Veterans Home residents honored for service

TILTON — The Veterans Day Ceremony at the New Hampshire Veterans Home was a huge success! Thanks to everyone who joined us to honor our veterans and make it such a special day.

Festivities began with a coffee social while community members handed out cards made by students at New Hampshire schools, card-writing groups, and other caring community members. Our adorable little visitor personally wished each of our veterans a “Happy Veterans Day!” as she handed each a card.

We are thankful for you. See service, Page 20

Historical Society plans Christmas celebrations at Lane Tavern

SANBORNTON — The Sanbornton Historical Society is again celebrating in style! If you’ve procured a wreath, pick up is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 25 from 9-11 a.m. and Saturday, Dec. 2 from 9-11 a.m. We’ll have a few 12-inch wreaths available if you’d like a NH made double sided wreath with a NH made lovely red bow.

Are you looking for beautiful, unique, locally made artisan gifts for that special someone or maybe even yourself? Do you like cookies? Do you like shopping in an Historic Tavern with the smell of mulled cider in the air? Would you like a light lunch to keep up your strength? Maybe take a chance winning locally made items? Then don’t miss our Christmas Fair!

Shop and enjoy the ambiance of an Old Time Christmas at the Lane Tavern on Saturday, Dec. 2, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Well have our famous Cookie Walk, locally craftspeople and artisans presenting their creations and a raffle for locally made treasures. Well also offer a light lunch.

The Lane Tavern is handicapped accessible and located at 520 Sanborn Road (route 132) in the Square of Sanbornton. Free parking is available across the street.

Email the Sanbornton Historical Society at info@lanetavern.org or call 603 591-5176 for more information.

Winnisquam Middle and High School honor local veterans

TILTON — Students at both the Winnisquam Regional Middle and High Schools recently took time to gather as a community to honor our nation’s veterans. At the high school, members of the National Honor Society along with advisor Colleen Mulligan, coordinated the assembly. Mrs. Sparrano singing the National Anthem, Gov. Chris Sununu shared remarks in support of our veterans both near and far, past and future. Senators Jeanne Shaheen and Maggie Hassan and Congresswoman Annie Kuster joined the ceremony.

At the middle school, principal Mr. Brown, teachers, and students gathered in the atrium. Mrs. Brown introduced the evening and the audience sang the National Anthem. Captain Adam Depew of the Southern NH University Color Guard posted the colors and SHVH’s own Heather Sparrano singing the National Anthem. Gov. Chris Sununu shared remarks in support of our veterans both near and far, past and future. Senators Jeanne Shaheen and Maggie Hassan and Congresswoman Annie Kuster joined the ceremony.

Unitarian Universalist Society presents Celtic Christmas Concert

LACONIA — Aniko Geladze and Noelle Beaudin present A Celtic Christmas, fiddle and piano music from Cape Breton, Prince Edward Island, Quebec, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales on Saturday, Dec. 2, at 4 p.m. at the Unitarian Universalist Society of Laconia. Tickets are $20. You are encouraged to purchase your tickets early. The church is located at 172 Pleasant St. in Laconia. Light refreshments will be available. As a separate fundraiser, there will also be a Cookie Walk where you can fill a box with cookies by choosing from a delicious assortment of homemade cookies. $10 and $20 boxes will be offered.

Aniko Geladze is a Concertmaster and Soloist from Russia. She has collaborated with major orchestras and musicians from many parts of the world, including Russia, Europe, and Asia. Aniko studied at Royal College of Music (London) and participated in yearly concert tours in Spain, France, Belgium, Germany, Tuason, and Hong Kong. She is better known as the soloist for VSSO recordings, including "The Song of Triumphant Love" by M. Nosyrev, the video CD "Romani and the Voronezh State Philharmonic Orchestra - Live in Concert '99," and "Opera Highlights" produced by Chi Mei Fine Art Ltd. Aniko has led quartets, and participated in the Chamber Orchestra "Camura Rossa" and served under the direction of Metelar Besprovorich, Vladimir Vierbitski, Mak Kalok, and Alexander Walker currently member of the Nashua Chamber Orchestra, and The Portsmouth Symphony Performing with the University of New Hampshire Music Department, Portsmouth Pro Musica, and The New Hampshire Philharmonic.

Noelle Beaudin (piano and hurdy-gurdy) performs regularly with Aniko where they provide a highly entertaining and eclectic mix of traditional, Celtic, Quebecois, and modern fiddle and piano music. Noelle studied piano performance and composition at the Boston Conservatory of Music and performed frequently in the Boston area before moving to France and the UK. She now has a very busy studio and music summer camp in the Lakes Region of New Hampshire and enjoys performing throughout New England as a soloist or accompanist. She is also a premier hurdy-gurdy performer, teacher, and the co-founder of GurdyWorld.com.

Open House at The Loon Preservation Committee to host holiday open house

MOUTONBROUG OUGH — The Loon Preservation Committee will host its annual Holiday Open House at The Loon Center in Moultonborough on Saturday, Nov. 25 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. There will be fun for the whole family, including horse-drawn wagon rides, holiday refreshments, balloon animals, crafts for kids, and a visit with Santa. The event is free and all are welcome!

There will also be special holiday sales in the Loon’s Feather Gift Shop (10 percent off for every visitor, 20 percent off for members, and 25 percent off for new members!).

Last chance to get tickets for LPC’s Annual Benefit Baffle Drawing will be held at the Event. There will be a first bidding on the left, #103. For further information call (603) 486-1666 or email info@loon.org.

For more than 40 years, The Loon Preservation Committee has worked to preserve the Common Loon and its habitat in New Hampshire through research, education and management activities. Come take part in the holiday cheer and learn about these birds and how you can help protect them. To reach The Loon Center from Route 25 in Moultonborough turn onto Blake Road at the Moultonborough Central School. Follow Blake Road one mile to the end at Lesa Mill Road. Turn right and the Loon Center is the first building on the left, #103. For further information call (603) 486-1666 or email info@loon.org.

Ly auction bidding on items with a retail value of $300 or more is open to everyone who accesses an online account at ChildrensAuction.org. All items will close during the auction.

The auction is for items of any value for this year’s event. While many items have been received at this time, there is a need for thousands of items to raise enough money to meet the needs of the community.

Auction leaders will collect new, unused, unregistered items right up to the week before the auction. Gift cards, sports equipment, toys, sporting goods and household items all bring the highest bids. Go to our website to ChildrensAuction.org for a list of donation drop-off sites throughout the Lakes Region.

The 42nd Annual Greater Lakes Region Children’s Auction is presented by Hanford Supermarkets. The auction airs daily from 4 a.m. to 1 p.m. On Friday, Dec. 8, auction leaders will go online to gather the highest bidder to announce the total funds raised for children and families in need.

To purchase tickets or sistered auction bidder on an online site at ChildrensAuction.org and bid early at high-collected items. Even place a max full if you choose on any and all items and text a friend if you are outbid.

Rediscovering the lost art of handwritten recipes

In an era of digital convenience and instant gratification, some of life’s most cherished traditions are quietly slipping away. Among these, the art of handwritten recipes. These are a tangible connection to the flavors of our past, the love of our grandparents, and the warmth of family gatherings. In a world dominated by cooking apps and online recipe repositories, the simple act of putting pen to paper to share culinary secrets seems almost archaic. Yet, it’s precisely this nostalgia and intimacy that make handwritten recipes a lost art worth preserving.

Handwritten recipes are more than just a list of ingredients and instructions; they are pieces of culinary history infused with the personality and heritage of those who penned them. Each smudged, stained, and dog-eared card or piece of paper tells a story, a tale of generations passing down family traditions, the evolution of tastes and preferences, and the love and care that goes into creating a homemade meal.

The act of writing out a recipe by hand is an act of devotion. It is a moment where the cook imparts their wisdom, tips, and variations to the next in line. The penmanship, the flourishes, and the personal notes (“This one’s a little bit of family gathering”) add a layer of character that cannot be replicated by silly digital text.

One of the most remarkable aspects of handwritten recipes is their adaptability. They are not bound by the limitations of standardized formats and measurements. Instead, they encourage creativity and experimentation. A pinch of this, a handful of that, the recipes recipes allow each generation to put their own spin on the family classics, ensuring that the recipes remain dynamic and relevant.

In an age where convenience often trumps sentimentality, it’s easy to overlook the value of preserving handwritten recipes. But as we flip through fading recipe cards and rediscover the treasures hidden in old recipe boxes, we are reminded that these handwritten culinary heirlooms are more than just a list of ingredients and instructions; they are pieces of culinary history, infused with the personality and wisdom, tips, and variations to the next in line. The penmanship, the flourishes, and the personal notes (“This one’s a little bit of family gathering”) add a layer of character that cannot be replicated by silly digital text.

legacy is also another museum with displays and artifacts dedicated to Pres. Ken- nedy and his family es- sentially their long his- tory in Cape Cod. The John F. Kennedy Mu- seum in Hyannis dis- plays the life of the 35th president especially his- and his family’s connec- tions to Hyannis. I came across the Kennedy Museum while visiting Hyannis during my grand ex- cursion to the Cape this summer and couldn’t resist taking a tour. I found a fascinating his- tory of President Kennedy and his family especial- ly through the lens of their time at their sum- mer home in Hyannis Port.

In the summer of 1919, Joseph Kennedy rented The Mallon cottage in Hyannis Port. After summering in the area for three years, Joseph and Rose Ken- nedy built a new summer home with their family. After extensive renovations, the Kennedy Port has be- come the summer home for Joseph, Rose, and their nine children. The cottage Joseph Kennedy rented in 1925 would later be transformed into a maj- orous museum that com- plemented the Kennedy family and its collection of each summer's official cottage for the Kennedys.

The John F. Kennedy Museum in Hyannis is a re- trospective center and museum for visitors to see the exhibit on the first floor. The exhibits on the first floor feature photographs, artifacts, and memorabilia that tell the story of the Kennedy family and their connection to Hyannis. The exhibits include items such as clothing worn by John F. Kennedy, memorabilia from his presidency, and personal items that belonged to him and his family. The museum also has a gift shop where visitors can purchase souvenirs related to the Kennedys.

The museum is open year-round and is located at 350 Commercial Street in Hyannis, Massachusetts. It is open daily from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm. Admission to the museum is $17 for adults, $15 for seniors, and $10 for students and children. The museum also offers group tours and guided tours, which can be arranged by contacting the visitor services department.

In addition to the exhibits, the John F. Kennedy Museum also offers educational programs and workshops for visitors of all ages. These programs include lectures, workshops, and hands-on activities that provide visitors with a deeper understanding of the Kennedys and their legacy.

The John F. Kennedy Museum is a must-see destination for anyone interested in history and the Kennedys. The exhibits are well-curated and provide a fascinating look into the lives of the Kennedy family and their connection to Hyannis. Whether you are a history enthusiast or simply interested in learning more about the Kennedys, the museum is sure to provide an engaging and informative experience.

Greater Lakes Region Children’s Auction ready to launch 2023 event

LACONIA — The Greater Lakes Region Children’s Auction will open its 2023 auction at the Belknap Marketplace on Tuesday, Dec. 5 through Friday, Dec. 8, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. All are invited to come to the event and experience the magic in person.

A family night will be offered on Thursday, Dec. 7, from 5:30-7 p.m. Come meet the Grinch, have your child’s picture taken with Santa, and build a toy in Santa’s workshop. Children can also decorate a holiday cookie.

The auction will be streamed live at ChildrensAuction.org, LacombiaDailySun.com and Facebook.com/ChildrensAuction. Watch live on Lakes Region Public Access TV Channel 25, or listen on Lakes FM 101.5.

Viewers can bid online at ChildrensAuction.org, starting on Black Friday. For more bidders who create an account at ChildrensAuction.org, can bid early on high-value items. For the 2023 auction, any bidder can also put a maximum bid on any item that will close during the week of December 5-8.

All 2024 tickets on sale December 13th. Full details at GreatWaters.org or call (603) 569-7710

MVSB named Housing Champion by Lakes Region Community Developers

Lakes Region Community Developers (LRCD) is pleased to announce that Meredith Village Savings Bank (MVSB) is LRCD’s Housing Champion for November. Housing Champions are local companies committed to LRCD’s mission of creating new affordable housing opportunities. LRCD features a different housing champion each month. “Caring has always been at the heart of everything we do at MVSB, and that is why we are proud to support the mission of Lakes Region Community Developers to ensure everyone has access to safe and affordable housing,” said Marcus Weeks, MVSB President. “By building and nurturing relationships with the people and organizations of our community, we can cultivate a community where we all thrive.”
