Saint Joseph School sixth grade student Ivonka Warnajtys assists her PreK-4-year-old buddies Jaxson Blain and Magdalena Kosiorek during the Annual Thanksgiving Feast.

WEBSTER — On Monday, Nov. 20, the students, faculty, and staff of Saint Joseph School continued their annual Thanksgiving traditions. As the students began the holiday week, they joined to give thanks for their many blessings and collect food for local needy families.

Each class was responsible for bringing items to complete a Thanksgiving dinner. Younger students, including the three pre-kindergarten classes, contributed canned vegetables, while older students donated stuffing mix, gravy, cranberry sauce, potatoes, and more. The food collection culminated with a prayer service led by the Sixth-Grade students. Then, on Tuesday, Nov. 21, the Saint Joseph School community gathered for their Annual Thanksgiving Feast in the Richard A. Nowak Gymnasium. Everyone enjoyed delicious homemade turkey, creamy mashed potatoes, and savory stuffing. The turkeys for the feast were donated by the Saint Joseph Basilica Knights of Columbus Council #12980, prepared by the kitchen staff, and served by parent volunteers.

Highlights of the dinner included the 8th-grade students serving their teachers and peers, the older students assisting their young “buddies,” and the special guests in attendance. Guests included former principal

Dudley continues search for new Public Health Agent

BY JASON BLEAU CORRESPONDENT

DUDLEY — As the town of Dudley continues to fill vacant positions following a difficult year of budget turmoil and turnover, one position that has proven to be particularly complicated is for Health Agent. The Board of Health has posted ads seeking qualified candidates for the position over the last few months, however they have yet to find anyone with the skills or experiences required to fill the post.

The Board gave a brief update on the search during a meeting on Nov. 14 where member Jennifer Cournoyer explained that they have yet to find anyone even qualified to fill the position.

“We have posted on three different sites already and we’ve had noone with any type of experience. Nothing whatsoever. We’ve had people not even in related fields apply for the position. So, we did reach out to the Worcester CMRPC (Central Massachusetts Regional Planning Commission) Health, and they gave us another location of where to post it. We’re just waiting for an approval. You have to sign up to be able to post on it,” she said.

Dudley had previously shared a Health Agent with Webster, but the new job description, as posted on Sept. 26, indicates the new hire will be a full-time position specific to Dudley. The Public Health Agent serves as the leader of the Health Department leading operations, grant procedures, programs, and attending meetings and coordinating with the Board of Health. The Public Health Agent also conducts inspections and site evaluations as well as helping resolve any issues regarding housing or any public health emergency.

— Cornerstone Bank, a community bank with 10 locations throughout Central Massachusetts, is sponsoring the Winter Wonderland Masquerade Gala with a $5,000 donation. The event, which will be held on Saturday, Dec. 2, at 6 p.m. at 55 Pearl St. in Worcester, benefits The WellStorm (TWS) in Southbridge and the For One Child Foundation in Auburn.

“Not only are we proud to support these two deserving organizations, but also to raise awareness for the valuable work they do,” said Cornerstone Bank CEO Todd Tallman. “We hope others will join by attending and sponsoring this fun and creative opportunity to ‘glam up’ for a great cause.”

TWS aims to bridge the gap of poverty and engage the community in building connections and support for individuals experiencing homelessness, mental health struggles and food insecurity. One way TWS does this is by supporting the community with the Bridge Fridge, which allows anyone in the community to access healthy food. The mission of the For One Child Foundation is to empower children by providing learning materials, educational technology and other classroom necessities to deprived schoolchildren, in order to holistically enhance their lives and allow for a better future.

The Winter Wonderland Masquerade Gala will include awards highlighting the work of each organization’s staff, volunteers and supporters, as well as raffles, silent auctions, food, drinks, music and dancing. Tickets are $75 each and can be purchased online at bit.ly/3S8biEg.

Bay Path nursing mock code team holds prep day

CHARLTON — The Practical Nursing Class of 2024 Mock Code Team under the guidance and leadership of Professor Cheryl Cahill executed the Mock Code Team Prep recently. During cardiac arrests, the quick response of a code team requires cohesiveness, timely defibrillation, and clearly defined roles. Bay Path Practical Nursing Academy’s Mock Code Team and Simulation Training improves response to code events.

“We are blessed to have the guidance, experience, and expertise of Professor Cahill,” said Gretheline Bolandrina, DHA, MSN Ed, RN, CRRN Academy Director.

“Using simulation training improves performance,” Bolandrina added—the timely use of defibrillation and confident nurses empower and result in a positive response to code events.

According to the American Heart Association’s Get With The Guidelines (GWTG) resuscitation program, time to first shock is one of four achievement metrics. The guidelines state that hospitalized patients exhibiting ventricular fibrillation or pulseless ventricular tachycardia should receive defibrilla-tion within two minutes to improve outcomes.

In 2017, the Bay Path Practical Nursing Academy MCT was formed to improve resuscitation skills and comfort levels for practical nursing students. The MCT meets for a full day of preparation, with members practicing as much as possible. On Mock Code Day, the MCT runs the code scenarios multiple times. The formation of the MCT increased mock code opportunities and participation three times in an academic year. Participation in mock codes increases the comfort level. An effective code team is one that acts safely, and efficiently, and saves lives. The MCT aims to be proficient with skills and knowledge, effective with communication, and highly organized.

Members of the PN Class of 2024 Mock Code Team are Victoria Boateng of Gardner; Julie Dodson of West Brookfield; Melisa Nale of North Brookfield, Patrick Njunge, Richard Nsiah, both of Worcester; Samantha Stanikmas of Charlton; Ashley Urbain of Paxton, and Cynthia Zayas-Torres of N. Grosvenordale, Conn. It is important for members of the healthcare team to intuitively know their role as part of the response team, especially during code situations when seconds count.

Friday's Child

Asa and Lilianna
Age 8 and 10

Hi! Our names are Asa and Lilianna and we like karate!

Lilianna and Asa are amazing sibling group hoping to be adopted together. Lilianna (Lilly), the older sister is very outgoing. She is described as active, fearless, and strong-willed. Lilly also has a side she describes as "classy", such as enjoying getting her nails done and putting on makeup. She attends in karate class and really enjoys it. Lilly also loves art, enjoys watching cartoons, and helping her foster mother in the kitchen. In school, she performs at grade level and would benefit from support and consistent structure to stay task. Lilianna is severely allergic to cats and dogs and families with cats will not be considered but her social worker would consider a family with a hypoallergenic dog.

Asa, the younger brother, unlike his big sis has an introverted personality. He also likes to attend karate class. Asa likes indoor activities like mind-stimulating games that include problem solving, drawing, and playing with cars. He also loves outdoor activities such as going to the park. In school, Asa performs above average compared to his peers.

Lilly and Asa will bring joy to a home that can provide them with structure, consistency, and freedom to express their emotions. They will do well in a loving two parent family of any constellation, where they can be the only or youngest children in the home. Asa is biracial, being of African America and Caucasian descent and interested families must be dedicated to providing appropriate information and ethnic and cultural role models regarding his culture which includes discussing racism and discrimination.

The power of small changes

In a world that often celebrates instant results and quick fixes, the true path to personal growth and self-improvement lies in the steady accumulation of small changes. We live in an age where we’re bombarded with information about radical transformations and overnight success stories. However, it’s essential to remember that lasting change often comes from the consistent practice of good habits, one small step at a time.

The journey of self-improvement can be daunting. Whether it’s striving for better health, financial stability, or personal development, the thought of making significant changes can be overwhelming. But here’s the secret: progress is not about massive, dramatic actions. Instead, it’s about the cumulative effect of tiny, daily efforts.

Developing good habits requires patience, persistence, and an understanding that meaningful change doesn’t happen overnight. Instead, it unfolds gradually.

Small changes are sustainable because they don’t disrupt your life drastically. When you start with tiny steps, you’re less likely to feel overwhelmed and give up. These changes become integrated into your daily routine, making them easier to maintain over the long term.

Consistency is the backbone of habit formation. By taking small actions every day, you reinforce positive behaviors and build momentum. Over time, these behaviors become second nature, and you don’t have to rely on willpower alone.

Large changes can trigger resistance and anxiety. Our brains are wired to resist big, sudden shifts. In contrast, small changes are less threatening, making it easier to overcome the resistance that often accompanies change.

Celebrating small victories along the way boosts motivation and confidence. Each small change achieved is a step forward, reinforcing your commitment to your goals.

Life is unpredictable, and sudden disruptions can derail even the best-laid plans. When your habits are built on small, manageable changes, you can adapt more easily to unexpected challenges without losing sight of your goals.

Identify one habit you want to cultivate and break it down into the smallest possible steps. For example, if you want to exercise regularly, start with just five minutes of activity each day.

Set specific goals: Make your goals clear and measurable. Instead of saying, “I want to get in shape,” say, “I will walk for 10 minutes every morning.”

Establish a daily routine that includes your new habit. Consistency is easier to maintain when your habit becomes part of your daily life.

Track your progress: Keep a journal or use habit-tracking apps to monitor your daily efforts. Seeing your progress can be motivating and help you stay on track.

Stay accountable: Share your goals with a friend or family member who can offer support and encouragement. Having someone to hold you accountable can be a powerful motivator.

Remember, the journey of self-improvement is not a sprint but a marathon. Embrace the process of making small changes every day, and in time, you’ll look back and be amazed at the significant transformation that these incremental efforts have brought to your life. By cultivating good habits one step at a time, you’ll not only achieve your goals but also develop the resilience and discipline necessary for a lifetime of positive change.

VIEWPOINT

What is Christmas all about?

What is Christmas all about? If you didn’t grow up in a Christian home, if you don’t go to Church, or didn’t have parents who read you the Christmas story each year, would you know what Christmas is about all? Think about that for a moment. Would you be able to figure out what Christmas is about from what our society says during this festive season?

I had a discussion with a person who told me they grew up with no religion in their home. They never went to church, never were baptized, and in fact, really never talked about anything religious in their home. This person wasn’t angry at God, or didn’t reject God or His Church because they had some negative experience with religious people. The simple fact was that their family never felt any need to be involved in a religious community, and now in their adult age, this person is totally indifferent to Christianity or any other religion.

This describes a growing number of people in our country. Statistics now say that almost 40 percent of millennials, people between 18 and 30, don’t identify with any religious community. And this number is growing rapidly.

For such people, what do they think about Christmas? Would they even know what Christmas is truly about?

Well, let’s think about what they see all around them? Homes have lights up, lots of lights, beautiful lights along with reindeer, Santas, candy canes, snowmen, and some snow dogs. Even non-Christian families have lights shining around their home. The lights are beautiful, but would a non-religious or a non-Christian person have any reason to understand why there are lights? What do they signify or mean?

Then there’s the Christmas music on the radio or in every shop or store we enter. Some stations have 24/7 Christmas music. Yet, what does this music tell us about Christmas? That chestnuts are roasting on an open fire. That Rudolph has a red, shiny nose. Lots of music about families gathering together to celebrate the most joyous time of the year amidst a winter wonderland. Once again beautiful, nostalgic music that may warm our hearts. But what is its significance. Maybe one out of every 20 or 30 songs may sing about the Christ child, but these few songs can easily get lost in the host of other catchy tunes.

Of course, there are the Christmas cards we send to one another which show beautiful pictures of families. I love getting these cards and seeing how families change year after year. They are beautiful, and they remind us of family and friends. But do they tell us anything about Christmas?

How many of us go to different Christmas or holiday parties which gather co-workers, friends and families together. Great fellowship. Good food. But once again, what does it tell us about the meaning of Christmas?

And of course, there’s all the stress and rush of the season – shopping for more and more presents up until the day before Christmas. Feeling overwhelmed, ragged and tired. Does this get across what Christmas is all about?

What a non-religious person probably comes away with from American Christmas is that it is a time for family and friends, a time of celebration and cheer, a time of beauty and fun. Yet they can miss the entire religious message, the main point of Christmas! Seriously, it’s easy to celebrate Christmas and leave Jesus Christ entirely out of the picture!

One friend told me about a foreign exchange student from China who was living with them. Although this

BEYOND THE PEWS
• • • • •
BY FR. LUKE A. VERONIS
SAINTS CONSTANTINE AND HELEN GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH, WEBSTER

student had heard about the Western holiday of Christmas in China, they actually knew nothing of its actual meaning. And after living through the celebration of Christmas in America, they still didn’t know what it was all about until they asked their host family, “Why do you celebrate Christmas? What is it all about? Do you really believe in flying reindeer?”

The “Good News of Great Joy” this season celebrates is about God the Creator of the universe becoming a human being. It’s about Jesus the long-awaited Messiah coming to earth to save the world from darkness and evil, sin and death itself. This radical and life-giving message is now lost for many people in all the hustle and bustle of our secular Christmas. Therefore, we Christians need to understand that this season as a great opportunity to tell others about what Christmas truly is! We have a special responsibility to share the good news of great joy with others – to let people know the reason for the season!

What does your Christian faith mean to you? How has your relationship with Jesus Christ impacted your life? What meaning and significance have you found in life because of your faith in God? As I reflect on my father’s death earlier this year, I realize I’m not afraid of death precisely because of what Christmas ushered into the world!

Christmas is the beginning of the greatest revolution in human history – a revolution which brings true freedom to humanity. Freedom to overcome our sinful temptations and passions and fulfill our God-given potential by uniting us to God Himself. As St. Athanasios the Great succinctly put it, “God became man so that man could become god.” This is the great promise of Christmas, to reach our potential as human beings! And this is good news everyone needs to know about!

Thus, I want to challenge everyone. Over the next weeks, can we make it a point to share the Good News of Christmas, the real message of Christmas, with at least one person each week. Think of someone you know who isn’t a Christian – maybe someone who is among the non-religious, or maybe someone with another religious background. Whoever it is, ask them how they celebrate Christmas, and what Christmas means to them. Then, share how you celebrate Christmas and what the birth of Jesus Christ means to you.

Even think about inviting them to come to Church with you one of these Sundays before or on Christmas. Everyone is welcome to our Saints Constantine and Helen Church in Webster!

Please remember that there are many people in our society who really don’t know what Christmas is all about. And more and more people are joining their ranks. Let us be like the angels who brought the “good news of great joy” to the shepherds. Let us be like the shepherds who shared their great discovery with the villagers of Bethlehem. Let us be like the wise men who after traveling far to see the newborn Jesus, surely went back to their homeland telling their people about the newborn king.

Christmas is a time for family and friends. Christmas is a time of beautiful lights and wonderful music. Christmas is a time of celebration and good cheer. Yet above all else, Christmas is the time that we remember how God entered the world and changed it! Jesus Christ came to conquer Satan and sin and even death itself, and because of this gave each one of us an opportunity for new life! May we let everyone know about this good news of great joy!

Know the key benefits of a Roth IRA

FINANCIAL FOCUS

DENNIS ANTONOPOULOS

As you save for retirement, you’ll want to take full advantage of the investment vehicles available to you — and one of the best is a Roth IRA. But what sets it apart from other accounts?

Three key factors distinguish the Roth IRA:

Tax-free earnings – When you invest in a Roth IRA, your earnings can grow tax free, provided you don’t begin taking withdrawals until you’re 59 and a half and you’ve had your account at least five years. If you don’t meet these criteria, withdrawals of earnings will be subject to taxes and a possible 10 percent penalty.

No penalties on withdrawals of contributions – You fund a Roth IRA with after-tax dollars, which means you can withdraw your contributions — not the earnings — at any time for any reason, without facing taxes or penalties. So, you could use some of your Roth IRA money for non-retirement purposes, such as helping pay for a child’s college education.

No required withdrawals at age 73 – With a traditional IRA or a 401(k), you must start taking withdrawals — called required minimum distributions, or RMDs — once you reach 73. But this rule doesn’t apply to a Roth IRA — you can keep it intact as long as you like. You may need to tap into it for some of your retirement income, but if you don’t use it all, the remainder could benefit your beneficiaries.

A Roth IRA does share one similarity to a traditional IRA: It can be funded with virtually any type of investment, including stocks, bonds, mutual funds, certificates of deposit (CDs) and so on.

However, unlike a traditional IRA, a Roth IRA does have income limits.

For the 2023 tax year, if your modified adjusted gross income was less than $138,000 (for a single filer) or $218,000 (married filing jointly), you can put in the full amount of $6,500 and an additional $1,000 catch-up contribution if you’re 50 or older. The amounts you can contribute will gradually decline at higher income levels and are phased out entirely at $153,000 for single filers and $228,000 if you’re married and file jointly. These income ranges will likely change for the 2024 tax year, so you’ll want to consult with your tax advisor for details.

Still, even if you’ve contributed to a traditional IRA or a 401(k) for many years, you may have a chance to eventually “convert” some, or all, of these funds to a Roth IRA and gain its benefits. It’s not hard to do this conversion — it involves minimal paperwork from your traditional IRA or 401(k) provider — but it does come with tax issues. Any money that’s converted from a traditional IRA or 401(k) to a Roth IRA will be treated as ordinary taxable income. This can trigger a large tax bill, so, unless you have the money available from other accounts to pay the taxes, the conversion may or may not make sense for you. But you don’t have to convert all the funds at once. By spreading the conversion over several years, you could reduce the effect of a large tax hit in any single year. You may want to consult with your tax advisor before converting any funds to a Roth IRA.

If you can find a way to contribute to a Roth IRA, either directly or through a conversion, consider it carefully — you’ll find a lot of upsides to this investment account.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A clean heat platform for Massachusetts

To the Editor:

With the cold weather upon us, it is easy to forget the impact of a warming climate will have on our children and grandchildren. Here in Massachusetts the residential and commercial building sector is the second largest emitter of greenhouse gases. While there are several bills now proposed to address this, it is important to let our Governor and Legislators know that they should support the complementary policies that make up the Clean Heat Platform, which will steer us away from fossil fuel use and replacing it with clean, more efficient and cheaper electricity. This can be done through the use of ground and air heat pumps, weatherizing existing structures, and strengthening our building codes among other things. But just as important as getting our commonwealth to act, we should also take matters into our own hands, by taking responsibility for our own carbon footprints, by electrifying our own homes when time comes to replace any broken or obsolete appliances with energy efficient replacements.

Be alert against CIRDC

Shotgun deer hunting season opened in Mass. this past Monday, in somewhat ideal conditions. The early morning rain was over by sunrise, followed by light winds in the morning, for hunters hoping to harvest a deer for the family's freezer.

Deer have already started to become nocturnal (traveling and feeding only at night). Deer hunters often work in small groups, hoping to locate the deer, often pushing them from their beds. With the high population of deer in Mass., hunters should have no problem harvesting a couple for the family freezer.

A canine respiratory disease known as CIRDC, "Canine Infectious Respiratory Disease," is a disease that is highly contagious, and has been detected in numerous pets recently. People that frequent dog parks are exposing their pets to this deadly disease. Taking your pets to the veterinarian to diagnose and treat the disease can be extremely expensive, as most visits to the Veterinarian are.

Getting an appointment to the veterinarian can often take days, as most are often booked up. Pet owners are often referred to Tuff's medical clinic in Grafton, which is extremely expensive. Anyone that has had to take their pet to Tuff's, often come out with a bill of $500 or more, a thousand dollar bill is not unusual. Owning a dog that is healthy is great, and the companionship is most often a strong bond with the owners.

I have often mentioned the risks of taking your pets to a dog park, and with the recent outbreak of this disease, you should not do it! People take their dogs almost everywhere they go, and the risks are very high that they could become infected. Don't do it!

Purchasing a dog as a Christmas present for someone is also a foolish thing to do! There is too much going on, and the pup could be injured during all of the commotion of opening other gifts. Also, when you decide to buy a new family member and/or hunting partner, be sure to buy a healthy dog directly from a breeder. Be sure to see both parents and spend a little bit of time with them. Labradors are still the no. one pet, but if you do not do your homework before you purchase one, diseases like hip dysplasia could end up costing you hundreds, if not thousands of dollars, not to forget to mention a short life for your new family member. Choose wisely and good luck!

Christmas shopping for those special sportsmen is often a hard thing to do. It is best to give that special guy or gal a gift certificate at their favorite sporting goods store. Shopping at a Mom & Pop store is the best way to go, and will help keep the establishment in business. Many of these small shops have gone out of business over the last 20 years or so, and there are very few left.

Holiday Crafts for Kids

As we count down to Christmas, a host of festive preparations take center stage in most families. This exciting time of year is hectic, and even more so for anxious children eager to be part of the pre-holiday activities. If you're searching for easy, creative ways to keep little ones from underfoot, look no further. The following ideas are fun and easy ways to keep kids busy. Best of all, these imaginative projects make great gifts for the special loved one in a child's life.

center so that you have a six sided star shape. If your points are not even, trim the pipe cleaner sections to the same length. Attach string along the outer edges to form a snowflake pattern. Attach a piece of string to the top of one of the pipe cleaners and tie the other end to a pencil (this is to hang it from). Fill a wide mouth jar with boiling water. Mix borax into the water one tablespoon at a time. Use three tablespoons of borax per cup of water. Stir until dissolved, (don't worry if there is powder settling on the bottom of the jar). If you want you can add a little blue food coloring now to give the snowflake a bluish hue. Insert your pipe cleaner snowflake into the jar so that the pencil is resting on the lip of the jar and the snowflake is freely suspended in the borax solution. Wait overnight and by morning the snowflake will be covered with shiny crystals. Hang in a window as a sun-catcher or

Coal Stocking Bags

Children love to think they aren't the only ones who are "naughty" at times, and really enjoy bestowing this holiday teaser on family members and friends. This tried and true project is so simple, yet never fails to garner giggles and fun!

Materials: Small, coal sized rocks; black paint; ziplock bags or brown paper lunch bags; ribbon or twine.

Instructions: Have kids package painted rocks in zipper bags or brown paper bag pouches and tie with a ribbon for gift giving. They can hand print out the following message and tie it to the bag:

I heard you have been naughty not nice,
And Santa even checked his list twice.
So all the way from the cold North Pole,
All you're getting is a bag of coal!

Pinecone Trees

Gathering pinecones for holiday crafts is a generations old tradition that reflects one of nature's many gifts of the season! Creating cute, colorful, pinecone "trees" is easy enough for young children to do. The little trees are made simply by painting a single pinecone and are ideal for displaying on the windowsill, desktop or table.

Materials: Pinecones, dried (see below)*; paints; glitter; beads; cinnamon candies, etc. and other adornments as desired; wine cork or a slice of tree trunk for base.

Instructions: Choose a pinecone that mimics the shape of a Christmas tree (short and stout tall and slender, etc.). Paint pinecones green and decorate with beads or tiny buttons; cookie decorations such as cinnamon candies and silver balls, etc.; dip tips in glue and glitter, if desired, etc. Glue bottom of pinecone to a wine cork or small tree trunk slice to form a base (trim bottom of pinecone to make it flat for gluing).

*To dry pinecones for crafting; Lay pinecones out flat on an old cookie sheet. Bake at 225 for two hours. This not only helps the pinecones to open, but eliminates moisture and any insects.

Note: a mix of short, stout pinecones and long, slender ones can create a "forest" of varying heights for a tabletop display!

Garden Bows

The gardener on your child's gift list will truly appreciate this creative tree ornament. Perfect for a grandparent, teacher or special adult, the gift can be opened for use in the spring, or hung on the tree year after year.

Materials: Flower or vegetable seed packets; white glue; glitter; metallic tree garland; fishing line.

Instructions: Fold seed packet into pleats. Spread white glue along the outside edges of the pleats. Dip the pleated packets into glitter and let dry. Pinch the top of the packet to create a fan. Hang the ornaments by wrapping them at center point with metallic garland. Thread fishing line or ribbon through the garland and tie in a loop for hanging on tree.

2023 auction results

I hope that you had a Happy Thanksgiving! As we near 2024, I'll use today's column to share some results from our 2023 auctions.

In previous columns, I've discussed how comic books are classified. As a refresher, Golden Age comics were printed from 1938 to 1956. The Silver

Age of comics lasted from 1956 to 1970. The Bronze Age spanned from 1970 to 1985 and the Modern Age began in 1985 and continues today. A Golden Age superheroes comic book in great condition could make you a millionaire. More recent ones can still be valuable, though. We sold a group of Bronze Age and Modern Age X-Men Comic Books that brought $2,880 in November.

Old and newer collectible toys also brought strong prices this year, including two cast iron toys from our June auction. Kenton Toys of Kenton, Ohio began manufacturing toy trucks in 1903, according to the National Museum of American History. An early 1900s Kenton Toys Cast Iron Police Patrol Horse Drawn Carriage brought $960. "Samuel F. Pratt, Pascal P. Pratt, and William P. Letchworth established the Buffalo Malleable Iron Works in 1836," according to worthpoint.com. They began toy production in 1889. A late 19th century Pratt & Letchworth Cast Iron Horse Drawn Steamer Fire Engine sold for $1,020.

Some more modern toys also sold well in our 2023 auctions. "The Munsters" was the 18th highest-ranked TV show for the 1964-65 season. A 1964 Talking Herman Munster figure by Mattel with original box sold for $900. The intro for "Six Million Dollar Man" became a 1970s catch phrase: "We can rebuild him; we have the technology." A 1970s The Six Million Dollar Man Venus Space Probe in the box went for $960. Even newer toys can be valuable. A 2016 Lego Ghostbusters Fire House MIB (mint in box) sold for $780 earlier this year.

Baseball and other sports cards continue to be popular with collectors, especially graded cards of star players. Cards featuring two Hall of Famers brought strong prizes in our June auction. A 1954 Topps Hank (Henry) Aaron #128 PSA 5 (out of 10) Baseball Card fetched $4,425. Mickey Mantle cards in good condition are highly desirable. A 1952 Bowman Mickey Mantle #101 PSA 6 (out of 10) Baseball Card knocked it out of the park, selling for $5,000.

We are expecting more strong auction results at our major multi-estate online auction which starts soon and ends on January 10th. We will be offering fine art including paintings by listed artists (those whose works have sold at auction), Pablo Picasso limited edition pottery, and bronze sculptures. We have gold, platinum, and diamond jewelry and a large amount of sterling silver. There's also a wide range of mid-century modern furniture and accessories. We will also offer aviation and Civil War memorabilia and much more, including a book from the 1600s. Our online estate auction of a Concord, Mass. home is also currently running and will end on Dec. 12. The Concord home has fine furnishings, oriental rugs, an antique tall case clock, and more. The strength to overcome obstacles lies within you

We sometimes find ourselves standing at the feet of towering giants and facing impossible battles. The types of battles that make you question everything you thought you knew, making you feel as if you don't have what it takes and that you should give up and die.

What if I told you that this perception, this daunting outlook, is often a mere illusion?

There is a truth that many of us find hard to believe: that deep within you lies everything you need to triumph over your giants.

At an early age, Stephen Wiltshire received an autism diagnosis, a condition that faced significant stigma during his childhood. He was non-verbal until the age of five; few could have imagined his disability would eventually become one of his greatest strengths.

Stephen had a love for drawing; he was passionate about it. It was his way of connecting and communicating. Being autistic, I'm sure nobody thought Stephen had any chance in art.

Outdoor winter container gardens

Add a bit of greenery to your front steps, window box or patio with a winter container garden. You’ll find all the ingredients you need at your local garden center, craft store, and maybe even a few in your backyard.

Start with a walk through your yard and look for evergreens and other potential ingredients for your winter containers. Fruits like rose hips, winterberries, holly berries, crabapples and others add color to the container. Fluffy seed-heads of grasses make a nice vertical accent and add a bit of motion to the arrangement.

Next, convert one or two of your summer or fall containers into a winter display. The container should be able to tolerate the winter conditions in your area. Concrete, iron, metal, wood and fiberglass containers are best suited for year-round use. Even plastic pots will last for a few years when left outside.

Or start a new container for winter. Repurpose or purchase a container. Nursery pots that once housed trees and shrubs make excellent options. These black containers provide the perfect backdrop for greenery and are available for free from most garden centers and fellow gardeners. Make sure the pot has drainage holes to prevent water-logged soil and water from overflowing the pot. Fill the container about seven eighths full with a well-drained potting mix. The soil helps hold the greenery, twigs and other materials in place and adds weight to keep the pot upright throughout the winter.

Consider using a mix of greens for a variety of textures and various shades of green. Pine, spruce, arborvitae, boxwood and junipers may be growing in your landscape and most are available at garden centers. Spruce tips are popular; allowing you to add “mini” trees or create vertical accents in your containers. Use greens to cover the pot and create an attractive base for your winter display. Place some branches upright and others at a 45-degree angle so the greens drape over the edge. Secure the stems by placing them at least four inches deep in the soil.

Now add some color and vertical interest with stems of red twig dogwoods, paper birch branches, berry-laden stems from holly and winterberry and curly willow branches. Artificial material and outdoor ornaments can also be used. It’s your opportunity to get creative. Do consider adding other elements such as evergreen cones, seed pods, allium seedheads, and balloon plant pods. Leave them natural or add some paint and glitter.

Water thoroughly to remove air pockets and lock your ingredients in place. Keeping the soil moist until the potting mix freezes can help extend the beauty of the greenery. The winter containers will also last much longer in cooler temperatures. And those displayed in more sheltered locations out of direct sunlight and wind

As fate would have it, Stephen discovered that he had an eidetic memory that allowed him to draw complex landscapes and cityscapes even after just a glance.

Against all odds, Stephen’s perceived disadvantage also came with an advantage that gave him everything he needed to become a world-class artist.

Ludwig van Beethoven, a renowned musical genius, faced an unimaginable challenge as he began to lose his hearing.

Many might have thought this marked the end of his illustrious career. Yet, in an astonishing turn of events, this loss became a transformational force in his musical journey.

His compositions got better as he lost his hearing; they soared in depth and expression. Astoundingly, Beethoven’s most celebrated works emerged when he was entirely deaf.

This profound loss forced him to listen in a new way, feeling the vibrations of each note. He began to perceive and compose music in a way he never had before.

This unforeseen challenge became the catalyst that propelled his artistry to unprecedented heights.

What seems like a crippling setback can be precisely what’s needed to bring you toward your destiny.

Aron Ralston, an adventurer and mountaineer, lived for the thrill of conquering the great outdoors. His passion for exploring remote canyons and scaling rugged peaks was not just a hobby but a profound expression of his connection with nature. Ralston’s adventures showed his profound love for the wilderness, a love that would be tested in ways he probably never imagined.

In April 2003, a routine solo canyoneering trip in Utah became a life-or-death struggle. While navigating a narrow canyon, a dislodged boulder trapped his right arm against the canyon wall. For five agonizing days, Ralston battled the elements, his physical limits, and mounting despair.

With dwindling supplies and no hope of rescue, he faced an unimaginable decision: amputate his trapped arm with a dull pocketknife to escape. This harrowing choice marked a turning point not only in his ordeal but in his entire life.

Ralston was undoubtedly forced to alter his relationship with the outdoors dramatically. What had once been a playground became the scene of his most profound challenge.

Yet, it deepened his respect and appreciation for the wild and led him down a new path.

He penned his memoir, “Between a Rock and a Hard Place,” recounting his extraordinary survival and the lessons learned in the canyon.

His story inspired millions, leading to speaking engagements and even a film adaptation, “127 Hours,” that brought his tale to a global audience.

In losing a part of himself, Ralston found a deeper purpose and discovered that even with losing his arm, he still had everything he needed to get to the next level of his life.

Each of us has an untapped well of inner strength. More often than not, we possess the tools necessary to navigate life’s biggest challenges. Sometimes, the presence of a daunting obstacle reveals the actual depth of our ability. Next time you feel overwhelmed or insufficient, hold onto this truth: within you lies everything you need to overcome and succeed.

Bartlett narrowly gets by Southbridge in another Thanksgiving Day classic

BY NICK ETHIER
SPORTS EDITOR

WEBSTER — With the Bartlett and Southbridge varsity football teams having competed against one another on Thanksgiving Day over 100 times — this was the 103rd installment of the third longest rivalry in Central Mass. — anything can, and will, happen on the field.

“We talked a lot, ‘Don’t look at their record. Records don’t mean anything,’” said Dane Laboissonniere, head coach of the Indians, of the one-win Pioneers.

“Frank (Koumanelis, Southbridge’s former head coach) told me that crazy things happen on Thanksgiving,” added Nick Clark, Southbridge’s first-year head coach.

The Pioneers nearly pulled off the upset, but Bartlett — which finished 5-6 — scored the only points of the second half to rally for a 10-8 victory.

“We overcame a lot of self-inflicted mistakes today. We ended up costing ourselves a couple of scores, but the kids came out in the second half and found a way to win,” said Laboissonniere.

“Today, although we didn’t get the win, we proved that anything can happen on Thanksgiving,” added Clark. “We played to a caliber that I knew we could play all year, that we hadn’t gotten to all year until today.”

Points were at a premium throughout, and it was a safety — of all plays — for the Indians that staked them to a 2-0 first quarter lead. A poor pitch back on a sweep saw the ball fall in the end zone, resulting in the two points. But the Pioneers rallied later in the half as they grabbed an 8-2 half-time later. Southbridge’s Alexis Ramos scored the touchdown on a 9-yard run, and Steven Santos tacked on the two-point conversion rush.

The Bartlett football team poses with the trophy after defeating Southbridge on Thanksgiving Day, 10-8.

The Pioneers opened the second half with possession of the ball, but a turnover on downs gave it to Bartlett. The ensuing drive started on their own 13-yard line, but the Indians drove 87 yards to pay dirt, Joshua Ramirez eventually finding the end zone from 3 yards out in the final minute of the third quarter. Nay’Jean Holley then tacked on the all-important two-point conversion rush by extending the nose of the football over the goal line, and Bartlett led again, 10-8.

“Can you give me 3 yards?” Holley remembered Laboissonniere asking him before the two-point conversion. “And I said, ‘Of course, Coach, I can do it.’”

The Pioneers’ next drive was stalled, and the Indians gave Southbridge a big dose of Holley carrying the football as Bartlett held possession from 9:36 remaining until there was only 1:29 to go. Holley had many chunk runs that continued to move the chains, bleeding the clock in the process.

“We put the ball in our senior captain’s hands and said, ‘Go win us the game,’ and there were a couple long, less than ideal down and distances, and picking up runs on third-and-7 and third-and-8,” Laboissonniere said.

Southbridge had its final chance, though, starting at their own 25 yard-line. They grabbed a couple of first downs, but Bartlett’s Caiden Steeves eventually secured an interception — his second pick of the day — to all but seal the deal with 29 seconds to go.

“It was going to take a stop at the end to win the ballgame and Caiden coming up with two picks, he’s top five in Central Mass,” Laboissonniere said of Steeves, who finished the season with six INT’s. “He’s turning into a ballhawk back there. He’s really blossomed in his sophomore year as a receiver and a safety.”

For his rushing yards and game-winning two-point conversion, Holley won the Captain Vincent Sabatinelli Trophy for Game MVP.

“Nay’Jean wasn’t here as a freshman and as a sophomore I watched from afar when I was in my (one-year) retirement phase. He came out as a junior and we tried to find a home for him. By the end of the year, it was pretty clearly established that he was going to be our feature back,” said

Laboissonniere. “We fed him the rock today. The game was on the line, and we put the ball in his hands.”

“It feels great,” Holley said while clutching the trophy. “I put in a lot of work in the offseason. I’m in the gym every day. I set the tone for my team.”

Holley was perhaps happier with the team victory, though.

“It’s a big tradition in the entire town. It’s one of the biggest rivalries in the state. It means a lot to us especially because we haven’t won much in the last two years,” he explained. “We did everything we could to turn it around. I can go home happy, everyone can go home happy.”

Clark, meanwhile, who was the Pioneers’ JV coach and varsity assistant last year, was proud of the way his team battled, regardless of the outcome.

“I knew they had heart all year, but they played with another kind of intensity that I haven’t seen, I’ve got to be honest with you,” said Clark. “The rivalry, they know what it is, and we make a good point to let them know the tradition of the rivalry. That extra intensity definitely comes from this Thanksgiving game and the tradition of it.”

“I can’t say enough about these guys, especially these seniors, they really, really battled right until the last whistle, right until the last play,” added Clark.

Clark noted that although Koumanelis is no longer the head coach, he started this season as a consultant before being promoted to assistant to the head coach.

“All season, Frank has been such a great mentor. I have a question and call him, he answers immediately. He’s calling me and we’re game planning. I don’t know where we’d be at without Frank because he’s been a great presence with the team,” said Clark.

Joshua Ramirez of Bartlett scampers into the end zone for a touchdown.

Bartlett's Nay'Jean Holley fights for extra yards while carrying the football.

Caiden Steeves of Bartlett runs down the field after securing one of two interceptions versus Southbridge.

Bartlett's Eric Manilut takes the handoff from Nay'Jean Holley.

Auburn keeps Tarantino Cup as Rockets top Leicester, 18-7

Auburn's Zach Wetzel looks for room to run the ball against Leicester's defense.

LEICESTER — For the third straight year the Auburn varsity football team has defeated Leicester on Thanksgiving Day and, as a result, they have retained possession of the Tarantino Cup.

The now three-year-old rivalry — played in part because of fallen police officer Ronald Tarantino's ties to both communities — was played at the Becker Field, and the Rockets topped the Wolverines, 18-7. Auburn defeated Leicester in 2021, 34-31, and again in 2022, 28-7.

The Rockets finished their season with a record of 7-4, while the Wolverines wound up 3-8.

The Auburn football team did enough both offensively and defensively to turn back Leicester for the Tarantino Cup, 18-7.

Bay Path narrowly defeats Pirates in Battle for Buffums, evens series at 5-5

The Oxford Pirates make their way onto the field waving the flag before the Battle for Buffums.

On defense, Kellen Clarkson of Oxford sizes up Bay Path's ball carrier.

Oxford's Kellen Clarkson makes his way through the Bay Path players attempting to tackle him.

Bay Path's Aiden Fausek powers through the Oxford defensive line.

Connor Fantasia of Oxford breaks a tackle while heading up the field.

OXFORD — If you're a fan of offense and high numbers on the scoreboard, then this year's Battle for Buffums Thanksgiving Day football game between Bay Path and Oxford was a treat.

In the end it was the Minutemen who emerged victorious, 42-34, as they knotted up the battle in the 10th year of the rivalry, 5-5.

The scoring started on the first offensive play as the Pirates' Kellen Clarkson found Connor Fantasia on a 41-yard pass, and Alexander Perry booted the extra point to make it 7-0.

Bay Path's Brayden Downes countered with a 57-yard TD run, Kaiden Brochu tacked on the two-point rush, and the Minutemen led, 8-7. Downes then scored again, this time from 26 yards, and Brochu again got the two-point run, and it was 16-7 Bay Path.

Next it was Brochu's turn to find pay dirt, and he rushed one in from 18 yards as the Minutemen surged ahead, 22-7.

But Oxford tied the game at 22-22, the half-time score, when Fantasia caught two TD passes from Clarkson, and Perry made one PAT and Clarkson hit Andruw Martinez with a two-point pass.

The Pirates then grabbed a 34-22 lead when Clarkson had a pair of rushing scores — from 3 and 4 yards out — before Brochu trimmed the deficit down to 34-28 at the end of the third quarter thanks to a 40-yard scoring run.

Brochu then tied the game at 34-34 with a 34-yard rushing TD and then, with 5:36 to play, Bay Path won it when they blocked a punt at the 4-yard line. Bryan Pardee was there to catch the ball and scamper into the end zone, and Brochu added the two-point rush to account for the 42-34 final.

The Minutemen improved to 9-3 and then played Blackstone Valley Tech for the State Vocational Large School Championship, which was played after press time. The Pirates finished their season with a record of 5-6.

Late game interception secures Thanksgiving Day victory for Tantasqua over Rams

The Shepherd Hill offense begins a play as Tantasqua's defense attempts to rush in.

STURBRIDGE — The Shepherd Hill Rams and Tantasqua Warriors met for their 49th annual Thanksgiving Day game, this year played at The Reservation. The game proved to be a thrilling tale of two very different halves. Both teams came out determined to keep each other from the end zone as the game remained scoreless at halftime, but the scoreboard would see plenty of work in the second half with points on every possession except the final drive, which ended with a game-clinching interception for the Warriors, as they edged the Rams, 17-14. The second half provided a bit of everything from both teams as Shepherd Hill took the lead in the third quarter on the strength of a touchdown run by Aiden Tyler. The Rams would later secure the lead with a 75-yard kickoff return for a score by William Sirleaf. In between those scores Tantasqua kept things close with a touchdown of their own courtesy of a 33-yard connection between quarterback Adam Howe and receiver Noah Wotton. Shepherd Hill took their 14-7 advantage into the final quarter of the game, but that lead wouldn't last. Tantasqua took control in the fourth quarter thanks to scrappy play by Howe under center, who converted another touchdown — this time to Isaac Colon — to tie the game despite a strong showing by the Rams' defense. The Warriors then took their first lead of the day after successfully securing an onside kick complimented by a highlight scramble play later in the drive where Howe escaped a charging Rams defense to complete a first down pass. The effort eventually set up a 19-yard field goal by Luke Marvin to make the score 17-14 in favor of the Warriors. Shepherd Hill never backed down and threatened to take the lead in the closing seconds, attempting a desperation pass play into the end zone. However, Tantasqua's Jack Rapose made the game-clinching interception with 18 seconds left on the clock securing the Warriors their 10th win in the annual holiday matchup.

Warriors' head coach Nate Orzech complimented Rapose on his game-winning play, calling it redemption for a mistake made at the very beginning of the season.

"Week one against Marlborough he got beat on a play like that and I've been on him about it for the rest of the year, so it makes up for week one. We were talking to the safeties to be aware of toss passes and they didn't get beat. They did a good job and made a play," Orzech said.

After a scoreless first half, Orzech said the Warriors made all the right adjustments to counteract the Rams coming into the closing quarters. "(Shepherd Hill) did a great job taking away what we were trying to do. We said we had to run at them and beat them at their own game and be a little bit more downhill," said Orzech. "That set up Adam (Howe) obviously making some tremendous plays in the second half. He was excellent in the second half and made a lot of big plays for us and those receivers coming down with those passes was pretty great, too."

Shepherd Hill head coach Steve Ide said the loss was tough, but he felt it was a hard-fought battle between two very capable football teams. "These were two good teams playing really hard football. The onside kick was obviously a huge play. The scramble play by the Tantasqua quarterback, he did an outstanding job because we had him a couple times and he still managed to get the ball loose and they caught it," Ide said. "That's the difference in the game. One big special team play by us, one by them. Good defense played by them, good defense played by us. They have an elite kicker, and he made a great kick."

Ide said he had no regrets going for it on the final play, although he wished the result was different for his team.

"We were out of timeouts, so it's tough for us because obviously we're a run first operation. We can throw the ball effectively, but we're run first, so in that situation and you're on the clock you need to take a couple of chances. We put the ball in the hands of two of our best players and it looked like they got tangled up, Tantasqua caught it and those are the plays you've got to make if you want to win the game," said Ide.

Howe was named Offensive MVP while Shepherd Hill's Joshua Harrison earned Defensive MVP honors. The win now puts the Warriors — who finished the season at 5-6 — in double digits for the Thanksgiving matchup with the record at 39-10 in favor of the Rams — who also wound up 5-6 — as the game approaches its 50th anniversary next year.
