After slow start, Timber Wolves rally past Hilltoppers

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

ALTON — It wasn't the start that the Prospect Mountain soccer boys were looking for when they welcomed Somersworth to town on Monday, Sept. 9.

However, it's not how you start, it's how you finish, and the Timber Wolves did that just fine, as they scored six unanswered goals to rally past the "Toppers by a 6-2 score.

"It wasn't the start we were looking for," said coach Cory Halvorsen, who returned to the sidelines after a few years away. "But once they settled down a little and played our game, they started controlling the play.

"Somersworth came out strong and did what they needed to," Halvorsen added. "We just had to settle down."

The Hilltoppers scored just more than a minute into the game for the quick 1-0 lead and after some chances from TJ Locke, Bryce Watson and Sergio Duarte, the Timber Wolves also got a save from goalie Ben Gagnon. Watson and Kaleb Kennedy connected on a chance that was also stopped by the Somersworth goalie. The visitors then upped their lead to 2-0 less than six minutes into the game before the Timber Wolves started to settle down. Duarte had a cross cleared and Kennedy and Joe Deane connected on a chance that went wide. Knyte Neathery had a good defensive stop for Prospect and Duarte had a shot stopped on a Prospect corner kick.

Watson just missed connecting with Deane on a bid and at the other end, Blake Snell had a huge clear off the goal line as the Hilltoppers threatened again. Deane also had a cross deflected wide that led to another corner. Gagnon snared a Somersworth direct kick and Deane had a shot stopped by the Hilltopper goalie. Kennedy sent a nice cross into the zone that Shaun McAneney sent wide of the net.

The Timber Wolves finally got on the board with 19:35 to go in the first half, as Locke sent a cross in front to Wyatt Bubar and the ball got to McAneney, who buried the shot to cut the lead to 2-1. McAneney, Bubar and Bryce Lounsbury combined in close for a good chance and Deane had a couple of shots denied by the Somersworth goalie. McAneney had another shot go high and Watson had a few chances denied. Rylan Clifford had a shot blocked and McAneney had another shot saved.

Prospect had a couple of corner kicks that they couldn't convert and Locke made a good run into the zone that was turned back by the defense. Gagnon made another save and Locke sent a shot wide as the clock ticked down to halftime with Somersworth still up 2-1.

The Timber Wolves didn't need much of the second half to tie up the score, as Watson finished off a feed from Deane just 2:40 into the half to knot the score at two. Watson had another shot denied and Prospect Mountain had a trio of corners but could not convert.

Less than 10 minutes into the second half, Prospect took its first lead of the game, as McAneney sent a nice ball ahead to Deane, who buried the shot and Prospect had the 3-2 lead. Duarte had a shot go high and after Somersworth sent a shot wide, Locke did the same at the other end.

With 21:17 to go in the game, McAneney netted his second goal of the game and Prospect had the 4-2 lead. Deane had another chance stopped and the "Toppers had a couple of bids stopped, including a corner kick. Kennedy had a nice clear from the zone and Somersworth sent a shot off the cross bar as well.

With 9:42 to go, Bubar was rewarded for following up a shot, as the Hilltopper goalie bobbled a chance and he was there to bury the shot for the 5-2 lead. The Timber Wolves had another corner kick chance but could not convert.

The final tally of the game came in the final five minutes, as Watson netted his second goal of the game and the Timber Wolves picked up the 6-2 win.

"The talk at halftime was that we had to play our game, not someone else's," said Halvorsen. "Once we did that, we knew we'd get there.

"They did everything I asked of them in the second half," the Timber Wolf coach added.

Prospect Mountain is scheduled to be at Gilford on Friday, Sept. 20, and will be hosting Sanborn on Wednesday, Sept. 25, both scheduled for 4 p.m. starts.

Winni Chase Regatta returns to Wolfeboro Bay

WOLFEBORO — Following the success of last year's inaugural event, Brewster Academy will be hosting the Winni Chase crew regatta on Saturday, Sept. 28, from 8 to 11:30 a.m. (rain date: Sept. 29).

A timed head race for crew teams from around New Hampshire, the Winni Chase is expected to bring more than 500 spectators to Wolfeboro to enjoy the competition and nearby downtown shops and eateries. Brewster has collaborated with Wolfeboro Fire and Police departments, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Town of Wolfeboro to ensure that the race will be a fun addition to the weekend, which includes the Town's Annual Fall Festival and Sidewalk Sale

Days, notes Nancy Prevost, one of the Brewster organizers. "The morning of the regatta will require a partial Bay closure, but it will not block or close the Wolfeboro Town Docks at any time," Prevost says. Starting at 7:45 a.m. on Sept. 28, buoys will go up around the short race course that hugs the shore from Brewster's Pinckney Boathouse to Worcester Island and back. To protect the rowers, no boats are allowed in the race area, but there will be a large open lane on the northside of the Bay allowing traffic to the Town Docks. Marine patrol will enforce headway speed only in the northside lane to protect the rowers and cut down on wakes, and spotter boats will be positioned along the course.

The public is welcome to watch the races from Brewster Beach off of Clark Road or from Brewster's Palazzo Field on campus.
"Bring a folding chair or blanket and enjoy the competition. There's no charge!" Prevost says, noting that parking will be a short walk away on DeWolf Field. (There will be no parking at Brewster's Boathouse, as that is reserved for emergency vehicles during the event.)
"We'd like to give special thanks to our sponsors: Lake Winni Team, Sleeping Dog Properties, ASB Architecture, Pella Windows and Doors of New England, and Downtown Grill," Prevost added.
The Regatta was inspired by Brewster's love of Lake Winnepesaukee lore. On Aug. 3, 1852, the first American intercollegiate athletic competition of any sport took place on Winnepesaukee. What is now commonly referred to as "the Race" was a contest between Harvard and Yale rowing teams, a tradition that continues to this day, though no longer held here. "The Winni Chase Regatta honors the special place that this lake, our home lake, holds in the history of this sport," Prevost explains. Learn more about the Winni Chase Regatta and sponsorship opportunities online at brewsteracademy.org/winni-chase. And please feel free to contact the Winni Chase team at winnichase@brewsteracademy.org with any questions.

Program celebrates legacy of James Foley

WOLFEBORO — On Wednesday, Sept. 25 from 6-7:30 p.m. in the Wolfeboro Library, Mrs. Jennifer Murray do Carmo, Kingswood Regional High School social studies teacher, and several students will be joined by Diane Foley, offering the community an opportunity to learn more about James Foley, conflict journalist and Wolfeboro native who lost his life 10 years ago at the hands of ISIS as he sought to tell the stories of those 'voiceless' who suffered in the Syrian conflict.

Mrs. do Carmo teaches a course on "Global Citizenship" at KRHS where students learn about Jim's life, his moral courage, and how that quality can and should become a motivating force in their own lives. The evening will engage attendees in open discussion, film clips from the documentary "JIM: The James Foley Story" and a Q & A with Diane Foley, Jim's mother, the students, and Mrs. do Carmo.

This opportunity to reflect on the impact of Jim's life and his legacy, now part of the mission of the James W. Foley Legacy Foundation begun by his parents, is one from which all can be enriched. There is no charge or need to pre-register. The program will engage all who attend.

We Will NOT be Undersold

Sanity over chaos

In the current political climate, the line between reality and fringe conspiracy has been blurred far too often. While it's normal—and even healthy—to have political differences, there should be an undeniable baseline requirement for sanity, fact-based reasoning, and a genuine understanding of how government works. Candidates who peddle unfounded conspiracy theories are not fit to hold positions of power, regardless of what side of the aisle they come from.

The growing trend of electing individuals who not only embrace, but champion, these theories is a dangerous one. Governance requires a deep understanding of lawmaking, negotiation, and, most importantly, the ability to work across the aisle. Yet, when a candidate's platform is rooted in falsehoods and divisiveness, they bring chaos to a process that already struggles with enough challenges.

There are candidates who may not align perfectly with your personal political views but have proven track records of compromise and effectiveness. These candidates understand the complexity of government—they know that progress doesn't come from shouting in an echo chamber or fabricating scapegoats, but from sitting down with opponents and finding common ground. These are the individuals who can work across the aisle, who understand that our government was designed to be slow and methodical for a reason, and who seek to improve it, rather than burn it down.

On the other hand, there are those who have built their careers on conspiracy theories and fear-mongering. These individuals sow distrust in our institutions and promote divisiveness, making it impossible to work toward meaningful solutions. Their goals often center around self-promotion and power accumulation, rather than serving the people or the greater good. They reject the idea of compromise, not out of principle, but out of a need to perpetuate chaos and misinformation.

Before casting your vote, it's crucial to do your research. Look into how the government actually works—how bills are passed, how compromises are made, and how policies are enacted. Examine what each candidate has done and said in the past. Have they demonstrated a willingness to work with those they disagree with? Have they proposed realistic solutions to real problems, or are they offering easy answers to complex issues, based on theories that don't hold up to scrutiny?

Sanity must win in these decisions. Even if you don't fully agree with a candidate's policies, electing someone grounded in reality is far better than someone whose platform rests on distortion and delusion. A healthy democracy is built on debate and diversity of thought, but it must also be built on truth. We need leaders who are serious about solving the problems facing our country—leaders who understand that working across the aisle isn't a betrayal, but a necessity.

In the end, casting a vote for a candidate who can cooperate with others—even those they may disagree with—ensures that government can function. Voting for those who traffic in conspiracy theories only ensures that we continue to spiral into chaos, and that's a risk we simply cannot afford to take.

Barnyard Tales with Mark Stevens Sept. 24

The Gilmanton Historical Society presents Barnyard Tales as its final program of the 2024 season. Iconic old New Hampshire barns are rapidly becoming a thing of the past as they get torn down, catch fire, or deteriorate. Mark Stevens of Canterbury was part of a group several years ago that set out to document prominent local barns before they disappeared. On the way, the group discovered fascinating tales about many barns that also had to be documented and preserved. Come hear Mark tell these interesting stories. The program, at the Old Town Hall at 1800 NH Route 140 in Gilmanton Iron Works, begins at 6:30 p.m. Social hour & refreshments at 6 p.m. All are welcome. There is no charge but donations to support the Society are welcome. For more information, visit our Web site at Home - Gilmanton Historical Society.

LETTERS FROM EDWIN

Haphazards

I have one complete set of bathroom towels. My towel supply is made up of mix and match colors and styles, all piled up neatly on their shelves. I'm totally not in Better Homes and Garden style. After I do a wash, I stack the clean items on top of their respective pile. When I want a new one, I slide one out from the bottom. A varying rate of use along, with unmatched quantities, makes for a veritable lottery of selection. I really don't care if I have a dark blue washcloth, a lite blue hand towel, and a tan bath towel. I'm not into such segregation. I'm more into function.

Today, if you happened to wander into my bathroom, you will see that all three are matching blue and white striped with a nice dark blue trim on opposing edges. Cute. What are the chances of such a thing happening? And more so, how did I ever get a full set of matching bath towels? It must have been a Yankee Swap, because I certainly didn't buy them.

This weekend, I was asked to provide sound for a wedding in a remote extremity of Maine's seashore. Upon looking on my computer, I was given a travel time of two and a half hours. So that's what I planned for. I basically knew how to get the majority of the way there from my years driving the band bus. Upon heading out, I entered the address into my car's GPS machine which registered three hours to get there. How can two computers come up with different information?

I soon found out. My car GPS is programmed to avoid tolls and dirt roads. My town has eighty miles of roadway, forty paved, and forty dirt. If you ever come visit me, I recommend setting your machine to avoid dirt roads, it will save you lots of time and aggravation because some of these roads are non-maintained and subject to not being plowed or tree falls, and never mind meeting opposing traffic with no turn outs. Two dollars in tolls saved me the half hour of scenic drive time and got me to my destination as planned.

I never get to hear all this equipment that I've built and put together over the years because I'm always up on stage behind it. All I hear is the thump of the bass and the reflections off the walls. I remember in the sixties, before stage monitors were developed, that was all we had to listen to. We actually sang harmonies with other voices that we didn't hear till a split second later. You had to know your pitch. Monitors definitely helped.

The music source for the reception was a cell phone that had everything recorded on a sound file. Talk about easy. There was a three hour assortment of dance-able songs from the last three quarters of a century. In listening, it was totally obvious where in the timeline of recording technology each song was recorded. Since record albums needed the bass squashed so as to not cause the needle to jump out of the groove, all the record album materials were comparatively bass lacking, even with their RIAA equalization. It just could have used more low end. All the music recorded since CD's came around was much fuller sounding.

The newer stuff, it's totally accentuated. It really didn't matter though, the dance floor in that little remote seaside shack was pumping. It was pleasing to hear.

This morning the temperature outside was 45. Inside the house, it had maintained 62. That's not terrible, but it is winter temps. I'm not ready to pull out the flannel PJ's yet. It's still legally summer. I did trade in my short sleeved light summer shirt for a long sleeved flannel. It helped enough for this morning. Just watch, in a couple of days I'll wish I hadn't thrown the other shirt in the laundry basket.

If that happens, I could easily just grab it back. I'm not likely to do laundry any time soon. I try to collect a good load worth before running the machine, and I just did them. Think efficiency.

So as September rolls through, all my drawers and shelves are filled. There is a shortage of empty hangers in my closet. The lawn could use a trim, and so couldn't I.

Letters to the Editor

I am grateful for your confidence in me

To the Editor:

Sincere appreciation to all voters in Alton and Barnstead who cast votes for me on Primary Day as I stand for my third term in Concord. How good it was to meet and greet so many of you as I split the 12 hours between our two polling locations.

After nearly two terms of service, I was particularly humbled and gratified to receive more than 200 votes than I did on Primary Day 2022, perhaps at least in part to the growing confidence people have in me, demonstrating that I can be relied upon to uphold the principles and positions on issues that I have campaigned upon.

We are now in the sprint to the Nov. 5 General Election. Should I be re-elected, I will enthusiastically and unreservedly renew my promise to listen carefully and work conscientiously both to preserve our state's enviable position as one of the best, if not the best places to live and to build on our accomplishments as we grapple with the numerous challenging issues that confront us.

Back in the Swap Shop again

To the Editor:

After five years, the hope of reopening the Alton Swap Shop has come that much closer. It was closed because of COVID, and had experienced other issues, and some believed it would never open again. However, many of the townspeople who had used the shop wanted it back. Beginning in February, the Board of Selectmen were asked to look into the possibility of it reopening. With a default budget, money for such a project was not available. Many avenues were explored, including another location than the Transfer Station. Last Monday, with a full house of Alton residences, the Board of Selectmen voted to move what had been the building, a conex, to a new site at the Transfer Station and create a road to it. It was bare bones but with the residences support it will be up and running next spring.

Some of the problems yet to be decided are many. One is how to provide for new shelving as the old shelving had been removed. Another is getting electricity to the facility. Still a third is how to make a shipping container safer, as well as more suitable and comfortable for the shoppers and the volunteers who will manage the shop. Then too, there will always be the problems of the wrong items being left and the buildup of too many things that create clutter and an unsightly mess.

Even though there are problems, solutions have been found for some of them and volunteers have begun to sign up.

A meeting will be held shortly for the townspeople to begin solving the problems that still remain and input from the townspeople will be encouraged and vital.

A Web site on Facebook has been set up. Ongoing information can be found there. Its address is: Alton NH Swap Shop.

An email address that can be used to contact the coordinator is: AltonNHSwapShop@gmail.com.

Comfort Keepers

Adapting homes to seniors' changing needs

BY MARTHA SWATS

Owner/Administrator
Comfort Keepers

More Americans are choosing to age in place. That is, they opt to stay in their homes rather than move to alternative retirement settings.

But that often means they must modify their home, so it's not a danger to their safety and health when their physical abilities change.

A new career field has risen to address this need: the Certified Aging-in-Place Specialist (CAPS), a program of the National Association of Home Builders. Certified individuals assess homes to identify and recommend modifications to prevent injuries from falls and other risks.

According to the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), one-third of Americans age 65 and over fall each year. The CDC adds that environmental factors lead to about half of all falls that occur at home. In addition to tripping hazards and poor lighting, these factors include a lack of needed modifications, such as bathroom grab bars, handicapped showers, stair railings and ramps. The organization offers a checklist to make sure an older adult's home is as safe as possible.

Home modifications help seniors maintain quality of life. They often prevent injuries that lead to a loss of independence and early admission to an assisted living or long-term care facility.

The following are examples of commonly recommended modifications:

- Install grab bars for toilets and tubs and install a walk-in tub and/or tub seat
- Remove unnecessary throw rugs and fasten down rugs or floor runners to prevent slipping

- Move furniture to create clear walking paths

• Keep objects off the floor and coil or secure cords to the wall to prevent tripping

- Replace doorknobs with lever door handles

• Apply non-slip tape on uncarpeted indoor and outdoor steps

- Replace standard light switches with rocker-style switches

• Increase the width of doorways and hallways to accommodate wheelchairs and, where possible, lower sinks and countertops

- Move often-used items to lower cabinets to avoid the need for step stools

• Repair or replace loose handrails and install adequate lighting in stairways

- Install an elevator or chair lift

• Install an elevated dishwasher or one with drawers for easy access

- Replace old stoves with induction cooktops to help prevent burns

• Replace ceramic tile floors with hardwood or vinyl for safe standing

Shedding light on home modification

When modifying a home for a senior, don't forget the importance of good lighting. Seniors need two to three times as much light in order to see as well as younger people.

Good lighting -- in the form of natural light -- provides seniors safety and other advantages:

- Sunlight provides a good dose of vitamin D, which helps the body absorb more calcium to strengthen teeth and bones. Choose window treatments that let in sunlight, without glare, to enhance the health of seniors, many of who get outside less than they used to.

• Daylight also improves psychological health. It lessens the energy-zapping effects of Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD) and other forms of depression.

Comfort Keepers® can help

They can also provide support for physician-approved diet and exercise plans, provide transportation to appointments and community events and can assess a home for safety issues and reducing fall hazards. The griper

POSITIVELY SPEAKING TOBY MOORE

If you like to gripe, you'll say about me, "He's just writing this column to complain about people who like to gripe! He's just a complainer in disguise!" So true—I'm basically undercover in the world of whiners, taking notes on the art of pointless moaning. Call it gripe-ology, if you will.

Larry Longsigh was a hard worker by most standards but never seemed content, no matter how well things went for him. Every situation, no matter how fortunate, was met with a complaint. When he won a free vacation in a raffle, he sighed, "Now I'll have to deal with the hassle of packing and airports." When his friends threw him a surprise birthday party, instead of being grateful, he grumbled, "Why didn't they ask me first? I hate surprises." Even when his health improved after a long recovery, Larry found a way to moan, "Great, now I have no excuse to take it easy." Nothing could make him happy!

Some people gripe with just cause, and others gripe.

Larry visited the same café every morning and, without fail, grumbled, griped, and complained about everything. "Why are the napkins folded this way? They're too neat!" "The muffins are too... muffiny." One day, he grumbled, "This sunlight coming through the window? Too bright. Can't someone turn it down?" At first, the other customers tried to ignore him, but soon, one by one, they started to leave in the most exaggerated ways. One woman put down her coffee, and then—CRUNCH! The entire thing collapsed under him, sending him sprawling in a mess of bolts, handlebars, and shame.

Don't be too hard on the person who always gripes—they're making life hard enough on their own.

Larry Longsigh didn't limit his complaints to the café or his driveway—his favorite spot to grumble was the neighborhood Christmas party. One year, he started strong. "Tinsel on the tree? Choking hazard," he muttered, tugging at a strand. At the snack table, he eyed the egg-nog. "Who drinks this? It's liquid regret!"

But the real show came during the Secret Santa gift exchange. "Gift exchanges? Great, more junk," Larry groaned. When his turn came, he opened a scarf. "A scarf? What am I supposed to do with this? Hang myself?"

In typical Larry fashion, he tied the scarf dramatically, pulling too hard and accidentally hooking himself on a nearby coat rack. His legs flailed as the room fell silent, then burst into laughter. "This is exactly what I get for showing up," Larry sighed, still dangling.

Give a griper plenty of rope, and they will hang themselves.

And so, we come full circle, back to the art of pointless moaning—gripe-ology at its finest.

In the end, though, constant complaining is a trap. Life keeps moving, whether you're enjoying it or not. So, the real question is: will you spend it griping, or will you find a reason to smile?

ABA Monthly Member Highlight: Lake Winnepesaukee Association

ALTON — The Alton Business Association had the pleasure having the Lake Winnepesaukee Association (LWA) as the speaker for our monthly meeting and learned more about them and their crucial role in protecting one of New Hampshire's most cherished natural resources; Lake Winnepesaukee. The LWA's mission is to protect and improve the water quality of Lake Winnepesaukee and its watershed through advocacy, education, and direct action. Their work is vital in ensuring the long-term sustainability of the lake for future generations of residents, visitors, and wildlife alike.

Through water quality testing, monitoring, and implementation of watershed management plans, the LWA works tirelessly to address issues such as runoff pollution and shoreline erosion, which pose threats to the lake's ecosystem. One of their accomplishments includes securing $650,000 in federal grants aimed at safeguarding and enhancing water quality across the Lake Winnepesaukee watershed. This funding will support critical projects designed to mitigate pollution and protect the lake's delicate ecosystem.

Lake Winnepesaukee has been identified by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) as one of New Hampshire's threatened or impaired bodies of water. It is listed for marginal support of plant and animal life, which makes the LWA's work even more vital. To address these concerns, the LWA is leading the Lake Winnepesaukee Comprehensive Protection Initiative. This initiative focuses on implementing long-term solutions to preserve the lake's water quality, reduce nutrient loading, and protect the health of the lake's ecosystem.

Experience shows that the most effective approach for monitoring and protecting valuable water resources is a comprehensive watershed-based management plan. In fact, such plans are a requirement for securing EPA funding for stormwater mitigation and protection projects under the Clean Water Act. How can you help? There are sponsor and volunteer opportunities available.

*The LWA are seeking sponsorship to help cover the costs involved in holding the Winnepesaukee Cleanup Event, an amazing and important cleanup event for our lake. People from all around the lake volunteer to pick up trash along roadways and areas near the shoreline. Last year, approximately 12 yards of trash was collected! There will be a gathering at the Ames Farm Inn with a tentative date of Oct. 1 for the event. All proceeds and donations go directly to costs associated with holding the Winnepesaukee Cleanup Event.

*The Steering Committee primary role is to access and provide feedback on essential draft deliverables and project outcomes. Additionally, members will engage in field work and other supportive activities. This project is expected to span two years, with steering committee meeting two to four times annually, as scheduled by project manager.

Volunteers are needed to join steering committees for watershed management plans in Center Harbor, The Broads, and Alton Bay. The project is estimated to span for 2 years with members meeting two to four times per year.

For more information about the Lake Winnepesaukee Association's work, ongoing projects, and how to volunteer please visit www.winnepesaukee.org.

Every month we sit down with one of our amazing ABA members to get to know them a little better! We ask each member the same questions, providing an opportunity for our members to highlight the important work that they do in our communities. If you're an ABA Member and would like to be considered for future Monthly Member Highlights, please reach out to us via email at info@altonbusinessassociation.com.

Check out your next movie at the Gilman Library

ALTON — Did you know that the Gilman Library at 100 Main St., Alton, has a wide variety of video discs for loan?

The library currently holds more than 3,000 DVDs in all genres, available for library card holders. The collection includes around 350 animated films. There are over 50 Blu-rays, nearly 50 New Hampshire videos, and about 300 DVDS that are part of popular television series. All the DVDs are available for one-week loans and an automatic one-week renewal is generated by our computerized circulation system, if there is not a reserve pending. The library patron is responsible for the DVD until it is checked in at the circulation desk. The only requirement, other than returning your DVD, is to return it inside at the circulation desk, and not in the After-hours Book Drop. The After-Hours Book Drop, located at the front door, is for books only, after hours. The reasoning is that DVDs (and CDs, as well) may be damaged by incoming books dropping into the box before they are checked in.

If you cannot find a special film or specific television series that you are looking for, we can request to borrow it from another library within the state and have it available to you in about a week or two. Many of our patrons enjoy this inter-library loan service for books, books-on-CD, and DVDs that we do not have on our shelves.

Many patrons find it gratifying to watch a favorite DVD on their own schedule. In a day and age where many people utilize live-streaming through paid subscriptions, cable, or dish, it is nice to know that there are free options.

The Gilman Library's mission has always been "to enrich the quality of life through nurturing the joy of reading and lifelong learning by addressing the informational, educational, and recreational needs of the community." This library seeks to address all mediums to accomplish that. At the Gilman Library, you will find books, magazines, DVDs, CDs, games, a collection of assorted and sundry Library Things, fax and copy service, public computers, free Wi-Fi, a community jigsaw puzzle, chess and checker table, and comfortable places to read, relax, or chat with a friend over a coffee from the coffee station. While chatting with other patrons, you are sure to hear recommendations on the next DVD that you just must check out. See you at the library.

More than 17,000 people voted, and Patrick's half-pound Angus burger has topped the charts. The perfect ratio of Angus short rib, beef brisket and chuck is grilled to order on the flat-top grill, sealing in those delicious flavors and juices. The patty is typically nestled in a buttery brioche bun and is infinitely customizable.

bacon, lettuce, tomato, onion, house-made pickles and roasted garlic aioli on a grilled brioche bun.

While those classic burger combinations are staples on Patrick's diverse menu, Morten loves to get creative and experiment with unique flavors from around the world. His recent creation—the Thai Burger—layered with house-smoked pork belly, house-made Thai cucumbers, pickled red onions and Sriracha ai-

Morten is proud of staff who made winning this award possible.

"We have a great team in the kitchen. Our staff have been working here a long time. That provides passion and consistency our guests can count on," Morten said.

General Manager Megan Page is thankful to all of the restaurant's satisfied guests who cast their vote.

"We take pride in every dish we serve," Page said. "This is a big win for our kitchen, and we are grateful to everyone who tasted our burgers and loved them enough to vote."

Meeken and Kelly perform cabaret-style fundraiser for Playhouse

Ashley Meeken and Teghan Marie Kelly met while performing as mother and daughter in the Winnepesaukee Playhouse's 2023 production of "Mamma Mia!"

MEREDITH — The Winnepesaukee Playhouse will be presenting "Behind the Curtain" with Ashley Meeken and Teghan Marie Kelly on Oct. 5. This cabaret-style performance is a fundraiser for capital projects at the Playhouse. The event is an evening of song which celebrates the friendship of two extraordinary artists - Ashley Meeken and Teghan Marie Kelly. Both were raised in the Lakes Region, and have had the opportunity to perform on an international stage but have continued to bring their talents to various theatre companies in the Lakes Region.

Despite their similar careers in local professional theatre, they didn't cross paths until they were cast as mother and daughter in the Winnepesaukee Playhouse's 2023 production of "Mamma Mia!" when a strong bond was formed.

This performance will include solos and duets and will chart their friendship from the rehearsal room to the stage and beyond.

The performance will begin at 7:30 p.m., and patrons can choose between a show-only ticket and a VIP ticket that will include a pre-show reception. The reception will include hearty finger foods and soft drinks. Bar service will be available. It will also include the opportunity to meet members of the cast and creative team of the Playhouse's next production, "A Year with Frog and Toad!"

This event is generously sponsored by the Platinum Group at Re/Max Bayside and tickets can be purchased at www.winnepesaukee-playhouse.org.

Sperazzo also recognized Tripp's work as a varsity volleyball coach, including winning three straight state titles in 2018, 2019, and 2020. He said Tripp is also a certified massage therapist and served for six years as the executive director of the Lake Winnepesaukee Sailing Association.

Tripp said she found out she received the award that day and she said she was moved to tears when she found out.

"Thank you so much, you guys are all amazing and I appreciate and hopefully I can live up to it," Tripp said during the meeting.

Tripp said later the nominating process for the award involved filling out a lot of forms as well as including a resume and writing about accomplishments.

She said the email saying she had won was sent through her personal email that she hadn't checked until that day.

Tripp said this award was a big honor.

"To be acknowledged among my peers in high schools around the state is really an honor," Tripp said. "I just feel I try to do my best everyday."

Tripp started her career as a physical fitness instructor. She grew up in Oregon and her family moved to New Zealand, where she lived until she was 23. She attended the University of Otago in New Zealand and received her certification as a fitness instructor. She then followed her mom to New Hampshire where she now lives with her family.

Tripp has been coaching in Gilford since 1994. She said she was working at the Laconia Athletic and Swim Club where former Gilford Superintendent Paul DeMinico was a member and DeMinico encouraged her to become a teacher. She got her teaching certification two years later and joined Gilford High School in 2009.

"I think somewhere in me there was always a teacher because I taught fitness at the club," she said.

She said it is her mission "to help the young people be the best they can be" and believes in lifetime fitness and the importance of movement.

GHS Athletic Director Rick Acquilano said her strength is being conscientious and adaptable. He said she always provides for her students in the classroom as is well liked by her team.

"I've been around for a while and she's as good as they come," Acquilano said. "It feels like someone in your family being honored because she's one of the family."

Members of the varsity volleyball team congratulated their coach.

"I think she deserves it because she's an amazing coach," said sophomore Darby Hughes.

Hughes said Tripp is always nice and supportive with the team.

"I think we're all really proud of her; it brought tears," said senior Kaegan Sanville. "She's a great coach."

Sanville said it was great to see her get this recognition.

Powerhouse transforms Prescott Farm into Wonderland

LACONIA — Powerhouse Theatre Collaborative is once again teaming up with Prescott Farm to bring audiences a unique theatrical experience. Follow Alice and the White Rabbit through the beautiful grounds of Prescott Farm and meet up with familiar characters along the way in this promenade theatre event – “Alices Adventure in Wonderland.”

This marks the first time Powerhouse has produced a show in which the audience follows a character through each scene at different locations. This production has five Alices and five White Rabbits, so a new combo kicks off their adventure with a small group of audience members every 20 minutes. Each pairing will perform twice each day, allowing Powerhouse to have 10 time slots available on each date. Powerhouse has also double-cast all the other roles and split them into the “Eat Me” and “Drink Me” casts, a play on the classic scene in “Alice’s Adventures in Wonderland” by Lewis Carroll. So if there is a particular person you wish to see perform make sure you check the schedule and sign up for the correct time slot!

“It’s been exciting to direct this first-of-its-kind production for Powerhouse. I have thoroughly enjoyed the individuality and creativity that each actor has brought to this show. There are so many different Alice/Rabbit and cast combinations that you could see the show 10 times and get a different performance each time, which is part of what makes this production so unique and wonderful,” says director Courtney Palmer.

“Alices Adventure

in Wonderland” will perform on Sept. 15, 21 and 22 from 1 to 4 p.m. at Prescott Farm, with departure times leaving every 20 minutes. Each show will be around 45 minutes to one hour in length, and require audience members to walk to each scene, so appropriate footwear and comfort walking around the campus is recommended. For more information on the schedule and to purchase tickets, please go to www.powerhousenh.org/alicesadventure. There are only 16 tickets available for each time slot, so don’t wait until the last minute to purchase your tickets at the link above. Tickets are $10 and the adventure promises to be fun for all ages!

This special event is sponsored by Boothby Therapy Services, and is part of the 2024 Spark Series sponsored by Taylor Community, Laconia Daily Sun and Home Beautiful. Powerhouse’s 2024 season is generously sponsored by Lavalley Middleton Building Supply, Meredith Village Savings Bank, and the Platinum Group.

Songwriter Series lineup set for Sept. 25

MEREDITH — The partnership between Katie Dobbins Music (Gilford) and Hermit Woods Winery & Eatery (Meredith) which has brought the monthly music series Songwriter Round-Up to the Lakes Region is set to deliver another great show at the end of this month.

Wright Museum welcomes David Chrisinger for lecture, book signing

WOLFEBORO — On Tuesday, Sept. 24 (postponed from Sept. 10), the Wright Museum will welcome David Chrisinger. This is the final program of the Wright Museum's 2024 Education Series.

At the height of his fame and influence during World War II, Ernie Pyle's nationally syndicated dispatches from combat zones shaped America's understanding of what the war felt like to ordinary soldiers, as no writer's work had before or has since. From North Africa to Sicily, from the beaches of Anzio to the beaches of Normandy, and on to the war in the Pacific, where he would meet his end, Ernie Pyle had a genius for connecting with his beloved dogfaced grunts. A humble man, himself plagued by melancholy and tortured by marriage to a partner whose mental health struggles were much more acute than his own, Pyle was in touch with suffering in a way that left an indelible mark on his readers. While never defeatist, his stories left no doubt as to the heavy weight of the burden soldiers carried. He wrote about post-traumatic stress long before that was a diagnosis.

David is the author of "The Soldier's Truth: Ernie Pyle and the Story of World War II," which chronicles the life of renowned war correspondent Ernie Pyle and "Stories Are What Save Us," a profoundly moving book that weaves together David's journey as a writer, editor, and teacher with a wide range of craft tools and storytelling frameworks and structures he and his students have used to process trauma and conflicts in their own lives to create beautiful stories of growth and transformation. David is also a Logan Nonfiction Fellow and has contributed columns to the New York Times Magazine. He also regularly contributes to The War Horse, an award-winning nonprofit newsroom dedicated to educating the public on military service, war, and its impact. In addition to his work as an author, David serves as the Executive Director of the Harris Writing Workshop, leads the Persuasive Writing Credential Program, and advises the student-led Chicago Policy Review at the University of Chicago's Harris School of Public Policy.

Doors open at 6 p.m., the program begins at 7 p.m. in the Wright Museum's DuQuoin Education Center, 77 Center St. in Wolfboro. Admission is $5 for members and $10 for non-members. Reservations are strongly encouraged and can be made online at <https://wrightmuseum.org/lecture-series> or by calling 603-569-1212. Books may be purchased in advance at the Country Bookseller or at the lecture at the Museum.

The region's leading resource for educators and learners of all ages on World War II, the Wright Museum features more than 14,000 items in its collection that are representative of both the home front and battlefield. their songs and stories in a unique in-the-round style performance. This intimate series features two different songwriters alongside host performer Katie Dobbins on the last Wednesday of every month.

The series has been steadily gaining in popularity with many sold-out shows and a growing number of area residents attending as many shows as possible to experience the show "magic" that each new lineup creates. Winery co-founder and owner Bob Manley is thrilled to have his establishment be home to the monthly Songwriter Round-Up Series.

Remarking on the success of the series, Manley reaffirms the valued partnership the Winery has developed with Katie Dobbins Music, expressing, "Working alongside Katie Dobbins and her Songwriter Round-Up Series has been an absolute delight. Katie brings an engaging presence to the stage, effortlessly connecting with our audiences and showcasing incredible talent with each performance."

Dobbins, who previously hosted this series in the Boston area, is grateful to be able to bring it to her New Hampshire community.

Reflecting on the Songwriter Round-Up Series at Hermit Woods Winery, she says "Bob Manley and his fellow co-owners, along with the Winery staff, have been so supportive in the creation and delivery of this songwriter series."

Dobbins adds, "I've met and shared this stage with so many talented artists through these shows and the reception and support from the Lakes Region community has been amazing and rewarding for all of us. Though I perform throughout New England, this monthly series in my home community is something really special to me."

The next Songwriter Round-Up show takes place on Wednesday, Sept. 25, featuring New Hampshire artist Katie Dobbins who blends folk and pop into a genre of her own, soulful folk singer-songwriter Temple Mountain from New York City (Long Island), and Amanda McCarthy, an artist with New Hampshire roots now living in Nashville delivering original music with elements of folk, rock, and a touch of country. All of these artists bring their own unique life-lyrics, melodies, and styles to the stage. This promises to be an evening of great original music and dynamic entertainment that you won't want to miss. Learn more about these artists on the Hermit Woods Winery Web site.

A complimentary wine tasting will begin at 5:30 p.m., Loft seating opens at 6 p.m., and music starts at 7 p.m. Patrons can further enhance their evening by selecting from a menu of tasty items available from Chef Kaylon Sweet of Sweet Mercy's kitchen. Tickets can be purchased in advance at hermitwoodswinery.com/the-loft or in-person at the Winery.

Josie

Meet Josie!
Josie is a curious girl who enjoys being around people. While she's had success with dog companions in the past, we recommend she starts as the only four-legged pet in her next home.

Considering her energetic nature and active lifestyle, Josie would flourish in a home with older kids or adults only. And while she's a fantastic companion for humans, she may do best in a household without cats.

Baby

Meet Baby!
Baby is a lovely lady who would do best in a home where she can get some adventures. She loves to lay in the sun and hang out with her people, but she won't say no to a romp in the woods either! SPORTSBurnham's early goal gives Gilford win over Winnisquam

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING

Sports Editor

TILTON — The Winnisquam and Gilford boys' soccer teams haven't played each other in a few years.

For fans in attendance for the game between the two teams last Wednesday, Sept. 11, it may have been worth the wait, as the two squads battled back and forth for the entire 80 minutes, with a goal in the first two minutes eventually being the deciding factor in the Golden Eagles' 1-0 win over the host Bears.

"Our defense was rock solid, our goalkeeping was solid and we played well in the midfield," said first-year Gilford head coach Kevin Shaw. "We are struggling to score goals, but we are getting the opportunities."

"A good portion of the game was played in both halves, we definitely got into their box," said Winnisquam coach Tom Osmer. "They may have had more chances, but we certainly had some."

The Golden Eagles scored the game's lone goal with less than 1:15 gone in the game, as Anthony Burnham buried a shot after getting past a Winnisquam defense that was still settling into the game.

Gilford came back with a chance from Bode McLean that was stopped by the defense of Justin Tardif. Micah Javalgi had a direct kick for Gilford and Brady Alessandro had a chance that was stopped by Winnisquam keeper Jacob Twombly. Brendan Goodwin turned in a strong defensive play for the Bears and Burnham had a long shot that Twombly snared.

McLean had another chance in the zone, with Carl Edwardson making a good defensive stop and Goodwin made a nice run down the sideline that the Gilford defense held back. Tardif sent a good ball in to Xavier Mondesir and Colby Blackburn had a shot, both of which were turned away by Gilford's defense.

Braeden Perrault had a direct kick chance for Winnisquam and Burnham had a crossing pass through the box at the other end. Gilford had the game's first corner but could not convert and McLean sent a shot wide of the net. The Golden Eagles had two more corner kick chances, with Burnham sending a shot over the top of the net. Winnisquam came back with direct kick chances from Perrault and a good run from Blackburn, but they couldn't get the ball in the net.

Ari Booth had a cross through the zone for the Bears and Burnham had a shot go wide at the other end. Javalgi had a chance denied by Twombly and Wyatt Cushing had a shot denied by Gilford keeper Gavin Forest. Victor Pham had a nice clear for the Winnisquam defense and Twombly made a late save on Burnham as the game went to the half with Gilford up 1-0.

McLean had a good run in to start the second half, with Pham and Taber Haggett making solid defensive stops. Burnham sent another shot wide of the net and Tardif and Mondesir teamed up on a chance for the Bears, with Jared Beale making a good defensive stop.

Twombly made a great save on a Gilford corner and Javalgi and Christian Nunez had chances for Gilford that did not connect. The Golden Eagles had another corner and Owen Wolpin headed the ball on net, with Goodwin heading it out of the box. Blackburn had a long direct kick that Forest snared and Edwardson had a good defensive stop for Winnisquam. McLean sent another shot wide and at the other end, Perrault and Blackburn had shots denied by Forest.

The Bears had a corner kick but could not convert and Jevan Beale had a great scoring chance, with Twombly making a diving save. After another Gilford corner, Jevan Beale sent a shot high, Burnham had a shot saved by Twombly and Nunez sent a shot high as the clock ticked out on the 1-0 Gilford win.

"They say goals win games and defense wins championships," Shaw said. "You win championships when you defend."

He also praised the work of Forest in his net, noting while he didn't see a lot of action, he stayed prepared and was ready when the ball came his way.

Gilford girls outscore opponents 16-1, win three more

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING

Sports Editor

GILFORD — The Gilford girls' soccer team scored 16 goals over the course of three games last week, allowing just one goal in picking up three more wins, all on the home field.

The week began with a game with Hillsboro-Deering on Monday, Sept. 9, with the Golden Eagles getting the 9-1 win. Gilford came out strong and dominated possession throughout the first half, scoring four of their nine goals before the break while the Hillcats scored a goal late in the half. Gilford then dominated the second half, adding five more goals.

"This was a solid game for the girls from the opening whistle," said coach Rob Meyers. "We moved the ball well and created a lot of scoring opportunities."

Anna Coapland and Macy Sawyer each had two goals and one assist, Leah Davignon had two goals and Lianna Keenan, Gracey LeBlanc and Makenna Clayton each scored a goal. Clara Thompson had four assists, McKenna Howard picked up her first varsity point with an assist and Aubrey Vliet added an assist. Aria Dewar and Lily Bishop each had two saves in net.

Two days later, the Golden Eagles picked up a 6-0 win over Monadnock, again controlling the ball well throughout the contest, keeping the ball in the Husky end for most of the game, netting three goals in each half.

"This was a tougher game than the score would indicate," Meyers noted. "Monadnock was well-organized and we took a lot of long range shots instead of working the ball inside."

"We put a lot of shots on target, but unfortunately right at the goalie," he added. "Again, we got to rest some players and give a number of our players some varsity minutes."

Sawyer had two goals and two assists, Davignon had two goals, Thompson had a goal and two assists, Kendal Heyman had a goal and Ava Wilson had an assist. Dewar stopped three shots on goal.

The final game of the week was the closest of the trio of games, with the Golden Eagles pulling out a 1-0 win over Derryfield on Friday, Sept. 13.

"This was a good game against a solid team," Meyers said. "The girls played well and worked really hard for the win."

Both teams came out and played well, with the majority of the play in the Derryfield half. Gilford scored in the first 15 minutes of the game and came close to scoring a few more times, but got turned away each time. The Golden Eagles had some solid chances in the second half as well but could not find the back of the net.

"The girls controlled the play for most of the game," Meyers said. "We didn't allow any quality chances against our net, our defense deserves a lot of credit for that."

The Golden Eagles got some solid free kick chances from Sawyer and Wilson but couldn't convert.

Dewar had five saves in earning the shutout and Thompson scored the lone goal of the game on an assist from Davignon in the 1-0 win.

The Golden Eagles are slated to visit Prospect Mountain on Friday, Sept. 20, and at Fall Mountain on Wednesday, Sept. 25, both at 4 p.m.

Wrestlers and new athletes to the sport attended a wrestling camp at Prospect Mountain High School this summer. The wrestlers would like to thank Aubuchon Hardware for their donations. With the help from some donated materials, wrestlers made their own medicine balls to use during training. Used soccer and basketballs were cut open, filled with sand and secured with Flex Paste and duct tape. Special thanks to Liz O'Loughlin for designing the camp t-shirts. Anyone student in grades six-12 can contact Derek Pappaceno at dpappaceno@sau72.org if they are interested in joining this year's team. MEREDITH — Local nonprofits who wish to apply for a grant from the MVSB (Meredith Village Savings Bank) Fund at New Hampshire Charitable Foundation can do so by Oct. 15. The application and instructions can be accessed online at mvsb.com/community-involvement.

Established in 1997, under the leadership of John Starrett, then-President and CEO of the Bank, the MVSB Fund at New Hampshire Charitable Foundation makes grant-based contributions to nonprofit organizations that enrich and improve the quality of life for residents living in the Bank's service areas.

"We recognize the critical role our local non-profits play in strengthening our communities," said Marcus Weeks, MVSB President and MVSB Fund Committee Member. "The fund is an important way we can offer our support to help them grow their programming, tackle needed projects and to continue to their important work."

Since the Fund's inception, over 500 grants have been awarded, totaling over $2 million in contributions to a wide range of environmental, social, educational and historic projects throughout New Hampshire.

The MVSB Fund has supported literacy and after-school programs, environmental monitoring, restoration of historic structures, organizations that provide support for individuals and families in challenging circumstances and equipment that helps save lives. While not focused on a particular category, Fund administrators are mindful of the receiving organization and their contribution to the quality of life in the communities being served.

Grants generally range from $1,000 to $10,000 and are awarded to 501(c)(3) nonprofits and public agencies based in the Lakes Region, Plymouth and Seacoast areas. Projects supported are of high priority and need for the applicant organization and are related to their mission or development; demonstrate a clear, practical plan with objectives for services, participation and results; leverage other funding and/or voluntary support; offer evidence that project objectives will be accomplished within the grant period and demonstrate cooperation and collaboration with other organizations to provide greater community impact.
