

Franklin to honor NH's only Vietnam Medal of Honor recipient

FRANKLIN — This Memorial Day, Franklin will pay tribute to Lance Cpl. Jedh Colby Barker, USMC, killed in action on Sept. 21, 1967 while on patrol in Con Thien, Vietnam. The son of G. Colby Barker and Ruth Barker, Jedh was born in Franklin on June 20, 1945. He is the only recipient from the state of New Hampshire to receive this nation's highest military honor, the Medal of Honor, during the Vietnam War.

The unusual spelling of Jedh's first name resulted from his father's service in the Marine Corps during World War II. His father combined the first letters of the first names of his closest Marine buddies to spell Jedh's name: John, Ezekiel, Donald and Herbert – JEDH.

The Barker family left New Hampshire when Jedh was six years old, relocating to Park Ridge, N.J. From an early age, Jedh was connected to sports, playing baseball and football as a youth, then later coaching his younger brother John's baseball and football teams. During his years at Park Ridge High School, Jedh distinguished himself in team sports. He served

Lance Cpl. Jedh Barker

College in Kirksville, Mo. At Northeast (later renamed Truman State University), Jedh was recruited as a member of Coach "Red" Wade's Bulldogs football team.

Jedh left college in May 1966. With the spirit of Semper Fi firmly embedded in the Barker Family, he decided to follow in the footsteps of his father and older brother Warren and enlist in the United States Marine Corps. On his 21st birthday, June 20, 1966, Jedh enlisted in the United States Marine Corps Reserve, 1st Marine Corps District, New York, N.Y. until discharged to enlist in the regular Marine Corps on 05 October 1966. Upon completion of recruit training at Parris Island, S.C., he underwent individual combat training and weapons special training at Camp Lejeune, N.C. He was promoted to private first class on Dec. 1, 1966.

Shortly after, Jedh returned home on leave to spend his last Christmas with his family. From there, he went on to Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton in California for additional infantry training. He then joined Marine Air Base Security MABS-12 in San Francisco, California, serving as group guard. Jedh was then assigned to Marine Air Base Security MABS-12 in Chu Lai, Vietnam, protecting planes around the outer perimeter of the air base.

However, Jedh and his two buddies from boot camp, both from New Hampshire, were getting restless with this assignment. They heard that the 3rd Marines needed replacements near the DMZ and volunteered to go. His buddies, Corrigan and Blair, went into 9th Marines. Jedh was re-assigned as a machine

Early deadlines for Memorial Day

With Memorial Day falling on Monday, when the Winnisquam Echo would ordinarily be going to press, the submission deadline for any press releases and letters to the Editor intended for publication in next week's edition has been moved up to Thursday, May 26 at 4 p.m. Submissions can be e-mailed to Editor Brendan Berube at brendan@salmonpress.news.

as co-captain of both the baseball and football teams in his senior year and was voted "Most Athletic" by his classmates. He participated in the school chorus at PRHS, and surprising many, made quite a comedic turn in the Senior class play. In retrospect, his ability to lead and at the same time participate, attests to his cognizance of the team dynamic. Jedh later demonstrated these very same qualities, essential to being a United States

Marine.

After graduating from high school in 1964, Jedh attended Fairleigh Dickinson University in East Rutherford, New Jersey. In the fall of 1965, he transferred to Northeast Missouri State Teachers

Stevens Mill receives $25.4 million in construction financing

FRANKLIN — Franklin Savings Bank and Mascoma Bank are pleased to announce the extension of construction financing for the rehabilitation of the historic Stevens Mill building in downtown Franklin into a mix-use property. Lebanon-based Mascoma Bank, which has a specialized group dedicated to navigating complex government tax credit programs, was brought in to lead the group of lenders in the Historic Tax Credit financing transaction. Other financing was made possible through a partnership between Androscoggin Bank, NH Business Finance Authority, Capital Regional Development Corporation (CRDC), Regional Economic Development Center (REDC) along with historic tax credits. Eric Chinburg, Principal of Chinburg Properties, will spearhead the $33.8MM project which will bring 153 apartments along with 27,693 square feet of commercial space as part of the City of Franklin's revitalization efforts.

John Bortolotto, Regional VP, Commercial Loan Officer for Franklin Savings Bank, commented, "Housing continues to be the focal point of discussions at

Sununu ‘drives back’ to Canterbury Shaker Village

CANTERBURY — Recently, Gov. Chris Sununu returned to Canterbury Shaker Village, although not in the same manner in which he first visited this past fall. “He came back in a 1977 Pontiac Bonneville, the last car owned by the Canterbury Shakers,” explained Executive Director Leslie Nolan. “He saw it here at The Village during his last visit – and it was in complete disrepair. With the help of some local experts, he completely refurbished it.”

The classic car, she noted, required a lot of work. “When he had it towed back to him in the fall, it only went in reverse,” laughed Nolan, who expressed thanks to Londonderry BP, Tisdell Transmission, Hillz Auto Detailing, and Governor Sununu for his appreciation for The Village. “There is so much to see and do here, and the property with all its beautiful trails is open to the public at no charge,” she added. “We hope the Governor’s interest in The Village sparks the interest of others.”

In addition to guided tours, Canterbury Shaker Village interprets

Shaker life through exhibits, buildings, gardens, and programs. Canterbury Shaker Village is located at 288 Shaker Rd., Canterbury, just south of Laconia and north of Concord. To learn more, or purchase tour tickets online, visit shakers.org.

Canterbury Shaker Village is a member of the NH Heritage Museum Trail, which connects the public with culturally rich heritage institutions in New Hampshire. For more information, visit nhmuseumtrail.org.

BNH’s “Stepping Stone” account receives national certification by banking advocates

LACONIA - Today Bank of New Hampshire announced that its Stepping Stone account was officially certified by the national Cities for Financial Empowerment Fund (CFE Fund) as meeting the Bank On National Account Standards (2021 - 2022). The national safe account Standards, co-created by consumer advocates, leading national non-profit organizations, civic leaders, and other financial institutions, designate both core and strongly recommended features that ensure low cost, high functionality, and consumer safety.

Key features of the Stepping Stone account include being free for account holders under the age of 23 or a monthly cost of only $5, no overdraft or nonsufficient fund fees, the ability to pay bills and make purchases, and federal deposit insurance. Stepping Stone is available in every one of Bank of New Hampshire’s 21 offices across New Hampshire and 24/7 through their online account opening at BankNH.com.

“We are proud to partner with the Bank On coalitions, locally-led partnerships between local public officials; city, state, and federal government agencies; financial institutions; and community organizations that work together to help improve the financial stability of unbanked and underbanked individuals and families in our communities,” said Cheri Caruso, EVP - Chief Technology, Digital Banking & Operations Officer for Bank of New Hampshire. “Our new Stepping Stone checking account was developed specifically for this purpose and provides a low fee, no overdraft charges, product options with digital features such as online banking and bill payments.”

“The Cities for Financial Empowerment Fund is delighted to award its national Bank On account certification to Bank of New Hampshire’s Stepping Stone account,” said Jonathan Mintz, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Cities for Financial Empowerment

Fund. “Stepping Stone offers New Hampshire residents who are looking to improve their finances a safe, affordable, and truly useful mainstream banking product – this is especially important during COVID-19, as consumers need to access and manage their money both affordably and safely. Bank of New Hampshire’s offering of this terrific account brings them into the forefront of national banking access efforts, and we thank them.”

The goal of Bank On is to ensure that everyone has access to safe and affordable financial products and services. The Bank On National Account Standards identify critical product features for appropriate bank or credit union accounts, making it easier for local coalitions across the country to connect consumers to accounts that meet their needs.

With the addition of Bank of New Hampshire’s Stepping Stone account, accounts that meet Bank On National Account Standards are now available at over 39,000 branches in all 50 states and Washington, DC; financial institutions with Bank On certified accounts already comprise over 52 percent of the national deposit market share. In addition to Stepping Stone, there are over 180 other Bank On certified accounts available at financial institutions across the country. Data collected by the CFE Fund in partnership with the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis through Bank On’s national reporting platform shows that these accounts are meeting consumers’ needs; since their offering, millions of consumers have opened Bank On certified accounts, with approximately 85 percent of them opened by consumers new to the financial institutions.

Bank of New Hampshire is proud to be offering Stepping Stone as we aspire to remain an independent mutual financial institution, delivering innovative solutions and exceptional service, while assisting our employees, customers and communities to build brighter futures.

The CFE Fund leads the national Bank On movement, supporting 90 local coalitions working to connect individuals and families to the financial mainstream through partnerships between governments, financial institutions, and community organizations. To learn more about Bank On and the National Account Standards visit <https://join-bankon.org> or follow the conversation on Twitter @CFEfund #BankOn.

Honoring the fallen

When Memorial Day was first celebrated, it was known as Decoration Day following the Civil War. Youngsters would place flowers in cemeteries while they sang songs and honored those lost due to war. The Civil War that ended in 1865 took the lives of more people than any other war in the history of the United States, the estimate is roughly 620,000. The Union losing 365,000 and the Confederacy 260,000. History says that more than half of these losses came as the result of disease. As a result, the first national cemeteries were created.

In 1868, General John A. Logan, the leader of an organization for Northern Civil War veterans, called for a nationwide day to honor fallen soldiers. General James Garfield gave a speech at Arlington National Cemetery on the first Decoration Day and the over 5,000 people in attendance decorated over 2,000 graves, both Union and Confederate.

The holiday as we all know is celebrated on the last Monday in May and became an official holiday in the year 1971. Parades across the country take place, and people visit cemeteries where family members who have served in the military have been laid to rest.

At 3 p.m. every year, a moment of silence takes place across the country. In December of 2008, President Bill Clinton signed the “National Moment of Remembrance Act” which designated the time be at 3:00 p.m. In 1966, the government marked Waterloo, New York as the official birthplace of Memorial Day. In Waterloo, every business in town would shut their doors and owners would venture out to decorate graves with flags as well as flowers.

Originally, Decoration Day was intended to honor those lost in just the Civil War. After WWI America felt the need, and rightfully so, to honor all those lost serving their country. In WWI 116,516 Americans died at war and 405,399 were lost during WWII. The Korean War took 36,574 lives and the Vietnam War cost 58,220 lives. 4,411 were lost in Operation Iraqi Freedom, 73 in Operation New Dawn, 2,346 as the result of Operation Enduring Freedom, 48 in Operation Freedom’s Sentinel and 61 in Operation Inherent Resolve.

An estimated 38 million people in America will travel over the holiday weekend, and 2.5 million travelers will board flights. Memorial Day is the fourth busiest travel day of the year.

In New York, Washington, D.C and Chicago you can find the largest parades in the country.

Because of the three day weekend, many Americans will throw parties and barbecues or head out of town for a mini getaway.

North Country Notebook

Of the Flying Circus kind, this wasp certainly ain’t

By JOHN HARRIGAN
COLUMNIST

The drone occurred at about 3 in the morning — not a drone that I was flying or anything like that, but the lumbering of something flying itself.

It was a wasp, and no doubt about it, and not just any old wasp, and no doubt about that one, either. It was what’s known as a mud wasp, the largest and most ungainly of the wasps that I know of, and one most familiar to me from my days of working around piles of freshly cut white pine—a resin-loving wasp named, well, something.

The problem is that there are all sorts of hinged-at-the-waist, dangling-legged, Flying Fortress kinds of winged creatures, some of them quite large, capable of carrying off babies. And this one was headed for me, no baby.

This sudden realization hit me like the proverbial wet washrag as I sat bolt upright and instinctively flung the bedcovers out and away. No, wait a minute—it was learned behavior, not instinct, because it was from a painful childhood incident.

When I have to fill out a medical form—a rare chore these days of more caution and fewer mishaps—I can still skip down through the allergies and check off “none.” But I may well mark one category “not sure” because it involves (you guessed it) mud wasps.

First of all, mud wasps (or any species of wasp) don’t bite, they sting. Where this confusion of morphology comes from I just don’t know. They don’t even have the right mouthparts to bite. But stingers, yes. Even the species known (unpopularly) as “white-faces” turn themselves at the last millisecond of their attack to use their abdomens to sting, or just grab hold with their legs, but sting they do.

In fact, the last time I was stung, it was the two white-faces typically posted as guards at the entrance to their nest—a small abode that had gone noticed in a roof-corner at a camp—that did it.

On that occasion, at one of my favorite destinations on the western shore of First Connecticut Lake, we all sat down to wait for the allergic reaction that never came. And I have no glimmer as to why not, except for this: maybe it was one of those pre-puberty things.

Whatever the case, I might not be allergic to wasp-stings any longer, because the painful childhood episode happened when I was a prepubescent kid of 8 or so growing up on Park Street (swamps in the back yard, and all that) in downtown Colebrook. It all could have gone out the window when I became that strange species known as “a teenager.”

I know this because

The wasp commonly known as the Cicada-Killer, found in the southeastern part of New Hampshire. From “Controlling wasps, bees, and hornets.” (Courtesy extension.unh.edu)

I’ve been stung (not bitten) several times since, with no undue reaction. Still, you never know, and the instinct (wait—learned behavior) remains.

And so I reflexively threw the bedcovers up, out, and away, to quote part of the old “Superman” intro, and leapt out of bed in the wee hours of a May morning. And ominously, as it turned out, the drone of the mud wasp stopped.

This was a good thing, and a bad thing. The wasp was down, but probably not out—and I no longer knew where it was. My camp partner, who joined me at the hip a long time ago—long before a bunch of misfits I’ve always called the Lost Boys (of “Peter Pan” infamy) helped build the camp in the middle of nowhere—came awake almost as soon as I did, and appeared in the doorway. He’s attuned to things going bump in the night (me).

“What’s up?” he said, rubbing his face. “A wasp,” I said, no need to rub mine. Quickly, out came the tale. We resumed my search.

The mud wasp is indeed a lumbering, ungainly flyer. Like the bumblebee, there is

The mud-wasp, so-named for daubing mud (i.e., picking up and hauling it) and using it to build its nest. It’s also called the paper-wasp, and a host of others. (Courtesy antworks.com) probably no logic to the fact that it’s aloft. There are a gazillion reasons why it’s not supposed to fly.

Yet this B52 of flying mud-daubers had indeed been airborne, and headed for my head. Hence the flung-aside bedcovers, and my (now our) fully awake status. This is because the mud-wasp packs a powerful sting, more than making up for its adjectives (“lumbering,” etcetera).

We began what my longtime camp-partner referred to as “a methodical search.” The result of this was nothing. One hand on the clock had advanced about 30 minutes.

No wasp. Not even a drone, except maybe the two guys standing there looking like Goofy.

“I suggest that you go back to bed,” he said, disappearing. “I might as well go down and make the coffee,” I thought, and did.

Winnisquam boys eighth at Wilderness Championships

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

GILFORD — The Winnisquam track team traveled to Gilford for the Wilderness Championships on Saturday and came home with some solid results.

The Bear boys came home in eighth place overall while the girls were 16th.

In the 400 meters for the boys, Patrick Goodwin ran to fourth place overall in a time of 53.48 seconds while in the 800 meters, Brendan Goodwin finished in sixth place with a time of 2:16.26 and David Swain was ninth in 2:17.7.

The Winnisquam 4X400-meter relay team of Brendan Goodwin, Patrick Goodwin, Nathan Lavoie and Swain finished in fifth place in a time of 3:50.94 while the team of Swain, Henry Osmer, Noel Licata and Caelan Roberts finished in sixth place in the 4X800-meter relay in 9:58.15.

Nicole Reusch participates in Lasell University's annual RUNWAY show

NEWTON, Mass. — Nicole Reusch, a Lasell University student from Sanbornton, was part of the University's School of Fashion annual RUNWAY production, held from May 6-7.

Reusch was a RUNWAY model.

RUNWAY 2022: Reimagined featured 70 student designers and 150 behind-the-scenes personnel. This marked the first year since 2019 that RUNWAY was held fully in-person, though the show was also made available virtually through a livestream.

"Putting on four shows in two nights (live and virtual) was no small feat," said senior co-director Madison Cormier. "It was important for us to run a show that aligned with the fashion industry while still allowing room for our team's creativity. As a director, I wanted to make sure that the fashion designers were showcased in the best way possible."

On May 6, undergraduate student designers showcased their work in ten distinct categories: sweater knits, swimwear, athleisure, menswear, lifestyle separates, evening wear, tailoring, cocktail, special occasion, and non-textile.

The following evening featured Lasell's senior fashion design and production majors, who each presented a full clothing line that was conceptualized and developed over the course of the year.

RUNWAY is held annually and showcases the work of Lasell University students studying fashion design and production, fashion merchandising and management, and fashion media and marketing; as well as students from a variety of majors at the University who provide business, production, marketing, and modeling support. Students design and produce a two-night event, transforming the University's athletic center into a fashion runway and hosting over 1,200 guests for evenings full of innovative fashion design.

Unearned runs haunt Belmont softball

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

BELMONT — The Belmont softball team finished up the penultimate week of the regular season with a pair of tough losses.

On Friday, May 13, the Raiders had a touch of bad luck, dropping a 4-3 decision in extra innings in Somersworth.

The Raiders led 2-1 heading to the fifth inning and an unearned run by the "Toppers allowed them to tie the game. In the eighth inning, the Raiders were able to take a 3-2 lead but the hosts were able to score twice in the bottom of the eighth for the walkoff win.

Lena Rodrigues struck out 11 in a solid effort in the circle, Katie Walker had a pair of hits and Savannah Perkins had a double to help lead the offense.

The next day, the Raiders hit the road to Dover for a game against St. Thomas.

The two teams were tied at one in the fifth inning when the Saints scored three unearned runs and held on for the win.

Rodrigues pitched well again and both Carly Drouin and Perkins had hits in the game.

The Raiders are slated to close out the season at White Mountains on Friday, May 27, at 4 p.m.

The Division III tournament begins on Wednesday, June 1, at the home of the higher seed.

Edward Jones: Financial Focus

Should you make extra mortgage payments?

You might enjoy owning your home – but the mortgage? Not so much. In fact, you might want to do everything you can to pay it off as quickly as possible. But is that always the best strategy?

In one sense, your mortgage can be considered a “good” debt because it’s backed by a tangible asset – your home – that has real value and may even gain further value. Furthermore, by historical standards, you’re probably paying a pretty low interest rate on your mortgage, so you’re getting a lot of benefit – a place to live and a potentially appreciating asset. And if you itemize on your taxes, you can possibly deduct some, or maybe all, of your mortgage interest. Nonetheless, despite these benefits, a mortgage is still something you have to pay, month after month and year after year. And for some people, it may feel good to pay it off. After all, there may well be a psychological benefit to being free this long-term debt. But is it really in your best financial interest to make extra payments?

Suppose, for example, that you need a large sum of money quickly for a new car, a new furnace or some other unexpected, significant expense. Or, in an even more serious scenario, what if your job ends and you need money to tide you over until you get a new one? In these situations, you need liquidity – ready access to available cash. And your house may not be the best place to get it. You could apply for a home equity loan or line of credit, but these typically require approvals (which might be difficult if you aren’t employed), and you’ll be using your home as collateral. A home equity loan or credit line isn’t always bad – under the right circumstances, es, it can be a valuable financial tool. But that doesn’t change the basic fact that your home is essentially a non-liquid asset.

So, instead of making extra house payments, make sure you have built an emergency fund containing several months’ worth of living expenses, with the money kept in a low-risk, accessible account. After building an emergency fund, you should weigh extra mortgage payments against other uses of your money. For example, if you have other types of debt – such as credit cards or student loans – you might want to work on paying those off more quickly, as these debts may also carry higher interest rates. You might also consider increasing your contributions to your 401(k), IRA or other retirement/investment accounts. You could spend two or three decades in retirement, so it’s important to save as much as possible for those years.

As you can see, you do have some good reasons for using any extra money you may have for purposes other than making additional mortgage payments. Ultimately, though, it’s a personal decision. In any case, think carefully about your choice. You may want to review the various tradeoffs with a financial professional, who can possibly recommend the most advantageous strategies. And you may also want to consult with a tax professional. By understanding all that’s involved in the “extra payment” decision, you’ll be better prepared to make the right moves.

Before investing in bonds, you should understand the risks involved, including credit risk and market risk. Bond investments are also subject to interest rate risk such that when interest rates rise, the prices of bonds can decrease, and the investor can lose principal value if the investment is sold prior to maturity.

Raiders come up short in soggy battle with Gilford

JOSHUA SPAULDING

Gilford shortstop Millie Caldon looks to throw to first as Belmont's Savannah Perkins slides into second in action last week in Belmont.

BELMONT — The Belmont and Gilford softball teams played three hours in the rain on Thursday, May 19, with the Golden Eagles emerging with the 14-9 win over the host Raiders.

“We talked a lot about mental strength,” said Gilford coach Lisa Brace. “And we talked a lot about composure, it’s the same weather for both teams.”

“I think we had more earned runs than them, we gave up too many unearned runs,” said Belmont coach Bill Clary. “It’s tough to pitch in the wet weather, but they had to do it too.”

“We hit the ball well, but some of the mistakes are things we practice and that bothers me,” Clary continued, also praising Riley Cotnoir for her play behind the plate.

The Golden Eagles threatened in the first against Belmont pitcher Lena Rodrigues but did not score. Maddie McKenna reached on an error to open the game, but Cotnoir snagged a bunt pop up in front of the plate and fired to Courtney Burke covering first for the 2-4 double play. Jaiden McKenna was hit by a pitch and Lauryn Nash-Boucher worked a walk, but Rodrigues got a strikeout to end the inning. Savannah Perkins had a base hit against Gilford starter Sadie Lydick in the bottom of the inning, but a strikeout got the Golden Eagles out of the inning.

Gilford went in order in the top of the second, while in the bottom of the inning, Cotnoir had a two-out base hit and Katie Walker took over on the bases. However, a grounder to second ended the inning.

Gilford opened the scoring in the top of the third. Hannah Gannon had a base hit to start the inning and Maddie McKenna reached on an error. Millie Caldon worked a walk to load the bases and Jaiden McKenna followed with a base hit that was mis-played in the outfield and all three runners scored. A stolen base and throwing error added another run and Nash-Boucher and Lydick both worked walks. However, Cotnoir gunned Lydick down stealing second and Rodrigues got a strikeout to end the inning.

Burke had a one-out walk and Perkins reached on an error in the bottom of the third. Rodrigues then grounded out to short, plating Burke with the first run of the game for the Raiders before Lydick got a strikeout to end the inning. Maddie McKenna had a two-out base hit in the top of the fourth, going to second on an error. Cotnoir then cut her down stealing third to get out of the inning.

Belmont cut into the lead a bit more in the bottom of the fourth. Madi Smith reached on an error to open the inning and two outs later, a base hit from Abbie Paquette drove in the second run of the game.

Gilford responded in the top of the fifth. Caldon led off with a double and stole third. Jaiden McKenna walked and a double steal brought the run home. Nash-Boucher reached on an error to plate another run and Maddy Cusello, Smith and Lydick all worked walks. Kendall Heyman had a sacrifice fly to center to plate the eighth run before Rodrigues got a strikeout to end the inning.

In the bottom of the inning, Perkins reached on an error and moved up on a Rodrigues groundout. Two wild pitches later, Perkins scored and Avery VonKadich worked a walk, Smith beat out an infield hit and Darci Stone had a bunt hit. A Cotnoir base hit plated another another run and a walk to Maddie Paquette made it 8-5. Carly Drouin drove in a run with a groundout before Lydick got a strikeout to close the inning.

Gilford opened the lead up again in the top of the sixth. With one out, Jaiden McKenna had a double and Nash-Boucher worked a walk. A pickoff error pushed the lead to 9-6 and VonKadich saved a run with a nice scoop at first base on a groundout by Cusello. A Lydick base hit drove in another run, Jess Gannon reached on an error and Marlowe Mikulis walked, but they were stranded when Rodrigues got a strikeout to end the inning.

Perkins reached on an error, moved up on a wild pitch and a groundout by Rodrigues. VonKadich then laced a double to plate another run and after a Stone walk, Cotnoir beat out an infield hit to drive in another run before Lydick got a strikeout to close things out.

The top of the seventh saw Caldon get hit by a pitch with one out. She stole second, moved to third on a wild pitch and scored on a sacrifice fly by Jaiden McKenna. Nash-Boucher then tripled and after walks to Cusello and Lydick, Jess Gannon tripled home all three runs for the 14-8 lead.

Belmont got a lead-off double from Drouin in the bottom of the seventh and she scored on a Perkins triple, but Lydick worked her way out of trouble to close out the 14-9 win.

Belmont also picked up a 5-3 win over Winnisquam earlier in the week. Smith got her first varsity win in the circle with seven innings of work, allowing two hits, four walks and striking out 13. Rodrigues. Had a pair of hits and Perkins had a triple and two RBIs.

The Raiders are slated to be at White Mountains on Friday, May 27, to wrap up the regular season.

The Golden Eagles are scheduled to be at Kearsarge today, May 26, at 4 p.m. to finish their regular season.

The Division III tournament begins on Wednesday, June 1, at the home of the higher seed.

Raiders earn walk-off win over Gilford

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING

Sports Editor

BELMONT — The Belmont baseball team got a big walk-off win over rival Gilford in the penultimate week of the regular season to head to the final week of the season at 10-3.

The week started with a 14-5 loss to a strong White Mountains Regional team on Tuesday, May 17.

“Not our best game and as the coach I have to have our guys better prepared,” said coach

Matt LeBlanc. “They battled all day offensively and caused their pitchers to have to throw more pitches than they wanted to.”

“There were times we could have given in but our guys stayed positive and battled in a short-handed situation,” the Raider coach added.

The Belmont bats came to life in the third inning, scoring four runs in the frame. Owen Waldron reached on an error and one out later, Liam Waldron singled and Jason Roberts singled to load the bases. Isaiah Lambert doubled home all three runners, moved to third on a passed ball and scored on a Jaxon Embree sacrifice fly.

“We had one bad inning where things seemed to come off the rails all at once,” LeBlanc said, noting that 13 runs scored in the one inning, with six hits, a homer, six walks, a hit batter and a couple of errors.

Miles Miller started on the hill and pitched three innings, giving up six runs on three hits, Michael Collette pitched a third of an inning and Lambert pitched two and two-thirds of an inning, giving up three runs (no earned runs) on two hits.

Offensively, Lambert had a double, three RBIs, two walks, a stolen base and a run scored, Owen Waldron had a hit, a run and a walk, Liam Waldron had a hit, a run and a walk, Roberts had a hit, a run and a walk, Jonny Phillips had a hit, a run, a walk and a stolen base and both Embree and Matt Krasnecki had RBIs.

The Raiders came through with a 2-1 walk-off win on Wednesday, May 18, at Bryant Park.

Roberts singled to lead off the bottom of the seventh and took third on a Lambert single. Embree was intentionally walked to load the bases and Phillips followed with a shot to third. Roberts broke for home and the throw to the plate was off the mark, allowing the winning run to cross the plate.

“This was a great team win, especially after tough conditions against White Mountains,” said LeBlanc. “As he has done all season, Liam Waldron was fantastic on the mound and did a great job of keeping them off balance, earning his sixth win with no losses and lowering an already out of this world ERA to 0.761.”

The Raiders got on the board first in the bottom of the fourth inning. Owen Waldron was on third and Hutch Haskins was on second with one out. On a grounder to short, Waldron moved down the line but Haskins thought he had broken for home and he headed for third. The Gilford first baseman fired to third, with Waldron getting back to the base, but they got Haskins in a rundown. Waldron then breaks for home and scored the game’s first run.

In the top of the sixth, Gilford used an error; a walk, a hit batter and a fly ball to center to tie the game at one.

“We continue to get production from all over the lineup, which has been a huge benefit and we played an extremely clean game defensively,” LeBlanc said. “We’ve been nipped by the injury bug this week and have been short some players. But we’ve had guys come in from JV and make the plays when needed.”

LeBlanc pointed to Collette coming up and playing left field for the Raiders against Gilford.

“It speaks to our depth and our ability to compete with good teams like Gilford, who we have all the respect in the world for,” he added.

The final game of the regular season is scheduled for today, May 26, at 7 p.m. at Laconia.

Big inning lifts baseball Bears by Kearsarge

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

TILTON — The Winnisquam baseball team finished the penultimate week of the season with a big come-from-behind win over Kearsarge on Friday, May 20.

The Cougars scored three times in the top of the first inning and held that lead until the fifth inning, when they added another run for the 4-0 lead.

The Bears then came up with 11 runs in the bottom of the fifth inning to take the lead and then finished things off with three more runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to close out the 14-4 win.

Winnisquam got off to a tough start, as the Cougars used three infield hits, a base hit that barely made it out of the infield, a walk and a wild pitch to plate the three runs in the first inning against Bear starter Marcus Korenkiewicz. After the Cougars worked around a walk to Alex Nichols in the bottom of the inning, Korenkiewicz was able to move around an error, a base hit and a stolen base, using a strikeout, a groundout and a pickoff at first to get out of the inning.

Duncan Gosselin was hit by a pitch in the bottom of the second inning and moved up on a groundout by Nathan McKinnon and an infield hit by Anthony Robbins, but the two runners were stranded.

The Cougars used a walk and a double to plate the fourth run in the top of the fifth before the Bears opened things up in the bottom of the inning.

Kyler Bourdeau started the inning with a walk and Nolan Haskins followed with a single to center. Nichols followed with a base hit to drive in Bourdeau and Anthony Boomer doubled to drive in both Haskins and Nichols to cut the lead to 4-3. After a Korenkiewicz single, Gosselin was hit by a pitch again to load the bases. Boomer then raced home on a wild pitch, with the other two runners advancing and McKinnon's base hit to right scored both runners for the 6-4 lead.

Robbins and Zach St. Onge worked walks, with McKinnon scoring on a wild pitch for the 7-4 lead. Bourdeau then put down a sacrifice bunt to plate Robbins for the 8-4 lead and Haskins worked a walk. Nichols singled to plate another run and Boomer walked to load the bases. A Korenkiewicz fly ball to right plated another run and Nichols stole home to make it 11-4. Gosselin reached on an error to keep the inning going, but courtesy runner Ayden Cushing was stranded on the bases.

Korenkiewicz set down the side in the top of the sixth and the hosts closed out the game in the bottom of the sixth. Anthony Colarusso and St. Onge both walked and Bourdeau grounded into a force play. Haskins walked to load the bases and St. Onge scored on a wild pitch and Bourdeau scored on when Nichols reached on an error. Haskins then scored on a wild pitch to close out the 14-4 win.

The Division III baseball tournament begins on Thursday, June 2, at the home of the higher seed.

Softball Bears knock off Kearsarge on Senior Night

BY JOSHUA SPAULDING
Sports Editor

TILTON — The Winnisquam softball team finished last week strong, earning a win over Kearsarge on senior night after dropping a pair of games earlier in the week.

The week started with a 5-3 loss to Belmont on Tuesday, May 17.

"In a game that could've gone either way, Belmont was able to make a couple of more plays than us today," said Winnisquam coach Mark Dawalga. "Our kids battled the whole game."

Winnisquam took a 1-0 lead in the top of the third, but the Raiders answered with two in the bottom of the inning. They then put up one in the fourth and two in the fifth to make it 5-1 heading to the sixth. The Bears were able to get two runs back in the top of the sixth inning, but they could not get any closer.

"The team has grown together all year," said Dawalga. "It was really good for us to battle through the whole game and not stop playing."

Emma Griffin had a double and a single, drove in a run and scored a run, Delaney Skourtis had a hit, an RBI and a run scored, Laura Slate had a hit and struck out four in the circle, allowing only two earned runs. Isabella Dill, Rebecca Kulengosky, Lucy Prunier, Lea Dalton, Ali Max, Teagan Nelson and Shayla Jordan earned the coach's praise for their defense.

The next day saw the Bears drop a 16-0 decision to Monadnock.

"We made too many mistakes today," Dawalga said, noting Slate pitched well, walking just one and striking out four, with only six earned runs allowed.

The week ended with a 17-10 win over Kearsarge on Friday, with the team honoring seniors Griffin and Dalton prior to the game.

Both seniors contributed to the win, with Griffin lacing a homer, a double and driving in five runs and Dalton getting two hits and scoring three runs. Lily Auger had a double and a single, Skourtis had a base hit, two walks and two runs scored.

"It was a team effort from top to bottom," Dawalga said. "Everyone contributed in the win."

The Bears are slated to host Newfoundland today, May 26, and visit St. Thomas on Friday, May 27, both in makeup games.

The Division III tour-namment is scheduled June 1, at the home of to start on Wednesday, the higher seed.

Rebecca Kulengosky charges across the plate with a run during action last week against Kearsarge.

FINANCING

the state level as many individuals and families are challenged with finding workforce housing options. This project will bring quality housing along with job opportunities to an area that is receiving a lot of interest from developers and investors as part of Franklin's revitalization."

"Mascoma Bank is always proud to partner with other community banks to help make a positive impact in our communities," said Michelle LeClair, Senior Vice President Community Development Lending at Mascoma Bank. "We were pleased to be invited to lead the transaction offering our historic tax credit lending expertise to help redevelop these five historic mill buildings. We are excited to see this project deliver more quality housing, jobs, and economic development opportunities in the greater Franklin area. As a Certified B Corp, we strive to use business as a force for good, and this project is in line with our values as a bank and a community partner."

The Stevens Mill project will involve major renovations to five mill-style buildings situated along Canal Street in Franklin. The apartments will include studio, one and two-bedroom units featuring modern finishes with granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, oversized windows, exposed brick, and hardwood finishes. Residents will also enjoy many amenities to include a clubroom, patio area, fitness center, pet-washing room, a roof deck along with picturesque views of the Winnepesaukee River and Mill City Park, a newly constructed whitewater and outdoor adventure park. The residential units are anticipated to be finished by summer of 2023.

Two of the five buildings will include 27,693±sf of commercial space which is projected to be complete by the fall of 2022. There is interest from local breweries to occupy space in one of the buildings, bringing more job opportunities and economic development to an area that serves as the gateway to the Lakes Region and all the attractions it has to offer visitors.

Developer Eric Chinburg, Principal of Chinburg Properties added, "I am pleased to be involved in this project and the impact it will have on Franklin and all the positive changes occurring in the area. I appreciate the assistance of all the parties involved, and the time devoted to move this project forward."

The historic tax credits are used to incentivize developers to preserve and rehabilitate historic commercial buildings, like that of Stevens Mill. The tax credits offer a 20% federal tax credit towards qualified expenses for this type of project.

gunner to Fox Company, 2nd Battalion, 4th Marines, 3rd Marine Division. He was promoted to the rank of Lance Corporal on Sept. 1, 1967.
The 2nd battalion, 4th Marines were famously named “The Magnificent Bastards” for their legendary combat skills in Vietnam. Jedh became part of “Operation Kingfisher,” a USMC operation that took place in the western part of Leatherneck Square, lasting from July 16 to Oct. 31, 1967. This operation was launched to destroy NVA forces just south of the DMZ.

On Sept. 21, the 2nd battalion, 4th Marines began a “search and destroy” mission and quickly encountered the entrenched 90th NVA regiment. It was on this day that LCpl Jedh Colby Barker gave his last full measure of devotion as a United States Marine, sacrificing his own life to save his fellow Marines.

On Oct. 31, 1969, more than two years after his death, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew posthumously presented the Medal of Honor to Jedh Barker’s family during a White House ceremony. Lance Cpl. Jedh Colby Barker is buried in

George Washington Memorial Park in Paramus, New Jersey. Jedh will be forever remembered by those who knew him as a beloved son and brother; a team player; a loyal friend; and to all who know of his sacrifice, a hero in the truest sense of the word.

Jedh is survived by his elder sister Dolly Barker Lewis, younger sisters Susan Barker Rilliet and Anne Barker Kist, and younger brother John W. Barker, former member of the United States Army. Elder brother Warren, now deceased, retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Marine Corps, with service in both Korea and Vietnam. Upon retirement, Jedh’s parents, G. Colby Barker and Ruth Barker returned to their beloved Franklin, New Hampshire to live out their golden years. Their ashes are buried with Jedh at his gravesite in Paramus, New Jersey.

The family of Lacne Cpl. Barker welcome all who wish to attend the Memorial Day services to come together to honor our Fallen Veterans and Gold Star families on this day. The Lance Cpl. Jedh C. Barker Memorial Monument will be unveiled at the Franklin War Memorial across from Franklin High School on Memorial Day, May 30, at approximately noon.

In addition, at 2 p.m., there will be a special dedication service to Lance Cpl. Barker at the Franklin VFW Post 1698. Captain Alvin McBride USMC will be a keynote speaker. Jedh’s sister, Susan, will participate as well. This year’s recipient of the USMC Barker Memorial Leadership Award, LCpl Gardner USMC, will also be attending. Both McBride and Gardner, are proud members of the “Magnificent Bastards” of the 2nd Battalion, 4th Marines from Camp Pendleton, Calif.

For reservations to attend the complimentary luncheon beginning at 1 p.m., followed by the L.Cpl. Jedh Colby Barker Medal of Honor Tribute service at the Franklin VFW Post 1698, at 2 p.m. on Monday, May 30, please call 603-934-9869. This time period has been deliberately scheduled to accommodate those attending the services at the New Hampshire Veterans Cemetery.
