FOCAS trying to raise money at Old Home Day festivities

BY JIMMY FALZONE
FOCAS-MEMBER — BOARD OF DIRECTORS

CHARLTON — On Sunday, Sept. 6, Friends of Charlton Animal Shelter (FOCAS) volunteers joined the Labor Day weekend Old Home Day festivities to raise funds for the local animal shelter. Despite the raining morning, the community turned out to enjoy the beautiful weather that followed.

FOCAS was founded in 2008 by residents concerned about the deteriorating Charlton Animal Shelter. The organization supports the town’s animal control program. In 2009, Animal Control Officer Ann Sellow, Assistant Animal Control Officer Brent

Sellow, and FOCAS members organized a petition to place funding for a new shelter on the town meeting agenda. Voters approved of $96,000 for construction materials. To raise additional funds, FOCAS held the “Hot Rods for Homeless Animals” car show in August 2009 at the former Howlett Lumber Company at Trolley Crossing. Construction of the new Charlton Animal Shelter began that year and was completed in 2011 with FOCAS donations, volunteer labor provided at no cost, and town funding. View the slide-show on the Photos page of our website of the new construction and of all the contractors that provided their skills and free labor.

FOCAS’s Nutritional Assistance for Pets Program (NAPP) provides pet food to low-income Charlton residents. So far in 2026, it has helped 13 families feed their pets and keep them at home. Food is distributed as funding permits, thanks to the continued support of residents and local businesses. To learn more about our work, visit www.focascharlton.org or follow us at www.facebook.com/friendsofcharltonanimalshelter/. FOCAS is also seeking new members and board directors to support our 501(c) non-profit organization. Interested individuals may mail a letter of interest to the address below, and please leave your phone number and we will follow up. Meetings are held about every other month at the Charlton Animal Shelter. Animal lovers can donate through our website or mail a contribution to: Friends of Charlton Animal Shelter (FOCAS)

Flamenco Boston bringing music and dance to Jacob Edwards Library

SOUTHBRIDGE — The sights and sounds of traditional flamenco will fill the Jacob Edwards Library when Flamenco Boston presents a free performance Thursday, Oct. 8, at 6:30 p.m.

The program is part of a series of performances celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month and will introduce local audiences to flamenco through live music, dance and a discussion of the art form's cultural roots.

The Southbridge performance will feature dancer Cristina Candela, singer Juan Pedro Jiménez, violinist Ángela Varo and flamenco guitarist Anthony Tran.

Together, the musicians and dancer will demonstrate the interplay of voice, guitar, violin and movement that gives flamenco its distinctive character. The performers will also provide background about the development of flamenco and its roots in Andalucía, a region of southern Spain shaped over centuries by the interaction of different peoples and cultural traditions.

The program is intended both for those already familiar with flamenco and those experiencing the art form for the first time.

Flamenco Boston seeks to make flamenco music and dance accessible to communities that may not regularly have opportunities to experience live performances of the art form. Bringing the program into a public library setting allows residents of different ages and backgrounds to experience the performance close to home and without the cost of admission.

The Oct. 8 program is free and open to people of all ages.

The performance is made possible through a grant from the Southbridge Cultural Council. The local council is part of the Massachusetts Cultural Council's statewide network supporting community cultural programming. The Southbridge Cultural Council provides grants supporting arts, humanities and interpretive science activities benefiting the community.

The Jacob Edwards Library is located in Southbridge. The performance begins at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 8.

On Saturday, Sept. 12, Sturbridge Troop 161 joined the official 25th anniversary of "Flags on the 48." This annual 9/11 Memorial Hike honors the victims and first responders of Sept. 11, 2001, by raising the American flag simultaneously on all 48 of New Hampshire's 4,000-foot White Mountain peaks. The Scouts tackled Mt. Lafayette, Mt. Liberty, Mt. Lincoln, carrying heavy flagpoles, rigging, and equipment up rugged trails to ensure the flag flies precisely from noon to 2 p.m. alongside 47 other volunteer teams across the state.

Explore Jewish life in song with members of Wholesale Klezmer Band at Jacob Edwards Library

SOUTHBRIDGE — The Jacob Edwards Library will host a return engagement of Yiddish singer Yosl Kurland accompanied by Accordionist Aaron Bousel and flutist Peggy Davis, members of the Wholesale Klezmer Band in a new program of "Jewish Life in Song" on Thursday, Oct. 22 at 6:30 p.m. The event is free and open to the public, and is sponsored by the Southbridge Cultural Council.

The performers draw upon their vast repertoire of Yiddish folk, theater and Hebrew liturgical songs including Yosl's own compositions. In introducing Jewish music and culture to diverse audiences, the group works to foster intercultural understanding. All songs will be translated, explained, or sung in English translation.

Vocalist and educator Yosl Kurland, a founding member of the Wholesale Klezmer Band (www.ganeydn.com) since 1982, performs and writes Yiddish songs and synagogue music. With the Wholesale Klezmer Band he has performed widely for weddings, bar/bas mitzves and concerts, including at Carnegie Hall with Pete Seeger, and has taught workshops at elementary, middle and high schools on Yiddish music, dance, literature. He developed programs on "Yiddish Songs of Cultural Resistance in the Holocaust" and "A Jewish Perspective on Social Justice in Song". He teaches adult education classes on Yiddish language and literature as well as klezmer music and is a cantor for Temple Israel of Greenfield.

Wholesale Klezmer Band accordionist Aaron Bousel began playing the instrument at age ten, though it wasn't until 1995 that he began to play klezmer. He has participated in workshops at KlezKanada in Quebec and Yidstock at the Yiddish Book Center in Amherst. Soon after moving to Amherst in 1997 he became accordionist for the band Hu Tsa Tsa with which he has played for life-cycle celebrations and local synagogue functions. He is also accordionist for the Yiddishkeit Klezmer ensemble and has accompanied Mak'hela, the Jewish chorus of western Massachusetts.

Peggy Davis (flute, vocals) grew up in Minneapolis, where she studied flute and guitar. She listened to the recorded Yiddish songs of Theodore Bikel, Ruth Rubin and Martha Schlamme and encountered native singers of Yiddish songs when working with Russian Jewish immigrants in Italy, many of whom spoke with her in Yiddish, which she had studied at the YIVO Institute. In Minnesota, she helped found the group "Yiddische Folksmenshn." Peggy also sang Balkan and Russian folk music in the Ethnic Dance Theatre Choir. She taught calligraphy classes and children's activities at KlezKamp, and has taught in public and Hebrew schools. Peggy is a calligrapher in Hebrew, Yiddish and English, creating illuminated Jewish wedding contracts (ketubot)

You can find more about the Wholesale Klezmer Band and Peggy H. Davis Calligraphy at http://www.ganeydn.com. You can find more about the Jacob Edwards Library at https://www.jacobedwardslibrary.org/

Jewish Life in Song at the Jacob Edwards Library is supported by a grant from the Southbridge Cultural Council, a local agency which is funded by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

Charlton Sewing Center's Cathy Racine to speak to Yankee Quilters Guild

CHARLTON — On Tuesday, Oct. 13, Yankee Quilters Guild will welcome Cathy Racine of the Charlton Sewing Center and Charlotte Kassal, who will bring a remarkable and emotional collection of approximately 200 hand-stitched pieces of fabric of art made by women around the world. "We Speak in Stitches" is a collaboration between project manager Charlotte Kassal, Racine, and others to collect textile works by women on themes of democracy, freedom, and civil rights. After the individual pieces were mailed to Kassal, work began with staff of the Charlton Sewing Center to combine blocks into 23 large quilted panels for display.

Kassal said, "I started this project over a year and a half ago through the 'Slow Stitch' group. This group has 149,000 members. I proposed to the group that we create 10 and a half by 10 and a half inch blocks making statements of how we feel about Democracy, Freedom, Civil Rights, and it was an inclusive project. Whatever a person's "leanings" were, their work would be included when the blocks were assembled into quilt panels."

The event at Yankee will be the second public viewing after the project opened in September at the Charlton Sewing Center.

The program will begin at 7:00 pm. at Emma's Quilt Cupboard, Horace Mann Plaza, Franklin. Non-members welcome for a fee of $5.

On November 10th, Yankee will present "Piece by Piece," a program on making "mosaic quilts" with quilt artist Heidi Proffetty. $5 for nonmembers. For more information, contact yankeequilters11@gmail.com.

Sturbridge Historical Society hosting presentation by historian Manisha Sinha

STURBRIDGE — Join the Sturbridge Historical Society and the Joshua Hyde Public Library for an evening with renowned historian and Sturbridge resident Manisha Sinha on Thursday, Sept. 24, at 7 p.m. The event will take place at the Sturbridge Senior Center.

As our nation celebrates the 250th anniversary of its founding, Professor Sinha will explore how the Civil War and emancipation functioned as a "Second American Revolution." This transformative period led to the re-founding of the American Republic during Reconstruction, establishing birthright citizenship and the first federal civil rights laws. Her talk is drawn from her latest acclaimed work, The Rise and Fall of the Second American Republic: Reconstruction, 1860-1920.

The presentation will delve into the overthrow of this Second Republic by domestic terror and legal decisions that hollowed out Reconstruction-era protections. The promise of American citizenship regardless of race or color would not be realized until the Civil Rights Movement in the twentieth century. We still live with the competing legacies of reactionary authoritarianism and progressive democracy bequeathed by this history. Copies of the book will be available for purchase and signing following the presentation.

Having resided in Sturbridge since 1994,

Professor Manisha Sinha has authored several distinguished, prize-winning volumes including The Slave's Cause: A History of Abolition (2016), a work that earned a spot on the National Book Award longlist for non-fiction. A graduate of Columbia University with a Ph.D. in American history—where her doctoral research was a Bancroft Prize nominee—she spent more than two decades at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. During her tenure there, she received the Chancellor's Medal, the faculty's most prestigious commendation. Since 2016, she has served as the Draper Chair in American History at the University of Connecticut, Storrs, and is the Past President of the Society for Historians of the Early American Republic.

Trinity Catholic Academy welcomes new Student Council members

SOUTHBRIDGE — Trinity Catholic Academy is pleased to welcome its Student Council members for the 2026–2027 school year. After competitive campaigning, these student leaders in grades 5-8 were elected by their peers. Congratulations!

Student Council gives students the opportunity to develop leadership skills while making a positive difference in our school community. Throughout the year, council members help plan and support school activities, organize service projects, give back to others, and find ways to make TCA an even stronger and more welcoming community.

Thank you to long-time advisors Ms. Colleen Casey and Mrs. Lori Primavera who spend countless hours guiding Student Council members during their many events. "Student Council gives students the opportunity to share their ideas, work together, plan school activities, and find ways to make a positive difference at TCA" says Mrs. Primavera. Ms. Casey adds, "We especially enjoy seeing their creativity and enthusiasm as they work together to make our school an even better place for everyone."

We congratulate our new Student Council members and look forward to all they will accomplish this year!

St. Anne – St. Patrick Parish introduces family-friendly schedule for 2026–2027 Faith Formation program

FISKDALE — St. Anne–St. Patrick Parish is making it easier for families to participate in both Faith Formation and Sunday Mass with a newly redesigned class schedule for the 2026–2027 program year. By intentionally centering its Faith Formation schedule around the 10:00 a.m. Sunday Mass, the parish hopes families can more easily worship together while also having more time back in their Sundays.

“At St. Anne – St. Patrick Parish, we want to remove obstacles that make it difficult for families to practice their faith together,” said Fr. Salvator Musande, Pastor of St. Anne – St. Patrick Parish. “Our new schedule allows children to grow in their knowledge and understanding of the Catholic Faith while making Sunday Mass something families can attend together. We warmly invite both returning and new families to join us.”

Registration is now open for Faith Formation for students in Kindergarten through Grade

11. Families are encouraged to register online by September 6, 2026, which will help with class planning, although registration will remain open after that date.

The new class schedule is:

- Grades K–6: Sundays, 8:45–9:45 a.m., before the 10 a.m. Mass.
- Grades 7–11: Sundays, 11:15 a.m.–12:30 p.m., after the 10 a.m. Mass.

Faith Formation provides children and teens with age-appropriate instruction in the Catholic Faith, Sacred Scripture, Prayer, Christian living, and preparation for the Sacraments. Online registration is the preferred registration method and is available on the parish website. A paper registration form is also available for families who need one.

For more information or to register, visit www.StAnne-StPatrickParish.com or call 508-347-9353.

A walk in the woods can plant something lasting

Some of the best lessons children receive do not come from a classroom, a textbook or a screen. Sometimes they come from following a trail through the woods, searching for something on a nature bingo card and discovering that there is much more happening beneath the trees than they had ever noticed before.

That is part of what makes the Charlton Heritage Preservation Trust's upcoming "Kids and Grands" scavenger hike such a worthwhile community event.

Scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 3, from 10 a.m. to noon at the Willow Tree Conservation Area, the outing is deliberately modest. There is no strenuous expedition planned. The hunt follows a three-tenths-of-a-mile loop through the woods along a level cart road, making it approachable for families with younger children and adults who may not be looking for a challenging hike. That accessibility matters.

One of the best ways to build an appreciation for conservation is to introduce people to open spaces in a way that feels welcoming rather than intimidating. A young child does not need to climb a mountain to discover the outdoors. A grandparent does not need to tackle miles of rugged trail to share an afternoon in nature with a grandchild. Sometimes, a short walk is enough.

The scavenger hunt also recognizes something important about conservation: Protecting land is only part of the job. A community must develop a relationship with that land if preservation is going to have meaning for future generations.

The Charlton Heritage Preservation Trust currently stewards 19 parcels encompassing more than 200 acres. Those properties represent a substantial commitment to keeping portions of Charlton open and undeveloped. But acreage figures alone cannot create a conservation ethic. That happens when residents explore these places, learn their history and begin to regard them as part of the community's shared inheritance.

The trust has been finding different ways to encourage that connection. Its recent activities have included collaborating with the Charlton Historical Society on programs about mill life at the Little River mill ruins, sponsoring a Mass Audubon presentation about birding in Central Massachusetts at the Charlton Public Library and leading hikes along the Midstate Trail through the Route 20 Cow Tunnel.

Each approaches the community's landscape from a different direction. History, wildlife, recreation and conservation are not separate subjects when people experience them in the places where they live. They are pieces of the same story.

The "Kids and Grands" hike adds another important piece by focusing on generations experiencing that story together.

There is something especially appropriate about grandparents, parents, aunts and uncles introducing younger family members to protected land. Conservation is, at its heart, an agreement between generations. People protect something today because they believe someone tomorrow should have the opportunity to experience it.

Children who begin with a three-tenths-of-a-mile scavenger hunt may eventually be ready for longer trails and more challenging properties. Some may grow into adults who hike, bird-watch, volunteer, study local history or support future conservation efforts. Others may simply remember an October morning spent walking through the Charlton woods with someone they loved. Both outcomes have value.

Communities sometimes think about open-space preservation in terms of complicated questions involving property, development and acreage. Those questions certainly matter. But conservation also happens on a much smaller and more personal scale. It happens when a child learns to stop and look closely at a tree, a bird, a leaf or a track along the trail.

Charlton has protected places where those discoveries can happen. Inviting the next generation to experience them may be one of the best ways to ensure those places continue to matter.

Stress-test your retirement portfolio in volatile markets income? You may need to reduce exposure to riskier assets such as stocks and increase holdings in more stable ones, like bonds or cash equivalents. Your ideal allocation depends on your risk tolerance, spending needs, and other income sources. The

If you're planning to retire within the next few years — or you've recently retired — market volatility may feel especially unsettling. After years of saving and planning, you're now entering a stage where your portfolio may shift from growth to providing income. The five-year window before and after your retirement date is especially critical — when market downturns can have an outsized impact on your long-term financial security.

While you can't control the markets, there are meaningful steps you can take to "stress-test" your retirement income, so it is not consumed entirely by market drops before you stop working.

- Explore your short- and medium-term income needs. One of the most important steps to take is to understand how much of your portfolio you'll need to rely on for income. It depends on your other income sources such as Social Security, IRAs, 401ks, pensions and wages if you work in retirement. You'll want to avoid taking too much from your portfolio in response to a decline because that could increase the likelihood that your money may not last through retirement. A financial advisor can help you determine your threshold for monthly withdrawals, based on your income needs, long-term outlook, inflation, and risk tolerance.

- Review your emergency fund. Are you able to set aside at least three to six months' worth of essential expenses in cash or very low-risk investments? That could allow you to avoid digging too deeply into your portfolio or selling stocks or other volatile assets at a loss if the market drops. The income bridge from an emergency fund gives your longer-term investments time to recover and can reduce stress during down markets. You may even find you want more than six months in this fund to help weather emergencies, depending on your risk and your comfort level.

- Review your mix. As you approach or begin retirement, does your portfolio reflect your need for stability and goal is to shield your savings from major losses just as you begin drawing from them.

- Consider market swings. If the value of your portfolio dropped 20% tomorrow and stayed there for a period, would you need to change your lifestyle or spending immediately? Would you need to go back to work? If your answer is yes, revisit your asset allocation or spending plan. A more conservative approach may offer less upside but can provide greater confidence during the early years of retirement.

- Assess your spending. Even small budget adjustments can make a big difference, especially early in retirement. Do you need to consider postponing a major purchase or trimming discretionary spending? If you're still working, directing extra income into savings can help build a cushion. If you're already retired, keeping withdrawals as low as possible during market downturns can help support long-term sustainability.

- Stay grounded — and get support. Market swings are inevitable, but emotional reactions and risky investing can lead to costly mistakes. Don't abandon your investment strategy. Instead, focus on what you can control: your asset mix, spending, and flexibility. A financial advisor can help you stress-test your retirement plan, evaluate your options and stay focused on your long-term goals — even when the markets are anything but steady.

The chair that knows summer is over LANTERNS ALONG MAIN STREET

By CHARLES

There is a chair sitting in my backyard that knows something I have been refusing to admit. Summer is over.

Technically, I suppose there are arguments to be made about calendars and equinoxes. I am not interested in them. The chair has rendered its verdict.

It is one of those outdoor chairs that spent most of June, July and August getting dragged around the yard. Sometimes it was on the patio. Sometimes it migrated under a tree. Occasionally it wound up near the grill, where I would sit with a cold drink and offer completely unnecessary supervision to whatever was cooking.

For three months, that chair had a purpose. Now it sits there alone. I walked past it the other morning and realized nobody had occupied it in at least two weeks.

This is how September works in New England. Summer does not really end. We simply stop using summer things. Nobody holds a ceremony for the garden hose. One day, it is stretched across the lawn because the tomatoes need water. A few weeks later, it is still lying there, except now you step over it and think, "I really ought to put that away." You do not put it away. You simply continue thinking about putting it away until sometime in October, when the weather forecast contains a word such as "freeze," and suddenly the garden hose becomes an emergency.

The same thing happens with the citronella candle. Back in July, that candle was essential equipment. It sat proudly on the table, bravely defending civilization from mosquitoes. Now it contains three drowned moths, two leaves and approximately half an inch of rainwater.

Still, I cannot throw it away. There is wax left. That is how they get you.

tion. It is seasonal caution.

Anyone who has lived in Massachusetts long enough knows that September cannot be trusted. It will give you a 48-degree morning, convince you to locate a sweatshirt, then produce an afternoon warm enough to make you regret every decision you have made since breakfast.

So we hesitate. The window fan stays upstairs. The rake comes out, but the lawn mower remains ready. There might be a pumpkin on the front steps while a beach towel is still hanging in the garage. This is the only time of year when the household inventory makes absolutely no sense.

Eventually, of course, autumn wins. The chairs get folded. The hose gets drained. The grill gets used less often. That forgotten bottle of sunscreen gets moved somewhere mysterious, where nobody will be able to find it next Memorial Day. But I am not quite ready yet. The chair can stay out another week.

Maybe we'll get one of those unexpectedly warm September afternoons. Maybe I'll sit outside for a while with a cup of coffee and enjoy the yard before the leaves really start coming down. Or maybe I won't. Either way, putting the chair away feels a little too much like admitting something. And around here, summer deserves at least a decent argument before we let it go.

My wife has begun making subtle observations about the collection of summer equipment lingering around the house.

"Are you going to put those chairs away?"

Eventually.

"What about the fan in the bedroom?"

Still warm occasionally.

"The cooler?"

Could need it.

"For what?"

You never know.

This is not procrastination.

In this introductory workshop, we'll use plant materials, pre-printed photo negatives, and other found materials to create unique art to take home. No cyanotype or art experience required—just a willingness to create! Cyanotype emulsion is an easily controlled material, but you may want to dress for spills/splatters just in case, as exposed emulsion is not easily washable.

Faith in Film Series continues at Charlton Federated Church

CHARLTON — The Faith in Film series continues this autumn at Federated Church of Charlton (FCC). On the third Friday of each month at 6:30 p.m. the public is invited to join members of the congregation in viewing and discussing movies. All are invited to join in the Faith in Film series at no charge. A handout with pertinent and interesting information, key concepts and discussion questions about each film is distributed at each movie night. Refreshments are also served.

The Faith in Film series this autumn are all films suggested by viewers and include the following:

Sept. 18 – “Some Like It Hot”

Considered by many to be one of the funniest comedies ever made, this 1959 masterpiece was co-written and directed by Billy Wilder and stars Marilyn Monroe, Jack Lemon and Tony Curtis. Lemon and Curtis are two out of luck musicians in 1920s Chicago. After witnessing a mob massacre, they disguise themselves as women to join an all-girl band whose lead singer is Monroe.

Oct. 16 – “Arsenic and Old Lace”

Cary Grant’s aunts have a horrifying secret which creates havoc in this 1944 screwball comedy just perfect for Halloween. The film also features Raymond Massy, Peter Lorre, Josephine Hull, Jean Adair, and Edward Everett Horton. Arsenic and Old Lace was directed by Frank Capra and is based on the Broadway smash hit by Joseph Kesselring.

Nov. 20 – “The Grapes of Wrath”

This 1940 adaption of the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel by John Steinbeck is considered one of the greatest films ever made. Directed by John Ford and starring Henry Fonda, it tells the powerful story of the Joad family, who in the great depression lose their farm and travel west to California.

Dec. 18 – “The Greatest Christmas Pageant Ever”

The Herdman’s are the absolute worst kids in town, but when they get cast in their small town’s Christmas pageant, magical things happen. This 2024 movie based on the best-selling novel by Barbara Robinson, explores the true meaning of Christianity.

Faith in Film screenings take place in the Fellowship Hall of the Church at 64 Main St. in Charlton. For further information please call the Church at 508-248-5550.

Shepherd Hill students hosting Tackle the Stigma 5K to promote mental health awareness

CHARLTON — The Shepherd Hill Regional High School cheerleading program, in partnership with the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District community, is inviting residents to lace up their running shoes and help break down barriers surrounding mental health during the annual Tackle the Stigma 5K and 2.5K Walk/Run on Saturday, Sept. 27.

The event will begin at 10 a.m. at the Shepherd Hill football field and is designed to raise awareness about mental health and mental wellness while encouraging open conversations throughout the local community.

Organizers hope participants of all ages will come together to demonstrate support for those facing mental health challenges and reinforce the message that no one has to struggle alone.

"This event is very important to us as we work to raise awareness about mental health and mental wellness throughout our local community," organizers said in announcing the event.

The walk and run carries the theme, "Run toward awareness, stand up for support, and tackle the stigma one mile at a time," reflecting its focus on education, compassion and community involvement.

Mental health advocates continue to emphasize the importance of reducing the stigma surrounding anxiety, depression and other mental health conditions, which can often prevent individuals from seeking help. Community events such as Tackle the Stigma aim to create a welcoming environment where conversations about mental wellness are encouraged and support resources are highlighted.

In addition to providing an opportunity for exercise and community engagement, the event serves as a reminder that mental health is an important part of overall well-being. Organizers hope the day will inspire participants to check in with friends, family members and neighbors while promoting a culture of understanding and acceptance.

The Shepherd Hill cheerleaders have made mental health awareness a priority, using the event to unite students, families, educators and community members around a common cause. By bringing together participants from across Dudley, Charlton and surrounding communities, they hope to build momentum for ongoing conversations that extend well beyond race day.

Whether participants choose the full 5-kilometer course or the shorter 2.5-kilometer walk/run, organizers say every step represents a commitment to supporting mental wellness and reminding those who may be struggling that help is available.

Registration information and additional event details are expected to be available through Shepherd Hill Regional High School and the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District as the event approaches.

“Salem Witch Hysteria” at Casaubon Senior Center

SOUTHBIDGE — The Delvena Theatre Company will be presenting “Salem Witch Hysteria” at the Casaubon Senior Center, 153 Chestnut St., Southbridge, on Tuesday, Oct. 6, at 1 p.m.

Watch history come alive with these fascinating dramatizations of the true stories of the Salem Witch Hysteria.

The setting is Salem, Mass. 1692, a year in which, of the 168 men and women were accused of practicing witchcraft. Twenty of those accused were executed.

Let’s see how things go in the 21st century when the audience members become the jury in the trial of Susannah Martin. They will have the opportunity to question the defendant and form their own opinion as to her guilt or innocence. The cast will open up again to the audience after the performance for a lively discussion.

The Delvena Theatre Company has been doing to-go shows for the last several years at various venues throughout the New England area. The Company was founded in 1992, and prior to “going on the road” performed at different locations throughout Massachusetts, most often at the Boston Center for the Arts. Delvena was nominated for five Independent Reviewers of New England awards. Its production of ‘Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf?’ was on Theatre Mirror’s Best List for acting, directing and production. Presentations of ‘Anna Weiss’ and ‘Beyond Therapy’ were included on Theatre Mirror’s best play list and ‘Blue Heart’ was placed on Aisle Say’s best list.

Salem Witch Hysteria is supported in part by a grant from the Southbridge Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency. To reserve a seat, call the Senior Center at (508) 764-1469.

OBITUARIES

Atty Donald C. Cournoyer, 85

Southbridge: Donald C. Cournoyer, 85, peacefully passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, Sept. 12th, in UMass Memorial Health – Harrington, Southbridge.

He leaves his beloved wife of 63 years, Barbara A. (Hamel) Cournoyer; his son, Atty. Donald C. Cournoyer, Jr. of North Brookfield; his daughter, Melissa D. Hilli and her husband Theodore of Southbridge; and his four grandchildren, Nathan Hilli and his fiancé, Sarah Francis, of Worcester, Elizabeth Hilli of Southbridge, Alexis Cournoyer of Salem and Gabrielle Cournoyer of North Brookfield. He was predeceased by his brother, Leo Cournoyer. Donald was born in Southbridge, the son of the late Leo and Armande (Ethier) Cournoyer. Donald received his bachelor’s degree from UMass Amherst and went on to receive his law degree from Boston College Law School.

Donald was a longtime Attorney of Law practicing with his law firm, Cournoyer and Cournoyer for over 40 years, retiring 20 years ago. Prior to his law firm he worked for the Worcester County District Attorney’s Office. Donald served many years on the Board of Directors of the Southbridge Credit Union. Donald was an avid pickleball player and always enjoyed meeting new and old friends on the court. He cherished the many memories made traveling with his wife, Barbara. He loved spending time with his family whenever he could. He was warm-hearted and always brought a smile to everyone who met him.

Donald’s funeral and burial in New Notre Dame Cemetery, Southbridge, will be private. There are no calling hours.

The Daniel T. Morrill Funeral Home, 130 Hamilton St., Southbridge, is directing arrangements.

Marquerite “Marge” Jalbert, 78

Charlton: Marguerite “Marge” (Silvestri) Jalbert, 78, of Ash Rd., passed away on Sunday, Sept. 13th, surrounded by the love of her family, after a courageous and determined fight that surprised no one who knew her.

Marge was not one to go quietly — she loved life, her family, and her town with everything she had.

Born on June 7, 1948, in Putnam, CT, Marge came to Charlton at the age of five and never left. Charlton was not just where she lived — it was who she was. She graduated from Charlton High School in 1966 and spent the next six decades giving herself to her community through music, service, friendship, and an open door that never seemed to close. In 1986, she and Ed moved to the lake house on Glen Echo Lake, built on land her parents had loved as a summer home and lovingly passed down to their daughter. From that day forward, Marge called it what it truly was — a vacation home that just happened to be permanent. The lake, the boats, the jet skis, and the grandchildren running through the yard in summer were her paradise, and she cherished every moment. Music was the language of Marge’s soul. For more than fifty years, she shared her extraordinary gift with anyone who would listen, playing piano, organ, guitar, and her beloved accordion. She served as church organist for weddings, funerals, and every sacred moment in between. For more than thirty years, she coordinated the Christmas tree lighting on Charlton Common and presented a beloved Christmas concert to the community. She taught music at VBS summer camps, performed at the Masonic Home, and devoted herself to St. Joe’s Women’s Club, the Charlton Garden Club, the Glen Echo Lake Association, and the founding of Boy Scout Troop 338. The town of Charlton honored her with the Individual Community Service Award — a recognition she wore quietly and deserved completely.

At the center of everything was her family. She and her husband, Ed, shared 56 years of devoted partnership — a love story told every morning when Ed would catch her coming down the stairs and call out, without fail, “Here she is — Miss America.” She would roll her eyes. She secretly loved every word of it.

Her kitchen was the heart of her home, always fragrant with homemade sauce and full of people gathered around the promise of something delicious. Marge believed that food, like music, was meant to be shared. She was also a fierce and devoted cribbage player — known to run a 17-game winning streak from a hospital bed — and was not above bending the rules if the moment called for it.

Her home on the lake was always open — to family, grandchildren finding their way, and anyone who needed a place to land. She and Ed freely gave their table, their time, and their roof, and watched with quiet pride as the people they welcomed went on to build lives of their own. Marge was blessed with friends who showed up for her the way she had always shown up for others. Over the past two years, cards arrived nearly every day. Food was brought without being asked. Phone calls came, visits were made, and musicians traveled to the lake to play for her — a serenade she received with the joy of someone who had spent a lifetime giving music away and now felt it returned. Her friends held her up in the way only true friendship can, and her family is forever grateful for every one of them.

The family also wishes to extend their deepest gratitude to the extraordinary medical teams who cared for Marge over the past two years — especially her oncologist, Dr. Holstead, and her palliative care physician, Dr. Murphy; the hospital staff who cared for her throughout those two-plus years; and the dedicated doctors and nurses in infectious disease. A special thank you goes to the Acute Rehab team on the second floor of Overlook, who met every challenge with compassion, creativity, and an unwavering willingness to try. Because of them, Marge had more time, more life, and more mornings on the lake. There are no adequate words for what that gift has meant.

She is survived by her beloved husband, Ed Jalbert; her four children and their families: John Jalbert and his wife, Alison, and their children, John, Michael, and Sarah; Jim Jalbert and his wife, Renee, and their children, Nicholas and Emma; Deb Lambert and her husband, Ritchie, and their children, Ethan and Owen; and David Jalbert and his wife, Danielle, and their children, Dylan and Addy. She is also survived by her brother, Ken Silvestri and his wife Sandra.

She was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Anthony and Beatrice (Liguori) Silvestri; her sister, Barbara Bonin; and her brother, Joseph Silvestri.

Marge filled every room she entered and left it better than she found it. She fed people, taught people, and loved people — loudly, faithfully, and on her own terms. Charlton will not be the same without her.

In her final days, Marge found peace in the music she had given her whole life to — Christian hymns and the oldies that had always made her feel at home. For those who loved her, the sound of a church organ or a familiar melody will forever carry her presence within it.

A funeral Mass for Marge will be held on Saturday, Sept. 26th at 12:00 pm in St. Joseph’s Church, 10 H. Putnam Rd. Ext., Charlton. Burial in Worcester County Memorial Park, Paxton, will be private at a later date. Calling hours in the church will be held on Saturday, Sept. 26th, from 10:00 to 12:00 pm, prior to the Mass.

Daniel T. Morrill Funeral Home, 130 Hamilton St., Southbridge is directing the arrangements.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Cholangiocarcinoma Research Foundation, 5526 West 13400 South, #510, Herriman, Utah 84096 or online at www.cholangiocarcinoma.org www.morrillfuneralhome.com

Marguerite L. Bernier, 94

Marguerite L. (Caplette) Bernier, a beloved wife, mother, and friend, passed away peacefully on August 18, 2026, at the age of 94. Born on November 20, 1932, in Southbridge, Massachusetts, Marguerite was the cherished daughter of Armand and Marie Rose (Valois) Caplette. Her life was a tapestry woven with love, kindness, and an unwavering commitment to her family and community.

Known for her culinary talents, Marguerite’s Raspberry Chocolate Fudge was a testament to her love for cooking. Her zest for life extended to her favorite pastime, weekly Bingo, which brought laughter and camaraderie. Marguerite and Raymond often traveled between Massachusetts and Florida, maintaining close ties with friends and family.

Marguerite’s legacy is defined by her radiant smile, impeccable style, and the thoughtfulness she extended to all who crossed her path. Her grace and kindness left an indelible mark on everyone she met.

She is predeceased by her beloved parents, Armand and Marie Rose, and her sisters, Paulene Remian, Doris Schremser, Gertrude Lacasse, and Lucille Mullett. Their memories will forever remain woven into the fabric of her life.

In honor of Marguerite’s love for animals, the family kindly suggests donations be made to the Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League of the Palm Beaches, a cause close to her heart.

A private ceremony will be held to honor Marguerite’s life, in accordance with her wishes. Her family extends their deepest gratitude to the dedicated staff at Alamar Senior Living and Memory Care Unit for their compassionate care and support.

Rose Mary Porter

Rose Mary Porter passed away peacefully on September 6th 2026 surrounded by her family at St Vincent’s hospital.

Rose was an artist, and art was woven into everything she did. Her creativity, intelligence, and meticulous attention to detail shaped the way she moved through the world. She had an extraordinary eye for detail and brought beauty and intention to everything she created. She cared about the state of the world. While in college, she worked on Robert F. Kennedy’s campaign, drawn to his belief that we could make the world a better place. Rose married in 1970 and devoted the next years of her life to raising her family. She was a loving stay-at-home mother, pouring the same love into her home and family that she brought to her art. Whether she was renovating the house, knitting a beloved sweater, or creating something from scratch, she approached everything with extraordinary precision and care.

Later, Rose became the CCD coordinator at St. Anne’s Parish, a role she held for over a decade. There, her artistic talents and perfectionist nature found another home. She made every stole and hand-calligraphed every certificate given to children for their First Communion and Confirmation.

Her curiosity and intelligence allowed her to extend the life of so many things. Whether it be a beloved toy, a car part, or an electronic device. She could take anything apart, pinpoint the problem and get it working again. She took after her father that way. She loved her family immensely and was so proud of their accomplishments — not simply for what they achieved, but for the good human beings they became. They were her joy.

Rose has been relieved of the earthly body that caused her so much pain for many years. She is now in her heavenly studio, making art, reading books with birds flitting around her, and taking coffee breaks with her sisters.

She was immensely loved and will be deeply missed.

Rose is survived by her husband Thomas Porter, her brother Joseph Coyne, her 4 children and their families, Jennifer, Jesus, Sofia and Mateo Vargas; Patrick Porter Amy Krawczyk, Roan and Isla Porter; Tom Porter and Nic Webb; Molly, James, Ben and Jonas Shetler.

The family has decided to honor Rose’s request not to have a funeral or gathering. We would appreciate your thoughts and prayers, and ask that you keep her memory alive in your hearts.

Wales Community Pantry announces first-ever fundraising golf tournament

FISKDALE — The Wales Community Pantry today announced its first annual fundraising golf tournament, inviting the community to swing for a cause that hits close to home. The event will take place on Saturday, Oct. 3, with a 9 a.m. start at Hemlock Ridge Golf Course in Fiskdale.

This is more than a day on the course. It is a chance to stand with neighbors and families who face the stress of not knowing whether there will be enough food for dinner. Or breakfast. In just the past two years, the number of people the pantry serves has roughly tripled. Hundreds of families across Brimfield, Holland, Wales, and more than 20 surrounding communities now rely on the pantry for nutritious food provided with dignity. The pantry also sends weekend food home with 85 elementary students through its Backpack Program and delivers to more than 40 homebound neighbors.

In the immediate area there are no grocery stores and limited public transportation, making the pantry a critical lifeline. Rising costs of food, housing, and healthcare continue to push more households to seek help. The tournament will feature food, prizes, and the chance to make a tangible difference.

“Golf is fun, but this day is about something bigger,” said Dave Sweeney, Executive Director of the Wales Community Pantry. “Every player, sponsor, and volunteer helps us keep food on the shelves for families who need it. We’re grateful for the community’s support and excited to grow this event into an annual tradition.”

Rotary Club of Sturbridge presents Sixth Annual TREK Sturbridge Halloween 5K, 1K & Fun Walk

STURBRIDGE — Runners, walkers, families and Halloween enthusiasts are invited to hit the trails again this fall when the Rotary Club of Sturbridge presents its annual TREK Sturbridge Halloween 5K, 1K and Fun Walk on Sunday, Oct. 25.

Pre-registration is now open for the family-friendly event, according to Race Director Klaus Hachfeld. Participants can pre-register at RaceRoster.com by entering “Sturbridge” in the search field. Those who register before Oct. 19 will receive this year’s free collectible TREK Sturbridge Halloween 5K T-shirt.

“Partnering with TREK Sturbridge has become a great way to bring people together, enjoy some of Sturbridge’s beautiful trails and have a little Halloween fun at the same time,” Hachfeld said. “More importantly, every registration helps Rotary put money back into the community through scholarships for local students and support for other community projects and needs.”

All activities begin at the Old Sturbridge Village Education Center on Old Sturbridge Village Road. (Participants should note that the Education Center is not the Old Sturbridge Village Academy located near the village’s main entrance.) Parking will be available in the Education Center lot.

The event features a timed 5K Trail Run, a Fun Walk and a timed 1K Pre-Teen Run. In keeping with the Halloween spirit, participants are encouraged to come in costume. Activities begin at 9 a.m. with a free costume parade, relay races and organized games for young children at the Education Center.

The timed 1K Pre-Teen Run begins at 9:15 a.m. and is open to children ages 12 and younger. Registration is $20, and the course is accessible to participants with mobility challenges.

The timed 5K Trail Run and Fun Walk begin at 10 a.m. The course follows Old Sturbridge Village Road and the Arbutus Park Trail through the Leadmine Mountain Wildlife Conservation Lands. Registration is $35 for the 5K and $30 for the Fun Walk.

Registered runners and walkers can also compete in the Best Costume competition prior to the 11:15 a.m. awards ceremony, with winners selected by popular choice.

Race-day registration will be available beginning at 8:30 a.m. Participants may register on their own devices using a QR code available at the site. Paper registration forms will also be available for those unable to register online.

The TREK Sturbridge Halloween 5K, 1K & Fun Walk is a fundraiser of the Rotary Club of Sturbridge, with proceeds supporting the club’s scholarships for local students and other community service projects.

“People who participate in the TREK Sturbridge Halloween 5K, 1K & Fun Walk aren’t just signing up for a race,” said Sturbridge Rotary Club President, Tim Gresenz. “They’re helping Rotary continue the work we do throughout the year to support students, families and organizations in our community. We hope they’ll come out, bring the family, wear a costume and make a morning of it.”

For additional information or to become an event sponsor, contact Race Director Klaus Hachfeld at laserklaus@gmail.com or visit the Sturbridge Rotary Club Web site at <https://sturbridgerotary.com>.

Charlton Lions hold successful sandwich sale

Club members set up their tent and grills in front of Charlton Town Hall on Saturday. As other vendors and non-profits set up their booths on Sunday morning, The Charlton Lions had their grills hot and ready to serve other booth-holders and visitors with fresh sausage, egg and cheese sandwiches and hash-brown patties. As that brisk business wound down, the demand for their well-known sausage, pepper and onion grinders heated up. In addition, the Lions offered hot dogs, sauerkraut, chips and soft drinks.

The Charlton Lions Club wishes to thank Ronnie’s Seafood in Charlton for donating two cases of water; Big Bunny Market in Southbridge for 20 pounds of onions and three bushels of sweet peppers; Club President Edward Ciesluk for seltzer and iced tea, all those who patronized the booth, and the individuals who made monetary donations to the Club.

The Charlton Lions Club uses the funds it raises to provide scholarships to local graduating seniors, gifts cards to needy families at Christmas, and to support their various other charitable activities.

The Club meets at The Overlook on the second and fourth Wednesdays, beginning at 6 p.m. with a social half-hour prior to conducting its business, and often has a guest speaker. For more information about the Club and its projects, please visit thecharltonlions.com. Questions may be directed to thecharltonlions@gmail.com.
