lori Trahan, 3rd District, assumed office 2019...one year

Democrat Joe Kennedy III (JK3), 4th District, assumed office 2013...six years!

Democrat Katherine Clark, 5th District, public paycheck since 2008...six years!

Democrat Seth Moulton, 6th District, assumed office 2015...four years!

Democrat Ayanna Pressley, 7th District, public paycheck since 2010...

Democrat Stephen Lynch, 8th District, public paycheck since 1995...four years!

Democrat Bill Keating, 9th District, public paycheck since 1977...42 years!

Democrat Ed Markey, Senator, public paycheck since 1973...46 years!

Democrat Elizabeth Warren, Senator, public paycheck since 2008...11 years!

Possible solutions:

Eliminate Congressional pensions and limit terms. Serve and get out! Congress is meant to be a service, not a career.

Off with their heads(?)

Alcohol: according to chemistry, alcohol is a solution!

New at investing? Follow these suggestions

FINANCIAL FOCUS
JEFF BURDICK

If you're fairly new to investing, you might be wondering what sort of rules you should follow or moves you should make. And while everyone's situation is different, there are indeed guidelines that make sense for all investors. Here are some to consider:

Learn the basics. The investment world can seem confusing, but the more you know about the basic components, the more confident you'll be when you begin to invest. For starters, you'll want to be familiar with the essential types of investments: stocks, bonds, mutual funds, government securities and so on. And it's also important to know that some investments are designed to provide growth — an increase in the investment's value — while others provide income in the form of dividends or interest payments, and still others may offer growth and income.

Set your goals. You need to know why you're investing — and that means you must clearly define your goals. Do you want to retire early? When you do retire, what kind of lifestyle would you like to have? Are you planning on helping your children (or grandchildren) pay for college? Once you've established your goals, you can create the appropriate investment strategy for achieving them, taking into account your time horizon and risk tolerance.

Invest regularly. At first, you may only be able to afford to put in small amounts to your investment accounts, but even so, try to contribute regularly. You'll get into the habit of investing and, later on, when you earn more money, you can ramp up your contributions. If you have a 401(k) or similar plan at work, the money can come out of your paycheck before you even see it.

Think long term. As you begin investing, it's important to have the right attitude. Specifically, don't look for the "hot" investments that will make you a "bundle" in a matter of weeks. Investing just doesn't work that way — instead, it's a decades-long process of carefully choosing, managing and adjusting a diversified portfolio that's suitable for your individual needs. And by maintaining a long-term focus, you'll be less susceptible to making ill-advised moves in response to short-term market events.

Don't get scared off by downturns. If you invest for many years, it's inevitable that you will experience sharp drops in the financial markets. But these declines are actually a normal part of investing. If you overreact to them by selling investments just because their price has dropped, you'll not only be breaking a cardinal rule of investing — to buy low and sell high — but you'll also be disrupting the type of cohesive, continuous investment strategy that's necessary to help you achieve your goals.

Get some help. You may find it easier to navigate the investment landscape if you get some help from a professional advisor — someone who understands your goals and family situation and who can make appropriate investment recommendations. A financial advisor can also suggest changes to your portfolio in response to changes in your life (new job, child graduating college, etc.) and in your goals, such as a new date for retirement.

When you invest, there aren't many guarantees. But by following these suggestions, you will know, at the very least, that you're taking the steps that can lead to success.

The dangers of deer hunting

Massachusetts deer hunting opens this coming Monday, Dec. 2, for shotgun. Numerous large deer were harvested during the archery season, and it has become one of the most popular and successful seasons among deer hunters. State of the art bows have increased the success rate of harvesting deer. If a cross bow bill is passed for the 2020 hunting season, it will only make recovery of more deer, other than losing them to a bad shot. This week's picture shows a trophy deer with an impressive set of antlers harvested in Massachusetts a few years ago. The mount was part of a display at last year's sportsmen's show at the Big-E in Springfield.

Hunting has become a dangerous sport, as some hunters over the years that have found out the hard way. It is not a wise idea to confront a hunter in the woods if you feel he is trespassing on private property, or doing something illegal. Thanks to cell phones, the matter is best left for the authorities. A simple call should keep you safe. A hunter recently confronted an ATV rider about trespassing on private property, and was run over by the machine. Numerous other incidents over the years resulting in injury to the hunter after falling from his or her tree stand, are on the increase.

clothing to mask your human scent can also be dangerous. In fact, it may work too well. Reports of hunters being attacked by bucks that are in rut happen more often than we think. Suddenly, you are the hunted.

Last week, a young lady shot her first buck of her life. She tried to do everything right. After the shot, she left the area to get help tracking the huge buck. It is always best to leave the deer, instead of pushing the deer farther away, and possibly into another hunter. The rule is that the last hunter to shoot the deer has the right to claim it. I know it happened to me a couple of times.

After gathering up a couple of friends to help track the deer, they found themselves tracking the deer for some time. Soon they realized the buck had headed for the river, and they lost the track at the river bed. They left the area to get a boat and a canoe, which was necessary to cross over to the other side, to continue tracking the deer. Two hunters jumped into the canoe, and one quickly fell overboard, taking the other tracking hunter with them. It was not long before the small boat became full of water, and all of the hunting party was cold and wet.

It was starting to get dark when the group decided that they had enough, and planned to come back in the morning. They soon realized that one of the hunting party became separated from the group. It seems that he had left his cell phone in the car during all of the excitement. He was located a short time later cold and wet. It was a good thing that all of the hunting party were wearing their life jackets, or it could have ended up a lot worse. No one could make up this story. As of the column deadline this past Friday, the deer was still on the run.

Wild animals are fighting back as one local resident found out recently. This writer wrote about the increase in fisher cat last week in the valley. Well, a local resident came face to face with a large fisher cat after he opened his shed door in his backyard. The huge cat charged the resident and landed on his chest immediately sinking his teeth into the man's neck. He quickly grabbed a sharp object and started to stab the animal until he fell to the floor. I have not heard how the man is doing. Just imagine if it happened to a young child.

Bobcats have also made the list of frequent visitors in the valley. There numbers are increasing annually, and are a threat to small pets. They also dine on small rodents and rabbits that have made a comeback to the valley area.

After reading this column, some local residents that are anti hunting could change their minds. Most hunters would like to be considered your friend and respect and appreciate hunting private property. Do not let a few disrespectful hunters influence your thoughts about the majority of sportsmen.

Hopefully, everyone is enjoying their Thanksgiving weekend. We sure have plenty to be thankful for after listening to the news about floods and fires that have displaced thousands of families in California, Texas and other states. Do not forget our veterans and the elderly, especially at this time of year. God Bless!

GARDENING

should be kept out of drafts of hot and cold air. Consider moving your plant to an even cooler room at night to extend the bloom time.

Use your finger to monitor soil moisture. Water thoroughly when the potting mix that's just below the soil surface is starting to dry. Pour off any excess water that collects in the saucer, decorative basket or foil wrap. Allowing plants to sit in water leads to soggy soil and the decline of the plant's health and beauty.

Or set the plant on a saucer of pebbles. The excess water will collect in the saucer while the pebbles elevate the pot above the water. You'll reduce the risk of root rot and save time by eliminating the need to pour off this excess water.

Remove any yellow leaves to keep your plant looking its best. Adjust watering frequency and growing conditions if this is a frequent problem.

Overwatering or allowing the soil to dry to the point of wilting can cause the leaves to yellow. Low light and drafts of hot and cold air can do the same.

Remove flowers as they fade. Gently twist and pull off or cut spent flower stems back at their base in the foliage. Regular deadheading will increase the number of flowers and length of bloom. With proper care, you will be enjoying flowers for four weeks or more.

Don't be alarmed when the leaves yellow and dry soon after the plant stops flowering. It is entering a natural dormant period. If you like a challenge, try forcing it into bloom a second time.

Simply cut back on watering when you notice the leaves begin to yellow. Then stop watering once all the leaves have dried. Move the plant to a cool dark location for several months. After the rest period, bring your plant out of dormancy and encourage it to bloom. Begin watering, fertilize once new growth appears and place it in a sunny window. Then wait for a beautiful floral display.

Show Synopsis: Christmas Eve is tough for private investigator Cactus O'Riley, a white-hot redhead with the holiday blues. She is trying to lure her secretary Fred away from his protective mother, dodging the affections of Deputy D.A. Windsor, and considering closing her business. She doesn't need the added aggravation of two fugitives who burst into her office looking for justice and a dead detective named Jake Marley. Cactus also doesn't need Fred's mother, who arrives to take Fred home but decides to stay because she thinks this is the Christmas murder mystery party she has always dreamed of attending. Christmas turns into a dickens of a holiday for Cactus as she solves mysteries, delivers small miracles and takes a second chance on love and sleuthing.

All trips leave from the Whitinsville WalMart. Call Sue at 509-476-5820 for more information.

PLACE MOTORS IS PROUD TO SPONSOR

Friday's Child

Hi! My name is Alijah and I'm a really good basketball player!

Alijah is a social, engaging and polite boy of Cape Verdean descent. His favorite activities include playing sports, board games and card games, and singing and dancing. He also likes cooking, baking and swimming. Alijah is particularly good at basketball and he enjoys showing others his skills.

Alijah does benefit from accommodations listed on his IEP to assist him with more emotional/social supports. He does well in school and is performing on grade level. Alijah is hopeful that he will be able to step down to a less restrictive setting in the near future.

Legally freed for adoption, Alijah will do best in a family with no other children in the home or with children older than he is. An ideal family will be able to give Alijah the one-on-one attention that he craves, and provide him with structure and clear rules. He would also love for his future family to have pets or be open to adopting a pet. It is very important to Alijah that he is able to maintain contact with his eight siblings who are also looking to be adopted.

Who Can Adopt?

Can you provide the guidance, love and stability that a child needs? If you're at least 18 years old, have a stable source of income, and room in your heart, you may be a perfect match to adopt a waiting child. Adoptive parents can be single, married, or partnered; experienced or not; renters or homeowners; LGBTQ singles and couples.

The process to adopt a child from foster care requires training, interviews, and home visits to determine if adoption is right for you, and if so, to help connect you with a child or sibling group that your family will be a good match for.

To learn more about adoption from foster care, call the Massachusetts Adoption Resource Exchange (MARE) at 617-964-6273 or visit www.mare-inc.org. The sooner you call, the sooner a waiting child will have “a permanent place to call HOME.”

Late-game heroics send Leicester to Gillette Stadium after defeating South Hadley, 28-21

Members of Leicester's football team excite the fans as the Wolverines run out the clock to defeat South Hadley.

BY DEAN P. ST. LAURENT
SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

SHREWSBURY — The Leicester High varsity football team had its back against the wall with less than 10 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. It was fourth-and-16 from South Hadley High's 24-yard line. It was a must score situation due to the Tigers battling back with 14 unanswered points to claim their first lead of the game, 21-14.

The Wolverines called a timeout. What came next was what everyone spectating would call the play of the game — and not just a game, but a Division 7 State Semifinal. Leicester trotted back onto the field, as calm as a team could be in such a crucial situation. The offense set up in a spread formation with quarterback Dan Mero waiting to receive the shogun snap.

A few seconds went by and Mero received the snap cleanly, rocketed a bullet pass to an open Jack O'Neill on a designed inside screen. O'Neill gathered the pass and, instead of running up field like he did so often early on, lateralled the ball backward to a sprinting Bryce Gosselin, who bolted 24 yards into the end zone untouched.

Leicester's completed hook-and-ladder play in the most critical point of the game had it all square at 21-21 following an extra point kick by Nolan Power.

"There is nothing in the playbook for when it is fourth and that long, but they executed it," expressed head coach Tim

Griffiths. "We ran a couple slip screens early in the game, so the timing was right and they executed flawlessly — it was pretty cool."

Gosselin, the team's senior running back, added, "We recently started to work on it in practice this week. We have run it in years past, so we know how it goes and what it is about. The timing had to be there and even though we only ran it a few times this week, we nailed it."

The Wolverines carried their momentum onto the defensive side of the ball on South Hadley's next drive. It looked as if the Tigers were going to march down the field and counter with yet another touchdown after obtaining a couple quick first downs, but their drive came to a stall on their 44-yard line. On fourth-and-3, Leicester's defense held to force a turnover on downs with 5:35 left in regulation.

Two minutes later, Mero snuck in from a yard out to give Leicester a one touchdown lead after another Power extra-point. This ended up being the score (28-21) that sent the Wolverines (11-0) to the Division 7 State Super Bowl hosted at Gillette Stadium versus Eastern Mass. champion Abington High (9-2), the South Sectional winners who defeated North region champ Greater Lawrence Tech (7-4) by a 33-22 count in the other state semifinal.

An interception by Jeffrey Puchalski and a few first down runs by Gosselin to run out the clock clinched the win over South Hadley (8-3) on Saturday, Nov. 23 at Shrewsbury High's David J. Adams Memorial Field at Central One Federal Credit Union Stadium.

"We went deep in the playbook today," Griffiths explained. "I am proud of the kids, so much pressure coming from a small town, same with South Hadley, neither team deserved to lose. Honestly, I feel heartbroken for those kids, because it was just a great high school football game."

Griffiths also added a few words about his senior class: "The expectations were high and to actually achieve them, it is a pretty special group," he said. "Kudos to them and I just go on for the ride, it is the players and my coaching staff. I am happy for the kids."

Gosselin ended the game with 107 yards and a touchdown on nine carries and also caught a few passes, including the hook-and-ladder touchdown that sparked his team in the fourth quarter. O'Neill also had himself a game, pacing the offense early on. The senior wide-out caught six passes for 150, yards including a 69-yard double-pass touchdown late in the first half.

"This is what we worked for, this whole core group we played AYF together," Gosselin said. "This is where we lost our final game in eighth grade, so we were looking for some revenge and we got it today."

Jamison Metcalf of Leicester is all fired up after the Wolverines defeated South Hadley, 28-21, in a Division 7 State Semifinal.

Panthers end Tantasqua's journey in Division 4 State Semifinals

Tantasqua's Seann Lauritsen grabs Plymouth-South ball-carrier Matt Mahoney from behind in order to bring him down.

BY NICK ETHIER
SPORTS STAFF WRITER

WESTWOOD — A total of 19 student-athletes on Tantasqua Regional's varsity football team are seniors, and that particular group has seen plenty of turnover over the course of their four years playing at the Reservation.

During their freshman year, Jon Hargis wasn't a member of the Warriors' coaching staff. Hargis then took over in 2017, but Tantasqua endured a losing season. Last fall, the Warriors made a run to the Central Mass. Division 4 Tournament final, where they lost to Nashoba Regional, 28-0.

And then this season — a special one, to say the least — the 19 seniors had a record of 6-2 in regular season play. Tantasqua then defeated Groton-Dunstable Regional and Fitchburg High in the Central Mass. playoffs for the Sectional title, before embarking on Xaverian Brothers High on Saturday, Nov. 23 in a Division 4 State Semifinal.

There, the Warriors played South Sectional representative Plymouth-South High for a right to play North Sectional champion Melrose High (10-0) at Gillette Stadium for the Division 4 State Championship.

Tantasqua's playoff run ended in Westwood, though, as the Panthers edged the Warriors, 26-14.

"We had our opportunities. Couldn't punch it in. A couple of turnovers that hurt us, a couple of penalties as we were driving — but I couldn't be prouder of our kids," said Hargis. "The seniors, being my third year in the program, they've bought in since Day One. When they were sophomores most of them started and we were 3-8. Last year 7-4, and this year making the State Semifinals."

The Warriors had to punt as they opened the game with the football, but their defense came to play early on. On Plymouth-South's sixth offensive snap, quarterback Hunter Dean dropped back to throw. But Tantasqua's Tyler Hall shot through the gap in the line to pressure the QB. Dean's throw found the hands of the Warriors' Seann Lauritsen, who ran back the interception 30 yards for the touchdown. Jarod Spratt's point after touchdown kick made it 7-0 with 5:50 remaining in the opening quarter.

"Ty did a great job of putting pressure on the quarterback," said Hargis. "Seann Lauritsen made a nice pick and then returned it to the house. It kind of helped us there because we had to punt on the first drive. That flipped the momentum, so it helped us out a lot."

The Panthers regained the momentum on the final snap of the first quarter when Dean (9 of 16, 114 yards) connected with Hunter Budrow on a 10-yard scoring pass. Tyler Doyle kicked the extra point to even the score at 7-7.

Plymouth-South then grabbed a 13-7 lead on its next possession, finishing it off with 2:24 to go until halftime when Dean barreled into the end zone from a yard out. Doyle's kick then hit the left upright.

Tantasqua looked to even the score before the half with a touchdown, but a late holding penalty forced the Warriors into attempting a 38-yard field goal. Spratt's boot may have been good from 37 yards, but the ball fell just shy of the crossbar.

"We got a holding call that put us behind the chains. Just probably a foot short on the field goal," said Hargis. "In a game like this, three points goes a long way, especially going into halftime."

The Panthers then padded their lead to 19-7 with 5:42 to play in the third quarter, which came after both teams were forced to punt. Nick Siegelman (26 carries, 104 yards) ran one in from 14 yards out, but Dean's two-point conversion throw fell incomplete.

Tantasqua then embarked on an all-important drive that took 11 plays to traverse 76 yards. Ryan Sears (24 carries, 117 yards) found the end zone from 11 yards out, twisting and spinning through Plymouth-South defenders.

"Sears has been a warrior for us all year," Hargis said of one of the 19 seniors, and one of the four co-captains, along with Liam Gore, Kyle Boone and Noah Galonek. "He's been running the ball, averaged 100 yards every single game, 150 most of the time. He runs the ball hard, physical. He wants to score every single play; you can't ask for any more than that."

Spratt's kick with six seconds to play in the third quarter cut the deficit down to 19-14.

But the Panthers scored next — Cillian Davis scampering in from 3 yards out, and Doyle made the PAT — to grab a 26-14 lead with 6:03 to go.

Tantasqua had two more drives, but they couldn't produce any additional points to close the gap.

The Warriors dropped to 8-3 as they wished the Panthers (10-1) well going forward.

"Plymouth-South is a great team. I wish them the best in the States and hopefully they can take it home against Melrose," said Hargis.

Tantasqua ball-carrier Liam Gore drags multiple Plymouth-South defenders with him while fighting for more yardage.

Thomas Flynn (72) and Matthew McCormick of Tantasqua walk back to their bench as Plymouth-South players celebrate their Division 4 State Semifinal victory over the Warriors.

Tantasqua's Jarod Spratt attempts a 38-yard field goal as the first half draws to a close.

Tantasqua lineman Tyler Hall gives quarterback Dante Reno some time to make his decision on whether to pass or run the ball.

Here’s How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

ONGOING EVENTS

ECONOMY SHOP: The First Congregational Church’s Economy Shop invites you to come in and see our Holiday items and our weekly specials. Our shop hours are Wednesday 8 a.m.-Noon, Thursdays 8 a.m.-2 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. and Fridays 8 a.m.-noon.

DEJA NEW: Art, Antiques & Collectibles Marketplace which is open in the St. Joseph’s Rectory building at 759 Main Street Leicester. Hours are Tuesday 5-7 p.m., Wednesday 9 a.m.-noon, Thursday 3-6 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m.-noon, all proceeds going back into the town’s Food Pantries, Hearts for Heat and programs for the needy. We are non-profit and run on volunteers. We are open May into December.

EAST BROOKFIELD LIBRARY PROGRAMS: The East Brookfield Public Library is currently conducting their fall registration for children’s programming. Rhythm and Rhyme is for toddlers aged 18 mos. to 3 years. This program runs from 9:45 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. and includes lots of music, finger plays, physical activities and a story with a related craft.

Preschool story time is geared for children aged 3 to 5 years old. It runs from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30a.m. Seasonal songs, poems, and gross motor activities are part of this program, as well as a story and craft that encourages fine motor skills. Both programs are held on Thursday mornings. Parents and caretakers are asked to remain with their children. For more information or to register by phone call (508) 867-7928. You can also like us on Facebook and visit our website @www.eastbrookfield-Library.com. We look forward to seeing you!

VFW MEETING: The Rochdale VFW Post 7556 will hold their monthly business meeting at 7:00 p.m. at the post at 713 Pleasant Street, Rochdale on the 2nd Wednesday of each month.

ALZHEIMER’S SUPPORT GROUP: On the third Wednesday of each month, 6-7 p.m. at the Overlook Independent Living Building, fourth floor Solarium, 88 Masonic Home Road, Charlton. PITCH at the Spencer Senior Center will begin on Sept. 18 at 6 p.m. Cost $5.

BEREAVEMENT GROUP IN W. BROOKFIELD: The First Congregational Church of West Brookfield, UCC has partnered with Faith and Family Hospice of Marlborough, MA to offer a local bereavement group for individuals who are living with the loss of someone they care deeply for. This program honors the reality that there is no perfect way to grieve or say goodbye to someone that we love—we each have our own process and our own time. Grief is not something that we “get better” from or that ever leaves us. Rather, we build coping skills to help us carry it through our lives. This group is open for all ages and all kinds of losses. It is a circle that strives to be mutually supportive and free of judgment. Sessions are held on Fridays at 5 pm in the church office at 36 North Main Street, West Brookfield, MA. Please call the church office to indicate you will be attending (508) 867-7078 or email 1stcongo.westbrookfield@gmail.com. There is no charge for this group. This group has recently started and wishes to welcome others in joining them. Sessions will be offered for six weeks with a two-week break between the next. (There is no limit to the number of times any individual can sign up for this program.)

David “Dave” J. Uracius, 57,

NEW BRAINTREE- David “Dave” J. Uracius, 57, a life-long resident of New Braintree passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, Nov. 19, 2019. Dave was born in Ware, MA on December 23, 1961, to the late Charles W. Uracius and Theresa (Morrison) Uracius of New Braintree.

Dave owned and operated his trucking business for many years, and recently worked for Stone and Lime, Inc., until January of 2018.

Dave had a passion for the outdoors. When he wasn’t hunting or fishing with family and friends, you could almost always find him cutting and splitting wood or tending to his “small” vegetable garden at his house. When Dave was not outside, he was either trying new restaurants with friends or inside preparing delicious meals for family and friends. Dave will truly be missed and will always be remembered for his love for family and his selflessness, he was always willing to help family and friends at the drop of a dime.

Dave leaves behind two brothers Ken Uracius and partner Patricia Pelchat of Brookfield, Gary Uracius of Florida; a sister Diane (Uracius) Petrone and husband Thomas of Florida; an uncle Ralph Morrison; he was a loving uncle to Michael Petrone and his wife Monica of Oregon, Dennis Jennette and his wife Natalie of Brookfield, Donna Petrone of Florida, Laura Jennette of Washington; many great nieces, nephews and his beloved Godson, Josh Howe. Friends and family are invited to attend calling hours on Tuesday, November 26, 2019 from 4-7PM in Pillsbury Funeral Home 44 Gilbert St. North Brookfield. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in memory of David Uracius to the: UMMS Medical School Office of Advancement: Oncology Clinic, 333 South Street, Shrewsbury, Mass., 01545.

Lillian E. Phelps Coulson , 100

N O R T H B R O O K F I E L D - Centenarian Lillian E. Phelps Coulson (Madsen) passed away on November 19, 2019 peacefully with her family.

Lillian was born on June 1, 1919 to Danish immigrants Emmy and Peter Madsen in Cedar Falls, IA where she lived with her 5 siblings. In 1940 she married the love of her life Everett Andrew Phelps of Waterloo, IA, with whom she had 4 children and was happily married for 38 years. After his passing in 1973 she traveled across the country and settled in Capitola, CA and met her second husband, Allen Earl Coulson, to whom she was married for 6 years. After his passing in 1983 she set off on a solo 6 year adventure traveling around the country in her motorhome, making new friends, teaching line dancing, singing and visiting family along the way. She then settled in San Marcos, CA with her sister (and partner in crime) Vera and daughter Julie until she moved to spend her final years in North Brookfield, MA with her daughters Elizabeth and Jane.

Lillian was a fiercely independent and bold soul who lived life to the fullest and loved music, dancing, reading, telling stories and jokes and meeting new people. She was tremendously proud of her children and grandchildren, who adored her. She was dedicated to the Heavenly Father and was an active church member in various communities. She was a shining light to all who met her.

She is preceded by her five siblings Helga, Vera, Robert, Richard and Jane, her 2 husbands and 2 children Scott Phelps and Jane A. Hayes. She is survived by her 2 daughters Julianne & husband Mike Tzendzalian and Elizabeth & her husband Gary Fuller; a daughter-in-law Kathy Phelps; 7 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

There are no services. Pillsbury funeral Home 44 Gilbert St. North Brookfield is directing arrangements. Memorial Contributions may be made to the Wounded Warrior Project.

Oh how Veterans Army, Marines, Air Force, Navy or Coast Guard fought for our rights We still haven't done enough for them They fought, died and made us free All we do is sit around and wait till the end So we need to stand up and thank them I don't care if you don't know who they are Give them the love they deserve And show the hard work back

AUTUMN LEAVES ARE HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE
BY RICHARD M. TRAUSCHKE

Autumn is here So are all the leaves; what should you do with them when they finally leave the trees?

Maybe rake them up neatly; form them into a mound. Then let the cold wind spread them all around?

Autumn leaves are beautiful as they're tumbling on down; but why so very many when you look upon the ground?

Very pretty colors all; orange, red, yellow and brown; I wish they'd stay upon the tree Instead of on the ground.

Maybe rake'em up and burn'em, that's what I could do; or just set the lawn on fire, it might help the environment, too.

Or take'em to a nearby stream, and chuck-em in the drink; then it's no longer my problem, well, that's just what I think.

A BLESSING IN DISGUISE
BY EVA E. PERRON,
EAST BROOKFIELD, MA

Thursday night was the busiest time at the mall, and with the opening of a new jewelry and gift store, Wanda was sure that it would be overcrowded. A parking spot close to the door was a good sign, and upon entering the store, her favorite pretzel maker had just removed her special snack, and, on an empty stomach, who could ask for anything more. "So far so good," she thought. With the new store on the third floor, and Wanda with a swollen ankle, decided to take the elevator.

A young man entered the elevator with her, greeted her, and when the door closed, the jolt and clanging pipes signaled a break down. The loudspeaker confirmed their frightful thoughts. "Ladies and gentlemen, please be patient, a crew will be making repairs and we'll get you out as soon as possible."

Wanda's plans to meet her sister in a half hour worried her. Stacia would be furious!

The man who introduced himself as "Joe, the plumber," harbored the same thoughts – his bride-to-be had a terrible temper, and their trip to the jewelry store was to pick out a diamond ring; she did not accept the first one, she insisted on a bigger stone. Their wedding was in two weeks.

Wanda was surprised as the gift she came to buy was also for a wedding in two weeks. She stated, "I'm invited as a guest of my sister," and she added, "I feel sorry for the poor guy." Joe asked, "why?" Well, the bride-to-be got pregnant by her guitar playing boyfriend, and she got the groom to be believing it's his baby."

Joe listened very intently... and a few questions followed. "How do you know all of this?"

"Well, the bride-to-be works with my sister in the claims department of an insurance company, and she admitted this to a few of her friends.

As Wanda was still talking, the loudspeaker acknowledged that the elevator was repaired, and the doors would open soon.

Joe paid attention only to Wanda's story. He didn't seem to care that they'd soon be out, and when he turned to Wanda and explained, "don't be in a hurry to buy that wedding gift," she thought, "he's a strange guy," and he added, "this adventure was a truly blessing in disguise."

The door opened; Stacia was there waiting for Wanda. "I was worried about you," she said and added, "I can't believe I just can't believe, but that guy with you on the elevator is the groom of the wedding we're invited to.

Wanda uttered two words, "OH NO!"

The End.

GRATITUDE
ANONYMOUS,
FROM NORTH BROOKFIELD

Gratitude, where do I begin? The word gratitude means to be thankful. I am very thankful for the life I was given. There were many ups and downs, but the best thing was being able to deal with the problems as they arrived. In 82 years, you do learn how to have gratitude and to be thankful for little things and bigger things. Material things are "I want" items. What I wanted and needed I worked for over the years was to raise my family in the way I was raised. That they would have respect, love, wisdom, gratitude, thankfulness for mankind.

My parents were able to establish a firm foundation for us to live by. We had a good life growing up; we soared from childhood to adulthood to being senior citizens. We had many opportunities to learn different skills and how to be gracious to others. I thank my God for letting me put my feet on the floor, to get up and being able to face another day. I look forward to seeing family, friends, and the chance to go to the church of my choosing. Seeing as I have an abundance of being thankful, I try to keep a smile on my face and love in my heart. Sometimes it isn't easy. When a group of people are talking at once you cannot hear what is being said. I find that God has given me the grace to listen and I can walk away; always with a smile. (hmm it keeps people wondering what you are thinking.)

Get down on your knees (if able) and be thankful for life experiences that have come your way, complaints welcome, be thankful and accept gracefully what you have. With time and patience things do get better. My advice is to keep busy. Read. Read and read more. What a beautiful world we have to explore and share our knowledge with others. To teach our young ones how to be thankful, gracious, and kind to one another.

I am grateful for the ability to knit prayer shawls, comfort lap throws and baby blankets. For the homeless hats and scarfs with prayers weaved into the items. Just knowing that I helped these individuals in a small way is the highlight of knitting. Pray that these items help them to stay warm during our winter months. I also enjoy visiting the shut-ins. They give you love and comfort back just because you were gracious to visit them in their time of need. They are feeling discouraged, confused and lonely in making decisions for their future. This keeps me on my grateful journey as I remember the ones who have been through hard times.

Now that I have expressed some of my gratitude and thankfulness, what do you have to say? Are you willing to express how thankful and how grateful you are? Tell your families and friends that you love them. They need to hear it often. We are so blessed, grateful and thankful that we live in America. Please take some time and spend it praying for our military, never to forget their sacrifices for our country. So this Thanksgiving, share your gratitude, love, grace, comfort, support, trust.

ONE LAST RIDE
BY DARCIE TRUDEAU,
EAST BROOKFIELD, MA

I am thankful for my days on earth, For my friends and family there below. They knew too well, my time had come, And grieved to see me go.

I ask they may find comfort, Lord For I am in a better place. Please let them know that I'll Rest In Peace, Thanks to Your amazing grace.

I cowboied up, on my favorite mule, When I heard the angels call. Please let them know that I made it home, After mucking out, one last stall.

Those from the past that I had lost, Gathered round as I rode in. To welcome me, through Heavens gates, As you forgave me from all sin.

I am grateful that you blessed me with, Memories of a long eventful life, For my journeys in the saddle, Alongside my beautiful, devoted wife.

For my daughter, who held my hand, As you released my soul. And my faithful border collie, Shoney All saddened to see me go.

Please let them know, my pain is gone fear of the unknown, set aside I'll anticipate our Grand Reunion, Lord When they make their final ride. April 3rd, 2018

God It's Me Again
BY SHER MORSE, SPENCER, MA

God, It's me again. We talk Every night About the Day gone by And the days ahead. I oft times Tell you about My problems, Praying for your help. Appearances suggest Those prayers Go unanswered. I wonder why... I am suffering Lord, Unable to Endure much longer. Are you listening? Am I on my own? And yet, I still pray nightly, Yearning to believe, Begging for solutions. God, It's me again. Another day In the books, Another day, Above ground, Another day Of needing you.

HIS NAME WAS JOHN
BY SHER MORSE, SPENCER, MA

He would've been 46 years old this month. This kind, gentle soul was a friend to all. He was easy going and a free spirit. A one of a kind son and father. He passed two years ago, But the sorrow still runs deep. He is missed dearly. Not a day goes by when he is not thought of with much love. Gone too soon, From family and friends. He was a young man. His name was John.

OCTOBER 8th
BY SUE ANGELA HEALY, NORTH BROOKFIELD, MA
IN LOVING MEMORY OF GINA L. (SCLAMO) SPECHT

As we were traveling on 290 to attend your wake I gazed up at the billboard – my breath it did take I stated clearly that Jesus offers peace, hope and rest And knew at that moment that He takes only the best Seeing your lovely picture in the paper I thought maybe that girl I know But how – where, or maybe it was just years ago Your passing for some reason touched my broken heart Taken probably before we ever met, now we're apart If and ever I had met you – I know you'd be a forever friend For I learned of your love thoughtfulness, on whom everyone came to depend Staring at your infectious smile, I could see you were compassionate and your eyes did shine Unique – special – considerate – you were one of a kind Your numerous snap shots showed an outgoing individual – full of fun In everyone's heart and life – you were number one Your wedding to David as you became his beloved wife From that day forward – for the rest of your life But in 2011 for him God had other plans Another angel in Heaven in such great demand Michael and Kayla remaining your little girl and boy Cherish those moments together playing with their favorite toy Charlene your sister-in-law, Gary and Peter your brothers Always and forever in your soul – there could be no other Katheri-Andrew-Josephine-Eddy-Lisa-Scott-Jeffrey and Paul Sorry they were not there with you when receiving our Lord's call

Your first communion days in Florida enjoying the beach Bending over for that perfect seashell you would somehow reach An avid cook – going to the casino – spending time with friends and family This so very important to you and to me Greeting others your best friend Peggy looked grief stricken and lost Buying you a ticket to Florida for your birthday – no matter the cost Yet this year all will be spending your birthday and holidays alone For God chose to take you to heaven – another home They knew you'd want us to go on with life and for you do not cry

Now up above with David-Marcia-Louis-Paul and Cassandra – too young they have died Was it they who have called you to be with them, or was it just fate? Whatever the reason Gina – we shall treasure your love, laughter, and you But never forget October 8th

REAL MEN CRY
BY SUE ANGELA HEALY,
NORTH BROOKFIELD, MA

Do you remember when we were young and someone died? We were told real men don't cry Where in the world did this come from? Does it apply to just anyone? But it stuck to all throughout the years You had to be tough – brave – shed no tears Stand tall with dignity – act like a man Something to me I just never could understand A young male – a child who fell and scraped his knee Are supposed to be a big boy – no whining to me An everyday teenager insured in a fight Holding back those tear drops with all of his might Grown up with children – a husband loses his wife Darkness – no tears shed for the rest of his life To me it's like wearing shorts and flip flops as it begins to snow If you are freezing no one can know Saying you are fine when you're not feeling well Trying to be strong so no one can tell In a horrific accident you hit your head A smile – a brave face - putting on an act instead To me when a gentleman cries it shows they are human-they are real Each and every women's heart they will steal It shows they don't care what other guys think As an example if you decide not to drink Not being ashamed or embarrassed of who you are Because of your honesty you will surely go far Proving to others you have feelings – you care Some things others may be unaware You are capable of showing emotions – able to love A gift you inherited from the heavens above Crying makes you feel better so don't be shy Because in reality – the truth of the matter is real men do cry!

Happy Thanksgiving!

Ad Libs by June

Ok, so the paper says November 29, but you're reading this on November 27...we had early deadlines so that we could get the newspapers in the homes for Thanksgiving. Thank you to my advertisers for your cooperation in getting ad copy in early...you're the best!

Had the pleasure of visiting THIBAUT'S COUNTRY STORE last week. What a treat it was to see a true country store! They are located down Route 31 North (before the Abby), with a working kids carousel in the front of the store, along with some old farm equipment. The inside is tastefully decorated with lots of antiques (not for sale) and a history of Thibaults, which has been in the family since 1925. See the ad on TIS THE SEASON, page 2, and front of B Section for a list of some of the things they carry or better yet, stop in! What isn't listed is the 1912 Victrola playing Christmas tunes! A sure delight to visit.

Save the date for the town of WARE Main Street Stroll Sat. December 7 from 11-3. Our Ware Your Neighbors businesses will be participating in this fun day. Also coming up on December 7 is MARY QUEEN OF THE ROSARY's, in Spencer, ANNUAL CHRISTMAS FAIRE from 9AM-2:30 PM, and LEICESTER HIGH SCHOOL ART CLUB'S HOLIDAY CRAFT FAIR, from 9am-2:30. Free admission to all. Make it a fun day and go to all events!

Welcome to our TIS THE SEASON...a recently opened yoga studio in Cherry Valley called CHERRY VALLEY YOGA. The studio is located at 207 Main Street in Cherry Valley. From their website, "Cherry Valley Yoga is a neighborhood yoga studio dedicated to improving health and happiness through the study of yoga. We provide yoga classes for all levels of experience, body-types and ages. Can't touch your toes? No problem, we have classes for you. Gumby who falls asleep in postures? We have classes for you too." Check out their website and Facebook page for information for upcoming special classes and sign up! Namaste.

THE WRITE STUFF is in this week! Check it out!

Have a great week and a very HAPPY THANKSGIVING...gobble up some yummy food and remember to give thanks for all your blessings.
