Selectmen, School Committee races highlight Charlton election

BY JASON BLEAU
CORRESPONDENT

CHARLTON — The 2024 Charlton Municipal Election is fast approaching with contested seats on the Board of Selectmen, Dudley-Charlton Regional School Committee, and Southern Worcester County Regional Vocational School District Committee set to be decided as well as the fate of a

Sturbridge selectmen rescind Curboy's permits, hire new Conservation agent

BY GUS STEEVES
CORRESPONDENT

STURBRIDGE — The selectmen's response to ongoing issues to Curboy's Auto on Mashapaug Road April 1 was not a joke. By unanimous vote, they rescinded the company's permits to do business, citing refusal to allow Conservation Commission to visit the property and building a "large metal garage" without permits or inspection, among other things.

They'd previously given owner Sergey Privedenyuk such permits on a provisional basis late last year, pending such inspections. Privedenyuk did not attend the meeting.

Chair Jamie Goodwin said the town is primarily concerned Curboy's is in effect "operating a solid waste facility" because the cars there do not seem to be dismantled for parts. That would be legal, but not letting them sit there "in perpetuity," he noted.

He also cited concern the operation is "dipping over into the properties of [other owners on] River Road that go behind it."

In recent years, that site had accumulated many acres worth of derelict vehicles. The town required the previous owners to remove them, and they did so.

In somewhat related business, the board approved hiring Lauren Vivier as the new conservation agent. Town Administrator Robin Grimm said she received "several qualified applicants" and interviewed four, finding Vivier "knocked it out of the park." Among other things, she has town planning experience and is a Fiskdale resident.

It also approved making Florencia Sangermano an alternate Conservation Commissioner and putting three parcels off Fiske Hill into conservation restrictions. One of them is technically a "declaration," as it will be transferred to the state for addition to neighboring fish and wildlife land.

Grimm told the board a recent engineering review shows the Stallion Hill water tank will have to be replaced, but there's a "decent possibility" Sturbridge will be able to get up to $1.5 million in grants to cover part of the cost. The town's share will likely be about $500,000, and she's looking at whether to split it between water rates and general taxes, but she'll have more details for the next meeting.

She said the water system does "have capacity to provide water if that tank goes down [but] we cannot provide fire suppression." That tank serves some homes and several nearby businesses, and is used to fill fire tankers, she noted.

Selectmen were split on how to fund it. Mary Dowling noted "ratepayers shouldn't shoulder the whole thing when the benefit goes to everybody." But Mary Blanchard observed splitting it would mean ratepayers will "pay double in their taxes."

The board also approved placing four largely rou-

Late season storm brings wind, snow, sleet to region

BY KEVIN FLANDERS
STAFF WRITER

REGION — Just when it seemed a lackluster winter was ready to fade quietly away, Mother Nature wasn't fooling around in the first week of April.

With shovels having been replaced by rakes in many yards—and bags of rock salt replaced by topsoil and other garden supplies in stores—residents were caught by surprise on April 3 & 4, when a strong storm walloped the region with wind, snow, and sleet.

The storm downed trees and branches across the area, leading to road closures and thousands of power outages.

In Leicester, Parker Street was closed due to a fallen tree. Crews responded to similar incidents across town on April 4.

In Sturbridge, National Grid crews were dispatched to Leadmine Road after trees and power lines came down.

Spencer responders were also kept busy with an array of calls. Among other responses, the fire department was dispatched to Paxton Road for reports of a tree and live wires blocking the road.

A large section of Spencer lost power during the storm, and Town Hall saw a delayed opening on April 4. Other municipal buildings throughout the area were also affected by the storm.

"We have numerous roads closed and impassable due to trees and wires down," read a statement released by the Spencer Police Department on April 4.

In Holland, crews worked quickly after sections of both Wales Road and North Wales Road were closed due to fallen branches, trees, and

The service award is granted and presented once a year by the Master of the Lodge and is signed and presented by the District Deputy Grand Master of the 24th Masonic District. The service award is given to the unsung Brother behind the scenes who goes above and beyond the call of duty of what's expected of a Freemason.

wires. Schools throughout the region were also closed on April 4, including the Tantasqua Regional School District, the Quaboag Regional School District, the Spencer-East Brookfield Regional School District, and Leicester Public Schools. After many districts saw no weather-related delays or closures in March, students received a rare day off in April.

It took multiple days for crews to restore electricity in all locations across the state.

Here Today Adopted Tomorrow hosting “Spay”ghetti Supper

BRIMFIELD — Here Today Adopted Tomorrow (HTAT) invites all animal lovers to our “Spay”ghetti Supper at the First Congregational Church of Brimfield on Sunday, April 14. This fundraiser comes at a time when shelters across the state and the nation are hitting crisis levels and there is an increasing demand for HTAT to take in and place cats that are traditionally seen as “unadoptable.”

Executive Director, Rachael Max, said, “At HTAT we pride ourselves on our personalized approach to adoption and continued care. This allows us to help cats who may fall through the cracks at traditional shelters, but flourish with the individual at-ention they receive in our cageless cattery.”

“It has been four years since our last “Spay”ghetti Supper and each year more and more people have been asking for its return. I am excited to announce that it is finally back!” says Max. “I am looking forward to seeing everyone enjoy a meal together again, and at the same time help the animals right here in our community!”

Join HTAT for a night of food, family, fun, and raffles to raise money for cats and the people who love them at our “Spay”ghetti Supper in the First Congregational Church of Brimfield Sunday, April 14. The first seating is 5-6 p.m. The second is 6:30-7 p.m. Advance prices are $15 for Adults and $10 for Seniors & Kids.

To purchase advance tickets at a discounted price please visit www.heretodaysanctuary.org or call 413 324-8224.

If you need assistance in feeding or caring for your pet, Here Today Adopted Tomorrow can help. Local cat owners can spay or neuter their cats for $65 or less, and strays and ferals can be fixed for free! Please visit heretodaysanctuary.org to learn more about these and more community assistance programs.

About Here Today Adopted Tomorrow Animal Sanctuary

Here Today Adopted Tomorrow (HTAT) was founded by mother-daughter team Barbara Horn and Rachael Max.

HTAT is a volunteer driven group focused on helping cats and the people who love them in our community. In 2012 we opened our no kill, cageless cat adoption center for adult cats and kittens in Brimfield. It is deeply important to us that every resident’s stay at HTAT is comfortable and healthy, making for well-adjusted, happy animals. Shortly after opening, we realized there were more homeless cats than we could handle by adoption alone. We believe that pets are cherished members of the family and our ultimate goal is to keep pets and people together.

We have programs to help special needs cats flourish and get adopted, as well as community assistance programs to help pet owners keep their pets, such as our Pet Food Pantry, low-cost spay-neuter program, and free cat behavior program. Each year, HTAT helps more than 1,500 animals and their families. For more information, visit heretodaysanctuary.org.

Ralph Crowley, Jr. to deliver Nichols College Commencement address

DUDLEY — Nichols College has announced that Ralph Crowley, Jr., president and chief executive officer of Polar Beverages, will give the Commencement Address at the 2024 commencement exercises on Saturday, May 4.

Crowley has led Polar, founded in 1882 and the largest privately owned sparkling beverage bottler in the country, since 1992. Under his leadership, Polar has grown from an $18 million to a $1 billion enterprise. Polar made several key acquisitions of manufacturing facilities that accelerated the growth of the company, including Adirondack Beverages in Scotia, New York, Polar South of Fitzgerald, Georgia and Polar Texas Bottling in Temple, Texas. Polar also gained significant market share through the distribution of seasonal Polar Seltzer flavors while concurrently embracing heritage recipes, such as Polar Orange Dry and Birch Beer, that reflect the company's roots.

Crowley was instrumental in bringing the Worcester Red Sox to Central Massachusetts and serves on the organization's Board of Directors. The Woo Sox play their home games in Polar Park. He and his siblings also own Wachusett Mountain Ski Area in Princeton. He is widely known for his philanthropic leadership in Worcester and beyond and serves on numerous nonprofit boards and advisory councils.

Crowley received a BA from Bowdoin College and an MBA from Clark University. He will receive an Honorary Doctorate in Business Administration, as will Amy Pitter, former chief executive officer of the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Pitter led MassCPAs from 2015 until her retirement in December 2023. The organization represents 11,000 accounting professionals across the Commonwealth, including those serving in public accounting, business, government, nonprofit and education. As CEO, Ms. Pitter developed programs to help accounting professionals prosper, while building the pipeline of accountants and increasing diversity in the profession.

Prior to her stint as CEO, Pitter served as commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Revenue. She boasts more than 25 years of experience helping government agencies transform their businesses. She earned a BA from Connecticut College, an MA in accounting from Northeastern University, and a JD from New England School of Law.

Poetry open mic night at Charlton Public Library

CHARLTON — In celebration of National Poetry Month, Charlton Public Library is holding their Second Annual Poetry Open Mic Night on Tuesday, April 16, at 6:30 p.m. in Dexter Hall.

Joe Fusco, Jr. from the Worcester County Poetry Association will return as our facilitator. Joe will open the evening with a reading, and then open it up to guests who are welcome to read their own poetry or something by a favorite poet. This event is free and open to the public, however, registration is requested so that we have an idea of the number of participants. Register online at charltonlibrary.org on the event calendar. If you don't get a chance to register, you can still come and we will work you into the lineup! This program is generously sponsored by Friends of the Charlton Library.

The Worcester County Poetry Association (WCPA) was founded in 1971 by Dr. Samuel Bachrach and Professor Michael True and incorporated as a nonprofit organization in 1972. With over fifty years of service to poetry, it remains one of the longest-running non-profit poetry organizations in the United States.

The mission of the Worcester County Poetry Association is to celebrate the rich literary history and creative energy of Central Massachusetts through public readings, workshops, festivals, scholarly conferences, and other programs. They publish the literary journal The Worcester Review. They collaborate with libraries, bookstores, colleges and universities, museums, churches, schools, community centers, businesses, and cultural organizations to promote poetry events.

Last year was our first Poetry Open Mic night and there was a rich assortment of poetry read by people of all ages! We hope you can join us to read your own work, the work of a favorite poet, or just to listen.

Charlton Public Library is located at 40 Main St. in Charlton.

The allure of outer space and eclipses

Humanity's fascination with outer space and celestial events like eclipses stretches back to the dawn of our existence. From ancient civilizations to modern-day space agencies, the allure of the cosmos has captured our imaginations and sparked a colossal sense of wonder and curiosity. But what is it about outer space and eclipses that continues to captivate us?

One of the most undeniable reasons is the utter scale and mystery of the universe. Outer space represents the ultimate frontier, a vast expanse of uncharted territory waiting to be explored. The unfathomable distances between stars and galaxies, the enigmatic nature of black holes, and the possibility of extraterrestrial life all contribute to a sense of awe and intrigue. The exploration of outer space offers us the chance to push the boundaries of our knowledge and understanding, to uncover the secrets of the cosmos, and to answer some of humanity's most weighty questions about our place in the universe.

Eclipses, in particular, hold a special place because they offer a tangible connection to the cosmos. These rare celestial events, where the sun, moon, and Earth align in perfect harmony, produce breathtaking displays of light and shadow that captivate millions of people around the world. Whether it's a solar eclipse, where the moon passes between the sun and Earth, casting a temporary shadow on our planet, or a lunar eclipse, where Earth's shadow falls across the surface of the moon, eclipses remind us of the beauty and grandeur of the universe.

Moreover, eclipses have played a significant role in shaping human history and culture. Ancient civilizations viewed eclipses as omens or portents, often interpreting them as signs from the gods. Today, eclipses continue to inspire awe and wonder, bringing people together to witness these rare cosmic events firsthand. Whether it's through scientific expeditions to observe and study eclipses or community gatherings to marvel at their beauty, eclipses have a way of uniting us in our shared sense of wonder and appreciation for the cosmos.

In addition to their aesthetic appeal, outer space and eclipses also hold immense scientific value. Studying the cosmos allows us to better understand the fundamental laws of nature, from the forces that govern the motion of celestial bodies to the origins of the universe itself. Eclipses provide scientists with unique opportunities to conduct experiments and observations that would be impossible under normal circumstances, offering valuable insights into everything from solar physics to the dynamics of Earth's atmosphere.

Furthermore, our fascination with outer space and eclipses speaks to something deeper within us – a primal instinct to explore, to seek out new frontiers, and to push the boundaries of what is possible.

OPINION

TO THE EDITOR Singer for Selectman

To the Editor:

Hello, my name is David Singer, and I'm running for re-election for the Board of Selectmen. After many discussions with family and friends, I have decided to run for one last term as a Charlton Selectman. Charlton continues to grow, and I would like to spend the next, final three years, helping us navigate our journey.

I'm extremely proud of what we've achieved over the years. Charlton has an outstanding bond rating, we've successfully built, and continue to build upon, our stabilization fund. After many roadblocks we are now in the midst of pursuing a solution for clean water and water independence for the people of Charlton. We've successfully lowered many fees and passed much needed bylaws for solar farms and much more.

But our work is far from done. Challenging times are ahead, and we need experienced leaders with proven track records to help guide us through. Leaders who deliver with actions, not empty words and promises. I'd be honored to have your support as we work together to keep Charlton as the best place to live.

Please consider voting for and re-electing Singer for Selectman on May 4 at the Heritage School. Thank you.

Yours,

DAVID SINGER

Re-elect Selectman David Singer: A continuation of fiscal excellence

To the Editor:

I am writing to express my strong support for the reelection of David Singer as a Selectman of Charlton. As a past Chairman and 24 year member of the Charlton Finance Committee, I had an opportunity to work with David for many years. We often advocated and worked for the same beneficial changes for our community. Most telling to me regarding his concern for our town and its citizens was his willingness, in the midst of differing opinions, to find common ground. David was always diligent, respectful and willing to work toward a compromise that moved us forward. I am convinced that David Singer's leadership is indispensable for the continued progress and prosperity of Charlton.

During his tenure as Selectman, David Singer has consistently demonstrated a fiscally responsible commitment to serving the interests of our community. His dedication to transparency, accountability, and strong continued fiscal responsibility has been evident in his decision-making process. David has consistently advocated for policies that prioritize the well-being of Charlton residents and ensure that our town remains a great place to live, work, and raise a family.

David Singer has a proactive, sensible approach to addressing the current challenges facing Charlton sets him apart as a leader who is not afraid to tackle difficult issues head-on. Economically, with respect to the changes in Charlton, I believe it is critically important to have his voice working for the taxpayers of Charlton. Whether it's advocating for infrastructure improvements, supporting local businesses, or enhancing responsible public safety measures, David has consistently shown his ability to effectively navigate complex issues and deliver results for our town.

Moreover, David Singer's accessibility and willingness to listen to the concerns of his constituents make him a selectman who listens. Certainly, that quality is a welcome and critically important component for a town leader. He understands the importance of community engagement and actively welcomes input from residents wishing to inform his decision-making process. Open communication will always bring forth an environment healthy for the bond between a town government and its citizens.

As we approach the upcoming election, I urge my fellow Charlton residents to join me in supporting David Singer for reelection as Selectman. His years of service to the town and his record of leadership, integrity, and dedication to making fiscally responsible decisions for the citizens of Charlton, make him the clear choice to continue guiding Charlton towards a bright and prosperous future.

Sincerely,

FRANK J. MORRILL

A vote for Singer is a vote for Charlton's future

To the Editor:

On May 4, Charlton residents will head to the polls and decide who will sit on Seat 2 for the Charlton Board of Selectmen. While local elections don't have the turnout of national or statewide elections, I can easily argue that this election is more important. Local politics can make a greater impact on our daily lives than national elections, and this year's election is coming at a crucial time for our town.

In a time where our country is seemingly void of common sense, it's my sincere hope that our town can break free of the nonsense and vote in people of character who do not have an agenda, but rather a sincere invested interest in helping Charlton be the best it can be. That's why I'm supporting David Singer for Town Selectman.

In my time here in Charlton, I have seen Mr. Singer support not only our Police Department, Fire Department and veterans, but he has been a staunch supporter of our schools and our senior community. Three years ago, in my narrowly failed bid for a selectman seat, the town seemingly chose false promises and idealism over conservatism and reality. If you've been paying attention, you know the major issues that faced the board over the past three years. I cannot imagine the harm that could've fallen on our town had Mr. Singer not been on the board to represent us. Speaking for my family, we have seen frivolous spending and increased taxes in the state since our last gubernatorial election, and we certainly can't afford to see that spill over to our town as well.

Good Neighbor Food Pantry

BY DR. ROBIN MCFEE

"For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat...."

Matthew 25: 31

Most of us take for granted when we are hungry, we can go to our refrigerator or a kitchen cabinet and find something to eat. In some cases we are blessed to find a wide variety of options from which to choose. But many in our community cannot do that. Their cupboards are bare, or nearly so, and food insecurity has become a daily struggle.

Members of our community who don't know where their next meal is coming from have faces and names; they are more than statistics. That fact came to Charlton City United Methodist Church (CCUMC), and we were ready!

The other day we got a knock on the door at our church. A woman introduced herself, and told the pastor she got laid off from work, and after rent, didn't have enough money to feed her children, let alone herself. She started walking from her apartment hoping she would come across someone who might help her when our church came into view.

Her timing was perfect. And thankfully we were able to provide lots of food for the woman and her children, with an invitation to return for more, because CCUMC just started our Good Neighbor Food Pantry, which is one of several outreach ministries to fulfill our mission of being the scriptural 'good neighbor' as a church, and serve as a resource for the people around us.

Thanks to the generosity of so many people in our faith family, and three women who decided to take on this ministry – Gaelle McLoud, Marsha Mason and Jean Anderson - we are ready to share food with those who need it. And the only questions you will get from us, as our Pastor demonstrated, will be "how can we help you," or "did you take enough," or "can we help you carry more to your car?"

Putting a face to the challenge of hunger is always powerful. So is the feeling of helping someone, even if it just gets them through a day or a week. Because the real gift isn't just the food, but the knowledge for those in need that they too can put a face on the people willing to lend a hand. It is in the human touch of kindness that transcends and makes us all better for it.

When I asked each of the women who helped champion our good neighbor food pantry what motivated their efforts, to a person they shared an observation – they were noticing people who in the past were able to share resources now are in need of help. Having spoken with members of food banks and similar outreach enterprises, they, too, are seeing people who once could give, and now need to receive.

Gaelle, Marsha and Jean also shared personal stories how each had a period in their lives when they faced financial struggles, and could relate to folks needing help. Fortunately now they are in positions to help others, and wanted to find a way to make a difference. And as people of faith, each wanted to live Christ's admonition to feed the hungry (Matthew 25:31 – 40).

And there are lots of hungry folks around. The number of people who don't have enough to eat, who have to juggle limited resources and make choices whether to buy sufficient food, pay rent, get medications, or purchase heating fuel, is growing – in our neighborhoods, all across the Commonwealth, as well as states around us.

As a church and as individuals we recognize the needs are great and houses of worship like ours are in a position to help meet those needs. Most of the great religions have scriptures that inspire congregants to help others. If you belong to a house of worship, consider starting a food pantry for your neighborhood.

We can do something to lighten the hunger burden, and Charlton City United Methodist Church on 74 Staf-

Slow and steady: A smart way to invest

You've probably heard stories about fortunate investors who "get in on the ground floor" of a new, hot company and quickly make a fortune. But while these things may happen, they are exceedingly rare and often depend on hard-to-duplicate circumstances — and they really don't represent a viable way of investing for one's goals. A far more tried-and-true approach is the "slow-and-steady" method.

To follow this strategy, consider these suggestions:

Start small — and add more when you can. When you're first starting out in the working world, you may not have a lot of extra money with which to invest, especially if you're carrying student loan debt. But one of the key advantages of the slow-and-steady method is that it does not require large investment sums to get going. If you can afford to put away even $50 or $100 a month into individual stocks or mutual funds, month after month, you may be surprised and pleased at how your account can grow. And when your salary goes up, you can put away more money each month.

Take advantage of an employer's retirement plan. If your employer offers a 401(k) or similar tax-advantaged retirement plan, try to take full advantage of it. Again, if you're just beginning your career, you may not be able to put away much in this type of plan, but even a small amount is better than nothing. And as soon as you can possibly afford it, try to put in enough to earn your employer's matching contribution, if one is offered. These types of plans can offer some key benefits — and perhaps the biggest one is that investing is automatic, in that the money is moved directly from your paycheck into the investments you've chosen within your 401(k) or other plan.

FINANCIAL FOCUS

Be prepared for downturns. The financial markets will always experience ups and downs. So, you need to be prepared for those times when your investment statements may show negative results. By understanding that these downturns are a normal part of the investment environment, you can avoid overreactions, such as selling quality investments with good fundamentals just because their price has temporarily dropped.

Chart your progress regularly. A key element of a slow-and-steady investment approach is knowing how well it's working. But it's important to measure your progress in a way that makes sense for you. So, for example, instead of measuring your portfolio's performance against that of an external stock market index, such as the S&P 500, you may want to assess where you are today versus one year ago, or whether the overall progress you're making is sufficient to help you meet the financial goals you've set for yourself well into the future. Another reason not to use a market index as a measuring tool is that the index only looks at a certain pool of investments, which, in the case of the S&P 500, is simply the largest companies listed on U.S. stock exchanges. But long-term investors try to own a range of assets — U.S. and foreign stocks, bonds, government securities, certificates of deposit, and so on.

"Slow and steady" may not sound like an exciting approach to investing. But it's often the case that a little less excitement, and a lot more diligence, can prove to be quite effective.

Freshwater fishing heats up

Wachusett Reservoir was hot last week for numerous anglers, as this week's pictures show. Trout fishing was not bad either, if you could stand the cold wind that was blowing all week.

Wallum Lake opens this Saturday, and should be a great day outdoors. The lake was stocked two times by Massachusetts, and the trout should provide some great fishing. The Uxbridge Rod & Gun Club will also open their trout pond to fishing for members only.

Tautog fishing in both Mass. & Rhode Island should start to improve in the next two weeks. Although a three fish daily bag limit is still in effect, catching a few of these hard fighting fish are all worth the effort. Eating one of these fish can provide a meal like no other ocean fish.

Turkeys are starting to become more active in the last few days. Sightings by local hunters have increased also. The Mass. turkey season opens on April 29.

Striper migration is slowly heading our way, and anglers are only days away from catching them. The one fish daily limit is the same as last year, with a slot limit still in effect.

An Array of Random Tips & Tricks

Spring is here and it seems the perfect season to start a home project and/or prep for planning that backyard garden. From painting to gardening tips (and a few home remedies), read on for some "semi random" tips that seem especially appropriate to share this time of year!

Spring is spruce-up season, and if for you, that in includes painting, try these painting pointers from the pros:

Flat Out Frugal Paint: The higher the gloss of the finish, the easier the paint is to clean. However high gloss shows imperfections, that's why flat is used. How do you get a flat finish with "washability?" Just mix a pint of gloss finish paint into each gallon of flat finish.

If you or someone you know needs some food, give us a call or come on by during one of our worship services or outreach programs. We will make you feel at home.

And if you wish to contribute to our good neighbor food pantry, we welcome your kindness. Trust me, the feeling of helping others, especially knowing you kept a child, a family from going hungry, even if it was just for one night, can be transformative. So please join our efforts.

LETTER

It should be clear to all that during Mr. Singer's long tenure serving our town, he has not been a slave to pet projects or false promises made simply to "get elected." He has served this town with integrity, and perhaps most importantly, common sense. We need people like Mr. Singer, now more than ever, to lead our town considering the expenditures on the horizon and shrinking family incomes. My feeling is that it would be disastrous for our town to move away from a fiscal conservative like Mr. Singer.

David Singer has shown that he respects everyone's opinions and represents the entire town of Charlton fairly and honestly during his long time on the board. This is something that cannot be disputed by anyone that has been paying attention. Our government is supposed to work for us - and we shouldn't be taking chances in such an important time in our town's history. I choose to back the candidate who stuck with Charlton through the tough times and knows what it takes to help run this town. Please take the time to visit Heritage school on May 4 and vote for our town's future. Join me in supporting David Singer for Charlton Town Selectman.

Sincerely,
SCOT NERI
CHARLTON

Timing the Job: Choose warm dry mornings to paint. Cold weather retards drying of paint and the dampness will spoil the gloss. And avoid using paint directly from the can as this may cause contamination and prematurely age the paint. Pour the amount you expect to use in 30 minutes into a separate container.

Backyard gardeners are prepping for planting this month. Read on for some helpful hacks:

Beautiful Blooms: Planning a spring flower garden? For an interesting mix, plan to merge short plants with tall specimens for variety and depth, and differing textures. And don't underestimate the power of fragrance. Plan a pathway of flowers with strong floral scents to welcome visitors up to your door!

See the Light: Starting indoor seedlings and don't have greenhouse light? No worries! It is possible to achieve satisfactory results by utilizing your ordinary LED white shop lights. Gary Pilarchik of therustedgarden.com recommends 5,000 lumens or higher. Hang the lights about two feet above the seedlings.

An old fashioned lore worth repeating: Long ago farmers used to use the cricket's chirp to estimate the temperature, and you can too! Just count how many chirps you hear in 15 seconds, then add 40. This will give the approximate temperature in degrees Fahrenheit.

H2O2 for Plants: Hydrogen peroxide. It does much more than sooth a sore throat or clean a cut! Even your plants can benefit from H2O2. Just water or mist plants with an ounce of hydrogen peroxide in one quart water.

Produce Wash for Pennies: 'Tis the season of fresh produce - and pesticides. If you're buying a commercial produce wash, your hard earned cash may be literally going down the drain! Instead, in a spray bottle, mix two tablespoons of baking soda with one cup of water. If you want add a tablespoon of lemon juice. Spray veggies, let sit for a few minutes and rinse!

Enjoy and protect hydrangeas from hungry deer

Melinda Myers

Hydrangeas are a favorite of hungry deer making them susceptible to severe damage so strategies to protect these plants are recommended.

Low maintenance, beautiful flowers, and plenty of varieties have made hydrangeas a favorite landscape plant. It seems you can't visit a garden center or nursery without being tempted by one of the traditional favorites or newer hydrangea varieties.

Despite their easy-care nature, hungry deer can make it difficult to fully enjoy these plants. Rutgers University rates landscape plants based on their susceptibility to deer damage. According to Rutgers, hydrangeas are occasionally severely damaged by deer, meaning they are a plant preferred by deer and protection is advised. Your experience may be different and can vary from year to year, but it is always wise to be prepared to protect key plants in your landscape.

Deer like to browse leaves, tender shoots, flower buds, and blossoms. Damage is worse when populations are high, food is scarce, and when environmental stresses like cold and deep snow are present. Once deer find a place to dine, they tend to return. Their damage has a rough or torn appearance as opposed to a clean cut like that made by a pruner. Preventing damage is always the best way to maximize your enjoyment. Even if your plants have escaped damage in the past, continue to watch for deer tracks, droppings, and plant damage.

Fencing is one option but not always the most attractive or practical. An eight-foot fence is the recommended height for protecting large areas. The University of Minnesota found deer can be kept out of small gardens that are 8 x 16 feet or smaller with much shorter fences. Sturdy decorative posts and somewhat invisible deer fencing tend to make a less obtrusive fence. Always check with your local municipality for any fencing restrictions.

MELINDA MYERS

Many gardeners report success using high-test fishing line. Create a barrier using strong five-foot posts with the fishing line spaced at two-foot intervals.

Scare tactics may provide some short-term help. Motion-sensitive sprinklers, noise makers, and smells are often used. Several gardeners reported success placing colorful wine bottles inverted over rebar posts. The rattling helped discourage deer browsing and added an ornamental element to the garden. Change scare tactics to increase success.

Place key plants closer to your home, in the back of large beds, or surrounded by less susceptible plants. Making it hard to reach the plants can help discourage damage to hydrangeas.

Repellents are another option. Treat susceptible plants before the deer start browsing for the best results. Look for a rain and snow-resistant product, like organic Plantskydd (plantskydd.com), which does not need to be reapplied as often. That means you'll save time applying and spend less money.

Maximize results by treating new growth according to the label directions. Most liquid repellents need time to dry and can only be applied when temperatures are above freezing. Always check the label for the product being applied and follow the directions for the best results.

Continue to monitor the landscape for signs of deer presence and damage and adjust your management strategies as needed. Be persistent so you can increase your success.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC UTILITIES

NOTICE OF FILING, PUBLIC HEARING, AND REQUEST FOR COMMENTS

D.P.U.24-39

April 4, 2024

Petition of the Town of Southbridge for Approval by the Department of Public Utilities of its Municipal Aggregation Plan, pursuant to G.L. c. 164, § 134. On February 9, 2024, the Town of Southbridge ("Town") filed a request with the Department of Public Utilities ("Department") for approval of a municipal aggregation plan pursuant to G.L. c. 164, § 134. General Laws c. 164, § 134 authorizes a municipality to procure electric supply on behalf of consumers within its municipal borders through a municipal aggregation program ("Program"). Eligible electricity consumers not already enrolled with a competitive electric supplier would be automatically enrolled in the Program unless they chose to opt-out, in which case they would continue to receive basic service provided by their electric distribution company, Massachusetts Electric Company d/b/a National Grid. The Department docketed this matter as D.P.U. 24-39. The Town has retained Good Energy, L.P. to serve as its consultant in this proceeding and to assist in the implementation of the Program. The Town seeks a waiver on its own behalf and on behalf of the competitive electric supplier(s) chosen for the Program, of certain information disclosure requirements contained in G.L. c. 164, § 1F(6) and 220 CMR 11.06(4)(c). The Department will conduct a virtual public hearing to receive comments on the Town's filing. The Department will conduct the hearing using Zoom video conferencing on May 8, 2024, beginning at 2:00 p.m. Attendees can join by entering the link, <https://us06web.zoom.us/j/82503834626>, from a computer, smartphone, or tablet. No prior software download is required. For audio-only access to the hearings, attendees dial in at 1 646 931 3860 (not toll free) and then enter the Meeting ID #825 0383 4626. If you anticipate providing comments via Zoom during the public hearing, to the extent possible, please send an email by the close of business (5:00 p.m.) on May 7, 2024, to Lauren.Morris@mass.gov with your name, email address, and mailing address. Alternatively, any person who desires to comment on this matter may submit written comments to the Department via email no later than the close of business (5:00 p.m.) on May 8, 2024. To the extent a person wishes to submit comments in accordance with this Notice, electronic submission, as detailed below, is sufficient. All written comments or other documents should be submitted to the Department in PDF format by e-mail attachment to dpu.efiling@mass.gov and Lauren.Morris@mass.gov. In addition, all written comments should be emailed to counsel for the Town, Laura Olton, Esq., at laura@lsoenergyadvisors.com. The text of the e-mail must specify: (1) the docket number of the proceeding (D.P.U.24-39); (2) the name of the person or company submitting the filing; and (3) a brief descriptive title of the document. All documents submitted in electronic format will be posted on the Department's website as soon as practicable at <http://www.mass.gov/dpu>. The e-mail must also include the name, title, and telephone number of a person to contact in the event of questions about the filing. Importantly, all large files must be broken down into electronic files that do not exceed 20MB. At this time, all filings will be submitted only in electronic format in recognition of the difficulty that parties and the Department may have filing and receiving original copies. Ordinarily, parties would follow Sections B.1 and B.4 of the Department's Standard Ground Rules regarding the filing of original paper versions (D.P.U.15-184-A, App.1 (March 4, 2020)). However, until further notice, parties must retain the original paper version and the Department will later determine when the paper version must be filed with the Department Secretary. The filing and all subsequent related documents submitted to the Department or issued by the Department will be available on the Department's website as referenced above as soon as practicable at <https://eeaonline.eea.state.ma.us/DPU/Fileroom/dockets/bynumber> (enter "24-39"). To the extent a person or entity wishes to submit comments in accordance with this Notice, electronic submission, as detailed above, is sufficient. To request materials in accessible formats for people with disabilities (Braille, large print, electronic files, audio format), contact the Department's ADA coordinator at Andrea.R.Casul@mass.gov. For further information regarding the Town's filing, please contact the Town's attorney, identified above. For further information regarding this Notice, please contact Lauren Morris, Hearing Officer, Department of Public Utilities, at Lauren.Morris@mass.gov. April 11, 2024

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

ANSWER:

Mount Everest (and your retirement)

Climbing Mt. Everest is a challenge that captures the imagination of adventurers worldwide. It is a daunting feat that pushes ones physical and mental endurance, resiliency, and technical skills to the limit. Standing at a staggering 29,032 feet above sea level, Everest's summit is the highest point on earth. To put that height in perspective, commercial airplanes fly around 31,000 feet.

Climbers daring enough to attempt this challenge will often spend years physically training, planning, and preparing. When they finally arrive at base camp, a successful expedition can still take anywhere between six and 10 weeks — the average being two months. Often, extreme weather conditions can make summiting impossible. Climbers must contend with unpredictably high winds, blizzards, and sub-zero temperatures, even during the "climbing season". Sudden changes can turn a promising bid into a perilous situation, forcing climbers to retreat or seek emergency shelter.

The mountain is notorious for its steep ice slopes, deep crevasses, and rocky ridges. It requires the use of ropes, shaky ladders, sherpas, and fixed lines to ascend safely. The Khumbu Icefall, a particularly hazardous section near Everest's base camp, is well known for its unstable ice towers and seemingly bottomless crevasses.

As climbers ascend, the air becomes progressively thinner, leading to reduced oxygen levels. This can cause altitude sickness, characterized by headaches, nausea, and fatigue. Taking just a few steps in these conditions can be utterly exhausting. But for those individuals fortunate enough to reach the top, it is worth the effort to achieve a lifelong goal.

Since 1953 approximately 6,664 different people have successfully summited Mt. Everest. Sadly, the mountain has also claimed many lives (approximately 305). What might be surprising to learn is that 80 percent of those deaths occurred on the way down — after they successfully reached the summit.

When it comes to financial planning, it may seem your "climb" is done once you've reached retirement. But in reality, a new set of challenges and decisions will present themselves. How long will your portfolio last? Are you withdrawing too much or too little? Do you have a spending plan? How should you adjust your asset allocation? Is your portfolio protected? When should you take Social Security? What about taxes and inflation?

Successfully reaching retirement is a fantastic accomplishment. But there is still plenty of work to be done. A knowledgeable financial planner can help guide you through the vast array of retirement pitfalls.

Keep smiling

I waited tables for quite a while in my early acting days. It's a common choice for actors because you can work at night. That leaves your days free for auditions and acting gigs.

Even after I landed a lead role in Showtime's "A Separate Peace," a film produced by Oscar winners Dustin Hoffman & Michael Sugar and directed by Oscar nominee Peter Yates, I was back at the restaurant working shifts before and after filming.

It surprised a lot of folks. They thought a movie role meant you made it big, but acting jobs can be few and far between. Keeping a steady job, like waiting tables, helped me pay the bills.

Being a waiter is straightforward but challenging. You're always on your feet, rushing around. Customers are only sometimes lovely; some can be downright rude or impatient. And when you're juggling several tables, plus dealing with kitchen mix-ups, guess who customers blame? Yep, the waiter.

Waiting tables is a job packed with stress. There were days when it was written all over my face, days when anyone walking by the kitchen could hear me grumbling under my breath. I was short with the kitchen staff, snappy with my managers, and could have done better at keeping my cool.

Quitting crossed my mind more often than I'd like to admit. I fantasized about making a grand exit, throwing my apron down and shouting, "I QUIT!" for everyone to hear, then striding out the door with my head held high.

Then came the day my managers decided it was time for a chat. They understood that the job was stressful, but they also made it clear that stress comes with the territory in the restaurant world. They told me straight: no matter how tough things got, losing my cool wasn't an option. I was expected to handle it all with a smile, no exceptions.

I remember thinking, How am I supposed to keep smiling? What if a customer yells at me for their steak being overcooked when they asked for it well-done? It seemed impossible at the time. How could I grin and bear it when things were so obviously not my fault, yet I had to act as if they were?

POSITIVELY

It didn't matter. Showing annoyance and anger towards a customer, no matter how much they might deserve it, wasn't an option. I was forced to choose.

After many nights of soul-searching, tossing, and turning, with thoughts racing through my head, I reached a decision. No matter what happened during my shifts, I had to keep smiling.

No matter how tempting it was to snap back, showing annoyance or anger towards a customer was off-limits. I had to make a choice, which was definitely challenging.

I found myself smiling at customers who sent back their meals because the soup was "too hot" or complained their ice cream was "too cold." It seemed absurd, but as I kept my cool and flashed a smile—even when everything in me wanted to do the opposite—something unexpected began to happen. The stress that used to weigh me down started to lift.

As I made smiling a practice, I realized it wasn't about giving in or pretending the stress didn't exist; it was about choosing how I reacted to it.

I realized that my smile wasn't just a courtesy; it was my shield, a powerful defense against the relentless negativity and chaos that threatened to engulf me. No matter how unreasonable the customers were, how baseless the complaints were, or how chaotic the kitchen became, I found something interesting.

I found that smiling, keeping calm, and not reacting to the negativity wasn't me being a fake person. It was changing how I felt on the inside. I started to feel happy and soon enough I didn't have to force it.

I also noticed that the customers found it hard to continue their negativity when confronted with unwavering positivity.

Next time you find yourself about to lose your cool, take a breath and force a smile. It might feel unnatural at first, but give it a moment. That smile will start to work wonders, not just on those around you, but on you as well.

Gateway Players brings "Off She Goes" to the stage

SOUTHBRIDGE — Gateway Players Theatre of Southbridge presents "Off She Goes" by Sturbridge playwright Ed Humphries. Performances will be held on May 3 & 4 at 7:30 p.m., May 5 at 2 p.m., and May 10 & 11 at 7:30 p.m. All performances will be held at the Fellowship Hall of Elm Street Congregational Church, 61 Elm St. in Southbridge. Parking is available on Elm Street, or in the parking deck behind the Southbridge Town Hall. This production will be directed by Ed Humphries, produced by David Corkum, and the Stage Manager is Gwen O'Brien.

Tickets are $18 for adults and $15 for seniors and youth under 18. Tickets may be reserved by calling Gateway at 508-764-4531. Online credit card ticket sales are available at <https://www.ticketleap.events/tickets/gateway-players/off-she-goes>.

"Off She Goes" is a comedy/drama about a British war bride, Ellie - who after saying goodbye to her husband of 60 years, moves into an assisted living community - assuming she'll just mark time until her own time comes. But fate has other plans for her when she meets her new roommate, Anna - also a British war bride who came to the States after the war and finds she shares a surprising connection with Ellie. As Ellie flashes back to the pivotal moments of her life - the two women form a friendship and come to realize that while they may never have gone home again, maybe home has finally come back to them.

tine articles on the special town meeting warrant, which will be held the same night as the annual town meeting in June. Those will transfer funds for snow and ice deficits and unpaid bills from last year (both still to be determined), plus $72,000 to fund streetlights and $7,980 from sewer betterments to cover Registry of Deeds fees. It also closed the Annual Town Meeting warrant, which the Finance Committee was to begin discussing this week. The formal budget presentation was this Tuesday, after this paper's deadline.

One issue those discussions will look at is insurance, specifically the board's recent approval of shifting to a 70/30 split for health coverage. Grimm said the goal of doing that is to "support recruitment across the board," since many nearby towns are now at 75/25 and "employees are really paying attention to health care." She noted the change will cost Sturbridge about $122,000 extra a year.

Regarding insurance, the town also had to start offering a "low-cost high-deductible plan" based on the percentage of income for lower-paid staff. Grimm noted the federal government fined Sturbridge $45,000 for not having such an option. The change "won't offset that penalty" this year, but will eliminate it going forward, she said.

Dowling noted she had not heard of anyone actually expressing interest in such a plan.

Gus Steeves can be reached at gus.steeves2@gmail.com.

on the Board of Selectmen from 2018 until 2021 when she decided not to seek re-election.

Two other contested elections will be decided on May 4, both involving the local schools. Incumbent Dudley Charlton Regional School Committee member Nicole Enberg will seek to maintain her seat on the committee for another year while Anthony Aube will seek to usurp Enberg to join the board. Incumbent committee member Jeanne Renaud Costello is unopposed as she seeks a new three-year term. The Southern Worcester County Regional Vocational School District Committee, which oversees Bay Path Regional Vocational Technical High School, will see incumbent Donald Montville challenged by Jay Sweet for a three-year term.

All other seats on the ballot are uncontested this year: Incumbent Assessor Brett Moore has no competition for re-election. Neither do incumbent Willis Bond for Cemetery Commissioner, returning Library Trustees Frances Mower and Stefan Sage and new Trustee candidate Lance Russell Morin, or former selectman Patricia Ann Rydlak who is unopposed for seats on both the Planning Board and the Recreation Commission. Other seats on the Water & Sewer Commission, Recreation Commission, and Board of Health did not have candidates listed by the town.

Voters will also be tasked with making an important decision regarding the fate of a funding proposal for a fire department substation project, the continuation of years of discussions seeking a solution to the department's aging Station 2. Voters will be asked to vote on a proposed debt exclusion of $13.1 million from the provisions of Proposition 2 ½ to pay for a large part of the project which would erect a new facility at the intersection of Oxford Road and Heritage Drive.

Charlton's annual municipal election will take place on Saturday May 4. Election details and locations can be found on the Town Clerk page of the Town of Charlton website. The election will be followed by the annual town meeting on Monday, May 20.

SOUTHBRIDGE — The Southbridge Rotary Club is proud to announce its donation of eclipse glasses to the Southbridge Fire and Police Departments. The donation comes in anticipation of the upcoming partial solar eclipse, which will be visible in Southbridge on April 8.

“We understand the importance of safety during a solar eclipse,” said Constantino Tata, NASA Solar System Ambassador and member of the Southbridge Rotary Club. “Donating these eclipse glasses will ensure that our fire-fighters and police officers can safely observe the eclipse while they continue to serve our community.”

The donated eclipse glasses meet the international safety standard ISO 12312-2:2015, which guarantees safe viewing of a solar eclipse.

“We are grateful to the Southbridge Rotary Club for their generous donation,” said Shane Woodson, Chief of the Southbridge Police Department. “These eclipse glasses will be a valuable resource for our first responders as they continue to protect our community.”
