Saint Joseph School celebrates traditions new and old during Lent

 $\begin{tabular}{ll} WEBSTER -- According to the Web site buildfaith.\\ org, the word "Lent" comes from the "Anglo-Saxon" \\ \end{tabular}$ word lencton - meaning "spring" or "lengthening" from the time of year when the days grow long. Some believe "Lent" may derive from the Latin lentare, which means "to bend." This understanding reinforces Lent as a time of preparation for personal and collective transformation.

Saint Joseph School students have nurtured themselves through Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany. Now, Lent becomes the time to reinforce the need to look truthfully at ourselves and consider making changes. Therefore, following Ash Wednesday Mass, our students gathered in the school to begin a new tradition: Burying the Alleluia.

Ms. Kelly Bailey's fifth grade students led the ceremony. They began by explaining that during the contemplative season of Lent, we do not speak or sing

BY BRO. JIMMY FALZONE SOUTHBRIDGE

SOUTHBRIDGE — On Monday, Feb. 22, the parking lots at Quinebuag Southbridge were packed with Master Masons from seven lodges from the 24th Masonic District and visitors from throughout the state. The brethren were here for the monthly Lodge of Instructions the Quinebuag Masonic Lodge. One of the main reasons this particular L.O.I. class was important to Quinebuag was to honor a brother who just passed away due to a long Brother Mike Sgariglia creator of the 24th Masonic District Traveling Chainmail Armor Apron who will be deeply missed by his Masonic Family.

This brother was creator of the 24th Masonic District Chainmail Traveling Attendance Apron. Every month a different lodge hosts our L.O.I. classes in the 24th Masonic District and the Lodge with the most members in attendance takes home the Traveling Chainmail Apron as bragging rights. This enclosed beautiful Chainmail Armor Apron was created by our very own Brother Mike Sgariglia of the Quinebuag Masonic Lodge. The Chainmail apron has a lot of sentimental value to the brethren of our Lodge.

Here is a little history about this Traveling Chainmail Armor Attendance Apron. The beautiful heavy chain link apron was made by Brother Michael Sgariglia Quinebaug Masonic Lodge with the permission of Brother Robert Schremser, who was the 24th Masonic District Deputy Grand Master (DDGM) back in 2010. Brother Mike Sgariglia was making chainmail armor as a hobby before he became a Master Mason and was inspired to make this. He got the idea when he was at another Lodge of Instruction class and saw that lodge's gave out a prize for attendance and thought of some-thing personal for the 24th Masonic District. Brother Sgariglia made this chainmail armor apron with a pair of pliers in each hand. It took about 30 hours and 3,500 rings to make the chainmail armor apron. It consists of silver and blue stainless-steel rings. The apron weighs approximately five pounds, presented in a beautiful wooden frame case.

A call went out to the members of the Quinebaug Masonic Lodge for the brethren to attend this L.O.I. class in numbers. We had so many members in attendance that we beat our rival lodge The Rose of Sharon Lodge located at the Overlook senior living facility. They came out on a minibus full of brethren and the Quinebuag Masonic Lodge members still beat their attendance, all in honor of our fallen Brother Mike Sgariglia. This is why the apron means so much to the Quinebuag Masonic Lodge. If you would like more information about this great fraternity of freemasonry visit our Web site, www.massfreemasonry.org, and read about this great organization and to find a lodge

Joziah Age 15

Hi! My name is Joziah and I want to be a mechanic!

Joziah is a kind, sensitive and loyal friend. He is athletic and enjoys being physically active. Joziah is described as a "sports kid." He likes to play basketball and other sports with his friends. Joziah has participated in various community sports leagues and wants to continue to have this kind of community involvement.

Joziah is outgoing and likes to engage with staff and peers at school. Joziah also enjoys spending time with his friends outside of school.

Joziah will benefit from a family of any constellation. He should be either the youngest child or the only child in the home. Joziah can take his time forming strong, trusting relationships, so a family should be patient and supportive during the transition. The right family for Joziah will be supportive of his relationship with his sister and two brothers.

Can I Adopt?

If you're at least 18 years old, have a stable source of income, and room in your heart, you may be a perfect match to adopt a waiting child. Adoptive parents can be single, married, or partnered; experienced or not; renters or homeowners; LGBTQ+ singles and couples. As an adoptive parent, you won't have to pay any fees, adoption from foster care is completely free in Massachusetts.

The process to adopt a child from foster care includes training, interviews, and home visits to determine if adoption is right for you. These steps will help match you with a child or sibling group that your family will fit well with.

To learn more about adoption from foster care visit www.mareinc.org . Massachusetts Adoption Resource Exchange (MARE) can give you guidance and information on the adoption process. Reach out today to find out all the ways you can help children and teens in foster care.

Second mock code scenario held at Bay Path

CHARLTON -The Practical Nursing Class of 2024 Mock Code Team (MCT), under the guidance and leadership of Professors Cheryl Cahill, Jennifer DeFilippo, Angela McGrath, and Rianna Romano, prepared and executed the Term 2 Mock Code Scenario.

Bay Path Practical Nursing Academy's MCT and Simulation Training improves response to code events. During cardiac arrests, the quick response of a code team requires cohesiveness, timely defibrillation, and clearly defined roles. It is important for members of the healthcare team to intuitively know their role as part of the response team especially during code situations when seconds count.

steps in response to a code situation. Other members of the MCT include Victoria Boateng, Melissa Nale, Richard Nsiah, Samantha Stanikmas, and Cynthia Zaya Torres.

"It was a great night. The Mock Code Team was amazing and everyone really did a fantastic job!" shared Professor DeFilippo.

"We firmly believe in using simulation training to improve performance," said Gretheline demonstrating initial Bolandrina, DHA, MSN Ed, RN, CRRN Academy Director.

"We are blessed to have the continued guidance, experience, and expertise of Professors Cahill, DeFilippo, and Romano. We welcome Professor McGrath's assistance this year!" Bolandrina added.

The timely use of defibrillation empowered, confident nurses result in a positive response to code events. According to the American Heart Association's Get With The Guidelines (GWTG) resuscitation program, time to first shock is one of four achievement metrics. The guidelines state that hospitalized patients exhibiting ventricular fibrillation or pulseless ventricular tachycardia should receive defibrillation within two minutes to improve outcomes.

In 2017, the Bay ath Practical Path Nursing Academy MCT was formed to improve resuscitation skills and comfort levels for practical ing students. The MCT meets for a full day of preparation, with members practicing as much as possible. On Mock Code Day, the MCT runs the code scenarios multiple times. The formation of the MCT increased mock code opportunities and participation three times in an academic year. Participation in mock codes increases comfort level of practical nursing students. An effective code team is one that acts safely, and efficiently, and saves lives. The MCT aims to be proficient with skills and knowledge, effective with communication, and highly organized.

Alice A. Moninski, 88

DUDLEY Alice A. (Forand) Moninski, died Monday, February 19, 2024 in the presence of her family.

She leaves 4 sons, David A. J. Moninski of MA, USAF Lieutenant Colonel (Retired) Anthony D. Moninski and his wife Iliana of TX, Ronald A. J. Moninski with whom she lived, and Paul A. J. Moninski and his partner Brenda Souza of CT; 4 grandchildren, Isabella, Benjamin and twins Nicolas and Natalie: a godchild, Kathi Lauzon; several nieces and nephews including Debbie, Cindy and Ronnie Bembenek; and good friends Rose Smoolca and Anne Bembenek. She was preceded in death by her brother Francis Niemiec.

She was born on December 21, 1935 in Webster, the daughter of Omer and Helen (Bembenek) Forand and graduated from Bartlett High School in 1953. She had lived in Dudley since 1949.

Mrs. Moninski was a lens inspector at Gentex Corp. for 10 years. She then worked at the Polini Bakery in Worcester for 10 years. She retired at age 79 as an order selector at Staples in Putnam, CT after 15 years of service. She was a member of Saint Anthony of Padua Church and previously of Saint Andrew Bobola Church, where she belonged to the former Holy Rosary Sodality and was a certified CCD teacher. She was in charge of the church's first parish festival in the 1970's and volunteered for many years at parish events. She could be seen sitting in the first pew at the weekend Saturday 4:00 PM Mass.

Alice enjoyed landscaping and gardening, taking care of her flowers, and sewing and baking. She kept close to her children and especially enjoyed entertaining her grandchildren. She devoted her life to her family.

Her funeral will be held on Saturday, March 2, from the Sitkowski, Malboeuf & Hickey Funeral Home, 340 School Street, Webster, with a Mass at 11:00 AM in Saint Anthony of Padua Church, 24 Dudley Hill Road. Burial will be held privately. Visitation will be from 9:00 to 10:30 AM Saturday in the funeral home, prior to the Mass.

How about this weather?

"How about this weather?"

If ever there was an easy, non-challenging conversation opener, this is it. You can be in line at the grocery store, you are - this line never fails.

Everyone seems willing to talk about the weather. It's a built-in, slam-dunk, easy topic that allows complete strangers to either commiserate or celebrate, depending on the daily meteorological

So, what is it with the weather? Why re-hash it?

Weather is complicated, frustrating and ultimately uncertain. Weather breaks our hearts and lifts our moods and forces daily choices for everyone. Weather drives our decisions, affects our attitudes and makes fellow survivors out of strangers.

Weather is our most true common circumstances - student, professional, retiree - when you live in the same community members have the weather in common.

sports teams or vacations or the date on of calling forth the woman's hidden virthe calendar. It is an equal opportunity annoyer and a great equalizer - everyone has to drive in snow, or dash to the inside this foreign woman. He saw her car in the rain, or stand in long lines at the fair in the hot sun. Almost everyone has had a picnic cancelled, a vacation the woman. Instead, they were a set-up spoiled or a ball game rained out.

But weather is also the unexpectedly warm, sunny, sweet-smelling spring morning that causes smiles and banter with co-workers. It's the light snow flurries that add sparkle to early December shoppers. It's the crisp, snappy feel of fall football games and the slow, sultry, every day of our lives.

So, what is it with the weather? Maybe we love the topic because it's universal. Maybe we love the excitement of something that will change – either for the good or the bad. Maybe it's that it is temporary and fleeting and some-thing to either be withstood or enjoyed, knowing that it will not last. Maybe it's simply deep within ourselves and respond with because weather is always with us... whether we like it or not.

ORTHODOX

CHURCH,

Webster

A desperate woman approaches Jesus to help her daughter and, at first, "the Lord does not answer her a word."

This foreign woman continues to beg Christ, crying out a second time, but Jesus coldly responds, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Finally, she kneels down before Christ and humbly asks him a third time, "Lord help me," only to hear Jesus say, "It is not fair to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs.'

What seemingly harsh words and responses Jesus gives this desperate mother. The woman only wants to help her demon-possessed daughter but she runs into what seems to be an obstinate and heartless Jesus.

Yet, is Jesus so heartless and cold? Let's reflect in a deeper way at what happened in this story. Why does our Lord respond to this woman in this serving jury duty or pushing papers manner? And maybe, can we apply this around at work - it doesn't matter where story to our own experiences and ask, 'Why is it that sometimes in our own lives, it seems that God is not listening to our pleas and cries; it seems that He turns His back to us?

We know clearly from the Bible and the Holy Tradition of our Church that God loves all people unconditionally. We are His children, and He desires more than anything for our salvation, for us to be united with Him. We hear in Holy do we love to discuss, comment and Scripture Jesus said, "Come to me all you who are burdened and heavy laden and I will give you rest." We hear Christ say, "I will never turn away anyone who comes to me." We listen to the many stories about Jesus, the Good Shepherd, searching for the one lost sheep, and even sacrificing Himself on the Cross to take upon Himself the sins of our fallen and evil world. He died for the salvation of all, including those who are lost.

How can Jesus make all these beautidenominator. No matter what our life ful promises and then speak so harshly to this desperate woman?

Well, Saint John Chrysostom offers geographic area, you and your fellow an answer. He notes that "Christ's words "It is not fair to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs" - were not spoken as an insult. Instead, He Weather doesn't care about politics or spoke these words for the exact purpose reveals to all present the great tue and treasure of faith that she possessed."

In other words, Jesus knew what was heart and wanted to bring out the beauty she had hidden within. His seemingly harsh words were not meant to demean to show everyone the great faith this non-Jewish woman possessed.

For after Jesus speaks to her, she responds exactly as He expected. To Christ's words, "It is not fair to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs," she responds with extreme humility and faith, "Yes, Lord, but even the and prompts holiday greetings between dogs eat what falls from the children's table." She doesn't get offended. She doesn't get angry. She doesn't despair at Jesus' harsh response. Instead, her humidity of summer evenings spent humility and faith bring out the greaton backyard patios. It's the backdrop of ness of her hidden virtue. Thus, Jesus praises her, "O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire."

> We learn from this beautiful story that even when it seems like God is not listening to our prayers, or doing what we want Him to do according to our own desires, there may be a deeper reason. Maybe Christ is testing us and challenging our superficial understanding of life and faith. Maybe He wants us to dig perseverance, with humility, and with deep trust like the Canaanite Woman.

This surely isn't easy. To persevere in the face of a desperate situation and never despair even as our situation deteriorates isn't easy.

To respond with humility, knowing that we are unworthy to demand anything before God, and yet simultaneously to understand that God welcomes our entreaties and unconditionally loves us in the midst of whatever struggles we face isn't easy.

And then to act with deep faith, a faith that continues to believe even when we don't see an end to our problems, and to continue hoping even when things seem absolutely hopeless, trusting in God even when we don't understand what is happening around us, surely isn't easy! Yet, we need to remember that God is ultimately in control and will see us through whatever we face according to His timing and according to His Divine Saint Paul offers a memorable teaching when he writes, "we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose." This verse reminds us that God desires our good and will see things through for our good as we persevere with humility and deep faith.

Remember, Holy Scripture teaches us that "the Lord disciplines everyone He loves and chastises everyone He accepts as His children." Here is a helpful paraphrase from the Messenger Bible: My dear child, don't shrug off God's discipline, but don't be crushed by it either. It's the child he loves that he disciplines; the child he embraces, he also corrects. God is educating you; that's why you must never despair. He's treating you as dear children. This challenge you face isn't punishment; it's training, the normal experience of children. Only irresponsible parents leave children to fend for themselves. Would you prefer an irresponsible God? We respect our own parents for training and not spoiling us, so why not embrace God's training so we can truly live? While we were children, narents did what seemed best them. But God is doing what is best for us, training us to live God's holy best. In the moment, discipline isn't much fun. It always feels like it's going against the grain. Later, of course, it pays off big-time, for it's the well-trained person who find themselves mature in their relationship with God.'

When it seems that God is not hearing our prayers; when it appears that God's answer to us is harsh or cold, be careful not to misunderstand and fall away. Don't give in to despair, thinking God doesn't care or He isn't nearby. No!

Like the foreign Woman, approach our Lord Jesus boldly, with confidence and hope, and yet draw near to God with perseverance, with humility, and with deep faith that in the end "all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose."

When we hear Jesus say, "It is not fair to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs" don't take offense or be hurt, simply respond, "Yes, Lord, but even the dogs eat what falls from the children's

Stocking Wallum Lake

This week's picture shows this writer's two dogs Molly the beagle and Twig the yellow Lab. Molly is 13, and Twig is 14 years old. Plenty of exercise and a good brand of dog food has kept them in good physical shape! Twig was still hunting this past fall and my hopes are high for another pheasant season.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS RALPH TRUE

Ice fishing on local ponds is about over, as this week's warm weather pretty much made most ponds unsafe to navigate! A reminder that all fishing on Wallum Lake in Douglas is now closed, as the lake falls under Rhode Island regulations. Wallum will reopen on the second Saturday, April 13 this year!

Hopefully, Massachusetts and Rhode Island will both stock the lake with trout prior to April 13. Wallum Lake provides the only opening day for trout fishermen in Mass., and is one of the most popular fishing spots in the state for trout anglers.

Wallum Lake has provided anglers with some great fishing over the years, and can be fished by fishermen that have a license in Mass. or Rhode Island. Wallum Lake is an interstate body of water that provides some great trout fishing, but also provides some great smallmouth and largemouth bass fishing!

Back many years ago, the popular fishing hole has provided some great memories for many families that enjoy trout fishing. Wallum Lake received some broodstock salmon, which added to the excitement of catching trout during the springtime fishing season.

Wallum Lake went through numerous changes over the years, some for the better and some not so good. Wallum Lake was poisoned by the state many years ago, and was part of the state's reclamation of numerous ponds in the

They were hoping to make Wallum Lake a trout and salmon fishery, but soon realized it was not possible. Acid rain was one of the major problems with the lake.

Mass. & Rhode Island tried to make Wallum Lake a trophy brown trout pond, and it was working well for a number of years. Both states worked to get a smelt population going at Wallum as a good food source for the brown trout. Catching four & five Brown trout was a blast at Wallum for a number of years, but the hopes of establishing a good population of smelt at the lake as a forage fish was not working because of acid rain. Their last effort to provide Wallum with a good population of smelt was dropped, and shoal spawning smelt were introduced into the lake. It was a big success, and their populations are still there. This writer worked with MFW to secure a company called Living Lakes to spread tons of lime into the lake to reverse the acid rain problem, and it worked but the state gave up on the trophy brown trout idea, just when the problem was solved.

Now Mass. is only interested in stocking trout, with no program to have local lakes produce large holdover trout. More on Wallum Lake in the coming weeks!

Dudley Democratic Town Committee plans Super Tuesday standout March 5 — Let's get out and vote!

To the Editor:

Super Tuesday, traditionally one of the most important dates on the U.S. political calendar, is fast approaching and the DDTC is planning a standout to get out the vote.

The Super Tuesday standout will take place across the street from the Dudley Municipal Complex. We'll be there all day with coffee and snacks. Let us know when you can join us at dudleydemsma@gmail.com or just show up. Please do join us and show your inner donkey, one that can rear up and loudly declare to the voting public our support of all Democratic candidates!

Turnout for elections in Dudley is typically disappointing, with the exception, that is, of ballot issues that affect our wallets. The override ballot question this past year brought out about 31 percent of the electorate. As Democrats and Independents know, the 2024 Primary Election is essential for all of us to participate in.

Let's take advantage of our awesome power to create change - let's stand out for democracy. Let's vote blue!

Classic Lenten Recipes

Looking for tasty meatless meals for Lent or dietary reasons? Midcentury recipe files were full of handwritten recipes to help harried housewives come up with interesting dinners – sans the meat! Read on for some authentic boomer recipes that are not only nostalgic – but delicious!

And readers, send in your favorite meatless recipes for a chance to win a three course Dinner for Two at the Publick House in Sturbridge!

Salmon Croquettes

Salmon croquettes, a staple Lenten dish from days gone by, are still a flavorful meatchoice today:

Ingredients (for patties): one cup mashed potatoes; one 6½-ounce can salmon, drained; one egg, beaten; one tbsp. minced onion; 1/4 teaspoon salt; dash black pepper, dash cayenne pepper; 1/4-1/2 cup dry unseasoned bread crumbs;

Ingredients (for dredging): 1 egg slightly beaten; 1/2 cup seasoned bread crumbs

In a bowl, mix the first seven ingredients, adding enough bread crumbs so that the mixture can be handled and is not too sticky. Form patties.

Dip patties into the slightly beaten egg and coat in seasoned bread crumbs. Refrigerate in a single layer for about an hour.

Deep fry until golden brown, (or cook in air fryer until browned). Serve with tartar sauce

Classic tartar Sauce recipe:

Mix together: one cup mayonnaise; one tablespoon sweet pickle relish; one teaspoon yellow mustard: one teaspoon lemon juice.

Crab Cakes

This quick and easy recipe is a throwback from the 1960s that utilizes the convenience of canned fish and Ritz crackers!

Ingredients: 16 ounce crabmeat, canned drained; two tablespoons olive oil; six chopped green oions; 8 ounces Ritz crackers (about 2.5 sleeves); one large egg; one tablespoon mayonnaise; on teaspoon dry mustard; one teaspoon garlic powder; ½ teaspoon cayenne pepper; ¼ teaspoon Old Bay seasoning; one cup bread crumbs (panko or non-seasoned); olive oil.

Directions: Cook green onions in olive oil until soft, In a bowl mix together the onions; crabmeat;, crushed crackers, egg, mayonnaise, dry mustard, garlic powder, cayenne pepper, garlic powder, Old Bay seasoning, salt, and pepper. Form into patties and coat with bread crumbs. Fry until golden brown on each side; drain on paper towel. Or cook in air fryer until browned and crisp.

Shrimp Casserole

Casseroles were common fare for mid-century dinners, and Lent was no exception. This seafood recipe calls for a long, oval casserole dish (yes, they had different shaped dishes for specialty casseroles!) but you can use a flat glass baking dish.

Ingredients: 2 ½ lbs. shrimp, deveined, peeled and cooked;1 cup cooked rice; one cup sharp cheddar cheese; one can condensed cream of mushroom soup; ½ cup green onions, chopped; cup celery, chopped; one stick of butter; 8 lemons, sliced very thin

Directions: Mix together the shrimp; rice, cheese and soup. Meanwhile. saute onions and celery in the butter until softened. Add to shrimp mixture, and pour into a long, flat casserole dish. Overlap lemon slices over the top. Cover and cook in a 375 degree oven for 20-30 minutes.

Broccoli and Macaroni This was one of my favorite Lenten meals growing up! Easy and delicious, it offers a change from fish on Fridays.

Ingredients: 6 cups broccoli florets; Olive oil (as desired); eight garlic cloves, chopped; one tablespoon salt; one box

KAREN TRAINOR

Ziti macaroni, cooked; ½ cup Romano cheese, grated; two tablespoons Italian flat leaf parsley, chopped.

Directions: Heat about a half cup of olive oil over medium heat, add broccoli and salt to the pan, adding more oil as needed for broccoli to be browned and as soft as you like it. Once done, add garlic and cook for another minute or two; be sure not to burn garlic. Add cooked macaroni to the pot and mix with Romano cheese; garnish with parsley.

Never tell them they're wrong

Enemies. We all have them. Some people are your enemy, and you don't even know it. They may have been motivated by jealousy or envy, or maybe they misinterpreted something you said to them once and felt slighted. Since then, they've been quietly undermining you at worst, and at best, they may just be waiting for their moment.

There are a million ways to make an enemy. Maybe you accidentally took someone's favorite pen, and they've sworn a vendetta. Or perhaps you got the last slice of pizza at a party, not knowing it was earmarked for someone else, sparking a silent, saucy rivalry. Let's not forget the classic "reply all" email faux pas, where you accidentally shared your not-so-flattering opinion on the monthly birthday cake choices with the entire office. Positively And I'm sure there SPEAKING are some listed elsewhere.

TOBY MOORE

Nobody wants an enemy, do they? I don't. Some say that if you don't have any enemies, then you're not doing it right.

Winston Churchill said, "If you don't have any enemies in life, then you haven't stood up for anything."

He's probably talking about a different type of enemy than what I'm about to present.

While leafing through one of the most popular self-help books ever written, "How to Win Friends and Influence People," I came across one surefire way to not make an team meeting discussing the direction of the upcoming project. You believe that focusing on digital marketing will vield the best return on investment, arguing, "Considering our target demographic spends most of their time online, it's evident that digital marketing is where we should be allocating the majority of our budget."

Your coworker, however, believes traditional marketing methods like print and television ads will have a broader reach, countering, "Our brand's strength has always been its appeal to a wide audience, and traditional media gives us that visibility."

Your ego flares up at this moment, tempted to dismiss their perspective outright. You might feel inclined to assert, until we see the results from focusing solely on traditional methods and missing out on the digital audience. Then we'll see who's right."

Often, our ego comes up, and the ego always wants to be correct. This temptation to prove your point without fully considering their viewpoint can quickly turn a professional disagreement into a personal conflict.

Now, you may be right. Your reasoning may be sound. But you must also consider that other people almost always want to be correct. Whether you know it or not, you insulted their intelligence, and now they're your enemy.

Enemy is a strong word, but whatever the case, they almost certainly see this as a challenge. wouldn't they? You Imagine you're in a ed and inefficient. Wait ing the big picture. Now involved. But the moment they have something to prove.

Now, you've got a situation on your hands because you were right and made them feel silly about it, and they're now going to want their chance to make you seem foolish.

What's a way to avoid this? Well. It's straightforward. You can begin by saying, "Well, now. look, I thought otherwise, but I may be wrong. I frequently am, and if I'm wrong, I want to put it right. Let's examine the facts.'

Nobody will object to you admitting that you could be wrong, and let's examine the facts!

It's a curious thing about us humans: we can change our minds in a heartbeat over the small-"That approach is outdat- told them they're not see- est things, no drama someone tells us we're wrong? That's when the walls go up, and we stand our ground harder than Telling someone they're wrong is a deadend strategy, especially in a way that might make them feel less than brilliant. You could throw every fact and figure their way, and more often than not, they'll stick to their guns, convinced of their rightness, even if it's just in the privacy of their thoughts.

So, how do we navigate this tricky terrain? Dale Carnegie hit the nail when he said, "Show respect for the other person's opinions. Never say, 'You're wrong.'" It's as simple as that.

Gear up for the 2024 garden season

It's never too early to prepare for the garden season ahead. Having the right tool for the job saves time, reduces the frustration of trying to make the wrong tool work, and allows you to garden longer with less muscle fatigue.

Take an inventory of all your tools. Be sure to check the shed, garage, or tool caddy. Make a list of those that need to be replaced or need an update. This is also a good time to clean and sharpen those tools you plan to use in the coming growing season.

As you update your tools, you may want to purchase a few hand tools with comfortable wooden handles and carbon steel heads. The wood adds a natural aesthetic that goes hand in hand with gardening.

Make sure you have the right shovels for those frequent digging tasks. Perhaps it is time to invest in a long-handled shovel with a narrow head that allows you to dig in small spaces. Corona's DigMaster Nursery Shovel has a hardened steel blade and a handle for durability and long life. The ComfortGel grip allows you to keep working lon-

Like digging with the right-sized shovel, deadheading flowers with the right tool makes it easier and you're more likely to get the job done. For those with a lot of deadheading, select one with an ergonomic design, a finger loop for better control, and an easy-release lock like Corona's Ergo Dead Header Snips.

Late winter and early spring are also the time to do a bit of trimming and pruning on indoor plants. Pruners and snips with specially shaped blades, like the Corona BP14623 Houseplant Pruner, make trimming individual leaves and stems easier, ensuring you make the cut where planned.

A scoop comes in handy when placing potting mix or fertilizer in containers. The more you use it, the more uses you will discover for scoops like Corona's Multi-Scoop with a stainless-steel scoop and ComfortGel grip.

If you struggle to haul soil, mulch, and plants to the garden bed, it may be time to invest in a garden cart. Wheelbarrows are a traditional favorite but how about a fourwheeled cart with pneumatic tires to make moving the load over rough ground easier? Consider one with sides that fold down for easier loading and unloading. Or perhaps one with a dumping mechanism, like Corona's CR1000 Poly Dump Cart, that makes it easy to empty loads of mulch and soil where it is needed.

And don't forget about the young gardeners in your life. Having their own set of properly sized hand tools, long-handled tools, and of course, a wheelbarrow will make working with you in the cial. Kids, like adults, benefit from spending time in the garden. Give them their own garden patch or row to dig, plant, and tend. You'll all have more fun.

When upgrading your garden tools, consider donating those that are still in good working order to a nearby community garden, school garden, or master gardener group. They can always use extra tools to help them grow gardeners of all ages. And those that have reached the end of life can be turned into garden art. It's a great way to save memories of gardens' past.

News from SHINE Medicare Counseling Program: March 2024. Question: What if I missed the Medicare Open Enrollment Period in the fall? Can I still make a change to my coverage for 2024? People who are currently enrolled in a Medicare Advantage plan have until March 31st to make changes to their plan during the Medicare Advantage Open Enrollment Period (MA OEP). The MA OEP occurs each year from January 1st to March 31st and is available to people who are enrolled in a Medicare Advantage plan. You are allowed to make one change during this period, and it takes effect the first day of the month after you enroll. For example, if you submit an enrollment request in March, your new coverage begins April 1st. People who have Extra Help to pay for their Part D prescription coverage are allowed to make a change to their coverage during the 1st, 2nd, or 3rd quarters of the year. If you have Extra Help and you are unsure if you have the best coverage to meet your needs, please make an appointment to speak with a SHINE counselor! SHINE (Serving the Health Insurance Needs of Everyone) has certified counselors available to assist you with questions about Medicare. Our services are free and unbiased: we are available to discuss all options related to Medicare and additional coverage, and we do not sell any plans. SHINE is federally funded and administered through the State. To make an appointment, call your local senior center or call the Central Mass Regional SHINE Office at 508-422-9931.

Need help with your MassHealth application? Tri-Valley has Certified Application Counselors available to assist you. ## Bay Path LPN receives double national certification

Marie Flint

CHARLTON — Marie Flint, LPN, CPB, CPC began her nursing journey as a little girl.

She stated, "As far as I can remember, I had always wanted to be a nurse. I remember caring for one of my older brothers when he got a skinned knee. I cleansed the wound and put a band-aid on it."

Flint graduated with the Practical Nursing class of 2015 at Bay Path Practical Nursing Academy. Working among a variety of demanding healthcare settings such as St. Mary's Nursing Center, Inc. as a charge nurse, Advanced Asthma, Allergy, and Sinus Center as a staff nurse, and Lanessa Extended Care as a charge nurse led Flint to strive for certification.

Flint's previous jobs is as varied as her expertise, which now includes national certification through the American Academy of Professional Coders (AAPC) as a Certified Professional Biller (CPB) and a Certified Professional Coder (CPC).

Flint embarked on her certifications and shared. "Find a nationally accredited school such as AAPC, who I went through, as many employers look for employees with AAPC credentials. Tuition for two online courses is close to $10,000. If you're not in a hurry, look for the AAPC promotional programs. I waited and it cut my tuition cost in half. Aside from the tuition, there are further costs. In order to keep my CPC and CPB credentials, I need to keep my membership through AAPC which cost me over $200 every year. Plus, I need to earn 40 continuing education credits (CEUs) every two years (20 CEUs per certificate earned) that are approved by AAPC."

Flint was a patient account representative at the Overlook Care at Home prior to becoming an LPN, and was also a graduate of the Salter School under the Medical Secretarial Program.

She adds, "Don't fall into the trap of paying for the CEUs. That can be costly. There are ways of earning free ones. Search the internet for AAPC approved free CEUs. The courses are online and self-paced. They both took me all of 10 months to finish and sit for both exams which I was able to take at my own home." She finds the variety of experience and caring fascinating.

"After high school, I was worked part-time and took pre-requisite classes for RN but then I got pregnant and married and thought that was the end of pursuing my nursing career. . .fast forward 30 years, I applied and was accepted into Bay Path's Practical Nursing academy. I worked full-time and took the full-time 10-month accelerated nursing course. It was exhausting, but I pushed through. The faculty were extremely accomplished at teaching me everything I needed to know to sit for and pass the NCLEX-PN (National Council Licensure Examination- Practical Nursing) to become an LPN (Licensed Practical Nurse. It wasn't easy, I met some wonderful people and made life-long friends. It was so worth it as I felt like, at 50 years old, I had finally reached my goal to become a nurse!"

The certification as CPB and CPC are one of many national certifications LPNs can apply and test for if qualifications are met.

AAPC is the world's largest training and credentialing organization for the business of healthcare, with members worldwide working in medical coding, billing, auditing, compliance, clinical documentation improvement, revenue cycle management, and practice management. Through AAPC's career training, continuing education, and networking events, countless opportunities are provided for industry professionals to enhance their learning and advance their careers (www.aapc.com).

"Marie has been an eager lifelong learner, a nurse leader," said Gretheline Bolandrina, DHA, MSN Ed, RN, CRRN Academy Director Bay Path Practical Nursing Academy. thank her for her engagement as an alumna and her dedication to providing the Bay Path community information and inspiration. She worked hard for and received the honor of national certifications as CPB and CPC, and we are proud of her accomplishments."

Certifications are recognized as an indicator of expertise and leadership, and represents a broad knowledge of the discipline and its application to promote health and safety, according to the national board. Further, the credentials are associated with a level of practice that meets high standards.

Flint loves nursing and learning more. She has accepted the challenge of where her nursing career is taking her.

She said, "I am now actively looking remote employment. There are many jobs out there. I will keep pushing on looking. My newest motto, if it's meant to be, it will be."

For the current Bay Path Practical nursing students and graduates she shares the words, "chase your dreams, take

DA's office receives $100,000 to fight gang-related crime, support at-risk youth intervention.

W O R C E S T E R

— Worcester County
District Attorney Joseph
D. Early, Jr. announced today that his office received a $100,000 state grant from the Executive Office of Public Safety and Security (EOPSS) to fight gang-related crime, with a portion of the funds going directly into the community to support programming at the Boys & Girls Club of Worcester

"The key mission of our office is to prevent crime," said Mr. Early. "Gangs are one of the main drivers of violence and drugs in our communities. We want to support our at-risk youth, preventing their introduction to gang life and the inevitability of ending up in the criminal justice system. By supporting these kids, we can prevent crime, keep the numbers down in the jails, and guide our youth to brighter, happier futures."

The grant funding was awarded to the Worcester County District Attorney's Office through the EOPSS' Project Safe Neighborhood Program to support the prosecution of gang crimes. This is the third time the state has awarded funds to this office to support gang

As part of the grant, a portion of the funds are designated to support prevention and intervention programming through a community organization. The office began partnering with the Boys & Girls Club with these grant funds last year. "The Boys & Girls Club is doing such amazing work on prevention and intervention in the community, they are a great partner for this grant," Early said.

The Boys & Girls Club offered programming to 250 kids in 2023 thanks to this funding. The funding supported 122 boys participat-

The funding supported 122 boys participating in a program called Passport to Manhood and 128 girls participating in a program called S.M.A.R.T Girls.

"This grant supported our gender-specific programs that address violence prevention, the building of self-es-

"This grant supported our gender-specific programs that address violence prevention, the building of self-esteem and anti-bullying techniques," said Liz Hamilton, Executive Director of the Boys & Girls Club of Worcester. "The curriculum was facilitated by professional Club mentors, which allows our kids to be their authentic selves and discuss issues they may not feel comfortable sharing outside of our safe space. The post-evaluations indicated that kids who participated in this funded program were better prepared for the future and had the tools they need to make healthy and safe choices."

In the coming year, the Boys & Girls Club plans to offer drivers' education and job training courses with the funding.

The Healey-Driscoll Administration awarded $1.9 million state-wide through the Project Safe Neighborhood Program this year to District Attorney's Offices and State Police to address gun crimes, gang violence and narcotics offenses.

"This new grant program fosters the partnerships and supports the collaborative solutions that make a meaningful difference in our communities," said Gov. Maura Healey. "By investing in these efforts, we're empowering community partners to deliver vital services to at-risk youth while promoting safe, thriving communities across Massachusetts. We're grateful to the Legislature for their partnership in making this critical funding avail-

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Level: Advanced

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Lenten traditions explored

The Lenten season marks a period of 40 days when faithful Christians prepare for the glory of Easter Sunday. Easter commemorates the miracle of Jesus Christ's resurrection, which is foundational for the Lent is a season when Christians reflect and prepare to celebrate Easter. Lent is a period of spiritual purification that begins on Ash Wednesday and ends on Holy Thursday. Fasting, giving alms and prayer are some of the hallmarks of Lent.

Many Lenten traditions are well known, but others are not. Here's a glimpse at some of those traditions.

The first 'Lent'

Lent is based on the 40 days that Jesus spent in the desert in preparation for his public life. Matthew 4:1-11 shares that Christ was led into the desert by the Holy Spirit for a period of fasting and prayer, where He constantly encountered the devil and his temptations. Lent also mirrors the period of time (40 days) that the Israelites spent in their journey from slavery in Egypt to the promised land of Israel.

Black fasts

While certain Lenten restrictions have lightened up a bit in recent years, it once was the norm to consume a single meal per day of bread, water and herbs after sunset on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, which was known as a black fast. During the other days of Lent, no food was allowed until 3 p.m., which Christians believe was the hour of Our Lord's death.

Piñatas for Lent?

The Lenten tradition of hitting a papier-mâché creation filled with candy originated in Italy. Eventually the idea was picked up by the Spanish and brought to Mexico, where the familiar piñatas now known to partygoers across the globe appeared. Professor Michael Foley, author of "Dining with the Saints," says the original piñata had seven cones to represent the seven deadly sins. Hitting the cones and defeating the sins revealed the heavenly reward in the form of candy.

Prayerful pretzels

In the early Middle Ages, when other foods were not allowed during Lent, pretzels became popular. The twisted shape of the pretzels was associated with arms entwined in prayer.

Hot cross buns

Hot cross buns are synonymous with Easter. Although they may predate Christianity and might have been a tradition adopted to make Christianity more relatable to the masses, one legend suggests they originated with a twelfth century Anglican monk. This monk reportedly baked the buns and marked them with crosses in honor of Good Friday. These yeasted sweet rolls have since become a popular treat on Easter weekend.

Lent precedes Easter each year and is full of time-honored traditions.

A meatless meal to enjoy during Lent

The forty days and nights of Lent are a time for reflection and anticipation of Easter's arrival. Fasting, which for many Christians includes skipping meat and animal products each Friday, also is part of the preparation. Individuals who are unaccustomed to going meat-free may need to expand their culinary repertoire to ensure Friday meals continue to be fill-

This recipe for "Herby Rice and Black Bean Salsa Burrito Bowl" from Niki Webster's "Rainbow Bowls" (Sourcebooks) is full of protein-rich beans, flavorful herbed rice and satisfying avocado. It can be enjoyed as a quick and easy, meatless lunch or dinner.

HERBY RICE AND BLACK BEAN SALSA BURRITO BOWL

Serves 2

Splash of olive oil grams sugar snap peas

avocado, flesh sliced tablespoons extra virgin olive oil grams cooked basmati rice 250

Juice of 1/2 lime teaspoon maple syrup grams fresh herbs, such as coriander, flat-leaf parsely, mint and/or dill, chopped Sea salt and black pepper

For the black bean salsa:

grams canned black beans, drained and rinsed tablespoons sun-dried tomato paste grams cherry tomatoes, chopped Juice of 1/2 lime tablespoons fresh mint, shredded teaspoon sea salt flakes Pinch of chili flakes

To make the rice, add 1 tablespoon of the oil to a frying pan with the cooked rice, lime juice and maple syrup. Fry for 1 to 2 minutes on a medium heat, then add the fresh herbs. Add the remaining tablespoon of oil and season with salt and pepper. Set aside and keep

Set a small frying pan or griddle pan on a medium heat. Add a splash of olive oil and the sugar snaps and fry for 2 to 3 minutes until a little charred.

To make the black bean salsa, add all the ingredients to a bowl and stir to combine.

To serve, load two bowls with the rice mixture, black bean salsa, sugar snaps, and sliced avocado.

Turn to seafood during Lent

Skipping meat on Fridays is a common sacrifice Christians make during Lent. Meals can still be flavorful even if chicken, beef or pork may be off the table. In fact, Lent makes for an ideal time to embrace delicious vegetarian meals or those that feature seafood.

2. Pat the salmon fillets dry and place them in the prepared pan. Season the salmon with salt and black pepper. Set aside.

3. In a small saucepan, whisk together the pineapple juice, ketchup, brown sugar, rice vinegar, soy sauce, cornstarch, garlic, and ginger. Set the pan over medium heat and bring to a simmer. Cook for 2 to 3 minutes, until the sauce thickens, stirring frequently.

4. Spoon the sauce over the salmon.

5. Bake for 10 to 15 minutes, until the salmon is fork tender (a meat thermometer should register

6. Reserve half of the salmon for a future meal. Refrigerate up to 3 days.

7. Top the remaining salmon with the green onions, and serve.

Tip: You can make this dish spicy by adding hot sauce or sriracha sauce to the glaze. You can also top the finished dish with crushed red pepper flakes.

Also, this thick sauce is versatile, so it can be used on chicken, beef and shellfish.

Tahanto takes CMADA Championship from rallying Indians

Bartlett's Kole Sebastyanski drives by a Tahanto defender on his pursuit to the basket.

Bartlett's Ayden Carlson inches his way closer to the basket, as a pair of Tahanto players defend.

BY NICK ETHIER SPORTS EDITOR

WORCESTER

Tahanto for the Central Mass. Athletic Directors Association (CMADA) Class D Championship at running. 'We came out ready to go," said Indians' head coach Alex Hetherman, as Bartlett led after the initial eight-minute quarter,

But the Stags got hot in the second quarter — hitting three 3-pointers, three more free throws — for 18 points to the Indians' 7, as Tahanto grabbed a 25-18 halftime lead.

The Stags then scored the first five points of the third quarter and won the frame, 18-11, for a 43-29 advantage. Bartlett did rally in the fourth quarter, but Tahanto held on for a 58-51 victory and the CMADA Championship.

"We definitely wanted to take away the 3's. That was obviously an emphasis at halftime. I thought a lot of them were wide open in the second quarter," said Hetherman. "And then we had miscommunications on the drives. We didn't switch when we needed to, and we gave them too many easy layups around the rim in the second half."

The Stags didn't hit a single 3-pointer in the second half but, as Hetherman alluded to, nearly all of their baskets in the third and fourth quarters came via open layups. Bartlett began comeback attempt when Kenny Arpin (16 points) made a shot while getting fouled, Kole Sebastyanski (17 points) followed with offensive rebound Arpin's miss, and Sebastyanski made the ensuing basket. That brough the deficit down to 46-37 with 5:30 to go.

Later, 3-pointers from Adam Urato and Ayden Carlson brought the score to 56-49. Sebastyanski then connected on two free throws, but with the game now in the final minute, Tahanto (14-5) bled the clock to victory.

'We fought until the end I'm proud of our guys — we just couldn't get over the hump in the end. We kept making run after run and they would answer," said Hetherman. "I felt if the game was 36 minutes instead of 32, have had a shot."

The Indians did need 36 minutes earlier in the week when they took on No. 3 Whitinsville Christian in the CMADA's semifinal round. There, Bartlett defeated the Crusaders in overtime, 44-40. "We were down three with under a minute to go in the first game. We hit a 3 to force overtime and then we won the overtime, 4-0," said Hetherman, as Urato made the 3-pointer to force overtime before Caiden Steeves made a basket and Carlton hit two free throws.

The Indians finished the regular season with a record of 9-11, but they did enough to qualify for the Division 5 State Tournament. Any team with a Power Ranking inside the Top 32 automatically qualifies for the Tourney, and Bartlett grabbed the 29th seed.

"It's really a credit to all the guys we've got. We started the year 2-7 and then just rallied. We had some really good wins in that stretch," said Hetherman. "We went to David Prouty and won that game, we went to Douglas and won that game, we went to Oxford and won that game, and our kids kept the season alive. And I think we're still getting better. And now we've got a chance to make a run in the State Tournament, for

The Indians then hosted No. 36 Minuteman Regional on Monday, Feb. 26 in the Preliminary Round. Unfortunately for Bartlett, their season came to a close with a loss in overtime, 58-55.

Martin brothers share the court at Auburn High

AUBURN The Auburn boys' varsity basketball team has a unique identity this season in the fact that three brothers suit up together. The Martin trio of Brayden, a senior, Colby, a junior, and Luke, a freshman, have been a mainstay in the Rockets' lineup.

The Martins played in their final game of the season last Wednesday, Feb. 21, as Auburn took on Littleton. Although the Rockets lost the game, 62-59, it was a special moment for the Martin family.

Brayden scored 18 points, leading all scorers, while Colby and Luke each added 4 points.

Brayden, who lost his freshman season due to COVID-19, was the JV captain his sophomore year, and then he tore his ACL at the start of his junior year and worked hard to get ready for his senior high school season. He is fifth in SWCL A scoring at 12.7 points per game.

Colby was the JV captain last year as a sophomore and joined varsity this year. He started a majority of the games this year for varsity. He prides himself on his defense and has 18 charges taken on the sea-

Luke made varsity as a freshman and averaged 7.1 points per game with 32 made 3-pointers.

CHARLTON — The Bay Path girls' varsity basketball team has had a very busy postseason, first participating in the Clark Tournament hosting then Massachusetts Vocational Athletic Directors Association (MVADA) Large Schools Tournament. MVADA first sponsored vocational tournaments in 1996-97. The 14-6 Minutemen, the tournament's top seed, took on No. 4 Lynn Tech (14-6) on Friday night, Feb. 23.

Back in December, before the first regular season game, Bay Path head coach Randy Schulman shared his team's goals: Clark Tournament, Voke Tournament, and State Tournament, and these goals became reality. Prior to the game with Lynn, Schulman said, "At this point in the season every team in every tournament is good and will be a hard-fought battle. My girls are excited and ready for the challenges."

Bay Path came out ready to play, as they used their full-court press to disrupt Lynn Tech's game plan. Bay Path found their transitions from defense to offense with little effort, putting 20 points on the scoreboard to capture the first quarter lead, 20-8.

The Minutemen maintained the lead going in and out of the second quarter by connecting on quick passes for quick baskets, adding 16 points this quarter and holding the Tigers to 5. The Minutemen hustled after every loose ball and at the half Bay Path was on top, 36-13.

Lynn Tech found the basket throughout the third quarter, putting 20 points on the scoreboard. But Bay Path stuck to their game plan, with smart defense and aggressive drives to the basket on offense, and they put up 18 points of their own, as Bay Path led at the end of the third,

After a minute into the fourth quarter, Lynn Tech had put up 5 quick points to Bay Path's 2, Schulman called a timeout to settle his team. Bay Path then worked the clock and their offense through the end of the game. Bay Path took this State Vocational semifinal game, 68-43.

Following the impressive win, Schulman said, "I thought my girls played great tonight, they played with energy, moved the ball around and were in sync together defensively. We had seen on film that we might be able to score in transition on them and made a conscious effort to do that. Very proud of how they played and will now get ready for the Championship game."

The State Vocational Championship game was held back at Bay Path on Sunday, Feb. 25 against Colonial Athletic League rival Blackstone Valley Tech, the third seed, who previously defeated No. 2 Southeastern in a semifinal. The Minutemen were able to top the Beavers for the title, 54-43. Check back next week to read about Bay Path's championship win.

The Minutemen are next headed into the MIAA's Division 2 State Tournament, where they are seeded 38th. Bay Path will take on No. 27 Holliston after press time. This is Bay Path's first year in Division 2, previously participating in the Division 4 tourney.

WESTBOROUGH — On Tuesday, Feb. 20 at Westborough High, the Shepherd Hill girls' varsity basketball team faced Medway in the semifinal round of the 21st Annual Westborough Girls' Basketball Tournament Invitational.

Shepherd Hill head coach Maura Hackenson spoke about the matchup saying, "Medway is a very successful girls' basketball program. This year's team is made up of a combo of under and upperclassmen. They have a balanced attack of guards and forwards."

Shepherd Hill, the tournament's fourth seed, made it to the semifinals by beating No. 5 Westborough, 57-55, on Sunday, Feb. 18. Hackenson went on to say, "We hope to pick up where we left off Sunday. With pressure defense and getting offensive contributions from every single player that steps on the floor. They (Medway) play in a tough league (similar to us) and are ready for high pressure

Commenting on the Lady Rams, Hackenson concluded with, "Our young squad has come together nicely in a short amount of time and I am beyond proud of them."

Shepherd Hill was first on the scoreboard three minutes into the game. The Rams played aggressive defense, gaining possession on defensive rebounds, but offensively couldn't work the ball through Medway's strong zone defense. Medway—the tournament's top seed, who defeated No. 8 Saint Paul in the first round—went on to score

Shepherd Hill worked hard through the final whistle, but it was Medway's night, as the Mustangs moved onto the final with the 51-31 win. Medway then defeated No. 6 Algonquin for the championship on Wednesday, Feb. 21, 49-36. Heidi Jarosz put up 12 points and gathered 15 rebounds for the Rams. The Hill will next be on the court participating in the Division 2 State Tournament. The Rams, seeded 29th, will host No. 36 Somerset Berkley in the Preliminary Round, after press time.

er high school in the entire state who can say that," said Coach Pietrzak. "Having these student leaders on our team has helped us in so many ways. They bring a certain spirit and commitment level to the team that is contagious. They are consistently cheering on their teammates regardless of the score, whether it be from the court or from the bench. They are always there to pick up a fallen teammate from the court, and it's no coincidence that each of them practices and plays extremely hard. Their level of dedication to their school and to our basketball program is amazing."

The responsibility of leadership is not lost on these ladies, as each of them takes their roles on the team just as seriously as their position in student government. They have embraced the opportunity to grow as individuals and, in effect, help their team grow as well. Freshman Class President Randi Flynn and Class Vice President Kate Mayo explained how, as the youngest class officers on the team, they have used the opportunity to enhance their leadership qualities while learning from the other two Class Presidents on the roster.

'On the court, even if you aren't a captain, you have to work together to score points and play the game. Communication also plays a role because the team has to talk together and express what they believe should happen. In some ways, being a student leader is the same as being a leader on the court," said Mayo. "Working alongside leaders from different grades has been really helpful to me. Since some of my teammates are upperclassman, they provide guidance to me and others since they have more experience. These girls are role models and set the bar really high for "Being a school leader has helped me be a better leader on the court with the commitment level to my position as President as well as my commitment to my team, this includes always showing up and supporting my team on and off the court," Randi Flynn added. "The communication skills I've learned on the court have been helpful in leading my teammates as well as the student body. Working with Gwen and Hailey has been a great opportunity, as both teammates have been great role models to look up to as players and school officers. I have learned great leadership skills from being in their presence the last couple of months watching the hard work they put in on and off the

As the older class officers, Junior Class President Hailey Filipkowski and Sophomore Class President Gwen Gustafson have worked hard to help lead their teammates effectively, but like all good leaders acknowledge they can't do it alone.

"I think my experience as a student leader has allowed me to work more cohesively with my teammates on the floor. I use many of the qualities I have learned from being a student leader, such as teamwork, collaboration, and problem solving when I am practicing or playing in games. Working alongside leaders from other grades is very helpful and gives me more ways to improve upon how I act in both a leadership and basketball setting. I think these girls are amazing and I learn so much from them every day,"

"Being a student leader has helped me see things from a different perspective, and push not only myself, but the other players on the court also," Gustafson added. "Having the experience as a student leader has made it easier to take the lessons I've learned and use them on the court with my teammates. It has been great to work alongside so many leaders on the court. I think it has really helped our team chemistry because so many of us lead in similar ways. We all work together and treat each other like family, and I think having so many leaders on the court has really helped us."

Together, these four young ladies have shown how different leaders from different backgrounds, age groups, and at different experience levels can coexist and work towards a common goal. They have learned from each other and, in turn, used those lessons to Library in Dudley, as help build up their teammates and classmates every day. Coach Pietrzak said he hopes these ladies will continue to inspire other girls to get involved in both sports and school government in Oxford and believes they set a good example as motivated and versatile leaders, both as athletes and as individual members of the local school community at large

"Alleluias" because they are joyful proclamations. Instead, like a favorite toy we put away for a while to appreciate later, the school was burying the Alleluia. Then, Saint Joseph School Principal Mrs. Boudreau showed the students a handmade wooden sign with the word Alleluia brightly painted on it.

Following the reading of Psalm 112:1-7, a student leader proclaimed: "It's time to say goodbye to our friend, the Alleluia, to let it rest for a while so that it will return to us at Easter full of enthusiasm to remind us again who we are: loved children of Another student recited the prayer: "Lord God, our creator, as we bury this sign of heaven's song, help us to turn ourselves to living a good Lent. Help us to give up things that stand between us and your love and walk with Jesus on the road that leads us closer to you. We give up our Alleluia only for a while so that we may make more beautiful music in our hearts and lives when we sing it again at Easter.

Amen."

When the students finally buried Alleluia, the Fifth Grade ended in prayer, saying, "Lord, we have given up for a time the song of heaven so that we may prepare our hearts and minds to be ready for heaven. Help us, in Jesus, to die to selfish habits that keep us from you and to live more fully with your peace and joy. Please help us to be renewed in your Spirit as we live this Lent. Amen."

Another tradition

The wooden Alleluia was then sealed in a plastic bag and placed in a wooden crate, and every Saint Joseph School student placed a cup of dirt on top of the Alleluia.

containing the buried Alleluia is on display in the school's main hallway. The hand-painted crate has the word "Hope" displayed on the front. On Easter, there will be a celebration as the Alleluia is unburied. Students will plant lilies in the crate, and the brightly painted plaque with the word Alleluia on the front will be proudly displayed. We are very excited about this new tradition!

Saint Joseph School Fifth Grade instructor Kelly Bailey assists PreK-4-year-old student Julia Mazzone as she buries the Alleluia during a Lenten ceremony.

that continues at Saint Joseph School during Lent is, "Good Deeds for Jesus." During Lent, Saint Joseph School students are encouraged to pray more, fast, and give alms to get closer to Jesus. They persevere in making loving sacrifices and doing good deeds. Then, each week, the students gather for a Lenten prayer service and are given a flower to represent the sacrifices and good deeds they want to offer to Jesus. The flowers are assembled into a beautiful cross included in the offertory at Family Mass on Sunday. It's a beautiful reminder of the students practicing the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy!

as well.

"In some of these cases, the tenants may actually be vandalizing the houses to stay. I've had a landlord tell me that as soon as he fixes something, an hour later something else is broken at the house. I've come to that same conclusion myself on an inspection - It protects the landlord and the tenant at the same time because a landlord has the apartment inspected before it got occupied. We have pictures and a report, it's all there and if four days later the kitchen cabinet is ripped off and on the floor and their complaining that wasn't by accident," said Hannon. "We will wind up with a much better housing stock once the tenants know that they can make a complaint and they're protected, but they also have to keep their houses clean. That's the other side of the code, so this cuts both ways."

The draft regulations would require any landlord to register with the Board of Health, apply for a $100 permit, and submit to preoccupancy inspections and two annual inspections taking place before the winter and summer respectively. Current existing landlords would have until June to register, and all new landlords would be required to follow the permitting and registration process from day one. Hannon noted that state regulations prevent any increase of rent or eviction within six months of a complaint against a landlord. He would like Dudley's town-specific regulation to extend that to eight months although some Board of Health members wanted to remain within the state

The Board of Health chose to table the proposed regulations for their next regular meeting, scheduled for March 19, to give citizens a chance to voice any concerns at a public hearing.

als they met at various public places. The bags serve as a symbol of support and care from local law enforcement.

Sheriff's Office staff made a stop at the Bay State Savings Bank in Auburn and the Pearle L Crawford Memorial well as a handful of other locations throughout the town.

With its motto, 'Make Kindness the Norm,' the Random Acts of Kindness Foundation was founded during a mid-1990s summer when violence was at an all-time high on the West Coast. Inspiration to start the organization came from a television reporter who noted that people should stop reporting on "random acts of violence" and start 'practicing random acts of kindness and senseless acts of beauty.' This foundation is now the driving force behind Random Acts of Kindness Week in the United States.

year, This Tito's Handmade Vodka and Polar Beverages were the bag sponsors of the initiative. With the support of the two organizations, the Sheriff's Office, and the Worcester County Reserve Deputy Sheriff Association were able to acquire the 3,500 goody bags at no cost.

"Our duty as a law enforcement agency is to build bridges and strengthen the bond between our department and the communities we serve," commented Evangelidis. "Our team takes immense pride in contributing towards the betterment of Worcester County and always looks for ways to spread positivity. We understand the significance of ensuring public safety and are committed to reinforcing that message. Let us all strive to make positivity the focus of this week."

The Sheriff's Office hosts community events year-round to engage the residents that they serve. To learn more about the Sheriff's Office, visit their Web site atwww. WorcesterCountvSheriff. com, or follow along on social media for consistent updates.
